The County Council has been asked to make a substantial grant towards the maintenance of Victoria Park, and it is hoped that the county authorities will realize their responsibility in this matter. The Park is more and more being used by rural residents since the advent of the motor car, and every Saturday sees scores of farmers having their lunch under the trees, while on band concert nights they are there in numbers in their automobiles enjoying the music. The city not only spends some $1,400 a year in looking after the Park, but has to provide $1,000 more for band concerts, so that the burden is not a light one, and if the improvements that are necessary are to be carried out the county authorities should assume a reasonable share of the cost. Among other things, a new band-stand is a necessity. The present structure has been in commission for over a decade, and it has practically outlived its usefulness, having been repaired and patched up until it is almost impossible to do anything more with it. A new stand will have to be erected before long, and it should be a structure worthy of its location, both in design and usefulness. Provision should be made in its erection for a tool-house., lavatories and a public drinking fountain, all of which conveniences are missing at present. The help of the county will be needed in carrying out such an enterprise.

STARTING RIGHT.

It is pleasing to note not only that the special committee appointed by the Ontario Government to look into the hotel situation is to begin its work at once, but that particular attention is to be paid to the summer resort facilities of the Province in an endeavour to bring conditions in Ontario to a point where a much larger influx of visitors can be satisfactorily looked after. Some people object that the Legislature is going far afield in this particular investigation, and that the Provincial Government has other more important business than hotel accommodation to deal with. That may be quite true, but at the same time The Examiner believes that the Ontario Government is quite justified in endeavouring to bring about better conditions in Ontario hotels, for this Province is one of the great summer playgrounds of the Continent, and the number of tourists will be only limited by the accommodation that is furnished. With her hundreds of beauty spots, her wonderful lakes and rivers, Ontario, already popular with summer visitors, would be the mecca of thousands more who would gladly flock in if they were assured that they could find comfortable quarters. The special committee of the Legislature have decided to pay special attention to this angle of their inquiry, and they are wise in agreeing upon that policy. A successful solution of the problem will mean a great deal to the Province.

HOT WEATHER PHILOSOPHY.

Cultivating the philosophic mind is perhaps the best antidote for the discomforts of hot weather, says The Kingston Whig. There will be many hot periods during the present summer, and it is certain that grumbling about them will not help. No doubt advice on this point will be more or less wasted. It always has been; yet to give it may be none the less worth while. One disadvantage is inevitable in a climate that ranges over so many degrees of temperature as ours. Our habits are adapted to the months of the year which are not tropical. If we were nearer the Equator our houses, our hours of work and all the rest would be arranged accordingly; as it is, we have to fall back on temporary expedients.

With electric fans and other devices to keep us cool indoors, the main things to be considered are clothing and food. In respect to the former we have learned a good deal within the last quarter of a century. Women always dressed in light stuffs in summer, but for a long time men were not sensible. Now the thinnest of clothing is available for everyone. It is, for one thing, fortunately low in price. It is a man's own fault if he dresses uncomfortably. The practice of "bundling up," for that matter, is as undesirable in winter as in summer, especially with our overheated houses and public buildings.

In the matter of food Canadians still have much to learn. Many persons engaged in indoor occupations eat too heartily all the year around. But in summer to eat lightly is a duty to oneself. Nature has provided the kind of food most needed—fresh fruits and vegetables. It is easy to live for a week at a time on these, with fish and salads and no meat or sweets at all. There has been a general change for the better in this direction, to be sure, but a surprising number of persons still stick to a meat diet throughout the year. No wonder they feel the heat unduly.

Still, when all is said and done, the philosophic mind is the best specific. Watching the thermometer is the worst preparation for bearing the burden and heat of the day, and fretting over what can't be helped adds by mental suggestion to the physical distress. It is often the case that the busy suffer less from the heat than the idle. The reason is that they occupy their minds.

RELIEF FOR SOLDIER SETTLERS.

The Re-establishment Committee of the House of Commons which has been investigating such problems as pensions, insurance and land settlement has submitted its recommendations to Parliament.

That portion of Mr. Marler's report dealing with land settlement suggests relief in the form of easier payments for returned soldiers who went on the land previous to October first last. The committee takes cognizance of the fact that prices of many of the commodities with which soldier settlers were supplied were abnormally high in 1919, 1920 and 1921, and that since then there has been considerable deflation, while values of farm produce also have dropped to low levels. The Soldier Settlement Act as it stands provides for the repayment of loans for stock and equipment in from four to six years, and, in view of the serious economic depression which has affected agriculture generally, many soldier settlers have very burdensome payments during the next few years. To ease this burden the returned soldier bodies represented to the committee that there should be a general revaluation of soldier farms, a spread of the stock and equipment loans over a long period, and a remission of interest for two or three years.

While the Soldier Settlement Board through its Chairman, Major John Barnett, was able to show that in abandonment cases, where farms have been completely sold out, the land itself was disposed of to other settlers at a profit, it was conceded that there has been a considerable drop in the values of livestock and farm implements and that the men settled in the years mentioned are laboring under a serious handicap. Revaluation was not favored by the board, nor was it accepted by the committee as the best method of affording the relief asked for.

The committee suggests amendments to the act by which all loans, whether fo. land or equipment, will be consolidated and made repayable in 25 years; and the settler established prior to October first, 1921, exempted from interest payments for periods of from two to four years: four years in the case of the settler who was established in 1919, that being the peak year of prices; three years for the man established in 1920 and two years for the man established in 1921 prior to the first of October.

The country generally will be disposed to accept these changes as offering every encouragement to soldier settlers to remain on the land. Anything that will lighten the burden of payments during the first few years and enable the settl successfully to carry on should be welcomed. Under the old scheme of repayments the ex-soldier's burden was heaviest during the first six years. Under the new scheme it will be lightest during that period. It is expected that this relief will enable him to get nicely on his feet before he is called upon to make very substantial repayments on his loan.

The committee is to be commended for its sympathetic treatment of all questions relating to the returned man. The enquiry into land settlement problems was conducted by a sub-committee, with Mr. Alfred Spearman, M.P. for Red Deer, as Chairman, and every consideration was given to suggestions looking to the amelioration of the conditions which have been due largely to the war's aftermath and the serious depression which has affected agriculture generally.—Ottawa Journal.

A PRINCE COMES HOME.

To-day the streets of London are decked with flags and bunting and the highways of the Empire's great capital are lined with men and women in countless concourse to welcome home a young Prince who deserves their plaudits, as he has won their affections, remarks the Montreal Star.

When it was announced last autumn that the Prince of Wales would make an extended trip to India and the Orient there were not lacking loyal men and women who disapproved such a journey. Some went so far as to say that the unrest which was seething in India would be fanned into open flame if the King-Emperor sent his son to accept the due homage of his subjects. It was a tribute to the affection in which the Prince is held in the hearts of millions of people that the most pronounced opposition to his mission arose from anxiety for his safety, from fear lest the hand of some fanatic should accomplish its murderous design.

The Prince rode forth fearlessly and cheerfully, as becomes a scion of the royal house. He embarked on his great voyage with the inspiration of that strong sense of duty which has so often been the guiding motive of his forbears. To-day the heart of an Empire goes out to a mother who embraces her son in thankfulness, as thousands of mothers do week by week, and to a father whose joy is heightened by his pride in his son's achievements.

This has been no tourist trip that the young Prince has taken. If his pleasures and his enjoyments have been uppermost in the pictures of his voyage which the cables have transmitted, it has been because the central figure is so intensely human, so full of vital enjoyment, so eager for the full zest of life. Of no journey could it be more truly said that an ambassador of Empire has been abroad. How many discontented and at times angry men has he won with his infectious smile? How many passions have been allayed by the speaking of the right word? Unrest in India has diminished and thousands have pledged new vows of loyalty since the Prince walked among them.

Who can measure the effect on world peace of the Prince's courtesy and his bearing in Japan. Can a hand-clasp be weighed in the scale against a solemn treaty? The journey has been a wonderful experience for the Prince and an immeasurable benefit to the Empire.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Hon. Mr. Fielding should have little trouble in carrying his domestic loan through to success. The Victory loan campaigns have paved the way.

BATTLE AT MINE

Many Casualties when Army of Miners attacked Stronghold

HERRIN, Illinois, June 22.—(Canadian Press).—Fourteen men were killed, two others are dying and more than a score were wounded yesterday afternoon when an army of miners estimated to number more than 5,000, stormed the stockade of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's Mine, six miles from this city, according to reports reaching here to-night.

The majority of the dead are mine guards, it is said. The battle lasted more than four hours. At 7 o'clock last evening a white flag was hoisted from inside the stockade, with a request for a conference.

Shooting Continued To-Day

HERRIN, Illinois, June 22.—(Canadian Press)—Sounds of occasional shots were heard early to-day form the direction of the mining camp near here where striking Union Miners surround camp in which approximately 100 non-union men are quartered. Sounds of explosions, said to be dynamite blasts also were audible here.

JACK THREATENS TO BREAK WITH ME OVER PEARLS.

LXX.

"Fortunately for both of us, I can do as I like. You'll see, when it's over, Jack dear. I intend to go down down to-morrow morning and pay our debts—and have enough left to live upon until you find what you want."

"Very well — so far as you are concerned, my dear. But when it comes to spending Barnick's gift, you'll have to count me out."

"You mean—I'll have to choose between Barnick's offer—and you?" I stammered. "If I take—the money—I lose—you?"

"Can't you see, Peggins Just living side by side isn't marriage. You and I must see things alike or how can we be happy together?"

"We thought we could. We thought you could go your way and I mine. We prided ourselves on being pioneers in a new and better kind of marriage."

"And now we find married life isn't so easy to make over," said Jack. "Just now it seems to me like any other partnership. In any combination of two human beings, one has got to have the final word."

"An obsolete theory," I put in. "Quite different from our little scheme of equal rights, equal duties and all that. You are to play chess—and be gone any night—up to any hour—and I am not to care!"

"And you were to play emotional theatre parts opposite a former suitor—and I was not to care. You cold take long walks in the moonlight with the handsomest man we know and I was to keep still!! Peggins, I have kept still!"

"But—but—" I stammered, not at all understanding, "you easily could be silent about that because—when—have I taken a moonlight stroll with any man, handsome or not"

"My dear girl! Have you forgotten your journey back to nature in the pines with Bart Elliott? The first night of our motor tour?"

"Did it mean so little to you that youve forgotten? Well, it means more to me. I can't forget. You and the girls had gone to your rooms. I went into the woods to smoke, couldn't sleep.

"I missed—you—parted from you—the first night. I saw you and Bart in the moonlight—that tweed suit of yours and the gay red hat. I couldn't comprehend, thought I saw a ghost, went to your room and knocked. Jeanne said you were not there."

The situation that night flashed before my minds eye, and aroused in me that queer bit of perverseness in my nature which makes me dumb when I am unjustly criticized. I colld not explain, I would not defend myself. Said I to Me:

"Those pearls! I guess they've brought me as much bad luck as good."

WILLIAM SKUCE IN SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mr. William Skuce, of Mount Horeb, was the victim of a serious accident when his right leg was broken above the ankle.

Mr. Skuce was engaged in hauling a motor truck loaded with furniture en route from Lindsay to Peterborough, out of a hole in the hill west of Mount Horeb on the Ops-Lindsay boundary. The truck skidded and one of the wheels passed over his leg. Dr. Clarke, of Lindsay, attended to his injuries and it will be two or three months before he has the use of the limb.

Mr. Skuce had the cords of the same leg injured on the occasion of the accident at Pottery Corners when his wife was fatally injured. He was just recovering from the effects.

ENCOURAGE MINING.

OTTAWA, June 22. — (Canadian Press). — The announcement of a vigorous and sustained policy of encouragement for the mining industry in Canada was made last night by the Hon. NORWOOD APPEALS TO COUNTY IN ITS HIGH SCHOOL CRISIS

Must Increase the Accommodation But School Section Cannot Undertake Further Expense — Will Restrict Attendance Unless County Assumes It.

DEPUTATION'S PLEA.

Facing the repugnant alternative of having to close their doors against many students from all part of East Peterborough, the Norwood Board of Education appealed to the County Council on Wednesday afternoon to take over the control and management of the Norwood High School and to establish it as a county high school according to the plan prescribed by the Department of Education for such changes. The deputation from the board was composed of Messrs. E. P. Cuffe, John Marks, E. C. Squire, Hugh Cuthbertson, J. G. Keefer, Thomas Watson and J. W. Rork. Ex-Reeve B. W. Squire was also present and briefly emphasized to the Council the seriousness of the emergency that had arisen.

The High School Inspector had virtually ordered the opening of a new room in the High School to relieve the congestion and properly to take care of the classes. This is the only high school in the county, except the Collegiate Institute in Peterborough, and has always attracted children from the townships, and also from the villages of Lakefield and Havelock, in addition to others from outside the county, particularly from the district around Hastings.

In conveying their request, the several speakers for the deputation referred to the many petitions coming before the Council from time to time, but stressed the fact that this matter of adequate accommodation for the children of the county who passed their entrance examinations was in every way extraordinary and deserving of the most careful consideration.

The Norwood High School is free of debt and has one vacant but unfurnished room now available. It is proposed that the county assume the school as a going concern free of encumberances and supervise its management as a county institution. The request was referred to the Committee on Schools.

Mr. Cuffe's Address.

School Section No. 8, Asphodel, embraces the village of Norwood and the adjoining part of the township within a radius of about a mile and a half, with a population of 800.

"For the lost 50 years Norwood High School has been famed for its success," said Mr. Cuffe, "and at no time has it been more successful than in recent years. The Provincial Inspector has demanded that we furnish a fourth room, etc., which would require a heavy outlay. We feel that we can't add that tax to our small school section. More than 50 per cent. of our taxes in Norwood are for school purposes. We, therefore, ask you to enlarge the boundaries of the Norwood High School section to the boundaries of the county. In other words, that you establish the school as a county high school."

Mr. Cuffe said that an effect of the new Adolescent Act would probably be the filling of the additional fourth room to its capacity. In the event of the Council declining to adopt the school, the board would be compelled first to close the school doors to children from outside Peterborough County, thereby losing a grant of $680. It would also have to exclude many children from this county, who would be forced to attend high schools in nearby counties. The Peterborough Collegiate Institute and the Lakefield High School were crowded and Havelock's High School was nearly full.

"We must have help if we are to carry on the only high school in the county and keep pace with the times and according to its traditions," said Mr. Cuffe, who pointed out that No. 8 School Section had borne 20 per cent. of the cost of educating the boys and girls from the other municipalities.

Mr. J. G. Keefer.

"We feel that we are up against a difficult problem, and the solution must be found without delay, as we have the demand of the Provincial High School Inspector to provide a fourth teacher," said Mr. Keefer. "The entrance class is larger than ever to my knowledge, and this will further increase the High School attendance. The Adolescent Act will greatly increase the attendance of all schools. Our only alternative is to limit attendance. The department has referred us to the statute by which a high school may be taken over by a county. We appeal to the County Council because this is the only solution of the problem. The limiting of attendance would be a great detriment to the boys and girls of this county."

Mr. Keefer emphasized the fact that the High School was entirely paid for, that it had graduated a large number of boys and girls who were now occupying prominent places in this country, and that some of its graduates were members of the County Council. Of Norwood's 47 mill tax rate 24.4 mills are required for school taxes, and the county's only contribution to the cost of the school was six per cent. of the last debenture.

Lakefield Growing, Too.

Warden Strickland: "Would it ease the situation if Lakefield had a high school? The department has been urging us to convert our Continuation School into a high school."

Mr. Cuffe: "I can't say that it would, from the fact that, to my knowledge, Lakefield has not stood in the way of attendance at Norwood's High School. We must settle this matter immediately."

Replying to Mr. Anderson's inquiry about the assessment of School Section No. 8, Asphodel, Mr. Cuffe said that the outlay last year, less the Legislative grant and fees, was $6,950, of which the county paid $3,061. The remainder was paid by outside counties and No. 8 section, the latter's requisition being $3,209, which Mr. Cuffe said was very heavy. In a supplementary remark, he said that a levy of one-quarter of a mill over the county was needed to meet the request of the Norwood board. He also said that there was no overlapping of the accounts of the Norwood Public and High Schools.

County Would Appoint.

"We'd welcome Lakefield and Havelock as high schools," said Mr. Cuffe. "I think Hastings County has five high schools. It would be very serious if we in Peterborough made it so that our boys and girls had to go away from home for their education. We can educate them cheaper here."

Mr. Anderson: "Could you go ahead and make any expenditure you wished if the County took over the school?"

Mr. Cuffe: "I think the County Council appoints the trustee board. It would be your school the same as any other institution."

It was stated that the extra room is available, but not in use. It is heated and lighted, but requires new seats and another teacher at a salary of about $1,200, of which sum the Government would pay 10 per cent.

THE COUNCIL MAY CLOSE THE SCHOOL.

On learning of the conditions in School section No. 8 and No. 12 Otonabee here the prospects for the balance of the year seems to be only one or two children to attend school at the most, the Council had a general discussion and the opinion was it would be better to have these sections closed until there were more scholars, if the child or children could be sent to the nearest adjoining school section. The discussion was left over till the next meeting to consider the best means of relieving situation.

The following accounts were passed and Council adjourned to meet July 17th.

phasized the importance of organization and he berated the delegates severely about the proper way to support a candidate He took issue with the statement of the U. F. O. that the two old parties were a failure. In a forceful manner he reviewed the progress of this country since Confederation during which time he pointed out the two parties held sway. 'No state in the world—I think I am safe in saying—has enacted more progressive legislation than has been given by the two parties that this new movement hopes to destroy," he said.

The Dominion Elections showed a waning strength in the Progressive movement he thought and the election of Hon. Arthur Meighen in North Grenville was in his opinion an indication of the situation. He charged the Drury administration "with seeking to use the farmers of this country to secure and retain political power" and they were also he alleged: "seeking to retain power by encouraging class prejudice and class strife."

The present government was elected while agriculture was prosperous and speaker said he was at a loss to understand why the U.F.O. wanted to destroy the government that made prosperity possible. He went so far as to intimate that he thought an important reason they went into power was through the liquor interests being ready to support any opposition to the Tory government that enacted Prohibition. One of the first acts of the new administration he said was to relieve the business assessment of distilleries.

The meeting ended with three rousing cheers for the proposed candidate whose likely participation in politics had been the subject of much discussion before the meeting. Rev. Belford who is commonly known as Major Belford on account of his war service has followed politics closely and as he is a fluent speaker has been called into any campaigns. He was born in Brighton township where he is mixing farming and preaching at the present time. He went west when he was 21, spent 16 years there and was 15 years in Quebec Province. He got his Theology at Bishops College, Lennoxville and University of Manitoba He was overseas four and one half years as chaplain and combatant.

MUTINY IN NORTHERN FORCES

Troops Fire Towns and Murder the Inhabitants.

SHANGHAI, June 22.—(Canadian Press).—Between ten thousand and fifteen thousand Northern forces sent against Sun Yat Sen's army in Kiang-si Province mutinied at Kianfu, burned portions of Kianfu and other nearby cities, and killed thousands of the residents, according to unconfirmed, but apparently authentic, reports from various sources at Hankow and Nanchang. The troops were under the command of General Tsai Chen-Hsun, military commander of Pekin.

ATROCIOUS MURDERS.

Old Man Riddled With Bullets.

BELFAST, June 22.—(Canadian Press).—Shortly before curfew last night shots were heard in the vicinity of Newlson Street, in the York Street area. Police who hurried to the scene found a young man lying in a pool of blood. He has not been identified. The shooting of William Miller, aged 70, was particularly atrocious. Hearing a knock at the door he opened it, whereupon four men rushed in. Suspecting murderous intentions, Miller fled to the back yard of his home, but was pursued and riddled with bullets.

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning, and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

COUNTY COUNCIL'S RECEPTION DAY FOR MANY DEPUTATIONS

Agricultural Associations, Children's Aid Society, City's Parks Committee and Others Left Their Cards at Wednesday's Review.

Old Friends Welcomed.

Wednesday was deputation day for the County Council. The visitors came early and late in detachments and waves, piling up claims for careful attention and consideration that threatened a night session, in view of the Thursday afternoon recess for the U.F.O. picnic ot Lakefield. Ed. Hawthorne and Jack Roxburgh convoying the amiable gentlemen who assume the responsibility and deserve the credit for the Norwood fair, were first in line. Thompson Bredin and Bernard Dench, of Lakefield, reminded the Council of the needs and ambitions of the Lakefield Fair, and by way of variation, the Plowmen's Association sent Wm. Cleghorn, Harry Webber and Chas. E. Moore, with the message that although the Provincial match would be held nearby, at Reaboro, this year, the Peterboro Association had decided to put on their show as usual with several added classes one of which was open to all comers.

Rollie Denne conducted his party from the Peterboro Exhibition with a regret that their appointment, which had been made for Thursday afternoon, conflicted with the U. F. O. outing, and necessitated a last minute change that prevented many of the directors being summoned to the pleasure of interviewing the councillors.

This deputation included Messrs. W. R. Breyfogle, Wm. Steinkraus, H. G. Webber, E. B. Fowler, Dick son Hall, Vincent Eastwood, C. E. Moore and T. N. D. Kelly.

Later came Mrs. Joseph Knox, Mrs Welsh, Aldermen Stocker, John Edgar and Frank H. Dobbin, representing the Children's Aid Society, and as a variant to the reception of the old and somewnat importunate friends, who always find the -welcome side of the mat turned up and the treasury closely tyled and guarded although some of the ratepayers may have occasional doubts about the vigilance of the watch dogs of the bank account, the Norwood Board of Education arrived in a body asking the council to assume the Norwood High School as a County High School.

And just about the time that the stands were beginning to fill at Riverside Park and some of the members were gettirg impatient to join Jake Solomon, and were wondering whether the gathering clouds had another splash of rain for the parched crops, Mayor Taylor and Aldermen Gainey broke in on the tag end of a debate on the vexed question of whether the villages were or were not tide up to the county roads system.

From City Council.

After Warden Strickland had returned to the chair for the 'steenth time, Mayor Taylor introduced Ald. Gainey, chairman of the Parks Committee, who enumerated various reasons why the county should increase its grant toward the upkeep of Victoria Park. Not only did he refer to the work that was being done in the beautification of the property in which the county had a material interest, but he brought out a new aspect of its utility in the statement that people from the nearby townships motored in to hear the band concerts and many others on weak days enjoyed their homer :de lunches in al fresco style beneath the shade trees of the park.

That seems to have been all the deputations. Mr. Henderson Nesbitt, turnkey at the jail, enquired about the Council's action with his resignation, and when the Warden replied that the members wished him to continue and had accordingly taken no action, he said that he wished to be relieved of the position as he felt he was unable to carry on the work and duties entrusted to him.

The Peterborough Exhibition.

"We propose, if we can see our way clear, to build another cattle barn," said Mr. Denne in supporting the Peterborough Exhibition Board's plea for a grant of $2,000. "We got our grant of $1,875 from the Dominion Government. That money is applied on our prize-list in the utility classes, and goes back to the farmers. We are now up with the big shows, and we must have proper buildings to carry on. We help the other shows in the district by the stock that is fitted up for our exhibition also going to them. We hadn't enough room last year even with the new cattle barn, and from all indications we will have bigger entries than ever."

Mr. Webber's Argument.

Mr. H. G. Webber expressed the hope that the Council would appropriate the full amount asked for. "We think you should build this cow barn for us. We are right in competition now with Ottawa and London, and we are going to try to beat Ottawa. In five years we have come up from far down the list to the fourth exhibition in Ontario, and I believe you are satisfied with the way we have spent the money you have given us. We feel the County Council should back us up generously in our requirements. When we make our budget we cut to the last dollar. I really can't see where you can turn us down."

Mr. Webber emphasised the importance of the educational advantages of the Exhibition and its special benefits to the farmers of this county and district.

$4,000.00 to Breeders.

"We paid $4,000.00 in prizes to breeders and vegetable growers last year," said Mr. Moore, "and the amount will be much greater this fall. Consider the young men of the county as breeders. Give them something to strive for, and in this way you will help along our agricultural interests as well as any other way I know of."

Mr. V. Eastwood.

Mr. Eastwood said he was well aware that the taxes in the city and the county were at a high figure. He briefly reviewed the causes of this condition. "We've got to pay our debts, and we are a nation that will pay, but we are not doing it now. We are letting our debt lap over. It will have to be paid out of the products of the cattle and the fruits of our farms. The work of the Exhibition Board, whose members gave a great deal of time to it, was to improve the conditions of the farmers through better stock and keener interest in agriculture.

"We owe $5,000.00 due to developments, and we come to you confidently asking you to help put us in a position to carry on this work. I claim that there isn't a dollar expended, in so far as taxes go, that is spent better thon in your grant to the Peterborough Exhibition, and I believe you can meet your taxpayers without being shamefaced about your grant. There isn't a dollar wasted. No member is on the Board for any personal compensation. I know that in your ordinary expenditures you are supposed to eliminate things that are not necessary, but this is one of the best ways to improve the herds of this country."

Mr. Noble Kelly said the Council should regard the grant to the Peterborough Exhibition as an investment by the County. All the money went back to the farmers, and it was not a case of their not getting it again.

Ploughmen Plod On.

Like the other appeals, this was referred to the Finance Committee. The Ploughmen asked for $200.00, and the Children's Aid Society for their full regular grant of $600.00.

Ald. Stocker said that the last five children admitted to the Shelter were from the county. To Reeve Nicholls he admitted this was rather out of the ordinary, but it was contended that 60 per cent. of the children were from the rural parts, many from the back townships, who simply had to be provided for.

Mr. Dobbin stated that there never was a time in the history of Peterborough when there were so many cases coming under the attention of social workers. The number of deserted wives was appalling, as was also the number of children left destitute.

Mr. Melville Meiklejohn son of Dr. H. J. Meiklejohn, Winnipeg, is visiting at the home of his uncle, Mr. Peter Meiklejohn, Seymour East.

Miss Mae Chaplin who has been attending Toronto Normal School is spending her holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Chaplin.

Miss Josephine Longmore, who has been attending Toronto Normal School is with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Longmore.

Mr. E W. Gordon of Warkworth was in town on Wednesday.

Miss Winnifred Hay, B. A. who has been attending Faculty in Toronto, is holidaying at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Hay.

Mr. J. F. McGregor, Town Clerk and Mr. R. W. Scott, manager of the local Utilities Commission are at Niagara Falls, attending the annual convention of the Municipal Utilities Association.

Mr. Ross Scarlett of Toronto, is a visitor in town.

FOR WEDDING CAKE

Small white boxes to hold the wedding cake are frequently made more individual by the addition of the bride's monogram in gold letters. A sprig of orange blossoms and a white satin ribbon to tie it make this a thing of beauty as well as a joy to sleep on.

NEARLY LOST HER LIFE NURSING DYING MOTHER

"For six months I had to devote all my spare time to nursing my mother who was slowly dying of an incurable disease. Not being well-off we couldn't afford the services of a nurse, so I had to be with her day and night.

She was a large woman and it took all my strength to lift her. Realizing that she had not long to live, she naturally wanted me with her all the time and any spare time which I could snatch from my housework I gave to her. Four months ago she died and an hour after the funeral I went into a dead faint. The loss of sleep, the worry and the extra day and night work had finally been more than I could stand. They put me to bed. I contracted a high fever and was delirious for some days. For a while our doctor gave up all hopes of saving my life. However, I did succeed in pulling through but the strain and the illness had shattered my nerves. Worry and trouble had left me a physical wreck. I was so weak I couldn't lift my hands to my mouth. For two weeks I had to be fed. I gradually got a little stronger but not strong enough to get out of bed. I was determined that I would not give up. Finally one day a friend suggested trying Carnol. I was so anxious to get strong that I was willing to try anything. I never would have believed that any preparation would have made such a change in so short a time as Carnol did with me. To day, thanks to Carnol, I feel fine—in fact I never felt better."

Mrs. S. of Hamilton.

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 9-122

DISCUSS RAILWAYS.

OTTAWA, June 22. —(Canadian Press.)— Recommendations of the special house committee on railway transportation costs were largely discussed at a Conservative caucus yesterday, together with a general review of the legislation still before the house. It is understood that the Conservatives will caucus again on Friday.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, dgestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

METHODISTS LOSE CHURCH PROPERTY.

WINNIPEG, June 22. (Canadian Press.) — Thousands of dollars' worth of property owned by the Methodist church in Manitoba is placed in jeopardy by the creation of independent union churches throughout the province, it developed at the Methodist conference here yesterday following the submission of the church property report. It was declared that not only land but parsonage furniture, church pews and sacred vessels have been sold and have passed out of the jurisdiction of the church.

A definite check will be kept in future although it was stated that it was not the intention of the conference to antagonize these union churches, but to see that property that belonged to the Methodist church is preserved until organic union with the Presbyterian body is consummated.

JUDGE HUYCKE FIXES $450 AS EXPENSES FOR RICH. LEES

Decision in Dispute Between County Council and Two Public School Inspectors — Discusses Reasonable Expenses in Travelling.

$650 WAS CLAIMED.

As a referee in the friendly dispute between the County Council and Richard Lees, Public School Inspector, over the sum he should be allowed for travelling expenses in visiting the schools under his supervision in Peterborough County, Judge Huycke submitted his award and finding to the Council some months ago. It was read yesterday, disclosing that His Honour had ordered the Council to pay Mr. Lees $450, which is $200 less than the sum of $650 he had claimed. The text of Judge Huycke's decision follows:

This is an application by the School Inspectors under the Ontario Public Schools Act, Ontario, 1920, chapter 100, section 105, sub-sections 4 and 5, which provides that, "The County Council shall also pay to the Inspector his reasonable expenses for travelling, printing, postage and stationery, and in case of dispute the amount thereof shall be settled by the Judge of the County Court upon the application of the Inspector or of the Council and the decision of the Judge shall be final."

I take up first the application of Mr. Lees, his being the larger and more important claim.

Review of Antecedents.

It seems that for some years an agreement has been in operation by which Mr. Lees received a lump sum of $400.00 per year in lieu of such expenses. This was afterwards increased for one or two years to $500.00, but only in view of the increased expense of everything during the latter part of the war. The Council propose to reduce it to its original figure, $400.00, whereas Mr. Lees puts in figures showing, according to his ideas, a liability of some $650.00 per year. The statute does not necessarily seem to contem plate such fixed amounts; but, of course, the parties can agree to it if they wish, and they apparently have done so. What I would think, from the reading of the statute, is contemplated, would be that the Inspector put in a statement of his expenses for travelling, printing, etc., with particulars, and that it be paid by the Council, and if disputed then reference to the Judge. However, they have chosen to fix a lump sum in lieu of items of expense, and I cannot see that they are going beyond their powers in so doing. It will probably save trouble and inconvenience in looking after small items. There are minor expenses which are not seriously disputed.

The most serious contentions are regarding the cost and upkeep of a motor car and the expenses of meals, lodging, etc.

Council's Refusal.

Mr. Lees has a McLaughlin car, which he used for making his trips of inspection. He also uses it for his own private and family purposes, but he says that is not very extensive or considerable. He asks an allowance for the upkeep and depreciation of this car of $450.00 a year, which amount the Council refuses to pay. The Council's contention is that this is an unreasonable amount, that they have no right to supply a car or depreciation, and that in any event the car is too expensive and it could be done much more cheaply. There is no doubt the Inspector is bound to utilize the cheapest transportation he can which is consistent with his comfort and dignity. The members of the Council, who were all before me, contended strenuously that it would be much cheaper for him to keep a horse, or else a Ford runabout, which is not nearly so expensive either in price or maintenance as a McLaughlin car. I think the Council is right in this contention, that if the conveyance can be done more cheaply by a horse and buggy, or a cheaper car, such as a Ford runabout, that the Inspector should use this cheaper means of locomotion, and failing that he cannot recover any more from the county than it would cost if the cheapest method were adopted.

Other Cases Decided.

I find one judgment—not in Ontario—which lays down that the cost of a motor car cannot be allowed as reasonable expenses. The official in that case was also a Public School Inspector, he being held bound to use the trains, stages, and where such is not available, hire a livery. This decision may lose force as time goes one with increased use of motor cars.

Another dispute arises, and this point was raised specifically by the Warden, Mr. Strickland, that "the reasonable expenses for travelling, etc.," does not include cost of meals, etc., when travelling, that it should be limited to the actual cost of transportation. One of the Councillors naively urged in argument that he must eat anyway wherever he is, at home or abroad, and that this should not be allowed in any case. I must confess the statute could well have been made more specific as to that point. The Legislature by a statute is supposed to say what it means, and to mean what it says. I have no right to extend it beyond its natural and proper limits, to supply any omissions or defects, neither am I justified in stretching it to meet the justice or temper the hardship of any individual case. If I added to it, I would be making the law, not interpreting it. The statute does not say that he should be paid for meals, etc. It might very well have said it, and not having done so, am I justified in saying that the "expense of travelling" includes the cost of lodging and meals?

I find one judicial authority which decides that board while at the headquarters of the official is not included in the usual expenses, but that sums paid out for board of the official while away from his usual headquarters on the employer's work would be so included. Again I find another case in which almost the exact opposite is held, this also being a case of a superintendent of public instruction. In this it was held that hotel bills incurred by the superintendent of public instruction while staying at a place for the purpose of visiting schools are not a part of the "actual travelling expenses" which are to be allowed and paid to that officer.

It will, therefore, be seen that the point is one well raised and not easy to determine. In almost similar cases similar, if not the exact, words have been given directly opposite constructions by different courts. I might add that neither of these courts referred to is in Ontario, and, therefore, not binding upon me. I cannot find that the section has ever been judicially interpreted in Ontario. If the Legislature meant that meals and lodging should be included, they might well have said so; but they did not. On the other hand, I quite realize that this matter seems to come before me rather as a friendly arbitrator, rather than as a strict judicial officer, and that the parties, apparently by having a fixed sum allowed, desire to approximate what is right, rather than have the details given, which is, as above stated, I think the proper way, though entailing more trouble.

It is self evident that it would cost the inspector more to pay for his meals away from home than if he were living at home all those days, and I think it only fair that something should be allowed him, but as to that, as above stated, there is grave doubt. I have concluded that under all the circumstances a proper amount to allow Mr. Lees for the above named "reasonable expenses" would be $450.00 per year.

This decision of mine is stated by statute to be final, but I wish to qualify that by saying that if in any near future, either the Council or the Inspector, instead of taking or paying the lump sum, desires to have the details presented that I reserve the right to them or either of them to have such done. The $450.00 will, however, stand for the year 1922.

Mr. Broderick's Claim.

With reference to Mr. Broderick, who resides in Lindsay but is Inspector for the west part of the county of Peterborough, I need not go so much in detail.

He has no car, or if so does not use it in Peterborough. He pays for his travelling, printing, postage and stationery, and also charges for his meals and lodging when away. While in Peterborough County he is quite a distance from Lindsay, his home and base of operations. I fix his allowance for the year at $175.00. This is also subject to the same conditions and reservations as the settlement in Mr. Lees' case.

New Ship "Seeandbee" Now on the Route.

The great ship "Seeandbee" is 500 feet long, 98 feet 6 inches wide, has 500 state-rooms and 24 parlors de luxe, providing sleeping accommodation for over 1,500 passengers. In magnificence of appointment she probably is not excelled by any vessel afloat.

Passengers may board C. & B. Line steamer at Cleveland or Buffalo any evening at 9.00 (Eastern Standard time), enjoy a night of refreshing sleep and arrive at destination following morning at 7.30.

A special car-by-steamer service is maintained for automobile tourists, and it is evident from the ever-increasing number of motorists who place their cars aboard C. & B. Line steamers that this service is immensely popular.

All railroad tickets reading between Cleveland and Buffalo (in either direction) are good for transportation on these steamers.

HE HAS HAD HIS BATH AND IS READY FOR HIS NAP. ....

BY MRS. MAX WEST

Late of the United States Children's Bureau.

When the baby frets and wails with discomfort after a long hot day, a bath will help matters wonderfully. In the hottest weather he may have two or three baths a day, without harm, if the bath is only a quick dip into tepid water and out again.

No soap need be used in these cooling baths, and the whole process need take only a few minutes. The water should be at body temperature, neither hot nor cold. If it is a little baby, undress him, and holding him on the mother's arm and hand, slip him into the water and wet the whole body completely. Then lift him out into a large towel and dry the skin by patting, not rubbing.

If the baby is older, and can sit alone, he may play and splash for a few moments. It is necessary to dry between the toes and in the folds and creases of the skin, and when thoroughly dry a little dusting powder may be applied.

The regular daily bath, usually given in the morning, being for cleansing, should be warmer, but never hot. Every mother should possess a bath thermometer, and should regulate the water by it.

A litle purecast ile soap may be used, but when any sort of soap is applied to a baby it should be thoroughly rinsed off to avoid danger of irritating the tender flesh.

Other baths, useful in summer, are bran, starch and soda. To make a bran bath, fill a small cheesecloth bag with clean bran and soak and squeeze in the bath until the water is milky.

Let the baby stay in the bath a few minutes, and the skin will be slightly coated with a thin paste which is soothing in case of prickly heat. A starch bath is made by adding a cup of cold cooked laundry starch to a gallon of water. The use and effect are similar to the bran bath.

For a soda bath, dissolve two tablespoons of cooking soda in a gallon of water. This, too, is soothing in a heat rash.

A sponge bath, meaning one in which the baby is washed off while lying on the mother's lap and not put into the tub is better than no bath, but it is far better to use a tub.

Any sort of clean pan will answer for a baby's bathtub, and in hot weather frequent dips will afford him no end of relief and comfort.

RELIGIOUS TEACHING.

Manitoba Methodists Advocate Week Day Study For Children.

WINNIPEG, June 22.—(Canadian Press).—Religious teaching for children during week days was recommended by the Manitoba Methodist Conference in session yesterday. The organization of a board in all towns and community centres in the Province was recommended, the board to include clergy and Sunday school superintendents and public school boards.

MANY SEEK POSITIONS.

OTTAWA, June 22.—(Canadian Press).—More than 100,000 persons applied for positions in the Government service, through the Civil Service Commission, during the year 1921. Of this number the Commission examined more than 21,000 applicants and assigned 10,950 to positions. This information is given in the annual report of the Civil Service Commission which has been presented to Parliament.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

When a man wants a new wife, he applies to the head rajah. Polygamy is the rule.

A man may have as many wives as he can maintain, but he is obliged to take a separate house for each of them.

(Beauty Topics.)

With the aid of a delatone paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or fuzz from face, neck and arms. Enough of the powdered delatone and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delatone in an original package and mix fresh.

Information For The Farmer

When farmers listen in for the latest reports on the weather, market conditions and other matters of agricultural interest, two persons in Washington see that he gets the right information in the right way.

One is C. A. Bauer, of the Post Office Department, whose duty it is to broadcast information to the farmer by radio.

The other is Miss Katherine G. Rice, who checks up on Bauer and sees that the broadcast reports are being received properly by farmers with radio receiving sets.

Miss Rice is market editor of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. She uses a simple radio receiving set, designed by the U. S. Bureau of Standards, to check back the market and other information sent out by the department and by Bauer.

Bauer is called the "farmers' friend." His broadcasting station is WWX, from which he sends out daily at regular intervals, weather forecasts, market prices and lectures of interest to farmers.

In the picture are Miss Rice at her set and, inset, Bauer.

RADIO CADET CORPS IS A START

A DETAIL OF THE RADIO CADET CORPS. ARROW SHOWS COL. ERNEST E. SCHEUBLE. AT RIGHT, CADET IRVING GLANTZ, 10, HOLDING WHAT IS CLAIMED TO BE THE FIRST RADIO SET.

By COL. ERNEST E. SCHEUBLE,

Commander, Radio Cadet Corps.

NEW YORK.—Eventually everyone will be a radio fan.

So why not start breaking him in early?

That's what we are doing in our Radio Cadet Corps, the first organization of its kind in the country.

At the age of 9 we begin teaching the youngster the fundamentals of wireless. By the time he is 12 or 13, he is a full-fledged fan—knowing enough about a radio set to make practical use of it.

He can rig up his outfit anywhere. He can "listen in" and receive not only the broadcast programs, but the code messages that are flashing through the air at all times.

The call of radio seems universal. The boy in the crowded city is just as keen to become an adept at it as is his brother on the farm.

Organization.

The boys had heard so much about signalling in the war that they wanted to try their own hands at it.

Each week they would meet in a room of the Public Library. There they learned the code.

There was little equipment, so some of the boys started to make their own sets. Others became interested.

When the radio craze struck the country last fall these boys were ready. They organized new units.

There are several hundred in the corps now—and the number is growing rapidly.

I see no reason why similar groups should not be organized throughout the country.

For disciplinary reasons it is suggested that the corps be formed on a military basis—with some distinctive uniform to give the group a solidarity.

It will help make them snappy.

We are now going on week-end hikes. No matter where we camp out the boys are always able to keep in touch with their homes—by radio.

It is rapidly becoming the new outdoor sport.

Impressions of the Visitors to Canada Are Always Interesting

The impressions of visitors from the Old Land coming to Canada for the first time are always rather interesting. A guest of Mrs. E. N. Frederick on a recent week end trip here was Mrs. H. Johnston, of Edinburgh, Scotland, who came out last October and is returning home in the early part of July. Mrs. Johnston is a teacher of vocal music in Scotland, a singer and elocutionist of ability. A recital was given by her in Winnipeg, but most of her time here was spent with relatives in Broadview, Sask. When asked of her impressions of the west, she remarked that it seemed more like a living representation of the life described in "Alice in Wonderland" than anything she had every experienced. The effect of living in a public place was achieved by many of the houses in the smaller centres, with their living-rooms to which one steps directly from the street, and their kitchen open to the world at large. The excessive heat maintained in Canadain homes throughout the winter was also commented on, with the opinion offered that this was responsible for much of the epidemic of colds to which we are subject. Mrs. Johnston chose the attic as her residence during the severe western winter, and had her eyelids frozen on one occasion.

Another thing that impressed her was the irresponsibility of the children, who have "a wonderful amount of freedom here. I wonder if it will be beneficial for them later on." Life in a small mid-western village proved exciting enough to the more conservative-minded British visitor. A clergyman who chanced to dispute his wife's superior judgment in a certain matter was chased unceremoniously out of the house, followed by a large plate, and a difference of opinion as to who should attend to the accommodation of their cow family which took place between a father and son was settled by a fistic encounter, in which the senior combatant came off victorious, with the result that the son attended to stable accommodations thereafter.

The lack of caste restrictions in this country was regarded as a sign of national development, although it was present in some communities, even in this democratic land, according to the observer. The lady liked the method of the Canadian men, in addressing an older woman as "Ma'am," and said that civility in casual social intercourse had almost become a thing of the past in Scotland, where the so-called lower classes had developed a rather antagonistic and churlish attitude. They were glad enough to be polite to those who treatd them fairly, but had an antipathy to the class that they designate as being "jumped on," probably the equivalent to our "nouveau riche."

Gasoline Instead of Ice Cream

"Gasoline instead of ice cream." That is one of the signs of the times; the substitution of "air-gas" as the dictionary puts it, for the frozen sweet that has been so popular for so many years. By this we do not mean that a large portion of the citizenry has taken to a physical absorption of gasoline. Not at all. It has simply proven too severe a competitor in other ways for the frigid dainty, which is gradually being frozen out, as one might say.

According to many of the ice-cream dealers of the city, including several of the larger stores, the sales of ice-cream are decreasing, and much of the blame is laid at the door of the gasoline-consuming motor-car. It is coming to be more popular so it is asserted, for people to buy cars and go off in the evening for jaunts in them, instead of strolling around town, with an inevitable wind-up in one or more of the local ice-cream parlors. While the soda-water fountain which mixes gases with sweet syrups and ice-cream to produce delectable dainties, might be said to be languishing in an "innocuous desuetude", the gas-controlling machine that provides the wherewithal for long evening jaunts is busier than ever.

Lack of money from unemployment is also mentioned as a contributing cause, but this does not strike at the root of the matter. A certain parlor very much frequented in other days by after-theatre parties has now a small and dwindling patronage, and it is becoming less and less of common sight to behold parties of men and women, whether young or old, engaged in one of the old-time contest that use to take them around to several parlors in turn, trying to see just how much ice cream they could consume in an evening.

This decrease applies mainly to the bulk and dished variety of cream. Bricks are almost as popular as ever, and the lure of the cone never grows less. People eat cones everywhere now-a-days. On Sundays or week days, in motor-cars and on the streets whether the consumers have black or white hair, or measure three feet high or six, everybody eats cons now. Recently at a staid convention we saw two serious-looking delegates consuming ice-cream cones in a rear pew, and appearing much refreshed thereby, and just the other day, we met a small boy coming from a vendor's with five cones filled with the cool sweet, held in his two hands He was sampling each in turn as he went along, licking a nice round top of each one, as he conveyed them to a probable waiting family.

Canvass For New Hospital Building

This week, a committee of men are canvassing citizens for subscriptions to St. Joseph's Hospital, just completed. Perhaps women, in a greater degree than men understand business of nursing, in all its ramifications. Women are loud in their praise of the various means designed in the new addition to contribute to the comfort and convenience of patients. Two floors of the new addition are given up to women entirely, and the operating room will also probably have its full quota of feminine patrons, so that women might be said to form major portion of the clientele at any time. The noiseless floorings, the soft, bright-toned woodwork in the private rooms, the immaculate whiteness of the corridors and the public wards, the sun rooms with their chintz-covered wicker furniture and fern boxes; the roof garden, cool and attractive of warm days all will appeal to the women who go to the new wing of the hospital, and women will appreciate the daintiness of the furnishings, the calmness and peace of long building, the circular curves that feature arched corridors and alcoves the complete equipment of sterlizing facilities, and the compact attraction of quarters devoted exclusively to babies, with their cunning cribs, their porcelain washing tables and ivory colorings.

CAT AND DOG

The explanation of the active antipathy between the cat and dog denizens of the animal world has been placed by one authority on this basis: It seems that when Noah assembled all the animals in the Ark on the occasion of the great Flood, he brought in the wild ones as well as the tame, and when the waters had receded, and all was peace and comparatively dryness once more he sent them forth to their respective habitats, as before. But the cat was the only jungle creature that refused to leave the haunts of man, and the story goes that the dog, essentially domesticated, resented this action on the part of the feline tribe, and continues to resent it to this day. However, that may be, it isn't always the animals that make for discord around the domestic hearth.

On a certain thoroughfare in this city there may be seen almost any day reposing peacefully on the door mat a small black and white puppy and an infinitesimal grey kitten, with the guiless look and big blue eyes that cats possess only in extreme youth. These two are the best of friends, and dwell in perfect amity and concord from day to day. Here is one little doggie that does not wish to banish pussy to its jungle haunts.

The other eevning, by some mischance, the kitten was alone on the doorstep, and the door was shut. A neighboring pink-frocked curly-headed little girl was playing with it. Twisting it back forth by its tiny tail, she hurt the little thing, and small claws came out for a minute. The child became enraged, and struck the pussy a sharp, side-long blow that sent it to the ditch, curled up in a little, frightened grey ball. Another blow would have followed, had the door not providentially opened. The little tot's pretty face was dark with angry cruelty.

At the second annual meeting of the Provincial Chapters of the I.O.D.E., held recently in Hamilton, a suggestion for the furtherment of the work of the society was made by Miss Jean Arnoldi, national president, following out a letter received from Mr. Moxow, agent general, who who suggested that each Chapter make itself responsible for the welfare of an English boy from the Blue Coat Schools of England, to be placed on the farms of Canada.

A full report of this meeting, read by Mrs. F. C. Weber, who attended as a delegate from the Peter Robinson Chapter, gives some interesting sidelights on the various activities of the Order throughout Canada, chief among individual efforts being the War Memorial Hospital for the Sick Children of Western Ontario, recently erected by the London Chapter, at a cost of $382,000.

The Municipal chapter of Ottawa made it possible for all the children of soldiers in that city to remain at school, between the ages of 14 and 16 years, and Heather Municipal Chapter of Toronto sent 98 children to the Sick Children's Hospital last year, besides spending $3,215 in assisting needy mothers and families, reports on child welfare work at this convention showing that an average of $300 had been contributed by each chapter for this purpose.

It was at this convention that the Rotary Club, convening next door to the hall where the ladies were quietly revising their constitution on the first evening, suddenly took the notion to visit the delegates in a body. They marched in and out of the aisles, among the surprised ladies, singing about their "little prairie flower." Then the president of the club took the platform, and proceeded to extend the greetings of the Rotary society to the ladies, saying such very gallant things about them in general that when they finally filed out, the ladies wanted to follow them. The band which serenaded the delegates beneath their windows that night was also blamed on the Rotarians.

BY MARIAN HALE.

Mack Sennett and Annette Kellerman are the two great influences that have made the bathing suit what it is today.

Sennett found it ugly, undveloped and unimginative. By cross-breeding it with the costume of chorus girls and debutantes, he achieved luxury and picturesqueness.

And this season's suits or silks, satins, velvet, batik and lace, with corsages, jewels, feathers and fur, are all the direct descendants of his line of propagation.

Annette, on the other hand, made elimnation her motto. She pared down the bathing suit, reduced it to its simplest terms.

And her contribution is the sensible wool jersey suit, built on the premise that a woman occasionally likes to get into the water as well as loll on the beach.

The model she orginated this season has been developed in the most gorgeous colors and frequently is adorned with wool embroidery, applique or cross-stitch. It has become a three-piece costume with a long wool cape.

One of the innovations of this season is the suit with the high collar. It buttons snugly about the throat, just as grandmother's basque did, and absolutely defies the sun to redecorate the neck and shoulders of the wearer. It also has a way of concealing shoulder blades that jut far out and spoil the outline.

The gingham bathing suit, too, is a novelty ,and comes beruffled and befrilled much like the silk one.

Every beach siren has a long cape, which she uses aavantageously. These are cut much on the line of the popular street cape of the moment. They are of satin, rubber lined, or eponge or terry cloth.

Very smart ones of a fine grade of rubber are on the general plan of the Spanish scarf, with long, deep cut fringe.

* * *

Another novelty is the beach pillow, which looks like a regular pillow and is comfortable to lie on, but which contains a complete make-up outfit and some hand towels, grateful to the fair bather after an excursion in the waves.

There is some new waterproof rouge which enables you to keep up the illusion of vivid color, even while swimming! also powder that sticks in spite of the waves. There is an eyelash pencil that remembers its duty, even under water.

TO AVOID PAINS OF RHEUMATISM

This Trouble is Located in the Blood, and Relief Comes Through Better Blood.

Rheumatism comes with thin, impure blood, and can only be driven out of the system by enriching and purifying the blood.

The chief symptom of rheumatism is pain. The most successul treatent is the one that quickly banishes this disagreeable sympton. Many rheumatic people suffer pains that could be avoided by building up the blood. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in rheumatic troubles is proven by the testimony of Mrs. A. Bryson, Arthur, Ont., who says:—"I was so used up with rheumatism in my shoulders and neck that I could not turn in bed without the help of my husband, and the pain at times was almost unbearable. I took doctor's medicine which did me little or no good. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and have since been free from rheumatism. I can also recommend the pills to young mothers, as in my own case I found they are unexcelled. I may also add that I recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to a neighbor who took fainting spells at the change of life, and who could not walk any distance. She took the pills for nearly three months and they made her a strong, well woman."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont

COPPER.

Copper articles are very popular now in homes as well as studios. Teakettles, antique coffee pots and bowls of this metal make acceptable gifts.

SWEATERS.

You can buy a sweater these days for almost any price you want, but it is perfectly amazing what you can get for $10 or $15. The colors and styles were never more becoming.

MIDDY SUITS.

For children, very fascinating little middy outfits of pongee are shown. These launder very well and stand the hardest kind of wear. There are hats of the same fabric to accompany the suits.

Bridal Gowns

She comes dressed in a wedding gown of crepe this season. The traditional satin, although used, has yielded its popularity to dull ivory crepe.

Silver brocade is worn, too, and so are tucked marquisette, net trimmed with embroidery and lace or georgette beaded with pearls and crystals. Allover lace is fashionable and needs no trimming.

Most gowns have soft clinging sleeves and either round or bateau neck lines, cut rather high. Where trains are seen they are always detachable and are usually very long.

Headdresses and veils are of lace or tulle with an infinite number of variations in trimming, although clusters of orange blossoms still are favored.

RECIPES

SAVE every crumb and scrap of bread. Dried bread is one of the most important ingredients in more than one left-over.

Remember, though, that toast is a different kind of dried bread if it is buttered and do not store it with plain bread.

It is a great convenience to have bread crumbs on hand for crumbing croquettes and making scalloped dishes and puddings. The bread must be perfectly dry and crisp. Pur through the fine knife of the food chopper and store in glass cans.

Mother's Bread Pudding

Two and one-half cups stale coarse bread crumbs, milk, ¾ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 egg, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter.

Sauce—One-half cup butter, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, few gratings nutmeg.

Put at least one cup of milk in a smooth pan and bring to boiling point. Pour over bread and let stand in a warm place until milk is absorbed. Add sugar, butter, cinnamon and egg and beat well. Turn into a buttered pudding dish and bake in a moderate oven until firm to the touch. Serve warm with the sauce.

Beat butter to a cream. Slowly beat in sugar and add vanilla and nutmeg. Do not use the crusts of bread in this pudding.

Company Bread Pudding

Two cups milk, 1½ cups bread crumbs, 1½ tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1 lemon, 2 eggs, raspberry or strawberry jam.

Heat milk and pour over bread crumbs. Add sugar, butter and grated rind of lemon. Let cool and add the yolks of the eggs well beaten. Mix thoroughly and pour into a buttered pudding dish. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes or until set. Remove from oven and cover with a thick layer of jam. Beat whites of eggs till stiff and dry with four tablespoons sugar. Spread over jam and return pudding to the oven for eight minutes to color the meringue. Serve warm.

Bread Crumb Charlotte

Crisp unbuttered toast may be used for this. or let stale slices of bread stand in a moderate oven till browned through. Put through fine knife of food chopper. There should be two cups. Juice from strawberry or cherry preserves, 2 cups milk, ½ cup sugar, 3 eggs, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ cup whipping cream.

Add enough fruit sirup to the bread cumbs to moisten. Heat milk. Beat eggs with sugar and salt and stir in hot milk. Cover over hot water till mixture coats the spoon. Line a mold with bread crumb mixture. Sprinkle with preserved fruit drained from its sirup. Pour in the boiled custard and let stand on ice for three or four hours till thoroughy chilled. Serve with whipped cream.

THE FINE ART OF SPENDING

By Mrs. J. E. Leslie.

Strange as it may seem, there are folks who do not know how to spend money. Seems as if it were mostly women, when you think it over.

There is a reason for it. Women are the ones who have to do the saving in the family where there is a shortage of cash. They have to count the nickels and even the pennies sometimes. They get the habit and when the time comes that they can spend, they don't know how. The pigeon hole in their brain devoted to the art of spending is warped and empty from lack of use.

Thousands of wives never know the joy of taking a friend out to lunch; do not even think of "treating" to ice cream and have a guilty feeling if they indulge in a box of candy; or refuse themselves the indulgence altogether as an unnecessary extravagance.

An extra collar and cuff set or a pretty bit of lingeries, coveted but unnecessary, are forbidden fruits, that their saving instinct will not allow them. A gift to a friend never goes beyond the stage of wishing it could be.

Many wives haven't an allowance to cover these little so-called extravagances. Many husbands can't see that wifes need such pleasure and yet there is rarely a man who will hesitate a moment if he wants to treat a friend or buy himself an extra shirt that attracts his masculine fancy.

There is no question about the necesity of saving, but saving to the exclusion of everything but the bare necessities of life, is just as unwise as not saving at all.

Let the savings fund grow a little more slowly or the little new home wait a bit longer and let Wife have the small allowance that means flowers for a sick friend, little bootees for the new baby that is coming; a few cigars as a surprise for Husband, of the expensive kind that he likes best, but does not ordinarily indulge in; lunch down town with friend—there is a joy and pleasure in the little extravagant spending that counts far more than the small amount of money they represent —broadening, too, it is, to do these things—takes one's mind away from the notion of penuriousness, and enables one to spend without feeling remorse or counting it up afterwards with a guilty feeling—which is the real art of spending.

A Big Week For 'Teen Age Girls

From July 17th to 24th will be a big week for the 'teen age girls of Peterboro for that is the time set aside by the Girls' Work Board for the first Girls' Holiday Training Camp at Stoney Lake, provided through the kindness of the Y.W. C.A.

The girls will love it, for there will be seven days of training and fun, with the best of good comradeship. There will be a Sports Day, when visitors may be invited to watch the fun. There will be stunts stories and plenty of time allowed for swimming, with talks around the camp fire each night that will help to build strong and beautiful characters and worth-while friendships. There will also be Bible Study and demonstrations and discussion of the C.G.I.T. programme.

Miss Helen Carthy, B.A. as camp director will be assisted by Mrs. W. P. Hetherington as Camp Mother, Miss Margaret Eastwood as Sports' Mistress, and Miss Ruth McLeish as Group Leader. Girls who wish to take advantage of this camp are advised to register without delay, to insure a place.

The Annual Garden Party at Riverside

The annual garden party of the Immaculate Conception in East City is being held this afternoon and evening in Riverside Park grounds. This event has always been well patronized by residents from the entire city, and doubtless this year will be as good attendance as usual.

Booths for the sale of ice-cream and home-made candy; for doughnuts and coffee or fancy work and clothing, have been erected. There is a lunch counter where all sorts of home-made goodies will be dispensed at the tea hour, and there are races and games for the juniors. Mrs. H. Gainey is acting convenor for the affair.

When the Moonshine Queen "Dared" the Police to Take Her

Well---They Just Carried Her Off as She Was, and Now the Crusading Order Against Beautiful Bootleggers Is "Treat 'em Rough"

"Kicking and Squealing, Miss Dwyer Was Bundled Into These Coverings and Thus Dragged Away to Court."

Ann Dwyer, Called by Washington Police the "Moonshine Queen," Who Failed as "Lady Godiva."

ANNIE, the queen of the moonshiners, and Bertha, the beautiful bootlegger, are no mere jokes. They are facts. Pretty girls are operating "stills" in their front parlors. Fashionably dressed women in limousines are superseding men as rum-runners. Flappers with quarts concealed in hat boxes are making home deliveries. Some are "on their own," others are hired by booze syndicates which prefer them to men. So numerous and bold are the bootlegging Berthas that "treat 'em rough" orders, applying to women suspects, have been issued by prohibition enforcement officials.

The principal hot-bed of the lady liquor dealers, according to records of the Department of Justice, is Washington. In the nation's cosmopolitan capital, where backwoods and aristocracy mix and frequently blend, the "honey bees," as the police call them, do a rushing trade.

It was in Washington that prohibition agents tried to arrest Miss Ann Dwyer, who, they had been "tipped," was conducting a "speak easy," specializing in corn whiskey.

When two agents crashed in the door of Miss Dwyer's apartment, they assert they found a copper pot bubbling merrily. Into the next room they rushed—and stopped suddenly. Miss Dwyer stood before them in very scant attire. She had seen them from the window, darted into the bedroom and stripped off nearly all her clothes.

"There!" she defied them spitefully. "You can't take me to the station house this way and I'm not going to put on a stitch!"

The officers were nonplussed. Outside it was bright noon. Their "wagon" was an open car. They seemed deadlocked between forcing a Lady Godiva ride on Miss Dwyer or leaving her at home with the copper pot and its fragrant contents.

They decided on a "blanket rush." They pulled off their coats. Kicking and squealing, Miss Dwyer was bundled into these coverings and thus dragged away to court. Even there she still refused to put on more raiment. The officers proposed to take her before the United States Commissioner in an overcoat. The Commissioner didn't like the idea. He wanted Miss Dwyer to wear something that fit just a little bit closer. Finally she was prevailed upon to don a bathing suit. In this she was given a preliminary hearing.

The case of Miss Dwyer was difficult, admittedly, for the Washington agents to handle. But even more difficult, they say, are the instances of a number of society women of limited purse but unquestioned prestige who, wink the wise boys, have taken to moonshining—and prosperity.

Mrs. Alice W. Hodgkins, a beautiful and popular matron in Washington society, was arrested by three dry sleuths who charged that she bought whiskey by the barrel, bottled it herself and kept it stored in a fashionable apartment which she called her "warehouse."

For years Mrs. Hodgkins has moved in exclusive Washington circles. Her hotel suite is flanked by the apartments of congressmen and high government officials. Her gowns, her jewels and her smart town car are the envy of many a senator's wife. She had the entree everywhere until Officers Davis, Rose and Hines suddenly accused her of bootlegging on a large scale.

Hines was introduced to her one evening as an out-of-town business man with a large thirst. He asked her to sell him a case of Scotch, he stated in his sworn charge, and she drove him to the "warehouse" and let him pick his brand. A few nights later he visited her again, accompanied by Rose and Davis. This time they carried marked money, which, they have sworn, she accepted in payment for purchased liquor. They arrested her.

"We have an airtight case against her," they asserted, "if we can just get it to trial."

"Ridiculous!" laughed Mrs. Hodgkins, after she had promptly given bond. "It's just a frame-up by some jealous busybody of a woman. I am not agitated about it even a little bit."

Getting women to trial is one matter; getting convictions is quite another. They "vamp" the juries, say the officers, or else a male confederate will shoulder the blame and the woman will go scot free.

They are even harder to catch than they are to convict. Officers patroling the national "rumway" between Washington and Baltimore hesitate to stop expensive limousines driven by modish beauties, or with a liveried chauffeur at the wheel, while milady lounges on the cushioned seats within.

Yet these are the very cars which frequently are loaded with case on case of aged whiskey and fine wines. One touring car stopped on the outskirts of Washington was driven by a pretty girl and swarmed with children. When the prohibition sleuth finally pried half a dozen youngsters out of the back, he found they had been sitting on sixteen cases of Scotch whiskey.

Children are a favorite camouflage for the women rum-runners. If they have none of their own, they borrow the neighbor's. Mothers gladly lend their kiddies for a "ride in the country," never dreaming that the kindly friend wants them only as a means to beat the blockade.

Nothing so mild as children is used by some of the bootlegging Berthas. After looking down gun-barrels held in dainty but deadly fingers, Washington dry agents have learned not to trust women motorists any more than to ignore them.

One motorcycle officer sped his machine even with a high-powered car on the Baltimore road and yelled to the driver to stop. She was a woman. Another woman sat in the back of the car, where she had spread the laprobe over a bulky heap that first attracted the officer's attention.

As the officer swung from his machine, the woman in the back of the car jerked out an automatic and fired. At the same instant, the driver stepped hard onto the accelerator. The car leaped away and the policeman was left moaning on the ground with a bullet hole through his collar bone.

Besides women rum-runners and women distillers, Washington has "delivery girls" hired by prosperous gentlemen who occupy easy chairs in luxurious offices, book orders wholesale and retail, dispatch their messengers to the warehouse and thence to the customer's—and never so much as touch a corkscrew themselves.

Washington "insiders" give an interesting picture of the methods of these bootleggers de luxe. By a pre-arranged code, callers never mention whiskey by name. It is always "I've called about a little matter," or "two little matters," or "a case I want to talk to you about." Thus is the clue given in respect to quantity.

The gentlemen in the easy chair punches a button. From another office appears a trim young girl with a notebook and a pencil. She takes down name and address. An hour or so later she appears at the front door of the customer. Perhaps she bears a brief case. Perhaps she swings a hat box from her arm. She may even bend under the burden of a traveling bag. But never, to the uninformed eye, does she look suspicious.

"We know that women are proving invaluable allies to the men in violating the prohibition law," says Commissioner R. A. Haynes. "But we find ourselves woefully handicapped in dealing with them. The trouble is that it is just as difficult to secure a conviction of a woman for the violation of the prohibition law as it is for the violation of any other law. Again, the large percentage of officers are naturally cautious about arresting a woman when to all visual evidence she is in no way violating the law."

Commissioner Haynes declares the increase of women bootleggers has made a situation which will have to be handled by the superintendents of the various districts, working in harmony with the local authorities wherever possible.

In Washington, for example, Chief Inspector Clifford L. Grant has issued orders to his men guarding incoming roads to stop every automobile, regardless of the appearance of respectability of the passengers. Insist upon search before passing the car, he charged them.

Diamond Dust

Babe Ruth's threat to put Umpire Duneen "out of the game for life" may get him into more trouble than he is already in. Perhaps he will learn some day.

With Ruth in the game the Yanks lost eight straight games. As soon as he was suspeided they won. Is his presence on the team a distrudding factor among the players, throwing them off their game

* * *

Sam Vick of Toronto team has been released at his own request. He has a cotton plantation in Mississippi which needed his attention so he had to give up the baseball.

Toronto opens a four game series with Baltimore on the Orioles home grounds. Things don't look as rosy for the ex-leaders of the league as they did a few weeks ago.

* * *

W. P. must have sent old Jup. Pluv. along to play with the Petes yesterday. Have his credentials been filed with the league officials, Jake?

* * *

Even if the game didn't count that was a nice clout of Holyman's that landed him on second base and sent three other men across the plate in the third frame.

* * *

There seemed to be a good deal of crabbing over some of the decisions handed down yesterday. Kickers should remember that the ump is closer to the ball nd probably watching the game closer than the average spectator, any way his judgment goes whether he is right or wrong.

Little Lessons For the Golfer

Timing is the all-important instant of the swing. When your shot is properly timed the body reverts at the instant the ball is struck, to the position it was in at the time the upward stroke was started. If you rush you stroke you will be sure to get the body around before the clubhead comes down to the ball. Neither clubhead nor body must be ahead of each other. You bring down the body first by trying to hit the ball too hard. The down stroke should be snappy, but don't start it, from the top of the swing, with a jerk or with an undue press of muscular effort. The clubhead should be felt in the fingers as if it were a pendulum. Take the club back and up, slowly; bring it down rapidly and snappily, but without strain or jerk —and the result will be a clean-hit, straight-flying ball. Failing in these simple fudamentals brings about the pull, the slice, the topped ball and otherwise dubbed shot.

KING EDWARD GIRLS

The girls team from King Edward School completely swamped Centrals 48 to 3 in the Girls' Playground Ball League game played at Central Park yesterday afternoon. The King Edward girls took the lead in the first inning and the issue of the game was never in doubt.

COLBORNE MAKES POSITION SECURE

Despite the undulating condition of the Warkworth diamond which was the subject of such unsupressed criticism and resulted in many doubtful plays Colborne handed the Grand Army of United Veterans of Warkworth a trimming by 8 runs to 1 yesterday afternoon in a Northuberland League game that until the seventh innings leaned either way. Both teams were supported by a lusty lot of rooters but Brighton's wind artists lined up with Wark worth on account of being peeved at their lakeshore neighbors over a defeat according to Colborne and the odds were against them. The smooth working infield of the Colborne outfit and the shaky support given Zufelt the nice Warkworth south paw was responsible of the victory which keeps Colborne at the top of the league with five wins aganst one loss while Warkworth has 3 to 1. Warkworth had a chance to take the top position but rough work in the field sent the chance aflying. Both pitchers turned in a nice game. Zufelt struck out 11 and Coyle seven while Coyle issued no passes and the Warkworth boy but two.

The teams:—

Colborne—Hawkins cf, Wilson lf, Myles ss, McCracken 2b, Pool 3b, Floyd c, Coyle p, Hall rf, Eckstein 1b, Van Ness sub.

Colborne	000001502	—8
Warkworth	100000000	—1

RUTH'S SUSPENSION IS NOW FIVE DAYS.

CHICAGO, June 22.—(Canadian Press)—President Johnson increased Ruth's suspenscion, originally three days for disputing a decision made by Dineen in Monday's game at Cleveland, to five days when he received a long report from the umpire yesterday detailing remarks made by the outfielder Tuesday when ordered off the field in compliance with Mr. Johnson's first ruling.

Mr. Johnson announced that Ruth is suspended without pay and that this feature of the decision will cost Babe $1,500, or $300 a day, which was said by the American League President to be the player's salary.

"Babe Ruth is going to behave himself or I'll keep him out of the game all summer" Mr. Johnson said in making known the decision.

RAIN SAVED PETES A BAD BEATING

Leaside Had Lead of Six When Shower Arrived in Time to Result in Game Being Called Off.

LD Jupiter Pluvius was the pinch-hitter who saved the scalps of the Petes in last night's Central League fixture at Riverside Park. With Leaside in possession of a substantial lead of six runs and the Petes apparently hopelessly beaten, the rain poured down so hard that Umpire Butler finally had to call a halt to the proceedings with two men out in Leaside's half of the fifth, and after a wait eventually announced to the crowd that the game was off. "Micky" Murray and his pals were in front 9 to 3 at that stage, and if they could have finished their inning and disposed of the Petes in their half of the chapter, would have won the verdict handily. The downpour came just in time to save the Petes from a jolt that would have badly hurt their chances in the first half of the league race.

In order to give Al. Heckman's arm a much needed rest, the Petes sent Kirn in to do the heaving. He had nothing with which to fool the left-handed hitters of the Leaside crew and they hammered him for six hits in two innings, slow fielding helping the visitors to shoot five runs over the counting station. Ecobichon took up the burden in the third and got by that innings nicely, only to have the visitors come back with three runs on three hits, a sacrifice and an error in the fourth.

Tracey Shaw, who has been doing more catching than pitching, was on the rubber for Leaside and he showed very little in the way of stuff during the four innings he worked.

Leaside started right in to hit. Jones opened with a single to left and romped over to third when Mahoney combed one to right field, Collins' slowness making it easy for him. Mahoney stole second unmolested. Dillon's sacrifice fly to centre scored Jones and Mahoney registered on Culleton's sacrifice bunt to Holyman. Rutherford threw out Murray for the third out.

With one gone in the second, the visitors came back with three more. Ward singled to right to start with and Hines swung a bunt past Kirn. Lennon grounded to long, the runners advancing, and Jones promptly scored the pair with a triple down the right field foul line. Mahoney's single to left sent Jones in. Dillon ended the innings by forcing Mahoney on a roller to Rutherford.

Ecobichon blanked the visitors in the third and the Petes came back with three runs. With one down, Johnston walked, Swanston cut a ground to short on which Lennon threw wide to second and Shaughnessy walked, filling the sacks. Collins hoisted to Dillon, but Holyman cleaned the bases with a vicious double to left. Long flied to Ward for the third our.

In the fourth Ward singled to right, Hines hit to Johnston whose throw to force Word hit the runner and everybody was safe. Lennon moved the pair up with a sacrifice. Jones' pop fly caught the infield playing in and went for a single, Ward scoring. Mahoney hit to Rutherford, whose accurate throw hailed Hines at the plate. Mahoney stole second, and when Dillon poled a roller to right Jones and Mahoney registered. Culleton struck out.

Rain was falling quite heavily when the fifth opened. Murray and Shaw were quickly retired. Then, with Ward up, Soden took Swanston's place behind the bat. Ward eventually walked and stole second, to score on Hines' single to right. Then Umpire Butler called a delay, and eventually declared the game off as one deluge grew worse.

The teams were:

Peterborough — Rutherford, ss; Johnston, 2b; Swanston, c; Shaughnessy, lf; Collins, rf; Holyman, 3b; Long, 1b; Bergoine, m; Kirn, p; Ecobichon, p.

The Comrades-Lakefield game scheduled for Saturday will be played on the Exhibition grounds Friday evening at 6.30.

BASEBALL NOTES.

An error appeared last night. It read as follows: "A 6-2 victory sends the Wild Cats into the lead of the Corner Lot League." This statement is untrue. The Falcons' win over the Beavers on June 9, and the Wild Cats' victory over the Beavers by 6-2, give these two teams a tie for lead, because each have played one game.

HOW MORVICH WON HIS FIRST BIG RACE

Marc Klaw Tells Story of the One and Only Bet He Placed on Brown Colt.

In the light of Morvich's defeat it is interesting to contrast to turn back a year and renew the first appearance of the son of Runnymede and Hymir.

It occurred in the Suffolk Selling Stakes in the opening day of the 1921 Metropolitan racing season at Jamaica. The race was third on the card and Marc Klaw, head of the theatrical firm of Klaw and Erlanger and probably the first backer of Morvich, tells the following interesting story of the event.

It seems that the theatrical producer was sitting with a group of friends, among who were Frank Mc Kee, Thomas Monahan and Charles Granger, a former Mayor of Louisville. Ky Klaw was interested in Naturalist ,which was entered in the Paumonok handicap, the fourth race. During the intermission between the second and third races a brown horse carrying the number 2 galloped past the grandstand.

Klaw comes from Louisville and is an excellent judge and true lover of the thoroughbred. The horse caught his eye and he inquired if it was Naturalist. When told that only horses which were permitted on the track with numbers he turned to his program and discovered that 2 in the third race was Morvich. Then he made a prophetic remark.

"If that is a two-year-old," he said, "he should beat Man o' War."

That brough a laugh from the other members of the party and they began to insist that Klaw play the unheard of 2, with a name like a Bolshevik statesman. Finally, just before the horses went to the post. 2 passed again. McKeen turned to Klaw and said:

"There's your mule now. Go and bet on him."

That remark decided the question. Klaw went down into the enclosure and asked the price on Morvich. "On whom " queried the bookmaker. Klaw repeated the strange name. "Oh." answered the bookmaker. "write your own ticket." He was loath to believe that any one would back the unknown and untried Spreckles entrant, but when pressed he made a quotation of 50 to 1 to win, 25 to 1 on place and 10 to 1 on show.

"At those prices I'll lay $25 each way" Klaw told him. The bookmaker shook his head and jotted down the figures.

The rest is history. Morvich broke on tip-toe and quickly shook off all opposition. Of all the field even others only Red Tom, the favorite, tried to follow the Runnymede-Hymir colt, Red Tom hung on to the dizzy pace for almost a furlong but finally gave up in disgust and Morvich went on to win galloping by fifteen lengths.

To his supporter Morvich's victory brought $2,195. "I have never played him since" Mr. Klaw said when he had finished his story. Which in the light of what happened yesterday at Aqueduct, shows that there is a time to play and also a time to stop.

HORNSBY'S AVERAGE.

When Rogor Hornsby got a single and a triple in Sunday's game at the Polo Grounds it made the fifteenth consecutive game in which he has made one or more hit. He has a batting average of .500 for the streak. His lifetime batting average to date is .341 an increase of four points over what it was at the close of last season. He has played in 916 games, including Sunday's, has been at bat 3,405 times, scored 549 runs made 1,162 hits for a total of 1747 bases and has stolen 95 bases. Of his total number of hits 179 have been two baggers, 95 triples and 72 home runs.

IT WAS BAD DAY FOR BOWMANVILLE

Cobourg Romped Away With Nineteen Perfectly Good Runs.

BOWMANVILLE, June 22.—After their win over Leaside last week, Bowmanville entered the game this afternoon with Cobourg full of hope that the tide had turned and victory would henceforth be their reward, but alas anticipation was greater than realization. After the agony had continued for nine innings and the dust of Cobourg base runners had subsided, the adding machine divulged sad tidings to local enthusiasts that Dick Turpin's heavy batting artillery had romped away with a 19 to 2 victory. Derry held the home team to five scattered hits and was given air tight support in the field. Chambers, who pitched for Bowmanville, got off to a bad start and was relieved by Blaber in the seventh innings, who could not stem the tide of heavy batting. Bowmanville secured its 2 runs in the seventh. Line -up:

Bowmanville—Moyes, c.f.; Stark, 3b.; Mingeaud, 2b.; Bates, c.; Hicks, l.f.; Williams, s.s.; Moore, r.f.; Cordon, 1b.; Chambers, p., Blaber, p.

JAMES C. DUNN PAYS TRIBUTE TO SPEAKER

New Ship "Seeandbee" Now on the Route.

CLEVELAND, June 21.—That James C. Dunn, wealthy contractor and owner of the Cleveland Baseball Club had the utmost confidence in This Speaker, was shown when his will was filed for probate yesterday. He made Speaker Manager of his contracting business in Cleveland, and also manager of the team.

In the will he advises his widow to consult with Speaker on every proposition, and repose every confidence in him, particularly in the management of the club. The entire estate is left to his widow, Mrs. Edyth R. Dunn. It is valued at $390,000. The will suggest that Mrs. Dunn retain Tris Speaker as Manager of the team, and that E. S. Barnard be elected to serve as President of the club.

SNOB II. SPLIT A HOOF.

It was officially announced yesterday that J. S. Cosden's $85,000 Snob II. had split a front hoof during the running of the Carlton Stakes Saturday and would be forced to forego all of his engagements for two months. Snob II. finished third to Wiskaway and Morvich and was entered in the $50,000 Latonia Special to be run at the Kentucky track next Saturday. He was also entered in the Dwyer Stakes, the Empire City Handicap and mony important events at Saratoga. It is feared that he will be unable to complete in any of them.

TRACK AND FIELD EVENTS

Dr. Frank has completed arrangements for the second semi-weekly track and field work-out which will be held to-morrow afternoon. Shots, hammers, vaulting poles and jumping standards have been secured and the necessary pits have bee prepared for the jumping events.

JAKE DAUBERT IS STILL HITTING 'EM

He is 37 Years of Age But He Hit Safely in 22 Consecutive Games.

Jake Daubert, first baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, at 37 years of age, is making all the younger players in the National League sit up and take notice when it comes to consistent hitting this year.

Daubert this season got away to the worst start any major leaguer has made in years.

It was on his twenty-sixth time at bat in his eighth game of the season that he made his first hit of the year.

Once he started, though, the old boy didn't know when to stop. He erased his seven-game slump with a streak on which he hit safely in 22 consecutive games, making 32 hits in 77 times at bat in those games.

Charley Ebbetts, owner of the Brooklyn team, and a man who doesn't bear Daubert very much love, was west with his team when Jake was getting his treak around the 20-game mark. Ebbetts offered a hat to any Brooklyn pitcher who would stop Jake. Len Cadore and Al. Mamaux did it on May 15 and Ebbetts had to buy two hats.

But they stopped Jake for only one day. May 16 was an open date and May 17 he was off again on another streak which lasted six games and in which he made 12 hits in 29 times at bat.

He then was stopped for one day, after which he started a third streak which numbered 14 straight games and on which he made 27 hits in 60 swings.

ly in 42. His hitting has been timely, ty in 42. His hitting has been timely, too, and has played a big part in changing the Reds from the cellar outfit to a contender for the league leadership.

CHINESE TROOPS IN STATE OF MUTINY.

SHANGHAI, June 22.—(Canadian Press.)—Between 10,000 and 15,000 northern forces sent against Sun Yat-Sen's army in Kiangsi Province, mutinied at Kianfu, burned portions of Kianfu and other nearby cities and killed thousands of the residents, according to unconfirmed but apparently authentic reports from various sources at Hankow and Nanchatig. The troops were under command of General Taai Chen-Haun, military commander of Peking.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

LONDON, Ont., June 22.—A brilliant Strathroy nuptial event was the marriage at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon of Emily Clare, only daughter of Judge D. C. Ross and Mrs. Ross, and granddaughter of the late Sir George W. Ross, to Grant S. Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Newton, of Strathroy.

Numebrs of guests were present, and among those from outside points were Hon. W. C. Kennedy, Minister of Ralways, and Mrs. Kennedy, and Senator F. F. Pardee, who came from Ottawa in the minister's private car for the happy event.

FRIPO SAILS TO SCOOP SOME WIN

Heavyweight Champ. of South America Returns to Argentina After Touring U. S.

Luis Angel Firpo, heavyweight champion of South America, who has been fighting in this country, and who's won all his fights, too, though he hasn't met anybody of much account, has sailed for Argentina, his home, to spend a few months, and undoubtedly to do a little scrapping while he's there.

Presumably the main object of this trip is to scoop in a bit of easy coin.

It's likely enough also that Firpo enjoys the prospect of swelling around among his fellow South Americans in the role of premier fistic wonder of the world, which is just exactly what they think he is, regardless of what the official record has to say.

As a financial proposition, there's no doubt the expedition will be a success. South Americans unquestionably will be eager to pay fancy prices just to look at him, to say nothing of seeing him fight. Even if he should take on a southern gladiator or two he's little to worry about. He really is about the best heavyweight in the western hemisphere south of Panama, or, it may be, the Rio Grande.

The chief danger is that the adulation he is sure to have heaped upon him will inflate his head. In his own heart he certainly knows at present how little chance he stands against Jack Dempsey, say. It will be a sorry day for him if this realization of his limitations should happen to leak out of his mind.

It's announced that he expects to be back in the United States before the end of the year, probably travelling by way of Havana and London, in both of which places it's understood he plans to fight. Havana, if he confines himself to local talent, may be all very well. London will be a riskier place for him.

FRANK THOMPSON LOST AT ANCASTER

(By Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.)

ANCASTER, June 22.— The defeat of the Canadian champion, Frank Thompson, Toronto, yesterday, by L.L. Bredin, of Detroit, was the most important feature of the second round of the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship being played at the Hamilton Golf links. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Bredin battled all day and the match ended on the seventeenth green with the Detroiter three up. Another high light was the crushing defeat administered to G. H. Turpin, champion of Quebec, by C. M. Jones, of Toronto, who won by the impressive score of thirteen up. The other victors in the second round were:

William McLuckie, Montreal, C. C. Fraser, Montreal, J. T. Cuthbert, Wimipeg, W. J. Thompson, (who eliminated the veteran George Lyon of Toronto), N. M. Scott, Montreal, and R. McAuliffe, Buffalo. The official returns on the second round were:

C. C. Fraser defeated C. P. Paton, Danvers, Mass., by 4 and 2.

C. M. Jones defeated by G. H. Turpin by 13 and 12.

L. L. Bredin defeated Frank Thompson by 3 and 1.

W. J. Thompson defeated George Lyon by 6 and 5.

N. M. Scott defeated B. L. Anderson, Toronto, by 10 and 9.

R. McAuliffe defeated W. M. Hodgson, Montreal, by 2 and 1.

Foolish Wives

Universal Super-Jewel presented by CARL LAEMMLE

A Colossal Drama of Monte Carlo where even Saints are Sinners

Pictorially surpasses anything ever achieved in pictures—dramatically gripe, fascinates and enthralls you—a complex magnificence that astounds you—a direct simplicity that drowns you in a sea of emotion—the one picture that positively you must see.

A Man You Will Love to Hate

MONTREAL STORY OF TURPIN-ABBOTT DUAL

The Montreal Star carries the following story of the golf duel between G. Turpin of Montreal and Robert Abbott of Peterboro, at the series now being played at Ancastr, Ontario. The story of the game which resuted in the elimination of the Peterboro man follows,

"Turpin had been expected to win and the match drew no gallery in the morning but when Abbott ended the morning round 2 up, people who knew Turpin's reputation as one of the finest, if not the finest match player in Canada, went out to follow the match. I joined the match after the fourth hole. At the fifth hole Turpin had taken one back from Abbott. At this hole Turpin made a wonderful recovery his drive, a long one, curled after it landed into a bunker very close to the line, for the hole he played a magnificent niblick shot and was 12 feet from the pin, just missing a birdie 3. Abbott took 5 going to the sixth, Turpin was 25 feet from the hole on the green. Abbott pulled his shot through the trees into the rough 30 yards from the green, then put a wonderful approach shot 12 feet from the hole and held his putt Turpin short on his approach putt missed a 7 footer and Abbott was again 2 up. To the seventh Turpin was 40 yards short of Abbott off the tee. Turpin from 4 yards off the edge of the green was 10 feet from the hole in his third and failed to get down. Abbott from the edge of the green just missed a birdie 3, Abbott 3 up. At the short ravine hole, the eighth. Abbott fluffed his mashie shot and was just over the water at the bottom; 30 feet below the level of the green. Turpin was well on the green 25 feet from the pn. Abbott from the bottom of the ravine quite unable to see the hole put a wonderful mashie niblick shot 3 feet from the hole. Turpin laid his approach just a foot inside Abbott's a half in 3 resulted. Turpin had far the best drive at the ninth. Abbott pulled his second and was 40 yards from the hole. Turpin was 10 yards from the hole on the green and took a mashie. Abbott took 3 putts Turpin's hole conceded in four.

Turpin still 2 down on the 36 holes. Both drove over 275 yards from the tenth tee. Abbott to the left, Turpin straight on the line to the hole had a half blind approach and was on the green 10 yards beyond the pin. His approach putt landed 3 feet from the hole. Abbott was short on his approach to the green and failed to get down and Turpin won 4 to 5. Turpin only 1 down. Abbott going to the log leg eleven ignored the trees and hit a terrific drive over 300 yards. Turpin got a beautiful iron shot and Abbott following suit with a mashie. Both were less than 12 feet from the pin and both just failed to sink their approach putt, for eagle 3's halving the hole in birdie 4's.

Turpin Plays Brilliantly

At the twelfth hole Turpin half topped his drive but carried the brook Abbott hooked his first into the woods on the left and sliced his second into the woods on the right, failing to find either he conceded the hole. Turpin being well on the green in his second. The match was now all square and 7 holes to go. Turpin took a spoon to the 200 yard 13th and was just off the green to the left, Abbott pulled his first, was short off the green on his second, past the hole on his third missed a putt for 4 and conceded to Turpin who became 1 up for the first time in the match. Abbott appeared to have blown up after the eleventh. Turpin hit a raking tee shot to the 14th. Abbott topped his drive and was on the ladies tee 100 yards in front. He had a chance to reach the green but pulled to the left and then put his pitch shot in the bunker. Turpin was 12 feet from the hole and got a safe 4. Turpin 2 up and four to go. Both got long drives at the 15th but Abbott was off the line in the rough. Turpin under clubbed his second and was just short o the green, Abbott from the rough got too much under the ball and was 30 yards short off the green and short again on his approach. Abbott failed to hole in 4 and Turpin got an easy 4 becoming dormy.

Turpin's mashit shot to the short 16th lay 7 feet from the pin. Abbott hole high to the right nearly sank a putt for a two. Turpin played safe, halved in three and won the match, 3 to 2 one of the greatest battles of his life. Turpin score home was 444, 344, 3—26 for 7 holes one under par. If put to it he would probably have got a 2 at the 16th in which case a 5 and a 4 at the 17th and 18th would have given him a home score of 34 or 3 strokes under par and 73 par for the whole 18. Turpin, McLuckie, Bredin of Detroit and Frank Thompson, the present champion, all in the upper half of the draw and one only can reach the final. Brilliant as was the play of all four yesterday I think Turpin will reach the final if he can improve his approach putting which was the only weak point of his game against Abbott".

GOLF RESULTS FROM ANCASTER

A Strong Wind Blew Across the Course This Morning.

ANCASTER, Ont., June 22. (Canadian Press.) — A strong wind was blowing across the course this morning when the golfers teed off in the third round of the amateur championship of the Royal Canada Golf Association here this morning. The course is in perfect condition and some close matches are expected. There are only eight left in the running for the title out of the 160 that played in the qualifying match on Monday. Chief interest is centred in C. C. Jones of Scarboro and L. L. Bredin of Detroit Both of these players showed exceptionally good golf yesterday when Jones surprised all the critics by defeating G. W. Turpin of Royal Montreal by the large score of 13 and 12, while Bredin downed last year's title holder, Frank Thompson, of Mississauga, by 3 and 1. Both of these players are confident that they will see their way into the semi-final which will be played to-morrow. As the players got around to the ninth hole it was easily seen that the wind was causing trouble. At the ninth W. C. McLuckie, at Kawanaki, was four up on his opponent, Fraser. Fraser made a brilliant recovery from the trees at the eighth green, and rolled right up to the pin. The cards for the nine holes read:

Fraser .. ..645654435—42

Bredin of Detroit was four up on Jones of Scarboro in the ninth. Jones was not playing anything like what he did yesterday. His drive or the third went into the rough, and after finding every obstacle on the course he picked his ball up and conceded the hole. The cards read:

Bredin .. .. .555553444—40
Jones .. .. .56x554535— *

*No total.

W. J. Thompson of Mississauga, and J. T. Cuthbert of Winnipeg were all square at the ninth hole. Both are playing excellent golf dong tre first nine in 36 each. The first four holes were halved. Thompson took the next but Cuthbert squared the game again at seventh. He took the lead at the eighth but drove into the bunker on the ninth and this was again all squared. The cards read:

Thompson .. .. .444443544—36
Cuthbert .. .. .444543435—36

V. R. McAuliffe of Royal, Montreal, was six up of Scott of Buffalo at the ninth. The cards were:

McAuliffe .. .. .454543534—37
Scott .. .. .556653354—42

"FOOLISH WIVES" AT CAPITOL TONIGHT

The stage is set, everything's ready—and one is thrilled by the excitement of the last few hours before the big show begins. For the past few days, there has been so much activity at the Capitol Theatre that even outsiders have caught the spirit, and seem to realise that they are going to be in on something different—something worth while. The orchestra which has been so well received and so much appreciated, is familiar with the score, that will be played during the engagement of "Foolish Wives", a score specially selected and carefully arranged to accompany the picture. It has caught the spirit of the play and carries out von Stroheim's ideas perfectly—a charming vivid glimpse of life—of the world at play—with a dramatic story to furnish the details of the plot. The musical score was especially arranged by Sigmund Romberg and it runs the gamut of goods, and changes its character as rapidly as the picture glide before you.

Whosever may be in doubt as to the nature of this picture "Foolish Wives" must not judge it by any thing they have heard or read of the picture as to its suitability for all classes of theatregoers. It is a mammoth production, made entirely in America, at the Universal studio in California, and Miss DuPont and Miss Maud George are the co-stars with Mr. von Stroheim who is the master-director. A fine actor and general authority in the moving picture world to-day. It is a brilliant picture of life, among the wealthy, the near rich the gamblers, swindlers and idle people who throng the Riveria—but a very natural sequence of events occur during the unfolding of a dramatic story, and the finish is a triumph of right and justice. In Toronto, where the picture has been shown to huge crowds for two weeks, in every American City, where it has been, it has broken all records and nothing spells the fact of Peterboro's progress quite so much as this presentation of the most talked of picture of the hour. No longer is it necessary to travel far afield to see the latest attractions—they come right to our doors and the Capitol Theatre Management appreciates the excellent patronage, which makes it possible to secure such big features as will be shown here this season and during the coming year. "Foolish Wives" is the event of the year, and tonight's opening should be the occasion of many theatre parties as the opening night has been in all the larger cities. During the engagement, there will be usual daily matinee, and every courtesy and convenience the staff can render during the hot weather will be at your service.

SYNCOPATION IRKS NATION

By MARGARET ROHE.

NEW YORK.—In this nation syncopation simply is our meat. Most of the people that I know would rather jazz than eat. I will even go still further, stating that I think—lots of folks since prohibition 'drather dance than drink. How they jiggle, writhe and wiggle while the saxophone makes them quiver, shimmy shiver to its plaintive moan.

Here a flapper with a dapper college youth will sway. There an actress and a broker jazz the hours away. Tired B. M. with dashing typist, or a wife perforce not his own, but some one else's you suspect, of course.

All find pleasure in each measure of the ragged tune. Hark, the cymbals crash and tingle while the fiddles croon. Father, mother, sister, brother, auntie, husband, wife, uncle, cousin, even granddad think this is the life.

Yet it seems this jazz abandoned, frivolous and free, is a menace to our moral. We should let it be. Hartley Manners preached its dangers in a play last fall. Showed that almost every evil's due to jazz, that's all.

Now an awful thing has happened. If you don't watch out, you will get diarthrosists if you jazz about.

"YOU MADE ME WHAT I AM TODAY — NOW YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY."

There's a show girl who has got it out Chicago way. Got it learning jazz contortions for a summer play. Manager and show promoter she is suing now. When she's finished with the fellow she expects ten thou.

Zealous girl, she was so earnest to acquire the jazz, she worked overtime gyrating, shimmying and has, as result, acquired a wiggle permanent and sure. She just shivers like an aspen, doesn't know the cure.

WHO WILL WIN—THE JAZZ OR GIPSY, IT IS HARD TO TELL.

When she hears a saxy moaning she just has a spell. Anguish caused by notes of music, banknotes soon will quell.

Busted hearts and limbs and bankrolls lie in jazz's trail. Now then international troubles are the latest wail. Bad enough if we had only kept our jazz at home, but it simply up and started far away to roam. Led by negro jazz musicians 'round the world it flew. Berlin, Paris, London, Shanghai, all are jazzing too.

But in Budapest the Jazzbo struck an awful snag. Hungary and gipsy fiddlers simply won't stand rag. Negro bands with jazzy music have the gipsy curse. And in awful gipsy language curses sound much worse.

Gipsies long have furnished music for all Budapest. Now they won't stand jazz invasions and they'll do their best to drive out the negro jazzers. They will beat the band with their zithers and zingaras, anything at hand.

Who will win, the jazz or gipsy, it is hard to tell. Budapesters all agree ,though, 'music war is—what Sherman said.

When you think of all the evils caused by jazz, oh dear, what you read of it in papers, also what you hear, don't you think 'twould be a wiser and a safer bet, if we changed our naughty jazzing for the minuet?

Social Calendar

The Ladies' Aid of Fairview Methodist Church, Smith Township, held a very enjoyable strawberry social on the church grounds last evening, attended by a good crowd, considering the inclement weather, including several motor-loads from Lakefield, Young's Point, Peterborough and Otonabee. The Salvation Army Band was in attendance, and provided an excellent musical programme, supplemented by readings by Mr. J. A. Friendship, a member of the band, and addresses by Rev. Mr. Thomas, pastor of St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal, and Rev. Mr. White, Baptist minister at Lakefield. Mr. E. Brown acted as chairman. The ladies, with Mrs. H. Nesbitt, president of the society, acting as convenor, served an appetizing tea from 6 to 8 o'clock, and were well satisfied with the results of their efforts to make the affair a success.

The weekly luncheon and field day for ladies held yesterday at the Peterboro Golf and Country Club was a complete success in point of attendance and in the interesting competitions. Awards in the different competitons which were arranged by Mrs R. Grant and Miss F. Gladman were made, Mrs. J. A. Aylmer winning the direction driving contest and also the 18 hole contest. Miss Nora Hatton won the nine hole competition. On Wednesday next to replace the usual luncheon tea will be served following the competitions.

Miss L. Madeley returned to Toronto on the 3.50 this afternoon after spending two weeks vacation with her brother, Mr. F. Leether of Chamberlen street.

A piano recital will be given by the pupils of Miss Olive Johnston, A.T.C.M. in the Conservatory Music Hall tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Loretta Galvin, of Loretto Abbey, Toronto, is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Galvin.

Mrs. Joseph Mills is at Sandhurst, called there by the illness of her sister.

Mr. Leo Winn, of Detroit, is the guest of Ed. J. Hickey, 197 Wescott Street.

WARNING TO HOUSEWIVES.

The danger of placing old papers behind a gas stove to prevent grease flying was emphasized to-day when a gas stove at the home of Tobias Switzer, 753 Water Street, ignited papers pinned along the wall. The firemen were called from Box 45 to find that the fire had been extinguished. The damage was negligible, but the warning is one that should be of considerable importance.

OUR OWN CITIZENS TESTIFY

Mr. Thos Oldham, 247 Simcoe street, says that it gives him pleasure to recommend Dr. Banta's Kidney and Rheumatism Pills for the relief of Backache and Rheumatic ailments.

He had taken only two boxes when the dull dreary backache disappeared and although he had tried various remedies he derived more benefit from Dr. Banta's Kidney and Rheumatic Pills than any other preparation.

Sold at Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter street and if they fail to relieve you, your money will be refunded. 8d 6 8 13 15 20 22 27 29

For June Bridesmaids

Hats are of straw and are shown with ostrich feather trimmings, crushed crowns and side drapes. Any one or all of these features to each hat.

Bodices are cut lower and sleeves are shorter.

Crepe georgette is used for bridemaids' dresses and if often trimmed with flounces of lace dyed to match.

...e gown of taffeta was trimmed with tiny ostrich feathers tacked on in an allover pattern. Another had long side panels or rosebuds.

THE MARKET

NEW YORK, June 22.— (Canadian Press.)—Prices were irregular, but mainly higher at the active opening of to-day's stock market. The lower re-discount rate of the local Federal Reserve Bank caused more urgent covering of short contracts. There were a few striking exceptions, however, the most conspicuous of which was Mexican Petroleum, which soon registered a loss of 2 3-4 points.

Oils and Motors influenced the more uneven movement of the morning. Mexican Petroleum extended its decline to 3 1-2 points from which it rallied 4 points. Fan American A and B shares, California Petroleum, General Asphalt and Houston added to early advances. The rise was checked before noon, such leaders as Studebaker, Baldwin and the Independent Steels reacting sharply. There was heavy selling Chandler, which fell over three points.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, June 22.— (Canadian Press.)—Sterling exchange easy. Demand rates Great Britain 4.42 5-16. Canadian Dollars 1 p.c. discount.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 22.— (Canadian Press.)—Reports from South Dakota that heat drought were endangering the wheat crop tended to bring about higher prices for wheat here to-day in the early dealings. The opening, which ranged from 1-8c. decline to 1-4c. advance, with July 1.13 to 1.13 1-4, and September 1.13 ⅜-8 to 1.13 1-4, was followed by a moderate general advance, and then something of a re-action.

After opening 1-8c. off to 1-4 cent higher, July 62 5-8 to 62 3-4, Corn market sagged.

Bad crop reports, especiallly from Ilinois, gave independent strength to the Oats market, which opened 1-8 to 1-4 cent higher, July 35 7-8 and after a slight reaction scored further gains.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 22.— (Canadian Press.)—The local market made about as poor a showing in the forenoon session as at any time in many months. Brokers declared it was a weather market, which explanation, considering the continuous downpour of rain, seemed to fit the case. Brokerage offices showed a poor attendance and buying demand was lacking in quite a noticeable degree. Ames Holden McCready shares continued their down ward course and the preferred sold at a new low record of $5 a share, while the common repeated the price of $1.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

TORONTO, June 22.—(Canadian Press.)— Trading continues to be very light on the local stock exchange and total sales of listed stock this morning approximated only 1,000 shares, of which Maple Leaf Milling supplied over 500 shares. Maple Leaf continued its erratic movement, opening 3-4 lower than last night at 110 1-4 and declining to 107. The last sale was at 107 1-8.

Rumors regarding a cut in dividend rate were general, but up to the noon closing nothing definite in this regard had been learned. Brazilian was fractionally weaker at 47. Bell Telephone a shade higher at 119 1-4.

TORONTO CATTLE MARKET.

TORONTO, June 22.—(Canadian Press.)—Cattle market receipts 150. Trade steady. Quotations: Heavy beef steers nil. Butchers' steers choice $8.50 to $9. Butchers' cows, medium, $3.50 to $5. Calves, $3.50 to $9. Calves $8.50 to $9. Lambs, $14.75 to $15.50. Hogs, selects, $14.25.

OFF FOR COAST.

Chief Newhall Left To-Day to Attend Convention—House-breaking Cases.

Chief Constable S. Newhall left at noon to-day for Vancouver, where he will attend the annual convention of the Police Chiefs' Association, which opens on June 28th. The Chief expects to be away two weeks, during which time Inspector James Reid will be in charge of the administration of affairs at the Police Station. The case against the three Indians charged with breaking into numerous cottages at the Kawartha Lakes will be proceeded with next week. An adjournment was made until the 28th, when the Crown expects to be able to proceed with the case. Mr. I. E. Weldon, of Lindsay, is acting for the accused, two of whom come from Scugog reserve and one from Curve Lake.

BUSINESS FIRST.

County Council Had to Cancel Picnic Engagement—Later Comers From Fair Board.

"Business before pleasure" was the maxim followed by the County Council this afternoon. The Councillors had planned attending the U.F.O. picnic at Lakefield, but on account of the pressure of business had to forego the pleasure of an afternoon of sport and a splendid strawberry supper. The arrangements had to be called off and the afternoon was spent in rather prosaic committee work.

Through some misunderstanding, half a dozen members of the Exhibition Board put in a momentary appearance at the Council Chamber this afternoon. They were advised that it was now closed season for deputations, and left in peace, knowing that their case had been fully presented yesterday.

WEDDING BELLS

WILSON—COLLINSON

A quiet wedding took place at 2.30 p.m. yesterday at St. John's church, when Vera Elinor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Collinson 504 Sherbrooke street, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Andrew Mason Wilson son of Mrs. Alice Wilson and the late John Wilson of Toronto. Rev. Canon Bernieri performed the ceremony.

The bride was stylishly attired in suit of navy tricotine, with sand georgette blouse and large brown hat, and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The young people were unattended, an uncle and sister of the bride witnessing the signing of the register; Mr. W. P. Plant of Hastings and Miss Gladys Collinson.

A buffet luncheon at the home of the bride, followed the ceremony, at which only the immediate relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on the 3.50 C.P.R. train for Toronto and other points. They will reside in Toronto.

McKENTY—SHEA

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at 8 o'clock yesterday morning June 21st, at St. Peter's Cathedral, when Irene A. Daughter of William Shea, 211 Reid street, and the late Mrs. Shea was united in marriage to Arthur J. McKenty of Norwood, Rev. P. Costello performing the ceremony.

The bride who entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father, was exquisitely gowned in embroidered cream canton crepe, with large georgette hat to match, and carried an ivory prayer-book with floral streamers Her sister, Mrs. James H. Moore, was matron of honor, prettily attired in dress of copen blue, with large leghorn hat, carrying a shower bouquet of orchids and roses Mr. D. J. McCarthy of Kingston, an uncle of the bride, supported the bridegroom. Miss Katie Masterson sang very sweetly during the ceremony, with Mr. J. Ball at the organ.

A dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride, where the rooms were effectively decorated with roses, peonies and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. McKenty left in the after noon by motor for Kingston, to take the boat later for a trip through the Thousand Island to Montreal. They will reside at 211 Reid street.

NON-COMMITTAL ON RUMOR.

MONTREAL, June 22.—(Canadian Press).—Reports that Sir Robert Holt, president of the Royal Bank of Canada, and Montreal Light, Heat and Power Consolidated, had been offered the presidency of the British Empire Steel Corporation were given wide circulation here this morning.

Sir Robert Holt said that the report was an interesting one, but refused to make further comment. "I really cannot say anything about it. I have offers of many kinds placed before me from time to time, but of course I cannot accept all of them. Such an offer would have to come from the shareholders. That is all I can say."

Roy M. Wolvin, president of the Corporation, was also non-committal. He refused to confirm the report, and that is as far as he would go.

QUESTIONS ON WILSON DEATH IN THE HOUSE

A DEMONSTRATION

LONDON, June 23 (Canadian Press). — There was an unusually large attendance at the House of Commons this morning in expectation of further developments in connection with the Wilson assassination.

Mr. Lloyd-George was not present, and his absence was the source of some complaint, but Austen Chamberlain, the Government leader, explained that the Premier was conferring with the authorities regarding the steps to be taken in the situation.

Questions put in the House of Commons to-day to the members of the Government with regard to the assassination of Field-Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson contributed one of the most damaging demonstrations against the Government that it has experienced, according to the opinion in the Lobby.

The view was expressed there that had it been possible to debate the subject, the existence of the Government would have been seriously in question.

MORE CHANGES

Another New Store Front For George Street—C. E. Smith Next to Improve.

C. E. Smith announces in his advertisement in today's paper, that he is going to have a new front put in his store, and extensive interior changes as well. As usual when such a decision is reached, it came when the store is fully stocked with goods, and Mr. Smith is inaugurating an immediate Clearance Sale, in an effort to reduce the big stock of high class boots and shoes to dimensions that will permit the workmen to operate without inconvenience. The sale opens to-morrow and is to run for twenty days. Low cut prices on good footwear is the buying incentive and will likely bring the hoped for response.

MURRAY STREET CHOIR HAD PICNIC YESTERDAY.

Over forty of the members of the choir of the Murray street Baptist church, motored to Wallace's Point yesterday for their annual picnic, which proved a very enjoyable event. A picnic supper, al fresco style was served, and races and games indulged in. A baseball game between contending forces, captained by Mr. C. Westbrook and Mr. A. Everett, was won by the former's team. The winners in the races were Mrs. W. Barringer, Mrs. J. H. Jary and Miss Davies, with a special event for men and women won by Mrs. C. Westbrook and Mr. A. Everett.

"What did he expect me to do? I don't have to tell the police here what to do. They would think I was interfering," remarked G. W. Hatton, K.C., County Crown Attorney, in regard to the charges of High County Constable A. R. Moore that he had received no assistance from the Crown Attorney. Mr. Hatton did not wish to comment on the charges and said that so far as he was concerned he would make no formal reply. Chief of Police S. Newhall was away, and when he returned could make whatever statement he saw fit.

Mr. Hatton remarked that he had given Constable Moore information regarding Taylor, one of the Indians subsequently arrested by Inspector A. B. Boyd in connection with the cottage breaking at the Kawartha Lakes, but Constable Moore did not deliver the summons that was sworn out. The cottagers at the lakes were up in arms this spring over no action having taken place, and it was then that it was thought advisable to secure a detective from Toronto. Constable Moore had no reason to feel grieved at a detective being brought in from Toronto, for that was a common practice in cases that were at all serious, as the burglaries and thefts at the lakes were.

Crown Attorney Hatton said he did not interpret his duties as having to direct the county constables in their work. As Crown Attorney he had carried out his duties the same as he always had with regard to the county police. "I am at a loss to understand what he means by assistance. I can't understand what assistance I could give him when he's been 35 years on the job," remarked the Crown Attorney ironically.

J. F. Strickland, who was acting Crown Attorney when Mr. Hatton was ill, and who Constable Moore also mentioned in his charges as failing to assist him, declined to make any statement. "I don't wish to get into any controversy over the matter and I have nothing to say," he said. If Chief S. Newhall was home there is little doubt but that he would make some interesting comments, but he happens to be somewhere between Toronto and Winnipg, speeding to the Police Chiefs' Convention at Victoria, and he will be away several weeks. Copies of the paper containing Constable A. R. Moore's letter were sent from the police station to him last night, and he will have plenty of time to think up a reply. In his absence the other officers were not prepared to take the responsibility of commenting on the charges.

LIQUOR SHIPS ARE ANCHORED IN SAFE ZONE

A Fleet of Seven Vessels Laden With Thousands of Cases Ready to be Smuggled in.

THE NAVY NOTIFIED

NEW YORK, June 23—Tugging safely at sea anchors off the Jersey Coast lies a fleet of seven vessels, laden with thousands of cases of the choicest liquors, which are destined to be smuggled ashore.

Prohibition enforcement officers know the fleet is there—some of them have visited the flagship and talked to the skipper. But they are powerless to do anything more than guard against the landing of the contraband. The fleet is outside the three-mile limit and the 12-mile customs limit and the Volstead law isn't operative there The smugglers are serenely confident they will dispose of their cargo without difficulty.

Most of the liquor is from Scotch ports. The cargoes of the seven vessels are valued at around $3,000,000.

Visits Ship by Ruse

John D. Appleby, prohibition director for New York and New Jersey, has ordered the prohibition navy to be on the alert. The former, submarine chaser Hahn is patrolling the mouth of the harbor, her forward gun ready for action. Smaller craft are guarding the coves and inlets which dot the coast.

When one of Appleby's agents through a ruse was able to board the flagship he found scores of cases of liquor on deck awaiting arrival of small speed boats to carry it ashore.

The agent went to a small Jersey seaport and posed as a bootlegger's agent, with authority to purchase thousands of dollars worth of booze He arranged with the skipper of a little tug to carry him out to the fleet for $50. One of the vessels—the flagship of the fleet— was as large as the giant freight liners that come into New York harbor.

The captain of the little tug vouched for the agent and he was received aboard with every courtesy He saw a ship load of the finest liquor money will buy; 10,000 cases, he was told. And the ships nearby were almost as large. Names on the cases stored on decks were those of world renowned distillers and wine makers.

The agent told the captain of the flagship he would probably want the entire cargo The captain, apparently used to doing business on a large scale, showed no surprise. He made a price of $55 a case and said that the responsibility of the skipper ended when the goods went over the side. Also, he added that business was conducted on a cash-in-advance basis.

After assuring the captain that the terms were satisfactory, the agent hurried back to New York and reported to Appleby. A hurried conference of the prohibition force followed, but it was decided nothing could be done except to guard the coast.

Appleby declared that rum runners are finding it increasingly difficult to land ther stuff.

A Love Romance Badly Shattered

ETROIT, June 23. — Mrs. Marjorie Moreland Hillock, daughter of D. W. H. Moreland, former Commissioner of Public Works, dreamed of a home of her own and the dream went to smash, she said to-day, because her husband, Alexander J. Hillock, couldn't work, was happy-go-lucky, and unable to shoulder responsibility. She has started suit for divorce.

"Having been brought up in an apartment hotel, I have always longed for a home, one with grass around it and a back yard —a real snug sort of a home I could help my husband to build up," said Mrs. Hillock.

She charges non-support in her petition.

"My dream was shattered," cause father had to support us. My husband paid the first month's rent on our home at 344 Monterey Avenue, Highland Park, and bought a little coal. Aside from that he did nothing to support me. Had it not been for my father we would have been in want."

HURRICAN HITS A WESTERN CITY

Roofs Blown Off Houses in Winnipeg—Boy Killed.

WINNIPEG, June 23.—(Canadian Press)— Hurricane struck Winnipeg about four o'clock this morning and left in its wake a great number of uprooted and broken branches, unroofed houses, dismantled billboards and tumbled chimneys. The wind registered a maximum velocity of 84 miles an hour, and three-fifths of an inch of rain fell in a few minutes. While the wind was at its height telegraph poles and wires were carried down in sufficient numbers to sever communications east, west and south, and it was not possible this morning to ascertain the extent of the damage.

A boy was killed here this morning when he grasped a live wire which had been blown to the ground. His name is not known. Four persons are in the hospital with injuries received in various ways during the storm.

BRANDON CUT OFF.

Portage La Prairie has been heard from since the cyclone struck that city at two o'clock this morning, but communication with Brandon is still cut off and the extent of damage there is unknown. At Portage La Prairie hundreds of thousand dollars damage was done by wind and lightning. Roofs of three big churches were blown off, and a grain elevator and factory destroyed. Charles Spence, aged 14, was killed beneath the walls of his home, and it is feared there is other loss of life.

PARTY CAUCUS HELD CAPITAL THIS MORNING

Liberals and Progressives Getting Ready For a Fight on Transportation Question.

THE END DELAYED

OTTAWA, June 23.—(Special). — Liberals and Progressives held separate caucus this morning and while the report of the transportation costs committee has not yet been formally presented, it is believed that freight rates formed the chief topics of discussion at both gatherings. The report in question has been drafted and redrafted with out bringing satisfaction to those who demand the re-instatement of Crows Nest agreement on wheat and wheat products. And the Progressive are girding up their loins for a fight in the house in the event of failure to gain their end in the committee. This morning Ways and Means for carrying on of an effective blockade are understood to have been discussed and if the Progressives decide seriously upon a filibuster practically every member of the party will speak and the end of the session will be seriously delayed. Progressives are not alone in their objection to the complete suspension of the agreement. It is estimated this morning that a score of Liberals will vote for the application of the grain rate. These include McMurray and Hudson of the Winnipeg, Macolm of North Bruce, Euler of Waterloo, all members of the committee. Chisholm of Inverness, Martell of Hants, Kyte of Richmond and other maritime province members together with several members from Quebec. It is understood that this morning Premier King was informed of ther intentions and while he is probably powerless to influence the committee his attitude in the house when the report comes down may be influenced by the warning given.

Opposition Quiet

The official opposition is keeping its own counsel. Conservative members in the committee voted solidly against the proposed application of the Crow's Nest on grain but there are good reasons for believing that in doing so they did not represent the opinion of ther leader, Mr. Meighen, and it is more than possible that, unless the report is changed to provide for th application of the grain rate there will be a split in this party also.

The committee meets again this afternoon to put the finishing touches upon the much belabored report. And it is quite probable that when it reaches the house it will be materially different from its present form.

FAIR GRANTS FROM COUNTY

Finance Committee Recommends Return to Normalcy — Only $175 For Norwood and Peterborough.

Only the regular grants to the agricultural societies in Peterborough county were recommended by the Finance committee of the County Council this morning. The Salvation Army was given another $500, making a total grant of $1,000 this year for the maintenance of their Maternity home in Toronto, the Children's Aid Society receive an additional $400 which, with the $200 given in January, amounts to $600 for the year, and the Plowmen are turned away empty-handed.

What this decision means if it is ratified by the Council on Saturday, is that the fairs fare as follows: Peterborough Exhibition $175, Norwood $175, and $75 each to the Lakefield, Keene and Galway shows.

TRIAL IS POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY NEXT

MONTREAL, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)—Adelard De Lorme's hearing was this morning again postponed until Monday on account of Judge Monet's illness. Alienists who were to have testified as to prisoner's mental ability to stand trial for murder of his half brother Raoul, will therefore not be heard before next week.

MONEY NO HANDICAP

HARRIET CLEGG (ABOVE) AND HER PARTNER, ELIZABETH DENNISON.

Being a rich man's daughter isn't any handicap.

You can earn your own living and even work your way through college even if dad is a confirmed coupon cutter!

The combination of education and business proved highly successful.

Harriet Clegg, one of the firm, is the daughter of Harries P. Clegg, street car magnate of Dayton, O., Elizabeth Deanison, the partner, is the daughter of a rich manufacturer of Framingham, Mass.

EX-REEVE HAS COUNTY MONEY

Reeve Breckenridge, of Belmont, Says Ex-Warden Griffith Holds $100 Road Money.

That W. E. Griffith, former reeve of the townships of Belmont and Methuen, and ex-Warden, be requested to pay to the municipality of Belmont and Methuen, the sum of $200, which was granted by this council last year for road work in these townships, and now in the hands of Mr. Griffith, be expended by present reeve as all grants have been expended heretofore prior to Mr. Griffith's tenure of office, unless Mr. Griffith furnishes within two weeks the paysheets of such expenditure during 1921.

This resolution by W. A. Anderson, and seconded by Reeve Duncan Brown, in the Committee on Roads and Bridges, on Thursday afternoon, developed out of the statement of Reeve Breckenridge of Belmont and Methuen that ex-reeve Griffith still had $100 in his pocket which the township needed for its roads, and which had been passed by the County Council last year.

In the discussion of this rather serious intimation it was stated that Mr. Griffith had obtained in the customary way the $200 voted to Belmont last year. Of this sum $100 was the regular grant and $100 was a special grant from the county.

The cheque was returned to the County Treasurer after it had been cashed. In January of this year Mr. Griffith, it was stated, received $100 from Mr. Elliott as his allowance in the wardenship. Mr. Breckenridge said that the treasurer of the township had received $100 early this year from Mr. Griffith, and if this were accepted as part of the road money passed by the council, there was still another $100 due to the municipality.

The committee yesterday took the stand that it was not concerned about this $100 reported to have been

THE DRAGOONS IMPROVING AT DAILY DRILLS

The Grub is Better This Year and the Men Have More Room to Move Around.

THE OFFICERS HERE

"The camp is proving a success in every way. We have more room this year, and have been able to get away to a better start," remarked Col. T. J. Johnston, of the 3rd Prince of Wales' Dragoons, in camp at the Exhibition Grounds to-day.

The camp, which opened on Tuesday, will end next Wednesday.

About one hundred and forty officers and men are under canvas.

On account of the curtailment of the Militia estimates, only two squadrons, B and C, are in camp. The 4th Battery last year at the joint camp occupied the position the Dragoons have this year. The tents are in an avenue at the east side of the grounds, and the site has proved more acceptable than the cramped quarters between the buildings at the west side.

Under Col. Bell, D.S.O., Royal Canadian Dragoons, the squadrons are receiving competent instruction in cavalry drill and musketry instruction is being emphasised by the three permanent officers attached.

Four Royal Military College cadets are connected with the staff also, and the entire instructional programme is in capable hands.

On Saturday the men will shoot at the ranges, and on Tuesday general inspection by Major-General Elmsley, General Officer Commanding Military District No. 3, will take place.

Grub Is Better.

A change in the arrangement of the commissariat this year has met with general commendation by the officers and men. This year the provisions through a special arrangement are being bought locally, and the eats, according to the men, are of a superior quality.

Many of the men in camp were in camp last year, and so the work this year has gone ahead with greater ease and rapidity. The 112 horses in camp are being put up in the horse barns, and should improve under camp life, for the instructors see that every pony is well fed and kept in condition.

Officer Commanding—Col. T. J. Johnston.
Second in command—Major T. D. Johnston.
Veterinary officer—Major W. T. Rogers.
Adjutant—Capt. F. Hills.
M. O.—Capt. E. H. Wood.
Quartermaster—Capt. J. Abraham.
Signalling officer — Lieut. L. H. Sutton.
R. S.-M.—J. J. Powell.
R.Q.M.S.—M. Williamson.
Staff sergeant—M. R. Sloan.
Sergt. trumpeter—B. Henry.
Medical sergt.—D. Carmichael.
Sergt. cook—A. Chippendale.
O. R. sergt.—J. R. Yarnold.

B Squadron, which represents Millbrook, Pontypool, and Orono, is in charge of Major H. Powell, Capt. K. Sisson, Lieut. C. G. Dix, and Lieut. B. Watkins, while the officers of C Squadron are Major E. H. Hughes, Lieut. C. Philip, Lieut. L. J. Stuart, and Lieut. C. Stuart.

MORE JACK FOR THE CARPENTERS

A meeting of the union carpenters of the city took place last evening, with a good attendance. Election of officers for the year resulted as follows: President, Wm. Hales; Vice-President, George Parliament; Financial Secretary, J. Lasure; Treasurer, J. Girard.

The attention of the meeting was mainly occupied with discussion of a letter received from one of the leading contracting firms in Toronto, desirous of securing the services of carpenters in this city who had worked on the Hunter Street Bridge, for bridge construction work in Toronto, the experience of Peterborough men who had worked on the bridge making them desirable mechanics for the city contract. The sum of ninety cents an hour is offered, and most of the men, numbering about 25, were favorable to acceptance, as they were assured that possible overtime would more than pay expenses while in Toronto.

NEW HIGHWAY COST REACHES COUNTY TAXES

Special Levy of 1½ Mills on all Municipalities in County to Pay Share of 1921 Work.

AVOID DEBENTURES

A bill for $14,647.23 from the Department of Highways, covering the county's share of the cost of the Provincial road between Peterborough and Springville in 1921 was discussed by the County Council on Thursday afternoon.

Construction $71,959.62, plus maintenance of $1,276.55.

The amount due by the municipality, twenty per cent. was for construction $14,391, plus $255.31 for maintenance, a total charge of $14,647.23.

Reeve Nicholls moved, seconded by Deputy-Reeve Middleton, that a rate of 1½ mills be levied on the whole county to provide for this requisition.

The amendment was defeated by the following vote: For—Warden Strickland, Messrs. R. Scott, Robt. Shaw, D. Brown, W. H. Jones and W. H. Montgomery. Against — Messrs. Nicholls, Middleton, Breckenridge, Eason, Rye, Lillico, Darling, Holland and J. Scott.

A dispute developed in the discussion of this matter as to whether the charge should be imposed upon all the municipalities in the county or only upon the townships in the county roads system.

Prior to its adoption as a Provincial highway the road to Springville was listed and maintained as a county road.

"And when it was a county road the northern townships were exempted from any liability for its cost," Reeve Shaw observed.

Mr. W. A. Anderson, of Otonabee, presiding, had suggested that this sum might be paid by issuing debentures, but the Warden was opposed to spreading the cost over a period of years. The present bill was for last year's work. Another account would be forthcoming next year, probably covering the entire cost of the road.

Warden Strickland contended that it would be preferable to postpone the payment until the entire cost was determined with the amount assessed against the county.

Mr. Middleton remarked that failure to pay this bill might prompt the Government to suspend their grants.

Mr. Peck—The new Provincial system supersedes all that went before, and it therefore has nothing at all to do with the county system. The Department has the power to impose a portion of the cost on the whole county. If there is any objection you can appeal to the Railway and Municipal Board.

Mr. Shaw—Has the county power to relieve the northern townships of any share in this expense?

Mr. Peck—No. I can't see that.

The Treasurer informed the Council that a mill and one-half applied to the whole county would raise a little more than the required amount. If the villages and townships were left out the Council would have to levy and one three-quarter mills on the remaining townships of the good roads group.

Warden Strickland's final question was whether the mill and a half would appear on the tax bills as the 1921 charge against the county for the Provincial highway from Peterborough to Springville.

Mr. Anderson said that this could be and should be done in order that the people would know what they were paying for.

COMMITTEE IS INVITED COME TO THIS CITY

Will Investigate the Hotel Business in Various Parts of the Province—Letter Received.

ACTION ENDORSED

The committee of the Provincial government appointed to investigate the hotel business in Ontario and determine by what means encouragement can be given that would bring about improved accommodation, has been invited by the Chamber of Commerce to visit this city. Edgar Watson, M.L.A., North Victoria, the secretary, in a letter received here yesterday, asked if the Chamber recommended the committee visiting Peterborough, and Secretary L. Eraser replied in the affirmative. T. Tooms, M.L.A., is a member of this committee.

At the meeting of the Trent Waterway Development Association in Lindsay the action of the legislature in appointing the hotel committee was commended and the situation as regards hotel accommodation was discussed at some length. While it is argued that to get the summer tourist trade adequate hotel accommodation is necessary first, the majority of the members were of the opinion that the hotels would follow the tourists and not until such time as there was a large increase in the number of visitors would an extensive enlargement of the hotel accommodation be warranted. If the hotels could be first secured they recognized the prospect of getting tourists would be so much the better, but from a business standpoint the members felt the development of hotels would have to follow.

The association decided that next year when it attains a more lusty childhood the accessability of Trent district for motor cars will be advertised and the Provincial Highways entering Peterborough, Lindsay and Orillia exploited as the gateway to the paradise of lakes and rivers. It was thought that this year the association is interested in a large enough programme in connection with developing the cruising possibilities and the plans were accordingly laid over.

RADIO NEWS

BY PAUL F. GODLEY.

America's Foremost Radio Authority

Using the electric lamp socket as a source of radio signals is certainly possible.

But many a radio fan who tried General Squier's "wired wireless" soon found themselves in trouble.

As a matter of fact any elevated conductor, even though it be but a poor one, will serve as a collector of electro-magnetic energies. If the received be connected to the bed springs and incoming signals are sufficiently powerful, the broadcast programs may be received in this manner. This has been tried by many amateurs

Screen doors, door bell wires, unused portions of telephone lines, fences barbed wire, which does not actually touch earth, and finally the electric light supply wires with in the house have been tried successfully.

Current in Line.

The thing which strikes one as odd about the connection to the source of electric power, is that these wires are already carrying current. It is this same fact that brought disaster either to the fuses in the circuit, or to the radio receiving apparatus, itself.

In most electric supply systems, one side of the line is grounded This step is taken as a protection to the system should anything go out of order. Inasmuch as the radio receiving equipment is also grounded when connection is made through the lamp socket to the supply line, there is a chance that the connection will be made to the ungrounded wire.

If this is done, current will flow in unlimited quantities. Any fuses in the circuit will blow out—or, if the windings of the radio receiver are of small guage copper wire, they will burn up.

The currents produced in a radio received alternate at an incomprensible rate from positive to negative in character. The rate of these alternations are usually up in the hundreds of thousands. The currents produced in an electric supply line by the generators in the power house, are also alternating currents, but their rate of alternation from positive to negative is comparatively slow, usually being about 60 times a second.

Application.

If a small condenser—a device consisting of alternate layers of conducting and insulating material—is connected between the radio receiving set and the electric light wire, no damage to the fuses and the apparatus can result.

This small condenser will allow the high frequency currents to pass freely while the low frequency (lifting) currents will find it impossible to force their way through. Thus the wires serve two purposes.

But speaking generally, an outdoor antenna will be found to be far superior to this wired wireless.

In many places the electric light wire wil be found useless as an antenna. When the building is of steel or the steel conduit through which it runs be itself grounded, the wire will not act as an aerial.

The real application of the "wired wireless" principle would consist in broadcastnig programs over the lighting wires directly and not through the ether. A comparatively low power transmitter would serve admirably for this purpose.

DRY AGENTS MAKE RECORD HAUL OF BOOTLEG LIQUOR

65 PER CENT. ALCOHOL

MONTREAL, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)—What is claimed to be the largest seizure of contraband liquor in the history of the province was made Wednesday when over four thousand gallons of 65 per cent. over proof alcohol, consigned to Toronto and the west, was taken over by customs inspectors at the Outremont railway yards. It had been shiped from Cuba to St. John, N.B., and had arrived here disguised as "cocoanut oil."

High proof alcolohl is in great demand in the dry provinces where it is diluted and sold at $8 and $10 a quart. This would bring the value of the consignment to somewhere in the neighborhood of half a million dollars.

The shipment is said to be one of the many sent to Canada by a bootlegging ring operating through Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Arrests and prosecutions are expected to follow shortly.

JACK MINER IN HIS BARE FEET

SIMCOE, Ont., June 23.— Jack Miner was interrupted the other day by a party of Norfolk county farmers touring through the district by auto, who halted in passing to call on the great friend of birds who has now more than a provincial reputation. They found him working with a spade in long rubber boots about his bird ponds. Accosted Miner left off work temporarily observing that he would have to remove his high water boots in order to get about with his callers. And he did so most unceremoniously on the spot, his feet came out without sox and he walked about barefooted entertaining his callers.

"Folks say the government gave me this farm,' he observed. "But that is not true. I do get some allowance for purchasing grain for the birds. He entertained the party most engagingly, calling down robins from the trees to a table where he fed them from a spoon, each opening its wide mouth in turn. Miner told his callers that it is his wish at his funeral the bearers be all bank managers. "They have carried me all my life, and it would be but fitting that they should carry my remains to the grave," was his witty droll.

THE PROHIBITION NAVY IS BAFFLED

DETROIT, Mich., June 23.—(Canadian Press).—Government officials have wondered why more arrests of rum-runners were not being made by the "Prohibition Navy" on the Detroit River.

Only one arrest has been made by the prohibition cruiser since it began operations three weeks ago. Investigation by the Intelligence Bureau of the Treasury Department has revealed the cause.

Investigators have discovered that rum-runners, bootleggers and others engaged in the illicit liquor traffic have perfected a system of signal lights. Whenever the cruiser appeared near where the runners were operating, there were strange flashes of lights to warn the runners, and they scurried to cover in their boats.

WILSON'S VIEW IRISH CRISIS

Regarded the Situation as Very Grave—Opinion of Leaders.

BELFAST, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)—Cries of shame met the announcement by Premier Craig in the Ulster Parliament of the assassination of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson.

"This event," the Premier declared, "places beyond argument the existence of a wide conspiracy against those who are fighting the battle of Ulster. I do hope there will be no further doubt in the minds of any man about what Ulster is up against. The battle is not for us alone, but for the Empire, and if anything is needed to steel the nerve and heart of Ulster it is that fact."

The Premier said there was no doubt Field Marshal Wilson had laid down his life for Ulster.

"When I had occasion lately to ask his assistance in our hour of trial," added the Premier, "there was no hesitation. His answer was characteristic—'You need hardly to have asked me. All I can do for you shall be done for my country's cause.' .I believe that acceptance has cost him his life and I am sure he would not have done otherwise."

The Premier proceeded to pay high tribute to the officer, saying: "He is one more stalwart who has fought and fallen in this desperate battle we are fighting. But it will make no difference to us in our work. I feared that Mr. Twaddell, (W. J. Twaddell, Member of the Ulster Parliament, assassinated May 22) would not be the last to be taken, and here is the realization of that fact. It has come sooner than I expected."

Premier Craig then tendered deepest sympathy to the widow, and moved adjournment.

CYCLONE STRIKES AT PRINCE ALBERT.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., June 23. — Houses were moved off their foundations, barns and buildings demolished, fences levelled and trees uprooted during a cyclone which struck Crystal Springs and Invergordon districts near Birch Mills, Wednesday evening. No loss of life or injury has yet been reported and no loss of crops is reported, as the wind travelled at a height above them.

A curious effect has been the drying up of all sloughs in the path of the storm. At one farm a horse was lifted bodily from the stable and deposited in a wheat field.

UNUSUAL ACCIDENT.

BROCKVILLE, June 23.—(Canadian Press).—Betty Foy and Arthur Knowlton, two Toronto children of tender years, owe their lives to-day to the fact that they can swim. Last evening, while seated in a motor boat tied up at a sea wall in the C. P. R. yard, a horse, owned by George Mott, carter, took fright and plunged into the river, dragging with it a heavy waggon.

In going over the sea wall, the waggon fell into the motor boat and turned it bottom side up. The children, seeing their predicament, dived into the water an instant before the cart struck the boat and swam to safety. The horse was drowned.

BRAVE SOLDIER DIES BY ASSASSINS HAND

Field-Marshal Sir Henry Wilson Was One of England's Greatest Military Leaders.

THE TRAGEDY.

LONDON, June 23.—(Canadian Press)— Field Marshal Sir Henry H. Wilson, one of England's most illustrious soldiers, who was Chief of the Imperial Staff during the final stages of the world war was assassinated on the doorstep of his residence in Eaton Place yesterday afternoon, by two young men who gave the names of James O'Brien and James Connolly.

The assassins had loitered about, waiting an hour for his return from unveiling a memorial to men of the Great Eastern Railway who fell in the war. When he alighted from his motor car, Field Marshal Wilson walked up the steps, and the men fired several shots at him from close range three of which took effect, one in the chest, one in the leg and the third in the wrist. The Field Marshal died before he could be taken into the house. His horrified wife heard the shooting and rushed out, to find her husband's body, dressed in full uniform, lying in a pool of blood.

The crime was immediately and inevitably linked in the public mind with the political assassination of Lord Frederick Cavendish, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Thomas H. Burke, the Under-Secretary, in Phoenix Park, Dublin in 1882. The first impression was in a measure confirmed when Scotland Yard made public the names ofthe murderers and declared that Connolly had a letter in his possession indicating he was a member of the Irish Republican Army.

Denies Responsibility

General Owen Duffy, chief of staff of the Irish Republican Army in Dublin tonight denied that that organization had any part in the crime.

The assassins fled several hundred yards before their capture with police and civilians pursuing afoot and in motors.

In the course of the running flight two of the policemen and a chauffeur were wounded. The men were finally overpowered after a hard struggle, the police, armed with only truncheons, showing great bravery in tackling men with formidable army guns. The crowd closed in on them and would have beaten them severely or killed them but for the protection afforded by the police. They were then taken to a nearby police station, and later removed to Scotland Yard.

Drew His Sword

From an eye-witness the following details were obtained. The assassins lay in wait outside the Field Marshals home and levelled their revolvers at him as he alighted from the car. With the courage and presence of mind of a true soldier he drew his sword when he realized he was being attacked and was about to plunge it into one of his assailants when a fusillade of bullets from the second man laid him low.

The gun men dashed off, followed by several infuriated citizens who had witnessed the tragedy. Lady Wilson, hearing the shots and cries of alarm, emerged from her sitting room and ran to her wounded husband. His sword lay by his side, his gloved hand still resting on the hilt. She grasped his hand and raised his head. 'He is dying! he is dying", she cried frantically to a group of laborers repairing the side walk in front of the house. "Isn't there someone who can help. Cannot some one bring a doctor."

The Field Marshal lay with no sign of life. Servants carried him into the house. His butler, a former soldier, felt the pulse and announced that he was dead.

Lady Wilson knelt beside him and kissing him, exclaimed: "Well, they have done their cruel work at last. But you have died like a soldier God will be merciful to you."

Attempt to Escape

Meanwhile, outside the house, the assassins were trying desperately to escape. One of the workmen who had witnessed the shooting grasped a milk bottle and struck one of the gunmen over the hand, but he made off with companion

After their capture the men were taken to the Gerald Road police station, where the taller of the two who apparently was the leader, lay on the floor owing to his injuries.

A civilian asked him: "Who are you?" He replied: "I am an Irishman. I could have got more of you chaps if I hadn't beeen afraid of hitting the kids".

The civilian said: "You are a dirty blackguard'. The man answered: "I was only firing blank shots at the last'. But the revolver when examined was found to contain lead bullets.

Scotland Yard issued a minute description of the assassins. The age of the two men is given as twenty four years. Connolly is described as six feet in height and well built: O'Brien, five feet seven and a half inches. The latter has a wooden leg. Both refused to give addresses or occupations. They will be charged with the murder of Field Marshal Wilson and the attempted murder of Constables March and Sayer and a civilian, Alexander Clarke, by shooting.

London Horrified

All London was horrified by the tragedy. The House of Commons adjourned after sympathetic speeches by H. H. Asquith and Austen Chamberlain. The King cancelled this evening's birthday dinner for the Prince of Wales, to which sixty persons had been bidden, and would have postponed last night's court, but it was too late.

England, for more than a century has been particularly free from political assassinations. Apart from the shock of the untimely death of a popular soldier and a member of the Commons, in the prime of life, all discussion turned to the political aspects of the affair.

The sinister methods of the Irish factional strife had not been imported to England before, despite threats which necessitated special police protection on some occasions

A BLOOD BATH IN MINE AREA

Thousands of Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed by Dynamite.

CARBONDALE, Ill., June 23rd. (Canadian Press.) — Bloody Williamson county, heart of the southern Illinois coal mining district, has smeared another red splotch over the name that has clung to it since its vendettas of the early 80's. At least 29 non-union miners, perhaps 40, have met terrible deaths at the hands of a mob mad in the unholy glee of a holiday that started on Wednesday.

The strip mine of the Southern Illinois Coal Co., eight miles north west of Marion, and the scene of the grimmest industrial clash in the history of the state, is in ruins.

Tracks, buildings and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of equipment were dynamited as to-day's battle closed shortly before noon, amid the hilarious whoops of 2,000 miners and the admiring plaudits of their women folk.

WILSON GAVE HIS LIFE FOR ULSTER

Premier Tells of Wide Conspiracy Against the North of Ireland.

LONDON, June 23. — Recently the Evening News asked Field Marshal Wilson for observations on the Irish situation, and he replied on June 11th, by letter, as follows:

"Yours of June 1st received on my return from a fortnight's cruise. The situation in Ireland is indeed grave, but nothing to what it will be later if the present government is allowed to remain in power.

"No self-respecting citizen of the 26 counties will have further communications with the Imperial Government except to dictate and impose terms. It was only ten months ago that De Valera was proclaimed "that chieftain who represented the vast majority of the people of South and West Ireland!"

"Then he became discredited because he was honest and Collins became the darling of Downing Street. Now, he, too, seems to have fallen from grace and a desperate effort is being made to cling to the Griffith wreckage.

"A little later and our government will be alone and we shall have gone back to 1798. What a tragedy! And all form ignorance, tragedy! And all from ignorance, of cowardice.

"You ask for 'plain words to the Irish nation. Alas, there is no Irish nation, nor has there ever been one, and so there is no address to which one can post a few plain words."

ELECTION OFFICERS A.F.L.

Sam. Gompers Still in Running For Presidency.

CINCINNATI, June 23.—(Canadian Press.)—The election of officers of the American Federation of Labor took the centre of the stage today at its convention here, although only one contest was a certainty. President Samuel Gompers, who has held his office every year except one since Federation was founded in 1881, and nine other officers, seemed assured of re-election without opposition when work was resumed, but many of the delegates were on the tip-toe of expectation on account of the possibility of the last minute entry of candidates.

SIXTEEN ARRESTS MADE IN LONDON

Documents Disclose Plans For Conspiracy to Take Number of Lives Prominent Persons.

LONDON, June 23.—(Canadian Press).—Fifteen men and one woman were arrested in the raids throughout London last night in connection with the assassination of Field-Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, it was announced in the House of Commons this morning by Lord Chancellor Chamberlain.

He stated that every step possible was being taken for the protection of life in Ireland and England, and intimated that a discussion of Irish affairs would be held on Monday. Prime Minister Lloyd George, he stated, was now holding a conference on all the matters connected with the assassination of Marshal Wilson.

James O'Brien and James Connolly, who were arrested directly after the shooting, were arraigned in the Westminster Police Court this morning and charged with murder. They were remanded for one week by Magistrate Cecil Chapman.

The police investigating the assassination of Field-Marshal Wilson have come into possession of documents, says the Central News to-day, disclosing a conspiracy to take the lives of a number of prominent persons and conduct a campaign of outrages.

BLACK GLOVES.

Black gloves are seen this season on many well dressed women. The vogue for black gowns is partly responsible and the cost of keeping up light colored kid gloves is another reason for their popularity.

WHEAT BOARD BILL CARRIED IN THE HOUSE

A QUIET SESSION

OTTAWA, June 23.—(Canadian Press.)— The wheat board bill received third reading in the house yesterday afternoon with comparatively little discussion. An amendment submitted by R. M. Johnson of Moose Jaw a few days ago, was accepted by the government but with a proviso. The Johnson amendment authorized the wheat board, by regulations approved by a provincial government, to prohibit the export of wheat from that province.

Soldiers' Insurance.

When the House took up the resolution respecting returned soldiers' insurance, Hon. H. H. Stevens asked the minister to outline these cases which might be refused insurance under the present regulation.

Hon. Dr. Bland said that half a dozen classes of returned soldier applicants would be refused. There was also a clause in the act which gave to the finance minister the right to refuse certain applications.

Sir Henry Drayton said there was a danger that the present regulations were overlooking the very purpose of the act. The great underlying idea of providing insurance for returned men was to give insurances at a low rate to returned men entirely irrespective of their medical condition. Hon. Dr. Beland said he had understood when the act passed, that in a general manner returned soldiers might apply for insurance without any examination. But, as some applications might be fyled where the man was in danger of death within a short time, the minister of finance should be authorized to refuse application under certain conditions. It was for the house to say whether it was desirable that every application under the act should be accepted, and if not, to lay down the exceptions.

IMPROVEMENTS IN IMMIGRATION LAWS

LONDON, June 23. — Canadian Press.) — The rejection of male emigrants, who were permitted to leave Great Britain for Canada, on account of unsuitability, was brought to the attention of the House of Commons yesterday by Right Hon. L. C. Amery, Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Admiralty, who admitted that this happened in some cases, though the number of such cases was few in comparison with the total number of emigrants. He added that improvements were being effected in the arrangements for the selection of settlers, and medical examination took place prior to their departure. Col. Amery mentioned that all the governments of the Dominions had now adopted improved medical arrangements in connection with intending settlers.

GEORGE ROSS ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Honor Conferred Upon Prominent Toronto Kiwanian By International Clubs.

TORONTO, June 23.—(Canadian Press).—Supporters of the caucus plan of selecting candidates were given a surprise at the closing session of the International Kiwanis Convention in Massey Hall yesterday, when George Ross, civic financial commissioner of Toronto, was, by a handsome majority, elected international president over Edwin Arras, of Columbus, Ohio, the caucus candidate. The election of Mr. Ross was made unanimous amidst a volley of cheers.

CHARGES WERE SIDE-TRACKED

Charges Laid Against Rev. C. S. Applegath by W. T. R. Preston and F. Wilson Will Not be Heard.

CONFERENCE NEWS

WHITBY, Ont., June 23. — The Bay of Quinte Conference has officially washed its hands of the charges made by W. T. R. Preston and F. W. Wilson, of Port Hope, against their pastor, Rev. C. S. Applegath, who has since been given a unanimous call to Hamilton. Furthermore, to use a common expression, they have "passed the buck" for the appeals made by both Mr. Applegath and his accusers against the findings of the governing body have been referred to the Hamilton Conference, and unless some action is taken there the matter is officially dropped.

Though W. T. R. Preston ,of Port Hope, is in daily attendance at the thirty-ninth annual session of the Conference being held at the Ontario Ladies' College here, delegates and officials alike are determined that the subject will not be mentioned in open session, nor will any discussion of the case be allowed to arise. It was a private meeting of the Ministerial Session which forwarded the appeals to the Hamilton Conference, and which agreed that as far as this Conference was concerned the matter was no more.

Who's Got the Hat?

Over 100 delegates have registered already and more are coming for the later sessions. Though the meetings run on from 9 in the morning until 10 or later at night, the members are ensuring the meetings from becoming tiresome by indulging in merry

A STANDING COMMITTEE.

There is considerable difference of opinion in the House of Commons as to the Civil Service Commission, some of the members preferring the present system of appointments to Civil Service positions as a shield against job-hunters, while others frankly favor a return to the old method by which the members themselves recommended the appointments. The consensus of sentiment, however, both in and out of the House, seems to be that the old patronage system should not be revived. In the recent discussion in Parliament over this matter there was the proposal brought forward that deserves consideration. Mr. Woodsworth, Labor member for Centre Winnipeg, suggests that a standing committee of the House should be appointed, whose special duty would be to take cognizance of the whole Civil Service question and keep Parliament informed on matters relating to it, advise changes in the regulations where they believe that these are justified, and in general act as a connecting link between Parliament and the Commission. There is much of value in the proposal, for much of the present difficulty and misunderstanding would be wiped out if such a committee were functioning properly. Not only would the committee's work be of value to Parliament, but it would facilitate the activities of the Civil Service Commission and be of service to the country generally.

ACCOMMODATION FOR TOURISTS.

Members of the Trent Waterway Association are of the opinion that the most business-like way of dealing with the popularizing of the lake resorts of this district is to secure an influx of tourists first, after which the hotel situation will adjust itself. The trouble is, however, that you can't bring in hordes of summer visitors if you have no place to put them, or if they can only be accommodated under conditions that send them away grumbling and dissatisfied. Under such circumstances, a large increase in the tourist traffic would be of merely temporary advantage. The visitors, instead of returning to their homes enthused with the Kawartha district, would go back and, forgetting the scenic beauties and the fishing advantages they had found, would complain so much of the inadequate accommodation that many tourists who otherwise would flock into this district would go somewhere else, where they could be assured of comfortable rooms and an adequate cuisine. The Special Committee of the Legislature, which is to consider the hotel situation, is being invited to Peterborough. It is to be hoped that the whole question of accommodation for tourists will be gone into thoroughly and that as a result the Kawartha Lakes will be in a position to inform tourists that they need not hesitate to come to this section. The existing hotels, of course, are able to take care of the business that has so far come their way, but if the influx is to take on the proportions of the annual invasion of other summer resorts there will have to be a corresponding increase in the accommodation.

THE MERCANTILE MARINE.

There is little use at this late date of arguing as to where the responsibility to where the resopsnbility marine should be placed. Shipbuilding was commenced during the war with the unanimous approval of Parliament, and it was continued after the conflict was over without much objection from anybody. The results have not justified the expenditure of course, for Canada is left with a great fleet of ships operating at a loss. There are not enough cargoes to go round, and nothing but an annual deficit can be expected under the circumstances. The question that has to be settled now is not of placing the blame for the situation but of the policy that is to be pursued. Is the whole fleet to be maintained as a national enterprise, piling up a loss each year, or is the bold step of disposing of the ships and accepting the loss once and for all to be taken? It is obvious that if sold, the steamers of Canada's mercantile marine will have to be given away at a fraction of what it cost to build them. The loss involved would be a large one, but to many people it seems the wiser course to swallow the loss in a lump sum rather than to have it piling up year after year with no possibility of better things in sight. The Minister of Railways and Canals announce that twenty-seven of the ships are to be laid up in dock this year, and that these would be sold when purchasers could be found. When these steamers are disposed of there would be much popular support for the continuation of this policy until the whole fleet was off the hands of the Canadian people.

SIR HENRY WILSON.

The assassination in London of Field-Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, formerly Chief of Staff of the Imperial Army, has shocked the whole Empire. Sir Henry Wilson was one of the outstanding military leaders during the world war, and his services had earned him the gratitude of the people on whose behalf he had given unsparingly of his energy and ability. In the early days of the war he was Chief of Staff for Sir John French, and in that capacity was responsible for much of the success scored by the "contemptible little army" in its remarkable stand against great odds. His promotion was rapid, for he was in turn corps commander, liaison officer with the French and commander of the Eastern district. In 1917 a wonderful tribute was paid to Sir Henry when he was selected as the man most likely to save the situation, and was recalled from France to be made Chief of the Imperial Staff and to take a seat in the War Cabinet, scoring a notable success. Lloyd George has referred to his vision and foresight as follows:

"I may say just a word here. This problem was considered very closely by the military staff of Versailles, and I think it right, in justice to them, to point out that after a very close study of the German position and of the probabilities of the case, they came to the conclusion, and they stated their conclusion to the military representatives, that the attack would come souh of Arras; that it would be an attack on the widest front ever yet assailed; that the Germans would accumulate ninety-five divisions for the purpose of making that attack; that they would throw the whole of their resources and strength into breaking the British line at that point, and that their objective would be the capture of Amiens and the severance of the British and French forces.

"That was the conclusion which Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial Staff, came to, and which was submitted at that time, and I think it was one of the most remarkable forecasts of enemy intentions ever made."

It is a strange twist of fate that this great soldier, of Irish birth and parentage, should meet death at the hands of his own fellow-countrymen.

FREIGHT RATES AGAIN

There will undoubtedly be some sharp fighting in the House of Commons on the report of the special house committee on railway costs, which recommends that the Crows Nest Pass agreement be suspended for a year, and that in its place more general reductions, affecting a much wider area, be placed in operation, says the London Advertiser.

The Progressives from Western Canada, supported by the press of that section, are supposed to bo back home with the reinstatement of the Crows Nest Pass agreement as the trophy of the session. Were this done, the section between the head of the great lakes and the mountains would receive freight rate considerations that could not be granted to the rest of the Dominion, for if they were they would react more seriously on the National roads than on the C.P.R.

The Crows Nest agreement obligates the C.P.R. to carry certain basic articles at a special rate through Western Canada. It was given because the government in 1897 paid a bonus to the C.P.R. to build its Crow's Nest branch. When war costs and the McAdoo award hit the railroads of this country it was impossible to continue the rate, and Parliament suspended it for a three-year term. The western members of the Progressive party ask point blank that the agreement become effective again. It is purely a sectional advantage, and one that would certainly lead shippers, both business and agricultural in other parts of the country, to ask for lower rates, and they would be perfectly justified in so doing.

The minister of railways has a problem that is not easily solved. He cannot, and dare nor by a stroke of the pen, clean up one situation that would create a worse one. His big consideration is that he must get the National lines on a paying basis, and it is from that point he must start all his operations. The credit of the Dominion demands it, and the transportation problem of the country makes it imperative. So it is, starting with that in view, any action regarding rates must be taken with a Dominion-wide grasp of the situation. The sectional or provincial viewpoint cannot be considered.

Relief must be given the West—certainly, but not in a way that will pile the costs on Ontario and Quebec, which two provinces are at present bearing the lion's share of the deficits in the operation of the system.

BETTER METHODS WANTED

The railroad men of the United States are contemplating joining forces with the striking miners, for the purpose of enforcing their demands and also for what they call "common defence." It is difficult to see how such a policy is going to help them, especially in view of the fact that public sympathy is opposed to such a move. The railroad board is determined to proceed with its program of wage reduction, and will not be deterred by any organized effort to upset that program. The claim is made that the proposed salary revisions are in strict conformity with the reduced cost of living, though the men's representatives declare that the amended scale in many cases will mean less than a living wage for those affected. There is one consideration which must be taken account of, and that is that the lower freight rates which have necessitated these economies in the pay lists will undoubtedly tend to bring down the cost of living to a material extent, and thus benefit the railroad workers in common with all other sections of society. On the 1st of July the 10 per cent reduction in freight rates ordered by the interstate commerce commission goes into effect, and the proposed revision of wages is likewise effective from that date. It is estimated that the sum of $135,000,000 in round figures will be saved by these reductions.

The railway employes' bureau submitted statistics to show that in order to maintain an average family in comfort an income of no less than $2,636,97 was necessary. The board declined to accept this estimate, however, and it will certainly strike most people as being excessive. The board is careful to point out that it is entirely opposed to the theors that labor is a commodity to be exploited by capital according to the law of supply and demand, but, it adds, "it is only patriotic commonsense and justice that every citizen, including the railway employe, should co-operate in a cordial spirit, should bear and forbear, until the carriers are back on their feet. . . . It is idle to contend that labor can be completely freed from the economic laws which likewise affect the earnings of capital." The Montreal Gazette says: "The issue is not between the railway unions and the transportation executives, but between the unions and the public, who have been called upon to pay wages upon a scale which has been out of line with actual values and a large proportion of which has been, therefore, unearned."

As for the coal miners, there is a growing impatience with the inaction on both sides, and a demand for prompt government intervention to settle the trouble. The Newark News declares that the "hard coal miners had no grievance," but that the suspension in that industry was due entirely to "the desire of the international union to use hard coal to force public opinion to shorten the period of idleness in the soft coal industry." The Buffalo Express points out that "the individual miners and the public are losing heavily. Those who are suffering the least, and will suffer the least, are the operators and the strike leaders. For that reason the settlement of the strike should not be left entirely to them." It is estimated that miners and operators have lost $145,080,232 in Pennsylvania alone, not including profits on the coal that might have been mined. And now the situation threatens to become still more seriously complicated by the action of the railroad men.

The failure of the state to compose differences of this kind is one of the most disturbing features of modern industrial life. Some way must be discovered of obviating these upheavals, to the satisfaction not merely of the public, but of the parties immediately concerned. There is always a just and fair settlement of every dispute, and that can only be discovered by impartial judges. Once arbitration has been invoked, the decision should be considered binding. It should be the first care of governments to devise some effective machinery for determining the merits of every industrial disagreement, and applying the remedy. Nothing more wasteful or distressing than the strike method could be conceived of. Peaceful adjudication must take the place of belligerency if a solution for these recurring evils is to be found.—Hamilton Spectator.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

"TIZ" FIXES ACHING, SWOLLEN, SORE FEET

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

A few cents buy a box of "TIZ" at any drug store or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel.

CEMETERY FOR OSHAWA.

OSHAWA, June 23.—In a letter to the town council G. W. McLaughlin offered to present the town with the Union Cemetery property, located about half a mile west of the town on the Kingston Road, comprising about forty acres which has hitherto been operated by a joint stock company, the purchase of whose shares he has just been able to make as a result of the winding up of the Ontario Loan and Savings Company. In addition to the gift of the land Mr. McLaughlin has also donated the sum of $500 as a nucleus of a fund for administration.

WOMAN COULD NOT WORK

Made Strong and Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Paul, Minn.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a tired, worn-out feeling and painful periods. I used to get up with a pain in my head and pains in my lower parts and back. Often I was not able to do my work. I read in your little book about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it. I feel so well and strong and can do every bit of my work and not a pain in my back now. I recommend your medicine and you can use this letter as a testimonial." — Mrs. PHIL. MASER, 801 Winslow St., St. Paul, Minn.

Just another case where a woman found relief by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many times these tired, worn-out feelings and pains about the body are from troubles many women have. The Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for just this condition. The good results are noted by the disagreeable symptoms passing away—one after another.

BETHEL CHURCH HAD A FESTIVAL

News from East Emily and the Surrounding District.

EAST EMILY, June 23. — The Epworth League of Bethel Church held their strawberry festival at the church on Wednesday evening. A very good crowd was present, despite the very heavy rain, which started about five o'clock, making some confusion, the tables having to be moved from the lawn into the basement. The rain didn't keep quite a few people home from the tempting thoughts of the large dishes of strawberries which were in store for them. Every seat was filled in the church during the programme, which was as follows: Rev. Mr. Kennedy acted as chairman on account of Mr. Stillman being away at conference.

Chairman's address.

Solo—Miss Eleanor Sherin.

Duet—Misses Johnston and Parsons.

Recitation—Miss Mildred Archor.

Solo—Mrs. Hume.

Quartette—Messrs. S. J. Mackey, L. Southworth, M. Parsons and L. Brooks.

Recitation—Miss Mildred Archor.

Recitation—Miss Pearl Reid.

The programme was brought to a close by singing God Save the King, after which every one retired to their homes.

Personal Mention.

games of baseball and tennis between sessions. And some practical jokers are at work, too. Rev. W. P. Rogers, Norville, formerly of Port Perry, lost his nice new grey felt hat after the first morning's session. This, despite the fact that his initials were plainly inked within the crown. Substituted was a hat of much smaller size and of inferior material.

To-day, Mr. Rogers found that even the substituted hat—which he donned of necessity, but with difficulty—has also disappeared. Now he is advertising for "A hat, my own preferred."

Rev. Mr. Green, of Morgansville, was also hunting his hat for some time, but found it later.

Keep Up Evangelism.

With rapt attention the members listened to a report given by Rev. H. B. Kenny of his attendance as official delegate to the Ecumenical Conference in London, England, and subsequent visits to the battlefields of France, and to points of interest in London.

"Evangelism must be the keynote of our Church if we hope to keep bright the flame lighted by Wesley and such as he," said Mr. Kenny. "Even Anglican clergymen spoke at that conference, and said of the Methodist Church 'We look to it to keep up the tone of evangelistic and revival services,' and we must do it."

Other addresses of importance and interest have been given by F. S. Sutcliffe, of Lindsay, chairman of the Evangelism and Social Service anniversary; Rev. John Coburn, field secretary of the Department of Evangelism and Social Service, Rev. E. N. Baker, Principal of Albert College; Rev. Archer Wallace, associate editor of S. S. Publications; and Rev. C. T. Scott, of Howard Park Methodist Church, Toronto.

The following committee on Conference Relations was nominated by the president—Revs. H. B. Kenny, W. Higgs, G. R. Clare, F. H. Howard, J. S. T. Wilson, E. E. Cooke, C. W. Barrett.

The following ministers were recommended for superannuation — Revs. S. Cleaver, F. J. Shorey, W. H. Buckler, A. H. Heare, G. W. Marvin, F. W. Ogden. Some thirty others, already superannuated, were voted to remain in that relation. Rev. Charles Adams and Rev. Albert Hoar were recommended for one year's superannuation.

To investigate and report on the record of soldier probationers, a committee was named as follows—Revs. S. C. Moore, A. M. Irwin, Geo. C. R. McQuade.

Probationers for the ministry now received intd full connection with the conference and ordained are — F. G. Lane, H. B. Herrington, H. C. Wolfrain, and D. M. Stinson.

Candidates for the Methodist ministry, who will be received on trial—Claude B. Brethen, Delbert M. Smith, Milton R. Brown, William J. E. Barrie, Richard B. Harrison, and Frank M. Cryderman.

BAILIEBORO WON THE TWO GAMES

In a couple of games played at Wallace's Grove yesterday at the F.O. picnic, a junior game between Centreville and Bailliboro resulted in a win for Bailieboro by a score of 6 to 4. The batteries for Centreville were Deyell and Hutchinson and for Bailieboro Johnston and Dean.

In a senior game between Bailieboro and Fairmount the Bailieboro team grabbed the big end of an 8 to 0 score. The batteries were Bailieboro, Hutchinson and Lord. For Fairmount, Shaw and Freeborn.

It was considered very effeminate to carry an umbrella when they were first introduced into the United States in the latter part of the eighteenth century.

HAVELOCK, June 23. — The regular June meeting of the school board was held on Thursday night last when all the members were present except Trustee Carter.

Communications were received from Miss K. Falkner and Miss L. Condon, tendering their resignation to take effect at the end of the present term, and on motion of G. Barlow and R. Anderson the resignations were accepted.

A communication was received from the Chief Engineer of the Hydro Electric Power Commission advising the Board that to heat the school by electricity would cost about $375 per month requiring from 55 to 10 horse power per day. The communication was ordered to be filed.

A communication was received from Principal Davidson giving information regarding examination and pointing out the requirements in the Continuation School rooms in the event of candidates being successful. On motion of Anderson and Barlow the letter was laid over until the next meeting when the results of the examinations would be known and when the board would be aware of the requirements.

A communication was received from Miss Hazel Johnston, applying for a position on the school staff and on motion of Anderson and Ford Miss Johnston was engaged at a salary of $900.

A communication was received from Miss Brewster applying for an increase of salary from $1400 to $1600.

On motion of Roche and Forde a special meeting will be held on June 26th for the purpose of general business and adjusting teachers' salaries and advertising for teachers to fill vacancies if necessary.

Trustee J. Barlow complained of improper discipline in Miss Crowe's room, and on motion of Barlow and Anderson, Chairman Barlow was instructed to look into the matter.

Sixty-two Years in the Game.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 23 (Canadian Press). — Concluding an active newspaper career of sixty-two years' duration, Nathan H. Buckner, one of the pioneer newspapermen of Ontario, has come to Woodstock to spend the rest of his days.

Mr. Buckner commenced to learn the printing trade with the Woodstock Sentinel in 1860, and later was foreman for the Times when the late Postmaster McCleneghan was the proprietor.

IN MILLBROOK AND DISTRICT

MILLBROOK, June 23. — The council held a brief session on Monday evening, Reeve W. T. Wood in the chair. Present: Councillors Eakins, Lang and Stinson. The Reeve reported some items of interest from the recent meeting of the county council which he attended last week at Cobourg, and stated that the usual grant of $698 for municipal road work had been passed. The widening and improving Allen's hill will be proceeded with as soon as the necessary men are available. Arrangements are also being made for the procuring of suitable gravel for whatever road improvements are carried out this season.

Cavan council held its June session on Wednesday afternoon in the town hall, Millbrook.

The 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons, "B" Co. from Millbrook, Orono, Bethany and Portypool, (15 men from each place), passed through here on Tuesday morning on their way to camp at Peterboro. They are under the command of Captain Powell, of Toronto.

Messrs. R. H. Kells, C. Needler, H. Neilson, of Toronto and Mr. George Needler, of the Bank of Toronto staff, Stratford, motored down from the city on Thursday of last week, remaining over until Monday, when Mrs. J., and Mr. G. Dawson returned with them. Mr. G. Needler is holidaying at his home here for a couple of weeks before resuming his duties at Stratford.

Mr. T. H. Aiken of Fallis' Line, left for Kingston on Wednesday morning to attend the Grand Lodge of the Orange Order for the Dominion, which meets in that city this week.

Mr. Joseph Ferguson, of Flesherton, returned to his home on Saturday after a pleasant visit with his daughter, Mrs. S. E. Eakins, and other friend in town.

Mr. W. E. Hall has been appointed inspector and valuator of farm property for this district by the Provincial Government, and is being instructed in the duties of his new office by an expert in the work.

Mrs (Dr.) R. Reynolds and baby, who have been guests of her mother, Mrs. F. Johnston, for some time, left for their home in Toronto last week. Dr. Reynolds graduated in dentistry this month and is beginning his professional career in Toronto.

Reeves Wood, of Millbrook, McCamus of Cavan, Corbett of Manvers, and Deputy-Reeves Greer, of South Monaghan and Staples of Manvers, attended the June session of the Counties Council in Cobourg last week.

KILLED NUMBER 27.

National Guard Ordered Out to Protect Property.

HERRIN, Ills., June 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Herrin to-day remained quiet after the wild disorders of yesterday in which at least 27 men were killed and an unknown number wounded, when 5,000 union miners and sympathizers attacked approximately half a hundred imported steam shovel men and laborers working in the Lester strip pit of Southern Illinois Coal Company. The county officials maintained that since no one remained to work in the strip pit that of itself was a guarantee against further outbreaks and asserted 1,000 members of the Illinois National Guard ordered to mobilize in Chicago for possible duty here, were unnecessary.

CATTLE EMBARGO

Lloyd George Said Can Only Be Removed by Legislation

LONDON, June 23.—(Canadian Press)—Premier Lloyd George today in Parliament took upon himself the task of replying to questions from the commoners with regard to the Canadian cattle embargo. At the outset he denied that he had had any communication with the Canadian Prime Minister with reference to lifting the ban.

The Premier proceeded to say that undoubtedly the former Prime Minister of Canada had made it clear at the Imperial Conference that the promise given in 1917 by Lord Ernle, then President of the Board of Agriculture, was regarded as a pledge by the anti-embargoists that the embargo would be removed and this elicited the necessity of explaining to the Canadian Government that the embargo rested on the statute and could be raised only by legislation.

Premier Lloyd George added that this was a fact of very great importance to Canada.

A couple of other questions on the subject of the embargo, apparently aimed with a view to embarrassing the Government, were unanswered by the Premier.

CASH GRAIN.

MONTREAL, June 23.— (Canadian Press.) — There was little change in the local cash grain market yesterday. The flour market was quiet. There is no new feature in the millfeed market or in that for rolled oats. A moderate business was done in baled hay. The egg market was firmer but without price change. Business in potatoes is dull. Butter prices scored a further advance of 3-4 to 1c. per pound.

The cheese market was strong.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

CHICAGO, June 23.—(Canadian Press.)— Wheat moved upward in price yesterday owing more or less to predictions of a hot wave in the central west and because of need of rain northwest. The market closed firm, 1-2 to 1 1-2c. higher, with July $1.13 3-4 to $1.13 7-8, and September $1.14 7-8 to $1.15. Corn gained 3-8 to 7-8c. and oats 5-8 to 3-4c. BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is aching; if what you eat sours and forms acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before eating more food.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless.

Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast.

EDITOR SAYS 75 DEAD.

Men Were Shot Down in Cold Blood

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 23. — (Canadian Press).—Hal. Trevillon, member of the Illinois Commerce Commission, and owner of the "Herrin News," says that the managing editor of his paper told him late yesterday that the number of dead will exceed 75 when all are accounted for.

The editor said his information is that the union members put the non-union men in a squad and told them to run and then fired on them.

SUBURBAN AREA COMMISSION DEFENDS ITS HIGHER WAGES

Pays More Than County and Province to Teamsters and Laborers Employed in Road Construction--Commissioners Explain the Operations Going on Under Their Supervision--Long Discuss on With County Council.

MAY EXTEND MILEAGE

Why should the Suburban Area Commission pay a higher scale of wages for road work than is paid on the provincial highway and county roads?

This was one of the many questions volleyed at the present members of the Commission by Mr. E. Deyell of Otonabee and Mr. Wm. Brown of Smith township, in their conference with the County Council on Thursday. Ex-Ald. Frank Whitehouse, the city's representative until his recent resignation, was not present.

Another and kindred query that came up in the Commission's accounting of their stewardship might be expressed in the brief phrase "Who's boss, the Commission or the County Council." The questions were all pointed, with Fred Eason, W. A. Anderson and H. B. Rye on the firing line, but they were presented and answered in a friendly, considerate spirit that was really seeking a complete understanding for the benefit of the public.

The Higher Scale.

Mr. Deyell said that the Commission was paying 60c an hour to teamsters and 30c to laborers on the road work the Commission has in progress. The scale on the roads being built by the county and the province is 50c for teamsters and 25c an hour for laborers.

Defending the difference of one dollar a day for teamsters Mr. Deyell said that the foremen under the Commission had often to engage teamsters from the city where the rate was 80 cents an hour.

"We employ them when we can get them for the work near the city, but we seldom can get them" he explained. "The price is too small. We feel justified in employing city teams. We believe this should be evened up."

"So there's a certain amount of sentiment about it" remarked Mr. Eason.

"I don't think so" replied Mr. Deyell.

"If there was no sentiment mixed in it you would engage teamsters and laborers wherever you could get them without any thought as to whether they were from the city or where they came from," said Otonabee's Reeve.

"We took it that way" Mr. Deyell continued. "The county was paying $5 and $2.50 a day, and the city was paying at the rate of $8 a day for teamsters. We're between the two. We split it and we think we struck it just about right. And we insist on getting good men."

Expenses are High.

"By the time a man pays 70c a bushel for oats, $30 a ton for hay and with blacksmithing prices the way they are, where are you going to land at unless a teamster is getting about $6 a day?" Mr. Deyell asked.

Mr. Eason answered that if a man had a team and had to work he might be glad to get the $5 wage.

"Is that by contract or day work" Mr. Deyell asked.

"It doesn't matter," said Mr. Eason. "They are getting men for that money and I understand they got all they wanted."

"We feel that you make it hard for the country because of your higher rate" said Mr. Anderson who had been urging during the session that there should be some effort put forth to bring the Council and the Commission closer together in matters pertaining to work and wages.

Mr. Deyell protested that the conditions were not exactly the same.

Many of the Commission's workmen, he said were boarding away from home, and some allowance, he contended, should be made for that fact. On county road work teams were usually engaged from nearby farmers. Experience had shown that if the Commission was to continue its work without continual changes in the personnel of the teamsters and laborers a little higher wage should be paid.

City No Model.

Commenting upon the remark about the city's wages Mr. Eason said "Don't pay any attention to the city. They do a lot of queer things. They've got people they have to keep all winter then pay them more than they're worth when they do a little work. The city has got them now so they won't work unless they're getting about $8 a day."

"Well, whose duty is it to set the price?" Mr. Deyell flung out.

Mr. Anderson said he was confident the Commission and the Council could readily find common ground on which they could work together in harmony.

Duncan McFarlane recalled that the Commission in its initial operations had fixed their scale of wages equal to the county's, "but it didn't work."

"Those weren't normal times" Mr. Eason objected. Conditions were different now, he pointed out and warranted a new effort.

Commission Has Authority.

Nothing definite came of this phrase of the conversation, but Mr. E. A. Peck had previously informed the Council that according to the statute the Commission had full authority to fix the rate of wages for their workmen.

In regard to foremen, Mr. Deyell said there were two at 50c an hour and one at 40c, but their wages shouldn't be regarded entirely on that basis for they often worked overtime without extra pay and sometimes worked fourteen hours a day.

Mr. Deyell denied that Reeves of the townships had any influence when the suburban work was being laid out.

$116.70 For One Trip.

Some of the questions were directed at items in the auditor's report of the Commission's expenditures. One of these was for $116.70 for a trip to Toronto.

Mr. Deyell said he could not recall the occasion for that account. He had only recently become chairman. Mr. Anderson said it looked like an exceptionally large sum for such a trip. On further thought Mr. Deyell said he believed it included a visit to Kitchener to inspect a four-wheel drive truck which the Commission had considered buying.

"And we saved the people money by going up to see that demonstration" Mr. W. Brown, the other commissioner, declared.

Restriction on Trustees.

"Does the Commission have any of their own teams on the work" asked Mr. Rye.

"Yes," answered Mr. Deyell.

"Is it legal" Mr. Rye pursued.

"I don't know" Mr. Deyell said. "I rather think it is Why isn't it?"

"It's not considered so in other municipal work" Mr. Rye pointed out.

Mr. Deyell—"We don't get such salaries that we should be cut out.

Mr. Eason—"The Reeves are cut out."

Mr. Deyell—"Anyway, the matter is left entirely with the foremen. The Commission has nothing to do with it."

Mr. Rye—"I think they should."

Mr. Deyell—"If Mr. Brown has any of his boys working with their teams, why shouldn't they get a chance to earn a dollar."

Mr. Rye—"If he's a trustee he is a trustee he is not supposed to get any profit out of his position."

Mr. Deyell—"It doesn't often happen. I don't know whether they worked for themselves or not."

Mr. Brown stated that any time his boys worked on suburban roads it was only when they were needed, when some of the other teamsters didn't show up. They didn't work steadily for the Commission but were sometimes called out in an emergency.

The Commission's Work.

At the outset Mr. Deyell recounted that up to June 12th the Commission had spent $6,205 this year, made up mainly as follows:—Lakefield road including a bridge, $1794; Otonabee river road, $1587; Keene road, $82; Chemong road, $9; Monaghan Road, $90; Sherbrooke street road, $35; Norwood road $48; Warsaw road, $626; Peterboro to Sanderson's corners, $284.

Mr. Deyell said that a great deal of gravelling and patching had been done during the Spring. The Commission contemplated extending these small gravelled roads ten miles into the country for the benefit both of the city and county. The approval of the Department was sought, and it was expected that it would be granted.

The Distance Covered.

Answering Mr. Lillico's enquiry, Mr. Deyell said that the Chemong road was carried a mile and one-half beyond the provincial's highway's turn, and now reached to the village, the Lakefield road extended to the 8th line of Smith, the Norwood road to Hogan's cheese factory, five and a half miles, the Keene road 3 miles to Zion, the Hales bridge road to the school house, the Warsaw road to the five corners, Sherbrooke street and Park street 1 1-2 miles each way.

Mr. Deyell explained that these roads had been chosen with the object of accommodating the most people.

The Proposed Mileage.

The mileage of roads designated by the Commission was: Smith 12 miles, Otonabee 13, Douro 5, and Monaghan 3.

Mr. Rye asked why Monaghan was getting so little attention from the Commission, and Mr. Deyell pointed out that if the Gravel road had not been assumed as a provincial highway it would have been taken over by the Suburban commission. "If we took over much more of Monaghan's roads they would have nothing left for themselves to gravel."

Caretaker of Crusher.

In opening the interrogation of the Commissioners Mr. Eason said it should be understood that the Councillors were simply asking for information in a friendly way in order that they would be in position to answer any question put forward by ratepayers. He first enquired about the wage paid the caretaker of the crusher used by the Commission.

Mr. Deyell said that this man was paid 80 cents an hour, that he supplied his own car and gas whenever it was needed.

This has been a great benefit to our operations" Mr. Deyell continued. "it is away ahead of getting a man to look after the crusher for every job. This man is engaged on the understanding that he will come whenever we need him. He ran the crusher five weeks last year, but we haven't done any work with it yet this year. The crusher cost $4,4000"

Mr. Anderson—"Is it an intricate machine requiring a mechanical genius to look after it?"

Mr. Deyell—"Would you advise having one man to handle it, or getting a new man for every job. He helps out on the job wherever he can."

Mr. Eason—"But at best it is only a 30c an hour job."

Mr. Deyell—"When we were dealing with this matter Mr. Whitehouse felt that a good man on the crusher should have mechanic's pay. Beside it is not steady work, this man was to come when we wanted him, and he used his car without any extra cost to us."

Other questions were put forward and information given either by the Commissioners, Mr. McFarlane or County Clerk Elliot.

Control Wages.

In a previous discussion about the power invested in the Suburban Roads Commission, Mr. E. A. Peck, county solicitor, said "They direct the work and is seems they would have control of the wages."

"It's a queer thing if three men who are not elected can control the city and county" said one of the members.

Another bit of counsel given by Mr. Peck in regard to public trustees was "The general principle is that a trustee has no right to make anything out of his office."

"I always held that I shouldn't do any work for the corporation unless say I had some gravel near a road that being improved and was specially needed ther," said Mr. Anderson.

A Vegetable Power-Plant from the Moss Marchanita, in Which the Sunlight Is Made to Give Up Its Energy.

HOW the inventions of Nature far outdo, from the point of view of many-sidedness, perfection and efficiency, those of the human mind, and that there is a no more fertile field for the inventor than the infinite series of natural models is set forth by Prof. R. H. France. This noted European scientist recently concluded a long series of investigations which he describes in a book both attractive and instructive ("Die Pflanze als Erfinder," Franckhsche Buchhandlung, Stuttgart.)

The most hopeful conclusion a writer in The Scientific American derives from Prof. France's considerations is that human engineering could keep itself busy for centuries to come, creating an infinite wealth of new and ever more improved machines, if only the more important vegetable inventions so far known were to be assimilated. It is not the plant that creates its technical apparatus nor the human mind that produces marvels of engineering, but in both of them there is the same principle at work.

The seven constructive elements—sphere, crystal, plane, staff, band, screw and cone—the same elements on which human engineering is based, are found again in Nature's own creations. To her, as well as to man, they are the indispensable fundamental elements, and neither Nature nor human art or engineering knows of any form that could not be reduced to them.

Prof. France was in a most remarkable manner led to these considerations. Being in need of a shaker for the sake of a biological experiment, and having in vain tried to obtain it in trade, he was eventually struck by the idea that Nature, for the spreading of spores and seeds, ought to have created something suitable. In fact, the capsule of the poppy turned out to contain what he was looking for; the holes arranged below the lid of the capsule actually constitute a solution of the problem superior in efficiency to all human constructions previously put forward. Prof. France was the first to find this by actual experience, and a patent applied for to protect a caster accurately imitating the natural product was readily granted.

"This is," says Prof. France, "how a new science sprung up, the science of Biotechnics," whose task it is to investigate the mechanical attachments of Nature and to derive therefrom suggestions for human engineering.

Generally speaking, shape enables function, the cause of shape, to be ascertained. The various crystalline forms, accordingly, are the expression of given conditions of stress and pleasure, which under otherwise equal circumstances always obtain in the same manner. Everything intended to exert a pull must be band-shaped, muscular fibres as well as driving belts. In fact, bands are the most advantageous technical realization of pulling organs. Staves will alone serve as supports: The same as the old man leans on his staff, the same as a temple roof rests on staff-shaped columns, palms grow column-like trunks to rest their crowns upon, corn will balance its ears on stalks that are hollow staves, and the most minute mono-cellular organisms will put forth staves, "whenever supporting functions belong to their habits of life."

The helical shape, in its turn, is the only possible in the case of drilling effects, whenever there is anything to be pierced. "The tiny microbe will thus screw its way through the world of the water drop, the dreadful spirochaeta is by its helical shape enabled to penetrate all tissues, to get between all the cells of its victim, the light, helical form of the winglets of maple fruits serves for aerial propulsion just in the same way as airplane propellers and just the same as the enormous propeller screw of ocean steamers serves for 'screwing' through water."

"In fact, it is not we who, after all, have invented screws, drills, propellers, neither is it the microbes and mastigopods and plants, nor finally the air, which, of course, moves quickest in helical whirlpools—but above all facts of Nature there is ever towering a law intimately based on the structure of the world, that movements occurring in spiral lines will overcome resistances more readily than movements in straight lines.

"Crystalline forms, sphere, plane, staff and band, screw and cone, these are fundamental engineering elements of the whole universe. They are sufficient for all processes of the whole of cosmic life, controlling them in the best possible manner. Whatever there is, is some combination of these seven fundamental forms, though there is nothing beyond the holy seven. Nature has produced nothing else, and the human mind will create whatever it may, without ever reaching anything but combinations and variations of these seven fundamental forms." In fact, "the laws of minimum resistance and of economy will cause the same activities always to result in the same forms, so that throughout the whole universe all processes will always have to occur within the compass of the seven forms of all being."

Prof. France also discusses a number of typical vegetable organisms, first of all, the flagellates or mastigopods, which according to the law of minimum resistance, always assume the form of a narrow hull adapted for dividing the water. Floating as they all do below the surface of the water, they constitute the prototype of submarine. In the place of the keel otherwise provided, many such organisms (which are known to be at the boundary between the vegetable and animal kingdoms) comprise an attachment serving as rudder as well as for increasing stability, of which modern shipbuilding has not yet made use, but which is to be found with airships. When being shown by Prof. France the design of a ship imitating the shape of such a mastigopod, one shipbuilding engineer was most surprised at noticing a type of vessel so far unknown, but which with equal coal consumption, would be able to obtain higher speeds.

"The solution of the problem of ship motion by the whip-shaped screw of flagellates," says Prof. France, "is an ideal case of economic achievement. While, in order to obtain a speed of, say, 23 knots per hour, engines of 40,000 to 70,000 horsepower with an enormous consumption of coal, must be resorted to, a tiny monad, according to my calculations, in proportion to its size (the monad being assumed to be 1-100 millimetre, the rapid steamer 200 metres in length), will obtain, not a speed of 4.2 millimetres per hour, as corresponding to the best of rapid steamers, but effects 80,000 times better! In fact, the monad, with the aid of its whip screw, is able to hurry through 20 millimetres per second.

The membranes of vegetable cells, as Prof. France points out, normally will stand a pressure of 5 to 10 atmospheres, that is, the same as the walls of a small steam boiler. Nay, in the cells of sugar beets a membrane 1-1000 millimetre in thickness stands a pressure of 21 atmospheres, and whereas a steam boiler requires walls of a thickness about 1-20 of the boiler diameter, those of the vegetable boiler are barely thicker than 1-500 of the diameter. To this point is Nature's own engineering superior to that of man.

A simple vegetable leaf further combines in itself the installations of a large modern industrial plant. In it, there is a complicated ventilator at work, further a drying apparatus, an infinite number of admirable "light engines," a refrigerating machine and an hydraulic press. Most remarkable among these are the "light engines," having no equivalent in human engineering, viz., attachments by means of which the chlorophyll will catch the carbonic acid and with water convert it into starch, in which connection the beams of light play the same part as the steam in a steam engine. The vegetable leaf thus works with the cheapest, most ubiquitous source of power, the energy of sunbeams, and likewise with the least expensive of raw materials, air and water, which are found everywhere.

Vegetable refrigerating machines have been shown by Prof. France to embody the principle of the Linde ice machine; if deprived of their refrigerating mixture, they would constitute excellent condensers.

Still another example to which Prof. France draws attention is that of the "waterworks" of trees, which, in spite of all attempts so far made, have remained unexplained, installations by means of which the mammoth trees of California will raise the life-giving water to a height of 142 metres, the eucalyptus of Australia even to 152 metres, an achievement not even approximately equalled by any system of waterworks made by man.

Is the Motor Car Responsible for a New Type of Tramp?

TWENTIETH century civilization is held responsible for a new type of tramp—the motorcar vagrant. This new variety of beggar is said to be rapidly increasing, especially in the western part of the United States.

Like the ordinary tramp, the motor vagrant is hopeful that in another place he will have better luck. Loading all his possessions into the old automobile and with little food or money, he starts out in search of a new home. When his money and food gives out, he finds himself in the same plight as the ordinary tramp and is obliged to beg for food and shelter. The farmer in order to get rid of such an undesirable visitor gives him food. Thus the motor tramp journeys day after day, covering long distances in the hope of bettering his condition.

The motor type of "Weary Willie" or "Dusty Rhodes" usually acquires some old, dilapidated car, often having stolen it. He is often accompanied by his family and carries with him a few articles of household furniture. Despite the fact that he rides, he often may be in extreme want, and both he and his family are perhaps as shabby or ragged as the stage tramp. Investigations by such societies as the American Association for Organizing Social Work have shown that these families have been forced to leave their homes, probably having been dispossessed or having reached a point of poverty where they could no longer support themselves.

The up-to-date motor tramp, however, often needs some things more than food. It is not uncommon for these disreputable-looking motorists to appear at back doors and beg, not for a "hand out," but for an inner tube or enough gasoline to carry him to the next town.

The general use of the motor truck along public highways has worked a great change in the life of the average hobo. The ordinary tramp, of course, belies his name. He does not tramp if he can avoid doing so. He has always followed, not the highways, but the railroads, where he could steal a ride. As a result, the communities at a distance from railroads have usually been free from tramps in the past. Prosperity along many railroads has at times been considered undesirable because of the depredations of the tramps, who steal or perhaps sleep in the barns and burn them down in doing so. A variety of crimes follow the tramps' highways.

Today the motor truck greatly enlarges the tramp's field of operations. He can "hop a truck" as easily as he could steal a ride on a train. The obliging driver may give him a ride for the sake of company. As a result, many thousands of miles of roads are now frequented by tramps which before the coming of the motor truck rarely saw the species. Great districts heretofore unworked by the beggar are now opened to him.

How STATIC ELECTRICITY Scrambles RADIO PROGRAMS

WHAT is static? What will it do to my radio set? What other kinds of interference will bother me?" These are typical questions that are asked as summer—the worst season for interferences with wireless messages—approaches. They are answered as follows by a writer in Popular Science Monthly:

Many complaints of interference have already been made by new users of radio receivers. They tune in as usual and everything is working well when suddenly—bang! gr-r-r—whee-e-e! somebody or something butts in and they lose the music and their tempers!

These radio interferences may come from one of two sources. Many of them are due to amateurs with powerful regenerative sets who operate without understanding their stations. The remainder come from the most uncontrollable force in the radio universe—static.

The real cause of the trouble can usually be discovered by an experienced radio man, but the blame should not be attached to any one until it is definitely located. In a locality where there are many transmitting stations signals from them may break up a concert. The allotment of different wave lengths to their respective classes of transmitting stations theoretically permits the concert and various messages to go out at the same time with as little interference as three trains would create for each other if they were all en route from New York to Buffalo, but going via the Erie, Lackawanna and New York Central respectively. In practice, however, collisions occur in the receiver that sound like the three trains meeting at a common point while running a mile a minute.

The remedy when signals clash is to find out where they come from, after all efforts to tune out the intruders have failed. Every sending station is required by law to sign its call letters to each message by transmitting them in code or repeating them with the voice so that all who hear the station may identify it. By using the lists of stations published by the government and sold by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., at 15 cents each, the location of a station and the name of the owner can be learned.

If the interrupting station does not give its call letters, the district radio inspector may be asked to focus direction finders on it and bring the owner to justice, but he should not be bothered unless a station is clearly violating the law.

A very efficient receiver will also bring in all sorts of hums and buzzes from electric light and power lines, trolley car motors, and automobile magnetos. Violet ray apparatus may be heard at work in neighboring boudoirs, as well as many X-rays boring their paths into troubled human interiors, and lightning-rod agents producing miniature electric storms.

An antenna that runs parallel to wires near by will pick up current from them and produce noises in the receiver, but if it is at right-angles to nearby wires there will be little trouble unless it happens to touch one.

The worst disturber of the ether is "static." Listen in while a thunder-storm is approaching and at the same time watch for the lightning flashes. Do not watch too long! Pull the lightning switch and ground the aerial before the storm is overhead.

The instant you see the flash you hear a grumble, growl, or crash in the telephone. This seems to prove the assertion of the scientists that radio and light waves travel at the same rate of speed.

Static is worse in the summer than at other seasons, though it may occur at any season. It does not depend entirely upon the clouds becoming so charged with electricity as to cause lightning. Some old-time radio amateurs used to give up the game during the hot weather, declaring that the shortened range and the static interference took all the joy out of it. But today many a listener continues to enjoy his favorite indoor sport the year round, for he can hear something all the time and, more than that, he can hear what he wants to hear most of the time.

Sea LIZARD Once LIVED in KANSAS

CHALK deposits in western Kansas are extraordinarily rich in fossil remains of extinct animals. Owing to the peculiar chemical and physical properties of the chalk the bones, thousands of years old, have been well preserved. Among the scientific treasures brought to light there are the remains of strange toothed birds, marine creatures, including turtles and now and then dinosaurian reptiles.

C. H. Sternberg and his three sons of Butte Creek, Kan., all expert fossil hunters, have collected many valuable fossil specimens which are now on exhibition in museums both in America and abroad. One of their latest finds, described in The Pathfinder, is a specimen of a swimming or sea lizard known scientifically as "tylosaurus proriger." The specimen has come into the possession of the National Museum at Washington.

The tylosaurus belongs to a group of extinct reptiles classified as mosasaurs—water-living creatures with long, slender bodies, feet modified into fins or paddles and long muscular tails which served to propel them swiftly in the water. This specimen measures about 25 feet in length, the head portion being three and a half feet long. Impressions in the chalk surrounding the bones indicate that in life it was covered with small scales, overlapping like those of a fish. Evidently there were great numbers of these animals in the sea which once covered Kansas.

The tylosaurus, like all other mosasaurs, had an articular joint about midway of each lower jaw. This permitted considerable up-and-down and lateral movement between the front and back parts. Moreover these jaws were rather loosely joined at the forward ends. The feature in conjunction with the midway joints made it possible for them to swallow morsels of food that were relatively quite large. Evidently fish, large and small, constituted the bulk of their diet.

How CLOTH Is WOVEN from WOOD

CLOTHING, ordinarily made out of wool, cotton, silk or linen, has also been made of the fibrous portions of nettles, rushes, broom and turf, as well as wood. This has been done, not only by savages of old times, but as recently as during the great war, when the Germans and Austrians were compelled to use these materials. A great deal of cloth, clothing, bagging, "canvas," cordage, etc., they made out of wood.

How the wood fibres were prepared for use is told by S. J. Record, professor of forest products at Yale University, in the magazine of the American Forestry Association dealing with novel wood and forest products.

Wood is made up of countless little hard fibres all tightly cemented together. The wood is first cut up into little chips which are cooked in certain acids or alkalis to dissolve out the hard material and separate the fibres one from another. Through this process a stick of solid wood is converted into a mass of soft pulp. Wood fibres appear something like cotton fibres, only they are very much shorter. Eight spruce-wood fibres would have to be placed end to end to equal an inch in length.

As such short fibres could only be spun into a thread with the greatest difficulty, they are first made into paper. The torn edge of a piece of paper shows the tiny fibres of which it is composed lying in a closely tangled web. Take some ordinarily thin brown wrapping paper, says Prof. Record, cutting off a strip about half an inch wide and twisting this lightly, and, in effect, a length of paper twine is obtained. Tissue paper treated in the same manner will give a comparatively fine thread, and two or three of these may be twisted to make a stronger one.

The method of converting wood into clothing is contained in this simple explanation. Chips are cooked to a fibrous pulp. The pulp is spread out and the tangled fibres ironed down into sheets of paper, which is then cut into narrow strips. The strips are spun or twisted by machines into thread or yarn. The thread or yarn is wound on spools and bobbins. These are put into looms, and cloth is then woven in the way as it is usually woven from wool or cotton.

The objection to cloth made in this way, as Prof. Record shows, is the fact that it is coarse and harsh and becomes "tender" and is easily torn when wet. By using part cotton, the material can be made softer and stronger, and by waterproofing the paper and twisting it very tightly the material can be woven to withstand considerable wetting. The Germans and Austrians, says the professor, found these paper textiles very serviceable not only for use as clothing, but for tablecloths, napkins, wall covering, curtains, bed covers and sheets, mattress ticking, bagging, harness and for a lot of military uses. However, he points out, no one wants to wear paper clothing if he can get anything else.

Simple Remedies Any One Can Apply

DISEASE germs cannot flourish in the veins of any person who makes a habit of eating the humble but invaluable onion. In remote European villages the old custom may still be seen in force of placing a plate full of sliced onion beside the bed or coffin of any person who has died of infectious disease. Although those who follow this practice cannot explain it, the fact is that the raw onion destroys germs and purifies the infected air of the death chamber. Onion eaters are safe from toothache and neuralgic pains. No people on earth have better teeth than Italian navvies, whose midday meal is dry bread and raw onion. A diet of raw onion will prove invaluable to anyone suffering from catarrh, and influenza passes by the person who eats an onion every day.

* * *

Doctors have been prescribing sugar candy for influenza, and the results of this pleasant remedy are said to be excellent in cases where the patient can digest sugar. But sugar, of course, is a splendid food, and is good in many forms of wasting illness.

Buttermilk is a wholesome drink, and doctors agree that it is an almost perfect diet for any person threatened with appendicitis. Indeed, it can be used in all cases of abdominal disease accompanied by fever.

* * *

If you have a bruised, inflamed wound, such, for instance, as is caused by a rusty nail, try wood smoke. This, being a germ-killer, will help take the inflammation out of such a wound. Twenty minutes in the smoke will take the pain out of the wound.

* * *

The inside of a raw potato scraped to a pulp is an excellent emergency treatment for a burn, and if this not handy, plain olive oil from the larder is an excellent first-aid application.

* * *

People who have irritability of the heart should not drink hot water, as it may cause palpitation. The same advice applies to those who have soreness of the stomach or pain induced by light pressure. Thoroughly healthy persons find that hot water will relieve thirst better than cold water, and for that purpose is not to be condemned.

HOW YOU CAN REDUCE

BY MARIAN HALE

"Love has its thrills, but these are nothing compared to the emotional reactions of a woman who finds her waistband too loose, following a period of gastronomical negativity."

So says Nina Wilcox Putnam, the short story writer and author of the new book, To-morrow We Diet" who succeeds in keeping her income up and her flesh down.

Once I weighed 98 pounds," Miss Putnam is speaking again. "And I was declared tubercular. After following a doctor'es instructions two years I weighed 197 1-2 pounds.

"Then the doctor said the tubercular condition has disappeared. But it certainly was the only thing that was missing. Otherwise, I was all there and 50 pounds to the good.

"Then I embarked upon the great adventure—getting thin. At first tried everything. I ate Beastly Buns I read 'Feed and Fade Away', I wore Dr. Blank's rubber garments.

"Turkish baths intrigued me. Then I found a corset, strongly reminiscent of the Inquisition, which was supposed to put the stom ach where the chest should be, and keep it there

-I went in for electric and human massage, and classical dancing.

"But after all these the scales still hovered close to the 200 mark.

"Then I was driven to dieting With the help of my doctor, I evolved a system of do's and don'ts that I found effective. By following it I lost 50 pounds in seven months

"I believe that before following any diet sch edule a woman would do well to take up the matter with her doctor.

("I advise every woman, who goes on a strict diet, to take good care of her face and massage it scientifically, otherwise it is likely to become wrinkled.

"I found that I kept my strength and pep unimpaired by eating bran bread three times a day.

"How often I reached out a trembling hand and surreptitiously patted the soft cheek of a Parker House roll, then withdrew it by sheer will power, leaving the little roll unharmed.

"Often the sight of a potato, even the humlest boiled one, brought tears of longing to my eyes. But bread and potatoes are the handmaidens of avoirdupois.

"Finally 50 pounds had melted away, and I was myself again, I felt more than compensated. What are pies and potatoes against youth and lightness of foot?

IN MILLBROOK AND DISTRICT

MILLBROOK, June 23. — The strawberry festival given on the lawn of St. Enoch's Church, Garden Hill, on Tuesday evening was very largely attended, and quite successful from every point of view.

An excellent tea was served from to 8 o'clock, with an abundance of strawberries and cream to satisfy everyone's appetite, and cake, pies, etc., equally good, both in quality and quantity.

A baseball game between Kendal and Garden Hill, resulting in a score of 11-4 in favour of the latter team, proved an attraction for the afternoon, and after supper a good programme was given by Mrs. Comber, whose readings were much enjoyed, and Mr. Bickell, of Canton, who sang several solos.

The pastor, Rev. G. S. Gervan, acted as chairman, and both he and Mrs. Gervan assisted with musical numbers during the evening. The hearty applause which greeted every appearance of those on the programme testified to the appreciation of the large audience present.

The C.G.I.T. group had a booth on the grounds with candy, ice-cream, etc., for sale, and which was well patronised all evening. The total receipts were in the neighbourhood of $150.00.

The closing meeting of the Wide-Awakes C.G.I.T. square of the Methodist Church, was held on Tuesday evening, with a good attendance of members present. After the usual business and devotional period, a study of the leaves of six varieties of trees was taken up, noting differences of colour, outline, veining, etc. The concluding Bible study took the form of an alphabetical contest, requiring the name of a Bible character for every letter of the alphabet, with at least one fact connected with the life of each. Both studies proved interesting and profitable. A treat was enjoyed during the sing-song at the close, and an exciting game of carpet-balls between the "stripes" and "spots," resulting in a victory of 2 points for the former, concluded the meeting, which will be the last until September.

Mr. Heaslip, of Campbellford, was in town on Thursday in the interests of the Brown Bros. Nurseries Co., of Welland.

Mr. Parker is erecting a new verandah in front of his residence, which will be a decided improvement.

Mr. Raymond McGuire, of Toronto, is with his father, Mr. F. McGuire.

Mr. D. Simpson, of Peterborough, was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Albert Armstrong, of Toronto, is visiting Hastings friends.

FEELING HIGH.

Assassination of Field Marshal Has Necessitated Greater Precautions.

BELFAST, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)—The situation here was one of great anxiety to-day owing to the high state of feeling over the assassination of Field Marshal Wilson in London. Special precautions were taken in the disturbed areas, but military and police were forced to fire on the mobs several times. Casualties, however, so far as reported by mid-forenoon, were only six wounded. The area mainly affected is situtaed between Grosvenor street and Falls Road.

CANADIAN OFFICES.

Government to acquire British Columbia House, is the Report.

LONDON, June 23. (Canadian Press Cable.) — The Canadian Press understands that the Canadian government has decided to acquire the British Columbia house in Regent street for the headquarters of the Canadian High Commissioner. This building was opened in 1913 as the office of the British Columbia agent general. It provided more room than was required and is said to have been a financial burden on the province.

DOMINION DAY IN LONDON.

Presentation of Colors to Take Place.

LONDON, June 23. (Canadian Press.) — An interesting ceremony it is expected, will mark London's celebration of Dominion day.

On Friday, June 30, Right Hon. P. C. Larkin, the Canadian High Commissioner, will hand to Bishop Ryle, the Dean of Westminster, the Canadian colors presented by the Dominion government for the perpetual adornment of General Wolfe's monument in Westminster Abbey.

"Our First Year"

(BY A BRIDE)

CHAPTER LXI

"I don't mean to say I watched you walking with Bart that night. I went to bed. And Bart didn't come in for an hour!"

"I guess it was a full hour!" I replied defiantly. "But can you—do you actually believe I was with Bart?"

"A man invariably does believe his own eyes, right or wrong," I said bitterly. "And there's no sense in a woman's offering any defense."

After that speech, Jack and I were silent a long time.

"Jack has no job," I kept telling myself although that fact seemed the least important of our worries. "I must be patient—and I want to be tender."

On the other hand, I perversely wished not to explain that Bonny, in my dress, had been mistaken by my husband for me. At last I understood why our motor trip has been such a failure.

And because he had believed his eyes, he ought to suffer, even if his eyes had lied. I contradicted myself every five minutes. Back and forth I swung between little pictures of Jack in forlorn, lonesome bankruptcy, exciting my sympathy, and magnified pictures of Jack, my accuser, turning me to stone.

My husband sat with his face in his hands. No job. No money. A wife to take care of—a wife who took long walks with other men!

I went across the room softly. I would tell my poor boy how his eyes had dedceived him. I slipped an arm around his neck. I wanted to creep close to him, to put my face against his.

Jack shivered slightly. Then almost rudely in his haste, he rose to his feet and evaded my embrace.

"Oh, can't you see, Peggins? It isn't that—the love we want isn't just a case of hand and hand and lip to lip, cheek to cheek and clasping arms.

"I'm human, but I know how you've managed me. For your arms about my neck I've forgotten the rest of life. You've twisted me around your finger—when we should have talked business.

"Now, girl, let's be honest. You and I have to face what there is in marriage besides the human touch. There's truth about love—and its opposite. And if we don't see the same truth what's the sense in the rest of marriage?"

"If you're hunting for sense, listen to a little!"

If Jack could be hard, I could be ice. Jack—my own husband—had turned away from my caresses.

It seemed impossible. Never since our first kiss had my man refused to be solaced—in any trouble—by the touch of my hand upon his.

It was unexplainable—unendurable.

A CIVIC HOLIDAY IN LITTLE BRITAIN

Afternoon of Sports and Concert in the Evening —Rain no Deterrent to Picnickers.

LITTLE BRITAIN, June 22. — The Little Britain civic holiday was carried off here despite the weather, in a very creditable manner and the crowds in attendance were completely satisfied with the entertainment provided. The Athletic Association provided the afternoons' sport. The Peterboro team which was to have played was unable to be present and telephoned to that effect at the last moment. However a Mariposa League game between Oakwood and Little Britain was arranged for and carried out in a first class manner. A basketball game between girls from the same villages was also staged and provided considerable amusement.

The supper was carried on in picnic fashion—everybody bringing their own basket and a real jolly crowd assembled. A lunch counter was provided for those who had overlooked arrangements for appleasing the inner man.

The concert in the evening was of a very high order and the artists who took part presented their various numbers in a most creditable manner. Dr. Hall of Little Britain, was the chairman, and Mr. Asa Huycke, of Peterboro, presented a hand picked cast of entertainers, including Miss Lillian Eastwood, soprano, and choir leader of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Lindsay; Miss Pearl Logan, Scotch dancer; Miss Hazel Davidson, elocutionist; Miss Ida Sanderson, pianist and contralto; Mr. Joseph Nasimok, the Russian boy violinst, and Mr. Asa Huycke, pianist and baritone.

LAMP SHADES.

Lamp shades are much less colorful and figured than they used to be, and they tone much better into the general scheme of the room. Ivory-colored shades of silk or parchment have become popular for bedroom use. They fit admirably into the chintz-hung room.

SUMMER COSTUMES.

Many summer gowns, particularly those of satin and taffeta have their long capes of the same material. There is a decided tendency toward harmony throughout the wardrobe.

NAVY BLUE.

Navy blue dotted swiss is a practical choice for the hot weather dress. With white collars and cuffs it presents a delightfully cool appearance, but will stand several wearings without laundering.

NECKLINE.

A new neckline noted on a Paris frock is an exaggerated bateau effect that falls off the shoulders on each side and is dropped an inch or so in front.

WANTS TO BE THE WORLD'S GREATEST WOMAN ATHLETE

ELIZABETH'S MUSTS AND CAN'TS

I must work hard.
I can't eat candy or ice cream or cake.
I must keep in training.
I can't sit up late.
That's the prescription for breaking athletic records

"To be the world's greatest all-round woman athlete—that's my ambition."

It's a pretty hefty ambition for a girl of 16, but Elibabeth Stine, who's in high school at Leonia, N. J., harbors it. And she's made a fair start toward its fulfillment. She's to be on the American team at the international track and field meet for women, fixed for next August at Pershing stadium in Paris, if the French capital can raise money for the gathering, or elsewhere if the necessary funds aren't forthcoming from the Parisians. In the trials for this team Miss Stine finished first in the hop, skip and jump, with a distance of 33 feet 10 1-4 inches, a record; first in the running broad jump, with 16 feet, and second in the running high jump and 100-yard dash.

ELIZABETH STINE.

"Gee!" said Miss Stine, jumping up and down in her excitment, "I just can't wait to see Paris.

"Some of the other girls envy me, but they might have gone if they'd trained. I can't eat candy or ice cream or cake, as sometimes I'd like to do. And I must go to bed early. But I'd much rather compete in an athletic contest, or even practice for one, than go to the best party ever held.

"In winter I play basketball. In summer I devote my time to track sports."

ROOTS OF PREJUDICE

By H. ADDINGTON BRUCE

Prejudice—defined in the dictionary as "an opinion or leaning adverse to anything without just grounds, or before sufficient knowledge"—is admittedly one of the greatest of all causes of human misery and suffering.

It has rent communities in twain, has hurried nations into war. Households have been wrecked by its malevolent influence. Countless are the individuals it has cheated of the well-being and happiness that were their right.

Long has it been inveighed against by philosophers and poets. Nor does one have to be philosopher or poet to recognise the evil it has wrought. Yet still it lingers in the civilised world — even in its most direful forms of religious prejudice race prejudice, political prejudice.

And it has lingered because all efforts to overcome it have been directed at its ugly blossomings rather than at its roots. There it must be attacked if it ever is to be conquered.

Prejudice, understand well, is not a thing of sudden growth. It is no more of sudden growth than is the human being of whom it takes possession. And, as a rule, it begins to take possession of him when he is a little child—and grows up with him.

If only parents would appreciate this.

If only they would remember that whatever they say and do in the presence of their children may give colour and direction to all the thinking of their children; and if, remembering this, they would guard themselves against exhibiting prejudice to their children, then indeed prejudice would begin to loosen its grip on the hearts and minds of men.

As things stand, prejudice too often is instilled into children before they are fairly out of their cradles. Unkind remarks, jeering words, absurd misstatements directed against this or that person, this or that race, religious denomination, or political party are uttered in children's hearing, sometimes dinned into their ears.

Inevitably the result is that the children become as prejudiced as their parents—perhaps a bit more prejudiced.

Which contributes neither to the happiness of others nor to their own happiness. The prejudiced, as a matter of fact, are hampered in all their thinking. The more prejudiced they are, the less likely that they will progress in life, even in a material way.

Parents really solicitous for the future welfare of their children—parents patriotically desirous of seeing those children develop into citizens of a type making for the prosperity of their nation—will do well to remember this.

They may not be able to free themselves from prejudice. But they can at least restrain themselves from passing on to their children the virus of prejudice. And the children, the nation whereof the children are members, will be infinitely better off in days to come if the children's parents do exercise this commendable self-restraint.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

As soon as they are admitted they are put in the care of older women who teach them sewing, embroidery, music, dancing and other social accomplishments.

The women all live together and wait on each other.

THE HOME CIRCLE

The one lesson which it is necessary for humans to learn if they would be happy is the inability of material things to satisfy. We strive vainly for years for some possession or pleasure which we think will make our happiness and contentment perfect and when we at last achieve it, we find it is only ashes in our mouth. The only good we receive from it is the determination we may gain in striving for it.

Happiness is really gained through things which seem to our material eye intangible but which, after all, are the real things in life. Analyze the pleasure we gain. A young girl is eager for a new dress. She thinks if she could but possess a certain dress she would be completely happy. Perhaps fortune grants this favor and the dress is hers. Perhaps she is happy, but it is not the dress which makes her so, if she is a natural-born fun-loving girl. It is the pleasure her possession gives to others. The mere possession of the dress means nothing to her. It is the intangible that really counts.

Take the case of a man who brings his wife a piece of lovable jewelry. Is it the possession of the jewelry that pleases her? That is the tangible thing, the thing which we can see and feel. It is the thought which prompted the gift which brings the happy flush to her cheek and tears of happiness into her eyes.

So, after all, material pleasures are not the real things. They are not the things that count. Happiness comes through intangible things—love, unselfishness, forgiveness, thoughtfulness. And the best part about it is that the intangible things are the things we cannot possess in any degree. That degree all depends on ourselves.

Our brains were not intended to be merely store houses for facts, but to be sieves through which a great deal passes and only the things which the individual considers worth while is retained.

The school that insists upon it audent learning a great quantity of data is working on the wrong prinicple. Facts are worth nothing to us if we cannot learn how to assimilate them and properly use them.

The child who is early taught to reason rather than remember, has a good start in life. As problems arise he will be able to work them out himself. And the facts that he learns through his own ability to reason will be retained in his every day working kit.

It is not nearly so important to know the dates, battles, leaders, etc., of the French Revolution as it is to be able to reason out the causes and results and to see the universal application of these principles. Knowledge of a fact is only useful when it can be applied to present conditions. So when the children bring home a low mark in history there is not always a reason to despair. Find out whether those low marks were the result of their failure to remember dates. If so, and if their paper showed their ability to reason things out for themselves, take heart. You have a bright child—one who is able to know better than the present educational system, the things that will be necessary for him to learn, in order to help him in later life.

One failure or five won't hurt you just so you profit by each and make good in the end.

Choir Picnic

The choir picnic of Trinity Methodist church was held yesterday, in a very jolly outing, when some forty of the choir members, with friends that brought their numbers up to over seventy, motored to South Beach for six o'clock dinner, returning about nine o'clock after several hours of solid fun and enjoyment. Mine Host Brooks served a most appetizing dinner to the hungry party, which was accompanied by music from Kiwanian song-books, thoughtfully provided by Mr. C. S. Cummer, a Kiwanian, who went along as guest of the choir. Two particularly striking duets were those Kiwanis songs rendered by Mrs. G. H. King and Dr. M. A. Morrison, and Mrs. R. F. Downey and Andrew Brown. Mr. G. H. King presided at the piano.

The programme of races which was run off provided a good deal of enjoyment for participants and spectators. Prominent among them was the three-legged event, won by Miss Mabel Carter and Mr. H. Turner; the sack race, won by Mrs. George H. King, and the fat ladies' race, won by Mrs. A. F. Lane. All these ladies received many compliments on their graceful appearance.

In addition to filling the office of mayor in the city of Salina, Utah, Miss Steena Scorup teaches school five days a week and between times fills in by editing the school journal.

GORED BY COW.

Twelve-Year-Old Lad Had Narrow Escape.

INGERSOLL, Ont., June 23 (Canadian Press).—Lloyd McMillan, aged 12, narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday when he was gored by a neighbour's cow. He had gone to bring a cow from the pasture when he was attacked by another. As a result, ten stitches were required to close a wound in his right arm. He was otherwise only slightly injured.

NEW ARRIVALS FOR DOMINION

Immigrants For the Western Country — Noted Singer in Canada.

QUEBEC, June 23.—Canadian Press. The Canadian Pacific "Empress of Scotland," in command of Capt. J. Gillies, O.B.E., arrived at Quebec yesterday afternoon at 2.35 o'clock, a delay of four hours only, due to fog. The Scotland brought out 488 passengers including 178 saloon, 92 second, and 218 third class, and 1400 bags of mail and 240 tons of cargo. Among the saloon passengers were a number of Americans from every centre of the United States, including Hon Louis Hanna, ex-Governor of North Dakota, U.S., and Mrs. Carrie Jacob Bond, the celebrated American songstress, who is returning from an extended tour to the Mediterranean and later, Paris and London.

Among the cabin passengers are, Mrs. J. Aitken and Miss A. Aitken, Mr and Mrs. R. Gault, Miss O. A. Gault, and Master P. Gault, Mr. James K. M. Ross and Miss H. A. M. Ross, Mrs. M. D. Starnes and Miss A. Starnes, all of Montreal. Col. G. T. and Mrs. Hamilton and Miss E. Hamilton of Ottawa, Mrs. Dorothy M. Brock and the Misses Brock, Mr and Mrs. D. Massie of Toronto Mr and Mrs. Geo. S. Mathews, Brantford, and Mr. W. A. Wilson, Regina.

Among the prominent people from England were, Mrs. E. R. Peacock, London, wife of Mr. Peacock, Director Bank of England, etc.

Mrs. Carrie Jacob Bond, the American songstress, in an interview, said she went to the Mediterranean last winter. Asked if she had composed and written any new songs while abroad she answered in the affirmative, saying one entitled, "Grandmother's Lullaby," and a second "Homesick," though she was not sure if this name would be retained. She also remarked that she had other songs written which were not as yet printd, but in the near future would be given to the public.

Recounting her experiences abroad, she said while in Jerusalem, she witnessed a number of soldiers pass by singing in English her own song "A Perfect Day." Another occasion she dropped into a store in Jerusalem to purchase a fountain pen and on looking at the name of the maker, she was surprised, because it was from the city she was born in and lived most of her life.

In Cairo, Egypt, when as she stated "I attended an Egyptian wedding where custom is that all women, including bride and guests meet upstairs and men folks down stairs and only mingle together when called for the tieing of the nuptial knot. Here I was again surprised to hear the orchestra play "A Perfect Day." During the festivity, the orchestra, composed of Italians, played my music. When I was in London, I went to the Sir James Barry play-house and again I was haunted by my own songs; they spoke two of them, and sang, "A Perfect Day."

"Thus you will see, though, I was not by introduction or otherwise, I had supreme pleasure in hearing my own songs sung in foreign lands even the Holy City of Jerusalem.

One hour after the "Empress of Scotland" docked at Louise Docks, the breakwater pier cabin passengers were entrained on Canadian Pacific Railway special and whirled on their way to their respective destinations. Half an hour later, a second special with second cabin passengers who had been inspected by immigration officials coming up the river,and steamer transportation exchanged for railway transportation ect., steamed from the dock to their western destination. Third class passengers were conducted to immigration buildings for inspection, and within three hours after arrival of the ship, were on their way by third Canadian Pacific Railway train to their Montreal, Toronto and western destinations.

SPEEDERS ANSWER POLICE ROLL CALL

TORONTO MAN FAILS TO SIDESTEP A CONVICTION— OTHERS IN THE NET.

Constable T. Y. Stratton is out to make it safe for for ladies driving in the country. He has received complaints from all sides that fast drivers have made lady drivers afraid to take their automobiles out on the good roads and he is resolved to defend the fair sex. Wednesday afternoon he reported a good catch. Three out of four cars of the Leaside ball team were presented with summons to which they pleaded guilty and will pay their fines via the Toronto police. This morning Albert Jones of the Queen City, unsuccessfully defended himself on the charge of speeding on the Chemong road, this week. Although he pleaded not guilty and vigorously advocated his case the evidence of Constable Stratton that he was going 33 miles an hour and the constable's statement "that he wanted to fix it up the next morning" as well as the fact that he was racing with another motorist who was fined for speeding, went against him. The fine was $10 and the costs were $5.20.

Harold Brookes and Roy Sedgwick, both of East City, were charged with the theft of an automobile tire, tube and rim valued at $20, owned by Joseph Slattery. Slattery left his car at Riverside Park last night and when he returned his spare tire was missing, according to the Crown Accused pleaded not guilty and the case was remanded until Tuesday.

For being intoxicated, two advocates of stronger beer were fined $10 and costs.

QUEEN MARY HAD A SCHOOL PICNIC

Event Was Held on the School Grounds — Prize-Winners.

The annual school picnic of Queen Mary School was held yesterday afternoon on the school grounds under the auspices of the Home and School Association. Through the untiring efforts of the President, Mrs. Johnston and her willing band of workers, a very pleasant evening was provided for children and parents. The generosity of friends of the school, made possible the giving of a splendid lot of prizes for the different events in the sports that were held.

Promptly at four thirty, there was a short programme, consisting of choruses under the direction of the Misses Rae and MacKay, and a recitation by Miss Irene Wright, a coming elocutionist. After this, sports were held up to 5.30, when tea was served. Abundant provision had been made and every effort made to see that no one was overlooked. There was an ice-cream booth that, of course, did a flourishing business. One small boy, when asked how many ice-cream cones he had had, held up five fingers. After tea there were two baseball matches, one for boys, between the Senior Team of the school and a team of ex-pupils, selected from those who attended during the last five years. This game was won by the School Team by a score of 6 to 2. The other game was between the girls' team of the school and a team of ex-pupils. This game ended in a tie at 12 runs each.

Next came the most important part of the proceedings—the presentation of prizes. This duty was well performed by Mr. J. W. Worth of the Board of Education. In a brief introductory speech he complimented the School on it's fine record in sports as well as study, mentioning the winning of the Junior School Championship in hockey last winter and the winning of the Senior Championship of the P.S. Baseball league this season without the loss of a single game.

Following is the list of prize winners.

W. A. ANDERSON IS APPOINTED

Delegate of County at Forthcoming Conference in Toronto on Rural Educational Facilities.

W. A. Anderson, deputy-reeve of Otonabee, was appointed by the County Council this morning as a delegate to the conference on rural education which the Hon. Mr. Grant, Minister of Education, has arranged to be held in Toronto on July 5th and 6th. He was chosen on Reeve Eason's motion, seconded by Warden Strickland, both of whom emphasized the importance of more and better facilities for children living in the villages and townships in order that they should have an opportunity comparable with that provided for the children in the cities.

"This is something we've neglected too long," said the Warden.

The request of the Norwood School Board that their High school be coverted into a County High school was referred to a special committee composed of the Warden, Mr. Lillico, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Montgomery, who were instructed to investigate this matter and report at the next meeting of the Council.

Mothers' Allowance.

The beneficaries in the county of the Mothers' Allowance Act were made known to the Council this morning. Mr. Nicholls pointed out that there were twenty-two mothers receiving aid, the allowances being mostly $35 and $40 a month. He stated that Smith township had presented one application which was regarded as deserving of favorable consideration, but it had been disallowed.

Warden Strickland expressed the opinion that the County Council should have a representative on the local Mothers' Allowance Board for the reason that the county has to pay part of the cost and should therefore have a corresponding right that should be recognized by representation.

"We should have a member of the Council on all bodies that spend county money," said the Warden. No action was taken, but the members otbained details of the County Board's work.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)— Announcement that the stock exchange authorities had ordered an investigation into the recent remarkable movements of Mexican Petroleum made that stock the central feature at the active and strong opening of to-day's session. Mexican Petroleum was the first stock to appear on the ticker, the initial transaction of 500 shares at 184 showing a gain of half a point over yesterday's final price. In the next half dozen sales, embracing lots of 100 to 500 shares, the stock declined to 182 1-4.

Mexican Petroleum made a further decline to 182 during the morning, rallying moderately from that level. Meanwhile speculative activity in Pan American shares increased, the A issue gaining six points and the B 7 1-2 points. Shippings were also favored. Atlantic Gulf, common and preferred, rising three points. American Ship and Commerce and United Fruit were one to almost two points higher.

Call money opened at 3 p.c.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, June 23.—(Canadian Press.) — Sterling Exchange weak. Demand rates Great Britain 4.41. Canadian Dollars 1 1-4 per cent. discount.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Heat and drought pointing toward likelihood of shrinkage in the crop yield tended to lift wheat prices to-day in the first part of the Board of Trade session. Opening prices, which ranged from 5-8 to 1 1-4c. higher, July 1.14 1-2 and 1.15 and Sept. 1.15 3-4 and 1.16, were followed by a slight setback. After opening 1-8 and 5-8 higher, July 63 5-8 and 63 3-4, the Corn market sagged a little. Oats started 1-4 and 7-8c. higher, July 36 3-4 and 37 1-8 and held at about the opening range.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)—The declaration of the regular quarterly dividends on Steel Company of Canada, accompanied by a statement from the President that sales are showing improvement, found an immediate reflection in the price of this issue on the local market, which advanced 2 1-4 points at 74 3-4. Brazilian is traded in at 47 1-2, Spanish preferred sold up to 94.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

TORONTO, June 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Trading on the local stock exchange this morning reached very low proportions, with less than 1,000 shares of listed stock changing hands. Prices were mostly steady to higher, but the fluctuations with few exceptions were kept within narrow limits. Steel of Canada was an exception, however, two Board lot transactions carrying the price up to 76, as compared with yesterday's close of 72 3-4.

THE DEATH LIST

HERRIN, Ill., June 23. (Canadian Press.) — It is thought that the exact number of dead will never be known. No effort is being made to drag ponds.

ALIEN ENEMIES.

OTTAWA, June 23. (Canadian Press.) Former alien enemies to have the same rights of naturalization providing bill introduced by A. B. Copp is approved.

SMITH'S SHOE STORE 384 GEORGE ST.

Store Hours for Saturday: Opens at 9 a.m. and Closes at 9.30 p.m. | The CRESSMAN Company Limited | A 50c Mid-Day Lunch Is Served in Tea Room from 11.30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Saturday Is Thrift-Touring Day at The Cressman Stores

Outstanding, Striking Values That Make a Tour of the Stores Worth While!

Saturday features many satisfactory values from the customers' point of view. Large quantities of goods have been assembled by the buyers and merchandise manager and the prices have been pared down as close as possible. Every department in the store is represented and a tour of the entire store will reveal many fine opportunities to economize. TIME-LIMIT SALES will add interest and give zest to the day's selling.

We Wonder If Our Customers Are As Much Delighted with the Lower Prices As We Are?

It is with a feeling of tremendous satisfaction that we go among the merchandise and see how fair all the prices now are and how extraordinarily low so many of them are, this summer, when compared with what they have been.

That is why it is vastly more pleasant to "keep store" this year than it has been for some years past. The lower prices are seen everywhere throughout the building. They're at rock-bottom now.

How to make the most delicious strawberry jam you ever tasted

New Certo process astonishes housewives

Never fails—requires only two or three minutes boiling. Retains all the flavor and color of ripe strawberries—and makes two-thirds more jam from the same amount of fruit

For a spread on hot biscuits or toast strawberry jam has few equals. Its sweet, delicious flavor makes children of us all.

A new and very revolutionary method has now been discovered by which anyone can make a far better quality quickly and very economically. With the Certo process full-ripe strawberries are used and only three minutes' boiling is required—not the 30 or more minutes so necessary by the old method. The result is a far superior fruity flavor and two-thirds more product from the same amount of fruit because no juice is boiled away. Best of all, the taste of fresh strawberries—the kind you picked in childhood in the old berry patch down by the woods—is now actually preserved for the dead of winter. The Certo Process banishes all guess-work or worry, as perfect results are certain.

The new Certo Process for making Strawberry Jam is very simple:

4 level cups (2 lbs.) Pressed Berries and Lemon Juice,
7½ leveled cups (3¼ lbs.) Sugar,

Select only small or medium-sized, fully ripened, berries. Spread berries on their sides in single layer on flat plate and gently press each berry nearly flat with bottom of small bottle. (This leaves skins nearly intact, but ruptures fruit inside and makes it hollow, allowing boiling sugar to saturate tissues quickly.) Add juice of one lemon. Have sugar measured in saucepan. Measure berries and juice into large kettle, placing layer of sugar over each cup of berries and balance of sugar on top. Allow to stand over night, so that part of sugar will be dissolved, and mixture can be stirred and cooked without crushing fruit. Stir constantly and bring to a vigorous boil over the hottest fire. Boil hard for 3 minutes with continual stirring. Remove from fire and add CERTO, stirring it in well. Skim at once and pour quickly within five minutes from removal from fire. Result is about 11 half-pound glasses of delicious strawberry jam for about 7 cents per glass.

The former guess-work or worry of making jam or jelly is now past. The Certo Process is endorsed by government authorities and cooking experts; it insures perfect results with every batch. It is also very economical, requiring only a few minutes' boiling and thereby making two-thirds more jam or jelly than the old method. It also makes all kinds of jam or jelly, some you have never tasted before, like cherry jelly and rhubarb jam, or unusual combinations like strawberry and pineapple, etc. Hundreds of Canadian housewives with no little pride are exhibiting the new flavors and better quality of jams and jellies made with Certo.

Certo is absolutely pure—contains no gelatine or preservative. It is Mother Nature's "jell-maker." Housewives particularly have received it with open arms because it is so certain, so economical, so simple, and so useful. They are recommending it to all their friends. Get a bottle of Certo with recipe book from your grocer at once. Try it right away with fresh fruit or with bottled grape juice for grape jelly. Then you will do all your preserving the new and modern way, the easy, economical and better Certo process. 28

Send your grocer's name to the Douglas Packing Company, Ltd., Cobourg, Ont., and they will mail you a recipe book containing 53 recipes for making jam and jelly.

JOIN A RADIO CLUB

BY PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority

"What can I do to get myself rigged up for the reception of radiophone concerts?"

Judging by the thousands of letters I get from radio fans the country over, this a question that is bothering many.

There is no end of advice as to "what to do." Some of it is first rate; much of it is bad. The novice has no way of selecting the good from the bad.

My suggestion is:

"Join a radio club. If there is none in your vicinity form one"

Most of the cities and town in this country already have such clubs formed around a nucleus of experienced amateur operators. These men—or boys—have learned by experience just what may be expected from given types of equipment. They have been trained in a thorough school.

Help to Novices.

The ridiculous claims made for many types of radio sets cause them to smile. They are the men to guide the novice during the periods of uncertainty when the thoughts uppermost in his mind are: "What shall I buy? How much shall I pay? And how far will it be possible for me to hear."

And there is another thing that the novice will learn in this radio club. It is this:

The most fascinating thing about amateur radio is the ability for some amateur to communicate across several states with another, or for an amateur on the Atlantic coast to relay through other amateurs' messages to friends who live on the Pacific.

The radio telephone will never take the place of the radio telegraph as a method of amateur communication for two very good reasons. First, there is no fascination in attempting to communicate long distances by the radio telephone. Secondly, to communicate over a given distance the radio telephone will require about twice as much power as the radio telegraph.

Radio Reserve.

Men trained in the use of radio telegraph equipment are a great bulwark to the nation in times of national peril. A large percentage of radio telephone fans will find a very natural inclination toward this means of communication.

To these, the fact that our government has set aside a large band of wave lengths for the exclusive use of amateur telegraphists should be of considerable interest.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED.

You will always treat an older woman with respect.

In these days, when mothers seem as young as their daughters it is natural that much of the formality we once associated has disappeared.

However, the thoughtful girl never forgets the courtesies due her elders, and she embraces every opportunity to be of service.

PROFESSOR OF ARTILLERY.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 23 (Canadian Press).— Major Arthur Victor Tremaine, R.C.A., has been appointed Professor of Artillery at the Royal Military College, in succession to Lt.-Col. G. F. Constantine, who has vacated the position.

Major Tremaine attended the R. M. C., graduating in 1908, when he was appointed Lieutenant in the Royal Canadian Artillery at Quebec. In December, 1914, he was gazetted Captain, and served with distinction in the late war.

Had Your Iron Today?

That Delicious Bread —of Energy and Iron

SERVE raisin bread twice weekly on your table for three reasons:

1. Flavor; 2. Energy; 3. Iron

You remember how good a generously filled, full-fruited raisin bread can be. Your grocer can supply a loaf like this.

Insist—if he hasn't one he can get it for you.

Raisins also furnish fatigue-resisting iron for the blood.

Serve plain raisin bread at dinner or as a tasty fruited breakfast toast with coffee.

Begin this week the habit of raisin bread twice weekly in your home, for raisin bread is both good and good for you.

ST. JOHN'S CHOIR ANNUAL EXCURSION

St. John's choristers spent one of the most enjoyable days yesterday in the history of choir outings. Accompanied by many prominent members of the congregation, the singers left the city by the steamer Stoney Lake at 7.40 for Burleigh Falls; Mrs H. W. Darcy provided a splendid dinner and received the hearty thanks of the company for kindly interest shown to them. Two hours were spent in rambling around the dam and glen, and several of the men (evidently old disciples of Walton) brought home some fine bass. On the return journey a stop was made at Young's Point where races were run off, one remarkable result being that every contestant received a prize. A dainty supper was served on board by Coleman Bros., the general opinion being that it was the best ever. Singing and dancing was then indulged in and when the steamer tied up a happy growd dispersed after singing the National Anthem and Auld Lang Syne.

Hearty thanks were accorded to the donors of prizes, Mrs. Birdsall, Mrs E. B Clegg, Mr W. E Conway, Mr. F. Linton, Mr. C. Graham and Mr. C. Coleman.

The arrangements for the day were made and carried out by Mr. H. W. Morphet and Mr. R. J. Devey who were congratulated on the success of the outing. As usual the weather man was in good humor, Capt. Scollard observng that whatever happened to other picnics St. John's choir never got a wet day.

GARDEN PARTY AT RIVERSIDE PARK

Was Held Under Auspices of Church of Immaculate Conception.

The garden party held yesterday afternoon and evening in the Riverside Park grounds by the members of the Church of the Immaculate Conception in East City, was very successful. The threatening rain-clouds of the early evening failed to materialize and a large crowd of people turned out later for an evening of real social enjoyment.

Feminine members of the parish, assisted by several men, were busy all afternoon and evening in the different booths, made very attractive with floral decorations of rose peonies, and large bowls of daisies and buttercups. The lunch counter had quantities of home-made goodies of all sorts; there were plenty of useful and pretty articles in the section devoted to clothing and fancy work; ice cream and candy, doughnuts and coffee, and cigars and soft drinks were dispensed from separate counters.

A programme of races was run off for the juniors in the afternoon, with the following results: Boys of 12 and under: E. Wolff, J. Conroy, T. McCarthy. Girls, 12 and under: A. Murphy, F. Healey, C. Holland. Boys, 8 and under: A. Mongraw, G. McCarthy, R. Leonard Girls, 8 and under: M. English, O. Gainey, P. Conroy. Special old maids' race for girls over 12: C. O'Toole, W. O'Donoghue, E. McCarthy. Special for boys of 10 years: F. McMahon, R. Mongraw, G. McCarthy. Girls, of 6 years: B. Leonard, G. Macdonald, Audrey Odette. Special, girls of 12 and over: C. Long, A. Murphy, FF. Healey. Girls, 10 years: F. Healey, C. Garvey, C. Holland.

Mrs. H. Gainey was convenor of the garden party, assisted at the different booths by the following: Tea-room: Mesdames Flynn, Gallagher, Hennessey, Brady, M. O'Brien, T. O'Brien, Collins, McCarthy, Dwyer, Tobin, D. Menogue, Lee, McMahon, Ross, Emery, Murphy, Allen, the Misses Sullivan and B. Leahy. Doughnuts and coffee: Mrs. Holland, the Misses Mercier, Fairman and Powers. Clothing and fancy work both: Mesdames Hummel, D. Menogue, D. Maloney, D. Houlihan, the Misses M. Sullivan, M. McAuliffe. Strawberries, candy and ice cream: The Misses Irene Hogan, L. Hummel, M. Clancy, Madeline O'Heron, K. McMillan ,K. Hogan, L. Hogan, assisted by Messrs. Jos. Theobald, Leo McAuliffe and Thos. O'Brien. Messrs. W. McAuliffe and M English had charge of the cigars and soft drinks; Miss M A. O'Connell looked after the 'little horses,' and Messrs. T. Turcotte and T. Deforge assisted in the evening with the disposal of articles from the clothing booth.

DISCUSS INSURANCE RATES.

Foresters in Annual Convention at Quebec.

QUEBEC, June 22 (Canadian Press). — The discussion of the proposed increased insurance rates for the Canadian Order of Foresters, which will mean an additional annual revenue of a half-million dollars, held the attention of the convention throughout yesterday, and will, it is expected, be definitely settled to-day.

BOWLING NEWS.

Final for London Free Press Trophy

LONDON, Ont. June 23 (Canadian Press). — Campbell and Burnett, of Rodney, last evening defeated by 26 to 14, Edy and Doherty, of the London Thistles, in the final for the London Free Press Trophy, the feature prize at the annual Scotch doubles tourney of the Thistle Bowling Club. Edy and Doherty were last year's winners.

Household Suggestions

FOR THE HAIR.

The American woman is attached to her hair net, but France is sending over some decorative caps that threaten to become the rage of athletics and sports. These are made of fine gold threads, woven into a coarse mesh net. They keep the hair in place and are decorative at the same tme.

GRAY SUEDE.

Gray suede is extremely popular both for pumps, and for trimmings on black patent leather pumps. The sandal pump has reached its height, and the newest models are trimmed with stitching and strappings rather than slits.

GINGHAM.

The gingham bathing suit and the gingham parasol in the old plaid and check patterns we know so well are seen in all the shop windows. Gingham hats, too, are very smart and gingham patterns are being used in silks.

LIGHT HOSIERY.

Gray and champagne colored stockings are considered most smart for daytime wear. They naturally take to black patent leather pumps.

BANDANNA HATS

Many turbans are being made of silk printed in the pattern of the old bandanna kerchief. Sometimes the ends of the silk are knotted after the plantation style.

CYCLONE SWEEPING EAST.

OTTAWA, June 23.—(Canadian Press.) — Meagre details reaching here tell of a cyclone which this morning was sweeping east from the Kenora district. Heavy hail and severe lightning has put all the telegraph wires out of commission west of Fort William. A box car was blown completely from the track at Lydiatt, forty miles east of Winnipeg.

The skin is a wonderful organ, doing work of immense importance to health at all times. But in hot weather, when its millions of tiny pores are working to cool the skin, it is more than ever important that this work of cooling the over-heated body should be able to do its work well.

If a baby is cross and unhappy, it may be he is suffering from what is commonly known as "prickly heat," from the stinging sensation that accompanies it. The fine red rash appears first on the chest and back, and often runs over the cheeks and arms and other parts of the body.

It is common in babies who are too warmly dressed, especially in those who wear too much and too heavy underwear. The first remedy is to remove the surplus clothing, and to exchange the heavy shirts and bands with very lightweight ones. The next thing to do is to give the baby a cool or tepid bath to remove the excess of perspiration.

If the skin is well covered with the rash a bran or a starch or a soda bath may be tried. These baths have lately been described in this column. Never use any soap on inflamed surfaces, no matter what the cause.

Handle the baby as little as possible, and keep him wherever the coolest spot is to be found. This rash usually subsides as soon as the weather cools. A dusting powder, which may be tried, is composed of two parts of starch and one of boracic acid sifted together, several times. Fat babies are more in need of powder than thin ones.

Whenever two surfaces touch as between the legs and under the arms, or in the folds of fat about the body, powder should be used to prevent chafing, but it is not needed on the surface of the body generally, and if used profusely, only serves to check and hinder the activity of the skin.

Chafing sometimes results from improperly washed diapers. Soap powders should never be used in this part of the laundry work, and whatever the soap used, the diapers must be rinsed with unusual care afterward, unless the baby is to suffer. Cleanliness is the first remedy for chafing.

Use no soap, and if the flesh is quite sore, no water. Wipe off the skin with olive oil until the inflamed places heal over. Never use a diaper a second time without washing it.

BURLEIGH FALLS FISHING CLUB

The Burleigh Falls Fishing Club has issued an attractive little booklet, illustrated with cuts, showing the delights of this new and unique fishing camp, which is owned and conducted by American business men, and functions from June 15th to September 15th inclusive. At the opening 100 guests had booked reservations, and it is expected that at least 300 applications will be received during the season.

The booklet says, in one paragraph: "It is not our plan to offer an artificial summer resort with stuffy hotel accommodations, but our chief object is to offer you the most healthful life out in the open with plenty of good wholesome food, clean sleeping quarters, and the best fishing in Canada."

And further on:

"The muscalunge and bass bite with unsurpassed viciousness in the cool, sparkling waters of these lakes and the true fisherman experiences that indescribable thrill which baffles description, and must be experienced to be realized."

Wives of the guests are cordially invited to come also, "with the full understanding that the club has nothing to offer in the way of social attraction or amusements."

The kitchen is in charge of a competent chef, and canoes and row boats are guaranteed the finest made. The rates are extremely reasonable, with extra charge for guide, if desired.

Bilious Attacks
Are Usually Due to Constipation
When you are constipated, there is not enough lubricant produced by your system to keep the food waste soft. Doctors prescribe Nujol because its action is so close to this natural lubricant.
Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. Try it today.

UMBRELLAS.

There is a new type of umbrella on the market, from which the silk coverings are detachable, and one may have a number of covers for the same frame and always have the parasol harmonize with the costume.

HAIR DRESSING.

In France women are dressing the hair to make the head look as small as possible. The locks are pulled straight back and coiled at the neck with the greatest simplicity. There is a tendency over there to keep the outline of the head sma", but the hair is arranged softly about the face. This is much more flattering to the average woman.

FOULARDS.

Foulard frocks, particularly those of dull finished material, are extremely smart for midsummer wear. Many of these eschew any form of trimming but the soft drapery, caught up at one side of the waist.

GINGHAM CORSETS.

Gingham corsets are certainly something new in the world of stays. You can get them in checks or plain material in all the delicate colors. The have elastic tops and are finished in tailored style. They are said to launder satisfactorily.

DAINTY THINGS FOR INFANTS

This is a new Department of our business and we should like to draw attention to our very well assorted variety of these goods, including Long and Short Dresses, Slips, Kimonas, Barrowcoats, etc. These goods are made up in fine materials and daintily trimmed with fine laces and insertions.

U.F.O. PICNIC TO WALLACE'S POINT WAS BIG SUCCESS

Speakers Included James Simpson, of Toronto and Local Members of Parliament.

MILLBROOK, June 23. — The annual picnic, under the auspices of the U.F.O. Club of Cavan and South Monaghan, was held at Wallace's Point yesterday, with fully 2,000 people in attendance. Quite early in the afternoon carloads of people began coming in from all directions, and at 3 p.m. the chairman, Mr. Geo. Berry, president of the association, made a brief address of welcome, and then called upon ex-Controller Jas. Simpson, of Toronto, as the first speaker. He referred to the fact that the U.F.O. had made a profound impression upon the political and social life of the Province such gatherings as were held that afternoon were having their influence in checking the exodus of young people from the farms to the cities, because they added pleasure to the farmers' lives. He praised the Farmers' Government, for though they had passed through an unusually trying time, they had come out with a glorious record, with a finer reputation, and character, after the furious attacks of their opponents, than ever before. Looking into the future, the speaker prophesied that at the next election they would be opposed by tremendous funds, because the bankers, the manufacturers, the bootleggers, and the gamblers would unite against them. Referring to the Provincial Savings Bank established by the U. F. O. Government, Mr. Simpson thought they were diverting the savings of city depositors from the old-established banks because of the 4 per cent. interest given on deposits, and this, he thought, not wholly good. He closed by saying that the 65 U.F.O. members in the Federal House had exercised clarifying, uplifting influence upon the legislation enacted.

Sam Clarke.

Mr. Sam Clarke, M.P.P. for West Northumberland, who has been for 24 years a member of the Provincial Legislature, was the next speaker, and he, too, spoke in the highest terms of the present Farmers' Government, stating that nowhere could there have been found a body of "green" men (because they were all new at law-making), who grappled more satisfactorily, or pulled out more successfully, under pressure of a mighty big undertaking, than the party now in power in Ontario. He believed in voting for the measures which were for the best interests of the Province at large, irrespective of party affiliations — hence, four times out of five, he had voted with the present Government. He referred briefly to the Mothers' Pension Act as one of the best measures on the statute books, to the Provincial banks (these, he thought, not quite a square deal to the public in general), to the help given by the Government to students needing financial aid, and to the good roads being built all over the Province, which are an asset to any community. The O.T.A. came in for a little criticism, though the speaker insisted that Raney is the most abused man in Ontario without due cause, and declared that there is not one bottle of liquor being sold now where there were ten five years ago.

In closing, Mr. Clarke mentioned two things the Minister of Agriculture had done for the farmers of Ontario—one the cold storage plants for fruit, and the other co-operative selling—both "mighty big factors in our best interests."

S. S. Staples.

Mr. S. S. Staples, M.P.P. for East Durham, followed with a brief address, making the plea that as the present Government has only 1 of a majority in the House, if they enacted any legislation that was really bad, the opposition could easily defeat it. He also referred to the Provincial Banks, upholding the measure, and to the Dairy Standards Act, which had proved decidedly successful so far. One million dollars had been received for Ontario cheese in England last year, according to the official figures.

J. C. Campbell.

Mr. J. C. Campbell was then called upon by the chairman, as Mr. Roebuck, of Toronto, had failed to appear, nor to send an excuse, though he had promised to be present, and hence was announced on the posters. However, Mr. Campbell felt sure something unavoidable had detained him, and spoke for a short time, beginning with a complimentary reference to the member for West Northumberland because of personal knowledge of his non-partisan outlook. His chief contention was that the wealth of the Dominion was now in the hands of about 50 men, and it was imperative that all classes should unite to preserve their own interests. He ridiculed the opinion that the U.F.O. and National Progressive Parties were going down, insisting that the contrary was the fact. Personally he was not going back on the movement, he said, though that impression seemed to prevail, but on account of financial setbacks, was unable to help as freely as formerly.

Rev. A. H. McConnachie.

Generous applause had greeted every speaker, and this was repeated when Mr. Berry announced Rev. A. H. McConnachie as the concluding name on his list. After congratulating the audience on their patience in listening attentively for one hour and a half to the addresses which had been delivered, Mr. McConnachie said he thought that the farmers themselves hardly realized how their cause had prospered not only in the Provincial house, but in the Federal house as well—"all honor to the Drury government that it has studied the common good, not merely the farmer element." His suggestion that the gathering should send a telegram to "that worthy veteran, Mr. J. J. Morrison, wishing him more power and joy in his great work," was favorably received. He thought that class consciousness was needed amongst the farmers, and need not necessarily lead to class war, but would be conducive to a sense of unity, and for the good of the whole. Before taking his seat, Mr. McConnachie made special announcement of the U.F.O. Sunday service to be held at Wallace's Point on June 25th, at 2.30 p.m., when they hoped to have ministers of all denominations present, both Protestant and Catholic, to address the gathering.

Some races for the smaller children were put through just before tea and afterwards a ball game between Fairmount and Bailieboro teams drew a large crowd of onlookers. The line-up was as follows:

Bailieboro—R. Hutchison, p.; H. Lord, p.; L. Dawson, 1b.; E. Hutchison, 2b.; H. Dawson, 3b..; R. Rutherford, s.s.; D. Rutherford, l.f.; H. Moncrief, r.f.; F. Barnard, c.f.

Umpire—Mr J. Simpson, Toronto. Score, 7-0 in favor of Bailieboro. 7 innings played.

A delightful dance was enjoyed by the young people, after the ball game, the music being furnished by an orchestra from Peterborough, and many driving out from town, and the country round, for what proved a very pleasant ending to the day's outing.

BANKER'S SON, LOVE PLAY TAG

DETROIT, June 23.—Two widely different stories were told here of the matrimonial difficulties of Douglast S. Smylie, son of Robert W. Smylie, vice-president of Peoples' State Bank, and Reva Dunn Smylie, 15 years old, which led to the issuance of a warrant Tuesday charging young Smylie with non-support.

Mrs. Howard D. Dunn, 241 Theodore Street, mother of the bride, speaking for her daughter, said she was sure Smylie loved Reva, and denied any influence had been brought to bear on him to encourage the marriage. Attorneys for Smylie, however, state that the marriage took place only after Smylie had been unable to effect a cash settlement with the girl's mother.

"I have tried every possible method to influence Douglas to do his duty to my daughter," Mrs. Dunn said. "I know he loves Reva, and that we could effect a reconciliation if his father would give them his blessing. I went to Mr. Smylie's home at 996 Burns Avenue to see his father, and he told me if I did not get off his property he would have me arrested. I told him at that time that he must allow my daughter to see her husband, but he slammed the door in my face. Reva has worried over the affair until she is on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and I have seen that a warrant was issued to force Douglas to do his duty as a husband."

Attorneys for Smylie said that young Smylie met the girl on the street one evening and drove her to her home in his automobile. They met several times afterwards, the lawyers assert. A week ago Mrs. Dunn called Smylie to the office of her lawyer and demanded that her daughter be paid $1,300 a year, permanently, they aver. This, they say, was beyond the means of Smylie, whose salary is $1,200 a year.

The marriage, performed by Judge Edward Command, followed Smylie's statement that he could not meet the settlement, according to the lawyers. The young couple never lived together.

KIWANIS CEREMONY AT JACKSON PARK

The Kiwanis Club at 7 p.m. will to-night present to the Peterboro Health Association the dining hall built by the members on May 24th., at a brief ceremony at Jackson's Park. A gang of faithful workers among whom was Ald. Walter Stocker were busy putting on the last coat of paint today and the building will be ready for occupation when it is turned over to the association tonight. A large attendance of Kiwanians is hoped for and as the ceremony will be simple those who attend need not fear that the affair will interfere with other plans for the evening.

Among the Congo natives a superstitius belief exists that the appearanceof a baby's first tooth on the upper jaw is an ill omen to the community and that the child must therefore be killed.

Oh, where are the vamps of yesteryear?

They are with us, never fear—but they are now sweet little ingennes with baby stares!

Their days of active vamping are over. They learned. It isn't necessary to go to all that trouble to ensnare a man. Look at the flappers!

Women have changed their personalities and their millinery to fit the new role all femininity is playing—Sweet Innocence.

* * *

Do these hats look like the very latest importations from Paris?

And can you, by any stretch of the imagination, picture any woman looking anything but sweet and guileless under them, no matter how purplish her past?

The answer to question one is—they are.

The answer to question two is—purplish pasts are passe. They are as absolete as bustles. No one has one anymore, if she can escape it!

That's why all the actresses of the stage and screen, who really set the styles for us, are wearing these simple, innocent-looking hats, and why the rest of us will be wearing them before the season is over.

Simple fittings are required to play Innocence.

Yes, yes, my child, be sweet, or look sweet, and let those who will be clever! They haven't a chance against you.

* * *

But if anyone—I mean any man—thinks the natural instincts of woman keep pace with her outer transformation let him be wise or be stung!

'At no time can woman do more harm to hearts than in her most harmless guises.

With the summer coming on, and with milliners and costumers in league with her, watch out for the summer girl of 1923.

IDEAL WEATHER FOR THE PICNIC

Ideal weather, a royal reception from Host Harris at Rice Lake Hotel, and the absence of motor troubles, attended the annual picnic held by the staffs at the City Hall to Gore's Landing yesterday afternoon. The trip was a splendid success, and was greatly enjoyed by a party numbering thirty-two. Cars were provided by Mayor W. H. Taylor, Mr. S. R. Armstrong, Mrs. D. F. Drummond, Mr. W. J. Henry, Mr. H. Evans, Mr. F. J. A. Hall and Mr. A. G. Metheral.

Gore's Landing was reached shortly after three o'clock, and the party proceeded to start a game of baseball between the Tigers and the White Sox, with Mr. C. S. Stapleton officiating as umpire. Five innings of lively baseball gave the Sox a victory by the score of 12 to 10, the batteries being Miss Johnston and Miss Hennessey for the Tigers, and Mr. Metheral and Mr. Puffer for the White Sox. Many new and startling interpretations of the rules were given by Umpire Stapleton, which accounts for the White Sox win. The umps. made the best of a difficult task, however, and when in doubt, did not hesitate to ask the White Sox twirler what to say.

A lot of fun developed from the races, the features being the spills in the sack race, Mayor Taylor's unsuccessful efforts earning for him a barrage of camera shots. Mr. Evans' efforts to carry off first honors in the hard-boiled egg race were frustrated by the judges, who discovered the handle end of the spoon securely embedded in the hen fruit.

Sack race—Mr. Metheral.
Married ladies' race—Mrs. Puffer.
Single ladies' race—Miss Hennessey.
Married men's race—Mr. Puffer.
Biscuit race—Mr. Taylor.

A fish dinner followed the sports. For the quality, quantity and service given, the party voted Host Harris the best in the land.

JUST HOW THEY GOT IN:

A young insurance agent risked his shoestring, struck oil, made millions overnight, settled $1,000,000 on his divorced wife, married the belle of Tulsa, and they headed East to "crash" Manhattan society, with pearls, private car, eight-room Plaza suite, Palm Beach villa, 'n everything. But it wasn't all this—it was blooded horses!—that galloped them into the most exclusive Vanderbilt-Astor retreats.

How the Man From Oklahoma Rode Into the "400"

The Josh Cosdens of Tulsa Found That Out West, in the Horse Country, 'Society' Means Mansions, Motors, Yachts, While Eastern Aristocrats Have Reverted to Worshiping King Thoroughbred

Mrs. Joshua Cosden, Formerly Mrs. Charles Franklin Roeser, of Tulsa, Okla. Wearing Her Famous $600,000 Fletcher String of Pearls.

Joshua C. Cosden.

RIGHT through those high and haughty gates of the New York "400," at which a thousand new-rich millionaires have barked their knuckles and their feelings vainly rapping, right into the inner castle of the Vanderbilts and Belmonts and Astors, which a thousand provincial "first families" have battled despairingly to penetrate, right into society's most sacred seventh heaven, rode an ex-insurance agent from Oklahoma and his wife, the former village belle of Tulsa!

"Rode" is the word. For it was only partly by his oil millions and his native "personality," plus the beauty and charm of his wife, and quite largely because of his string of thirty-two thoroughbreds, that Joshua Cosden galloped past the padlocked portals into the most exclusive pastures of Fifth avenue, Long Island, Palm Beach and Newport.

It just goes to show that the horse, after all, is still king. Once he hauled grocery carts and beer wagons. Now the motor truck hauls both. Anybody can drive limousines. Only thoroughbreds can ride thoroughbreds—and get away with it.

That is why Joshua Cosden picked, as it were, the right horse, when he selected the animal on which he rode into society. He "said it with horses," and—society stopped to listen where it had many times tilted deaf ears to the jingle of money, the tinkle of diamonds, the crackle of engraved invitations to the function of this and that ambitious climber.

To-day the Cosden stables are among the foremost in the field. It is said their owner aspires to become to the turf what Sir Thomas Lipton is to yachting. He has spent untold thousands on horses.

He got "Uncle Billy" Garth, one of the best known trainers in America. He got Clarence Kummer, the jockey who rode Man o'War in all his victories. With Good Times, his favorite three-year-old, Paul Jones, his stout handicap horse, and a cluster of two-year-olds, he hopes to see the Cosden colors, cherry and black, triumph often during the Summer.

Little more than ten years ago Mr. Cosden, then in his twenties, was selling insurance in Baltimore and making no more money at it than the average insurance salesman in fifty other cities. But he had ambition, he had vision, he had "pep." He took Horace Greely's advice and went West. Before leaving Baltimore he had married. The first Mrs. Cosden—his present wife is his second—was the daughter of a Baltimore mattress manufacturer. They had three children, Stanley, Ottilie and Joshua, Jr.

Cosden arrived in Tulsa along with the oil boom. The young man from Baltimore proceeded coolly into the feverish game of gushers and dry holes with the zest and energy of a born business man. Soon he became known as an expert in oil refining. Before long he had made enough profit in real estate to drill for oil. And then—the gusher!

Riches, however, had not brought happiness. Mrs. Cosden entered suit for divorce. The decree was granted.

Mr. Cosden settled $1,000,000 on his divorced wife. She took the children and some time later married Don Baxter, another oil prince. Their home to-day is at Noroton, Conn.

Across the street from the Cosdens in Tulsa, on Tulsa's "Millionaires' Row," lived Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin Roeser. She was one of the prettiest women in the West, the daughter of T. L. Neves, a retired lumber king. In her debutante days Nelle Neves was the acknowledged belle of Oklahoma.

The Cosdens and the Roesers became close friends before the Cosden separation. Mrs. Roeser, as the leader of Tulsa's young married set, "took up" Mrs. Cosden. They were inseparables. To the Cosdens, Mrs. Roeser confided her intention to divorce Charlie. They advised her against it, but in 1918 she went into court, charged Charlie with cruelty and incompatibility, and got her freedom.

Mrs. Roeser got her divorce a year and six months before Mrs. Cosden divorced Mr. Cosden. And a year and a half after the Cosden divorce, Mr. Cosden married Mrs. Roeser.

Cosden brought his second wife home to his "skyscraper bungalow," atop the sixteen-story Cosden building, then the tallest edifice in that part of the West. Here Mr. Cosden had maintained magnificent bachelor quarters after his divorce from Mrs. Cosden.

But after their marriage, Cosden and Mrs. Cosden yearned for greener pastures than the Oklahoma oil flats. They decided to conquer Manhattan.

Now a great many other millionaires besides the Cosdens have decided the same thing in the past. Tobacco millionaires, steel millionaires, chewing-gum millionaires, automobile millionaires, war-baby millionaires, soap millionaires, alfalfa millionaires, every type and form of millionaire and multi-millionaire and near-millionaire, have rolled into the Pennsylvania or Grand Central stations, camped in a suite at the Ritz or the Ambassador, hired press-agents, scattered ducats, beat tom-toms and listened for the answer. And in nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of every ten thousand, the answer has been "Blah!"—where there was any answer at all.

The Cosdens had everything these millionaires had. They had a private car, "The Roamer." They took an eight-room suite at the Plaza and called on Baumgarten and French, deluxe decorators to Fifth avenue, to make it over. They bought the Burke-Cockran estate at Port Washington, L. I., adjoining the Vincent Astors. They rented for $4,000 a month the Charlie Munn villa at Palm Beach. Mrs. Cosden put on her $600,000 Fletcher pearls, one of the most famous strings on earth, and Mr. Cosden put on his best smile. They had, also, a steam yacht which they ordered to southern waters.

Yet that, in itself, wouldn't have "put the Cosdens over." They had something else. They were, to begin with, "good stock." They had brains, charm, graciousness, the peculiar breeding of gentility with which people are either born or else never acquire, no matter how rich. And—they had the good taste and good sense to get horses.

That, in the last analysis, explains the Cosdens's social success, according to the rail-birds along society's race-track. "Only a thoroughbred can ride a thoroughbred," they whisper. And handsome "Josh" Cosden and beautiful Mrs. Cosden—ten years ago an insurance salesman and a Tulsa belle, now hob-nobbing with the Belmonts, the Vanderbilts, the Astors and the rest of the haute monde—are, say the rail-birds, just that. Thoroughbreds!

TORONTO LOST CLOSE GAME TO THE BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Maple Leafs Made Three Homers But They Were Not Enough to Win.

INTERNATIONAL.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 23. — (Canadian Press.)—Baltimore scored its ninth consecutive victory, when Toronto was defeated yesterday 6 to 5. Three of the visitors' runs were results of homers, which were made by Wingo, Onslow and Fisher, Wingo's circuit clout was his twelfth of the season. The locals bunched hits off Pitcher Best, a southpaw. Score:

RUTH DENIES HE'LL RETIRE

CLEVELAND, June 23. — "I'm too young to retire." Thus today did George Herman Ruth, king of swat and temperamental star of the New York Yankees, dispose of rumors that he would doff his base ball uniform for the remainder of the year, following his two run-ins with Umpire Dineen in two days. "I never said I was going to retire" Ruth continued. "I don't know where such rumors originate."

Diamond Dust

The Petes play in Oshawa tomorrow and can move into second place by registering a lin.

* * *

The local team won their protest with Lindsay, and as a result moved into third place, while Lindsay went back to fourth.

* * *

Detroit moved closer to the top in the American League by defeating St. Louis, while the Yanks lost to Boston.

Saturday's game with Oshawa should develop into a pitcher's battle between Gallagher, Oshawa's crack southpaw and Heckman, Peterboro's sterling right hander.

MORAN WANTS BOUT.

NEW YORK, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)— Pal Moran, New Orleans boxer, upon his arrival here yesterday, announced that he would immediately ask the New York State Boxing Commission to accept a challenge with a $2,500 forfeit that he will issue to Johnny Dundee, of New York, for the junior lightweight championship. Moran knocked out Phil. Salvadore in New Orleans last week.

FIELD SPORTS AND GAMES FEATURED LAKEFIELD'S FARMER'S CLUB PICNIC

Both Baseball and Football Matches Resulted in Ties—Races Brought Out Many Entries and Provided Plenty of Fun —Band Present.

LARGELY ATTENDED

LAKEFIELD, June 22. — The annual picnic and field day of sports held under the auspices of the Lakefield Farmers' Club at the Exhibition ground: this afternoon, was largely attended by the people of the village and district, with quite a few visitors from Peterboro. The North Smith band provided an interesting programme, but the main attraction was the list of field sports and the football and baseball games, which continued until nearly dusk. A dance in the memorial hall brought the day to a pleasant close.

Boys, 10 and under—Clayton Fitzgerald.

Girls, 10 and under—1 Zetta Frankish, 2 Marie Allen.

Boys 15 and under — 1 Clifford Galvin, 2 Leo Allen.

Girls, 15 and under—1 Josephine Allen 2 Edna Frankish.

Married Women—1 Mrs. F. Johnston, 2 Mrs. F. Boyce.

Mile race—1Clayton Ridpath, 2 Don Fitzgerald. The time was five minutes and the finish was close almost a tie.

Largest family under 21 years on the grounds—Henry Coons and Jos. Harrison, both of Smith township, and each with seven children. Mr. Coons could have counted eight, but the other member of his family was down town at the time. The first prize was a rocking chair and in view of the tie the committee decided to present a chair to each family.

Tug of War Match.

The E. W. Bailey cup for the tug o' war amteh was won for the second time by Smith, whose team defeated the Douro huskies. Smith won it last Dominion Day.

Baseball a Tie.

The Lakefield-Douro baseball game was a complete tie the box score showing 8 runs, 14 hits and 3 errors for each team. The line ups were:

Lakefield — Doughty p; Ridpath c and rf; Erskine 1b; Grier 2b; Hull 3b; Fitzgerald ss and c; Subatin rf and ss; Crawford lf; Weaver cf.

Score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Lakefield	8	14	3

Umpire—Dr. Gibson.

Doughty had 8 strikeouts to his credit and Leahy walked 6 of the Crawford batters.

Football Tie Also.

The football match between North Smith and Dummer in the evening went the regular time without a score. It was a close interesting game with the teams very evenly matched. They were:

North Smith—Goal, E. Blewett; backs, W. Northey and H. Sanderson; halves, W. Trude, S. Wood, F. Pearson; forwards, M. Dean, G. Nicholls.

Dummer — Goal, O Jory; backs, E. Batten and W. Carveth; halves, A. Taylor, H. Jory and A. Jory; forwards, H. Batten, L. McCracken, R. Payne, F. Bell, P. Tghe.

Referee—Ralph Wasson.

LINDSAY GAME IS THROWN OUT

Petes' Protest Is Upheld By Sub-Committee and Fixture Will Be Replayed If Necessary.

Peterboro did not play a game yesterday but Manager Solomon's crew went up a notch in the Central League race just the same for their protest arising out of the game with Lindsay was upheld by the sub-committee of the Central Ontario League at a meeting at Port Hope yesterday, with the result that a win has to be deducted from the Lindsay victory column and a loss from the Petes list of defeats sending Peterboro up to third place, while Lindsay drops to fourth

The Petes protest was based on the fact that Umpire Anderson was in error when he refused to allow the run scored by Collins in the ninth innings, Peterboro contending that Section 7 of Rule 54 distinctly stated that when a thrown ball hit an umpire, as in the case under dispute, base runners were entitled to all the bases they could make.

Lindsay's defence quoted the first section of Rule 54 which has to do with a batted ball, and had nothing to do with the particular case under discussion.

Lindsay was represented by M. J. Dedman, while Jake Solomon presented Peterboro's case. President Parsons and Secretary Nott of the Central League were in attendance, and all three memebrs of the sub-committee, Sandy Lockington of Port Hope, A C. Kimmel of Cobourg and F. D. Craig of Peterboro were present

After the evidence had been heard and the representatives withdrawn it was moved by Mr. Lockington, seconded by Mr. Kimmel, that the protest be allowed, the game to be considered as not having been played, and that in event of it being necessary to determine the winner of the first half that the game be replayed at Lindsay. The Peterboro representative did not vote.

The decision puts Peterboro into third place and they can climb up into second position by registering a win over Oshawa in the Motor town on Saturday.

Following is the League standing:

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Cobourg	6	2	.750
Oshawa	7	3	.700
Peterboro	4	2	.667
Lindsay	5	3	.623
Belleville	4	4	.500
Leaside	2	5	.286
Port Hope	2	5	.286
Bowmanville	1	7	.125

A CANADIAN WILL BE IN GOLF FINAL

Three Canadian and One U.S. Player Left in the Running After Yesterday's Play.

ANCASTER, June 23.—(Canadian Press, Staff Correspondent).—By the games in the third round yesterday of the Canadian Amateur Golf Association's tournament at the links of the Hamilton Golf Club, a Canadian is sure to be in the final to-morrow. The victors yesterday were: C. C. Fraser, Montreal; L. L. Bredin, Detroit; N. M. Scott, Montreal, and W. J. Thompson, Toronto. If Mr. Bredin wins to-day from Mr. Fraser, with whom he is matched, then the game for the championship will be an international one. The scores yesterday were:

C. C. Fraser defeated William McLuckie, Montreal, by eight and seven. The game was all square after the morning eighteen holes.

L. L. Bredin defeated C. M. Jones, Toronto, by 1 up. Mr. Bredin was one up in the morning.

C. N. Scott defeated R. McAuliffe, Buffalo, by two up. Mr. McAuliffe was 3 up in the morning.

W. J. Thompson defeated T. J. Cuthbert, Winnipeg, by 7 and 5. Mr. Thompson was 3 up in the morning.

The matches yesterday were played under an almost cloudless sky with a hot sun, but with a half gale blowing across the course. The wind did some rather weird things with some of the drives, and a number of lost balls resulted.

The main match as far as public opinion went was that between C. M. Jones, who sprang into popularity through his masterly defeat Wednesday of G. H. Turpin, the Quebec champion, and Mr. Bredin, conqueror of Frank Thompson, Canadian champion. Mr. Jones yesterday proved that Wednesday's performance was not in the nature of a phenomen, because yesterday afternoon he battled with Mr. Bredin right up to the home green. He was four down in the early stages of the game in the morning, but he refused to be shaven or unnerved. He stuck to his job and slowly reduced the advantage until the afternoon, when he got into the lead himself. He was beaten, but rarely has a golfing gallery seen such an exhibition of grit and cheerfulness under sometimes most depressing circumstances. He did not get the breaks of the luck, and had his putts been attended with just a little good fortune he would have won easily. As it was, time after time he got within inches of the cup, only to see the ball hover and stop short. Right on the eighteenth, when he was only one down, and with several hundred people breathless, he nearly holed out a long putt, which would have tied up the match. Probably, looking at the score card, it might be said that neither Mr. Bredin nor Mr. Jones played "good" golf. However, that may be, they staged a great struggle, which had all the elements that go to make up a dramatic sporting treat.

P.A.A.A. IS DOING EXCELLENT WORK

Physical Well-Being of the Younger Generation is Being Well Provided For By Local Organization.

The necessity of proper athletic training for the younger generation as well as for those more advanced in years, was never better demonstrated than in the past few months during which time the work undertaken and accomplished by the P.A.A.A. in a great endeavor to provide this training has grown by leaps and bounds

The association now has teams competing practically every seasonable sport and the number of contestants in each event is increasing daily.

Among the sports which have received active encouragement in every way during the past two months are baseball, with regular league games scheduled in the city league, both junior and senior, the school girls' league, both senior and junior.

Lacrosse with good junior and juvenile teams as well as a very active school league in keen play.

Track and field days have been run off in all the schools and have resulted in some keen competition among the boys. A final big field day will be held to-morrow to determine the school champions.

A more recent athletic event has been the inauguration during the past week of a series of semi-weekly track and field days for the senior members. These events are being run off at Nicholls Oval every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon.

A canoe club has also been organized and after the necessary training, entries will be made in all the leading regattas of the vicinity.

Tennis has also received encouragement and there is a good prospect of a city tournament being played off later in the summer.

GREBB HAS CHANCE TO SAVE HIMSELF

If He Signs up Immediately Boxing Commission May be Lenient.

NEW YORK, June 23.— (Canadian Press.)—If a match is made between Johnny Wilson and Harry Grebb without much more delay, the New York Boxing Commission may be "lenient" with Wilson, whose title as world's middleweight championship was declared forfeited in New York State Tuesday.

Harry Burchell, Secretary of the Commission, made this statement on Wednesday, adding that while Wilson's title is vacant so far as this State is concerned, there are mitigating circumstances since negotiations for a bout with Grebb were under way when the time limit expired.

Frank Flourney, Madison Square Garden match-maker, is still trying to get a contract signed, but because both of the principals were not in New York, he is having difficulty.

MILLBROOK WON FROM OMEMEE IN GAME LAST NIGHT

OMEMEE, June 23.—In a baseball game played here last evening between Millbrook and Omemee in the C. M. E. series, the Millbrook aggregation won by a score of 12 to 3. The score at the end of the fifth innings was 3 to 1 in favor of Omemee. After that the home team weakened, and Millbrook pulled out for a big lead. The teams:

On the train

"Say, Jim—this New Improved Gillette—is it really any better than the old type? I don't see how it can be, but everybody's using it."

Hannan asked me the question in a Pullman smoker.

"You bet your life it is?" was, I believe, what I answered—"smoother shave; better shave; more shaves from your blades!"

Three months later

I don't suppose Hannan and I talked razors for another three months. When we did it was for me to learn that he had bought a New Improved Gillette. He opened up with a running fire of thanks that, for a moment, I did not quite understand—"best in the world . . dandy . . corker . . didn't catch on at first . . got the hang . . . marvellous shave . . . more shaves . . . less blades . . . don't believe even you know what a perfect shave is."

In the fashion of the conversation reprinted here, the news of the New Improved Gillette has travelled around the world.

With the first downward sweep comes astonishment—the feeling is one new to shaving. Surprise gives place to pleasure—a pleasure so full and satisfactory, so wholly unexpected, that it causes men to enthuse one with another.

And so the story goes on.

Uses the same fine Gillette blades as you have known for years—but now your blades can give you all the luxury of the finest shaving edge in the world.

"FOOLISH WIVES" ATTRACTED LARGE AUDIENCE AT CAPITOL

Von Stroheim's Delineation Was Too Good to be Applauded—Wonderful Picture was Screened at Monte Carlo.

There was a good attendance at the matinee and a packed house at the Capitol Theatre last night for the initial productions of "Foolish Wives." There was no applause last night, for the simple reason, perhaps, that the audience was too intensely interested in the realism of the acting, and also, perhaps, because the delineation of character afforded by Von Stroheim's masterpiece is too hateful to call forth any applause. It is a wonderful picture, superbly acted, featuring from first to last its author, in a complex, enthralling drama that gradually unfolds to a logical end. From first to last, the reptilian fascination of Von Stroheim colours the picture, and never once does he deviate by a hair's breadth from a consistent portrayal of a consummate, selfish, vilainous egoist, from the moment he helps himself with calm unconsciousness to the very best on the breakfast table, to the final leer on his face as he closes the shutters of the room were the semi-idiotic girl lies sleeping.

At Monte Carlo.

Screened in Monte Carlo, with its white gaming-palaces and magnificent hotels as a background; the feverish rush for pleasure and excitement, the wealth and beauty and the wonderful clothes of its men and women habitues to give atmosphere, the picture tells the tale of a man who bends all his energies toward the fascination of women; an ugly man, whose tight, dark-skinned face, boney, shaved head, and prominent, unblinking eyes, have more than a suggestion of snakelike charm. With his monocle, his eternal, long cigarettes, his immaculate grooming, and insolent, polished manners, his subtle and insistent flattery, he dominates and masters the different types of women who flash in turn on the screen; the white-wigged adventuress with cruel eyes who acts as his accomplice; the patient serving-maid of the household, from whom he cajoles her hard-earned savings; the simple-minded daughter of the counterfeiter, Ventrucci, and the beautiful wife of the American diplomat. All in turn give way to his insolent attack, and the lure of his title. As three members of the Russian aristocracy, Prince Wladislaw Sergius Karamzin, the Princesses Vera and Olgo Petchnikoff impose themselves upon the Americans, in Monte Carlo, on a diplomatic mission from the United States, and the Prince weaves a subtle intrigue about the vanity of the wife that finally nets him a hundred thousand francs. His manner of extracting the money from his victims is hardly complimentary to the fair sex, and his method in dealing with the serving-maid who gives him her hard-earned savings, and the woman who hands him the winnings of the gaming-table, does not differ in any way. They are both effective, and simple.

Finger-Bowl Tears.

There are several incidents that betray thoughtful efficiency in the making of the picture; the little scene where the hero weeps "finger-bowl" tears, and the episode of the armless man; the scene in the wayside inn where a wondering monk interrupts the hero's plans, are well done. There is a wonderful storm interlude, and a fire, that leaves nothing to be desired, and the gaming houses with their crooked players, are intensely interesting.

The ending is logical, as has been aid. With his military bearing, his cigarette, and his immoral demeanour, the hero goes the way of the night-prowler, in a tragic, simple finale. Just what the moral of the story is, it is hard to say. As a delineation of a certain type of character and the effect of that character on women, it is immense, and it gives scope to wonderfully realistic acting on the part of its author, exploited throughout with undeviating consistency. The title might have been "Foolish Women" instead of "Foolish Wives,' 'as the only wife who appears in the story is the American woman.

There are several short reels accompanying the big production, and the new orchestra has a special score for "Foolish Wives' that adds immeasurably to its attraction. In the storm and fire scenes, they do some splendid descriptive playing.

FACTS ABOUT THE SAHARA DESERT WHICH MOST PEOPLE DO NOT KNOW

What do you know about the Sahara desert?

Ths question is brough to mind by the William Fox picture "Arabian Love', now being shown at the Royal Theatre with John Gilbert as the star.

The charm of the desert is always potent in stories, whether they be written or presented in pictures. The desert scenes in 'Arabian Love' convey a fine thrill as men ride through the trackless sand, or a caravan is seen rising above the horizon or stopping at an "oasis", immediately the mind pictures miles and miles of desert sand through which men battle to reach the drinking hole—sometimes to die within very sight of the water—they crave —sometimes, through thirst, to go mad at the very sight of water.

Do you know that the Sahara desert covers nearly 3,500,000 square miles —that it is almost the size of Europe?

Do you know that it has depressions that measure 100 feet below sea level and that it rises at times to over 8,000 feet above the sea?

Do you know that one section of desert, rising over 8,000 feet is said to be snow-covered from December to March?

Do you know that the Sahara desert is not all sand?

Do you know that a great part of it is rock formation?

Do you know that in the northern section of the desert, near the Atlas mountains the French have dug artesian wells which at a depth of 10 to 200 feet spouted water? And that at times fish have been brought up from such wells?

Do you know that as yet science has not been abe to determine the reason for the desert, although at one time it was claimed that the Sahara was formerly part of the Atlantic ocean?

Do you know that in some parts of the Sahara extinct volcanos have been found?

Purchase of Heine Groh Strengthened the Infield But Weakened the Outfield.

(By Billy Evans)

What ails the New York Giants? Perhaps that is a rather peculiar question to ask about a club that is leading the National League race by a comfortable margin.

However, there is no getting away from the fact that the showing of the Giants to date has been considerable of a disappointment.

When I saw the Giants play the Yankees in the world series last fall McGraw's club made a great impression on me. It loomed up as a truly good ball club.

During the winter McGraw made a trade for Heine Groh, one of the greatest third sackers of all time.

In 1911 the Giants, with Frisch at third, Bancroft at short, Rawlings at second and Kelly at first had a great infield.

The addition of Groh, with the shifting of Frisch to second and with Rawlings in reserve, certainly gave New York an inner defence to rave about. It was strengthened 25 per cent.

In the world series I saw McGraw's pitchers at their best. They certainly looked great. Some National League players with whom I talked at the time said the boys were stepping a little faster than their regular gait.

Certainly the addition of Groh seemed to have greatly strengthened the club. Taking that into consideration the Giants seemed to me to outclass the rest of the National League field. I really thought that by Sept. 1, or perhaps earlier, New York would have the National League pennant tucked away in camphor balls.

Possibly the Giants will come through that strong. At the Polo Grounds the club has played good ball, but on the road it has been just so-so.

During the past month I have talked with a number of National League players and umpires about the Giants. If you can believe them the failure of the Giants to distance the rest of the field is due to the loss of George Burns. Any time you ask what ails the Giants the reply is always the same.

"They miss old George Burns"

The other day I was talking with a prominent National League star and he remarked to me:

"We have beaten the Giants at least four games that would have gone against us with Burns playing center field for the Giants.

"The very fact that Shinners, Cunningham, Boone, Brown and now old Casey Stengel have tried to fill the bill is proof of Burns' great value to the club.

"His absence has cost the Giants four games aaginst us, so it is reasonable to suppose simular conditions have existed against other teams."

Heine Groh certainly added a punch to the infield. To get him, however, it was necessary to put a big hole in the outfield.

So perhaps, after all, it is the absence of George Burns that ails the Giants.

SCHEDULE FOR THE CITY BALL LEAGUE

Nine games remain to be played in the first half of the City Baseball League. The following schedule, which includes Saturday doubleheaders on June 2, and July 8, has been arranged.

Thursday, June 29 — C.G.E. vs. Raybestos.

Tuesday, July 4—H.N.S. vs. Lakeviews.

Thursday, July 6—Lakeviews vs. Lock Works.

Saturday, July 8—Lock Works vs. Y.M.C.A.; C.G.E. vs. Y.M.C.A.

Tuesday, July 11 — H.N.S vs Adanacs.

LAWN BOWLING

The regular weekly tournament of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club will be held this evening. The skips will be chosen and the rinks formed at 7.30 o'clock sharp.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the club, particularly the new members, to be present tonight.

A joint meeting of the executive and Gabes Committee of the Bowling Club will be held on the lawn at 7.30 this evening.

CAMPBELLFORD AND DISTRICT

CAMPBELLFORD, June 23. — Mrs. Foote, of Deseronto, is the gutst of Mrs. Chas. Davidson.

Mrs. John Hart, of Smith's Falls, and family, spent Tuesday with Mrs. W. H. Hart, of Grand Road.

Mr. Joseph Harper, of Edmonton, was a recent visitor in town.

Mr. Walter Sutton is confined to his home through illness.

Mr. James Moir, who had been ill for some time, is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Harry Cassan and little daughter, who have been visiting in Belleville, returned home to-day.

DOUBLE BILL FOR SATURDAY

Adanacs and Lakeviews Battle Again in First Game.

Adanacs and Lakeviews hook up again at Riverside Park Saturday afternoon in the Junior series, and Adanacs are out for revenge. Well beaten in their last two starts, the Adanacs must win to-morrow's battle or give up hope of annexing first half honors. The team has undergone repairs, and the line-up against Lakeviews will be the strongest that can be mustered. This contest will start at two o'clock.

Y.M.C.A. and Raybestos play the second game at 3.30 o'clock. These two teams are fighting it out for second place in the Intermediate race.

LAKEVIEWS TIED WITH THE LEAFS

Lakeview Juveniles defeated the Sacred Heart in a League game at Riverside Park last evening by the score of 12 to 5, and thereby tied with Maple Leafs for first place in the series. McDonough, pitching for Sacred Heart, was unsteady at times, and with the bases loaded, L. LeBarr hit for the third corner, giving Lakeviews a stronghold in the game.

Batteries: Lakeviews—Whitehouse and Miller. Sacred Heart — McDonough and Richea.

Umpires—Kay and E. LeBarr.

Little Lessons For the Golfer

The swing is the all-important part of the wooden club shot. The first thing to learn is the "slow back." By this is meant: Take the club up slowly. Bring it down quickly Do not pause too long at the top of the swing, but the aim of the whole shot should be from this point —that is, the aim of the shot should be taken at the instant the clubhead rests at the top of the stroke and ijust before the down swing is started.

Here is perfect form at the top of the swing, the picture being of Bob McDonald, Chicago profesional and last year's Metropolitan champion. Not the bodily ease he has attained—the relaxed firmness so necessary for a true drive.

GIRL'S FIELD DAY IS POSTPONED A WEEK

The Girls' Playground Ball field day which was scheduled for to-morrow afternoon has been postponed until July 1 in order that the final games of the second series may be played off.

The games to-morrow will be: King George vs. King Edward at 3.30; Colonial Weavers vs. Y. Tigers at 4.30; and the C.G.E. vs. the winners of the previous game at 6 o'clock.

FOOTBALL NOTICE.

The following Quaker players are requested to meet at the Oval at 2.45 p.m. to-morrow for their game with the C.P.C., which commences at 3 o'clock:

Goal, Griffin; backs, R. Willshaw and R. Young; half backs, Croft, Clarke and W. Logan; forwards, Russell, Foster, G. Logan, J. Willshaw, Honor.

Reserves—Hepburn and Meyette.

GOLF SCORES.

ANCASTER, Ont., June 23. — Scores at the completion of the morning half semi-finals of the Canadian amateur golf championship here to-day:

C. C. Fraser, Montreal, 2 up on L. L. Bredin, Detroit.

Scott, Montreal, 3 up on W. J. Thompson, Toronto.

EX-REEVE HAS

paid this year by Mr. Griffith, but it should demand that the $200 appropriated last year by the council for road work in Belmont, should be fully accounted for.

It was suggested that the best course the township council could follow would be to instruct their treasurer to return the $100 Mr. Griffith is said to have paid him.

Mr. Breckenridge said that when he came to the County Council this year he learned to his surprise that his name was attached to a paysheet for certain road work in Belmont, done in 1920, while Mr. Griffith was reeve. "I neevr signed that paysheet and more than that my hired man's name appears on it and I know he can't write," said Mr. Breckenridge.

He also asserted that a paysheet which Mr. Griffith turned in as the expenditure of county money was in reality part government money.

Warden Strickland said that Mr. Griffith should be called before the Council in order that he might have a chance to defend himself. Mr. Breckenridge remarked that he had recently asked Mr. Griffith to explain this latter matter of $100, "but he couldn't give me any satisfactory explanation."

TACKLE PROBLEM RADIO RESONANCE

BY PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority

Will music lovers ever be able to depend upon radio for real music?

The answer depends chiefly on two things:

First, the improvement of transmitting apparatus so that true tone qualities can be delivered to the antenna

Second, the perfection of receiving equipment.

In view of the progress made

along theese lines during the past few months, it is expected that the tone of the music wafted through the air soon will be greatly improved

That the fundamental law of resonance. up which all our radio which has acted as a stumbling work is so dependent. is the thing in the path of the radio engineers. Resonance puts in its appearance in many unlooked for places, and produces many undesirable and often unexplainable phenomena. Changes in the design of the equipment, both of a mechanical and electrical nature, have to be made many times before a design without false resonance is perfected.

Overcoming Difficulties

These difficulties will have been surmounted in the broadcasting stations long before they will have been overcome in the stations of the thousands of listening amateurs. Each broadcasting statio is being concentrated on by one or more trained engineers, while the majority of the receiving stations will for some time to come, be equipped with radio apparatus, either built by the amateur himself, or purchased from concerns who have not made it a point to so design the equipment as to take care of these distortions

This has been particularly true of loud-speaking receivers, and amplifiers used to give the power for driving these loud speakers. Distortion occurs in the amplifer vacuum tubes, in the transformer, and in the reproducing magnetic receiver and its horn. Most of this distortion is a result of attempts to use equipment not designed to carry the necessary energies. Some of it is the result of false resonance within the tranformers or reproducing magnetic telephones.

INSPECTOR HERE FROM BELLEVILLE

License Inspector F. J. Naphan of Belleville was in the city today in an unofficial capacity. He reported that Chief Sandy Kidd formerly of Peterboro, is busy establishing himself in a new home and was unable to get away to the Police chiefs convention at Victoria! Sergt. Boyd who was on the force here is making good in the position Inspector Naphan vacated for his new work in enforcing the O. T. A. "There is always a certain amount of liquor around and there's bound to be some trouble. Belleville has been rather quiet lately though and there haven't been many cases," he said. A large number of stills have been seized in that district he said. There are eight men on the Belleville force and a police car has been a great adjunct he said.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF ALL SAINTS' A.Y.P.A.

About thirty members of All Saints' Branch of the A. Y. P. A. attended the annual picnic which was held yesterday afternoon and evening at Braundsport. An advance party of about ten left the church at 3 o'clock by auto, carrying with them the eatables, and had everything in readiness for the remainder of the picnicers when they arrived shortly after 5 o'clock.

Games were enjoyed, the great attraction being baseball games between picked teams, and which exhibited the sterling baseball qualities of the members.

A picnic lunch was served at 6 o'clock and was followed by games and a weiner roast as soon as it became dark.

After the roast the members sat around the fire and enjoyed an hour of singing and story-telling.

L.O.L. OF KEENE HOLD EXCURSION

Went to Gore's Landing For the Day — Keene News.

KEENE, June 23—Keene L.O.L. 494 held their annual excursion to Gore's Landing on Tuesday of this week. The day was a pleasant one for the occasion, a good crowd availed themselves of the opportunity for the sail, the whole country from Keene to Gore's Landing as seen from the boat was beautiful and very promising of good crops.

Following a picnic dinner the afternoon's entertainment was dancing in the pavilion followed by a friendly game of Baseball between Millbrook and Keene teams which resulted in a score of 7 to 4 in favor of Keene .

A very delightful time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman on Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and daughter, entertained the members of the Social Welfare Dramatic Club. The evening was spent in numerous games until eleven p.m. The guests then were served with a dainty lunch and a more than generous supply of strawberries and cream the members of the club are very grateful to the host and hostess for their kindness.

Mr. Benjamine Kindred is attending conference in Whitby this week.

Mrs. Sarah Heweive and Miss Belle Weir were shopping in Peterboro on Wednesday.

Dr. S. I. Walsh has purchasd a new launch.

Mrs. R. N. Johnston was in Peterboro on Wednesday.

Mr. William Fletcher motored to Chemong on Wednesday

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Honey who is attending conference the service at the Methodist church on Sunday evening will be under the auspices of the young people's society. Mr. Samuel Armstrong will take the topic for the occasion.

The farmers are very busy harvesting their sweet clover crop which is very good if it can be cured properly and the rain does not spoil it.

Social Calendar

The members of St. Andrew's choir and a few of their friends were entertained very delightfullly at a garden party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Waddell last evening, where a very enjoyable evening was spent in the enjoyment of sports and music.

Mrs. S. T. Medd and children left this morning for Toronto, en route for a ten day trip down the St. Lawrence and Saguenay rivers.

Mrs. W. A. Sanderson and Mrs. A. E. Coulthard, are going up to Stoney Lake to-morrow.

Mr. John Crane, as local representative of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, announces that examinations by the Toronto Conservatory will be held on the 3rd and 4th of July, at the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seels have returned from Los Angeles, Cal., and report a very enjoyable trip.

Messrs. Tom Collard and Gordon Manning, fishing at Campbelltown yesterday, were quite delighted over their successful catch, which included two lunge and four bass.

In honor of his marriage in the near future, John Smith, an employee of Ernest Hensley, was presented with a clock by about fifty of his friends at the home of Mr. Hensley last night. A kitchen shower was also held for the bride-to-be.

Mrs. H. F. Foote, 809 George Street, entertained a number of friends at her home last night to meet Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Thomas, formerly of Peterborough, who leave shortly for Windsor, where Rev. Thomas has a new charge. The information had evidently leaked out in some way that yesterday Rev. and Mrs. Thomas celebrated the 18th anniversary of their wedding, and their friends in this city took the opportunity to show their warm feelings for the former pastor of George Street Church and his wife by presenting them with a silver vase filled with roses. Rev. and Mrs. Thomas were taken by surprise, but in a few happy words both expressed their happy recollections of the years spent here and the value they placed upon the friendship of so many Peterborough people.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dwyer and son, Leo. 14 Aylmer street, have returned home after spending the week end in Lakefield the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Killen

The graduation exercises held on May 12th at the Winnipeg General Hospital numbered among the successful candidates Miss Helen K. Davidson, a native of Peterborough, and granddaughter of Mrs. Jas. Wilson, with many other relatives in the city, who graduated with first-class honors in a class of forty-four members, and Miss Ruthe Mabel Ross, a daughter of Rev. G. E. Ross, pastor of Mark street Methodist church, East City.

The many friends of Miss Kathleen Cavanagh will regret to learn that she was compelled to undergo an operation for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Hospital this morning.

KESLICK — WOODWARD

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Woodward, Cannington, Ont., was the scene of a wedding on Wednesda, June 21, 1922, when their second daughter, Gladys Evon, was united in marriage to Harry Bertram Keslick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keslick, Cresswell, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Kidd, M.A., rector of All Saints Church, Cannington. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in white Canton crepe with hand tinted flowers at the girdle and white hat of Canton crepe and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and lily of the valley. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Beatrice Woodward, who looked lovely in a flame colored crepe de chine frock with white crepe hat, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Tom McPhaden of Toronto. The wedding music was played by Miss Betty Turnbull of Toronto. After a luncheon the bride and bridegroom left on a short motor trip, the bride travelling in a jade green sport suit and soft crush hat. On their return they will reside in Peterboro.

RATHENAU WAS NOTED AS MAN RARE TALENTS

OF JEWISH BIRTH

BERLIN, June 24 (Canadian Press). — Dr. Walter Rathenau, who was assassinated this morning, was styled the wizard of the German Empire, because of his high powers of organisation and business ability, his expedients which kept the people eating and the army shooting when the blockade had shut off the importation of raw materials during the war. After the war, as Minister of Reconstruction, his meetings with French Minister Louis Loucheur, brought about with business-like directness, the adjustments and accommodations which had been the despair of diplomats.

He was of Jewish birth, and was described as a man of great force and energy, business acumen, vision and initiative. His father founded the German Electric Company of Berlin.

Shot Twice.

The murderer, who was driving in a motor car, slowed up as he was nearing Dr. Rathenau, and shot twice at the Foreign Minister, the shots taking immediate effect.

Putting on high speed, the assassin escaped.

Official announcement of Dr. Rathenau's death was made in the Reichstag.

Dr. Walter Rathenau, who was described as a very powerful figure at the Genoa Conference, was the man most concerned there in the secret treaty signed with Russia. He was looked upon as one of the strongest men of Germany, and his name was frequently linked with that of Hugo Stinnes, both being leaders in the industrial world.

WILLIAM A. WOOD STRUCK BY CAR

Was Removed to Hospital Accident Last Night.

William Arthur Wood, Brownton, struck down by a motor car owned by Louis Yeotes and driven by John Econs, at the corner of George and Murray streets at 8.50 last night, received a severe shaking up and was severely cut about the limbs. Dr. A. E. Hammond stated to-day that his condition was not critical and he was resting much easier at Nicholls Hospital, where he was removed immediately after receiving attention at the doctor's office last night. The bicycle Wood was riding was badly smashed. He was riding south on George street, while Yeotes' car was travelling north. An automobile turned out suddenly from Murray street north into George, and in avoiding striking the automobile, Yeotes' car smashed into the bicycle.

A NARROW MARGIN

LONDON, June 24.—(Canadian Press).— The Saturday Review says the vote in the Canadian House of Commons on the Dominion Budget shows how narrow is the margin on which the Government operates. The safety of Premier Mackenzie King, The Saturday Review says, lies in the fact that a combination of the conservatives and progressives in the Houses although possible, is unlikely.

May Effect The Irish Situation

LONDON, June 24 Canadian Press). — The probable effect on the political situation of the assassination of Field-Marshal Wilson attracts attention this morning, and all the newspapers speculate as to the position of the British Government in view of the outburst of anger in Parliament at the withdrawal of the protection from prominent men.

Intense indignation over the murder is mingled with the feeling that it should have been prevented, and consequently a scapegoat is being sought.

Home Secretary Shortt, as the responsible head of the police, has been singled out particularly as the necessary victim, and his removal is demanded.

That he will forestall political pressure on the Government by voluntarily resigning is predicted in some quarters.

Monday's session of the House may see the defection of a large number of Coalition Unionists who hitherto have supported the Government's Irish policy, but who now are more than ever inclined to attach themselves to the "Die-hards."

DINING HALL WAS FORMALLY OPENED

The formal presentation of the Kiwanis dining-hall at Jackson Park —erected for the Peterborough Health Association on 24th. Nay by the Members as a "bee"—took place with a simple ceremony at the park at 7 o'clock last night.

President Frank Whitehouse presented Mayor W. H. Taylor, as the custodian of the key of the city, with the key to the building.

The Mayor unlocked the door, and gave the key to Dr. G. Stewart Cameron, secretary of the Health Association, who represented President W. R. Breyfogle, who was unable to be present.

Mayor Taylor congratulated the Club on their work generally, and he complimented them particularly on the erection of the handsome and useful building for the children of the city.

"The Health Association is deeply grateful for the kind and concrete interest the Kiwanis Club has taken in our efforts on behalf of the children of this city," said Dr. Cameron. He said he hoped their interest would be sustained. It was their expectation to have 100 children in the camp this year, he said. He urged the members of the club, if they were aware of any underprivileged children that would be benefitted by three weeks' stay at the camp, that the Association would be pleased to receive their names and addresses.

Mrs. J. A. Aylmer pointed out that the dining-hall would help the Association greatly in its work, and she also spoke their appreciation of the interest the club had shown in their activities.

Mrs. R. R. Hall, Mrs. A. E. Coulthard, and Mrs. (Dr.) Cameron, who were present, were asked to speak, but said they could only join in complimentary expressions of appreciation.

In pointing out the aims and objects of Kiwanis, John McKone said that their motto was the Golden Rule, and they aimed to treat all men squarely "to do unto others as you would be done by." He said they realised the importance of the work of the Health Association, and decided by erecting the hall that they could render the most assistance.

Led by Mrs. Aylmer, the party of Kiwanians and members of the Association, inspected the roomy building, that was glistening in a fresh, green coat of paint, put on by Ald. Walter Stocker and other stalwarts yesterday.

The layout of the building, its sound construction, and the consideration given to light and ventilation met with unfeigned approval.

A FINAL MEETING OF MOTHER'S CLUB

The final meeting for this season of the Mothers' Club and Cradle Roll of George street Methodist church, took place yesterday afternoon, in the form of a picnic at Inverlea Park attended by 75 of the mothers and children ,included an interesting address to the mothers givn by Mrs. A. J. Thomas, wife of the Rev. A. J. Thomas of Montreal. An entertaining programme was provided by a vocal solo by Mrs. T. E. Curvin, with auto-harp accompaniment played by herself, and readings by Madge and Max Parnell. Following this was the service of refreshments with the children in their own separate ring.

THE REST ROOM IS NEARING A FINISH

Two Hundred Boys Have Taken Part in Project at Jackson Park.

The enthusiasm of the boys in the fourth classes at Public School in the construction of the rest room for the Peterborough Health Association at Jackson Park has resulted in the building going up at a rapid rate, and Instructor A. Hope, who is in charge, said to-day that he expected to have the building complete within two weeks. The heavy work has been accomplished, the walls and roof and verandah is up and there only remains the completion of the roomy verandah, interior finish, painting and the roofing. The 200 boys, 12, 13 and 14 years of age, have worked with a will at the job since a week ago Tuesday. Each class has put in two hours a week at it, which is the regular manual training period, but not satisfied with this, there have been volunteers for work after school every day and for an hour or two in the evening.

The inspector has practically lived on the job. He has allowed the youthful carpenters to find their own squares, and he hasn't driven a single nail. Incidentally he remarked that there was little danger of the building falling down as there are 30 pounds of nails oone into it so far. "If there is anything the boys dearily love to do it is to hammer," declared the instructor.

The spirit of the youngsters has been invincible, the instructor said, and he is justly proud of what his classes have accomplished. The undertaking is the most pretentious the manual training classes have been connected with, and the successful completion of the building will have a splendid result in giving the boys complete confidence in their ability along construction lines. The difficulties of reaching the park even from such distances as King George School have not daunted the young spirits, and on bicycles, in cars and on foot the young carpenters have arrived on the job promptly at the appointed time. Now that school is practically over, the boys are anxious to put their full time on the job.

The rest room, which is 40 feet 6 inches long and 26 feet wide over all is an imposing structure that reflects considerable credit upon the instructor and his classes. It has been erected at the west side of the park facing the westerly drive, and the wide verandah running the full length of the building, its bungalow nature, set off by a background of trees, give it an inviting home-like appearance.

BURIAL IN ST. PAUL'S.

Greatest Honour that Britain Can Give Her Dead, in Burial of Sir Henry Wilson.

LONDON, June 24. —(Canadian Press.)—The funeral of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson will be held next Monday in St. Paul's Cathedral, the Empire's military pantheon. The body will be interred in the north transept, by the grave of Field Marshal Lord Roberts. Full military honors will be accorded the dead soldier.

Except for a portion of the cathedral reserved for the relatives of the Field Marshal, members of Parliament and other prominent persons, the whole of the vast edifice will be thrown open to the general public.

Property Committee Decides to Illuminate North Side of Clock

Its Darkened Exterior Was Reported at Last Night's Meeting of the Committee—Market Will be Held on Friday Next.

No market will be held next Saturday, 1st July, it was decided at a meeting o the Property Committee last night.

Market Clerk Fred Bullied thought Friday would be suitable, and on the motion of Ald. R. N. Jones and Ald. Robert Morrison, notice will be published that the market will be held on Friday of next week.

Tenders for painting the approaches to the Market Hall were opened, and on the motion of Ald. Jones and Ald. Dr. Holloway, the tender of G. H. Duncan was accepted. The painters tendered as follows:

A. B. Cullen, $150.00; G. H. Duncan, $159.00; R. H. Revoy, $210.00; Guppy & Hall, $170.00; Coleman Bros., $160.00.

Ald. Malcolm McIntyre reported what the aldermen and Mayor had probably remarked, that the illumination of the north face of the market clock had ceased as a result of some electrical trouble. He advised that he was looking into the matter, and hoped to have the light working again in a few days.

The committee passed upon the redecorating of the sanitary inspector's office as requested by the Board of Health. The chairman also stated that he had asked the City Trust to paint the room to be used by the Public Nurse at the City Hall, and he said that he was having a cupboard, electric lamp, desk, etc., installed.

No action was taken in regard to a request from James Gates for a salary as dog catcher. Mr. Gates objected to the fee system he has been working under.

TREASURE HUNT AT PENETANGUISHENE A REAL WASHOUT

The Mythical Iron Treasure Chest Turns Out to be a Boulder and The Examiner Correspondent Takes a Trip Beneath the Waves—Search Abandoned.

(By C. M. Vining, Special Correspondent.)

PENETANGUISHENE, Ont., June 24.—The treasure quest of the River Wye has ended in disappointment. Equipped in a diving monstrosity yesterday afternoon your representative navigated through twenty feet of brown wtaer to the object of search. It lay buried in mud in inky blackness. It was flat and hard. It rang like metal. But it was not an iron chest, cast overboard by the pursued Jesuits of ancient France. It was a stone—sound, healthy and of immovable dimensions. Last night it lay under the moon in unworried solitude. The harassing dredge has gone dejectedly to its Midland moorings. The potential treasure pit is a mere mud hole and Mother Wye is effacing the scar with silent rapidity in shifting sand.

Yesterday afternoon was the culmination of nine days' dredging, probing and hopeful speculation. The "Baltic' finally succeeded in scraping clear its object and it clinked merrily under the hammering of the steel probe.

Capt. Bob Carson donned his diving equipment for the grand finale and descended. Twenty minutes later he announced his opinion that the "treasure chest" is a bolder.

Your correspondent then undertook to duplictae Captain Carson's submarine activities in order to secure confirmatory and first hand information. Two resultant decisions may be stated safely. First, Capt. Carson is right, the treasure chest is a rock. Second, as a summer pastime, groping around a river bottom in an exaggerated. tin hat, ranks about zero even with a treasure chest, as the raison d'eter of the party.

The Prospective Diver.

If you doubt these conclusions, please listen to what they do to the prospective diver and what the treasure hunt of the Wye was like at close quarters. As a preliminary your representative was divested of his shoes and his feet shrouded in a pair of heavy woollen sox—weighing one pound. Next he was encased in a rubber arrangement built on the general plan of one piece pyjamas with booth attached. To get into this contrivance required liberal soaping of the hands and wrists and unspeakable contortions. Once in it, however, it was impossible to contort. One just sat. Estimated weight one hundred pounds. Next item was a pair of thick felt shoulder pads. They were needed because they were folllowed by an iron yoke affair with tricky bolt arrangements to which the rubber pyjamas were at once attached with a wrench and much grunting. This accomplished, a neat little pair of canvas overalls was fastened to your correspondent's persons by a series of ropes and the tout ensemble was led to the ladder. Here a pair of shoes was added, a solid iron belt, a life line and finally the reporter's head was encased in a round, ferocious looking steel affair which screwed on to the yoke with a vicious clank.

The last item weighed approximately one ton each. To be precise the total weight was one hundred and seventy-five pound, but your representative is willing to give evidence that each boot weighed that itself.

At the Bottom.

Now for the treasure hunt some one taped on the reporter's tin hat, which he interpreted rightly as the starting gun. There was a sizzling as the air valves began to work, and the reporter groped down the ladder expecting a leg to drop off at each step. Soon there was nothing visible but a pleasant yellow light and the water trickled overhead.

Then things began to happen to the reporter's ears. It was merely the pressure of course, but some one seemed to be toying with a pot needle on each side and at the same time someone else was squeezing most enthusiastically at the reporter's legs, then his waist, then his arms. These people became more vociferous as he groped down the mending ladder. It grew inky black Finally came soft mud under foot, the pressure ceased and it began to occur to the reporter that he was looking for the treasure.

The probe was located and by tapping, the mysterious object of the search. By this time it had become covered by nearly three feet of sand. Armed with a scraper your representative attacked this camouflage. It was like digging a hole in a barrel of sugar. After excavating several hundred cubic yards by rough estimate, there came a hard surface and the reporter was able to scrape away the last few handfuls with bare hands.

There was no mistaking that surface. It was a plain, unvarnished boulder. To make certain and to try to find the dimensions the excavating process was repeated in three other places. It seemed to be a perfectly flat stone, eight feet or so in length, four feet wide and of indefinite depth. Apparently one loses sense of time. Under the water the performances described seemed to occupy ten minutes, but on arrival at the surface your representative was told that he had been under for more than half an hour and was suspected of looting the treasure chest under water.

The Hunt Concludes.

The "Baltic," so her skipper said, is incapable of dealing with a rock of the dimensions found. The only alternative is drilling and blasting. A hurried conference brought decision against this plan and the hunt ended then and there.

The principals in the quest have taken their disappointment cheerfully. They are unanimous in their conviction that Edward Jeffery's divining apparatus has made no mistake and they believe that either the boulder contains the various ores indicated or that the Jesuit chest lies beneath it. But the search has already cost more than five hundred dollars in dredging expenses. Drilling operations are even more costly, and with an indefinite discovery as the result, further effort was voted down.

It is undeniably humorous to reflect on the time, effort, money and mental agony expended in baring a stolid boulder on the bottom of a muddy little creek in Ontario in search for the treasure of romantic France. On the other hand, it was an imaginative and highly courageous, though not always well managed attempt to secure something of great historical interest and to demonstrate an apparatus of immensely valuable possibilities, and credit belongs to the losers both for the daring of their scheme and the sportsmanship they displayed in their disappointment.

Rev. Father Athol Murray, of Penetang, who represents the historical side of the affair, clings to his conclusion that the lost Jesuit chest is not a myth. Edward Jeffrey, and all his friends reiterated to your correspondent their confidence in the merits of the machine.

The quest has come to an end, but it will not be surprising if there are further attempts before it is forgotten.

In the meantime the Jesuit treasure chest must go with the ghost of Antigonish, as a riddle which has no answer.

BIG CROWD ON LOCAL MARKET THIS MORNING

Butter and Eggs not Equal to the Demand—Soon Cleaned Out.

BERRIES UP AGAIN

...The Farmers' Market was a busy place this morning. The extreme heat brought the dealers out minus outer coats, and wearing large straw hats.

The Basket Market.

Butter and eggs were plentiful but not equal to the demand. They were both cleaned out at a comparatively early hour, butter ranging from 30 cents to 33 cents, and eggs from 28 cents to 30 cents a dozen.

Fowl was present in large quantities, at a general price of 25 cents per pound.

The Open Market.

On the open market, one man had new potatoes at $1.15 a peck. The supply of the new variety was quickly snapped up at $1.75 a bag.

There was plenty of crisp lettuce at 5 cents a bunch; rhubarb, 4 bunches for 10 cents; and green onions at 5 cents a bunch. One small lad had a basket of watercress at 5 cents a bunch. Cabbages, 15 and 20 cents a head; new peas, 15 cents a quart; gooseberries, 2 quarts for 35 cents; and cherries at 25 cents for a small measure.

Strawberries were still ascending, the popular price on the market this morning being 20 cents a quart box.

Small, pink porkers in a crate were $15.00 for two.

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL HELD BY ST. ANDREW'S

A large attendance of members and friends of St. Andrew's church marked a very successful strawberry social held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. White, Boundary, first line of Smith The weather man proved very amiable on this occasion, and the viands supplied by the ladies in charge left nothing to be desired. It was almost impossible to separate some of the patrons from their seats at the table, and from the long array of tempting dainties that covered the tables, spread outside on the lawn, and garnished with tall vases of rose peonies and daisies. Japanese lanterns and large flags added to the general decorative effect. Mrs. W. L. White and Mrs. Walter McKee were general convenors, assisted by various members of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Church, who waited on the table and dispensed ice-cream at a separate booth.

Following the supper, an entertaining programme was supplied Rev. Jas. Rollins filling the duties of chairman very acceptably. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Marion Clark, in sweet voice; by Miss Ina Allen, whose lovely voice was heard to great advantage in a very enthusiastic encore and by Mr. E. Humpage, who was in particularly good form last night, in his two selections. An instrumental duet by the Misses Blodgett and Fowler; an instrumental solo by Mr. Leslie Unit, and readings by Miss Murton Colon and Miss Irene Breckenridge were much enjoyed. The Misses Amy Beal, and Elizabeth Webber and Mr. Unitt acted as accompanists for the occasion, which was featured by the presentation of floral tributes to the surprised soloists, provided by an energetic young lady guest, and presented by little Guelda Pakenham and small Donald Henderson. Rev. Mr. Rollins was also presented with a bouquet, and a large, showy arrangement was thrust upon Rev. George Craw of Springville, at the conclusion of a brief humorous speech made by him.

Mr. Rollins expressed the gratitude of the church and its members for the hospitality extended by Mr. and Mrs. White in throwing open their home on this occasion.

Heavy Shipments Of Strawberries

SIMCOE, June 24 (Canadian Press). — Heavy shipments of strawberries for various points in Ontario and Quebec have left the largely horticultural county of Norfolk this week.

The strawberries this year are a bumper crop, and the raspberries and cherries will also probably be heavy.

Vegetable yields, especially in the case of peas, promise well, and the big canning factories are already alive with this year's crops.

ECHOES HAUNT COUNTY COURT

Property Committee Content With Decreasing Complaints of Persistent Defect.

Although Reeve F. A. Eason of Otonabee told the County Property Committee on Friday afternoon that he had noticed the defective acoustics of the county court room, the committee, after a casual reference to this obvious and annoying fault of the chamber in which preside Judge Huycke and the assize judges, gave a wide berth to the proposed remedy that involves an expenditure of some $3,000.

Mr. Eason was one of several members who happened into the court room during the hearing of the Fontaine vs Evans case this week. Judge Huycke invited them to sit in the jury's stand close to the witness box and even at that close range Mr. Eason experienced the muffled and blurred effect of the echoes conflicting with the newly uttered words.

"I guess they've got tired" said the chairman Mr. Coughlin of Douro, when he was informed that there were fewer complaints about the hearing properties of the Chamber which the County handsomely finisheed and furnished, but left the marring condition which as far as the reporters are concerned is as acute and annoying as ever.

"Something is certainly wrong with it" said Mr. Eason and County Clerk Elliott amused the committee with the remark that "the less you hear these lawyers the better."

The last estimate of the cost of treating the walls so as to absorb the sounds was $3,200 but the Committee appeared to be content with the disfiguring stretch of canvass across the light well, which as an improvement is a dubious makeshift.

Invite Mr. Griffith

Ex-Warden W. E. Griffith of Belmont township is invited by a resolution of the County Council to meet a special committee here on Saturday July 8th to discuss his disposal of the sum of $200 granted by the Council to Belmont for road work last year.

The committee is composed of Warden Strickland and Messrs. Breckenridge, Nicholls and Eason.

"If there's any way Mr. Griffith can clear this thing up honorably he should be given full opportunity' sad Mr. Anderson.

Reeve Jones of Havelock was named for the committee but he asked to be replaced because he would lose a round trip on the C.P.R. with whom he is employed.

PROPOSED CUT FOR THE SUPT. COUNTY ROADS

W. A. Anderson Suggested $1,800 For Road Superintendent MacFarlane Instead of Present $2,500.

Mr. Campbell's Good-Bye.

Not as a criticism of his services but as a stroke to conform with present values, Deputy-Reeve Anderson proposed to the County Council yesterday that the salary of Duncan MacFarlane superintendent of county and suburban roads, be reduced from the present amount $2500 to $1800. Mr. MacFarlane was first engaged by the council to supervise the county road construction and maintenance at the salary of $1500 and when the Suburban Road commission came into being they also employed Mr. MacFarlane as superintendent paying him additional $1,000.

Mr. Anderson asked whether the members would approve a revision of the salary to a maximum of $150 a month for Mr MacFarlane in his dual capacities.

"As steady job all the year round $150 a month for this work seems to me a pretty fair salary" said Mr. Anderson. who later enquired whether the members would consider a maximum of $175 a month.

"I don't believe he's getting too much money" was Reeve Coughin's opinion. "He's in a position to earn all he's getting".

"He's giving satisfaction in Douro said Mr. Coughlin.

"I dont think he is in Smith" said Reeve Nicholls. "At least there are a lot of ratepayers who are not satisfied".

Mr. Anderson said he was not considering the work of the superintendent, but his salary. Mr. MacFarlane had a lot of work to attend to, but there were engineers employed by the government who were getting about $1800.

Several members believed that the superintendence of the county and suburban roads was more than one man could effectively perform, and it was also said that Mr. MacFarlane had so much ground to cover that he hadn't time to give the closest attention to the foremen and other details of instruction and supervision. It was stated that he might be in Belmont one day and in Smith the next or even that same day.

"I dont think the ratepayers of North Monaghan would know him if they saw him", said Deputy-Reeve Lillico.

Mr. Anderson's suggestion was passed over, failing to gain support.

Mr. Campbell' Farewell

Mr. D. S. Campbell, who with his wife have resigned from the management of the County House of Refuge paid his parting respects to the Council on Friday.

"I can tell you that we will give the new man a good honest welcome when he comes", said Mr. Campbell, "and that's more than we got. I don't mean that we want our successor to adopt our system but we will stay a week or say to help him get away to a good start. Any pointers we can give them we will give with a good heart."

Mr. Campbell said that he was returning for a time to his old home in Chandos, where he hoped his wife would regain her health. "That's why we are leaving we have nothing up our sleeves against an member of this council. We made mistakes, but we know it, and you overlooked them. We are leaving with our minds void of offense against God and man. We can't do more".

Warden's Reply

"The Council feels exceedingly sorry that you have had to leave", Warden Strickland said in reply.

"The Council appreciates your kind sentiment that you will give your successor every help and endeavour to get him on his feet before you leave

Increase Valuator's Pay

The Council acceded to the request of the three valuators of county property now engaged at that work and increased their remuneration from $5 to $7 a day. The increase was made without much discussion.

Park Grant

The Finance Committee overlooked the petition from the city's Parks Committee for a grant toward the maintenance of Victoria Park, but in another session Friday afternoon appropriated $100. Last year's grant was $150.

Reeve Coughlin of Douro, proposed that no action be taken and said that if conditions were reversed the city would be charged the county rent for the grounds.

Mr. Eason —It would be a queer looking park if it wasn't for the city.

Manufacturers' Association Told of Railway Conditions

C. Howard Smith Would Abandon 600 Miles of Railway Immediately and Decrease Service.

MORE EFFICIENCY.

ST. ANDREW'S BY THE SEA, June 24.—(Canadian Press.)—That representatives of the dominion and provincial governments of Canada hold a conference at the earliest possible date to defend their respective fields of taxation so as to avoid unnecessary duplication and expense, was suggested by resolution here yesterday of the annual general meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

C. Howard Smith, newly-elected first vice-president of the association was given applause from the convention and the spoken support of a number of members when he read a review of the Canadian National Railway problem and suggested ways of economizzing and increasing efficiency. He advised abandonment of 600 miles of railway in Alberta, Manitoba and Ontario and Quebec, decreased train service, smallest possible purchase of coal from the United States and an increase in the output of Canadian coal and a central board of management for the Canadian National and Grand Trunk systems. He protested that the Canadian people, who were paying the deficits of the national system, did not receive as favorable freight rates as did persons shipping into the country.

In the course of his address he said: "Canada has 42,500 miles of railway with a population of 8,729,000, or one mile of railway per 206 inhabitants."

"The United States has approximately twice the number of inhabitants per mile, and the United Kingdom ten times the number. Railway traffic increases approximately in proportion to the square of the tributary population, indicating that the U.S. should yield four times the traffic per mile as compared with Canada.

"The federal government controls over 22,000 miles of railway made up of the Canadian National and Grand Trunk systems which have recently have co-ordinated to the extent of eliminating competition and operating on a partnership basis. Notwithstanding this 1921 showed a deficit of $72,346,2233 and the previous year a deficit of $74,000,000."

"It would be out of place at this time to discuss the advisability of government ownership, which has now been adopted. All sections of the community are vitallly interested and it is in order to consider the situation as one would review his private business in the face of a critical situation."

"The government railways represent a tremendous business, amounting to over $340,000,000 per annum, extending over 22,000 miles of territory and employing over 89,000 persons. An improvement of only one per cent. in efficiency, economy, or better administration would mean a saving of $3,400,000 per annum.

"This consideration indicates at once that the first necessity is to have the best possible executive, who must be thoroughly familiar with all branches of the railway business, and the requirements of the country, and he should not be hampered by any political considerations and shold have the confidence and full support of the public. We have a railway mileage very much in excess of the actual needs, parallel in serving the same territory and branch lines serving no substantial purpose. Over six hundred miles of railway in various parts of the country are entirely unwarranted and can be abandoned at once. More can follow in due time. Rails and other material can be salvaged, and in some cases the right-of-way be used for highway purposes.

Lighter Income Tax For Father

OTTAWA, June 24.—Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, yesterday afternoon introduced a bill in the House of Commons amending the income tax as to increase the exemption for each child from $200 to $300 revising present provisions in regard to commercial travellers' expenses, and imposing a tax on Americans working in Canada similar to that imposed on Canadians working in the United States. This last amendment is to come into effect by proclamation.

LETTER SAYS THAT AMBROSE J. SMALL WAS IN MONTREAL

Woman Writes That She and Her Husband Had Drugged and Kidnapped Theatre Magnate.

POLICE ON TRAIL.

MONTREAL, June 24.—(Canadian Press.)— George Henri Chenier, president of the Place Viger Hotel Company, of this city, states that he has a letter from a woman who has since been arrested, saying that she, with her husband and another person, drugged Ambrose J. Small, the missing Toronto theatre magnate, and conveyed him to Montreal, where he was placed in the cellar of a large house, the number and street in which located she cannot recall.

According to Mr. Chenier, a man and a woman giving the names of Dr. and Mrs. Gray, registered at the Place Viger Hotel here on October 6, 1921, saying that they had come from the United States, but their automobile bore an Ontario license number. Dr. Gray left in the vault of the hotel what he described as an important document on the back of which was legible the name of S. B. Coon, architect, 36 Toronto street, Toronto. This and other belongings of the couple were held by the hotel proprietor when the couple left the next day without paying their bill. They were handed over to the police. In the trunks there was found a letter written by the woman to a friend in which she stated that "Dr. Gray" was again in trouble and was involved in the Small affair.

The police are investigating the affair and hope to effect an arrest shortly.

FARMER CRUSHED TO DEATH BY A BULL.

TILLSONBURG, June 24.—Canadian Press.)—James Oterson, aged 60 years, was found dead in a field, gored by a bull. Oterson was working for Thomas Lowrie, one mile west of the town, and, as usual, went to get the cows. Some time later members of the family heard his cries, but on arriving, life was extinct.

A neighbor's bull had broken into the field and apparently was fighting with Mr. Lowrie's animal, and it is presumed that on Oterson entering the field both animals had taken after him and gored him to death. Dr. Bennett was called, but decided an inquest unnecessary.

The unfortunate victim was crushed to a pulp from hips to head. He conducted a feed stable in town for several years and later a produce business. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss.

TORONTO, June 24.—(Canadian Press)—The city's health finds no such danger in tobacco smoke as did the lady speaker at a meeting of the Hamilton W.C.T.U. who stated that young babies often died from the effects of their fathers smoking in the house, though the deaths were ascribed to other causes.

"The statement is intensely exaggerated", was the remark of Dr. Grant Fleming, acting M.O.H. during Dr. Hastings' absence at Niagara.

The same lady speaker considered that the "noxious weed", was often the cause of cancer.

"That has never been established", said the doctor, "Cancer most often appears in parts of the body not reached by tobacco smoke. It is often thought that the irritation caused by a clay pipe starts cancer on the lip, but that has nothing to do with tobacco smoke" he said.

JESUIT TREASURE JUST A FLAT ROCK

PENETANG, Ont., June 24.—(Canadian Press)—The hunt for the Jesuit treasure chest has ended in a no-decision bout with the River Wye. The solid oblong object discovered by the steel probe during the last few days has been revealed as nothing more than a flat six-foot rock which the hoisting apparatus is incapable of coping with.

The hunt is ended with the searchers convinced that either the rock contains iron and gold streaks of that the Jesuit treasure lies concealed beneath its immovable bulk. Yesterday morning was spent in dredging again to hard bottom and removing several small lime stone boulders which had raised false hopes. With the excavation thus cleared Capt. Bob Carson, the diver, descended for a half hour investigation, armed with probe and scraper.

IRISH QUESTION IS WELL AIRED IN ENGLISH HOUSE

Fate of Sir Henry Wilson May Play a Big Part in the Future of Present Government.

DEBATE ON MONDAY.

LONDON, June 24.— (Canadian Press.) — The extraordinary bombardment to which Austen Chamberlain, leader of the government, was subjected to by the Dichards at question time in the house of commons to-day is an indication of what may be expected when the subject of affording security for British subjects in Ireland and England is fully debated on Monday next.

The Dichards hold that what has happened justifies all they have been saying since the Irish treaty was arranged and they are determined to push the point home.

It is suggested, in some quarters that the fate of Sir Henry Wilson may play as important a part in regard to future of the present Government as the fate of General Gordon played in the fortune of the Gladstone administration.

Yesterday's disclosures that police protection had recently been withdrawn from ministers and others will lead to a demand by dissentient unionists for the resignation of home secretary Edward Shortt. There is, however, a feeling among the great body of members that until all the facts are known and the situation can be reviewed as a whole, which Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill will do on Monday, no hasty judgments should be formed.

TERRIFIC WIND STORM SWEEPS OVER THE WESTERN PROVINCES

Toll of Death and Property Destruction is Taken By Terrible Hurricane at Portage La Prairie.

THREE DEAD.

WINNIPEG, June 24 (Canadian Press). — Manitoba last night was recovering from the effects of the most destructive wind storm of years which, between three and four o'clock yesterday morning, swept down from Eastern Saskatchewan by way of Brandon, Portage la Prairie, Winnipeg, and Lydiatt, to the Ontario boundary, leaving a toll of three dead, many injured, some of them very seriously, and of property loss which will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

At Brandon the storm was comparatively mild and caused no serious losses. Portage was hit by the full force of blast, which is said to have been of the hurricane variety, rather than a cyclone or a tornado, and public buildings and residences suffered severely.

The Methodist, Anglican and Presbyterian churches were unroofed and badly damaged. The city's hotels and garages fared badly, and in the collapse of a residence, fourteen-year-old Charles Spence was killed. The breaking of high-tension wires started a fire which destroyed three grain elevators, those of the Metcalfe, Forsythe and Premium Companies. No estimate of the loss is available.

Accompanied by a rainfall of tropical violence, the storm struck Winnipeg and blew with an extreme velocity of eighty-four miles an hour, to an alarming accompaniment of electrical disturbance. Terrific gusts of wind shook the city to its foundations. Roofs were carried away from many structures, big and little alike; an ice warehouse toppled in a heap; hundreds of fine trees were uprooted or deprived of branches, which fell to the roadways; windows were driven in like paper; telegraph and telephone wires were broken down to add an element of danger which later in the morning cost the life of Garfield Price, aged eight, who grasped a live wire and was instantly killed. In half an hour the storm passed on.

The farthest east damage of great severity was done at Lydiatt, where the home of Mrs. Pauline Kormrie was dismantled, Baby Kormrie, aged nine months, was killed, and Mrs. Kormrie and an older child were brought to Winnipeg very seriously injured. The Canadian Pacific Railway station was shifted from its foundations, a railway sleeping car was overturned, and several employees injured, and damage was done to farm buildings and crops.

Train services in and out of Winnipeg have been mainttained unbroken, but all the other lines of communication were crippled. Hundreds of telegraph poles in the vicinity of Portage and Lydiatt went down, and it was the middle of the afternoon before the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs had restored direct communication with Eastern Canada, while at that hour their Western lines remained broken, although it was expected that the early evening would see a resumption of service.

The Canadian National Telegraphs were not so hard hit, and maintained a limited service during the day.

Telephone lines to Portage had not been re-established at 4 p.m., although a line was working with Brandon most of the day. The city Hydro system lost one mile of towers, and provided a strictly limited service last night.

The Winnipeg Electric had to discontinue its Selkirk trains owing to the poles across the lines, but its Winnipeg service is being maintained and it lighting customers supplied by an emergency plant. Full repairs to both plants are expected to-day.

The rain which fell will be of much benefit to crops in the storm belt, but in some areas the added presence of hail was a cause of damage and loss. It is thought that many farm buildings must have been destroyed or damaged, but the disorganisation of telephones and telegraphs has made it impossible to secure detailed information. Further reports of casualties may come from isolated districts.

A $10,000 seaplane, resting quietly at anchor in Winnipeg, was overturned and wrecked.

Cases of minor damage were innumerable; of chimneys toppled, garages carried away, and automobile tops ripped, of overturned chicken coops, and missing poultry.

ST. JOHN RIVER IS ON THE RAMPAGE.

FREDERICTON, N.B. June 24.—(Canadian Press)—Reports from Plaster Rock, Victoria county, state that the St. John River rose sixteen feet there last night and carried away ten million feet of the Fraser company's lumber and buildings, overflowed roads, and is still rising.

Further down the river the Hartland bridge was carried away for the third time in the last few years.

The railroads report that on all lines between Woodstock and Edmundstown the trains have all been cancelled during the last 24 hours due to washouts.

The river at Fredericton rose two feet during the night and is still rising.

OPPOSITION FOR CHANGES IN THE CRIMINAL CODE

Clause Is Inserted to Limit Period For Prosecution But Objections Are Raised to Other Changes

THE SECOND CASE.

OTTAWA, June 24.— (Canadian Press.)—An Act to amend the Criminal Code was strongly opposed in the Senate yesterday by Sir James Lougheed. Last session a clause was added to the criminal code which limited the period in which prosecutions could be entered. About the same time Richard Secord, a prominent Edmonton resident, was being prosecuted for alleged wrongdoing in connection with the registration of half-bred scrip twenty years ago. During the election, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and Sir James Lougheed were charged with protecting from punishment a political supporter. Recently Sir Lomer Gouin, minister of justice, gave his opinion that the clause in question did not secure immunity to Secord against whom the charges had been brought. Sir James Lougheed yesterday entered a vigorous protest against the attacks on himself and Mr. Meighen which he said were entirely without foundtaion, and moved a six months' hoist of the proposed amendment which would have removed the clause inserted last year.

Senator Dandurand said that Sir James Lougheed was free from any suspicion of an attempt to prevent the trial of Secord. He accepted his suggestion and the clause was dropped.

CASH GRAIN.

MONTREAL, June 24.—(Canadian Press).—The condition of the local market was unchanged yesterday. The trade in flour shows no improvement An unsettled feeling has developed in millfeed and talk of lower prices is insistent. Demand for rolled oats was slow. There are no new developments in baled hay or in eggs. The potato market continues very easy. The undertone to the butter market continues strong. The market for cheese is strong.

CHEESE MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 24.—(Canadian Press.)—At the United Dairymen Cooperative auction sale of Ontario cheese held here yesterday there were 944 boxes offered for which the demand was good all were sold including 174 boxes number white at 18 3-8c per pound; 20 boxes No. 2 white at 17 1-2 per pound; 467 boxes No 1 colored at 17 3-4 per pound, and 283 boxes No 2 colored at 17 1-8c per pound.

WINNIPEG CATTLE.

WINNIPEG, June 24.—(Canadian Press)—Receipts 320 cattle and calves, 120 hogs and 40 sheep and lambs.

The cattle market opened yesterday under moderate offerings and while trading was none too brisk, bidding generally maintained a steady tone over the close of Thursday. There were very few good quality killing cattle available and the majority of the available offerings consisted largely of stockers and feeders which resulted in a light volume of trade being transacted in the butcher division.

A few lambs were sold at 13.00 and mutton sheep at $6.50.

There was also a slight supply of hogs on offer. Most of the selects were weighed up at 12.50.

PROTECTING THE FORESTS.

The Ontario Department of Lands and Forests is conducting a very timely newspaper advertising campaign of education in an effort to arouse the people of the Province to the necessity of protecting the forests from fires. The appeals just now are being widely directed to the campers and fishermen of Ontario, who undoubtedly in the past have been responsible for many a destructive forest fire. A cigarette butt or the stub of a cigar thrown carelessly to one side may start a conflagration that will do millions of dollars damages. Still even more dangerous to the safety of the forest is the camp fire. Campers new to the ways of the woods build their fires in places that are not safe, and worse still, go away without completely extinguishing their fire. A spark may start a blaze, or else the fire may eat its way through the ground until suddenly the small blaze develops into a huge one that sweeps over many square miles of forest. The advertisements of the department call attention to these facts in a striking manner that cannot fail to have its effect upon those to whom they are addressed. Much useful advice as to the proper means of making a camp fire is given, and the campaign should have splendid results. A study of the fire losses in Ontario shows how thoroughly the effort of the department to reduce the annual loss is justified.

GOVERNMENT SERVICE.

The Government service is a difficult thing to understand. Those who are employed in civil service commissions, for the most part, have complaints to make of small salaries and unsatisfactory conditions, and many of them will advise their fellowmen not to think of chosing the Government service as an occupation. And yet the official figures show that thousands of Canadians are anxious to get a "Government job." The report of the Civil Service Commission just brought down contains the interesting information that more than 100,000 people applied for positions in the civil service during 1921, the Commissioners examing more than 21,000 applications and assigning 10,950 to positions. The 100,000 does not by any means include all berth under the Government the people who want a Thousands more, ignoring the fact that the members of Parliament have been shorn of much of their power in the matter of appointments, have besieged their Parliamentary representatives to get them a position, and when informed of the Civil Service Commission have failed to apply to that body for an appointment. It is a strange commentary that while those who are in the service are, as a rule, pessimistic over their condition in life, Canada is full of people who would like nothing better than to draw a salary from the Government. The Civil Service Commission's report shows the number of such individuals even larger than was imagined.

WEST INDIAN TRADE.

Speakers at the Canadian Manufacturers' Association convention at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea confirm the report recently presented by Mr. Reg. H. Turner to the members of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs as to the trade possibilities offered Canada by the West Indies. The keynote of the addresses was, as Mr. Turner pointed out, that an immense market for Canadian goods lies in the West Indies. The manufacturers propose to pass a resolution appointing a committee to study the whole problem of Canadian-West Indies trade, and it is hoped that this action will lead to increased interest on the part of the Government in this most important matter. The islands are British and would prefer to trade with Canada if the people of this country returned the favour by buying more products from the West Indies. It is natural that the people of the islands should expect Canadian trade in return for more orders for Canadian goods. Speakers at the C.M.A. convention called attention to the fact that Canada, although consuming 2,259,000 bunches of bananas each year, bought the most of this fruit from the United States, although the greater part of it was of West Indian growth. The advantage to Canada if this amount of bananas had been imported direct from the West Indies is shown in the fact that such importation would have provided 7,000 carloads of traffic for Canadian railways. Similarly, too. Canadians bought approximately $9,000,000 worth of oranges each year, but, for the most part, the West Indian product was ignored altogether and the business was given to California. The West Indian field looks like a profitable one for Canadians to investigate.

THE ILLINOIS MASSACRE.

The situation in the Illinois mining district, where a war of extermination has been commenced by strikers and sympathizers upon non-union men who have been employed there, is such as to make Canadians wonder what the civil and military authorities of the State are about that a massacre of this kind could be carried out without interference. If the Associated Press reports of the tragedy are reliable—and there is no reason to believe that they are not—no atrocity committed by the Germans in their invasion of Belgium was more deliberately planned and executed than the slaughter of these unarmed workers. On the occasion of the first attack, none of the victims at work were miners, being known as steam-shovel men and common labourers. The strikers fired into the pit where they were at work and killed three and wounded a score. Then, on a promise that no further attempt would be made to operate the mine, the attackers withdrew, only to return to the camp and capture every one they could lay hands upon. Then, as forty-four prisoners were being marched through a wood, they were mowed down by rifle fire, twenty-five being reported killed. The superintendent of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's mine was beaten to death with the butts of revolvers. Survivors of the ambush were hunted from one clump of trees to another and at least one of them was hanged. There is only one remedy for a situation such as has been created. No body of men can be allowed to take the law into their own hand, and if the Illinois strikers have decided upon a campaign of extermination they must be met in kind. The machine guns of the soldiers should be the answer to the rifles of the gunmen, and the ring-leaders of Thursday's tragedy should meet the fate that the law reserves for cold-blooded murderers.

A WESTERN OPINION.

There is continued talk about the necessity or advisability of a realignment of Canadian political parties. This is based upon a growing recognition that the people decline to be herded in the good old way into the two traditional political camps. That was an exceedingly convenient arrangement for the score or two of gentlemen who really rule Canada. When one set of their friends overstayed their welcome in office they gave way to an alternative set equally friendly. The people were placated for a while by the mere fact of change. When they again became restive there could be another "change"; and so on indefinitely. Parties changed and governments alternated; but pretty much the same interests were always on the job of seeing that the ship of state was steered in the direction they wanted it to go. There was nothing crude about the working of the system; no suggestion of a vulgar domineering boss telling the successive governments what should be done. Under the formula of "consulting the business interests" these matters could be managed neatly, swiftly and with due regard to the conventions.

The public have been coming to realize, vaguely at first, and then with greater certainty, that while the two historic parties were prepared to make faces at one another and fight desperate battles with wooden swords their attitude when in office towards a series of related issues of great public concern was fundamentally the same. In the brief period between the tendering of the resignation of his government by one prime minister and the swearing in of the succeeding government the country's need for reforms which had apparently inspired the successful party in its fight for victory, suddenly evaporates; and it is found that what the country really requires is the same old prescription administered, however, by a new practitioner with a different bedside manner.

The belief of the insurgent elements in the electorate who have broken away from their old political affiliations that there is but little difference at bottom between the two parties, has been strikingly confirmed by the happenings of the past six months. Mr. King, who as opposition leader, had employed against his political adversaries much the same vocabulary as that which grandfather had made use of in his day against the Family Compact, discovered the day after he had been called to the Premiership that the political differences which separated Canadians were quite trivial and not to be mentioned in comparison with the points upon which they were agreed. And, to give point to his observation, he proceeded to form a government and give the country an administration which in its attitude towards large public questions and its methods, varied so little from its predecessor that the public are justified in asking what all the terrific clatter last autumn was about. We have a government which is new in its personnel; and it may well be that in point of administrative capacity and political sagacity it is an improvement upon its predecessor. But between its programme and that of its predecessor there is little to suggest the profound and radical divergencies in spirit and aims which moved Mr. King to high flights of denunciatory oratory just a few brief months ago.

Yesterday The Free Press published on this page the frank appeal of The Montreal Gazette which is supposed to speak for the English Conservatives of the Montreal district, for a political union of forces for the purpose of carrying out conservative policies; and in the same issue in the news columns there appeared precisely the same appeal by Senator L. O. David, who is a veteran French Liberal. In effect, The Gazette and Senator David say to the Conservatives and protectionist and pro-corporation Liberals: "Why fight over shadows, names and prejudices when we are in virtual agreement upon the matters which really affect us? Let us forget our differences and unite; we can then put these radicals and progressives where they belong and insure for some considerable time that the government of Canada shall be carried on in keeping with our wishes and in furtherance of our interests."

It has long been a prediction of close observers of Canadian politics that once the interests that govern Canada find that their system of ruling by appearing to divide has definitely broken down they will unite all their forces into one solid phalanx and proceed to hold the citadel against all comers. They have not yet finally determined that the good old game is up. The air still resounds with plaintive appeals that the electors in the sacred names of the Constitution and Responsible Government shall return to their party allegiance and redecorate themselves with the tags that they have discarded. A growing belief that these appeals will be fruitless is evidenced by the declarations by The Gazette and the venerable Senator, The reforming and progressive elements can no longer be buncoed; and, therefore, the time has come for all staunch defenders of stand-patism to get together and trounce these disturbers of the peace. This in effect is what The Gazette and the Senator say. It may be taken for granted they speak for powerful forces capable of acting swiftly and decisively when their interests are at stake. It may be that we are on the eve of the next stage of the inevitable evolution of Canadian politics.—Manitoba Free Press.

UNABLE TO WALK FOR A YEAR

Paralysis Entirely Relieved by "Fruit-a-tives"

The Wonderful Fruit Medicine

Paralysis is a break-down of the Nervous System and affects the victim in various ways. Sometimes, nervousness makes itself known by hysteria, insomnia, constant headaches, or it may be so bad that one is partially or completely helpless in some part of the body, just as Mrs. Heacock was.

SAULT STE MARIE, ONT.

"When I was twenty-eight years of age, my doctor advised me to have an operation, which I did and it proved very serious, leaving me weak and unable to walk for a year. Seeing your "Fruit-a-tives" advertised in the papers, I decided to try them. I continued to use them regularly, and today I am able to go about my home duties and care for my family".

MRS. J. W. HEACOCK.

Any form of Nervousness is often caused by, and is always aggravated by, Constipation, which poisons the blood, irritates the kidneys and inflames the nerves. "Fruit-a-tives" stimulates the action of liver and bowels, kidneys and skin—tones and sweetens the stomach—keeps the blood pure, and builds up the entire nervous system.

In a word, "Fruit-a-tives" has proved that it is the most scientific and effective remedy in the world for Nervousness or a disordered condition of the nervous system.

East or West—Eddy's Best—since 1851!

"Here's an Eddy—40 years old!"

In an old shack near the Mattawa River, these matches—a relic of the old match-making days, a box of Eddy's matches made over forty years ago at Hull—were found last Autumn!

They had weathered the extremes of our Canadian climate, the heat and cold, the sleet, snow and rain for forty years.

It was an old sulphur match—the "Telegraph" Brand—the last word in matches at that time—a great match in its day.

Longer than Eddy's make to-day, it was wasteful. Still, it was a light, and a good one.

The most incredible thing of all was that after 40 years the matches were just as good as the day they were made, and the man who found them lit his pipe with one of these old timers!

Every Eddy will serve you as faithfully

EDDY-TORIAL

The great industries and public utilities of to-day are the servants employed by modern society to serve itself.

Eddy's is an all-Canadian institution.

It is owned by Canadians, operated by Canadians, employs only Canadian capital, and its profits are kept in Canada for the development of other Canadian industries.

That it has attained national importance is proof that it has performed a service in an acceptable manner.

Always, everywhere in Canada ask for Eddy's matches.

HOW NORTH TOWNSHIPS GET THEIR "CRUMBS FROM RICH MAN'S TABLE"

No Mad Scramble, But Insinuating Approach When Reeves of Poorer Municipalities Apply to County Council For Road Grants.

GOT WHAT THEY WANTED.

"Like picking crumbs that fall from a rich man's table," was the vivid phrase whch one of the reeves from the "back townships" called up in a description of the manner in which he and his neighbors endeavoured to obtain from the County Council special grants for road work. These townships are outside the county roads system, but they receive assistance from the colonization roads department of the provincial government.

On Thursday Duncan Brown, the reeve of Burleigh and Anstruther, called attention to the omission from the published minutes of the January session of an item authorizing payment to his township of a grant of $200. He declared that it had been recommended up to the Friday of that week, but he left for home on Saturday morning in order to get there before the week ended.

"Many a Slip Then."

It is the council's custom to adopt the reports and pass the bylaws on the Saturday mornings of the sessions, and many amendments, additions, supplementaries and elisions have on occasion changed the effect of questions which had passed through committee and apparently needed only the final formality of adoption.

"It pays sometimes to stay on Saturday," remarked Mr. Anderson.

"The printer publishes just what we give him and if the council passed the $200 it would be shown in the minutes," County Clerk Elliott explained.

Spending it now.

"I went home feeling sure of that $200 and I told the council we had it," said Mr. Brown, "so we have gone ahead and done work on the expectation of getting that help from the county."

"And so have we," echoed Reeve Robert Scott of Chandos.

Every member would sympathise with the reeves from the remote northeast end of the county, "Bob" Shaw commiserated. He moved that the grant of $100 to each of these municipalities, Chandos and the combined Burleigh and Anstruther, excluding Galway, Harvey and Belmont, and after a desultory discussion this item was approved by Fred Eason's Committee on Roads and Bridges.

Each in his Turn.

Well, that was one day's work, and following the system of infiltration so successful in the final rout of the Germans, the forces from the "back forties" thrust at another position on Friday. John Clark of Galway happens to be just as persuasive and earnest and as honest as his colleague from Burleigh, and consequently just as hard to refuse on a plausible request. And this was his approach.

Rather Delicate Scheme.

"The Reeve of Somerville told me a short time ago that his township would contribute $100, and Victoria county council would give another $100, if Galway would put up $100, with another $100 from Peterboro county, and with that $400 we could get $200 from the Government to be spent on the Bobcaygeon road from Silver Lake to Kinmount," Mr. Clark unfolded with ingratiating emphasis on the fact that if the county council withheld its $100 from this scheme it was automatically null and void. This road is the boundary between Victoria and Peterboro counties and between Galway and Somerville townships.

Having got his $100 the day before when the others were supposed to be excluded from special consideration, Reeve Brown volunteered his support to Mr. Clark with a motion that this $100 be appropriated to Galway, and Reeve Nicholls seconded.

Suspicious of Shaw.

"Now, what's Mr. Shaw going to propose" asked Mr. Anderson of Mr. Clark's deskmate.

Harvey's reeve disavowed and covetous designs on the treasury and his smile seemed to say "You know me better than that, Mr. Anderson," and then he proceeded to discuss the condition of the Buckhorn road north to Cavendish.

"Somebody move the committee rise," advised Mr. Eason, who war in the chair, but Mr. Shaw was accorded a hearing. He told of the heavy traffic of hunters and others, of property owned by the government that only occasionally produced revenue to the township while all the natural resources of Harvey and the north municipalities was being carried off.

An Inglorious Plan.

Mr. Shaw hadn't quite as elaborately accumulative a scheme as John Clark's but it possessed considerable merit for ingenuity. "The township is willing to pay $200 toward that road and the government will give us another $200, and $100 from the county would provide us with $500 to spend on it," he explained, and in that light Mr. Clark could not see anything wrong with the idea and Robert Scott of Chandos looked on it favorably too.

In fact they proposed a motion that this matter of $100 be granted to Harvey.

Belmont's Turn.

"If the outside traffic kept off the Bobcaygeon and Buckhorn roads we could keep them up ourselves," Mr. Shaw pleaded.

"That's just as true of Otonabee's roads," said Mr. Eason.

"I don't see why Belmont should be left out when they all appear to be getting it," said Reeve Breckenridge.

"It's about time somebody moved that the committee rise," the chairman again warned.

"Belmont is in the county system, Mr. Breckenridge," said Mr. Nicholls

"Yes, but Methuen isn't," retorted the reeve of these joint municipalities.

Mr. Lillico said something about Monaghan's right to a special grant, but Mr. Anderson reminded him of the provincial highway.

"The provincial highway isn't worth ten cents to Otonabee," he added.

"It's no use to us up in Chandos," commented Mr. Scott. "Besides you are close to the market in Peterboro; all your land is good. The front townships have used us decently but it is hard for us in the north. We haven't much money to spend."

"Otonabee is getting squeezed on both sides," said Mr. Anderson, with the provincial highway on one side and with the northern townships having their assessment decreased and now getting special grants."

"There is fourteen miles of one road in Methuen that no man lives on," said Mr. Breckenridge, "but we have got to keep up that road."

"Why have you to?" asked Mr. Anderson, and Belmont's reeve proceeded to recall the traffic that passes over this road through a seeming wilderness of fourteen miles.

The Banquet Metaphor.

Then some one mentioned the metaphorical rich man's table and a vision arose of opulent Otonabee at the head of a groaning board and Smith, Asphodel and North Monaghan filling up the complacent group while Galway, Chandos, Burleigh and some of the others snatched up the chance crumbs.

Mr. Shaw and Mr. Brown moved that Belmont be allowed to draw on the county treasurer for $100 when they submit their paysheet for the work which Mr. Breckenridge urged for a road in Methuen township.

These separate motions all carried to the smiling satisfaction of Reeves Brown, Scott, Clark, Shaw and Breckenridge. Then somebody moved that the committee rise.

Mr. Nicholls by the way secured $80 to be spent in repairing the road in front of the House of Refuge property, and Mr. J. Scott of Asphodel $25 for putting in a culvert in front of the township's war memorial.

BORDER CITIES TO HAVE BIG RE-UNION.

Preparations Being Made to Entertain 65,000 Old Boys.

Preparations for entertaining more than 65,000 Old Boys and girls are being made by the Border Cities Old Boys' Reunion Association, according to an announcement from the Windsor Headquarters today. If there are any former residents of the Border Cities living here they are requested to get in touch with the home town as soon as soon as possible.

The huge program will feature the historic spectacle, "The Landing of the Jesuit Fathers", which will be re-enacted in Sandwich with approximately 250 full-blooded Indian braves participating. The priests of Assumption Church and college have offered their services for the occasions; while the college grounds will be used for the various athletic field days.

Horse races embracing running, trotting and pacing races as well as novelty races are also on the program which includes contests in practically every line of sports. Devonshire racing park has been turned over to the Old Boys for the week and it will be the scene of a monster barbecue.

Band concerts, fireworks, community singing and dancing will be permanent features for each evening in addition to many other attractions. Tuesday evening has been set aside for the visit of the famous Moslem Temple Band and chanters and the celebrated Arab Patrol of the same society. All kinds of military events are also scheduled as well as a moonlight excursion every evening.

An elaborated regatta on Walkerville Bay "with all the trimmings", is planned. The usual parade will also be a feature. The baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse tournament will undoubtedly draw their patronage in thousands. Altogether the program is one of the most elaborate ever prepared for a similar event.

Surplus Strength of the Mutual of Canada

THE Mutual Life of Canada is the first life insurance company in the Dominion to assign definitely the whole of its surplus funds to specific objects.

After strengthening its reserves beyond the government requirements, the company's general surplus, representing the excess of assets over liabilities, amounts to

This fund has been assigned as follows:—

First—Provision for dividends under Deferred Dividend policies issued prior to 1911	$3,688,146.75
Second—Provision for interim dividends under Quinquennial policies	277,897.66
Third—Provision for dividends payable 1922	1,500,000.00
Fourth—Provision for Mortality fluctuation and other Contingencies	324,476.29
	$5,790,520.70

This statement, more complete than has been called for by the Government, discloses a notable financial strength. Indeed the financial position of the company is so sound and its dividend earning capacity continues to be so favorable that a further increase in dividends has been decided upon for the year 1923.

OTTAWA, June 24—(Canadian Press).—The chief items in the supplementary estimates tabled in the House of Commons last night are as follows: $8,000,000 to increase loan authorized by the vote on the main estimates for Railways and Canals; $256,800 for Pensions; $5,500,000 for Provisional Bonus to the inside and outside civil service; $620,000 for Soldiers Civil Re-establishment; 6150,000 for reclassfication of the inside Civil Service; $100,000 for Toronto Harbor; $60,225 for the Royal Canadan Mounted Police; $130,500 to replace the Canadian Government steamer Lambton, which foundered in Lake Superior on April 10 last, and for compassionate allowance for relatives of victims; $211,000 for Indian education; $75,000 for Postal Station "A" Toronto, and $50,000 as an advance for the Canadian Wheat Board of 1922.

PETERBORO MEN LEAVE FOR WEST

Wages Will Be Lower Than Last Year. Farm Help Scarce.

The demand for farm help during the week at the Ontario Employment Bureau, Charlotte street, has been insistent, Hugh Robertson, in charge, stated to-day. Some men secured jobs through the bureau, but there are still a large number of farmers on the outlook for workers. The scale of pay has gone up on account of the scarcity of hands, from $30 to $35 per month. A number of farmers moreover, are anxious to line up men for the harvest and western farmers are already putting out feelers, in fact four Peterborough men were in a party sent out from Toronto several weeks ago.

Men refuse to go to the farms on account of the low wages, but Mr. Robertson pointed out that the men working on the Provincial Highway are only receiving 25 cents an hour and the gang on the dam at Nassau 30 cents, having been raised from 27 1-2c. The city is the best employer of any, paying 40 cents. Two men were sent to Oakville to work on a large 1,000 acre farm there this week at $45 a month. Their fare was paid and on account of the large number of men on the farm the working hours are arranged so that each man has one day off a week. Many such places are looking for men. With the demand for workers from fruit and grain farms the cry of no work sounds rather hollow.

The call from the prairies this year in the opinion of Mr. Robertson, will not have the same golden ring to it as has been the case of recent years. The wages mentioned in the first call from Manitoba run from $35 to $45 a month. They do not guarantee work, but say there is plenty of it. Last year the wages centred around $60 and the year before when agriculture was as prosperous as it has ever been, $80 and $100 was paid. By a special arrangement with the railway the farm hands for the prairies will travel at 2 1-4 cents a mile.

The Employment Bureau remarks a falling off in the number of idle men. Construction work on a small and large scale has picked up a lot of unemployed, and several factories are finding the times fairly busy. Surplus stocks accumulated in many cases over a period of twelve months have been cleared out and the way has been opened for new business. Manufacturers are therefore regarding the future with greater hope

THE AUTOCAR, February 11th, 1922.

HIGH PRAISE
from a* Standard Authority

Recently a week's trial trip through England was made by a member of the staff of "Autocar," one of the highest British authorities on motor matters. The results of this trip emphasize the practical points of the Light-Six for the owner-driver. A few extracts are printed below:

"It is unusual to encounter a five-seater car selling in the neighbourhood of £500 with a performance equal to it..... Its six-cylinder engine is remarkably silky in its operation, silent, flexible to a wonderful degree..... Our first trip was through London traffic, but we soon felt thoroughly at home, since the control gear is free and easy of operation, and the engine is content to tick over on top gear at speeds even below normal walking pace without signs of distress..... Hill-climbing is a joy on such a vehicle..... We do not recall ever having encountered a lighter clutch operation..... A twelve-gallon tank at the rear is ordinarily sufficient for a run of 300 miles..... This low consumption is, of course, largely due to the light weight of the complete car, which scales little more than a ton..... To sum up, we are bound to say that the new Studebaker is a car of remarkable all-round achievement."

Lack of space prevents us from quoting the full comments in this article. However, we will be glad to send a reprint of the article in full to anyone who is interested.

Is Your Money Working at Its Full Earning Power?

Saving money alone is not sufficient. Your surplus funds should be invested so that your dollars will work for you and produce more dollars.

Put your money to work, but put it to work where it can develop its full earning power.

Money deposited at three per cent. is loafing money. Money invested at six or seven per cent. is not bringing you returns commensurate with its earning power. As we pointed out in a recent advertisement, the annual interest on $5,000 at six per cent. is only $300, not enough to keep one person alive.

If the amount of your surplus funds is small it is especially important that you place those funds where they will develop large earning power and assure you of an income to guarantee your future comfort and prosperity.

We believe that in the stock of Central Ontario Oil Fields, Limited (No Personal Liability), you have such an opportunity. This is not a gamble or a wild cat scheme. It is a venture now well on the road to success, managed by men of unquestioned integrity. The organizers of this company are so convinced that there are tremendous possibilities before it that they sought to keep it a closed corporation until the necessity of additional financing forced them to place a block of the company's stock on the market.

This company is in possession of rich oil-bearing properties in Central Ontario and in the proven field near Petrolia. It is now drilling its third well at Kerwood. With the installation of pumping equipment and storage facilities it will be able to place this field on a basis of profitable production and be in a position to develop its other rich properties. It is to accomplish this that the block of stock which we control is being offered.

This is unquestionably one of the greatest pieces of development work ever launched in Central Ontario, and holds out unparalleled possibilities of profit. Your opportunity to share in this is rapidly slipping past. Fill in the attached application form for whatever amount you can afford and mail it at once.

OUR RECOMMENDATION

We control and offer for sale 100,000 Shares at $2.00, and subscriptions will be received in any amounts.

This offering by us is made only after the most careful consideration and investigation. Our decision to offer this investment is based on the belief that this Company will enjoy an unusual degree of prosperity.

The reports of geologists and all other information regarding this Company can be inspected at our Offices, or will be mailed on request.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

The American bride-to-be looks up her future husband's rating in Bradstreet's, but in some parts of Russia the bride depends on magic.

One will contain a whip, the other a purse.

If she first removes the one with the purse—that is a good omen, significant that her husband will have plenty of money and be kind and generous. If she draws the whip first it may be regarded as a specimen of what she will receive.

Our First Year

CHAPTER LXXIII

I knew nothing was left for me in any life apart from Jack. That was the chief penalty for getting married. Had I never lived with Jack I'd have had a thousand interests in life, all humanity for my friends, all the world to wander in.

But just by having been married less than a year I had limited my happiness in some ancient elemental way to whatever made Jack happy, and my home to the place where he found his rest. I couldn't grasp the meaning of this change.

After I had so narrowed my horizon it was cruel that fate should make me choose between my own will and my husband's.

I counted the troubles he and I had, normal first year moods and silences. How petty I had been in each case!

Never again would I be petty, if our home survived our present quarrel.

Jack and I were beautifully polite and considerate of each other over Sunday. We talked of Mary Smith's new baby and of Mrs. Herrod's new car. And all the time we wanted to discuss our personal affairs.

At last the humor of the situation seemed to grip Jack. He said suddenly:

"Lady wife! We remind me of the Chinese advice for making marriage successful. That a husband and wife should be as guests in a house."

To which I made a practical reply:

"The best thing we can do is to get out of our house. I want to hike till I'm weary!"

I didn't want to at all. I wanted to stay at home and hear my husband make love to me. I wanted to kiss him, to run my fingers through his hair, to forget Barnick's money. I thought I would scream if I stayed in our suite—close to Jack without touching him.

I was tired of swaggering about independence. I hadn't been born independent, and I told myself that I didn't want to achieve independence.

But what if it were thrust upon me?

What if Jack meant what he had said? What if we were parted forever by my acceptance of the money for the pearls?

The things one doesn't want to happen are always the things that do. The one particular person I cared least to see that day was Mrs. Herrod. So, of course, she turned up in her car to take us into the country for a few hours.

"The Chinese say a husband and wife should live like guests in a house. Then they won't quarrel. Jack and I are playing the game to-day," I explained.

I had to account somehow for the formality she would surely detect between Jack and me.

DIAMOND MINES ARE CLOSED UP

Every Class and Industry in Kimberley Suffers as a Result.

LONDON, June 23.— (Canadian Press).—Every class and industry in Kimbeerley South Africa, is suffering as a result of the closing of the De Beers Company diamond mines, and an appeal for help has been made by the Bishop of Kimberley, Bishop Gore Brown, for his diocese. This appeal is backed up by Lords Buxton, Gladstone and Selbourne, who have put it forward to the people of this country through the medium of the Times.

The closing of the mines which was due to the unsatisfactory condition of the diamond market, has affected practically the whole population of Kimberley, which depends amost for its very existence upon the diamond industry. Both whites and native are employed in the mines ordinarily, but a large number of white men have been discharged and are out of work, while those who have been kept on are receiving only half pay or less. The natives, for the most part, have been returning to their homes and are receiving no wages. The shops are dependent upon the employment of the miners, and the farmers depend upon the workers for the sale of their product

The closing up of thee mines has dried up the sources of supply for the Bishop of Kimberley's diocese, which is twice the size of Great Britain, with a sole endowment of £530 a year for the Bishop's stipend. Stipends and allowances to the amount of £400 a year, formerly paid by the De Beers Company, have been suspended, and it is not possible to raise money in Kimberley for the diocese. "If help is not forthcoming" says their Lordships Buxton, Gladstone and Selbourn in a letter to the Times, "the greater part of the spiritual work among the natives and whites must be stopped".

An emergency fund has been started here. A minimum sum of £2,000 to £3,000 is required to tide the Bishop and the diocese over the abnormal difficulties in which they are involved until the mines reopen.

THE EAST VICTORIA WOMEN'S INSTITUTE HELD A MEETING

Mrs. Woollard of Toronto Gave An Interesting Address. Annual Picnic

OMEMEE, June 24.—The Omemee branch of the East Victoria Womens' Institute held their annual picnic on Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Lila Parsons, one of their most enthusiastic workers. There was a fair attendance of members and visiting friends present. The President Mrs. (Rev.) James occupied the chair, and the meeting opened with the ode followed by all joining in singing "My Old Kentucky Home. The Secretary's report was called for and all correspondence read. Miss Lillian Parsons, of Toronto, then favored the gathering with a piano selection, which was much appreciated.

The Address

The President, Mrs. James then introduced the speaker, Mrs. Woollard of Toronto, who addressed the listeners in a very pleasing manner. Instead of taking a subject as is the custom at the annual general meeting, the speaker confined her remarks to her recent visit to England and Scotland, she having spent the past six months there, and attended many Institute meetings and Conventions as a representative from the Canadian Women's Institutes. She spoke of the liberty of speech we have at our meeting, while in England the president and other officers have full control of all business carried on, the members remaining silent and also the President, Secretary and Treasurer must be seated side by side, not as we do in our Institute The work done by the Department of Agriculture, here, has been chiefly the Domestic Science courses, supplying instructors in cooking dressmaking etc., while in England the main object is money-making.

Glove Making

In one place where Mrs. Woollard visited the ladies have, learned to make not only their own gloves but are capable of making them for others, the palm being made of chamoic skin and the back of rabbit hide which they skin themselves and in this way earn a nice day's pay in a short while at their home in their spare time. They have also acheived the art of rug making an exhibition of which the speaker had the privilege of viewing the beauty of which cannot be imagined.

After entering some of the stores in England she noticed the shelves contained much canned fruit from Australia and South Africa and upon enquiry found that their butter comes chiefly from New Zealand, and the same with fresh fruit; Mrs. Woollard asked why they did not get it from Canada which is nearer, than from the foreign countries and the reply was that Canadians do not know how to pack it as the peaches they received from here were spoiled when they reached there. It is for our Government to see to this matter and boost our country, which she said has so many advantages it made one feel loyal to our own country when we come home. While in England Mrs. Woollard had the honor of demonstrating to about four hundred ladies our method of canning which they have not yet learned although they are skilled in the making of jams, jellies, etc.

Graves of Unknown

The speaker told many other incidents during her visit, there, and impressed the fact that the English and Scotch hold the Canadians in high respect and are very careful to remember the graves of the unknown soldiers, who fell in the great war.

Before closing Mrs. Woollard devoted a few minutes to the home work of the Institute, pointing out the advantages we have and referring to the many things we could have that we don't. We should get all the help from the Department that is coming such as the different courses, as it brings in new members and keeps the Institute together. A vote of thanks was then tendered Mrs. Woollard for her splen did address after which Mrs. E. H. Mitchell sang a solo in a pleasing voice also an encore which was well received. The meeting closed with the National Anthem after which dainty refreshments were served on the lawn surrounding the Parson's home.

CHANGES MADE IN N.B. FISHING LAWS

Shad Fishing Will Now Be Allowed in the Bay of Fundy From June 16 to August 15.

OTTAWA,, June 24.— (Canadian Press.)—Notice was given yesterday by the department of marine and fisheries that the regulations for the province of New Brunswick have been amended to authorize shad fishing in the tidal portion of the Bay of Fundy, and its tributary waters.

Impressions of "Gladhalken"

(Contributed)

This week we had such a lovely day! We set out from Peterboro early in the morning to visit Gladhalken where the Y.W.C.A. campers are to enjoy themselves this year. We were filled with the spirit of adventure, and, as we had never seen the camp, we felt we had a right to be thrilled with expectancy. And when, after the lovely trip, we reached our own "tight little island" we scrambled off in a hurry, and soon were exploring to our hearts's content.

First and foremost, we fell in love with the living room. Can't you just see it girls —big fireplace, windows everywhere, pretty curtains and cushions, three couches, a real piano and an equally real victrola. And we loved the cunning little book shelves built on either side of the fireplace, and the seats beside them. We just couldn't imagine a jollier, prettier place to stay in when it should rain, so we shall have a chance.

All the winds from heaven swept around the lovely broad verandah, encircling the house and when we discovered separate sleeping quarters, with its own verandah, we began then to imagine the good times that ten or a dozen girls would have in a week or two. Then we discovered some inviting spots for swinging the hammocks, and some other spots where one might steal quietly away with a book.

We hated to leave such a beautiful spot, but we hadn't enough "eats" on account of having already eaten a double allowance at lunch, so we had to go. But the first week of camp will find us back, eager for the good old out-of-doors and for the happy comradeship that makes the Y.W.C.A. camp so jolly. We haven't long to wait for "Gladhalken" will open on June 30,—and that will be a red-letter day for us.

CORNERSTONE TO BE LAID NEXT THURSDAY

On Thursday next, the laying of the cornerstone of the new Young People's Temple, in connection with the Salvation Army, takes place, with appropriate ceremonial. The Army, to help them bear the expense of the building, is asking donations on this occasion; anything from a quarter of a dollar up, and the messages which accompany them will be placed beneath the cornerstone, "in perpetuity", to breathe a spirt of goodwill and friendliness from all classes of the community towards an establishment which makes no barriers of class or creed, whose ideal is "service" and whose slogan is "soap, soup and salvaton" with the "soap" and "soup" first, the logical arrangement.

Summer Camp to Open on Monday

The opening of the Summer Camp for children at Jackson's Park takes place on Monday next, under the auspices of the Peterboro Health Association. The Camp, established for under-nourished children from the ages of six to fourteen, had an average during the same period of about fifty, which would make the total of children in the camp during the nine weeks of its existence, about 150.

The new dining-hall, erected and completely finished through the kindness of the local Kiwanis club, and the rest-room will soon be finished through the efforts of the boys of the manual training classes in the school, make the Camp this year particularly attractive, supplying facilites which have been lacking other seasons. The same system as established during other summers will prevail this season, with ladies of the Health Association taking turns in supervisng the arrangements for the feeding and care of the children; with Mrs. Millett in her fourth year as cook, and Miss Chalmers, trained nurse, looking after their genral health and safety.

The Camp's minor needs this year include a few chairs and some toys. Any sort of toys are acceptable. The children are well pleased with the simplest things, which add much to their enjoyment during the long afternoon hours.

TALE OF YEARS

"If you were a maiden with almond eyes,—
Clad in the garb of old Pekin,—
The fairest flower in that flowery land,—
And I were a Chinese mandarin:
"Id tell you my love in that strange queer tongue,
And swear by Confucious old,
That I'd love but you with a love that was true,
'Till the tale of our years was told."

GIRLS! LEMONS

BLEACH SKIN WHITE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whitness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

COIN SPOTS.

Large coin spots are again making their appearance in foulards and voiles, but they are not so striking as they used to be in regard to color. Violent contrasts are not the rule.

RINSO is a new, scientific soap product in the form of fine granules that have wonderful power to loosen and dissolve the dirt in clothes while they soak.

Do not put it straight into the tub from the package, make the famous Rinso liquid first.

MIX half a package of Rinso in a little cool water, until it is like cream. Then add two quarts of boiling water; put it into your washing tub, or machine, adding sufficient cool or lukewarm water.

The Chautauqua

The Dominion Chautauqua course, which takes place in Peterborough this year from July 4th to 10th, is being encouraged and fostered by various women's organizations in the city. The Local Council of Women is assisting materially in the sale of tickets, through its affiliated societies, and the Peter Robinson Chapter I.O.D.E. in particular, is doing its best to dispose of tickets for the course. The Conservatory of Music, as usual, is assisting also.

The course this year promises to be very interesting. The lecturers include Hon. P. W. Wilson, former member of the British Parliament, whose message is "Interpreting the Empire to the World"; Mr. Tom Skeyhill, who brings first-hand information from life in "darkest Russia" in his lecture, "The Babylonian Finger Writes Again" and Dr. Geo. W. Kerby, born in Ontario, for eleven years president of Mount Royal College, Calgary, who speaks to Canadians on "The Task of a Nation."

The musical offerings are given by the Ferguson Opera Company, featuring selections from light and comic operas, with special costuming; the Herbert Macfarren Quartette, with costumed Irish and Scotch songs; and Thurlow Lieurance's Cremona Orchestra, a seven-piece aggregation of violins, 'cellos and piano. Special and novel attractions are the England's "greatest reciter," Chester F. Rand's (Irish tenor) folk songs, and Gabriel Hines' lecture on "Music, the Democratic Art," illustrated by piano selections of his own. Percival Vivian of New York city is presenting his comedy, "Her Own Money" this year. There will also be a Junior Chautauqua with a pageant by local children, entitled "Conquests of Peace."

FELINE VISITORS ARE NOT WELCOME

There has been a lot of excitement manifested lately around a certain west-end neighborhood by the early-morning visits of a certain large black and white cat. Residents in that locality are liable to be awakened at a very early hour by the calls and cries of the numerous bride-families that dwell in the trees of a certain garden thereabouts. Whether the pussy is looking for the early bird that is after the worm, or whether she comes to investigate certain garbage receptacles during a quiet moment, it is impossible to say. Anyway, as soon as he appears, the birds commence to tell each other about it. Repeated warnings, in high-pitched staccato note that spells 'cat' in the feathered language, fly back and forth, and the excited songsters go speeding through the air to tell each other all about it. Numerous winged families abide in this neighborhood, with one specially-cared for nest under the eaves of a verandah. The other morning, the unfortunate cat was engaged in a quiet breakfast that looked suspiciously like a piece of fish, but was unable to enjoy a peaceful mouthful, owing to the activities of three large blackbirds. To an unbiased observer, it looked very much as if the trio was taunting the feline visitor. They swooped down in turn within an inch of her head, strutted boldly to almost clutching distance of the sharp claws, uttering loud, scornful chirps, and generally behaving in the most aggravating manner, until the cat finaly made off. Doubtless they were protecting their nests in this way, something in the manner of the crows, intent on nest building, that hurried the life nearly out of a small brown squirrel the other after noon. He had evidently approached too near their domicile, and they gave him a hard chase, until he reached telegraph wire across the street, and perched in a precarious position, scolding viciously at the three black victorous heads just beneath.

"Your Baby in Hot Weather"

PROPER FEEDING FROM THE START MEANS HEALTH

BY MRS. MAX WEST
Late of the United States Children's Bureau

The one serious danger to the average baby in summer arises from disturbances of the digestion. Someone has said, however, that many of the deaths every summer which are said to be caused by "gastric" and intestinal diseaes, should really have been attributed to "bad feeding."

In other words, a pitifully large number of these illnesses and many deaths could be prevented if the baby had been fed in the best way from the start. Since a disturbance of this sort may become serious in a few hours in very hot weather, there is greater need than ever for care at this time of year.

Breast-fed babies are far less likely to have an attack of this kind than the one who is fed otherwise, but even a breast-fed baby may become ill if the mother nurses him too often or at irregular hours, or in the night, and especially if she lets him eat solid foods too early.

Bottle-fed babies appear to me most liable to attacks of summer diarrhea, and on this account every mother of a baby who is artificially fed should have the soundest advice about the feeding of the baby in hot weather.

It is quite possible to take a bottle-fed baby through the hottest weather in perfect health, but to do this it is necessary for the mother to observe with unvarying attention, the rules which make this sort of feeding safe.

If the number of stools increase markedly, and the baby is having four or more a day, the amount of strength of the milk mixture should be at once reduced. If the baby is having frequent stools and they show undigested curds, or are loose, stringy or slimy, the mother should send at once for the doctor, or take the baby to the nearest infant-welfare station, or in some other way get good advice at once.

The food should be stopped, and the baby given nothing except a thin barley gruel or broth, or nothing but cool water. One or two teaspoonfuls of caster oil may be given, to rid the body of the offending substance, while waiting for the doctor, if the baby seems very ill.

The sick child should be kept as quiet and as cool as possible. It will probably be best to boil all the milk for some time after the attack is over.

HOW TO BEST TREAT STOMACH TROUBLE

A Tonic Medicine is Needed to Strengthen the Stomach.

The old-fashioned methods of treating stomach diseases are being discarded. The trouble with the old-fashioned methods was that when the treatment was stopped the trouble returned, often in an aggravated form.

The modern method of treating indigestion and other forms of stomach trouble is to tone up the stomach and glands to their normal work. The recovery of the appetite, the disappearance of pain after eating, the absence of gas, are steps on the road to health that those who have tried the tonic treatment remember distinctly. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic which through their action on the blood are helpful in building up the digestive organs, and therefore the best remedy for simple or chronic cases of stomach strouble. The success of the treatment is shown by cases like that of Mrs. Joseph Leclere, Wellington, P.E.I., who says: —"I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and stomach trouble, and nothing that I took for it did me any good until I began Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I was so bad that I did not want to eat, and when I did take food it lay like a weight on my stomach often causing me much pain and misery. I saw in an advertisement what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done in a similar case and began taking them, with the result that after taking the pills for five or six weeks, I am feeling better than I have done for years. I hope my experience will help other similar sufferers."

You can get Dr. Willams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, post paid, at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

LINGERIE.

Recent lingerie importations show the hem of the nightgown is usually scalloped, laced trimmed, or hemstitched by hand. The most delicate of laces are used for the yokes and sleeves.

A NEW GOWN

This is a season when dresses may do much unexpected thing as this frock does.

The drapery stars on the left shoulder as a cape. It is continued on the right shoulder (front) as a wide and flowing sleeve, then ripples down from the waist to below the hem as an exceedingly diverting tunic. And it does the same thing in the back.

If you are searching for fashionable points, here is a dress that will give you all of them—round neckline, odd sleeves, side drapes, irregular hem, low waistline.

Frocks of this type are shown in Canton and other crepe weaves in all shades, and are very popular.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

American husbands-to-be prefer not to think about buying their bride's clothes till after the ceremony, but in Central Asia the method of proposal is to ask a girl if one may buy her clothes.

She, through her parents, names the sum she thinks needed to start housekeeping.

If he is to poor, of course, he cannot pay. If he decides to buy them the wedding is celebrated twiceJonce for her freinds and once for his.

FRILLS FOR FLAPPERS

Even the flapper with her love for sport clothes of the plainest cut—and brightest colors—will condescend to frills when summer really comes.

Soft shirred sleeves, wide bouffant skirts, sheer fabrics and delightful colors can do much to make one endure the heat.

The tightly-cuffed frock sketched is of figured batiste which has come back into vogue. The other dress is of dotted Swiss—white with green—and both are as cool and dainty as could possibly be expected.

Gingham is favored for young girls' dresses and grows more tailored every day. Tissue gingham is used a great deal. Calico prints are very modish, indeed.

PAINTED NEGLIGEES.

Hand-painted negligees are now being imported. Usually they are of dashing colors, with large splashy designs with futuristic tendencies.

A Sure Relief for Women's Disorders—10 Days Treatment Free

Orange Lily is a certain relief for all disorders of women. It is applied locally and is absorbed into the suffering tissue. The dead waste matter in the congested region is expelled, giving immediate mental and physical relief; the blood vessels and nerves are toned and strengthened; and the circulation is rendered to normal. As this treatment is based on strictly scientific principles and acts on the actual location of the disease, it cannot help but do good in all forms of female troubles, including delayed and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, etc. Price $2.00 per box, which is sufficient for one month's treatment. A Free Trial Treatment, enough for ten days, worth 75c, will be sent Free to any suffering woman who will send me her address.

TURBANS ARE YEAR'S FAVORED HEAD GEAR

The matter is entirely out of your hands, madam. You must wear a turban if you wish to be smart.

Probably you will be glad to follow the mode when you see the new models on the way, some of the most fascinating of which are shown above.

The model at the top is of Lyons velvet, trimmed with cellophone wings. Left is a Joan of Arc turban of black satin, striped with white duvetyn and trimmed with a silver button.

Right is a five petaled Parisian turban of black duchess satin with a silver and pearl ornament in front.

SATIN TAFFETA PREVAIL

The proper costume for mermaids this summer will be a dashing bathing suit of taffeta in two or three bright colors and embroideries in other colors strategically distributed over it.

So we are told.

The shops, however, by no means confine themselves to taffeta. Satin is just as much in evidence.

Embroidered bathing suits are entirely new. They are worked in floss, if the suits are of silk, and in yarn, if the suits are of jersey.

The really aquatic young woman, as usual, scorns silk suits and sticks to jersey. However, if one cannot be efficient, one should be decorative!

Simple Way To Take Off Fat

There can be nothing simpler than taking a convenient little tablet four times each day until your weight is reduced to normal. That's all—just purchase a case of Marmola Prescription Tablets from your druggist for one dollar, the same price the world over. Follow directions—no starvation, dieting or tiresome exercising. Eat substantial food—be as lazy as you like—and keep on getting slimmer. And the best part of Marmola Tablets is that they are harmless. That is your absolute safeguard. Purchase them from your druggist, or send direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward ave., Detroit, Mich.

MILK IS A DIET FOR ALL CLASSES

"Milk!—the all-inclusive food and the cheapest—for growing children an essential."—J. A. Amyot, M.D., Deputy Minister, Department of Health, Ottawa.

"The cheapest, safest and best food for children is good, clean milk."—Dr. Helen MacMurchy, Division of Child Welfare, Department of Health, Ottawa.

IN GREEN AND BLACK.

CHINESE SHADES.

Chinese lanterns that fold up like fans make very nice lamp shades, particularly for the country home. These are inexpensive, but exceedingly decorative, and they do impart an "atmosphere."

FUR ON SUITS.

There is much fur, of the lighter weight variety, used on the summer suits of silk. Often this is used on the bottom of the coat as well as on the collars and cuffs. Platinum grey fox is very popular. So is monkey fur.

THOUSANDS can interpret musical compositions for every one who can play them.

Yet thousands—and perhaps you among them—miss that greatest of all pleasures the interpretation or creation of music.

If you have tried—and been disappointed in a mechanical player—it is surely worth another trial to find an instrument like the Williams Player Piano.

ELKS AND FALCONS BATTLE TO FINISH

Good Game in the Corner Lot League Results in Victory For the Falcons.

In a Corner Lot game played last night, the Falcons defeated the Elks, 19-12. The Elks had few regulars and had to use many substitutes, but gave the Falcons a hard fight, leading at times. The long hitting of Chew, Lewis and McNeely was the deciding factor in the game.

Venette, pitching for the losers, had a world of steam, but lacked control at times. Chew started the game for the Falcons, but was forced to retire. Lewis took his place on the mound, and pitched well.

The batteries were:
Falcons—Chew, Lewis and Davis.
Elks—Venette and Gallagher.

YALE EIGHT VICTORS OVER HARVARD MEN.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 24 (Canadian Press) — Rowing a steady sustained stroke of 32 to the minute for the full four miles, the Yale 'Varsity crew defeated Harvard's eight by close to three lengths in the feature race of the fifty fifth regatta of the rival universities here late this afternoon. The story of the race is a story of a three-foot lead snatched in the first few beats of the contest gradually stretched into a three-length lead at the finish of the long, four-mile, upstream row.

The contest, which savored more of a well-ordered procession rather than a battle of blades, was without particular thrill other than the perfect form and oarsmanship shown by the New Haven crew coached by the English oarsmen George and Jim Corderry.

Little Lessons For the Golfer

The player should fix an imaginary line firmly in his mind when making his swing. This line should pass directly through the ball, down the fairway and to the green, which is the object of the play. The clubhead in the swing should describe a complete circle, beginning, on this imaginary line, at a point directly back of the teed ball. As the clubhead comes down and against the ball it must pass through the ball, on a straight line, and to accomplish this it is well for the player always to imagine that after he hits the ball his clubhead must also hit another ball six inches in front of the teed ball.

In the swing the clubhead must be swished, not pushed, through the ball, the speed of the down stroke attaining its maximum just as the clubhead passed through the ball. This should be such that the club automatically swings clear through, as shown in this picture of Miss Elaine Rosenthal, the star Chicago woman player.

TORONTO MEN IN A FATAL MOTOR SMASH

TORONTO, June 24.—(Canadian Press.)—Clifford W. Wardell, manager of Wardell's Monumental Works, this city, was fatally injured; G. S. Donaldson, agent for Chicago and Northwestern Railway, sustained a fracture of the skull, and is lying in a critical condition in the General Hospital, and William W. Creighton, traveller for the same railway, was badly cut and shaken up, when the motor car driven by Wardell, was overturned about two miles east of Oakville on the Toronto-Hamilton highway early yesterday afternoon.

SMOTHERED TO DEATH IN A SAND PILE.

CAPREOL, Ont., June 24.—(Canadian Press.)— The three year old daughter of Solomon Taillon was accidentally smothered to death in a sand pile which caved in while several children were playing on it.

The child was not missed for some time. One of the children came to the house and informed Mrs. Taillon that her little girl was all covered up by a big pile of sand. The frantic woman ran out in search of help and the little girl was found buried in 10 feet of sand. Life was extinct.

MUST BEAT THE GIANTS TO TAKE CHAMPIONSHIP

Former Ump. and Close Follower of the Game Picks McGraw's Proteges to Cop the Pennant

(By Billy Evans)

The team that beats the New York Giants will win the pennant in the National League.

That in substance is the prediction of all the baseball experts prior to the opening of the season.

On the showing of the clubs in the race so far that opinion still holds good. As a matter of fact the work covering the first third of the race has stengthened the belief.

In only one respect have the Giants disappointed so far—on the road. At the Polo Grounds McGraw's club has been unbeatable On the road it has been only a so-so aggregation.

The Giants have a great ball club. It ranks with the old-time aggregations like the Cubs and Athletics, when those two teams were at the top of their game.

New York has a great infield, is strong back of the plate and in the outfield. The pitching is perhaps not all that might be desired, but leave that problem to McGraw to solve.

If the Giant pitchers were showing the form they did against the Yankees in the world series McGraw wouldn't have a worry.

Pittsburg and St. Louis look like the most formidable contenders for the runners-up honors. While Brooklyn, Chicago, Cincinnatti and Boston might be rated as the dark horses.

Boston Disappointing.

Boston got away to a very bad start and disappointed badly in the early stages of the race. Of late the club has been playing the game it is capable of and is closing up the gap. Mitchell says he will be satisfied with nothing worse than fourth.

Pitching is usually the problem that confronts every club. Pitching, or lack of pitching, has played havoc with the Cardinals and Pirates.

Cooper, the star of the Pittsburg staff and one of the game's greatest left handers, has not won with his usual consistency. Grimes, the star of the Brooklyn staff, had trouble hitting his stride. Alexander of Chicago has varying success.

When the star of a team's staff has trouble winning it raises havoc with the team in general.

New York's Chance.

Grimes of Brooklyn appears to have recovered his form. With Keuther going great and several of the recruits showing well, Brooklyn will probably be very troublesome the rest of the way.

In National League New York looms up as the class of the field. Pittsburgh and St. Louis are contenders. Brooklyn, Cincinnati, Chicago and Boston are close up, with any of them having a chance to prove troublesome and break into the first division.

Philadelphia will probably think it out of the league before the race is over. The Philies appear destined to get the flag before coming into the stretch.

In conclusion, the team that beats the New York Giants is going to play in the world series.

TENNIS RESULTS

ROEHAMPTONN Eng., June 24 —(Canadian Press).—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, United States woman lawn tennis champion, defeated Mrs. Edington, 6-1, 6-0, in the semi-finals of the women's singles in the invitation tournament here yesterday.

Mrs. Beamish and Mrs. Mallory will meet today in the finals, Mrs. Beamish having beaten Miss D. Kemmis Betty yesterday in a close match, 7-5, 6-3.

In the men's singles semi-finals, B. I. C. Norton, South Africa, defeated M. Gerbault, France, and Cesare Colombo of the Italian Davis Cup team won from J. B. Gilbert.

LAWN TENNIS HAS UNIVERSAL APPEAL

The Game is Now Played By Both Sexes of All Ages and Nationalities.

LONDON, Eng., June 24.—(Canadian Press).—Lawn tennis, everybody's game, is played almost everywhere in the civilized world. Young and middle-aged—yes, even elderly people—play the game, and both sexes are at it on thousands of courts. Tennis has become the world's ganie. It will be played this year on five continents by people of every clime and color. It makes the same appeal to the yellow-skinned, almond-eyed men of the East as it does to the English and Americans. Its appeal, in short, is world-wide.

A sporting expert of The London Daily News, in an interesting article on tennis recently, said lawn tennis knows no frontiers of age, sex or race. "At 20 you may play it vehemently," according to this authority, "at 40 sedately and at 60 indolently; and at all ages you may play it with supreme enjoyment to yourself."

Continuing, he says: 'From London to Peru, from New York to Tokio, you will hear the ritual chanted of '15, 30, 40-game.' All nations have entered the lists to play for lawn tennis supremacy. At the moment America holds the highest post, for players from the United States won the Davis Cup, and one of them, long, lean 'Bill' Tilden, is champion of the world. But the other countries are hot on the trial, and America may find it hard to hold what she possesses at present."

In connection with the Davis Cup competition, the supremacy of the United States will be challenged this year by Japan, Australia, Spain and Great Britain. Although there seems to be no hope of this country winning back the cup this year, no British player is so pessimistic as to say Great Britain's tennis star is set forever.

This world game, tennis, is not merely a popular spectacle. It is more than that—it is played everywhere, as well as watched everywhere. Some piquant combinations of ages may be seen at various courts in the country, proving the no-age theory in tennis, as well as the general liking for it. At the Roehampton tournament this spring, M. J. G. Ritchie, the veteran champion, and his son both appeared in the lists. A few days ago at a London hard courts club there was a doubles match in which a young athlete of 21 years was partnered by a girl some years his junior; they were opposed by two men who would certainly never see 50 again—and the old 'uns won! On the next court were two boys of 14 or 15 years of age engaging in a well-played singles. All were apparently happy.

Whether lawn tennis is the best game in the world or not is a matter of opinion. However, from the point of view of the game being suited to all sorts and conditions of people, lawn tennis stands alone.

FRASER AND SCOTT IN THE GOLF FINALS

W. J. Thompson, Toronto, and L. L. Bredin, Detroit, Fail in the Semi-Finals.

ANCASTER, June 24 (Canadian Press). — Two players from Montreal clubs, C. C. Fraser, Kanawaki, and N. M. Scott, of the Royal Montreal Club, will meet in the finals for the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship.

Yesterday these players eliminated the last remaining U.S. and Toronto competitors who had worked their way through the preceding rounds to the semi-finals.

Mr. Fraser defeated L. L. Bredin, of Detroit, five up and four to play, and Mr. Scott defeated W. J. Thompson, of Toronto, four up and two to play.

The matches were played under ideal weather conditions, with none of the wind that made things difficult on many of the greens on Thursday, while the skies were cloudless.

REPORTED TO RED SOX

BOSTON, June 24.— (Canadian Press.) — Leroy E. Maynard, of Millers Falls', captain and shortstop of ths year's Dartmouth College nine, reported to the Boston Red Sox here yesterday.

WALTER HAGEN WINS BRITISH GOLF TITLE.

SANDWICH, England, June 24 (Canadian Press). — Walter Hagen, United States professional golf star, won the British open championship yesterday.

Hagen had a score of 300 for the four rounds. Other final scores were: Barnes, 301; Hutchison, former open champion, 302.

Hagens scores yesterday were: 79, 72—151. On Thursday he had 149, and led the field by two strokes.

Hutchison fell down on the last nine, took a forty, and finished with a total of 302, two strokes behind Hagen.

Duncan, who was tied for second place on Thursday, took an 81 for his morning round, and then stood 232 for the 54 holes. Barnes came home in 39, making 77 for his morning round, giving him a tie with Hagen for third place with 228.

Other scores were: Boomer, 231; Walton, 230; Mitchell, 230; Hunter, 233.

How Many Miles per Dollar Do Your Tires Give You?

If the miles per dollar on cheap tires were computed against the miles per dollar on good tires, good tires would show the least cost. Here's an actual instance: Two friends had summer cottages at the same lakeside resort, some hundred and fifty miles away. They used to motor up week ends. On one occasion, "A" put a cheap, new tire on his Overland Touring and a cheap new spare. At the end of 50 miles the new tire blew out, and at the end of 80 miles the second new tire blew out. He had no repair kit or blow-out patches and, it was so far to the nearest garage, he had to stay all night at a farm house. "B," who travelled the same roads, had two "Gutta Percha" Tires on his Dodge car, which lasted two seasons, without even minor mishaps. One blew out at 10,000 miles and the other is still going and looks good, with a record of over 12,000 miles. Which Tire Cost the Most? The Cheap Price Tire, of course. Which Tire would you buy? "Gutta Percha," of course.

"Gutta Percha" Tires do not demand a higher price than other standard tires, so why not have the best when they cost no more?

Gave Recital

A pleasant recital by the piano pupils of Miss Olive Johnston, A.T.C.M. was given in the Conservatory of Music Hall last evening, with good attendance of relatives and friends. The young pupils acquitted themselves admirably, in a manner distinctly to the credit of the painstaking tuition of their teacher, whom they presented with a large bouquet of flowers at the conclusion of the programme, in which the following pupils, took part: Dorothy Mortimer, Dorothy Dodds, Grace Cunningham, May Story, Helen Spensely, Margaret Borbridge, Eleanor Dodds, Lilias Grierson, Eva Scarce, Mildred Johnston, Ena Young, Hilda Evans, Florence Record, Eva Dallin, Marjorie Armstrong, Anna Young Florence Evans, Alice Payne, Jean Anderson, Winnifred Bohn, Kenneth Gadd, Lionel Bailey, Harold Robinson, Harold MacFarlane, Grant Gillespie, and James Dunbn.

An enjoyable variation to the programme was provided by th assistance of Kathie Taylor, who gave a well-rendered violin solo.

The vocal recital by pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Allen Park takes place on Wednesday evening next, June 28th.

PETER ROBINSON CHAPTER PICNIC

The Peter Robinson Chapter, I. O.D.E. held a successful picnic at Chemong Park yesterday afternoon, and in the evening enjoyed the record crowd of the season at a dance held in the pavilion. About fifty of the girls and their friends attended the picnic and the affair was a jolly one. Sports were held and some of the more daring even ventured into the inviting waters of Lake Chemong.

Mr. H. Meyers and Miss Helen Howson were in charge of the dance, while Mrs. F. Hills and Mrs. J. Wearing acted as chaperones. Amongst those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wearing, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hills, Mr. and Mrs. J. McNabb, Mr. and Mrs. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. F. C Webber, Misses E. Nichol, M. Drope, Fitzpatrick, Bulmer, M. Connor, H. Stapleton, G. Stevenson, G. Lebarr, H. Morrison, G. TWO MONTHS FOR SALE HOME BREW

Magistrate Langely Imposed a Two Hundred Dollar Fine Into the Bargain.

Amendments made to the O.T.A. that came into force on 9th June, resulted in Joseph Wood, found guilty of "selling," going to jail for two months, whether his fine is paid or not.

The new section of the Act requires that where the transaction was in "home-brew," a jail term of not less than two months must be imposed.

The case was the first one established under the stricter legislation brought in recently, and Magistrate Langley was plainly reluctant to send the 22-year-old young man, married and with dependents, to jail, but he pointed out that while personally he felt sorry for the accused, under the law he had no récourse in the matter.

The evidence brought out by two young men was that they bought a "crock" off or through accused for $2.00 at Riverside Park on Thursday evening.

From the smell of the bottle and from accused's admission, Crown Attorney Hatton maintained there was no doubt about the liquor being "moonshine," and Magistrate Langley, after deliberating on the case, decided that under the O.T.A. he had only one course to follow—to find Wood guilty. He placed the fine at the minimum of $200.00, or an alternative of three months in the County Jail, and over and above this penalty, two months for being connected with a transaction in which there was moonshine whisky.

In addition to the charge under the O.T.A., the young man was charged with the theft of a tire, tube and rim, valued at $20.00, the property of Joseph Slattery, on Thursday evening.

He pleaded not guilty, and the case was held over until Tuesday, to come up with others in connection with the same matter.

REDUCTION IN COST OF FINE BRITISH WOOLLENS

The wholesale tailoring of suits to individual measure enables the Semi-ready Company to mantain their high standard of workmanship and yet give each customer a better suit for less money.

The reduction of duties on English woollens will offset the increased sales tax. Most of the fine woollen cloths shown in the Semi-ready suits are of British weave, and are imported from the Semi-ready Company in Bradford, England. "The better clothes gain an advantage over cheap tailoring in the new system of sales tax—for the customs duties on fine cloth is reduced. Stock's store at 337 George street.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 24.— (Canadian Press.)— Mexican Petroleum rallied 6 1-2 points in the early dealings on the stock exchange to-day. The recovery evidently resulted from the optimistic statement made by Chairman Doheny regarding the company's earning capacity. Pan-American Petroleum A and B shares rose 2 1-4 points each, Producers and Refiners gained three points and General Asphalt advanced 1 point. Oils and Rails were the features of speculative interest during to-day's brief and comparatively dull stock market. Mexican Petroleum rebounded 6 1-2 points on statement of the company's financial position and prospective earnings. Pan American Petroleum added to yesterday's gains and Producers and Refiners, California Petroleum and General Asphalt were substantially better. Sales approximated 400,000 shares.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK June 24. — (Canadian Press.) — Sterling exchange weak. Demand rates Great Britain 4.38. Canadian Dollars 15/16 of one per cent. discount.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 24.—(Canadian Press)— Reports of rains in parts of Iowa and Nebraska led to a general selling of all grains at the start of the Board of Trade session to-day. After starting 1-4 to 7-8 off, with July 113 1-4 to 113 5-8, and September 114 5-8 to 114 3-4, the wheat market underwent an additional setbacy.

Corn showed continued weakness after the start, with scattered liquidation by local longs in evidence, with December off the most. After opening 1-8 to 1 1-2 lower, with July 63 1-4 to 63 1-2, the market sagged. Oats started unchanged to 1-8 cent down, with July 37 3-8 and then suffered further declines all around.

TORONTO STOCKS.

TORONTO, June 24.—(Canadian Press.)—The closing session for the week on the local stock exchange differed but slightly from the preceding sessions of the week. Business continued very light and fluctuations were made on odd lot transactions in many instances. Steel issues were weak, the B. E. 2nd preferred closing a point lower at 31 and Steel of Canada off 1 3-4 at 73 3-4. Gen. Elec. sold off two points to 76 and Maple Leaf lost 1-2 at 106 1-2. C.P.R. after early sales as high as 141, closed at 140, a net gain of 1-2. Unlisted stocks, Government bonds and banks were also extremely dull.

"BEYOND THE ROCKS" AT THE CAPITOL

Following up the Paramount policy of giving people the best and latest releases in the motion picture world, the Capitol Theatre management announces a photoplay for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday which is one of the greatest attractions of the hour. A rare combination is that of a sensational story by Elinor Glyn, starring Gloria Swanson and Rudolph Valentino and adapted to the screen by Hack Cunningham and directed by Sam Wood. Madame Glyn is a name which assures beforehand, the success of book or play because she has acquired a reputation second to none in a certain line of work. One may or may not approve of her ideas, or agree with her outlook upon life—but she is not to be ignored—and when she left England to fulfill a contract in the studios out in California, the public sat up, took notice and awaited with baited breath, the result. "One Day" or some of her other popular novels; but whether it was considered advisable to lose sight of these slightly outrageous works and ask Madame Glyn to write directly for the screen or not, it was not long before there were rumors of just the variety of story to expect Moving pictures must exert a good influence to succeed, the public wants to be entertained, but at the same time they require a picture which requires no apology.

"The Great Moment" created a furore when it appeared—the Glyn trademark, the beauty of Miss Swanson and the popularity of Wallace Reid, made it apparent that the entertainment value of the production was beyond the question; all this and more can be expected of "Beyond the Rocks". Many people will say that after seeing Miss Swanson in last year's photoplays, there is nothing left in the way of gowns, headgear, or footwear that she has not worn—those people are out of luck, because the ingenuity of Dame Fashion and her interpreters is boundless, and the beautiful Paramount star is truly a marvel of fashion. Not even the extravagant and fastidious Marie Antoinette could have exceeded Gloria's expense account and were she not a motion picture star, she could certainly qualify as the personification of "la Mode". As though it were not enough to present one attraction such as the lovely female star, Mr. Wood has chosen to play opposite her the redoubtable and wonderful Valentino—the man who will always spell "Julio" the selfish, exotic, irresistible Argentine lover—at least he will to the feminine world, and that is worth considering these days. Since his work in the "Four Horsemen," Valentino has been featured in "The Conquering Power" the clever adaption of Balzac's Eugenie Grand in "The Sheik" and in "Moran Of The Lady Letty" to mention only a few of his starring parts. Besides being a great lover, one must not forget that he is a capable actor—otherwise he would never have been chosen to play opposite women like Dorothy Dalton, Agnes Ayres, Alice Terry to be the hero in "Beyond the Rocks" which really calls for some very heavy work.

Every other member of the cast in this picture is an actor or actress of ability, placed with a view of getting the best results available; for that purpose, at the request of the director, Mr. Wood, the author remained in Hollywood, even at some personal inconvenience to supervise and assist in finishing the production according to schedule. June Elvidge, who is well known to screen lovers, has been in pictures a long time and is a fine actress who can always be depended upon to handle any part with taste and discretion. Gertrude Astor is a young woman who is attracting a good deal of attention, and she makes a very pretty, attractive foil to the maturer and more sophisticated beauty of Miss Swanson. Mabel Van Buren, Robert Bolder, Alec B. Francis, Edythe Chapman, E. R. Butler and Helen Dunbar and Raymond Blathwayare are other members of the cast who fill their respective roles very capably.

Elinor Glyn, in "Beyond the Rocks," has written a story that is really a good story and decidedly different from the ordinary plays that have been seen recently. Here is a love story, a thrilling tale of adventure and romance while the moral is good and the ending very satisfactory. A beautiful English girl marries a millionaire from the colonies and she is a loving devoted wife, but at the same time like everybody else, she feels that life has served her rather badly and when she meets a young man who really attracts her the result is inevitable.

Not like many of the new stories there is no attempt to cover moral lapses with the appearance of sorely tried virtue and it is refreshing to find that without being far-fetched, the triumph of right and principal is assured. The great picture will be seen at the Capitol next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. No advance in prices. Matinees every Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30 p.m.

ALDERMEN LIKE BAND CONCERTS

To-day several members of the City Council, including Ald. Joseph Crowe, expressed their approval of the excellent band concert given last evening in Victoria Park by the combined bands of the Peterborough Rangers and the War Veterans.

The intermissions were short, which is just as it should be. The time when a band would give a selection and then sit back and smoke for an hour, is a thing of the past. There is nothing of that tendency with the present efficient organisation, with the result that the public is beginning to sit up and comment upon the excellent service rendered by the Band.

"The people feel they are getting something for their money," said Ald. Crowe this morning. "It is much better for the city to support one good band than three or four poor ones," he added.

Next year the band should find it much easier to get a substantial grant from the City Council.

FURNACE

Some time ago Mr. John W. Seely, of 48 North Front Street, Belleville, decided to install a Pease Furnace in his home. After giving the outfit a fair trial, he made the following remarks:

"I am highly pleased with my Pease Furnace I started it last Fall and have not had the least trouble with it since. This furnace burns very little more coal than our kitchen range."

Many similar reports prove conclusively that Pease Furnaces have exceptional merit. If you are at all interested in the question of heating, you should have a copy of our new booklet issued for prospective customers. It's interesting. Telephone for it to-day.

An Epidemic of Lawn Socials

The strawberry festival held at Gilmour Memorial church yesterday under the auspices of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union, was very successful and had a splendid attendance. Supper was served on the grounds from 6 to 8 pm, followed by a short programme. Rev. J. R. Webb gave a short address, the Salvation Army band provided excellent musical selections, and vocal solos were given by Miss Lewis and Mr. Brown of Fairview. Miss Broome also sang, and Mr. O. Franks, a member of the Band, gave several well received readings.

Rev. R. M. Fraser, pastor of Gilmour church, acted as chairman

PARK STREET BAPTIST

Last evening, a very successful lawn social was held by the Gleaners Class of Park Street Baptist Church. The lawn was effectively illuminated by Chinese lanterns. The booths for home-made candy, for strawberries and ice cream and for home made cake, did a thriving business, and the girls in charge of the lemonade sale report an exceptionally busy evening. The Melody Concert Band, brave in their new uniforms, provided a generous supply of well-played music, which added much to the enjoyment of the evening, Mr. Wm. Ford acting as conductor in his usual capable manner.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The eastern side of the lawn surrounding St. John's Church was utilized last evening for the social held under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A. of the church. Details, under the capable management of the president, Miss Jean Horsfield, were carried out in the most satisfactory manner to the large numbers who attended during the evening. The lawn was softly illuminated by strings of Japanese lanterns, and the different booths were made most attractive by floral decorations. The C.W.A. organization had the sale of ice-cream, cake, strawberries, and soft drinks, with Mrs. W. J. Hopwood as convenor; the Girls' Auxiliary, with Mrs. Geo. Wesley in charge, sold candy, Mrs. John Holmes supervised the A.Y.P.A. flower booth, and Miss Sybil Hood had the fish-pond. Brighty clad fortune-tellers and girls in Italian peasant costumes selling pea nuts, fruit and candy added to the charm of the pretty scene.

The programme opened with the chimes, played very artistically by Mr. R. J. Devey and an orchestra from St. Luke's church, in charge of Mr. J. Thompson, organist of St. Luke's played several fine selections. Miss Ruby Quartermaine, with accompaniment by Mr. R. J. Devey, gave a pretty vocal solo, followed by the presentation by the A.Y.P.A. of part of their minstrel show, including the graceful minuet performed on the lawn, with the A.Y.P.A. orchestra, directed by Miss Aloha Horn at the piano, providing music.

RAIN IN WEST.

SASKATOON, June 24. (Canadian Press.) — No high winds are reported from any part of the district surrounding Saskatoon. During yesterday heavy rains fell intermittently. The land has been thoroughly drenched which according to the farmers is a consummation sorely needed. The weather has now cleared and it is warm and bright. Nothing approaching a hurricane is reported from anywhere in the district.

MURRAY ST. BAPTIST CHILDREN'S CHOIR

The Sunday School choir of Murray Street Baptist Church which rendered such excellent service a few Sundays ago will appear again at the service tomorrow evening.

Many who were unable to be at the morning gathering have expressed the desire to hear the work of this body of fifty children and very young people.

There will be a solo by the Boy Soloist Master Kenneth Mc Cannan. This accomplished lad will sing "The Children's Home". The pastor is preaching at both services. The Sunday School meets at three o'clock for the last time until September.

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS BOTH DOORS

—the doors of health and happiness—yes, and of prosperity—the master key is Chiropractic. Do you know what it has done for others and what it may do for you?

LOST AND FOUND

The most precious possession a man or woman can have is Health. Health means Happiness, Success and everything worth while in this life. You may have lost your Health, and after having tried everything under the sun except Chiropractic, have failed to find it. The chances are that Chiropractic is just what you need, and that by its means you will recover your lost Health. It's surely worth a trial. The majority of so-called diseases are due to nerve pressure caused by subluxated (displaced) verte brae (small bones of the spine), which press upon the nerve and prevent the all important life force from flowing uninterruptedly to the various organs. Let the Chiropractor relieve this pressure. The result will be that the nerve force will flow uninterruptedly, normal functioning will be resumed and you will have FOUND your lost Health.

URGED A WIDE PUBLICITY ON CARE OF TEETH

Dr. E. S. Best, an Old Peterborough Boy, Addresses Local Dentists at Empress Hotel.

TRIBUTE TO PRESS.

"Fellows, the only difference between a rut and a grave is in the dimensions," was the startling and concise way Dr. E. S. Best, an old Peterborough boy, now a leading dentist in Minneapolis, boiled down his appeal for service to humanity from the profession, at a dinner of the Peterboro Dental Society in the Empress Hotel, Saturday evening. He urged for a wide publicity on the care of teeth, and the newspaper, he said, was the best means of reaching the largest number of people. He emphasized the fact that the newspapers cry was for "news," not "statistics," and he paid a distinctive tribute to the honor and integrity of newspapermen as a class.

For Clean Mouhs.

The schools are the proper place to start a campaign for clean mouths, he said, as impressions created there endure through life. He advised that Peterborough should have an instructor in preventive dentistry, and his details of the work actomplished in Minneapolis schools were interesting. By giving credits to pupils with clean mouths, competitions between the classes were induced and whole schools vied for the championship. A marked decline in children's diseases had been remarked. The children are particularly advised on diet and the results of the work Dr. Best thought would be lasting. By adopting a similar policy some years ago, Bridgeport, Connecticut, he said, reduced the expenditure on backward children from 42 to 17 per cent. and in the influenza epidemic had the lowest death rate of any place in the Union.

Conservative Beginning.

Dr. Best favored a conservative beginning of dental inspection in the schools and he advised the dentists here to be satisfied with a rather humble start. A discussion took place on what requests should be made of the Board of Education, but no definite conclusions were reached. It was decided to give attention to worthy cases of school children recommended by the board until such time as an arrangement is made for dental inspection.

Dr. A. H. Allen, Dr. J. J. Craig, Dr. W. T. Holoway voiced the anpreciation of the dentists for the enlightening address of Dr Best and warned him that they might call upon him again. "What I have learned is yours for the asking," replied Dr. Best. Dr. M. A. Morrison did not think 'fakirs' would ever get to be a problem in the profession in Ontario for the reason the dentists own their own college and givern it. About 100 to 125 students will be graduated each year from the Royal Dental College and with two colleges in the west and two in the east the output of dentists will soon be equal to the demand. There was no danger of overcrowding Dr. Morrison thought, pointing out his observance that the more dentists there were the more work there was for all. Thirty years ago in this city he said the seven dentists didn't begin to do half as much as any seven to-day. In impressing the future before the profession and the need of education, Dr. Best pointed out that there are millions of people in the United States who never go to the dentist.

The Guests Present.

The following dentists attended the dinner: Dr. J. J. Craig, Dr. J. E. Middleton, Dr. M. A. Morrison, Dr. W. T. Holloway, Dr. A. H. Allen, Dr. A. A. Cameron, Dr. C. H. Fulford, Dr A. M. Weldon, Dr. W. N. Hayes, Dr. J F. O'Brien, Dr. W. J. Preston, and Dr. R. M. E. Ward.

Noted Imperialist Dies in England

LONDON, June 26.— (Canadian Press.)—Sir George Robert Parkin, author and lecturer on Imperial Federation, died at his home in Chelsea Court. Sir George R. Parkin was a well known Imperialist, author, lecturer and educationalist.

Born at Salisbury, New Brunswick, Feb. 8th, 1846, of United Empire Loyalist stock, his early education was received in schools of that province. He attended Oxford University in 1873-74. On returning to Canada he was for several years head master of the chief Public school in New Brunswick. He became principal of Upper Canada College in 1895, and occupied that position until 1902.

TO DEBATE ON IRISH AFFAIRS

Winston Churchill Invites Division of British Commons on the Situation.

LONDON, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—Winston Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, rising up to make his promised statement on Irish affairs in the House of Commons this morning, said the Government desired the freest and fullest debate, and one that could be terminated by a division.

Mr. Churchill declared he did not hesitate to say that all the horrors that had occurred in Belfast were due to the organization in the Northern territory of two divisions of the Irish Republican army, and continuous efforts by extreme partisans of the South to break down the Ulster Government and force Ulster against her will to come under the rule of Dublin.

BELLEVILLE MAN REMANDED ON CHARGE OF BIGAMY

BELLEVILLE, Ont., June 26.—Thomas James Kirby, who was arrested on Friday at Toronto, on a charge of bigamy, was on Saturday brought up before Magistrate Masson of this city and remanded until Friday, as the authorities were not prepared to proceed in the case. The accused is charged that he did at Belleville go through the marriage ceremony with Evelyn Smith, of Campbellford, when he had already a wife residing at Toronto, her maiden name being Miss Catherine Burns.

PROTECT THE NORTH.

LONDON, June 26. — (Canadian Press)—Colonial Secretary Churchill said the Imperial Government had supplied the Northern Irish Government with 50,000 troops for its own defence. He added that the Northern Government would be supported effectively, and at all costs, in any attempt that might be made to coerce it into submission to the South.

WILL LIBERALS AND THE U.F.O. FORM ALLIANCE

Peter Smith and Manning Doherty Characterize Rumors to That Effect as Fantastic.

SOME FOUNDATION

TORONTO, June 26.— (Special to Examiner.)— Ottawa stories to the effect that Premier Drury contemplates some sort of alliance with the Liberals in the Legislature, may have some foundation, but it was difficult to-day to find any one who would give confirmation of them.

Hon. Peter Smith, Provincial Treasurer, and Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture, characterized the stories as "pipe dream" and "fantastic."

Wellington Hay, Liberal leader, who, according to the Ottawa despatches, was to have one of the principal portfolios in the new coalition, told your correspondent by long distance telephone from Listowel that, "I have never been approached and know nothing about it. You cannot make that too strong so far as I am concerned," he added.

Interesting Story.

"Have you heard that five Liberals may accept Cabinet positions?" asked the correspondent. "It is very interesting," he replied, "but so far as I am aware, it is nothing more than gossip." Mr. Hay said he had not been in close touch with Toronto and Ottawa since the Legislature prorogued.

Hon. Peter Smith, who is thought to be the gentleman referred to in an Ottawa story which speaks of "an emissary of the Ontario Premier" being in the capital within the last two weeks, admitted frankly that he was in Ottawa, but only for an hour and a half. "I just passed through on my way to Renfrew," he said. "I never heard of any proposed alliance between the Liberals and the U.F.O. in Ontario. It is just a pipe dream."

Another Session.

"Did you see Mr. Crerar or the Prime Minister at Ottawa?" asked the correspondent. "No, I was not talking to any of them, nor could any one be found who knew anything about plans for an election in the fall. Mr. Hay thought there would be another session of the Legislature before the Legislature was dissolved. Mr. Smith would not confirm that the Government contemplates an appeal to the people this year.

It is to be noted, of course, that Cabinet Ministers are not in the habit of announcing their plans until they are good and ready to do so.

PETERBOROUGH SCOTS' ANNUAL OUTING.

This year the Caledonian Club are holding their annual outing on July 1st to South Beach, taking the train to Lakefield, then to South Beach. Return trip will be made by boat over the Lift Lock to Peterborough. Pipe band in attendance. Everybody welcome.

BRITISH GOV'T EXPECTS TO FACE A STORM IN HOUSE

Alleged Failure to Protect Sir Henry Wilson and Other Men in Public Life is One of Many Charges by Opponents.

LONDON, June 26.—(Canadian Press.)—After the funeral to-day of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, the Government expected to face in Parliament a storm aroused against it by the great soldiers' assassination. Alleged failure of the Government to protect Sir Henry and other men in public life, is only one of the charges its opponents were to bring against the administration, back of this being the anger of one section of the House toward the Irish policy.

Previous attempts to call the government to order on the latter count failed to produce the effect its enemies desired, but the present attack is more menacing in that it is combined with censure on an issue which has deeply stirred the emotions of a great many members. Disorderly conditions in Ireland and the prevalence of crime and violence there, which are regarded as being reflected in the Wilson tragedy, are sharply scored in some of this morning's editorials.

LATE MILITARY CHIEF BURIED

Thousands Witness Funeral Cortege of Victim of Bullets of Assassins.

LONDON, June 26.— (Canadian Press.) — Londoners by hundreds of thousands left their homes early to pay tribute to the late Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson at the funeral service held for the late military chieftain, a victim of the bullets of assassins.

For hours they stood patiently in line in a drizzling rain to watch the solemn procession making its way to the sound of muffled drums from the Field Marshal's late home in Eaton Place to St Paul's Cathedral. The entire three mile route was choked with spectators and all traffic was at a complete standstill. St. Paul's Square has never held so many people since the funeral of King Edward in 1910.

REV. DR. S. J. SHOREY RETIRES FROM SERVICE

Was Former Pastor of Two Peterboro Churches.

At the Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference in Whitby on Saturday, Rev. Dr. S. J. Shorey, well-known in this city as farmer pastor at both Charlotte Street and George Street Churches, bade farewell to the delegates as an active minister in the conference. He remarked that after 50 years' service he was retiring from the same church in Napanee in which he was converted, from which he had first gone into the ministry and in which on two different terms he had been the pastor. "I first trained as a lawyer, but after receiving my parchment never put my training into practice, as I then studied for the ministry. Often when I am discouraged with my work I think that maybe I would have made a better lawyer than a minister," he said.

Dr. Shorey has many friends in Peterborough. He has twice had charges here, first in the old Charlotte Street Church, 1887-1890, and ten years later, 1897-1900, in George Street. He was in charge of Charlotte Street three years after the circuit was cut off from George Street body.

HARD PROBLEM FACING WIRTH

Selection of Successor to German Foreign Minister Presents Difficulties.

BERLIN, June 26 — (Canadian Press.)—Selection of a man to fill the post of Foreign Minister, vacated by assasination of Dr. Walter Rathenau, presents difficulties of some magnitude to Chancellor Wirth. This is not only because of the dearth of available men, but also for an inner political reason, as questions of realignmet of a coalition is one of possibilties growing out of the present situation.

Parliamentary circles believe Chancellor Wirth will direct the foreign office until a man is found who can not only meet the exacting demands of the post, but who will have the approval of thee coalition parties. Friends of Dr. Otto Ludwig Wiedfieldt, ambassador to the United States, have already suggested him as an available candidate stressing his qualifications as an economist.

BURIED DEAD IN LATEST MINE WAR.

Not a Single Arrest Yet Since Thursday's Massacre

HERRIN, Ills., June 26.—(Canadian Press.)—Williamson County buried the dead in her latest mine-war yesterday, conducted an inquest to determine the cause of their death, and to-day faced the responsibility of bringing the guilty to justice

With not a single arrest made since the massacre of last Thursday when at least 19 men were killed after strike sympathizers stormed Lester Mine and with county officials making no visible effort to place the blame, investigating is being done by State and Federal agents.

Yesterday morning sixteen unknown dead, all non-union workers and guards at Lester Mine, were buried by the county in Potter's field. The bodies of the massacre victims in plain caskets, were placed side by side in parched grass, four protestant ministers of Herrin conducted brief burial services, while a hundred overall-clad miners and a dozen newspaper correspondents looked on A ministerial quartette sang "Nearer my God to Thee", read a psalm delivered a prayer and in a curiously abbreviated form of burial service committed the bodies to earth and committed their souls to God.

PROGRAMME OF THE CHAUTAUQUA EXCELS

Mr. Leon Frazer is in receipt this morning from the committee at Niagara Falls which had charge of the Dominion Chautauqua event, closed there on Saturday night It says: "Program this year surpasses all other. Duxbury fine. Wilson gave great address. Skeaval splendid. Kerby fine. Music better than previous years, especially Cremona orchestra. Have re-contracted for next year.

A lady resident of this city, who has often heard Mr. John Duxbury one of the attractions for this year's Chautauqua, gives her opinion about him as follows: "The advent of John Duxbury on Chautauqua platform will be a great treat for lovers of dramatic art. As an elocutionist, he ranks second to none. His repertoire consists of the finest of English literature. Hundreds of people annually hear him as "Old Scrooge" in Dickens' "Christmas Carol". Peterboro people who spend an evening with Duxbury will never forget him."

LOS ANGELES CONVENTION IS REPORTED UPON

Rotarian Rev. F. J. Sawers Delights Local Club With Resume of Proceedings.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME

"Rotary and other service organizations are going to do more to promote national unity and international good-will than any other organization I know of," remarked Rotarian Rev. F. J. Sawers, of Cobourg, in the course of a splendid report before the Peterborough Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon to-day on the recent International Rotary Convention at Los Angeles. The local Rotarians feel that they have been fortunate in being given the opportunity of hearing such a comprehensive and complete resume of the proceedings of the big gathering, for Mr. Sawers not only covered the salient features of the programme and gave a rapid fire picture of the events at Los Angeles, but also in a few impressive paragraphs, summed up his impressions of the convention. He emphasized the importance of Canada's positon as the connecting link between Great Britain and the United States, referred in glowing terms to the wonderful hospitality of the Rotarians of the United States, and laid stress upon the individual responsibility of each Rotarian towards the movement. Striking features in the outstanding addresses delivered at the convention were touched upon and in the short time at his disposal Rotarian Sawers was able to give his hearers a vivid conception of the bigness and importance of the Los Angeles convention.

Chairman V. J. McElderry, in expressing the thanks of the club, remarked that no Rotary Club anywhere would have a finer report than was delivered by Rev. Mr. Sawers, and that was the verdict of the entire local club.

Rotarian John Seels, who was one of the Peterborough delegates, drew the attention of the members to the fact that the local club was now in the 27th District, with Rotarian Ed. Bull, of Buffalo, as District Governor. Rotarian Seels emphasized the hospitality of the Rotarians in the cities through which the delegates had passed.

To-day's programme included two splendid recitations by Miss Hazel Davidson, a much enjoyed solo by Mr. John Smith, and a thoroughly appreciated duet, "Watchman, What of the Night?" by Mr. Smith and Rotarian Leon Frazer.

Chairman McElderry informed the club that the Rotary Boys' Camp was now ready, and the Y.M.C.A. boys would go into camp on Wednesday. Rotarian J. W. McDermid had been appointed chairman of the Camp Entertainment Committee and Rotarian Bruce Fowler chairman of the Provisions for the Camp Committee.

Rotarian Fowler called for six volunteers with cars to take the inmates of the Protestant Home for an outing on Wednesday evening, and he recruited his squad in a hurry.

There was a large attendance today, the guests including Rev. F. J. Sawers and Dr. McNaughton, of Cobourg; Kiwanians C. E. Cummer, of Peterborough; Walter Somerville, of Waterloo, and S. S. Cook, of St. Catharines.

GAVE STEAMER A WORK-OUT TO-DAY

A try-out of the steamer of the Fire Brigade and 1,000 feet of hose at the George Street wharf this morning convinced Chief George Gimblett that the engine was working satisfactorily, and that the hose was not in such a seriously dilapidated condition as he had imagined. The engine was started drawing water at 9.15, and for an hour the firemen played the hose. The Chief stated to-day, that the pressure was good, and four lines of hose were on at once. Only one blowout occurred, and this was the only bad 50-foot section in the lot. Several other leaks were found, but the defects were not as serious as was supposed.

GRACEFUL TRIBUTES TO MEMORY OF DEAD

Hundreds of Citizens Emulated Example of Local Oddfellows Yesterday in Decorating Graves of Departed Loved Ones.

COL. J. W. MILLER CONDUCTS CEREMONY

The mark of respect annually accorded the departed members of the I.O.O.F. was paid yesterday by the two Peterborough lodges, Otonabee No. 13, and Peterborough No. 111, and by visiting brethren at the decoration day ceremonies. Over 200 Oddfellows marched in a parade from their rooms on George street to the Little Lake cemetery, led by the Salvation Army band, and there 165 graves were decorated. Weather conditions were ideal for the event and the cemetery yesterday deserved its reputation as one of the most beautiful in the province.

The ceremony was carried out before a large number of spectators in its usual form in front of the chapel. The members of the lodges honoring those who have gone to the eternal rest formed a square about the band and speakers. Bro. Col. J. W. Miller had charge of the programme, which opened with the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee." Bro. Henry Turner read the memorial address, in which the memory of the dead was reverenced, and the living reminded of their duty in carrying on the burdens placed upon them and in caring for their dependents if need be. Bro. R. J. Martin, chaplain, made the opening and closing prayer and Bro. Rev. F. E. Malott gave the principal address. Rev. Malott commended the purpose of the annual decoration in keeping green the memory of Oddfellows who, after doing good work, has gone to their rest, and he said that flowers served most beautifully to express the respect and love of the living. Flowers he said, teach of immortality and they illustrate the short span between life and death. He said reverence for the dead could best be shown by kindness and care to their dependents.

The Graves Decorated.

The decoration of the graves, on account of the arrangements made by Bro. R. J. Martin, was carried out without a hitch. The cemetery was divided into seven sections in charge of the following F. Wise, G. A. Gillespie, W. H. Barry, R. J. Martin, H. Campbell, E. J. Holston and George Hillier.

The following graves were decorated: George Jenkins, Otonabee lodge, F. Ferguson, Otonabee lodge, James Ferguson, Otonabee, W. H. POLICE BREAK UP LIQUOR INDUSTRY

Otonabee Township Lost a Going Concern When the Police Stepped In.

Three paint cans, a tea can, a section of tin pipe and a roughly twisted worm of copper tubing made up the imposing still of Murney Martin, 118 James street, East City, seized by the police last night in Otonabee township about a mile from Mathers Corners, hid in a shack in a wood. As a rectifying apparatus the outfit gets the booby prize, but the product has been enough to send several into the pleasant heights of intoxication it is alleged. Poor as the display was, it was sufficient to win for the Crown a conviction under the Inland Revenue Act, and Martin was fined $200, plus $8.25 costs, or given the alternative of six months in jail. On account of the accused's willingness to help the Crown he was given the minimum fine and the Crown did not press for jail sentnece in addition.

Martin was also charged with 'selling' and pleaded guilty to this offence on the 22nd and was fined $300. The alternative was three months. The arrest of Martin at his home at six o'clock last night resulted from a police probe into the source of liquor that intoxicated several young men at Riverside park last Thursday evening. Joseph D. Woods turned out to be the agent and was was given a jail term Saturday, and Martin, the police say, has proved to have been the boss bootlegger. The crude apparatus displayed for the admiration of all concerned in police court to-day, was the plant that until recently generated the firewater that the firm sold at two dollars a 'crock.'

The police learned that Thursday night the party of young men went with Woods to Martin's home, where accused handed out a crock said to be the last of his supply. When the police searched the house Saturay no liquor was found and there was no evidence of any about the still. When confronted with the evidence against him Martin made a statement to the police admitting his activities and volunteered to take thm to the still. He kept his promise, and the outfit was brought in by Inspector J. Reid, William H. Buller, Inland Revenue Officer, P. C. Gordon Puffer and Sergt. William Wigg at 8 p.m. Sunday evening. Accused, who was represented by W. F. Huycke to-day, pleaded guilty to the two charges, and his counsel urged clemency on account of his war service.

CO-EDS AT DETROIT LAW COLLEGE WILL BE BARRED

But Rule Will Not Be Retroactive—It's Because the Boys Neglect Their Work and Hang Around us Wail the Girls.

DETROIT, June 26.—Co-education at the Detroit College of Law will definitely expire by the end of the month, say authorities at the college.

"By the end of the month", said Dr. A. G. Studer general secretary of the Y.M.C.A., which has charge of the college, "the official board will decide to admit no more women to the college".

It's because the boys neglect their studies to hang around us", wailed a co-ed. "I just know it is. And, goodness me, we can't help that. We don't make eyes at the boys".

"Is it true', Dr. Studer was asked. "that girls are barred because they distract attention of the men?"

"Hm-m-m! I would not say so", he answered. "You see, it is this way: Six years ago the Detroit College of Law was taken over by the Y.M.C.A., and since that time has been under its regents. The nature of the institution prohibits adequate accommodations for women. The Y.M.C.A. is a man's organization, and the environment is not suited to women; also its purposes and activities of a necessity do not include their participation.

"The board of control will act upon the matter at the end of the month", Dr. Studer continued. "and it is certain that the decision will be to bar girls. It is true that the institution has been co-educational since its foundation; but the board had hoped that the women naturally would eliminate themselves but lately they have been increasing.

Young members of the class expressed the opinion that the decision about to be made is regrettable.

"It is a shame," said one member of the freshman class. "But I understand that it will not be retroactive. It will affect onty those desiring admission in the future. We shall be permitted to remain to complete our course."

IF YOU'D BE STYLISH, YOU MUST BE BARBAROUS!

A TYPICAL "BARBARIC" COSTUME OF THE PRESENT SEASON.

BY MARIAN HALE.

Barbarism is the order of the day, sartorically speaking.

The South Seas, India, China, Egypt, Persia and other corners of the earth are yielding up their trinkets and jewels and we are wearing them all—frequently all at once.

So far, I have noticed no nose-rings, but earrings have developed to such proportions one can't help wondering how long the earlobe is going to stand the strain.

Some of them reach to the shoulder—the earrings—a cascade of jewels and metals. Often the jewels are as large as a pea.

* * *

The number of bracelets a woman may wear is limited, naturally, by the linear measurement between her knuckles and her shoulders, but the average arm will accomodate a surprising number.

These vary from coiled serpents of gold or silver, which wrap about the upper arm several times to heavy gold bands, like handcuffs.

It is quite the fad to wrap a long string of pearls about the wrist and let the strands fall far over the hand. This is very Oriental.

Jeweled daggers are popular for turbans. Sometimes the whole turban is made or silk or metal cloth, thick studded with jewels in barbaric colors.

The simplest frock or coat sports a belt of woven beads or jewels or medallions, set in old metal.

No longer is the single strand of pearls the thing. One now wears several. A heavy cord of woven seed pearls is highly desirable.

Pendants of carved ivory are very smart, worn on a black ribbon. Often, too, a life-sized rose of carved white ivory will be stationed on the end of a necklace.

Heavy tassels of small pearls or other stones are the correct finish for jeweled chains.

Designers say the tendency is to grow more barbaric and to include more nationalities in our daily exhibit, as the season advances.

Radio Calls

BY PAUL F. GODLEY.
America's Foremost Radio Authority

Chiefs of police throughout the United States and Canada are being invited to attend the convention of their international association by radio.

August Vollmer, head of the organization, has worked out a scheme to reach each member by wireless whether he has a set or not.

There are hundreds of small villages and towns, and even a great many cities, whose police headquarters are not equipped with receiving equipment. But it is doubtful if there is a town of any size without a radio amateur who is interested in relaying wireless messages.

So Chief Vollmer called in the "minute men of radio"—the American Radio Relay League. The officers promised to deliver the message and soon had its organization of 25,000 radio amateurs preparing for the transmission.

The convention opens in San Francisco on June 19. The success of their previous enterprises staged by the relay league augurs well for their success.

"Some time between 10 p.m. and midnight your local standard time" reads the official announcement to the amateurs, "some station will break loose with the message of invitation. The call letters of this station and the time of starting will not come as a surprise right out of a clear sky. It will be broadcast once at 10 words a minute, each word being sent twice. Once a station will cease firing. That will be the start of the message."

Great stress was laid upon the necessity for accuracy in making copy, and for the actual delivery

All radio reply amateurs were requested to co-operate.

If they respond as they have done in the past, every chief attending the convention will have come invited by radio.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED—

You avoid practices that are likely to make difficulties between friends.

You do not borrow clothes or personal belongings from another except under most unavoidable circumstances, then you return them in perfect condition.

You always make reparation for any damage to the property of another.

The use of the word "mug" as a slang word for the face is probably due to an old-time habit of making drinking mugs to represent a human face.

Memorial to Dr. Rathenau Becomes Stormy Meeting

Scenes of Turbulence and Disorder Marked the Meeting of Reichstag in Memory of Former Minister.

GREAT UNREST.

BERLIN, June 26.— (Canadian Press.)—Dr. Walter Rathenau, German Foreign Minister, and more closely identified than any other German with the efforts at the rehabilitation of his country since the war, was shot and killed by two or more unknown assassins while on his way from his residence Saturday morning to the Foreign Office.

The Minister was subjected to a veritable hail of bullets, one of them striking him in the throat and passing upward to the brain; while others struck him in various parts of the body. Hand grenades were also thrown, almost wrecking the car in which Dr. Rathenau was riding and inflicting further injuries on the Minister.

Chancellor Wirth's Government is marshalling the nation's liberal elements to the defence of the young German republic, and organized labor, represented in both Socialist parties, is again first to buckle on the armor, just as it did during the Kapp revolt. Announcement is made that the Government will establish extraordinary courts for the trial of Nationalist plotters, and that a state of emergency for Prussia will be proclaimed.

All regimental reunions and militaristic demonstrations are to be prohibited. Yet, despite vociferous cries of "Long Live the Republic," which resounded through the Reichstag Chamber at the close of a memorial session to Rathenau Saturday, thoughtful men of all ranks and parties were silently but gravely apprehensive for the nation's fate.

The emotion which marked the brief addresses of Chancellor Wirth and President Loebe before the Reichstag reflected sentiments which were shared by many others, while the rioting of the radicals throughout what was to have been a decorous memorial to the dead Foreign Minister reflected the feeling of unrelenting vengeance vowed in behalf of the German proletariat.

Never did the Reichstag witness such scenes of turbulence and disorder. Dr. Karl Helfferich, the Nationalist leader, who had attacked Dr. Ratheneau in a savage speech in the Reichstag Saturday, sat curled up in his seat far to the right of the House. He appeared to be in a very depressed and somewhat fearful state.

The uproar was primarily aimed at Helfferich, whom the Socialists and Communists wanted to force out of the Chamber through cries of "murderer! assassin!"

Chancellor Wirth recalled Rathenau's work at Genoa, expressing the conviction that the dead Minister's sentiments as expounded in the presence of the Allied leaders sounded a new note in behalf of international reconciliation. He praised him for having pointed out a path which would lead to the world's economic restoration.

BURNING GUNPOWDER THREATENS COTTAGES

UTICA, N.Y., June 26.— (Canadian Press.) — Three barges filled with gunpowder caught fire at Sylvan Beach early last evening, burning in a spectacular manner. Fanned by a stiff breeze the flames, which shot 200 feet in the air with each explosion, spread to cottages at Verona Beach. The entire summer colony there is threatened by the flames. Rome and Oneida have sent fire appartus to the scene. The bargest containing the gunpowder were owned by the Syracuse Sand Company.

THE WEATHER

Saturday was the warmest day we have had this summer up to date. The thermometer rose to 88 degrees, and there was a feeling in the air that brought back lingering memories of what a real summer day is supposed to be like. In the evening dark and threatening clouds appeared at different points, and to the south some heavy storms occurred. No rain fell here, however, but a decided drop in the temperature occurred. Sunday was almost too cool. The highest during the day was but 66 degrees, and last night the thermometer was down to 44 degrees—within speaking distance of frost. The farmers claim that the crops never looked better but say that a little warmer weather would be appreciated.—W. P.

RECOMMENDS THAT CROW'S NEST PASS AGREEMENT CEASE

Special Committee Would Suspend Agreement Except in the Case of Grain and Flour.

REDUCTION OF RATES.

OTTAWA, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—After stormy sessions lasting throughout the day and into the evening of Saturday, the special House committee on transportation costs, decided, by a vote of 16 to 1, on its report to the House. In brief the committee recommends:

1.—Suspension of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, except in respect to grain and flour, for one year from July 6, 1922, with power to the Cabinet to suspend for another year by order-in-Council, if then existing conditions justify such action.

2.—Crow's Nest rates on grain and flour to apply from July 6 (the date when suspension of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement expires).

3.—That the best efforts of railway managers and of the Board of Railway Commissioners should be directed towards a general reduction in railway rates.

4.—That there should be the closest co-operation between the management of the different Canadian railways and between the management of the railways and their employees to secure a reduction in railway operating costs.

The committee's decision was reached only after Conservative members of the committee, in angry protest, had withdrawn from the committee. They claimed that the report was a cut-and-dried affair decided at a Government caucus.

ALMOST DOWN AND OUT WHEN RELIEF CAME

Trainman Declares He Was So Weak From Stomach Trouble He Was Miserable All the Time—Takes Tanlac and Now Feels Fine.

"Tanlac kept me on the job today for I was just about down and out when I began taking it," said Harold Blanchard, trainman on the Canadian National Railways, living at 330 Donald St., Winnipeg, Man.

"On returning from France after three years' war service I was so run down I could hardly work. My appetite was gone and my stomach was in such bad condition that what little I did eat seemed to do me harm instead of good. I bloated terribly and my heart beat like a hammer. My kidneys had bothered me several years and there was a severe pain in the small of my back. Sleep did not seem to rest me and I was miserable all the time.

"One day I heard a man telling how much good Tanlac had done him so I began taking it and the results have been nothing less than remarkable. In a nut shell, I am now as strong and well as I ever was in in my life, and I consider Tanlac well worth recommending to everybody."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

DANGER OVER IN CHINA.

SHANGHAI, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—Although fresh reports from the interior of Kian Si Provinces are lacking, missionaries and officials here believe the fury of the mutiny has been spent and the pillaging soldiers brought under control. Danger of further widespread violence is believed past.

SIXTEEN SAILORS ARE LOST AT SEA.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 26.—(Canadian Press.)—Captain J. R. Thomas, of the Schooner Puritan, wrecked off Sable Island, Friday evening, in a message received here yesterday, expressed doubt as to the safety of the sixteen members of the crew. He saw one of the dories capsize. The S.S. Tampa, which proceeded to the scene of the wreck Saturday night, reported from the Middle Ground yesterday afternoon that there was no sign of the missing dories.

MONEY IS VOTED FOR BOAT RACING

Parliament Will Encourage Racing Among the Fishermen of the Maritime Provinces.

OTTAWA, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—Parliament on Saturday voted $5,000 to the support on the international fishing schooner race off the Atlantic coast after a mild protest from several members. William Duff (Liberal, Lunenburg, N. S.) speaking for the motion said the vote was to assist the great fishing industry of the Maritime Provinces. Money was voted for country fairs where there was horse racing, and there was no reason why the House should object to the schooner race.

In reply to J. L. Brown, (Progressive, Lisgar, Man.) who favored the race if an assurance was given that it would not lead to the building of racing and not fishing vessels, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, emphatically declared, 'It is a real race, by real fishermen, on real water." The item then carried.

REV. J. W. BAIRD, HAMILTON, CALLED TO PORT HOPE.

But Methodist Conference Fears a Division of the Congregation — Debate To-Day.

WHITBY, June 26. — Rev. J. W. Baird, of Hamilton, who was given a call to Port Hope to succeed Rev. C. S. Applegath, is in somewhat the same position as a little lost boy who declared tearfully: "I don't know whom I'm are."

Feeling that there might be a division on the part of the Port Hope people, those favouring Mr. Applegath rallying around his successor, and those opposed to him prepared to carry the dispute on toward his successor the Stationing Committee placed Mr. Baird at Napanee and named Rev. Dr. Brown, of Picton, for the Port Hope charge.

A letter of protest has been received by the Bay of Quinte Conference from Port Hope, signed by the majority of the Official Board. "We have called Mr. Baird, and it is Mr. Baird we want," they declare.

On the other hand, Rev. Dr. Brown—an excellent speaker and highly esteemed minister—has already been five years at Picton, and must be moved elsewhere.

Lively Topic To-day.

"I am in the hands of a committee," stated Mr. Baird. "I am here to do the Lord's work, no matter where the field."

To-day the final draft of stations will be made, and members are anticipating a lively discussion over the Port Hope charge.

The names of Rev. A. M. Irwin, of Oshawa, Rev. F. E. Malott, of Peterborough, and Rev. J. F. I. Wilson, of Cobourg, were added to those of delegates to the General Conference. Though there will be six lady delegates to the next conference, including Mrs. Nellie McClung, no ladies are being sent from the Bay of Quinte Conference.

The Conference heartily disapproved of the move to place the transferring of ministers from one conference to another, into the hands of a central committee, of which the presidents of conferences could not be members.

SAY CAMERON LAKE HAS A SEA SERPENT.

Unusual Looking Creature Seen in Water.

Fenelon Falls Gazette: Some days ago a reputable citizen reported that he had seen what appeared like the head and back fin of an unusual looking creature, moving at a rapid rate across Cameron Lake. It was going toward Mudcat Bay and disappeared around the point. A couple of other residents have since made similar reports, and there is evidently some sort of a sea serpent making its home in the lake. As far as can be ascertained it is sixteen to eighteen feet in length and was travelling at the rate of about 10 miles an hour, apparently on low, but could probably do two or three times that on high without any trouble.

BIG REWARD OFFERED.

BERLIN, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—The prefect of police yesterday raised the offer of reward for the capture of Dr. Walter Rathenau's assassin to 1,000,000 marks.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS MURDERED FIELD MARSHAL

Pomp and Ceremony Incident to the Burial of the Soldier Dead Will be Carried Out at St. Paul's Cathedral.

LONDON, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — The funeral cortege of Field Marshal Wilson will proceed from his residence to St. Paul's Cathedral this morning, attended by a large military escort. The pall-bearers who will walk beside the gun carriage bearing the coffin will be Field Marshall Crenfell, Methuen, French of Ypres, Haig and Robertson, Admiral Beatty, the Air Chief, Marshal Trenchard, Generals Gatliff of the Marines, Willcocks, Monro and Macready, and Lieut-General Cobbs.

The dead soldier's charger will follow the coffin. Then will come seven officers bearing his insignia, and a large procession including many officers, representatives from various regiments members of the army council, the Admiralty and the Air Council. A delegation from the Ulster Constabulory, numbering 50 men, came from Belfast last night to participate in the ceremonies.

Four massed bands will lead the procession and the Irish Guards band will play in St. Paul's. There is an enormous demand for tickets to the Cathedral.

The War Office last night received a message saying that Marshal Foch is coming to London for the funeral. He will have a place in the procession after the representatives of the Royal Family.

The inquest also will be held today and it is expected to last about an hour. Lady Wilson probably will not attend as the time of the funeral almost coincides with that of the inquest.

Dr. Spilsbury of the Home Office will attend the inquest. He made a post mortem examination on Saturday and is believed to have extracted a bullet which will be produced as an exhibit at the inquest.

The coroner's jury will view the body at nine o'clock this morning. Neither Connolly or O'Brien, the men who did the shooting, expressed any desire to be present at the inquest.

BELFAST, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — Ulster will pay homage to the memory of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson at a solemn service which will be held in the Cathedral of St. Anne this morning at precisely the same hour as the funeral services in St. Paul's in London.

Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, with his entire Cabinet, and members of both Houses of the Northern Parliament, as well as representatives of the Belfast municipality and all public bodies, will attend. Eulogies will be delivered by the Bishop of the Diocese of Down and Connor, and the Moderator of the general assembly.

FLOOD IN ST. JOHN RIVER IS RECEDING

Much Damage is Done to Crops of New Brunswick Farmers By High Water

FREDERICTON, N.B., June 26. —(Canadian Press.)—The water in the St. John river here commenced to recede following the passing of the great fresh flood, which rose to a height of nineteen feet for the above the summer level, according to measurements recorded on the piers of the highway bridge which crosses the river here.

The damage which has been sustained by farmers in this vicinity has been enormous, and Harvey Mitchell, deputy minister of agriculture said yesterday that it would be impossible to estimate the loss which will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars in this vicinity and throughout the province.

The heaviest losses have been sustained by the farmers of Sunbury county about Lincoln, Sheffield and Maugersville, where low lying districts have been completely covered by the flood.

WIFE FOUND GUILTY OF NON-SUPPORT.

AMHERST, N.S., June 26.—(Canadian Press.)—Mrs. Calvin Atkinson who was found guilty of failing to provide the necessaries of life for her husband, Calvin Atkinson, who died at Fort Lawrence last January in a loathsome state, was sentenced Saturday to pay a fine of $200 by Judge Russell. Mrs. Atkinson, who had been acquitted on the charge of manslaughter, when asked if she had anything to say before judgment was passed, remarked that she was not guiltyy.

WONDERFUL THE WAY IT HELPED HER

So Writes Mrs. Lemery Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brockville, Ontario. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and female disorders. I was so weak at times that I could not stand up. I had been this way for nearly three years and the different medicines I had taken had not done me any good. I found one of your little books in my door one day and thought I would give it a trial. I am now on my fifth bottle and it is wonderful the way it has helped me. I am feeling much better, have no weak spells and can do all my work now. I am recommending your Vegetable Compound to all I know and you can use my testimonial to help other women."—Mrs. Casey Lemery, 176 Abbott St., Brockville, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments, and has a record of nearly fifty years behind it.

ELECTION CASE IS AIRED IN COMMONS

P. F. Casgrain Says Payment of Salary to Alfred Belley is "Nothing Less Than Robbery."

OTTAWA, June 26. —(Canadian Press.) —The last federal election was aired in the Commons for a few minutes Saturday when P. F. Casgrain, Liberal member for Charlevoix, Montmorency, moved to strike out an item in the supplementary estimates providing for a salary payment of $696.24 to Alfred Belley for the period during which he served as private secretary to Hon. L. G. Belley, postmaster general in the Meighen administration.

"Alfred," said Mr. Casgrain, "is Mr. Belley's son and nothing more was done by him but to conduct the campaign for his father in the constituency which I have the honor to represent." The payment, Mr. Casgrain declared, was creating a bad precedent and was "nothing less than robbery."

Hon. Charles Murphy, postmaster-general, said that officials of his department had informed him that the money was due and that the item had been included in the supplementary estimates in the ordinary way.

The deputy speaker ruled the amended out of order, but on Mr. Casgrain insisting on a vote on the item itself the estimates were sustained by a majority of 24, the call standing 67 for and 43 against.

ESSEX SUCCESS MAKES POPULAR COACH BODY TYPE.

Motor Boat and Airplane Body Builders Capitalizing on Same Name.

The great popularity of the coach type of automobile body has led to the adoption of the name by builders of airplane and motor boat bodies as well. Airplane and motor boat bodies bearing this name are beginning to make their appearance on the Pacific coast, where trials have shown that they are proving as feasible as their builders predicted.

Essex motors pioneered in this type of body. It first introduced its coach model in November, 1921. The instantaneous success of this type—it far surpassed anything its designers had contemplated—led the Hudson Motor Company, its parent concern, to adopt it soon after as one of its standard models. The Hudson and Essex coaches have been heavy selling models right from the start and this demand has remained constant right up to the present day according to Mr. Moore of the Moore garage, the local Hudson-Essex deal and can be expected to become an even greater proportion of the companies' total business during the fall and winter seasons, he predicts.

"There is a roadability in this type of construction," says Mr. Moore, "that is not enjoyed in the heavier closed cars, which together with the unusually attractive prices at which they are being offered, insures their continued popularity with the public."

OUTRAGE UPON DECENCY.

BELFAST, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—Eamon de Valera's statement regarding the assassination of Field Marshal Wilson is characterized as "an outrage upon decency and foreign to the instincts of both British and Irish chivalry" in a reply issued by the Ulster Association.

LITTLE GIRL MAY LOSE BOTH FEET

WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 26.—(Canadian Press).—A distressing accident took place on the farm of Ernest Chambers, East Oxford, Saturday afternoon when the three-year-old daughter of Mr. Chambers had both feet almost cut off. Mr. Chambers was harvesting his hay crop, and going through the field in which the hay stood extra high he failed to notice his daughter, and before he had a chance to stop the knives of his mower they had cut her down. Dr. Krupp of this city was notified and after giving first aid rushed the child to the Brantford Hospital. The attending surgeons there sewed up both feet in an effort to save them. Today Dr. Krupp stated that chances of saving at least one foot were fair.

WHISKAWAY AGAIN DEFEATS MORVICH

Morvich Takes Third Place in Latonia Special — Second Defeat of His Life.

LATONIA, Ky., June 26.—(Canadian Press.)— Whiskaway, Harry Payne Whitney's great colt, which a week ago gave Morvich the only defeat of his racing career, repeated that triumph Saturday when he swept past the wire winner of the $50,000 special Latonia race for three years old.

The chestnut son of Whiskbroom II. defeated the best field the nation could send against him in what probably was the greatest race for three year olds in a decade.

Thibodeaux, a rank outsider in the batting, and a Kentucky bred horse, finished second in a driving finish with Whiskaway, crossing the the wire half a length behind the winner.

Morvich was third, ten lengths behind Whiskaway. Pillory was fourth and Deadlock was fifth.

The mile and a quarter was run 2:02 4-5, which is within one fifth of a second of the track record.

There was no question of the relative racing ability of Whiskaway over Morvich yesterday. Morvich was decisively beaten, struggling with a tired, weary stride at the finish. In establishing his claim as America's greatest three year old of the year, Whiskaway showed a staying power and stamina which promises greater things in future events of the season.

THE PREMIER SAYS DR. RATHENAU AN ABLE MINISTER

GOOD-WILL NEEDED.

LONDON, June 26.—(Canadian Press).—At an address at the Welsh chapel yesterday David Lloyd George, the Prime Minister, said Dr. Walter Ratheanau was one of the most able ministers in Europe. He was going his best to restore good relations between his country and the other nations Germany had wronged.

"He was doing his best," said the Premier, "and that is why he was murdered. I can only express the deepest horror at the outrage, and I trust Germany will not suffer for the wrongs these people have inflicted upon their country by the dastardly outrage upon one of the their most distinguished citizens."

Speaking on the general question, the Premier argued the necessity to get a temper for peace among the nations. He said that unless the nations could be prevailed upon to turn their faces against war it would be useless to bring them into the League of Nations, for that would only help them to intrigue for war positions.

"But," he added, "we want the whole world there, including Germany, the United States and Russia, when good-will will be established among men."

STRIKE IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 26.—(Canadian Press)—The General Federation of Trades Unions at a meeting in Leipzic yesterday proclaimed a 24 hour strike throughout Germany next Tuesday with the purpose of manifesting the determination of labor to combat reaction.

TRAIN LEFT TRACK

WESTPORT, N. Y., June 26.—(Canadian Press).—Passengers were shaken up but none seriously injured when the tender and five coaches of the Delaware and Hudson local, north of Rouse's Point, left the tracks three miles south of here about one o'clock Saturday. Six hundred feet of track was ripped up.

INFANT KILLED.

BELFAST, June 26.—(Canadian Press.)— A four months old child, in its mother's arms in a room here yesterday, was killed by a sniper's bullet. An eighteen year old girl was wounded while walking along a roadway. Her condition is grave.

DECORATION DAY.

To the Oddfellows of the city, Peterborough people are indebted for the beautiful custom of an annual decoration of the graves of the dear ones who have passed on. The brethren of the Triple Links have for many years carried out their impressive ceremony of placing flowers upon the last resting place of brothers who have joined the great majority, and more and more have the citizens generally joined in the observance of the occasion by a pilgrimage to the graves of relatives and friends, until now each Decoration Day sees flowers placed everywhere through the beautiful cemetery, eloquent tokens that the memery of loved ones is still green in the hearts of those left behind. It is well that each year there should be such a ceremony and an opportunity given to commemorate the memory of departed friends, and the Oddfellows earn public gratitude for their part in bringing about an annual Decoration Day. Particularly happy too is their selection of the month of June as the best time for the ceremony, when Nature provides her choicest blooms to adorn the graves.

A DOMINION DAY SUGGESTION.

On Saturday Canada celebrates her birthday, and if the weather is fine there will be hundreds of ball games and lacrosse matches and picnics. A happy outdoor holiday—but nothing to indicate the significance of the occasion. To the majority of Canadians, Dominion Day means nothing more than a day off from work because there is usually no attempt to impress upon them why the First of July is a significant anniversary in Canada's history. Could we not in Peterborough do something this Dominion Day to show that we are proud of being Canadians? Why not a band concert in Victoria Park on Saturday evening, with some patriotic music, some community singing of national airs and a short address or two by local speakers upon Dominion Day and what it stands for? There is nothing elaborate in that programme, yet it would serve to prevent the passing of Canada's birthday without some recognition of its importance. No doubt a number of the city's vocalists would be glad to lend their services to such a movement, and a concert could be provided that would not only be stimulating and educative, but that would provide wholesome enjoyment for many of our citizens who otherwise might find the national holiday a somewhat colorless affair. At the same time it would be blazing the trail for a more elaborate Dominion Day celebration in other years.

EXPLAINING A MASSACRE.

The President of the Illinois Mine Workers attempts to throw the blame for the massacre of last week upon the Illinois Coal Company. The action of that company in attempting to operate their mines upon a non-union basis, with strike-breakers under the protection of armed guards, was responsible for the trouble, he declares, but however heinous the offence of employing strike-breakers may appear to the eyes of organized labor, it is difficult to believe that the union men of Canada, or of the United States either, will agree that death should be the penalty for men who are tempted by high wages to help break a strike. The Illinois outrage cannot be justified by such explanations. It was deliberate murder in cold blood, and the men who were responsible for it should be hunted down and punished like the assassins they are, otherwise the law will have passed from the control of the State into the hands of the United Mine Workers. Organized labor everywhere will lose ground if the various unions do not repudiate the massacre and demand the punishment of the ringleaders. Human life is more important than unionism, and it would be better that every labor rule in existence were broken than that defenceless men, whose only crime was to want to work, should be shot down like dogs. The Illinois affair has shocked the whole continent, and everywhere people are waiting to see what action the authorities propose to take. British justice would have acted long ago in such a case—if it were possible that a crime of this kind could be committed by Britishers.

ONE OF THE LITTLE GREATS.

The passing of Take Jonescu will not attract the attention to-day it would have done a few years ago, when the brilliant Roumanian statesman was one of the key figures of the Balkan situation, says the Detroit News. Latter years have seen his fame diminishing as Roumania moved away from the limelight of pivotal events.

Jonescu brought Roumania into the Great War on the Allied side. His purpose was frankly nationalistic, since he admitted that a great German victory might have given Roumania pause. But, lacking that victory, he chose the Allies as the medium for realizing Roumania's national inspirations, and his heart was with their cause. He was essentially Roumania's Venizelos, well-informed, daring, clever, a statesman-adventurer whose diplomacy was that of the library-table. In those days no foreign statesman was so courted by the Allies as Jonescu. Even now one recalls the tense interest with which the world watched the small Balkan states deliberating on their choice of sides in the struggle.

That was Jonescu's great day, even as it was Roumania's great day. Greece became the great bone of contention, and Venizelos the centre of interest. Now it is the states formed from the Hapsburg Empire — which Jonescu combated so strenuously — which rivet attention, and the man is Edouard Benes, brilliant young forward-looking Premier of Czecho-Slovakia. Always some one among these peoples demands the anxious scrutiny of Europe, and always the cycle revolves, and with the revolution the leaders pass from fame to something like obscurity. Denied the repute of a Lloyd George, a Clemenceau, a Wilson, they are great chiefly in their national patriotism and as national heroes rather than world leaders history records them.

Yet Jonescu, like Venizelos and Benes, was a great Liberal; it is difficult to estimate how much such timely leadership has contributed to the direction of the world's purpose and progress.

CAMPS FOR MOTORISTS.

In motoring from Oshawa to Peterborough on Saturday three different camping parties of tourists in automobiles were noticed en route to the Kawartha Lakes district, and doubtless others are arriving daily. The majority of these visitors pass through Peterborough, for this city is the gateway to the lake district. The question naturally arises, is Peterborough as a city doing what should be done to give tourists a favorable impression of this community to make them speak favorably of us when they return to their homes and to encourage them to come back again another season? Why not provide a free camp site for the visitors who come to us in motor cars, a place where they could camp for a night or two, and where their property would be safe? In some United States cities elaborate camps of that kind are established for the free use of motorists, camps provided with city water, electric lights and other conveniences. We would not need to go into the thing so deeply as that, but at least a camp grounds could be provided and signs could be erected at the outskirts of the city, inviting tourists to partake of our hospitality and directing them to he site of the motorists' camp. As motor traffic steadily grows and the fame of the Kawartha Lakes becomes greater, the influx of automobile campers will be correspondingly increased, and Peterborough should be ready for them. The business community would benefit as a result, and the city generally would be advertised as a modern centre, whose people were progressive and hospitable. At least the plan appeals to The Examiner as one worthy of consideration by our civic authorities.

FARMING WITH BRAINS.

This year colleges in forty-five states are giving courses in agricultural economics and allied subjects, including marketing co-operation, farm management and commercial geography, says The Wall St. Journal. The meaning of this is that a revolution, bloodless but of far-reaching effect, is now under way in the United States.

Education is working an agricultural revolution that is bound to add enormously to the prosperity of this country. The Department of Agriculture at Washington has been the starting point. Its scientific and research work has added untold millions, and perhaps billions, to our agricultural wealth. Texas fever cost cattle raisers over $100,000,000 a year until a scientist in that department, located the cause. Incidently, this discovery led to the arrest, conviction and execution of the malarial and yellow fever-carrying mosquito. Hog cholera cost many millions more until a serum was made to prevent it. The introduction of the navel orange, durum wheat, Egyptian cotton and many improved grains, grasses and fruits by this department has been of almost priceless service.

Through pig, calf and corn clubs tens of thousands of farm boys have been reached and taught scientific farming and livestock breeding. They are flocking now to the agricultural colleges where, in addition to other things, they will learn about the soil, how through it to feed the plants and secure the greatest production possible. They will learn how to care for livestock and breed and develop profitable animals. So important is this work that a party of boys from one of the colleges is now on the way to England to study some of the leading herds of cattle. Larger crops and larger livestock returns are to be expected from such instruction.

One great evil today is tha the farmer gets too small a percentage of what the consumer pays for his products. There is great need for improvement here, and there is bound to be a change for the better when a large percentage of the farms is directed by men who farm from the neck up. The country will receive much benefit from this because it prospers most when the farmers prosper. The only ones to suffer will be the political agitators who find discontent the most fertile soil for their work. But the country as a whole, will rejoice to see the agricultural revolution grow and spread from sea to sea.

PIONEER HISTORY.

As time advances, and year after year add the records of their life and activities to the history of our communities and to the larger life and development of our country, the value of accurately detailed historical fact and knowledge is brought very forcibly to our attention from time to time.

The town of Oshawa has a history of much interest and great value. The county of Ontario has a long and splendid history behind it.

How many people living in Oshawa are fully conversant with the early founding, subsequent growth and development of this town?

Who can name the first white citizen of Oshawa? tell where he came from the how and what happened to him? Who can name the first industry established in this community and give any kind of a connected history of its development?

There are a thousand or more important questions that can be asked regarding the discovery, early settlement, early life, customs, occupations, etc., of our community and its citizens, all of which possess not only great personal interest but are of great educational value and must of necessity have an important and lasting bearing upon the whole social life of the community.

It is not within the power of any one person to give a thoroughly comprehensive and complete history of this or any other community, but nearly everybody can contribute something.

It is up to us as citizens to provide our boys and girls and those who come to associate themselves in the upbuilding and well-being of this community an accurate record of its life history from the earliest times.

Oshawa should have an Historical Society which would take a lively interest in the history of Oshawa, present and past.

Such an organization could render this community untold and permanent advantage in that it would become a central gathering force, getting the early facts and historical data and putting them in a form that will be ever at the hand or command of all future generations.

In connection with our Public Library there could be a museum for the care and display of objects, relics, pictures, manuscrips, etc., that would perpetually picture to our citizens the various stages in the hostorical development of this community.

There is so much that could be said and done along this line, but we pause to see or hear what some of our thoughtful and interested citizens will do or say along this line.

"Now few are left to tell the tale
Of backwoods life in the first decade,
For one by one till all were gone,
The ranks grew thin of the first brigade
The brave old settlers bent and sore,
Folding forever their big brown hands,
They were but clay and passed away
Like gems that fall in the sinking sand."

IN MILLBROOK AND DISTRICT

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Widdis, Cavan, Celebrate Golden Wedding. Special U.F.O. Service.

MILLBROOK, June 26. — The special U.F.O. service held at Wallace's Point on Sunday, June 25th, had about 1000 people in attendance. Rev. Mr. McConnachie explained in opening the service that the intention had been to have clergymen of all denominations on the platform, but owing to the fact that the Methodist Conference was now in session and for other reasons, those invited were unable to be present. The hymns chosen were common to all hymn books and included "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "How Sweet the Name of Jesus' Sounds," "What a Friend we have in Jesus," "Blest be the Tie that Binds," and "Onward Christian Soldiers," Mrs. O. B. Johnston, of Centreville, presiding at the organ, while her husband and her son, Mr. Wilford Johnston, both gave able assistance with their violins. A choir of about twenty voices were also upon the platform and were a great help in leading the singing throughout the service.

Part of the Sermon on the Mount from Matt. 6:24-34, was read by Mr. McConnachie, who also led in the opening prayer, after which Mr. H. B. Cowan, of Peterboro, editor of Farm and Dairy, made a brief address basing his remarks chiefly on the parable of the talents. In his opening sentences Mr. Cowan made reference to the amazing progress made by the Farmers Movement in the last 12 years and the reason being inquired after he believed it was to be found in the fact that Christian leaders were at its head and that behind it there is a great bed rock of Christian principles. He instanced an interview with Mr. Drury soon after his election, and also a personal experience with Mr. Crerar, which showed that these men value the fact that their supporters do not neglect prayer on their behalf.

Three points he emphasized, viz., not to enter the party, as some have undoubtedly done, simply for selfish gain but to put the country's interests first, not to have "too big an opinion of ourselves or of the movement," and to be charitable in judgment, "willing to suffer wrong if need be," since jealousy, fault finding and back-biting weaken the cause all over the country as the speaker said he knew from personal observation, and are the chief reasons for the collapse of many farmers' clubs and women's organizations as well.

Rev. Mr. McConnachie made the concluding address, expressing his pleasure in an open air service and instancing the fact that Jesus was an outdoor preacher on most occasions. His text was taken from nature, — "Consider the lilies," and "A sower went forth to sow," and his message referred to the cultivation of the soil in the garden of the mind, the heart and the soul. Just as the cultivation of the soil in nature is no child's play and there are different kinds of land wherein to plant the seed and many varieties of seed for the planting, so the ploughshare of repentance must go deep in the inward nature if there is to be a gracious harvest. What manner of seed shall be sown in the heart soil? A farmer who would sow weeds in cultivated land would be called a maniac; how foolish then the man who deliberately "sows to the flesh," because not only in eternity, but here and now he must inevitably reap the bitter harvest. There is no time for experimenting since we have but one life to live and "God has made the heart so big that only He Himself can satisfy it." Ours is the sowing but growing is the hand of God, and love, kindness, charity and brotherhood are the things most conducive to a deep, productive and happy life. After the concluding hymn the benediction pronounced by Mr. McConnachie, brought the service to a close.

Golden Wedding

About 150 friends relatives, and neighbors, from Cavan, Manvers, and other points gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Widdis, 5th Line, Cavan, on Thursday, June 22nd, at 8 p.m. to celebrate with them their golden wedding anniversary. The weather being ideal, the gathering was held on the lawn, Mr F. W. Fallis making a tactful and capable chairman. On behalf of those present, and others also who were unable to be in attendance, a purse containing $130 in gold was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Widdis. Mr. Lavergne Fallis reading the following address, and little May Ferrin, a grand-daughter making the presentation.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Widdis,

On this, the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding day, your friends and neighbours have here assembled to join with you in the celebration.

We heartily congratulate you upon your completion of a half-century of happy wedded life. You have lived all these years in our neighbourhood, and on many occasions we have enjoyed your kind, whole-hearted hospitality, while in trouble you have always played the part of the Good Samaritan, ever ready to lend a helping hand.

John Bright, one of the greatest of English statesmen, has said: "The nation, in every country, dwells in the cottage." In the humble paths of our rural life, you have always contributed, in the fullest degree, to the welfare of the needy and of those in distress. Your door was always open to the hungry orphan and the wayfarer, and none ever left it hungry. So our assembly here this evening comes of a spontaneous desire to show in some tangible form our appreciation for the favours of the past, and to pay our tribute of honour to you on this, your Golden Wedding Day.

We ask you to accept this purse of gold, and we wish you many more returns of the anniversary of your happy union of fifty years ago. In this, the evening of your life, we pray that God may ever be with you, and that your remaining years may be brighter, happier, calmer, and more peaceful, than those of the past; and that you may ever hold steadfast to the faith, that when your days on this earth are over you may enter into the reward of your labours in the Kingdom yet to come.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours—

Mrs. Arthur Fallis.
Mrs. Fred Fallis.
Mrs. Hiram Fallis.
Lavergne Fallis.
Leonard Henderson.

Ex-Warden Joseph Hickson of Janetville, whose wife is a niece of Mrs. Widdis, replied very appropriately on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Widdis, who, on account of advancing years, and the surprise of the occasion, were unable to express for themselves their appreciation of the kind thoughtfulness which prompted the gift, and its accompanying words of felicitation and neighbourly good wishes.

Others making brief addresses were ex-Warden A. J. Henderson, Rev. C. R. Spencer, Mr. A. J. Fallis, and Mr. W. H. Wood, those assisting with the musical port of the programme were Mr. Croker and Mr. Porter, whose selections with violin and auto-harp were much enjoyed.

Refreshments were served, and a very delightful social hour spent before the gathering dispersed.

Friendly Game.

The Millbrook Juniors played a friendly game of ball with the Omemee Boys' Club on Saturday afternoon, at the Agricultural Park, the score being the rather uneven one of 15-8 in favour of the home team. The following was the line-up:

In a like manner, manufacturers, who stand back of their wares, identify them with trade-marks that are your guarantee of quality. By advertising these trade-marks, they focus on their products the the searchlight of attention.

Only good goods, fairly priced, can flourish in this light of publicity. For no merchandise and no business can thrive under the weight of public condemnation.

That is why a manufacturer, or a merchant, places the whole reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. His goods must be advertised.

DOMINION DAY AT WARKWORTH

Premier Drury Will Formally Open the New Memorial Building.

One of the big events on Dominion Day in the Trent district will be at Warkworth, where a war memorial community hall will be opened with fitting ceremonies and display. The celebration of the holiday is being held on Saturday, the day itself. Premier Drury has promised to be present for the opening ceremonies and will be accompanied by the speaker of the legislature, Mr. Nelson Parliament. The whole afternoon and evening will be given up to the long and interesting programme which will be launched by the Premier at 1 p.m. Addresses will also be given in the rink at the Exhibition grounds, where the games will be held. Two ball games will be the sporting feature, the Cobourg Malting factory team playing Warkworth's G.A.U.V. nine, and Warkworth's inter-county league team playing Hastings. The Cobourg Kilties band has been engaged for the afternoon, and for the evening a fine concert has been arranged. The people of Warkworth have the reputation of doing things exceptionally well, and on the holiday they are looking forward to a big attendance from the whole district.

THE ANNUAL PICNIC OF APSLEY CHURCH.

Unfavorable Weather Marred the Proceedings—A Good Program

APSLEY, June 26.—Unfavorable weather somewhat marred the financial success of the annual picnic of St. George's Church on Wednesday last, which this year was held under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A., but otherwise the function proved a very pleasurable event.

The rain which threatened all day held off until supper was served and then came down in earnest, curtailing some of the sports, including the tennis tournament, which had been anticipated with keen interest by participants. The picnic was well attended, nearly all the nearby residents being present, while Chandos and Lasswade were also well represented. The chief event was the mile race for the championship of the two townships, which was won easily by Vernal Windsor, who has held the title for two years. Five participated, namely, Vernal Windsor, Stanley Windsor, Alf. Mitchell, Geo. Kilborne and Herbert Lean. Four finished, Mitchell falling out before the half mile was reached. No attempt was made to lower last year's record of 4¼ minutes, the winner being so far ahead in the last quarter of a mile that he dropped into a walk to allow the others to creep up, then spurting to the winning post, finishing in 5 minutes and 40 seconds, with Stanley Windsor second five seconds later and Herbert Lean five seconds behind him, closely followed by George Kilborne.

Coe Hill was expected to send a team to play football, but scratched, so a match was arranged between married and single, resulting in a win for the latter, 2 to 0, after a hard bought game, the married men playing only ten men.

The tug-of-war between married and single ladies resulted in an easy victory for the former twice over, while the same event between the men after a strenuous and long contested feat of strength gave the married men a well deserved win.

Other results were:

200 yards flat (dead heat)—Alf. Mitchell and Rex Spence.

100 yards (women)—1st, Alma Jones; 2nd, Mrs. Dave Coones.

Egg and spoon—1st, Marjorie Spence and Myrtle Windsor; 2nd, Mrs. Will. Lean.

In the evening a three-act comedy, entitled "Daddy," was performed before a good sized audience in the parish room and was enthusiastically received, those taking part being Messrs. Spence, Roy Brown, Frank Tanner, Herbert Lean, Misses Marjorie and Phyllis Spence, Mildred Hales and Alma Jones.

A dance brought the day's enjoyment to a close.

The committees in charge of the picnic desire to thank most cordially all those who kindly contributed to the success, both by their presence and contributions in providing the eatables, of which there was an ample supply.

The threatening weather doubtless prevented the attendance of an expected party from Lakefield and other points, the only outside visitors being Mr. and Mrs. Bachelor who motored from Peterborough.

HASTINGS W.M.S. REGULAR MEETING.

Business Transacted and Social Hour Spent.

HASTINGS, June 26. — The W. M. S. of the Methodist Church held their regular meeting on Friday, the 23rd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Oliver. They were joined by the girls of the Mission Circle, and a large number was in attendance. The programme consisted mainly of the report of the recent branch meeting held in Belleville, given by the delegate, Mrs. E. Beavis. At the close of the meeting the hostess served refreshments, and a social half-hour was enjoyed.

"Use the Bell to Sell"

How they build up Small-town dealers

A VERY successful movement that is spreading in Canada is the building up of small-town dealers by encouraging them to buy well-advertised goods—perhaps only a small trial order—and re-order by Long Distance.

One dealer sold last year $650,000 worth of merchandise in a town of 5140 people. He says "85% of our trade is with farmers who know nationally advertised goods and buy the best. Several hundred of our best customers live 50 miles away." Thanks to Long Distance and the automobile the farm is no longer isolated.

Another dealer, located in a town of 2640 population, sold $970,348 last year, 75% of it to farmers. "We must now carry nationally advertised goods" he says, "to hold the farmer's trade, as he has a telephone, an automobile, and reads the papers."

Some progressive concerns have adopted the permanent policy of crediting dealers' accounts with the cost of telephoning orders by Long Distance. The telephone line is the line of least resistance, and they encourage its use because it stimulates trade.

Jobbers and manufacturers who foster small-town trade by encouraging dealers to order and re-order by Long Distance, find these small stores grow rapidly and become virtually branches—it makes it so easy for them to get the right goods promptly.

TWO ARE CHARGED WITH THE MURDER

LONDON, June 26. —(Canadian Press.)—A verdict of wilful murder against James Connolly and James O'Brien was returned this afternoon by the coroner's jury at an inquest into the killing of Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, assassinated last Thursday. The two men accused, who were arrested after pursuit, immediately after the crime, did not attend to-day's hearing, on advice of counsel.

"Your Baby in Hot Weather"
As Baby Grows Older Keep Watch on His Food

BY MRS. MAX WEST
Late of the United States Children's Bureau.

Although illness of every sort is far more serious to the younger babies, older babies do suffer from serious attacks of diarrhea, especially in summer. For the most part, these result from mistakes in feeding at about the weaning period. As the child begins to eat solid foods, after an exclusive milk diet, mothers are very prone to hasten matters too fast.

They like to have the baby come to the table, and eat what the family has. In this way, a baby often is given foods which are not suited to his digestion, and those which are really harmful to him. Probably some of the frequent sources of digestive upsets in these older children are the summer fruits, either those which are over-ripe or under-ripe.

But whatever the cause, the mother should be on her guard, if the baby begins to fret and show signs of indigestion.

The treatment of a severe case of diarrhea with vomiting and fever should always be directed by a physician if one can be had. In the meantime, castor oil may be given. Give two teaspoonfuls in lemonade or orange juice. Never give an offending medicine in milk, or any common food, lest the child may thus be turned against it.

After the child is well, he should be kept quiet, and be given light foods for some time. It is very easy to induce a second attack of diarrhea in a child who has had one, and even though he demand all sorts of things, the wise mother will stick to milk, broths, thin gruels and the like for at least two weeks after an attack, especially if the weather is hot.

He should have a cool room, and a quiet life and should be kept in bed at least for some days. These illnesses are weakening, and the little patient needs the best possible opportunity to regain his full strength after going through such an ordeal.

Diarrhea can easily be prevented, certainly in very many cases. If every mother would keep a set of rules for proper feeding at hand, using those for each age, and would add to this care, much attention to keeping the baby cool, quiet and supplied with fresh air, day and night, she would have little to fear, even if her baby is artificially fed. For summer food, certified milk is one of her greatest safeguards.

TRUE DETECTIVE STORIES

THE LID OF A PILL BOX

(Copyright 1921, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

"Clues? That's the trouble, Chief—there're too doggone many of 'em! Clues and leads and footprints and motives sprinkled all over the place 'til you can't hardly move without trippin' over 'em."

The detective assigned to the case which grew out of the discovery of the dead body of Herman Parker near Suffern, N.Y., had metaphorically thrown up his hands. On the surface the case looked simple enough. Parker had been found with a bullet in his heart, and the papers which he had been in the habit of carrying in his breast pocket strewn over the ground nearby. Gossips of the village were not at all backward in stating that the dead man had been one of the most unpopular residents of Suffern. He was rich, with a wealth gained principally through the foreclosure of mortgages and, some said, indulgence in practices which hovered dangerously close to the border line of blackmail. What was more probable, therefore, than that one of his victims had met him on the road, demanded his rights and, when refused, had fired the shot which had resulted in instant death?

"That's what I thought when I first tackled the case," continued Conner, the detective, while the man across the desk from him listened intently. "So far, I don't see any reason to change my opinions. But the question is: Which one of 'em did it? In the couple of days I was up there I ran into reasons why at least a dozen people would want Parker out of the way. Some of 'em are women, too."

"Then there's the question of footprints. The shootin' took place on a public road, though there didn't happen to be anybody close by when it occurred. They'd been a light rain just a little while before, and the place was cluttered up with marks left by people as they passed. Out of these I picked eight or ten, and then I got hold of the shoes of some of the persons who had reason to hate Parker. Would you believe me when I say that more than half of those shoes fitted the prints exactly?"

"Can you beat it? Plenty of motives, plenty of foot-prints, plenty of clues and not one of 'em that ain't riddled by a perfect alibi. That's why I came to you, Inspector. I thought you might be able to suggest something that I've overlooked—some way of findin' out just who did shoot the man Parker."

For a few moments Inspector Joseph A. Faurot, head of the New York police and the man who was known the world over as an authority on finger-prints, was silent. Then, having evidently gone over in his mind all the aspects of the case, as Connor had detailed them, he inquired:

"No finger-prints, I suppose?"

"Not one. I knew you were goin' to ask that, so I was extra careful to look for them. There's not only no prints, but no place for 'em to be. S'see Parker was killed at the side of this road"—and the detective roughly outlined the highway on a convenient sheet of paper, sketching in the shrubbery at the side of the road—"and his body was lying in the ditch when they found it. The bullet went right through his heart, so he didn't have a chance to cry out though it wouldn't have done him much good. Nobody was near enough to hear the shot, much less a call for assistance. The old man's watch was still on him, so it evidently wasn't a case of robbery and, as there was nothin' anywhere around, there was no chance for finger-prints—except on the gun itself, and when we find that we'll probably have the man who fired it."

"Parker have any money on him?"

"A little, not much. That's another one of the funny things about this case. Here's a man who's known to be well off, but who only carries a dollar or so in change in his pocket. Whoever struck him up didn't touch that. In fact, I doubt if they went through his trousers pockets at all. Just rifled the breast-pocket of his coat, like they knew what they were after and went right to it."

"Yes," admitted Faurot, "the case does sound interesting. So much so that I think I'll run up to Suffern and look over the ground. Maybe the two of us working together will stumble across something that one of us would overlook."

But when Faurot went over the ground for the first time he had to admit that the presence of so many motives and apparent clues was puzzling, while the absence of any real distinctive clue made the case decidedly more difficult. It was only when he extended the radius of his search that he came across the bit of evidence which finally solved the mystery.

"Connor," he called. "Come here a minute! What's that?" and he pointed to what appeared to be a bit of white paper, lying half concealed in the bushes. "No, don't touch it!" he commanded, as the detective bent forward to pick it up. "Just tell me what it looks like to you."

"It's the top of a pill-box," replied Conner. "Yes—and by heaven, it's got Parker's name on it."

"Precisely. And if I am not mistaken, it's got something else on it—the finger prints of the man who took it out of Parker's pocket and tossed it over here, thinking it was worthless."

"You mean the man who killed him?"

"Just that. The murderer was evidently looking for something, possibly a letter or some kind of a document. He rifled the man's side pockets, found nothing in them but this pill-box, tossed it aside and then examined the breast pocket of his coat. There he discovered what he wanted, took it and disappeared. I'll photograph these prints and then it'll be up to you to find out if they correspond with those of anyone in the village. While you're doing this, I'll get back to New York and go thru the one we have on file at the office."

But before Connor had gotten more than half through his task of securing the prints of the inhabitants of Suffern—a job which called for the exercise of considerable ingenuity and diplomacy—he received a wire from Faurot which closed the case:

"Prints are those of 'Benny the Dip'" read the wire. "We got him and he's come through. Confessed to holding up Parker for the Wallet out of his breast pocket and not bothering about the rest of the papers."

"Well, I'm hanged," muttered Conner. "And all those clues I dug up weren't worth a darn compared to the lid of that dinky little shiny pill-box."

He Will Say

"Fight those film-coats on your teeth"

Leading dentists, nearly all the world over, now urge a new method of teeth cleaning. Millions of people already employ it. You see the results everywhere today, in whiter, cleaner teeth.

This is for those who don't know it as yet. We offer a ten-day test. You will then see the unique results and decide what they mean to you.

The war on film

One great object is to fight the film on teeth. You can feel it now—a viscous film. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. And it forms the basis for dingy, dangerous coats.

Ordinary tooth pastes do not effectively combat it. So millions of teeth brushed daily still discolor and decay.

Film absorbs stains, making white teeth cloudy. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Film constantly breeds germs. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film.

How to fight it daily

Dental science has now found two effective film combatants. Able authorities have proved them by many careful tests.

A new tooth paste has been perfected, to comply with five modern requirements. The name is Pepsodent. These two great film combatants are embodied in it.

Careful people of some forty races now employ it daily, largely by dental advice. You will also do so when you know how much it does.

Brings other effects

Pepsodent brings two other effects which authorities now desire.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits. They gum the teeth, get between the teeth, and often ferment and form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's neutralizer for acids which cause decay.

Thus every use gives multiplied power to these two great tooth-protecting agents in the mouth.

For beauty's sake

Film removal means prettier teeth. Film-coats make teeth dingy. So every lover of glistening teeth should combat that film daily.

The results will delight you and convince you. Present the coupon for the 10-Day Tube. Start its use tonight.

Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. The normal alkaline mouth, following every use, is most refreshing.

See and feel these results for ten days. Then look at your teeth in your mirror. Then you will know what this new method means to you and yours. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

FATHER OF QUINTUPLETS DUBIOUS ABOUT HIS LUCK

Recalls What the Doctor Told Him Five Years Ago When Triplets Came—Dazed Over Problem of Naming as Well as Supporting Them.

NATCHEZ, MISS., June 26.—Five years ago, triplets were born to Mrs. William Prestage of Floyd, a microscopic community near Monroe, West Carroll County, Louisiana, and the doctor, after congratulating Mr Prestage, told him not to be overalarmed.

"Triplets are unusual, Bill," said the doctor. "Chances are that Mrs. Prestage will never repeat the e perience. Most unusual, triplets. Ne[illegible] heard of but two other women wh[illegible]ecame mother of two sets of triplets. You're a darned fortunate man, Bill. M[illegible]h luck to you!"

It is a matter of rec[illegible] that Mr. Prestage received the trip[illegible]s and the congratulations without n[illegible]ceable enthusiasm. He permitted th[illegible]doctor to shake his hand and stood on t[illegible]porch nodding his head slowly to th[illegible] neighbors who stopped to applaud and wish him well. But the hard, cold truth is that no ear-splitting cheers were heard to issue from the throat of Mr. Prestage.

Last week five perfectly formed and outrageously healthy children were born to Mrs. Prestage. Three were boys and two girls. Mr. Prestage was standing on the front porch reflectively stroking his rough chin when the doctor (the same doctor) emerged from the house.

"As I said five years ago, Bill," said the doctor, "triplets are unusual. I knew it wouldn't happen again."

"Doctor," interrupted Mr. Prestage, "has it occurred to you that neither Mrs. Prestage nor me is dead yet?"

Mr. Prestage, who is a farmer in an exceedingly modest way, admits he views life with a certain apprehension. At the moment he is deeply absorbed in two somewhat solid problems. One of them has to do with names for the five babies. The other concerns the maintenance of the new boys and girls. They average two and a half pounds each and the doctor says there is no reason to believe they will not thrive.

Floyd, which until last week had a population of 200, is for making the affair (the local newspapers refer to it as an "incident" but it surely cannot be dismissed that lightly), the occasion for a Greater Floyd Week, but Mr. Prestage refuses to become enthusiastic.

"Curious feature of it is, Bill," said the doctor, "that your children seem to arrive in odd number progression. First there were three; now come five, and—"

"Look here," replied Mr. Prestage, "mywife and I are fond of our offspring and we aim to do our best by them. But it does seem to me you're going pretty far afield to find something peculiar about all this when you have to talk about odd number progression. Personally, I'm for saying no more about it."

So whenever solicitious neighbors ask Mr. Prestage, "How's the family?" and "How's things coming?" Mr. Prestage confines himself to:

"Well, there ain't no use kicking, is there?"

COUNTY TAXES APPROVED AT LAST SESSION

Levies on Peterboro Municipalities Adopted by By-law Saturday Morning—A Salary Cut.

MOTHER'S ALLOWANCE

The concluding act of the County Council at noon Saturday was the pruning of $400 from the salary of Mr. D. McFarlane, county roads superintendent.

In presenting his report W. A. Anderson of Otonabee said that he had introduced a similar proposal in committee on Friday, and he wished to take advantage of the open session of the council to reintroduce it. The deputy reeve of Otonabee moved that Mr. McFarlane be paid $175 a month, $2100 a year, beginning August 1st next. This figured out at $7 a day for 365 days in the year.

"Whatever the council does, I wish to go on record in this way," said Mr. Anderson, who said that many of the ratepayers felt that $2500 a year was too large a salary for this work under the conditions of today.

Reeve Nicholls of Smith, seconded the motion "to get on expression of the council," and remarked that his township had a foreman that had shown Mr. McFarlane some things about road work.

"There are men in all the townships who think they know more than Mr. McFarlane," was Martin Coughlin's comment.

Reeve Darling of Dummer asked whether in the event of a change in the official the Department would require the county to engage a qualified engineer. "You have got to think of what we might have to pay a man of that kind."

Mr. Anderson said that there was nothing to fear in that direction.

"Mr. McFarlane works about 200 days a year," said Mr. Nicholls, "which at $2100 is a little better than $10 a day."

Mr. Coughlin—"I'd rather advise him to spend more time on country roads."

"It seems to me," said Mr. Eason, "that the suburban road commission has been working in closer unison with the superintendent than have the reeves of the townships under the county roads work. I think that is one place in which there can be an improvement."

The County Taxes.

Deputy Reeve Middleton of Smith chairman of the Finance eCommittee, presented a bylaw providing for the levying of $114,996.33 on the municipalities in the county. This amount included $2270 from Otonabee representing a special tax of one mill for work on provincial county roads in the township.

Mother's Allowance

A resolution memorializing the Provincial Government to extend the scope of the Mother's Allowance Act so as to include mothers who may have small funds the possession of which now debars them from the benefits of the Act. Reeve Nicholls of Smith particularized the circumstances of a woman in his township whose husband died leaving her $1000 insurance.

"That money won't keep her very long" said Mr. Nicholls, who felt that this widow deserved some assistance from the supervising commission.

"I don't say that she should receive the full regular allowance" he continued "but it seems to me there should be some provision for such cases. This woman will need that insurance to help pay for the little home she has, but because she had that insurance money the Act says she shall not receive assistance.' Reeve Rye seconded the motion.

Reeves Darling and Nicholls were recommended to the Mothers' Allowance Commission for membership on the Peterboro County Board.

SUDDEN DEATH NEAR RYLESTONE.

John S. Russell Passed Away Sunday Morning.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 26.—The people of Campbellford and Rylestone community were shocked on Sunday morning to learn of the sudden death at his home near Rylestone of Mr. John S. Russell, son of the late Mr. John Russell. The deceased retired in his usual good health, but expired very suddenly during the night. The late Mr. Russell who was about sixty-two years of age is survived by his wife formerly Miss Wilson, also two sisters, Mrs. James Parks of Madoc and Mrs. Blackwell of Strathclair, Manitoba, also by five brothers, William S. and James of town, Thomas of English Line, George near Havelock and Harry of Walkerville. The deceased was a man who had a very wide circle of friends and was known for his sterling worth and integrity.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at the family residence, conducted by Rev. J. J. Black pastor of Rylestone of which church the late Mr. Russell was a faithful member. Interment will be made in the Anglican Cemetery, Twelfth Line. The family have the sympathy of the community in their sudden bereavement.

LEGISLATURE OF MANITOBA ENDS.

WINNIPEG, June 26 (Canadian Press). — The Legislature of Manitoba has been dissolved, and an election will be held on Tuesday, 18th July, in all the constituencies, except The Pas.

A Cabinet Council was held on Saturday night, at which this decision was made and the necessary Ordres-in-Council signed.

DIRIGIBLE SAFE.

HAMPTON, Va., June 26.—(Canadian Press.)—The army dirigible A-4, which left Washington for Langley Field Saturday forenoon, arrived safely at the field late yesterday. Engine trouble delayed her for several hours.

CASH GRAIN.

MONTREAL, June 26.— (Canadian Press.)—An improved demand was shown Saturday in the local cash grain market. There is no new development in the flour situation. The millfeed market was without feature and demand for rolled oats was dull. Prices remain steady for baled hay. The egg market was featureless. The markets for butter and cheese were strong.

STERLING RATES.

MONTREAL, June 26.— (Canadian Press.) — Sterling exchange rates were quoted here Saturday: Sterling demand 4.4591; sterling cables 4.4617.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

CHICAGO, June 26.—(Canadian Press.)—Reports of rain in parts of Nebraska and Iowa caused all grains to suffer a setback at the start of the Board of Trade's short session Saturday. There was general local and commission house selling on the better weather conditions, although it was believed that winter wheat would be little benefitted except in the case of very late grain. At the finish wheat values were unchanged to 3-4c. lower, with July $1.13 1-4 to $1.13 3-8 and September $1.14 5-8 to $1.14 3-4; corn was off half to 3-4c.; oats advanced 1-8 to 1-2c. and provisions were unchanged to 27 1-2c. down.

TWO MINERS SHOT.

DENVER, Colo., June 26.—(Canadian Press).—Two striking miners were shot in an altercation with Colorado rangers at Frederick, Colo., a small town in the heart of the Northern Colorado coal mine region, shortly after 7 o'clock Saturday night, according to a despatch to The Denver Post.

HORSES SHIED FARMER HURT

Scott Fife, of Asphodel, Injured When Raking Hay.

HASTINGS, June 26. — Scott Fife of Asphodel township, living on the Westwood Road, met with a serious accident on Saturday afternoon.

While raking hay the pole dropped and the horses becoming unmanageable, threw Mr. Fife from his seat between the team and the rake.

Fortunately he got control of the team or the result would have been more serious.

His many friends will be pleased to learn that he will be at work again in a few days.

NO CLEW AS YET TO IDENTITY OF THE ASSASSINS

Testimony by Alleged Eye-Witnesses of Slaying of German Minister Rathenau is Conflicting.

BERLIN, June 26.— (Canadian Press.)— Little headway has thus far been made by the police in their efforts to trail the motor car from which Foreign Minister Rathenau's assassins fired the fatal bullets as they sped by his automobile. A score of alleged ey-witnesses to the shooting, or persons who claim to have seen a bluish grey car as it waited in the vicinity of the Foreign Miniser, in Grunewald, have failed to give sufficient tangible evidence to enable the authorities to pick up a clue.

The direction taken by the assassins' car is a matter of conflicting testimony, some of the observers claiming it sped towards Potsdam. Then the car is said to have carried an automobile license shield.

Dr. Rathenau is survived by his aged mother, to whom he was greatly attached, and who was excessively fond of her distinguished son. He frequently gave semi-official receptions at her home in the Tiergarten quarter.

BLANKET OF SNOW COVERED CAPREOL

CAPREOL, June 26.—(Canadian Press.) — The heavy storm that struck Winnipeg Friday, spent itself Saturday night between Jellicoe and Capreol. It struck Jellicoe about four o'clock Saturday afternoon, reaching a velocity of forty miles an hour, bringing in its wake a blanket of snow. One inch of snow has fallen between Jellicoe and Horne Payne, covering the country north and south of the C.N.R. line. Snow shovels, overcoats and mitts were in evidence around Horne Payne last night.

A London policeman has retired with a record of having arrested 100,000 motorists for speeding and other offences.

Base Your Investment on Something Concrete

Central Ontario is underlaid by vast lakes of oil. The existence of great quantities of oil and natural gas on the holdings of Central Ontario Oil Fields, Limited (No Personal Liability), totalling over 7,000 acres in this district, has been conclusively proven. The oil is there; all that is necessary is the equipment with which to mine it.

The market for the oil is assured. Canadian oil refineries are forced to import the great bulk of their crude oil, because of the small development of Canada's huge oil resources. According to the latest forecasts of statisticians the world is rapidly approaching a point at which the demand for oil will greatly exceed the supply, because of the decrease in production of the Mexican fields.

Central Ontario Oil Fields is now drilling its third well at Petrolia, and with the purchase of the necessary equipment will be able to place this field on a basis of profitable production. It is to accomplish this that the present offering of stock is made.

Once the field is producing practically all revenue will be profit, for the Government bounty of 60 cents on each barrel produced should be sufficient to pay the cost of maintenance.

The possibilities of profit are practically unparalleled. Your opportunity to share in this is slipping past, as the limited offering of stock is being rapidly absorbed. Fill in the enclosed application form and mail it at once before it is too late. If the third well now being sunk justifies expectations the price of the shares will be forced up.

OUR RECOMMENDATION

We control and offer for sale 100,000 Shares at $2.00, and Subscriptions will be received in any amounts.

This offering by us is made only after the most careful consideration and investigation. Our decision to offer this investment is based on the belief that this Company will enjoy an unusual degree of prosperity.

The reports of geologists and all other information regarding this Company can be inspected at our Offices, or will be mailed on request.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — Last week's extraordinary movements of Mexican Petroleum were resumed at the opening of today's stock market. The first transaction at 184 1-2 represented a gain over Saturday's final price of 3 1-4 points. In the next half dozen transactions, mainly in 100 share lots, the stock rose steadily to 190, or four points over the year's previous high record.

Mex. Pet. reacted 4 1-4 points from the high of the first half hour, but later bounded forward again to 199. The brief setback in that stock occasioned selling of other oils as well as steels, equipments and motors. On the fresh advance motor equipments and specialties were the most prominent.

Call money opened at 4 per cent. against last week's final quotation of five per cent.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — The opening of the wheat market which varied from 3-8 decline to 1-2 advance with July 1.13 to 1.13 1-4, and Sept. 1.14 3-8 to 1.14 3-4 was followed by a material set back all around.

After opening 1-2 to 1c down July 62 1-4 to 62 1-2 the corn market continued to descend.

Oats started 1-8 to 7-8 off July 37 to 37 1-2 and later underwent a further sag.

Provisions were weak in line with hog values.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — The activity on stock exchange this morning was principally concerned with the steel and iron shares, British Empire Steel Corporation and Steel of Canada being traded in to a large extent. British Empire second preferred sold up to 32 and Steel of Canada to 74. During the last few minutes of trading there was a flurry in Abitibi which sold around 49 and 50 1-2.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET

TORONTO, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — This morning's session of the local stock exchange was dull and most interesting of recent weeks Trading cropped to very small proportions with Brazilian and C. P. R. leading this morning with sales of 125 shares each. Steamship Pfd, 1 1-2 higher at 52; General Electric 2 points higher at 78 and Twin City 1 1-2 higher at 54. Sales in these stocks were of odd lot variety however.

TORONTO CATTLE MARKET.

TORONTO, June 26. (Canadian Press.) — Cattle market receipts were 4076; trade was steady. Quotations: Heavy beef steers $8.50 to $9.25. Butcher steers, choice, $8 to $8.75; butcher cows, medium, $3.50 to 4.5$0; calves $9 to $10.50; lambs, $14.75 to $15.50; hogs selects, $14.25

ROTARY GAP — A spark gap consisting of a wheel with projecting points or knobs and a stationary electrode on each side. The spark jumps from one stationary electrode to one of the moving points of the wheel, crosses the wheel, jumps to the other electrode and out. The wheel's speed determines the number of sparks per second, or its frequency.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

The modern feminist should be happy in the Ladrones. Every wife there is the head and absolute dictator of the house.

The husband can dispose of nothing without her consent. If she disapproves of his conduct she wreaks vengeance upon him or abandons him.

In the latter course she is entitled to all the property and the children without quibbling or legal action.

BEACH PUMP.

A smart beach pump is of black satin, cut on the popular sandal line. It has rubber soles and a low comfortable heel, and is equally at home on land or sea.

THREE-PIECE SUIT

The fashionable three-piece suits are being shown for school girls as well as their mothers, and are even worn by extremely young women of 6 or 8.

In the sketch is shown a costume of ratine—probably the most popular of the summer materials. It has a dress, a cape and a jaunty tam.

Other similar suits are made with capes, hats or tams and a skirt worn with hand-made blouses.

The materials used range from tweed and jersey to linen and pongee, according to the height of the mercury.

Neurasthenic Nuisances.

According to the very best dulging to excess in something which to a regular human being would be classed as a simple and normal pleasure—if you see what I mean.

Consequently it makes him perfectly miserable to see other folks enjoying in moderation what, as practiced by him, would amount to a vice.

In order to remove all temptation from his own path, and at the same time keep other people from being happy when he can't, he agitates for laws forbidding said simple pleasure as a pernicious vice. And there you are. Rather neat, what?

Now that we have the low-down on the reformer, and it is certainly low, the A. F. League is confident the public no longer will sit back and let the censors tell them they can't design their own hair cuts, look on wine or meat when it's red, or play ball or golf on Sunday.

Madam, You Plead Guilty?

BASIL KING (INSET) AND HIS VIEW OF THE PREDICAMENT OF THE PRESENT-DAY AMERICAN MAN.

By MARIAN HALE.

"The American man today is a supine creature who bows resignedly beneath the censorious dictates of any self-righteous person able to impose his intolerant standards upon him."

Note the quotation marks. They indicate that the sentiments did not originate with me.

These are the words of Basil King, author, clergyman, humanitarian and student of psychic phenomena.

For the last 15 years, after a devastating illness which ruined his sight, he has devoted his life to literature, where he has been an uplifting and respected force. His most recent book is "The Conquest of Fear."

* * *

And what do you suppose has made man that "supine creature?" —prepare for the worst. Let Basil King continue:

"The WOMEN are more than half responsible for this condition. Between censors and dominant women American men are becoming more and more spiritless. Women, with their enthusiasm for running things are making the men a race of non-resistants."

All of this came out when the simple question that everyone passes around, "What's the matter with America?" was put to the novelist.

He continued: "Americans are always trying to live up to standards imposed by intolerant, self-righteous people, who confound ethics with tradition, and right with custom.

"It is really appalling to see how in the United States we acquiesce to moralists, no matter how much our personal liberty is violated.

"It is all right for people to have standards, but why should the standards of one group be imposed upon the rest, when the rest do not believe them to be right?

* * *

"We do a lot of talking," he continued, "about the deplorable state of our stage and our literature, but we do nothing toward remedying or removing the cause.

"We are censored into mediocrity. What can censorship do but till the authors and artists with inhibitions? Creative genius cannot thrive on repressions."

Basil King is a force in literature, and far be it from me to take up cudgels against him. But any wife might well ask herself, "Have I made a non-resistant, supine creature out of my husband?"

WOMEN WAR ON FANATICS AND "SHERIFFESS" HEAD THE FIGHT

By MARGARET ROHE.

You busy old reformers,
Reforming all about,
The A. F. League will get you
If you don't watch out.

NEW YORK.—Whoopee! The worm has turned.

Of course, it is the female worm.

The male of the species, all bound round with blue laws and repressions like a cocoon, has never budged. The ladies, though, all have their dander up. They are just naturally sick and tired of being told they can't do this and they mustn't do that.

It was bad enough when the cocktail was pronounced forbidden fruit, but since a poor flapper-grandmother can no longer even take a wee puff or two of a cigarette in public, except behind a smoke screen, it's time she were getting all smoked up about it.

Then when employers put a ban on bobbed hair it surely was cutting it a bit too fine and now that that Michigan mayor has vetoed the female knickerbockers — well, the women are just panting for revenge.

Anti-Fanatic League.

This situation is the answer to the Anti-Fanatic League of Women which has just sprang into being and full-fledged activity in New York State.

The members are agin' all professional uplifters, reformers, kill-joys, fanatics and censors in toto, ad psychoanalysis authorities, a reformer is a neurasthenic nuisance. He usually has the weakness of infinitum and then some.

BELLE NORTON

Miss Belle Norton, honest to goodness, gun-toting deputy sheriff of New York County, is the leader of this sturdy female band.

She hopes to lead them on till not a single little reformer is left to menace the healthy personal freedom of our American people.

The A. F. Leaguers are all pledged to do their darndest to force repeal of all the repressive laws already put over and to defeat all the little indigohued joy-killers anyone may endeavor to foist on us hereafter. Go to it, old dears!

Just why is a reformer anyway? We really have never been able to find out, but what he is, in the last analysis (and, of course, that's psychoanalysis) is perfectly clear—

87.6 per cent. of jurors agree on verdict

A CUSTOMER comes into your store where two similiar articles are for sale at the same price. One of them is a nationally advertised article, the other is not. Which does he buy? The National Retailers' Association found the answer to be:

87.6 times he buys the advertised goods.
3.6 times he buys the unadvertised goods.
8.8 times he does not have a preference.

When the unadvertised article is the lower priced of the two, which does the customer buy? On the same authority the answer is:

60.6 times he buys the advertised goods.
24.2 times he buys unadvertised goods.
15.2 times he does not have a preference.

Branded and trade-marked, goods, nationally advertised in the columns of your Daily Newspaper, are most quickly turned over and most profitable. That is because manufacturing prestige has been tied up to local friendship and reputation for honest merchandizing.

BOTTOMLEY MISSES HIS PET COLLIE DOG

Convicted M.P. and Editor Reaffirms His Innocence in the Prison of Wormwood Scrubs.

"BRAZEN BOTTOMLEY," he has been called. A million people avidly devoured his scathing paragraphs in John Bull. Unfortunately, they entrusted their money to him.

Then Horatio Bottomley crashed. Town houses, country houses, racehorses, servants, luxury—he was cut off at a stroke from his princely extravagance. An elderly man, he wakened one morning in Wormwood Scrubs, one of the strongest penal institutions in all England, with his sentence of seven years hanging over his head.

What was his reaction? Was he the prey of remorse?

Horatio Bottomley.

He was "Brazen Bottomley" still; compound of audacity, bravado and sentimentality.

He missed his dog most of all, he said in an interview.

"What do I miss—well, I hardly know how to tell you. But I feel the absence of pets. How's Fephie?"

Fephie is a great brown collie dog living at Bottomley's country house at Dicker, in Sussex. In the small and somewhat Spartan bedroom which Bottomley occupied at Dicker—the larger, more lavish and luxurious rooms were reserved for his guests—there are two beds. Neither of them is any bigger than the one in which he sleeps at Wormwood Scrubs. In one bed Bottomley slept, on the other bed slept Fephie.

"I knew something was going wrong at the trial," said Bottomley, "because of that dog. She was a mass of nerves while all the proceedings were on, and jumped up again and again in the night to put a paw on my arm and find out if I was really there.

"Usually Fephie is one of the quietest dogs that were ever born, but lately she has been obsessed with a sense of impending disaster. She has kept me awake by howling in the night, and has come continually to my bedside. Yet you can tell me that dogs have no souls. I don't quite believe you.

"At any rate, I know that Fephie is a more miserable creature than I am at this moment, and more conscious of the loss of companionship."

There was nothing of the crushed and humiliated man about Bottomley. The broad shoulders were squared. The great head was thrown back. If the face was white the eyes were as keen as steel. Three days of prison life had been to him like three drops of water on the head of a mastiff.

It was just before his trial, he declared, with a break in his voice, that he had been promised a privy councillorship. It was his wish for unhampered independence that caused him to decline.

Defiantly he asserted:

"When I think of the condition of our national finance, of Ireland, of Egypt, of India, and of the empire as a whole, I would rather be Horatio Bottomley in Wormwood Scrubs, a convicted felon—but convicted for a crime which he never committed—than I would be Lloyd George, prime minister, in Downing street."

"Do you know why they don't like to see you shake hands with me?" he asked, with a sad, curious grey smile upon his face. "It is because they think that during our handshake you might give me poison. The authorities who have been so anxious to destroy my reputation are equally anxious to preserve my life. They think I might commit suicide."

It is only "the blindness of the prison officials that wounds him." At times in the prison he has "felt with the heart of a child." He is "fortified by the faith that he will regain the paradise of honor and love in the public mind."

EX-PRESIDENT FINDS REST FROM VAUDEVILLE

Wilson is Carried Into a Washington Theatre Every Saturday Night.

IT is a new human touch about ex-President Wilson that genial Tom Wise, the celebrated comic actor, now starring with the Robins Players in Toronto, has brought back from Washington.

A few nights ago Mr. Wise played for Mr. Wilson at the Keith Theatre, where he attends regularly every Saturday night to forget his infirmities in the humor and variety of this high-class vaudeville show.

Woodrow Wilson.

A vivid picture of the man who was once rejected, but is now ironically becoming the most popular man in the United States, is sketched by Mr. Wise. Every Saturday evening the ex-president motors down the alley at the side of the theatre to a particular exit door. He is then lifted by two attendants from his car across the sill to his seat. "Till the last gun or the last picture he delights in the show," says Mr. Wise.

"There were about twenty-five of us in the show. We all gathered the other night at the stage door and cheered him as he was helped to his car. He told us that he is getting stronger every day. In the cross street in front of the theatre fully five thousand people applauded him as he drove away. The people are at last recognizing his greatness, and there is no one now more popular than Mr. Wilson is."

WITH BARRIE'S QUALIFICATIONS

WHEN Sir James Barrie, who was made rector of St. Andrew's University a few weeks ago, was leaving it some years ago after graduation two maiden ladies asked him what he was going to be.

"An author," replied Barrie.

"Oh dear!" they exclaimed. "And you an M.A.!"

Dogs of Two Nations Refight Crimean War

Chinese Ambassador Jokes on the Result of an Embassy Tiff.

THE appointment of Wu Ting-Fang, former Chinese minister to the United States, as premier, recalls to the service of his country one of the wittiest and most picturesque figures diplomacy has ever brought to this continent.

Once he was passing down Connecticut avenue in Washington when he came upon a first-rate dog fight.

Dr. Wu Ting-Fang.

One dog was a Russian wolfhound belonging to the Count Cassini, then Russian ambassador to the United States. The other was an English bulldog belonging to the secretaries of the British embassy in Washington. A Russian groom and an English groom were out with the unleashed dogs giving them their daily constitutional, and the two dogs went at each other.

The two grooms tried to pull them apart. Wu, strolling on Connecticut avenue, stopped and watched with obvious interest. It was a pretty even thing, and at length the English servant contrived to pull the bulldog from the wolfhound.

"History turned back a page there," observed Wu to a friend who came up just as the dogs were pried apart, "and gave us a first-hand view of the conflict."

"Over my head," said Wu's friend.

"You know to whom these dogs belong?" inquired Wu.

"Yes—one of them belongs to the Russian embassy and the other to the British embassy.

"So," said Wu. "Well, we had the Crimea over again, didn't we? That affair was a sort of tie, wasn't it?"

BALFOUR'S LONG WORDS ARE THE BUGBEAR OF REPORTERS

THE Earl of Balfour has a habit of using tremendous words in his speeches, for example, "terminological inexactitude," which he once sprang on the world. But the other day, in a political speech, he referred to the Pacific Ocean and its "limitrophe continents." His hearers were stunned.

Some of those present thought he meant that the continents were the limit. Others believed that some contagious disease was raging on the Pacific coasts. But "limitrophe" only means "bordering," and why Lord Balfour couldn't have said so is a mystery.

A reporter was once asked how fast the newly-created earl spoke.

"He speaks quite rapidly," replied the reporter. "About twenty words a minute."

"But that is not fast!" said the inquirer.

"Yes, it is—when the words are Balfour's."

The Earl of Balfour plays bridge. Preserve us from the day when, with a good hand of spades, he will call: "Two circular figures with pointed pinnacles and pedestals!"

THE MIRACLE WORKER.

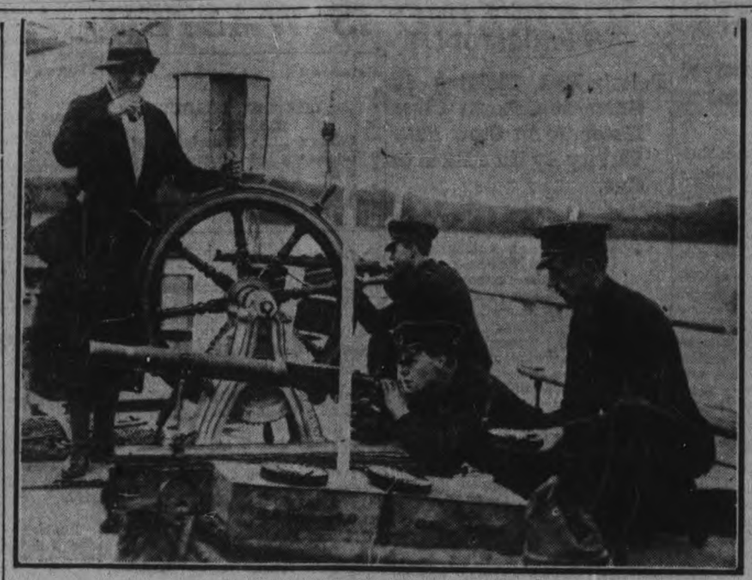
ANYONE can criticize, but it requires a really clever person to get money and keep friends and do the trick.

"Leave It to the Lord!"

REV. DR. W. R. YOUNG, pastor of College St. Methodist Church, Toronto, is one clergyman who believes in the wise blending of religion and business. He is on the insurance commission of the Methodist Church, and is a keen advocate of the policy of insuring church buildings.

"You know," said Dr. Young to some of the "brethren" the other day, "you can carry this thing of leaving everything to the Lord too far. For instance, there is on the minutes of a Methodist Church quarterly board in a little village of eastern Ontario a resolution which reads something like this:

"Resolved that we hereby discontinue the insurance on the church and leave it to the Lord to look after His own property."



Irish Lady Admiral at the Helm.

OUT of the fighting area of Ireland comes the fame of Mrs. Laverton, who piloted her yacht, "Pandora," loaded with special constables, up the river Erne from Donegal bay to reinforce Magherameena Castle, besieged by the Sinn Feiners. Although unsuccessful in saving the castle, Mrs. Laverton and her specials, with their Lewis guns, beat off an attack on the ship. Attached to Mrs. Laverton's belt will be noted a large-sized service revolver, open in its holster, ready for use.

Chief Librarian Discovers to His Amazement That Methodism Charms Book Agents Away

Men are Often Puzzled Stiff by a Busy Official's Unusual Farewell—The Exceptions are Women With a Mission in the World.

TESTIMONY of the astounding efficacy of Methodism as a weapon with which to foil book agents is given by that well-known humorist, the chief librarian of Toronto, Dr. Geo. Locke.

On men especially Dr. Locke has found it to work at times like a charm, amazing even to him with his keen knowledge of the human mind.

Dr. Geo. Locke.

"Here, at the library, we leave all our office doors wide open. We are different to what they are at the city hall," the doctor explains, as a smile crinkles his lips. "Suffer fools gladly, welcome everybody," he says, with an inclusive sweep of his arm.

It was a long, slow persistent member of the male sex who stood looking the doctor over one day for an overwhelming means of approach. First he looked at the librarian's lapel, then at his finger, and, finally, at his watch chain for some sign of what fraternal order his prospective purchaser might belong. There was not a trace of a triangle, three links or any of the familiar insignia, and, as a last resource, he leaned over close to the doctor's ear.

"Are you a Mason?" he whispered, confidentially.

"No, no; a Methodist," answered Dr. Locke, leading him hurriedly towards the door, as if a contagious disease had been mentioned, and he was frightened out of his life. He left his amazed book agent in the hall and gingerly closed the door.

Attendants in the library were as puzzled as this long, lanky individual, who stood scratching his head in the hall for five minutes before he recovered his sense of reality and discovered there was another door to the office from which he had so strangely come.

Looking down once again on the dumbfounded librarian, he slowly asked for enlightenment on this serious point:

"But, surely, doctor, a man can be a Mason as well as a Method—is—t—?"

"No, utterly impossible," replied the doctor, looking frightenedly around the room, as he rushed his amazed questioner through the second door.

But women are more dangerous, especially women with a mission, the doctor has learnt by experience. "Keep clear of them," is his ripe advice. Even Methodism has no terrors for them.

"Are you saved?" asked a demure, little lady, as she leaned over from her chair towards him, with tears in her eyes.

Too astounded almost for words by the unexpected approach, Dr. Locke at last stuttered out:

"Oh, yes, of course, I'm a Methodist, and that's our specialty. Of course, I'm saved."

"But what will you do when Shiloh comes?" asked his sad questioner.

"I don't know, I'm sure," he confessed, at a loss. "What will you do?"

"This will tell you everything," answered the little lady, spreading out a roll of pamphlets as round as the doctor's arm.

An All-Round Animal

A MAN who wanted a horse for general use explained to a dealer that he wished to buy a nice, quiet, good-looking animal that could be driven by his wife, that would not object to being hitched to a lawn mower.

After listening for some moments, the dealer finally inquired: "And would you like him to wait on the table, sir?"—Hiawatha World.

To-day's Statesmen as Great Victorians

DEAN INGE, the gloomy dean of St. Paul's, asks whether the great men of to-day can compare in physical and intellectual stature with the great Victorians. He asks people to set up portraits of Salisbury, Darwin and Gladstone and candidly ask themselves whether there are any longer among us men of their stature. He re is a good chance for the artist to show that perhaps it is principally the absence of whiskers that makes the dean gloomy about the great men of to-day. The striking resemblance can be seen in the comparisons between Lloyd George as Lord Salisbury, the Earl of Balfour as if he were Darwin, and Viscount Grey in the whiskers of Gladstone.

Bishop Christened by Sourdough's Mistake

Stringer's Second Initial Records an Odd Moment of His Life.

FEW of the thousands of Canadians who know Bishop I. O. Stringer know that the veteran clergyman, described by an "old-timer" in the Yukon as "the squarest guy that ever went into the north; known and loved by every man and roughneck, every Indian and Eskimo in the Yukon," derives part of his name from one of the most odd incidents that could befall a missionary, though thoroughly Stringeresque.

Bishop Stringer.

The story was recently disclosed when the bishop visited Vancouver and addressed the Yukon Order of Pioneers at their annual dinner.

Bishop Stringer, a "sourdough" of thirty years' standing, was once accosted in the early Yukon days by a prospector who needed money, what for the bishop wasn't told, for it may have been for anything from food to the settlement of a poker game. He did not ask and the money was promptly forthcoming, but forthcoming so fast that the recipient was somewhat disconcerted. He wanted, he said, no man "to take his word." If he was going to take a loan he desired "writins.'"

The bishop agreed. "Just make it," he said, "an I. O. U." The old-timer's knowledge of I. O. U's. was vague. He wrote instead "I. O. Stringer" and "I. O. Stringer" it is to this day, though the bishop has no claim whatever to the second initial.

Snowball Melted Foe By His Ready Repartee

When Quick Temper Would Have Meant a Big Row.

ONE of the leading lumbermen of the Maritime Provinces is W. B. Snowball, of Chatham, N.B., who, like his father, the late Hon. J. B. Snowball, at one time lieutenant-governor of New Brunswick, holds large timber limits along the Miramichi river. Mr. Snowball takes a keen interest in forestry and lumbering conventions, and being a good platform speaker advances his views clearly and forcibly. At a big convention in Quebec city a lumberman, who did not agree with Mr. Snowball, lost his temper, and, neglecting the subject, made an attack on Mr. Snowball and his family. It was an awkward moment, because if Mr. Snowball had also lost his temper and replied in kind the meeting would have been spoiled. However, he arose smiling and bland, and his first words caused a round of laughter, which broke the strain and brought things back to normal.

"Mr. Chairman," he said, "the member who has just spoken has indicated that we are a pretty bad lot, but he must admit we have our good points, because, according to all authorities, there are no Snowballs in hades."

A Start in Life

JOE BROWN was the colored porter at a little bank in southern Kansas. One spring day he rested on his broom and looked outdoors where Nature beckoned him down to the river where he might doze and wait for a catfish nibble on his line.

"Gee, boss," he declared fervently, "I suttinly do wisht Ah had a million dollahs!"

"A million dollars, Joe?" the cashier said, smiling. "What would you do with a million dollars?"

"Ah'd buy me some pigs and make me some money."—Judge.

THE SUPER-COW OF LEEDS THAT PREMIER DRURY ATE

Shows the U.F.O. Premier's Keen Sense of Humor Even Early in His Career.

BEEF was expensive as well as tough in the dairying county of Leeds, even in the days when Premier Drury had just been graduated from the College of Agriculture at Guelph. Cows, as a general rule, in Leeds, were kept till the limit of their usefulness as milkers was past before they were sold for meat. This fact the future premier learned by dire experience.

It was this week while passing the farm at Crown Hill with its juicy young heifers that one of the men who spoke on the same platform with the premier recalled Mr. Drury's first experience with "cow" from Leeds.

Premier Drury.

"Mr. Drury was delivering lectures to the Farmers' Institutes throughout the province at the time," our informant recalled, "and there were three of us speaking this night.

"The first speaker dilated on the importance of the dairying industry in the province and how expensive a cow had become, particularly in Leeds. In fact, he said, vividly, concluding his speech, if he could have his way he would substitute the cow for the beaver on Ontario's coat of arms."

Inspired by the first speaker, the thoughts of the second turned towards the same super-cow of Leeds. He told of its ancestors, tracing them back even to the cow that was given to every United Empire Loyalist family that settled in Upper Canada.

"You have heard a great deal about the famous cow of Leeds this evening," said Mr. Drury, whose address came next. "The first speaker has told you of its fame, suggesting even that it should replace the beaver on the provincial coat of arms. The second speaker has traced its ancestry back to the United Empire Loyalists. But, ladies and gentlemen, you won't hear any more about that cow to-night. I just ate it at your hotel."

Lemieux's Swift Answer A Joke on Blondin's Job

When Twitted With Quoting Kipling at a Montreal Meeting.

IT was during the very strenuous days of the 1917 election campaign. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, now speaker of the House of Commons, then representing Gaspe, attended a meeting in the Monument Nationale Theatre, Montreal, where he spoke on behalf of Mr. S. W. Jacobs, who was running for the first time in George Etienne Cartier division.

Rodolphe Lemieux.

Mr. Lemieux made some rather disparaging comments about the then postmaster-general, Hon. P. E. Blondin. Continuing to speak about British and Canadian relations, he remarked:

"Daughter am I in my mother's home,
But mistress in my own."

He was chaffed some time later by another speaker about this remark.

Quick as a flash, and with an esprit de corps which brought down the house, Mr. Lemieux retorted: "I said Mr. Blondin was a man of letters, not I."

CAMPBELL WISHED TO CONVERT THE HEATHEN

No Good in Getting Righteous to Cheer Repentance.

ISAAC CAMPBELL, K.C., formerly city solicitor of Winnipeg and for many years one of the leaders of the Manitoba bar, is a most pleasing and convincing expositor of abstruse political questions. In the old days before group governments were heard of Mr. Campbell was in great demand as a stump speaker on the Liberal side. In one campaign he addressed a series of meetings in the small towns between Portage la Prairie and Brandon, and met with such success that his tour resembled a triumphal procession. On his return to Winnipeg a friend offered his congratulations on the success of the tour, but was surprised to find that Mr. Campbell viewed the results with dissatisfaction.

"But," said the friend, "you had crowded meetings, aroused intense enthusiasm, were cheered to the echo; not an opponent, not even a heckler, dared to raise his head. What do you want?"

"Of course, of course," said Mr. Campbell testily, "but don't you see they were all Grits, all convinced, whereas my aim was to meet those unconvinced and opposed, and do some missionary work?"

Some of Them Never Do

TWO Irish-Americans, one of whom had never seen Erin before, were representing the United States at a convention in Dublin.

"Fifty-three years ago," declared one, "I left Ireland without a penny in my pockets."

The audience was greatly affected, and the other speaker decided not to be outdone.

"Until last week," he declared, "I had never set foot in the land of my birth." — Pearson's Weekly.

C.P.R. SOCCERITES TRIM QUAKERS

Packers Get Well-Deserved Victory in Fast Game at the Oval.

The C.P.C. football team got their first win in the league last Saturday when they defeated the Quaker Oats line up in a fast game played on the Oval.

The Quakers started with ten men but had the advantage of the breeze. J. Willshaw got the first goal for the Quakers, a cross from the wing being put past Lasenby. The Quakers were doing most of the attacking and Lasenby had quite a time of it for several minutes. He was again beaten by a long drive from Logan. C.P.C. got a goal from a penalty kick awarded against R. Willshaw, Matt Shaw did the scoring.

In the second half the C.P.C. came back strongly and in less than five minutes were on level terms, Clark putting the ball into goal with a nice peice of play. The Packers were playing well at this stage of the game and Clark scored again with a good header from a return off Griffin. This put the Packers ahead and the Quakers rearranged their team in an effort to get on equal terms. Matt Shaw however, went through with the ball for another tally for the C.P.C. men.

The fast play aided by the heat was beginning to tell on the players and some nice plays were broken up by lack of staying power.

After Lasenby had made a good save from Foster, Logan got the Quakers third goal from close in. C.J.C. managed to keep their lead and deserved to win.

The teams were :

Quakers—Griffin, Young, R. Willshaw, W. Logan, Clark, Hepburn, Russell, Honor, J. Willshaw, G. Logan, Croft and Foster.

C.P.C.—Lasenby, Axley, Breyette, Rickard, J. Shaw, Batley, Downer, Follis, M. Shaw, Clarke and Hotstone.

Referee—J. Clark.

FEW EARNED RUNS OFF "HECK"

Petes' Clever Twirler Has Only Allowed Four in Seven Games, But Team Has Averaged Five Errors a Game.

BATTING AVERAGES.

The official figures show that with good fielding behind him Al. Heckman would have pitched the Petes into first place in the Central Ontario race. His record up to date from the standpoint of earned runs scored against him is the best in the league, for in seven games (not counting the game in Lindsay, which has been thrown out) he has allowed only four earned runs, an average of a little more than one every two games. He has held the enemy to thirty-five hits in seven fixtures, an average of five per game, and has struck out 74, or 10½ per game. At the same time, he has allowed but five bases on balls and hit two batsmen, which averages one free ticket per game. Cobourg earned two runs against Heckman and Oshawa and Bowmanville one each.

The fielding averages of the Petes indicate why this splendid pitching has been largely wasted. In seven games they have compiled thirty-five errors—and the figure would be much larger if the Lindsay score were included.

The batting averages show that, in addition to his fine pitching, Heckman is leading, the regulars with the willow, and has also scored more runs than any player on the team, having crossed the plate six times. Saturday's game was the first in which he has not hit safely. The following averages do not include the thrown out game in Lindsay:

	G.	A.B.	R.	H.	P.C.
Soden	4	11	2	6	.545
Heckman	7	20	6	8	.400
Hatrick	2	6	2	2	.333
Shaughnessy	7	25	1	8	.320
Lowe	4	13	2	4	.307
Johnston	7	30	5	9	.300

HECKMAN'S SUPERB TWIRLING IS WASTED

Petes' Bad Fielding in Game at Oshawa Gives Motor Town Crew Easy Victory By Five Runs to One.

TAKE Solomon's Petes wasted a superb exhibition of pitching by Al. Heckman at Oshawa on Saturday, losing 5 to 1 to the motor town crew, through a combination of mistakable fielding and weak hitting. Heckman, in the face of support that would have discouraged the majority of box artists, never wavered, and he was going stronger at the end than at any stage in the game, fanning six men in the last three innings. He had perfect control, not issuing a pass, his fast ball had the old hop on it and his curve was breaking sharply. It was a crime that pitching like that should have been thrown away by fielding mistakes of the school boy variety.

The official score shows Oshawa with but one earned run. The other four were gifts, pure and simple, and even the one counter that had to be scored as "earned" was tainted, for Gallagher's triple, which resulted in a run a moment later, was merely a misjudged fly which should have been an easy out. Heckman fanned eleven of the Booth outfit, and of the six hits registered against him at least two should have been fielded.

Had "Heck" received the backing his work deserved the game would have been a memorable pitching duel, for 'Lefty" Gallagher was going great guns for Oshawa, and with perfect baseball behind the two twirlers there would not have been a run scored. Gallagher held the Petes to two singles, a drive over second by Johnston in the first innings and an infield tap that Shaughnessy beat out in the ninth, and from the second until the final session not a visitor reached first base. The Petes' only counter was like Oshawa's scores, a presentation affair, a muff of an easy fly by Rowden allowing Johnston to register. Outside of the first innings Gallagher was never in trouble, and he was given fine support by his teammates.

Beyond the work of the twirlers, however, there was nothing particularly brilliant about the game. A strong wind blowing across the diamond made things unpleasant for the players, although the big crowd appreciated the breeze.

Long, the Petes' first baseman, had a finger badly split at the beginning of the third innings and had to retire, Kirn replacing him. Shaughnessy was also a casualty, twisting his knee in the ninth innings.

The Petes had nine errors and most of them counted in the run-getting. Swanston's two of misplays were due to wild throws. He has been bothered with a sore arm for several weeks as a result of being hit at batting practice and has been doing no throwing, with the result on Saturday that he could not find the target when he had to cut lose with a throw.

How It Happened.

The Petes started all right. After Rutherford had rolled to Gallagher, Johnston singled cleanly over second. Swanston sacrificed him to second. Heckman walked. Rowden muffed Shaughnessy's fly back of third and Johnston scored from second. Holyman drew a pass, filling the bases. Long was called out on strikes.

Oshawa got it back in their half. Rowden opened with a single to right. Fair fanned. Rowden stole second, going on to third on Swanston's wide throw. Evans picked a waste ball of his ear for a single to right, to score Rowden, after which Heckman fanned Saunders and Gallagher.

In the second Bergoine fanned. Collins was hit, but was forced at second on Rutherford's tap to Saunders. Rutherford stole second and Evans' low throw sent him to third. Johnston fanned.

For Oshawa, Belding singled to centre and stole second, but Wilson popped to Holyman and Thompson and Dobson lifted fouls, which Swanston smothered.

Gallagher disposed of Swanston and Heckman on rollers to the box and grabbed Shaughnessy's liner in the Petes' half of the third. The last two looked like hits.

In Oshawa's half Rowden rolled to Johnston. Fair fouled to Swanston. Evans got two bases when Bergoine muffed his fly to left centre. Saunders got a life on Holyman's fumble, but Heckman averted trouble by getting Saunders between first and second.

The Petes went out in order in the fourth. Holyman rolled to Gallagher, Kirn fanned and Bergoine field to Saunders.

For the Booth crew Gallagher got a lucky triple when Bergoine misjudged his drive to centre. The decision at third was close, a fast relay making Gallagher slide into the bag. Belding's short single to left which Shaughnessy failed to reach sent the run in. Belding started to steal second, and when Swanston threw high to second Bergoine let the ball get away from him, and the double error enabled Belding to go all the way home. Wilson struck out, Heckman tossed out Thompson and Robson fouled to Swanston.

For Oshawa Rowden fanned. Fair was safe when Heckman failed to field his tap to the box. Evans flied to Shaughnessy. Saunders hoisted one to Holyman, who dropped the ball. Gallagher's single past first scored Fair and Saunders registered when Holyman mussed up Belding's roller. Johnston threw out Wilson.

It was one, two three again for the Petes in the sixth. Swanston rolled to Saunders, Heckman flied to Thompson and Shaughnessy fanned.

In Oshawa's sixth Heckman whiffed Thompson and Dobson and tossed out Rowden.

Holyman and Kirn were easy in the Petes' half of the seventh on flies to Saunders and Dobson and Bergoine missed three.

Oshawa did no better. Fair hit nothing but the air and Rutherford threw out Evans and Saunders.

In the eighth Collins and Johnston were tossed out by Saunders, while in between the two Rutherford struck out.

Swanston missed the third strike on Gallagher in Oshawa's half and his throw to first was wide, the runner being safe. Belding and Wilson, however, fanned and Swanston nailed Gallagher trying to steal third after he had reached second on a wild pitch.

For the first time since the second innings the Petes got a man to first in the ninth. Swanston fouled to Wilson to start with. Heckman hoisted a high one to Gallagher, which the southpaw muffed. Heckman went to second on a passed ball. Shaughnessy beat out a roller down the third base line for the second hit off Gallagher, but Holyman bunted to Fair and was out, and Kirn ended the game with a roller to Rowden whose throw beat him to first.

RAYBESTOS WINNERS IN GOOD BALL GAME

Brakemakers Are Winners in a Battle Royal With Y.M.C.A. City League Nine.

In spite of a hard battle on the part of the Y.M.C.A., the Raybestos nine came out with the large end of a 6 to 5 score in Saturday's game at Riverside Park. The "Y" players out hit their opponents, but failed to bunch their hits. Five of the nine safeties credited to the "Y" went for two bases, but only one of these men scored, while Bartley's timely two-bagger for Raybestos in the seventh sent in the score to win the game.

Doughty pitched for the "Y" and fanned ten, walking only one, while Herb. Wolf turned in a good game for Raybestos, also walking but one and striking out nine. Pidgeon of the "Y" furnished the batting feature of the day with two hits, each good for two sacks, in three times to bat.

The Raybestos nine took an early lead, bunching three hits in the second frame for three runs, and it took the Y.M.C.A. until the end of the fourth to get on even terms with a 4 to 4 score. In the seventh Raybestos got two more runs from two hits and two errors, and although the "Y" made a desperate effort to snatch victory from defeat in the last half of the seventh, they were only able to get one run across the pan, Kendry scoring Butcher from first with a long two-base hit.

Diamond Dust

The next game for the Petes is at Port Hope on Wednesday.

* * * *

The locals have not lost a home game or won an out of town game this season. Here's hoping for a change in the program on Wednesday.

* * * *

Ecobichon has been signed by the Y.M.C.A. and will probably be seen on the mound for that aggregation soon.

* * * *

J. Turner's little stunt of trying to steal home in the Adanac-Lakeview game when the bases were loaded and there were three balls and no strikes on the batter looked something like a bone head play.

* * * *

The Odanacs got the revenge they were looking for when they handed the Lakeviews their first defeat of the season yesterday.

* * * *

Doughty who did the twirling for the "Y" on Saturday could have tied the score and probably won the game with a timely hit in the seventh. Instead he sent an easy one to the second baseman and went out at first to retire the side.

PETES DROP BACK NOTCH

Loss on Saturday Sends Lindsay Up Above Them —Cobourg Here Saturday

The Petes were the only first division club to lose in Saturday's games, and as a result the Solomon crew will have to win a bunch of games in a row to stay in the running. So far as losses go, they are no worse off than Lindsay and Oshawa, both of whom have lost three games, and they can even the loss account with Cobourg by beating the lakeshore bunch here on Saturday. It promises to be a hectic race from now on for the first hall honours. Here is the league standing:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Cobourg	7	2	.778
Oshawa	8	3	.727
Lindsay	6	3	.667
Peterborough	4	3	.571
Belleville	4	5	.444
Leaside	2	5	.286
Port Hope	2	6	.250
Bowmanville	1	7	.125

Games This Week.

—Wednesday—

Oshawa at Bowmanville.
Cobourg at Leaside.
Peterborough at Port Hope.
Lindsay at Belleville.

—Saturday—

Cobourg at Peterborough.
Oshawa at Port Hope.
Lindsay at Bowmanville.

Dominion Day will be a big day for local ball fans. In the morning the league leaders, the Cobourg team, will be here for a Central League game against the Petes, and with a pitching battle between Derry and Heckman on the card there will be a record crowd in attendance. In the afternoon the fast St. Andrew's team, leaders of the Toronto Senior League, will clash with the Petes. This will make a holiday card that will provide abundance of excitement for the fans.

BELLEVILLE GETS WHITEWASH BRUSH

Charlie Allan, Lindsay Southpaw, Turns in a No-Run, No-Hit Game. Belleville Outclassed.

LINDSAY, June 26.—(Special ot the Examiner)—Charlie Allan, Lindsays southpaw established a record for the Lindsay diamond and for the Central Ontario League Saturday afternoon when he turned in a no hit, no run game against Belleville, ex-champions of the league. He pitched great ball, and had perfect control. He was also given gilt edge support. Up till the sixth innings not a runner on the Belleville team reached second base, and only one reached third. Allan also had nine strike out and two clean hits. The playing of Coombs at first for the Greybirds was of the sensational kind. Williams southpaw for the visitors was hit for three hits and three runs in the firts innings, but thereafter was good and held the Greybirds scoreless until the seventh. He had 11 strike out.

Summary:

C. C. FRASER WINS THE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP OF CANADA

Extra Hole Necessary to Decide the Winner on the Ancaster Links on Saturday.

A MISHAP.

ANCASTER, Ont., June 26.—(Canadian Press staff correspondent), C. C. Fraser, Kanawaki Club, became amateur golf champion of Canada, when he won the final of the Royal Canadian Golf Associations 'tournament at the links of the Hamilton Golf Club on Saturday evening, beating M. M. Scott, Royal Monutreal ,on the thirty seventh hole after he (Mr. Fraser), had squared the match at the thirty sixth. The match was replete with many dramatic moments but was marred by an incident on the sixteenth green in the afternoon round when a hole was given to Mr. Scott by Referee R. C. H. Cassils of Toronto, because Mr. Fraser thoughtlessly, by picking up a piece of paper, infringed a rule which penalizes a player from moving any loose impediment in a bunker. The gallery of probably 1,500 people not appreciating the position of the referee or Mr. Scott made a demonstration in Mr. Fraser's favor, which had the effect of so disturbing the Royal Montreal player that he practicaly lost his head. The rule in regard to loose impediments in bunkers which was applied by Mr. Cassils is quite specific on the point. It is laid down by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. St. Andrews in its rule book governing contests that if a player moves loses impediments within a club's length of the ball in a hazard the penalty must be the loss of the hole to that player while, it is also decided that the other player cannot waive his right to the award. Mr. Scott, when the penalty was inflicted, protested that he could not in fairness accept the hole, but Mr. Cassils ruled that he had no option in the matter. At the time the incident occurred Mr. Scott was one up and the award made him dormie two. Many people thought that the lose of the hole practically meant that Mr. Fraser was put out of the running. Mr. Scott, however, was so obviously and painfully upset that his play went all to pieces and he lost the next hole. Characteristic and brilliant play by Fraser on the home green enabled him to square the match and at the extra hole he won the championship.

Mr. Cassils made a statement on te green after the championship had been decided which had the effect of clearing the air and demonstrating that nothing but scrupulous fairness had been shown in the decision on the sixteenth, an explanation which was loudly applauded. Both Mr. Fraser and Mr. Scott secured ovations when they came up to receive the trophies allotted to the champion and runner-up.

The career of Mr. Fraser is a golfing romance. It can literally be entitled: "From Caddy to Champion." He first learned his golf as a kid when a caddie at the old Westmount Club's links. He is twenty seven years old and in the insurance business. He first broke into prominence at the Quebec provincial championship this year when he tied G. H. Turpin for first place. Mr. Turpin beat him at the third hole in the play-off. Mr. Fraser had played a consistently spectacular, but splendid game since the tournament started. His bouyant disposition (he is called 'Happy' Freser on account if it,) defies depression even in the tightest corners.

In his worst shots he find a subject for boisterous laughter and his running comments on his own play proved to his followers to be highly entertaining However, beneath this cloak of detached and apparently humorous in difference is a spirit that will not admit defeat. In his match with William McLuckie, an ex-champion and at one time much fancied for the championship he was four down early in the morning round. He bided his time, squared the match and then took seven holes in a row. It was just the same in his game with L. L. Bredin of Detroit who faced him with all the added reputation that came from the fact that he had beaten Frank Thompson, Toronto, last year's champion. He literaly broke Mr. Bredin after he had led by four up at one stage of the game. With Mr. Scott, Mr. Fraser was nearly always behind. The match seemed lost to him a dozen times. In the morning he lost the first five holes. Many times Mr. Fraser simply had to do almost the impossible to halve holes but he did it. It can be said that Fraser won by his remarkable work on the greens. Mr. Scott played a carefully thought out game, but he could not offset his opponent's facility for putting wonderfully when all seemed lost.

ADANACS GET THE LAKEVIEWS SCALP

Lakeviews' First Defeat Gives the Adanacs Their Longed-For Revenge.

The Adanacs came to the fore Saturday and in one of the best Junior League games of the year defeated the Lakeviews 8 to 4 on the Riverside Park diamond. Both teams played first class ball and showed a snappiness and pep that augurs well for the future of the game. One of the best plays of the game was the unassisted double play on the part of Hip Hardill who retired the last two Lakeview men and ended the game. It was the first defeat of the season for the Lakeviews.

Gilchrist pitched the first four innings for the Lakeviews and in that period fanned seven men. He got hmself into a tight hole in the third when he walked two to fill the bases with but one man out. He tightened up however and fanned the next man and J. Turner was caught trying to steal home. In the fourth frame he developed a wildness which the Adanacs were quick to take advantage of. He walked three which coupled with four hits sent six runs across the plate and gave the Adanacs a comfortable lead which they maintained to the end. He was relieved by Whitehouse who sent four men to the bench via the strike out route and allowed only one hit in two innings that he was on the mound.

Jeff Hardill who did the twirling for the winners was given gilt edge support by every one of his players, none of the few errors coming at a critical stage of the game. Hardill struck out three and did not issue a single pass, he was, however, nicked for a least one hit in every inning. Only in the last inning were the Lakeviews able to bunch their hits and in this frame three safties in a row started a rally which sent in one run and looked good for several more until an unassisted double play by Hip Hardill brought the rally to a premature end and retired the side.

GOYER WEAKENED IN THE NINTH

KITCHENER, June 26.—The Guelph Maple Leafs added another victory to their string in the senior Inter-county race here on Saturday defeating the locals 4 to 3 in a hard-fought battle. Goyer went strong for eight innings, having ten strike-outs, but then blew up and had to be derricked in the ninth with one down and the bases full. Henry pulled Guelph out of the hole by forcing Shirk out at the plate and striking out the third man. Klaehn, of the homesters, was the batting star of the day, poling out two long triples.

FOOTBALL NOTES

C.G.E. Football Team will practice tomorrow evening at 6 p.m. all players please be on hand and bring uniforms.

Little Lessons For the Golfer

By GEORGE O'NEIL.

"Golf's greatest teacher," says Harry Vardon. "O'Neil made me champion," says "Chick" Evans.

In the swing the body pivots around to the right, and when the swing is completed the body has been pivoted around to the left, being in the reverse of the body position at the top of the swing. Be careful not to force the pivoting process as the arms are raised. The body should turn to the right without conscious effort on the players part. The eye must be kept intently on the ball. The clubhead will automatically return to the ball if the gaze is kept steadfast on the ball, for one of the wonders of the body's perfection is the automatic correlation of vision, mind and muscle.

HAVELOCK TEAM HERE WEDNESDAY

Fastest Lacrosse Game of the Season in the Junior O.A.L.A. Group at Riverside Park.

Havelock's fast junior O.A.L.A. team will play their return game with Peterboro on Wednesday at 6 o'clock at Riverside Park. The C.P.R. crew have their eyes fixed on the district championship and have a clever well drilled team with Doug. Brennan, who played junior hockey here last year as their outstanding star.

Those who are interested in the old game should make a special effort to be present on Wednesday evening. They are assured of an interesting game with the Peterboro team vastly improved over their style in the first game with Havelock. The boys have been doing their best to revive the game in this city, and although the O.A.L.A. practices have not had the attention that would have been given if the city league hadn't been formed they are nevertheless in good condition. This should be the best game here this season.

INVESTIGATING SHEEHAN CASE

Otonabee Team at Keene For Important Game on Tuesday.

A meeting of the East Peterboro ball league will be held at the Chamber of Commerce at eight o'clock to-night to deal with the Sheehan case. This player first signed with the Otonabee team. He later appeared with the Y.M.C.A. team in the local intermediate league. Then he returned to the Otonabee team and played against Lakefield. The northerners are asking for an explanation.

Otonabee plays in Keene to-morrow evening and hope to have Scott Hutchison on the hurling heap. With the big fellow in good form, the Otonabee stalwarts will give Keene a hard battle. The game will start at six o'clock and Alex. Kay is billed to umps at the plate.

Lakefield and Otonabee clubs have accepted an invitation to play at the H.N.S. picnic, on Dominion Day, at Exhibition Park. It will be a twilight contest, and is announced to start at 5.45 o'clock.

Lakeviews and Maple Leafs, the two leaders in the juvenile series will come together again, on Wednesday evening at Riverside Park. These teams promise a lively contest for first place in the series.

Maple Leafs will have a workout at King Edward School Grounds on Tuesday evening at six o'clock and the following players are expected to be on hand:—Pogue, Sowden, Davis, Bradley, Wolff, Franks, Hunter, Thirnbeck, McCall, McGill, Hall Bannon, Weese, Delahaye.

STRUCK WITH BAT

Robert Creighton Injured While Playing Baseball.

While playing baseball on Saturday morning Robert Creighton, son of Mr John Creighton, Lake street, was struck with a bat in the abdomen and this morning undewent an operation at St. Joseph's hospital to relieve the effect of the accident. His father, who is wellknown in the city's sporting circles was recently injured while at work in the C.G.E. factory and is carrying his left arm in a sling. He may be laid up for three weeks yet.

CHAPTER LXXIV

Mrs. Herrod must be able to see through a millstone. Before I realized what was happening, she had us at the country club, had sent Jack off to the links and was talking with me under a rose-covered pergola.

Presently I perceived she was talking to me quite sentimentally and I wasn't resenting it. She had liked me—more than that, she had loved me ever since Jack had told her of our engagement.

Her own son had died in his first year at college. Jack had filled a little corner in her heart and she had liked to pretend I was her own little daughter-in-law. But soon she saw I never would be willing to pretned that. I was like most modern girls, not to be "daughtered," and not to be "mothered."

And it had grieved her. She hadn't any young relatives, never could have a grandchild, and adored babies.

Now baby is a small word, but it may be trusted to make friends of any two women who use it. The feeling that little word aroused in me I attribute to my being so awfully tired.

My swagger of indifference deserted me. I was just a weak little girl who needed mothering, and I confessed to Mrs. Herrod the whole truth about the tension between Jack and me, and concluded with the hard fact that he had just lost his job.

Mrs. Herrod listened attentively.

"You modern girls!" she said with a smile. "Peggy! Don't you girls understand the first thing about the emotions of normal man?

"Why, dear girl, your Jack wants to be your protector! And you won't let him! So he gets independent! himself And obstinate! That's man's psychology

And then she went on to advise me.

"Young wives and young husbands today believe in the equality of the sexes. They study biology, but never are convinced that nature manages love for her own ends, and not at all for the happiness of the individual man or woman.

"Happiness, my dear, is a by-product of living. Nature cares nothing for weddings, but she had put the need to be woman's protector into the hearts of all good men. That's what you independent girls fail to realize."

"Let's say—what we will not cater to," I suggested.

"Not even if it is a man's inspiration, Peggy?"

"From the beginning Jack and I have lived as partners—I never wanted to be a pedestal."

"Nevertheless, Jack put you on one. And it's a wife's most delightful position, my dear."

(To Be Continued)

Your Bathing Suit

All the girls, from 6 to 60, are carrying dolls these days. Usually, there's a reason.

On this doll the wide skirt folds itself about a bag which can be lowered to accomodate the bathing suit and all the bathing accessories. Then the bag is pulled under the doll's skirt, out of sight.

Most girls consider the doll a more pleasant medium by which to get the suit to the beach than the unwieldy bundle or the obvious bathing suit bag.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO AND GLORIA SWANSON AT THE CAPITOL TONIGHT

When the first picture flashes before you in that long awaited photo play, by Elinor Glyn, and directed by Sam Wood, you have the impression that something worth while is going to be seen. Enthusiasm is keen on the subject of the sensation at offering and the names of the two stars, are enough in themselves to make people want to see the play—but there is more than that to recommend the attraction: there are other fine actors, both men and women—whose names always prove a drawing power and the scenery affords many opportunities for really sensational stunts. In the scene in which Miss Swanson is rescued from a boat out of which she tumbles, realism is carried to a point where it seems as if nothing short of drowning is in store for her. The elegant Valentino, on board his pleasure yacht, is fortunately near at hand, and Theodora, is rescued in a romantic fashion as any maiden could possibly want to be. The fact that the lovely star does know how to swim made the rescue scene most thrilling—the Alpine near-accident is accomplished in a fashion that seems as though it might happen to anyone who might take a fancy to amateur photography, up in the clouds. If anyone should happen to fancy that sort of amusement, he better make sure that a life-saving crew hovers in the near-distance; Miss Swanson is just about to "snap" her friends when she approaches too close to the edge of the precipice and—over she goes.

The scenes on the Dorset coast of England, where the story opens, are delightful; the bold, rugged sea line, broken by great boulders which suggest the depths of emotion which change and color our lives, give one at the start, an idea of the story about to enfold before us, and the quaint, old street running along the uneven highway bordering the sea, with it's cottages suggesting the homey comfort which spells "England" to so many thousands of people now far distant from the shores of the old land, all lend atmosphere which make "Beyond the Rocks", a picture you will talk over long after the main thread of the story is forgotten.

AT THE ROYAL.

RISES TO STARDOM IN TWO YEARS ON SCREEN

Princess Jones did not mean to pose as a princeess of the blood. She was a normal and healthy minded American girl in humble circumstances, but thought she should do something to live up to the romantic name her mother had given here. She did not dream what amazing adventures she was to have

The story is told in "Princess Jones', by Joseph Franklin Poland, a Vitagraph production starring Alice Calhoun. It will be shown at the Royal Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Alice Calhoun is Vitagraph's youngest star in point of years and experience on the screen. She is eighteen years old, and her first appearance on the screen, in a small part in an O. Henry classic, was made only a little over two years ago. 'Princess Jones' provides an admirable vehicle for her appearance as a star

LITTLE KNOWN OUT-SIDE OF INDUSTRY

A. J. Bimberg, Producer of "Devotion," Introduced Many Famous Stars to Screen.

The name of O. J. Bimberg, the producer of "Devotion," featuring Hazel Dawn, which is the latest special feature to be released through Associated Producers, Inc., is not a familiar one to the motion picture public, although it is very well known to those on the inside of the fifth greatest industry in the United States.

Mr. Bimberg's connection with the motion picture art dates as far back as first "feature" picture produced in America, entitled "The Great Diamond Robbery." It is a far cry from that crude strip of film to his latest magnificent production, "Devotion," which comes to the Royal Theatre this week. But it is eloquent proof that the producer has been foresighted enough to keep just a step or two ahead of the march of events in this great industry.

One of Mr. Bimberg's most prominent traits is his foresight. An excellent instance of this is the elaborate studios which he has erected in New York City, but five minutes walk from Times Square, the heart of Manhattan. A few years ago, where the Amsterdam studios now stand, there was a famous theatre known as the Amsterdam Opera House. It was doing a flourishing business. Suddenly the theatrical world was surprised with the announcement that the property had been purchased by Mr. Bimberg, who announced his intention of tearing down the entire interior of the building and remodelling it into a motion picture studio. This was done at a cost of approximately $250,000. There were many who prophesied dire disaster for the venture. These were obliged to admit their mistake when one of the largest producing units leased the building for one year at a rental of $90,000.

The Amsterdam Studios, as they are now known, are the finest equipped and most spacious within the city of New York. A demonstration of the size of one of the stages is shown in "Devotion." Over 2,500 people appear in one scene filmed on the main stage of the Amsterdam studios.

Mr. Bimberg introduced to the screen many talented people who have since beecome popular stars. Florence Reed, one of the outstanding figures, was presented in five productions, namely, "Wives of Men," "The Code of Honor," "A Woman Under Oath," "Her Game" and "The Eternal Mother.' Mr. Bimberg was also instrumental in presenting Lina Cavalieri in her first screen production, "Manon Lescaut." Other productions sponsored by this producer include "Scandal Mongers," with Grace Davidson, "Indiscretion," with an all star cast and his latest effort of which he is both author and producer "Devotion," with Hazel Dawn.

Mr. Bimberg has the unique disinction of having financed every production he has been interested in without any outside aid. He is interested in many large commercial ventures outside of the motion picture industry, and it is his love for the art that keeps him in the rank of film producers.

In addition to those mentioned above Mr. Bimberg also first brought to the screen, Lionel Atwill, May McAvoy, Frank Mills, Conway Tearle, Gareth Hughes and a host of others who owe their start to screen fame to his foresight and faith in their ability.

AT THE REGENT.

THE CANDLES ON HER BIRTH-DAY CAKE.

She has been blind since babyhood, living with four friends whom she thought were wonderful people. But they were only humble thieves with hearts of gold who had told her all the wonderful tales of the beauty and splendour of her surroundings, because those innocent lies made her happy.

On her birthday they gave her a cake with lighted candles and it was the light of those candles filtering through the darkness that promised the restoration of her sight—and the consequent disillusionment of her little world.

"Eyes of the Heart" is Mary Miles Minter's greatest achievement. At the Regent to-night.

GERMAN OFFICERS IN RUSSIA.

French Suspect Plans For a Russo-German Military Accord.

PARIS, June 26. — Considerable concern is felt in French official circles over the arrival in Moscow of a German military mission, of which Colonel Bauer, chief aid to General Ludendorff, and Colonel Hentza, an assistant of Hugo Stinnes, are members. The officials say they have reason to believe the German military men have gone to Moscow to make a survey of the Soviet army with a view to a possible military accord between Germany and Russia.

The presence of German officers in Moscow, and the recent warlike utterances of M. Freundse, Chief of Staff of the Bolshevist army, are regarded by the French officials as significant.

FINDS PRESS BEST YET FOR ADVERTISING

NEW YORK, June 26. — Sir Charles F. Higham, M.P., European Vice-President of the Associated Advertising Club of the World, was the guest of the League of Advertising Women of New York at a recent luncheon at Keen's English Chop House in West Thirty-sixth Street.

"We have got to be worthy of the honor which we as advertisers possess, that of molding public opinion," said Sir Charles. "The newspaper is the greatest force there is and the cheapest medium for the advertiser. You reach more people on the same day and can sell goods for less money through the newspaper than you can in any other media. Perhaps my friends who do bill board advertising will disagree with me, —but the billboard is only to remind, whereas the press is to instruct.

Excursionists Went to Wallace's Point For the Afternoon.

The annual Sunday School excursion of Knox Church was held on Saturday afternoon to Wallace's Point by the steamer Stoney Lake. Owing to the ideal afternoon, a great many people flocked to the wharf just in time to see the boat sailing away, filled to capacity. Fortunately Mr. H. J. McCannan was able to make arrangements to have the rest of the crowd, numbering about 125 people, conveyed by motor cars to the picnic grounds.

During the afternoon the children availed themselves of the different amusement facilities at the Point.

Girls, 6 to 8—1, Margaret Dunlop (handkerchief); 2, Ruth Allen (ball).

Girls, 10 to 12—1, Mildred Hunter; 2, Mary Dunlop.

Girls, 12 to 14—1, Tilda Dunlop; 2, Margaret McCullough.

Lady Teachers—Miss Ruby Carr (scrubbing brush).

Married Ladies—1, Mrs. Wood (O-Cedar mop); 2, Mrs. Russell (plant).

Girls' Three-legged—1, Alice Dunkerley and Helen Carroll (cash); 2, Viola Harvey and Mildred Hunter (cash).

Boys, 6 to 8—1, Roy Rutherford (running shoes); 2, Willie Abbott (ball).

Boys, 10 to 12—1, Gordon Beavis; 2, Reginald Waldie.

Boys, 12 to 14—1, Wilson Dunlop; 2, Vernon Beavis.

Boys, 15 to 16—1, Roy Hunter; 2, Harold Rutherford.

Gentlemen Teachers—Mr. McCannan (fly swatter).

Married men—1, Mr. P. Long; 2, Mr. McCannan.

Three-legged race — 1, Gordon Morrison and Vernon Beavis (cash); 2, Gordon Beavis and Archie Menzies (cash).

Sack race—1, Gordon Morrison and Vernon Beavis (cash); 2, Gordon Beavis and Archie Menzies (cash).

After the sports, the crowd divided into congenial groups to enjoy the bountiful baskets, for which the afternoon had sharpened the appetites, urged on by the youngsters, and the exclamation "Oh, my!" was heard all over the grounds, telling of the keenness of "aching voids" among the younger fry.

The refreshment booth was in charge of Mr. Arthur McLeish, Jr., and proved a big success, materially and financially.

The weary but happy excursionists returned to town, safe and sound, after one of the most, if not the most, successful picnics in the history of Knox Church Sunday School.

WEDDING BELLS

SMITH — GOODWIN

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon June 24th before a large congregation at the Park street Baptist Church, when Nellie, eldest daughter of Mr. Harry Goodwin of Chamberlain street, was united in marriage to Mr. John Smith, late of Manchester England.

The Church was prettily decorated both inside and out, the ceremony performed by the Rev. W. E. Morrow, B.A., pastor of the church The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. Nicholls late organist of the church. She was daintly attired in navy blue silk gown with burnt orange silk panel and vestee. Her large white hat was caught up with a cluster of orange silk roses and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

Miss Doris Goodwin, youngest sister of the bride, made a pretty bridesmaid in blue silk gown embroidered in rose and gold beads, with a large picture hat and carrying bouquet of pink carnations and ferns.

The bride and groom left by the afternoon train for a honeymoon at Toronto, Hamilton, London and Niagara Falls.

OBITUARY

JOHN M. WALSH.

One of the oldest residents of Douro Township passed away to-day, in the person of John M. Walsh, aged 86. He had spent the greater part of his life in the township, was a member of the Township Council, and sat in the County Council as Deputy Reeve of Douro. He was the last surviving member of the committee who, under Father Keilty, built the present church at Douro.

He is survived by his wife, five sons: Thomas of Winnipeg, Richard of Ottawa, James and Michael of Douro and Fred at home, and three daughters: Mrs. R. H. Greer and Loretta of Toronto, and Mrs. W. Keelan, Melita, Manitoba. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, from the residence of his son, Fred, to St. Martin's Church and Cemetery.

MRS. C. W. GAGE

A resident of this city for many years and particularly well known by the older people, Mrs. C. W. Gage, aged 81, passed away at the home of her late brother-in-law, R. H. Orde, Otonabee, to-day. Deceased was of a well-known family, the youngest daughter of the late Claude Toker of this city. Her husband was killed in an accident many years ago in Otonabee township and after her husband's death she lived in the city, laterly on Mark street. She is survived by one son Charles, at Dawson City, Yukon territory. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Social Calendar

Mrs. Neice and her brother Robert Neice of New York City are spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hawthorne at their summer camp, Billycan.

Miss Irene Davidson of Campbellford, is the guest of Miss Jennie Frederick, Dublin street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Johnston, Miss Eva Martin and Miss E. Thompson, of Campbellford, were week end visitors in the city.

Mr. Dan Holland of Montreal, spent the week end in the city with his family, accompanied by Mr. J. Ouillette of Montreal.

The Misses Ruth Clement of Waterloo and Helene Allsworth, of Montreal, who will act as attendants for Miss Muriel Harvey at her wedding to Mr. G. Clifton Carruthers on Wednesday of this week, arrived in the city this afternoon.

The Misses Helen Bulmer and Jean McFarlane were hostesses at the home of the latter, 426 Donegal street, at a miscellaneous shower given in honorof Miss Muriel Harvey, on Saturday evening. The guests, numbering about thirty, were entertained to an al fresco tea in the garden, which was illuminated by Japanese lanterns and decorated with balloons and colored hoops in rainbow shades. The long candle-lighted table was effectively arranged with a simulated green pathway running its entire length, which was bordered with tiny pine trees and had as centre a miniature pond. Refreshments were served by five small maidens, wearing rainbow-tinted aprons. About 11 o'clock, the guests adjourned to the verandah, where Miss Harvey was seated beneath a large ribbboned box with long pendant streamers, which, when pulled, released a shower of gifts and confetti. Expressions of appreciation were extended by Mrs. E. E. Harvey and Miss Harvey for the prettily arranged entertainment. During the evening, a vocal solo was rendered by Miss Doris Donley, with accompaniment by Miss Gwen Donley, and a reading by Miss Hazel Davidson.

Another recent affair given in honor of Miss Harvey, whose marriage takes place on Wednesday of this week, was a tea at the residence of Mrs. H. Foote, 809 George street, attended by twenty-one of the friends of the bride-elect. A unique touch was added to the affair by giving each guest a cheesecloth duster to be hemmed, the completed dusters then being presented to Miss Harvey in a large gingham dust-bag. The pretty rooms were decorated with rose peonies, orange blossoms and carnations, and the tea table with pink daisies and feverfew. Mrs. E. E. Harvey poured tea, with Mrs. G. C. Carruthers cutting ices, the Misses May Reid, Mabel Gardiner, Mary Gardiner and Marion Shelton acting as assistants.

Mrs. A. E. Ormond and daughter, of Victoria, B.C., are in the city until to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. Devall, 514 Water street, was hostess on Saturday at a small tea given in honor of Mrs. R. J. Devey and Mrs. Joseph Welsh, who are sailing for England on Thursday of this week. Several members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A. and their friends were present, including Mesdames Patterson, Biggs, Bugg, Massey-Cooke, Cameron, Clark, Devey, Welsh, Miller. Refreshments were served, and many expressions of good wishes for a safe journey and return extended to the two ladies.

Miss Estelle Cuffe of St. Catharines, spent the week-end at her home in this city.

Mrs. John J. Common of Montreal, is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Parker, 384 Park street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McKee Bingham, who are summering at their cottage, opposite Gore's Landing until October 1st., were in the city on Saturday morning.

Mr. Nicholas Bibley of Hastings was in the city over the week end. His wife underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Field of Detroit, Mich., is spending his holidays at the home of his parents, 215 Princess Street.

Miss Kathleen Cuffe of the Barnardo Home Office, has gone to Toronto to take up her work for the home in that city.

Previous to the marriage of Miss Nellie Goodwin and Mr. John Smith, which took place on Saturday, the young couple were the recipients of several showers, one from the Gleaners' Class of the Park Street Sunday School, of which the bride is a member; the gifts including silverware, glass and linen; also one held at the home of Mr. Hensley, of which firm the groom is an employee, the presentation consisting of a beautiful clock from his fellow-workmen, and a kitchen shower for the bride. The choir of the church presented the groom, who is one of its members, with a handsome set of carvers. Many other valuable and costly gifts were received from friends in the city, and also from overseas, showing the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Mrs. Clare Chittick and Master Robert and baby Doris, of Lakefield, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flynn, of Smith Falls.

DIED.

GAGE.— Mrs. Georgina M. Gage, this morning, June 26th, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of her nephew, Henry Orde, Lot 13, 11th Concession Otonabee, Aged 81 years.

Funeral Wednesday at 2 o'clock to Little Lake cemetery.

COMBING WHOLE OF EUROPE FOR MURDER CLUES

Untiring Efforts to Locate Slayers of German Foreign Minister Rathenau —Sailor Suspects.

LATE DESPATCHES

BERLN, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Four departmental chiefs and two hundred inspectors are devoting their entire energies to following possible clues to the whereabouts of the assassins of Foreign Minister Rathenau, while in addition to headquarter's activities flying squads are scouring the country.

The German Government has requested authorities at Helsingfors, Finland, to detain three men who embarked on steamship Rugen at Stettin, Saturday afternoon, representing themselves as British sailors.

ONE MINER KILLED.

BRIDGPORT, Ohio, June 17.—(Canadian Press).—One miner was killed and another wounded this morning, when they were fired upon from the hills while en route to work at the tripe Mine of the Catherine Coal Co. at Uniontown, near here, according to information to hand. The victims were in an automobile when the shooting began.

REUNION OF CHINA.

PEKING, China, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Political obstacles to the re-union of China to-day seemed fewer in number and less in power than at any time for a number of years. Except for Sun Yat Sen, the deposed President of the Southern Chinese Government, who has declined to admit his deposition, there was no outstanding figure contending with recognized officials at Peking, or even apparently likely to contend with them for supremacy in Chinese Government affairs. Dr. Sun's appeal, it seems, is to be a force of arms and while the Cantonese faction predicts it will be crowned with success, the Northern or Peking Government and adherents of the unification movement are optimistic that the reverse will be the case. In this it is probable that they are placing considerable reliance on the military genius of General Wu Pei Fu, conquerer of Chang Tso Lin, the Manchurian who last month threatened to overthrow the Peking Government.

RUMOR BOISTEROUS.

LONDON, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Hon. C. Larkin says the rumor that he is to resign as Canadian High Commissioner is preposterous.

Despatches have been sent out of Ottawa to the effect that Hon. Mr. Larkin had intimated to Premier Mackenzie King that he would resign his High Commissionership within the next few months and return to Canada as he was out of sympathy with the immigration policy of the Dominion Government. Mr. Larkin entered upon his duties as Canadian High Commissioner on April 1, last.

"FRAME CASES ON MOTORISTS

Complaint At Highway Officers Say Drivers Into Speed.

Prominent farmers in both Smith and North Monaghan townships have reported complaints that some recent arrests on the gravel and Chemong roads were in a sense framed up. "We don't want speeding on our roads but we don't want people being enticed or driven to exceed the limit by the police" said a former old of North Monaghan. "I am told of several cases in which it is that motorists were driving along Gravel road at a fairly fast rate but within the law. They heard their car honking behind them, at first paid no attention to it, the next they noticed was this car running up alongside them and then falling back again behind it and blowing their siren impatiently. These tactics were kept until the driver of the first car put on speed and was then notified that they had broken the law and would have to pay a fine."

That was the Monaghan story, and the one from Smith was the same. No constable's name was mentioned, but it is confirmed that these case are authentic.

"We don't want to be accusations of that kind' said the Monaghan man. 'There are enough officers without stooping to method of that kind. That is the way some of the O.T.A. spotters are said to get their convictions and we don't want anything of the same method whatever patrolling is done on the improved highways or on any of the country roads".

An American has asserts that Capt. Kidd was a pirate and that he amassed a fabulous treasure.

Sawdust Started Incipient Blaze

Had workmen at the Peterboro Canoe company last night not worked overtime it is possible that the plant would have been destroyed when fire broke out in an inconspicuous but dangerous place in the heart of the factory. Sawdust packed underneath the floor over the boilers became heated and worked into a nice smudge when it was discovered by employees. The fire brigade were called at about 6.15 and a few pails of water served to check the blaze. The accumulation of sawdust between the floor and concrete tanks below will be cleaned out so that a repetition of the fire may not occur. If the fire had not been discovered it would probably have developed into one of serious proportions.

A FORMER LOCAL ON RETIRED LIST

Rev. Dr. George Henderson Has Had an Active and Useful Career in Ministry.

After 47 years in the Canadian ministry Rev. Dr. George W. Henderson lately of St. Thomas has retired. Dr. Henderson will be remembered as the pastor of the old Charlotte street Methodist church from 1908 to 1912. That he has been prominent in the church is shown by the fact that in 1900 he represented the London conference at the Ecumenical council in London, England and in 1913 was honoured by his alma mater Wesleyan Theological college, Montreal, with the degree of D. D. Among his charges were the following: Chatham, Dresden, London, Windsor, Sarnia, St. Mary's Lindsay, Port Hope, Peterboro, St. Catharines, Brantford and St. Thomas.

Since his ordination Dr. Henderson has conducted over 1600 wedings and had charge of 1260 funerals. His record year in marriages was in Windsor, where in three years he united 662 couples in the bonds of matrimony.

A FULL BONUS ON MINIMUM WAGE OF $1560 YEAR

Mr. G. N. Gordon Writes Explaining the Position of Matters to Local Letter Carriers.

Since the local member of the Federal House, Mr. G. N. Gordon, brought to the attention of the Prime Minister and the Postmaster General the views of Peterborough posties in regard to the proposed cuts in bonuses of civil servants, it has been announced that a full bonus will be allowed on a minimum salary of $1,560. The following letter, under date of June 24th, from Mr. G. N. Gordon, has been received by Thomas Darrah, secretary of the local Letter Carriers' Association, which explains the situation:

"Ottawa, Ont., June 24th, 1922.

"Thos. Darrah, Esq.,

"Peterborough, Ontario:

"Dear Mr. Darrah,—As you will remember, some of the postmen spoke to me about an effort being made to fix a minimum of $1,560.00 for the Civil Service.

"I am glad to say that I brought this to the attention of the Prime Minister, and the Postmaster General, and, whether it was through my efforts, or the efforts of others, the Prime Minister announced to-day, that on the minimum salary of $1,560.00 a full bonus would be continued, while those running above that amount would receive the proportionate cuts and deductions indicated by the Prime Minister, about three weeks ago, in the House of Commons.

"As I promised to let you know what the result of my efforts were, I take pleasure in now advising you, and would ask you to kindly communicate to the other members of the Association, the position of matters."

DEMERS INVESTIGATES TWO COLLISION CASES

MONTREAL, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Captain L. A. Demers, Dominion wreck commissioner, concluded his formal enquiry into two collision cases here yesterday. The first was between the steamers Key West and Glen Mavis which occurred in the Welland Canala May 9. The second occurred early in May off Three Rivers between the Minabrae and the Tug Long Sault with a barge. Considerable damage was done in each case and much contradictory evidence was heard.

There were approximately twice as many deaths from motor vehicle accidents in 1920 as there were in 1915.

WILL HARNESS RIVER JORDAN IN PALESTINE

Jews Are Contributing to a Large Fund For This Purpose—Develope the Country.

FURNISH POWER

NEW YORK, June 27. — Nearly $1,000,000 has already been guaranteed by Jews in this country for use in harnessing the waters of the Jordan River to supply electric power for light, railways, irrigation, industrial and other purposes in Palestine, according to a statement made public here by the Palestine Development Council, 31 Union Square.

The campaign for funds for this purpose is also being carried on among Jews in England, France, and other parts of Europe. Five million dollars is required for the completion of the first part of the Rutenberg project, as it is called, under which the swift descent of the Jordan from the Hermon Mountains to the Dead Sea is to be utilised to furnish power, as a basis of the development of Palestine.

The cost of coal at Palestine—about $25.00 a ton—is one of the chief reasons for the backwardness of the country in industry and transportation. A complete modernisation of the Holy Land is promised by the projectors of the plan. The concessions for the project have been granted by the British Government, which holds the Palestine mandate, to Pinhas Rutenberg, who is in this city at present, acting in co-operation with many prominent Jews.

Harnessing the Jordan.

The engineering problems involved in harnessng the water power of the Jordan are unique because of the fact that the river, when it falls into the Dead Sea, is 1,290 feet below sea level. The first stage of the project however, involves the utilization of the upper waters of the Jordan. The springs of the Jordan start in the watershed of the Hermon range in Palestine. These mountains rise to a height of 4,000 feet above sea level, so that the total fall of the Jordan is more than 5,200 feet. The river is 140 miles long. The technical plan is described by the Council as follows:

"Mr. Rutenberg's plan in its final development contemplates the utilization of the Jordan from its headwaters to the Dead Sea and the use of the waters of the Yarmuk and the harnessing of its falls to the east. The scheme is capable, however, of gradual accomplishment in successive stages.

"At present it is planned to carry out only the first part of the general scheme, which involves the utilization of the falls of the River Jordan between Lake Tiberias and Jisr-el-Mujamyeh. The damming of the Jordan, where it leaves the Lake of Tiberias, will make of that lake a great natural storage reservoir; better, in fact, than human engineering could provide. By means of this reservoir water of the Jordan (and later also of the Yarmuk) may be conserved in the wet season for use in the dry season and its flow so regulated during the day as to let the water out of the reservoir to the turbines at such hours and in such quantities as to meet the actual demands of energy.

Transmission of Power.

"From the power house or power houses on the Jordan the energy will be conducted by high tension lines of 66,000 volts to the main centres of consumption, where it will be transformed and transmitted by lines and covers of medium tension of 15,000 volts in the country districts and of 6,000 volts in the towns. It is further planned to erect in the main centres of consumption of energy—that is, Jaffa, Haifa and Jerusalem—reserve fuel power houses to supplement the hydraulic stations in the event of any interruptions or shortage for any reason of the Jordan energy."

Report Declares Blockade Has Maintained the Soviets in Power

THE HAGUE, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Soviet Russia will have its first tussle with representatives of Western Europe at the Hague Conference this afternoon when M. Litvinoff and his associates met with sub-commission on credits. The fact that credits will be the first matter of business discussed is considered as victory for the Soviets over French representatives who resentd that the discussion on credits should be first on list.

The Associated Press has obtained with permission to publish, a copy of the private report on Russia which will be distributed to the chiefs of delegations from non-Russian countries. This report embodies views of prominent and competent European observers of Liberal tendencies who recently came from Russia after making a thorough investigation of political conditions there. The report, remarkable for its brevity, finds, that, barring unforeseen events, the Soviet regime is not near a collapse, the economic exhaustion of Russia is complete the Soviets are divided among themselves, hatred of the old regime is general among the people blockade and foreign military aggresson have maintained the Soviets in power; Soviets recognize that only foreignere can reconstruct Russia.

CARS COLLIDE IN BAD WRECK

Ernest Hanna and L. Stevens Had a Narrow Escape.

Ernest Hanna, who has driven automobiles since 1905, is a holder of the first chauffeur's license in this city, owner and driver of the second horseless carriage in Peterborough, was never in an accident until last night at 7.30 o'clock, when he was in a collision with Leslie Stevens at the corner of Brock and Aylmer streets. Hanna was returning to J. E. A. Fitzgerald's sales rooms, where he is employed, with a brand new five passenger automobile taken out of the box car the day previous and ready for delivery to-day. He was completing the turn from Aylmer street into Brock street when struck by the heavy automobile approaching from the north. As the other car was some distance away, Hanna believed he had the right-of-way.

The impact reversed the progress of the new automobile and it skidded backward and turned over on one side. The driver was not thrown out, but received painful bruises. Stevens' car swerved to the west and plunged into the bowling green. Had a tree not interfered with its westward career the damage would not likely have been so great, but against a stout elm the right hand side crumped up, completing the wreck.

Fitzgerald's car was promptly dragged into the coal and wood yard, where it was soon the centre of a large crowd. About 9 p.m. Stevens' car was salvaged by George Evans. The damage to both cars was extensive, but was confined to the bow. The wheels, hood, fenders, lights, springs and shock absorbers in the automobiles were jumbled up in each case into a mass of wreckage. The frames of the automobiles were twisted and the loss will be heavy. Both drivers considered they were rather fortunate in not having any passengers in the smash-up.

Meeting of Canadian Manufacturers Was Unqualified Success.

ALGONQUIN HOTEL, St. Andrews by the Sea, June 27.— The Canadian Manufacturers' Convention for 1922 is now a thing of the past, and to the almost two hundred delegates and others who were here last week attending the sessions it will be a pleasant memory.

So much of a success has been this year's convention that it can be said without violating any confidences that the most influential members of the Association are anxious to hold future conventions under similar conditions. The nearest duplication of what this place has offered that Ontario presents is Niagara Falls, if the demands of Toronto to have the convention there can be overcome.

Doubts were expressed as to the feasibility of holding the convention here this year after past gatherings had always taken place at large cities, but all doubts were quickly swept aside as soon as the convention got settled down, and it was found there was such a high percentage of attendance at the sessions by the delegates.

The casino provided an excellent meeting place, and the records show more discussion than in any four conventions in the past, while there has been more fraternizing by the delegates who have gotten to know one another to a greater degree than ever before.

John R. Shaw of Woodstock, the new president, when asked for an opinion as to this year's convention, said his only hope was that one equally successful could be staged in Ontario next year.

J. E. Walsh, the general manager of the C. M. A., said the innovation of devoting only the mornings to business sessions had proved so successful this year that it would doubtless be continued. The convention which has just closed, he said, was not surpassed in the years of his connection with the organization.

A giant crawfish, weighing 80 pounds and measuring more than three feet in length, was captured recently off the Florida coast.

CRUSADE NOW FOR HEALTH EDUCATION

Mankind Awake to Need of Disease Prevention and Scientific Care of Children.

"How does the profession of nursing compare, as a career, with other vocations open to the very modern young person of to-day?"

This question I have been asked to analyze and answer for the benefit of the rising generation. Broadly speaking there is probably no other profession that offers such variety in scope and such pinnacles of progress to scale as that for which Florence Nightingale blazed the way less than one hundred years ago.

Mankind Well Awake.

Never before has mankind been so awake and aroused to the necessity of health education. Prevention of disease, conservation of the life forces, scientific care of children, community as well as individual hygiene—these are subjects of universal and momentous importance throughout the civilized world today. Constructive, positve thinking and planning along health lines have replaced the concepetion prevailing a generation ago that disease and poverty and misery were mysterious decrees of divine Providence, to be endured with passive resignation.

A nation-wide crusade for health and efficiency is on—a crusade which has been extended by the American Red Cross Nursing Service to every country of Europe where Red Cross activities have been operated. As a result higher standards of living and nobler conceptions of the duty of the more fortunately circumstanced toward the poorer peoples of earth have been established throughout the near east and in the less progressive countries of central Europe; while a long forward step has been taken insuring for the future an adequate nursing personnel to carry on what the American Red Cross has begun, by the establishment of schools of nursing in Warsaw and Poznan, in Poland, in Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, and at the American Hospital at Constantinople.

Red Cross nurses have laid down the principles and guided the course of these European schools from the beginning and the American Red Cross has contributed generously to their support.

In South America also American nurses are greatly in demand for similar pioneer work, while in our island possessions in the West Indies, and in the Philippines higher health standards are everywhere being set up under the sponsorship of the highly specialied graduate nurse from the states.

Nurse's Great Part.

For it is the nurse who will be the chief administrator in this world-wide programme for health and happiness. Her trained and disciplined mind and technical skill, broadened by her wide contacts through the public health work which is a part of her education in practically every first-class school of nursing, will enable her to interpret the laws of health in every land and instruct the family how to apply them in the home and in the community.

The nurse goes forth, the evangel of better living conditions and the maximum of personal efficiency and well being for all, into private homes and public institutions, into schools and industrial plants, into crowded city slums and into the remote rural districts, preaching the gospel of good health and disease prevention and insuring to the little ones and to those that are yet unborn their rightful heritage of sound health, sanitary surroundings and fair chance in the world as they grow up.

No power in the social fabric is more potent for far-reaching betterment than the graduate nurse. She is the creator of higher conceptions of living, the conservator of childhood, the minister of mercy and relief, and the universal educator who imparts to all with whom she comes in contact the most precious secret mankind may aspire to learn—the knowledge of how to keep well.

PREMIER SEES NECESSITY OF PARTY SYSTEM

BACK FROM WEST

BARRIE, Ont., June 27.—(Special).—Premier Drury was caught by your correspondent in an unparliamentary pose on his Crown Hill Farm upon his return from the West last evening. He was attired in collarless shirt and an ancient pair of trousers, and he was stationed in the midst of a strawberry patch manipulatling a rather feeble hose.

Your correspondent followed up and down the strawberry patch. Conversation turned naturally to crop prospects in the West, which seem excellent, and thus to political prospects, which, from the Progressive point of view, are even more so.

"There is a noticeable growth of Progressivism in all the Western Provinces since the general election," stated Mr. Drury. "Even in British Columbia Progressives are gaining a foothold, and the change is particularly marked in the cities of the Prairie Provinces. The entire West is becoming strongly Progressive."

Prohibition Question.

"What did you think of Western temperance legislation?" asked the reporter.

"I saw nothing on my trip," replied Mr. Drury, carefully, "to make me feel there should be a change in our own system of prohibition."

The Premier referred almost at once to the U.F.O.-Liberal alliance tale appearing in a morning paper.

"That's a ridiculouls story," he remarked disgustedly, "and absolutely without any foundation. There has been no dickering or bargaining, and no negotiations of any sort. It's entirely foolish and premature."

Mr. J. J. Morrison was mentioned.

"There is no sign of antagonism between Mr. Morrison and myself," said the Premier, "and that part of the story is as absurd as the rest. Our relations are more friendly, I believe, than they have ever been."

"But your differences of opinion remain?" suggested the reporter.

Differences in Theory.

"There are differences in theory," said the Premier. "Our objectives are the same. The chief difference is that Mr. Morrison believes a system of group government both practicable and desirable. He wishes to see a Cabinet drawn from all sections of thought and working in harmony without any official opposition. He does not believe in the old two-party system, and points to the county council as proof that government by party is unnecessary."

"And your ideas?" asked the reporter, and obtained an interesting explanation of the Premier's political theories.

"I believe in the necessity of a party system," he stated. "History proves it. The group system with the group Cabinet contains too many possibilities of bargaining for selfish purposes between different factions. Good government requires administration by one party and a

COMMUNIST PAPER SUED A BANKRUPT

Former Editor is Sued to Obtain Damages Awarded in Libel Action.

LONDON, June 27.— (Canadian Press.) — Bankruptcy proceedings against Francis Meynell, former editor of the London Communist newspaper have been taken at the instance of J. H. Thomas, M.P. and labor leader in the railwaymens' union respecting the £2,000 damages for libel recently obtained by Thomas as a result of attacks centering on his privy councillorship. Security held by Thomas at present for the £2,000 damages consists of debentures having a face value of £3,000 in the Daily Herald, labor paper but which Mr. Thomas valued at £50. The bankrupt attribes his financial troubles to the libel action.

The question of the propriety of labor leaders holding privy councillorships will be a subject of debate at the general labor conference in Edinburgh his week.

MEXICAN REBELS HOLD PROPERTIES

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(Canadian Press.)—Forty employees of the Cortez Oil Company near Tampico and the destructible property valued at quarter million dollars are being held by a rebel general until a ransom of fifteen thousand pesos is paid according to a message from the United States Consulate at Tampico to the State Department here.

EXPECT BUMPER TOURIST TRADE

Hotel Accommodation at Peterborough District's Lakes Will Be at a Premium.

That there will be a bumper tourist business this summer in this district is the expectation of hotel proprietors, railroad and boat men and others who have an opportunity to feel the pulse of the touring public. Although the season does not open until July 1 there has already been a big invasion, and reports received in Peterborough city show that the hotel accommodation at the lakes will soon be at premium. Pleasant Point Inn, Sturgeon Lake, is reported full, Kawartha Inn on Pigeon Lake, is doing a comfortable trade with many reservations, Bobcaygeon hotels are busier than in years, and Stoney Lake houses are reported with bright prospects for a busy summer. Two new hotels are being built on Sturgeon lake by a syndicate, and it is not beyond the realm of possibility that a hotel will be put up at Chemong before the cool breezes blow.

Motor Car Helps.

Of course there is not a tidal wave of tourists, but there are a great many more than a few years ago and for this the automobile is largely responsible. Half-a-dozen American cars nestled on George street today while their male and female passengers made purchases that ranged all the way from fish hooks to oil of citronella. A large number of visitors have dropped into the Chamber of Commerce enquiring about roads and routes and voicing one universal lament, that is, that under present conditions, it is expensive and cumbersome to bring an auto across from Charlotte on the Cobourg-Rochester ferry and so save a long drive around Lake Ontario.

Shortest Route.

The automobilists who come in year after year are anxious to get to the lakes by the shortest possible route, and have no desire to spend another day en route. At present the autos shipped across the lake are in box cars, there being no provision for handling motor vehicles directly, and New York motorists are now agitating for an improved service whereby with a minimum of expense and trouble they could drive directly on the boat. Such a service would be particularly in the interests of this district, as it would place Peterborough within a few hours' motoring distance of Rochester and New York State cities, from which at the present time a large number of the summer tourists come.

The local Chamber of Commerce will again take up this matter in a joint agitation with the Cobourg chamber directed to the railway company, who when pressed before claimed it would cost a large sum of money to make it possible to handle motor vehicles. Americans are interested in getting the improvement from a business standpoint, for it would encourage Canadians driving to the States.

A Brisk Opening.

According to local hotel proprietors the summer business has opened up briskly. G. White, of the White House and C. G. Graham, of the Empress look for a good season. Discussing the hotel accommodation in the city Mr. Graham pointed out that the first three days in the week business was on the upgrade, but fell off the last three. The tourist trade was, however, always protected, he said, and commercial men had been put up at private houses to accommodate summer visitors. The hotel men were doing all they could to encourage summer trade, but Mr. Graham declared that any attempt to provide accommodation at the lakes must necessarily be made conservatively. The cost of hotel accommodation was at the peak, he said, and two months' business had to run the place all year. High costs, he felt, were against any exploiting of the territory by hotel men, and he thought the hotel trade if justifiable would follow the tourists.

Cottages Rent Freely.

Cottages at the lakes are reported to be renting as freely as in other years, although rents have declineds lightly. Places that were asking $300 last year have come down to $200 for the season. Rents by the month run from $50 to $75. The Chamber of Commerce has out of six places listed rented two of them to Americans from Pennsylvania and Ohio, expected here this week. Every mail is bringing enquiries in regard to summering in the district. The G. T.R. Motor Boat Club of Point St. Charles, Quebec, anticipates a cruise through the waterway the middle of July Mr. G. Marshall has advised Secretary L. Fraser.

Untiring Efforts to Locate Slayers of German Foreign Minister Rathenau —Sailor Suspects.

LATE DESPATCHES

BERLIN, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Four departmental chiefs and two hundred inspectors are devoting their entire energies to following possible clues to the whereabouts of the assassins of Foreign Minister Rathenau, while in addition to headquarter's activities flying squads are scouring the country.

The German Government has requested authorities at Helsingfors, Finland, to detain three men who embarked on steamship Rugen at Stettin, Saturday afternoon, representing themselves as British sailors.

ONE MINER KILLED.

BRIDGEPORT, Ohio, June 17.—(Canadian Press).—One miner was killed and another wounded this morning, when they were fired upon from the hills while en route to work at the Stripe Mine of the Catherine Coal Co. at Uniontown, near here, according to information to hand. The victims were in an automobile when the shooting began.

REUNION OF CHINA.

PEKING, China, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Political obstacles to the re-union of China to-day seemed fewer in number and less in power than at any time for a number of years. Except for Sun Yat Sen, the deposed President of the Southern Chinese Government, who has declined to admit his deposition, there was no outstanding figure contending with recognized officials at Peking, or even apparently likely to contend with them for supremacy in Chinese Government affairs. Dr. Sun's appeal, it seems, is to be a force of arms, and while the Cantonese faction predicts it will be crowned with success, the Northern or Peking Government and adherents of the unification movement are optimistic that the reverse will be the case. In this it is probable that they are placing considerable reliance on the military genius of General Wu Pei Fu, conquerer of Chang Teo Lin, the Manchurian who last month threatened to overthrow the Peking Government.

RUMOR PREPOSTEROUS.

LONDON, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Hon. P. C. Larkin says the rumor that he is to resign as Canadian High Commissioner is preposterous.

Despatches have been sent out of Ottawa to the effect that Hon. Mr. Larkin had intimated to Premier Mackenzie King that he would resign his High Commissionership within the next few months and return to Canada as he was out of sympathy with the immigration policy of the Dominion Government. Mr. Larkin entered upon his duties as Canadian High Commissioner on April 1, last.

"FRAME" CASES ON MOTORISTS

Complaint That Highway Officers Annoy Drivers Into Speeding.

Prominent farmers in both Smith and North Monaghan townships have reported complaints that some recent arrests on the gravel and Chemong roads were in a sense framed up. "We don't want speeding on our roads but we don't want people being encouraged or driven to exceed the limit by the police" said a former official of North Monaghan. "I am told of several cases in which it said that motorists were driving along the Gravel road at a fairly fast rate but within the law. They heard another car honking behind them, but at first paid no attention to it. The next they noticed was this car coming up alongside them and then falling back again behind them and blowing their siren insistently. These tactics were kept up until the driver of the first car put on speed and was then notified that they had broken the law and would have to pay a fine."

That was the Monaghan story, and the one from Smith was the same. No constable's name was mentioned, but it is affirmed that these case are authentic.

"We don't want prosecutions of that kind' said the Monaghan man. 'There are enough speeders without stooping to methods of that kind. That is the way some of the O.T.A. spotters are said to get their convictions and we don't want anything of the same method in whatever patrolling is done on the improved highways or on any of the country roads".

An American historian asserts that Capt. Kidd was not a pirate and that he amassed no fabulous treasure.

Sawdust Started Incipient Blaze

Had workmen at the Peterboro Canoe company last night not worked overtime it is possible that the plant would have been destroyed when fire broke out in an inconspicuous but dangerous place in the heart of the factory. Sawdust packed underneath the floor over the boilers became heated and worked into a nice smudge when it was discovered by employees. The fire brigade were called at at 6.15 and a few pails of water served to check the blaze. The accumulation of sawdust between the floor and concrete tanks below will be cleaned out so that a repetition of the fire may not occur. If the fire had not been discovered it would probably have developed into one of serious proportions.

A FORMER LOCAL ON RETIRED LIST

Rev. Dr. George Henderson Has Had an Active and Useful Career in Ministry.

After 47 years in the Canadian ministry Rev. Dr. George W. Henderson lately of St. Thomas has retired. Dr. Henderson will be remembered as the pastor of the old Charlotte street Methodist church from 1908 to 1912. That he has been prominent in the church is shown by the fact that in 1900 he represented the London conference at the Ecumenical council in London, England and in 1913 was honoured by his alma mater Wesleyan Theological college, Montreal, with the degree of D. D. Among his charges were the following: Chatham, Dresden, London, Windsor, Sarnia, St. Mary's Lindsay, Port Hope, Peterboro, St. Catharines, Brantford and St. Thomas.

Since his ordination Dr. Henderson has conducted over 1600 wed dings and had charge of 1260 funerals. His record year in marriages was in Windsor, where in three years he united 662 couples in the bonds of matrimony.

A FULL BONUS ON MINIMUM WAGE OF $1560 YEAR

Mr. G. N. Gordon Writes Explaining the Position of Matters to Local Letter Carriers.

Since the local member of the Federal House, Mr. G. N. Gordon, brought to the attention of the Prime Minister and the Postmaster General the views of Peterborough posties in regard to the proposed cuts in bonuses of civil servants, it has been announced that a full bonus will be allowed on a minimum salary of $1,560. The following letter, under date of June 24th, from Mr. G. N. Gordon, has been received by Thomas Darrah, secretary of the local Letter Carriers' Association, which explains the situation:

"Ottawa, Ont., June 24th, 1922.
"Thos. Darrah, Esq.,
"Peterborough, Ontario:

"Dear Mr. Darrah,—As you will remember, some of the postmen spoke to me about an effort being made to fix a minimum of $1,560.00 for the Civil Service.

"I am glad to say that I brought this to the attention of the Prime Minister, and the Postmaster General, and, whether it was through my efforts, or the efforts of others, the Prime Minister announced to-day, that on the minimum salary of $1,-560.00 a full bonus would be continued, while those running above that amount would receive the proportionate cuts and deductions indicated by the Prime Minister, about three weeks ago, in the House of Commons.

"As I promised to let you know what the result of my efforts were, I take pleasure in now advising you, and would ask you to kindly communicate to the other members of the Association, the position of matters."

DEMERS INVESTIGATES TWO COLLISION CASES

MONTREAL, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Captain L. A. Demers, Dominion wreck commissioner, concluded his formal enquiry into two collision cases here yesterday. The first was between the steamers Key West and Glen Mavis which occurred in the Welland Canala May 9. The second occurred early in May off Three Rivers between the Minabrae and the Tug Long Sault with a barge. Considerable damage was done in each case and much contradictory evidence was heard.

There were approximately twice as many deaths from motor vehicle accidents in 1920 as there were in 1915.

WILL HARNESS RIVER JORDAN IN PALESTINE

Jews Are Contributing to a Large Fund For This Purpose—Develope the Country.

FURNISH POWER

NEW YORK, June 27. — Nearly $1,000,000 has already been guaranteed by Jews in this country for use in harnessing the waters of the Jordan River to supply electric power for light, railways, irrigation, industrial and other purposes in Palestine, according to a statement made public here by the Palestine Development Council, 31 Union Square.

The campaign for funds for this purpose is also being carried on among Jews in England, France, and other parts of Europe. Five million dollars is required for the completion of the first part of the Rutenberg project, as it is called, under which the swift descent of the Jordan from the Hermon Mountains to the Dead Sea is to be utilised to furnish power, as a basis of the development of Palestine.

The cost of coal at Palestine—about $25.00 a ton—is one of the chief reasons for the backwardness of the country in industry and transportation. A complete modernisation of the Holy Land is promised by the projectors of the plan. The concessions for the project have been granted by the British Government, which holds the Palestine mandate, to Pinhas Rutenberg, who is in this city at present, acting in co-operation with many prominent Jews.

Harnessing the Jordan.

The engineering problems involved in harnessng the water power of the Jordan are unique because of the fact that the river, when it falls into the Dead Sea, is 1,290 feet below sea level. The first stage of the project however, involves the utilization of the upper waters of the Jordan. The springs of the Jordan start in the watershed of the Hermon range in Palestine. These mountains rise to a height of 4,000 feet above sea level, so that the total fall of the Jordan is more than 5,200 feet. The river is 140 miles long. The technical plan is described by the Council as follows:

'Mr. Rutenberg's plan in its final development contemplates the utilization of the Jordan from its headwaters to the Dead Sea and the use of the waters of the Yarmuk and the harnessing of its falls to the east. The scheme is capable, however, of gradual accomplishment in successive stages.

"At present it is planned to carry out only the first part of the general scheme, which involves the utilization of the falls of the River Jordan between Lake Tiberias and Jisr-el-Mujamyeh. The damming of the Jordan, where it leaves the Lake of Tiberias, will make of that lake a great natural storage reservoir; better, in fact, than human engineering could provide. By means of this reservoir water of the Jordan (and later also of the Yarmuk) may be conserved in the wet season for use in the dry season and its flow so regulated during the day as to let the water out of the reservoir to the turbines at such hours and in such quantities as to meet the actual demands of energy.

Transmission of Power.

"From the power house or power houses on the Jordan the energy will be conducted by high tension lines of 66,000 volts to the main centres of consumption, where it will be transformed and transmitted by lines and covers of medium tension of 15,000 volts in the country districts and of 6,000 volts in the towns. It is further planned to erect in the main centres of consumption of energy—that is, Jaffa, Haifa and Jerusalem—reserve fuel power houses to supplement the hydraulic stations in the event of any interruptions or shortage for any reason of the Jordan energy."

Report Declares Blockade Has Maintained the Soviets in Power

THE HAGUE, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Soviet Russia will have its first tussle with representatives of Western Europe at the Hague Conference this afternoon when M. Litvinoff and his associates met with sub-commission on credits. The fact that credits will be the first matter of business discussed is considered as victory for the Soviets over French representatives who resentd that the discussion on credits should be first on list.

The Associated Press has obtained with permission to publish, a copy of the private report on Russia which will be distributed to the chiefs of delegations from non-Russian countries. This report embodies views of prominent and competent European observers of Liberal tendencies who recently came from Russia after making a thorough investigation of political conditions there. The report, remarkable for its brevity, finds, that, barring unforeseen events, the Soviet regime is not near a collapse, the economic exhaustion of Russia is complete the Soviets are divided among themselves, hatred of the old regime is general among the people blockade and foreign military aggresson have maintained the Soviets in power; Soviets recognize that only foreignere can reconstruct Russia.

CARS COLLIDE IN BAD WRECK

Ernest Hanna and L. Stevens Had a Narrow Escape.

Ernest Hanna, who has driven automobiles since 1905, is a holder of the first chauffeur's license in this city, owner and driver of the second horseless carriage in Peterborough, was never in an accident until last night at 7.30 o'clock, when he was in a collision with Leslie Stevens at the corner of Brock and Aylmer streets. Hanna was returning to J. E. A. Fitzgerald's sales rooms, where he is employed, with a brand new five passenger automobile taken out of the box car the day previous and ready for delivery to-day. He was completing the turn from Aylmer street into Brock street when struck by the heavy automobile approaching from the north. As the other car was some distance away, Hanna believed he had the right-of-way.

The impact reversed the progress of the new automobile and it skidded backward and turned over on one side. The driver was not thrown out, but received painful bruises. Stevens' car swerved to the west and plunged into the bowling green. Had a tree not interfered with its westward career the damage would not likely have been so great, but against a stout elm the right hand side crumped up, completing the wreck.

Fitzgerald's car was promptly dragged into the coal and wood yard, where it was soon the centre of a large crowd. About 9 p.m. Stevens' car was salvaged by George Evans. The damage to both cars was extensive, but was confined to the bow. The wheels, hood, fenders, lights, springs and shock absorbers in the automobiles were jumbled up in each case into a mass of wreckage. The frames of the automobiles were twisted and the loss will be heavy. Both drivers considered they were rather fortunate in not having any passengers in the smash-up.

Meeting of Canadian Manufacturers Was Unqualified Success.

ALGONQUIN HOTEL, St, Andrews by the Sea, June 27.— The Canadian Manufacturers' Convention for 1922 is now a thing of the past, and to the almost two hundred delegates and others who were here last week attending the sessions it will be a pleasant memory.

So much of a success has been this year's convention that it can be said without violating any confidences that the most influential members of the Association are anxious to hold future conventions under similar conditions. The nearest duplication of what this place has offered that Ontario presents is Niagara Falls, if the demands of Toronto to have the convention there can be overcome.

Doubts were expressed as to the feasibility of holding the convention here this year after past gatherings had always taken place at large cities, but all doubts were quickly swept aside as soon as the convention got settled down, and it was found there was such a high percentage of attendance at the sessions by the delegates.

The casino provided an excellent meeting place, and the records show more discussion than in any four conventions in the past, while there has been more fraternizing by the delegates who have gotten to know one another to a greater degree than ever before.

John R. Shaw of Woodstock, the new president, when asked for an opinion as to this year's convention, said his only hope was that one equally successful could be staged in Ontario next year.

J. E. Walsh, the general manager of the C. M. A., said the innovation of devoting only the mornings to business sessions had proved so successful this year that it would doubtless be continued. The convention which has just closed, he said, was not surpassed in the years of his connection with the organization.

Nurse's Great Part.

For it is the nurse who will be the chief administrator in this world-wide programme for health and happiness. Her trained and disciplined mind and technical skill, broadened by her wide contacts through the public health work which is a part of her education in practically every first-class school of nursing, will enable her to interpret the laws of health in every land and instruct the family how to apply them in the home and in the community.

The nurse goes forth, the evangel of better living conditions and the maximum of personal efficiency and well being for all, into private homes and public institutions, into schools and industrial plants, into crowded city slums and into the remote rural districts, preaching the gospel of good health and disease prevention and insuring to the little ones and to those that are yet unborn their rightful heritage of sound health, sanitary surroundings and fair chance in the world as they grow up.

No power in the social fabric is more potent for far-reaching betterment than the graduate nurse. She is the creator of higher conceptions of living, the conservator of childhood, the minister of mercy and relief, and the universal educator who imparts to all with whom she comes in contact the most precious secret mankind may aspire to learn—the knowledge of how to keep well.

PREMIER SEES NECESSITY OF PARTY SYSTEM

BACK FROM WEST

BARRIE, Ont., June 27.—(Special).—Premier Drury was caught by your correspondent in an unparliamentary pose on his Crown Hill Farm upon his return from the West last evening. He was attired in collarless shirt and an ancient pair of trousers, and he was stationed in the midst of a strawberry patch manipulatling a rather feeble hose.

Your correspondent followed up and down the strawberry patch. Conversation turned naturally to crop prospects in the West, which seem excellent, and thus to political prospects, which, from the Progressive point of view, are even more so.

"There is a noticeable growth of Progressivism in all the Western Provinces since the general election," stated Mr. Drury. "Even in British Columbia Progressives are gaining a foothold, and the change is particularly marked in the cities of the Prairie Provinces. The entire West is becoming strongly Progressive."

Prohibition Question.

"What did you think of Western temperance legislation?" asked the reporter.

"I saw nothing on my trip," replied Mr. Drury, carefully, "to make me feel there should be a change in our own system of prohibition."

The Premier referred almost at once to the U.F.O.-Liberal alliance tale appearing in a morning paper.

"That's a ridiculouls story," he remarked disgustedly, "and, absolutely without any foundation. There has been no dickering or bargaining, and no negotiations of any sort. It's entirely foolish and premature."

Mr. J. J. Morrison was mentioned.

"There is no sign of antagonism between Mr. Morrison and myself," said the Premier, "and that part of the story is as absurd as the rest. Our relations are more friendly, I believe, than they have ever been."

"But your differences of opinion remain?" suggested the reporter.

Differences in Theory.

"There are differences in theory," said the Premier. "Our objectives are the same. The chief difference is that Mr. Morrison believes a system of group government both practicable and desirable. He wishes to see a Cabinet drawn from all sections of thought and working in harmony without any official opposition. He does not believe in the old two-party system, and points to the county council as proof that government by party is unnecessary."

"And your ideas?" asked the reporter, and obtained an interesting explanation of the Premier's political theories.

"I believe in the necessity of a party system," he stated. "History proves it. The group system with the group Cabinet contains too many possibilities of bargaining for selfish purposes between different factions. Good government requires administration by one party and a

COMMUNIST PAPER SUED A BANKRUPT

LONDON, June 27.— (Canadian Press.) — Bankruptcy proceedings against Francis Meynell, former editor of the London Communist newspaper have been taken at the instance of J. H. Thomas, M.P. and labor leader in the railwaymens' union respecting the £2,000 damages for libel recently obtained by Thomas as a result of attacks centering on his privy councillorship. Security held by Thomas at present for the £2,000 damages consists of debentures having a face value of £3,000 in the Daily Herald, labor paper but which Mr. Thomas valued at £50. The bankrupt attribes his financial troubles to the libel action.

The question of the propriety of labor leaders holding privy councillorships will be a subject of debate at the general labor conference in Edinburgh his week.

MEXICAN REBELS HOLD PROPERTIES

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(Canadian Press.)—Forty employees of the Cortez Oil Company near Tampico and the destructible property valued at quarter million dollars are being held by a rebel general until a ransom of fifteen thousand pesos is paid according to a message from the United States Consulate at Tampico to the State Department here.

EXPECT BUMPER TOURIST TRADE

Hotel Accommodation at Peterborough District's Lakes Will Be at a Premium.

That there will be a bumper tourist business this summer in this district is the expectation of hotel proprietors, railroad and boat men and others who have an opportunity to feel the pulse of the touring public. Although the season does not open until July 1 there has already been a big invasion, and reports received in Peterborough city show that the hotel accommodation at the lakes will soon be at premium. Pleasant Point Inn, Sturgeon Lake, is reported full, Kawartha Inn on Pigeon Lake, is doing a comfortable trade with many reservations, Bobcaygeon hotels are busier than in years, and Stoney Lake houses are reported with bright prospects for a busy summer. Two new hotels are being built on Sturgeon lake by a syndicate, and it is not beyond the realm of possibility that a hotel will be put up at Chemong before the cool breezes blow.

Motor Car Helps.

Of course there is not a tidal wave of tourists, but there are a great many more than a few years ago and for this the automobile is largely responsible. Half-a-dozen American cars nestled on George street today while their male and female passengers made purchases that ranged all the way from fish hooks to oil of citronella. A large number of visitors have dropped into the Chamber of Commerce enquiring about roads and routes and voicing one universal lament, that is, that under present conditions, it is expensive and cumbersome to bring an auto across from Charlotte on the Cobourg-Rochester ferry and so save a long drive around Lake Ontario.

Shortest Route.

The automobilists who come in year after year are anxious to get to the lakes by the shortest possible route, and have no desire to spend another day en route. At present the autos shipped across the lake are in box cars, there being no provision for handling motor vehicles directly, and New York motorists are now agitating for an improved service whereby with a minimum of expense and trouble they could drive directly on the boat. Such a service would be particularly in the interests of this district, as it would place Peterborough within a few hours' motoring distance of Rochester and New York State cities, from which at the present time a large number of the summer tourists come.

The local Chamber of Commerce will again take up this matter in a joint agitation with the Cobourg chamber directed to the railway company, who when pressed before claimed it would cost a large sum of money to make it possible to handle motor vehicles. Americans are interested in getting the improvement from a business standpoint, for it would encourage Canadians driving to the States.

A Brisk Opening.

According to local hotel proprietors the summer business has opened up briskly. G. White, of the White House and C. G. Graham, of the Empress look for a good season. Discussing the hotel accommodation in the city Mr. Graham pointed out that the first three days in the week business was on the upgrade, but fell off the last three. The tourist trade was, however, always protected, he said, and commercial men had been put up at private houses to accommodate summer visitors. The hotel men were doing all they could to encourage summer trade, but Mr. Graham declared that any attempt to provide accommodation at the lakes must necessarily be made conservatively. The cost of hotel accommodation was at the peak, he said, and two months' business had to run the place all year. High costs, he felt, were against any exploiting of the territory by hotel men, and he thought the hotel trade if justifiable would follow the tourists.

Cottages Rent Freely.

Cottages at the lakes are reported to be renting as freely as in other years, although rents have declined lightly. Places that were asking $300 last year have come down to $200 for the season. Rents by the month run from $50 to $75. The Chamber of Commerce has out of six places listed rented two of them to Americans from Pennsylvania and Ohio, expected here this week. Every mail is bringing enquiries in regard to summering in the district. The G. T.R. Motor Boat Club of Point St. Charles, Quebec, anticipates a cruise through the waterway the middle of July Mr. G. Marshall has advised Secretary L. Fraser.

THE COAL STRIKE.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(Canadian Press.) — Realizing that the deadlock existing between the mine operators and union mine workers will not voluntarily be abated by either party to the coal strike, the Administration was prepared to-day, a responsible official intimated, to offer a compromise plan for negotiating the differences which it was believed, could not be rejected by either party to the strike.

SENT A WARNING.

LONDON, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Evening News to-day says the British Government sent a warning last Saturday to the Irish Provisional Government declaring that if the latter government's authority to restore order were not exercised the British Government would have to take action.

CHILD ADDED TO THE LIST OF STORM VICTIMS

Gale of Wind Tears Infant From Its Mother's Arms and It Dies of Exposure.

FIVE DEATHS.

WINNIPEG, June 27 (Canadian Press). — The report just received of the death in Friday's storm of the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Coates, of Stonewall, Man., raises to five the list of fatalities.

The tremendous wind crumpled up the Coates residence, and Mr. Coates and his nephew were pinned beneath the ruins. Mrs. Coates, in the midst of the terrific storm, had to set out for help, carrying the child, battling against the driving hail and rain and the tremendous wind which eventually tore the child from her arms.

She sought in vain for the child, and when neighbours found it next day the little girl was dead from exposure.

The men in the meantime had been released om the ruined house, and taken to the hospital, and Mrs. Coates came to relatives in Winnipeg.

The loss through the destruction of three elevators and mills in Portage la Prairie by fire during the storm, is placed at $400,000, it is announced to-day.

Lloyd George's Government Was Supported by a Big Vote

Irish Policy is Sustained After a Very Moderate Debate—Premier Winds Up Debate With a Brief Speech.

LONDON, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—After a debate, which was not so heated or acrimonious as had been expected, the Government won last night, a virtual victory on its Irish policy, when a "Die-Hard" resolution proposed by Sir Frederick Banbury, Unionist, for a reduction of the Chief Secretary for Ireland's salary as an expression of disapproval of the Government's policy and failure to afford protection for Field Marshal Wilson, was defeated. The vote was 342 to 75.

Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies in his statement on Irish affairs, made it clear that the Imperial Government would expect the Provisional Government, now that it had secured the people's mandate, to take the necessary steps to assert its complete authority, and with equal frankness emphasized that the British Government would not allow the coercion of Ulster by the South—in fact that failure to observe the treaty would mean the British Government resuming complete freedom of action.

Premier Lloyd George in a brief speech, winding up the debate, repeated the familiar arguments in support of the Government policy and contended that the Irish Provisional Government now had the people of Ireland behind it, and what it did or failed to do would be the real test of whether it was fit to govern.

The question of Field Marshal Wilson's murder did not figure in the debate as largely as might have been anticipated. Home Secretary Shortt was able to show that the Ministers and others from whom police protection had been withdrawn had acquiesced in the withdrawal.

Loud cheers greeted the announced result of the vote, giving a substantial majority for the Government.

HOSPITAL AT BELLEVILLE RUN WITH ECONOMY.

Costs Less Per Patient Than in 60 of 91 Hospitals in the Province.

The last government report of the Inspector of Hospitals contains some interesting information as to hospitals and other public institutions. There are 91 hospitals in the province, and the cost and management in cash of these hospitals varies greatly, that in the Belleville institution showing the strictest economy, according to the report. The average cost per patient per day in the Belleville Hospital for dietaraies is the lowest of sixty of the 91 hospitals in the province. The hospitals in which the average cost per patient runs higher than in the Belelville Hospital include the following: Cobourg, Cornwall, Hamilton, Kingston, Picton, Port Hope, Belleville Hospital include the fol- Pembroke and Toronto.

These popular concerts will be continued through the summer months.

POLICE DISPERSE CROWDS IN HAMBURG

BERLIN, June 27. — (Canadian Press.)— One man is reported to have been killed and ten others wounded in disturbances which followed the big demonstration in Hamburg last night over the assassination of Foreign Minister Rathenau. While crowds were dispersing they found fully armed police standing at strategic points and understood to be under orders to shoot any one who loitered. Disturbances followed and at one point where the demonstrators refused to move the police fired.

ASSAIL MOSCOW TRIBUNAL.

Belgian and German Socialist Leaders Appeal to All Workmen.

RIGA, Jun 26. — Emile Vandervelde of Belgium and Theodor Liebknecht and Kurt Rosenfeld of Germany, who went to Moscow recently to defend the social revolutionaries on trial there, arrived in Riga, returning to their homes.

The Socialist leaders issued a statement saying they desired to inform the world's proletariat that the supreme revolutionary tribunal in Moscow had ignored the Berlin compact of the Third Internationale, and that the Berlin compact was not binding. The statement added that the lives of the accused social revolutionaries they had gone to Moscow to defend were endangered.

"We appeal to the workmen of all countries," said the statement. "Let everybody protest against the punishment by death of the defendants."

The three men left later for Berlin.

SENATE CONSIDERS RULES AMENDMENT

Final Consideration Postponed Until To-Day to Make Some Changes.

OTTAWA, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)— The senate has deferred until to-day its consideration of the proposed amendment of Senate rules to alllow of the appearance, on the floor of the Senate of a minister of the crown, sitting in the lower house, when such attendance was needed for the purpose of explaining or defending a government measure.

In suggesting postponement of consideration yesterday, Senator Dandurand said that it was proposed to make a slight change in the proposals to be placed before the Senate. This would provide that a minister from the commons would only appear in the senate when requested to do so by the minister in the senate.

When this matter is taken up today it is expected that there will also be other changes in the rules proposed, one of these being to secure the launching of more government measures in the senate than under the present system.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR CANADIAN SCRIBES

Only of Recent Years Have Publishers Accepted Fiction From the Pen of a Canadian.

WINNIPEG, June 27.—(Canadian Press.)—Replying to criticism that Canada had no genius in literature, J. Murray Gibsonof Montreal, president of the Canadian Authors' Association, declared at a luncheon given in his honor by the Winnipeg branch yesterday that it was only in the last twenty years that Canadian publishers would take a chance on publishing fiction by Canadian authorse. Mr. Gibbon stated that considerable work of credit to its authors was not being produced.

Mr. Gibbon believed the west should come forward rapidly in the production of Canadian literature. The pioneer on the land, blending of the races, the shaping of social forms in a new country all provided material perhaps not available for the author in any other part of the country.

A Norwegian air officer is going to Spitzbergen to mark out a suitable landing place.

EXPERT EVIDENCE IN DELORME CASE

Only Witness Called Says That Ex-Priest is Not Mentally Fit to Stand For Trial.

MONTREAL, June 27 (Canadian Press). — A day of expert evidence was all that was offered in the Court of King's Bench yesterday in the case in which a jury is to determine whether or not the Rev. Father Adelard Delorme is in a fit mental condition to stand trial on the charge of having murdered his half-brother, Raoul Delorme.

Dr. Gaston Bellefeuille, Assistant Medical Director of St. Jean de Dieu Lunatic Asylum, and assistant Professor of the Chair of Mental Diseases at the University of Montreal, was the sole witness, and his cross-examination had not been completed by Crown Prosecutor Walsh when the Court adjourned until to-day.

After much technical evidence as to the mental status of close relatives of the accused, Dr. Bellefeuille made definite statement that the prisoner is not in a fit state to undergo trial; that he does not understand the gravity of the case, and that he cannot act properly in his own defence.

ATTACK MADE ON E. W. BACKUS IN THE SENATE

Famous "Lake of the Woods" Case Gets Another Parliamentary Airing. Bill is Rejected.

OTHER BILLS.

OTTAWA, June 27—(Canadian Press)—The Senate yesterday passed the Bankruptcy Act and The Indian Act and rejected the government bill repealing the Lake of the Woods regulation act. The rejection of the Lake of the Woods measure was upon an amendment by Sir James Lougheed for a three months hoist the vote being 52 to 12, ten Liberals supporting the amendment, and one Conservative, Senator Lynch-Staunton voting for the bill. Senator Dandurand in proposing the bill reviewed the history of the legislation submitting that it was simply to implement an agreement reached between the government of Ontario and the Dominion Government at a conference held last year.

Sir James Lougheed, on the other hand, intimated, that the legislation sacrificed dominion rights which the existing law safeguarded and that it was really in the interests of E. W. Backus who, he declareed "not only controlled the Norman Dam which was the key to the Lake of the Woods outlet but was also master of the Ontario Government."

Senator Dandurand asked whether such a statement was justifiable, to which Sir James replied that everybody familiar with the Lake of the Woods controversy knew "of the important part that Mr. Backus played on that particular stage."

Considerable opposition developed to the proposal to loan $1,500,000 to the Harbor Commission of Quebec. Senator J. D. Reid moved that amount be reduced from $1,500,000 to $500,000 which would strike out the provision for new works. The matter was left over until to-morrow.

The senate passed the amendments to the Indian Act which struck out the compulsory enfranchisement clauses of last year's legislation and also provided that the title of Indian lands, occupied by Indian soldier settlers, should not be alienated from the bands.

NORTHERN ARMY IS LOYAL TO EX-LEADER

SHANGHAI, June 27.—(Canadian Press.) — Sun Yat-Sen's Northern Army, estimated at 50,000 men, still remains loyal to the deposed president of South China and is marching on Canton in three sections, according to reports received here from Canton sources believed to be reliable.

Sun's forces now converging on Canton are declared to outnumber the troops under Chen-Chiung-Ming, who deposed Sun. Chinese observers predict severe warfare between th two factions with the odds in favor of the restoration of Sun Yat Sen and the defeat of Chen.

Lloyd George Sends A Message to Wirth Regarding Rathenau

LONDON, June 27 (Canadian Press). — Prime Minister Lloyd-George's message to Chancellor Wirth in connection with the assassination of Dr. Walter Rathenau, the German Foreign Minister, was made public yesterday. It follows:

"I have learned with deep regret of Dr. Rathenau's death. I wish to express my sorrow for the abominable crime which has deprived the German people of one of its most distinguished representatives. The whole world must honour those who take risks of public hate, as he did, from devotion to his country's good."

LOWER RATES FOR GRAIN AND FLOUR.

Measure Passed the House of Commons Last Evening After a Stirring Debate.

OTTAWA, June 27. (Canadian Press.) — The legislation suspending the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, with the exception of the rates on grain and flour eastbound from the Prairie provinces, was passed in the Commons last night after a debate in which both Liberals and Progressives were under a heavy fire, and in which Ministers of the Crown and the Progressive leaders alike, remained silent, incapable of effective reply. Right Hon. Arthur Meighen and Sir Henry Drayton, a former chairman of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners, assailed the Government for its logrolling tactics during the past month and for its dictation of policy to its supporters on Special Committee on transportation costs.

HON. H. FERGUSON IS SEVERELY CRITICIZED

For Granting Timber Permits Without Calling For Tenders.

TORONTO, June 27.—(Canadian Press.)—Re-organization of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests is recommended by the Riddell-Latchford Timber Commission whose report on their recent investigation into the administration of the Department in recent years was handed to the government yesterday. The report severely criticises Hon. Howard Ferguson who, as Minister of the Department during the period under review is declared tohave acted outside of the regulations in granting permits to cut timber on Crown lands without advertising or calling for tenders. The Commission recommends legal proceedings against the several companies who received timber concessions, and are said to have received considerable timber wealth without making a proper return to the treasury of the province.

STORM IMPROVES CROP PROSPECTS IN SPITE OF HAIL

Terrific Rain Saves Wheat Which Was Burning Up For Lack of Moisture.

BUT LITTLE DAMAGE.

WINNIPEG, June 27 (Canadian Press). — Crop prospects throughout Manitoba, far from being reduced, have been materially enhanced by the torrential rains which accompanied and followed the cyclonic storm of last Friday morning, according to reports published in the Winnipeg Tribune yesterday afternoon, based on reports received from staff correspondents.

"The fact is very evident that the area which suffered crop loss or damage from hail or wind is but a fractional percentage of the total crop acreage of Manitoba," states the newspaper.

"A strip about nine to twelve miles wide and thirty miles long through the centre of the Portage plain is the chief sufferer, and even here the damage represents far from total loss save in individual cases.

"Taken as a whole, for every acre of standing crop damaved, hundreds of acres have been benefitted, and some, indeed, actually saved from the burning up which threatened for days before the downpour."

A SNEAK THIEF AT KING EDWARD HOTEL

Got Away With Several Thousand Dollars Worth of Diamonds.

TORONTO, June 27. (Canadian Press.) — During the early hours of Saturday morning a daring hotel sneak thief entered two rooms at the King Edward hotel and looted both. From the room of C. L. Sherrill, of New York City, the thief stole a small leather bag containing diamonds valued at five thousand dollars and several thousand dollars worth of other gems which Mr. Sherrill had invested his savings in. J. H. Lyons, occupant of the next room was relieved of $53.

Detectives assigned to the case are confident that they are on the trail of the burglar. They are looking for a man with a police record for similar offences, who is said to have taken a room on the same floor on the night of the theft. He registered under the name of "Lawrence."

From certain information that reached Detectives Waterhouse, Dawn and Greenlee detectives went to the city hall and brought a Bertillon card to the hotel which bore a photograph of the suspected thief. This was identified by persons who say they saw the man who engaged the room Friday night.

This man disappeared early on Saturday.

When You Eat Meat

be sure you eat it with Shredded Wheat. You need the carbohydrates and the mineral salts. Nothing so deliciously nourishing as Shredded Wheat with a rasher of bacon. Shredded Wheat contains the three mineral salts the body needs—calcium, iron and phosphorus—also the vitamines that are so necessary to normal growth.

Shredded Wheat

is 100 per cent. whole wheat, nothing added, nothing taken away—cooked in steam, drawn into filmy shreds, and baked in coal ovens. The most real food for the least money.

Shredded Wheat Biscuit is delicious with hot or cold milk, sliced bananas, prunes or canned fruits. Triscuit is the Shredded Wheat wafer and is eaten with butter, cheese or marmalade.

Here's a real treasure from Nature's storehouse

GOOD old Mother Nature has placed in wheat and barley the wonderful food properties which build and sustain life and health.

Many so-called "refined" foods are robbed of vital elements which the body needs.

Grape-Nuts—that famous wheat and barley food—brings you all the natural goodness of the grains in perfected form, with a crispness and flavor that charm the appetite.

You will find Grape-Nuts an ideal dish for breakfast or supper-time. Ready to serve from the package, with cream or good milk.

LOCAL GRAIN RATES.

The decision of the Special Committee of the House of Commons that the rates provided for under the Crow's Nest Pass agreement for the haulage of grain from the Prairie Provinces to the head of the lakes shall be reverted to will be a welcome one to the grain growers of the West, and should have a most stimulating effect upon conditions in the Western Provinces. The Crow's Nest Pass rates are to come into effect on July 6th, but otherwise the committee has recommended that the agreement itself shall be suspended for a year or longer if the Government sees fit. Lower freight rates had to come, of course, but the revenue of the railways will be hard hit by the new grain rates in the West, although it is possible that there will be a sufficient increase in the volume carried to compensate the railways for their diminished receipts. The trouble from the standpoint of the people of Canada is that if the National Railways suffer a loss as a result of the new arrangement, they will have to pay the shot. The C.P.R. is in a position to look after itself, but so far as the Government railways are concerned, any loss in revenue will have to be made up by the Canadian people. That is a point not to be lost sight of in estimating the value of lower grain rates. The West will benefit beyond a doubt, but it is just possible the rest of the country may have to go down into its pocket and pay the difference.

THE ART OF SWIMMING.

The double tragedy last week, in which two young boys were drowned while their father, helpless to aid them, had to stand on the bank and watch them go down, furnishes an object-lesson as to the necessity of learning to swim. Neither boy knew how to take care of himself in the water, with the result that when one got into a deep hole and the other attempted to rescue him, both lost their lives, and the frenzied father, equally ignorant of the art of swimming, was unable to do anything to help. Had any one of the three been a good swimmer it is improbable that a fatality would have occurred. There is little excuse nowadays, especially in the cities of Canada, for not being able to swim. Here in Peterborough it is possible to learn the art at the Y.M.C.A. and at the Y.W.C.A., while the city's swimming beaches offer facilities during the summer season for those anxious to pick up the rudiments of swimming. So much boating is done in this district, so many people spend their holidays at river and lake resorts, that a knowledge of how to take care of one's self in the water is a necessity. A great improvement has been made in this respect in recent years, especially in the case of women and girls. For every member of the fair sex who could swim ten years ago there are twenty-five nowadays, and they are as proficient as their brothers or husbands in the art, a state of affairs which affords general cause for satisfaction.

MOUNT EVEREST UNCONQUERED.

The attempt to climb Mont Everest, the highest mountain in the world, has been abandoned by the British party which, under the leadership of Brigadier-General C. G. Bruce, has made a series of most gallant efforts to reach the summit. The head of the expedition has decided that persistence in the effort to scale the peak would only result in useless tragedy, and the British people who have been following with deep interest the exploits of the brave climbers will be glad to learn that the attempt has been given up before any of the gallant lives were sacrificed. Several climbing parties who reached a height of 25,520 feet, returned in terrible condition, badly frost-bitten and exhausted, and with the weather growing worse daily, it has reluctantly been decided that there will be scant prospect of success in further attempts at the present time. Mount Everest has once more baffled the bravest attacks of man. No more heroic or persistent effort has ever been made than that of the Bruce expedition, and it having failed, it seems idle to expect that the top of the world will be reached. Indian experts who have studied the situation declare that while it might be possible for an expedition starting earlier in the season to reach within a thousand feet of the summit, the last lap could only be covered by almost super-human effort under precedented weather conditions by men who faced the certainty that they would never return.

PROTECTING THE FORESTS.

The campers, hunters and fishermen of Ontario, to whom a special appeal is being made by the Provincial Department of Lands and Forests to protect Ontario's forest resources from fire, should take note of the fact that the Quebec Government has followed the example of New Brunswick and Pennsylvania in passing an Order-in-Council authorizing the closing of the forests in any part of Quebec to all except those holding permits. We don't want that sort of thing in Ontario, but it will come if those who visit the woods every year for pleasure purposes do not exercise care and commonsense. The privilege of using the forests is one that should not be abused. The timber resources of Ontario are a heritage of the whole people, and they cannot be allowed to be destroyed by careless campers who, through inexcusable negligence, are responsible for many disastrous fires every year. If it comes to a choice between taking the drastic step of closing the forests to such visitors or allowing the standing timber to be menaced by carelessness on their part, the Ontario Government is not likely to hesitate very long in deciding that, above everything else, the forests must be protected. Forest fires cost Quebec $11,000,000 last year, and as a result, the summer visitors find themselves barred out unless they can secure a permit. Ontario's fire losses have similarly been far too great, and unless an improvement is shown, the Provincial Government may have to follow the example of Quebec.

THE LAW OF BANKING.

The guilt or innocence of Merchants' Bank officials is a question which can be settled only in a court of law, says the Monetary Times. The importance of the investigation as affecting the coming revision of the Canadian Bank Act, however, should not be exaggerated. The purpose of the banking law is to protect, so far as practicable, the noteholders and depositors, and in the case of the Merchants' Bank there was still a considerable margin of security, even with drawing upon the shareholders' double liability.

The business of banking is so intimately connected with the business life of the community that it is now assumed that the Government, while not guaranteeing the banks or their notes regulates them. This is especially the case where their notes constitute an integral part of the country's currency. The right to issue such notes is given only so long as certain regulations are complied with. In Canada the Government exercises some control over the business of the banks as a whole, throwing certain safeguards about the depositors.

When a bank is organized it comes under this law. The law is also changed as effecting banks already established, but in this respect the banks are in exactly the same position as other institutions—they have the opportunity of presenting their views at the time new legislation is considered,—and when it is once enacted must adjust their business accordingly. The shareholders can at any time inform themselves as to the law, and can form their own estimate of the worth of their shares. They also elect the directors, who in turn control the policy of the bank. The results which are obtained, whether success or failure, depend on the direction and management. In the case of the Merchants the direction and management was not in recent years successful.

Since the Bank Act was revised in 1913 there have been several developments, including the disappearance of several banks, which must be considered in connection with the revision of the law, and there has also been a change in the economic life of the country as a whole. The Merchants' Bank episode is part of this chain of events, and, as there was no loss to noteholders or depositors, does not deserve special attention.

THE CHARGES AGAINST THE PENSION BOARD.

Elsewhere in this issue the charges preferred by Dominion President Maxwell and Dominion Secretary MacNeil, of the G.W.V.A., against the Board of Pension Commissioners are dealt with at considerable length. The far-reaching effect of any attempt to curtail the issuance of new pensions or the continuance of those already operative will readily be appreciated, so further comment in that direction is unnecessary. There are, however, other aspects of the case which should not be lost sight of.

The Board of Pension Commissioners is the body appointed by Parliament to interpret the wishes of the people of Canada in dealing with those men who came out of the war physically impaired, and with the dependents of those men whose deaths were caused by service or resulted from disabilities incurred on war service. If the Board has assumed powers contrary to the expressed intentions of the nation (and the G. W. V..A. charges are quite explicit in that respect) then some other more equitable means of administering the Pension Act should be found.

In itself, the Pension Act is so framed that some sections may be interpreted to bring a result contrary to the ideas of the farmers. The Board is given certain discretionary powers by the Act which were clearly intended to aid in bringing the greatest possible justice to the claimant. Public sentiment certainly never intended that there should be hair-splitting in the interpretation of any section which would work to the detriment of those whom the Act was designed to serve.

Under present conditions the Pension Board is in the position of first examining the claimant's case in the appeal for pension, then preparing the evidence against the case, and finally acting as the judge in making the decision. The same procedure applied to established courts of justice controvert all ideals of British justice.

Another point that must be borne in mind is that the G.W.V.A. has not made the charges against the Board without very careful consideration and without exerting every other means possible to preclude the necessity of public accusation. For the past five years there has been constant contact between officers of the association and officials of the Board. There have been differences over individual cases and over the interpretation of different sections of the Act, but until recent months there has been no reason to doubt the sincerity of the Board's work. The regulations which resulted in the charges have been known to the Dominion Command, G.W.V.A., officers for some time past, but it was thought that with a demonstration of their unfairness there would surely be some modification. Officials of the Board had the opportunity on various occasions before the Special Parliamentary Committee of explaining the altered attitude, but the points were carefully avoided. Even as late as the evening of June 13th the chairman of the special committee, Herbert Marler, M.P., arranged a conference between officers of the G.W.V.A. and the chairman of the Board. The association's representatives met with such a direct rebuff that no other course was left open than to make the situation public.

The matter came before the House of Commons on June 16th, when L. W. Humphrey, member for Kootenay, asked if the Government had taken action towards an investigation. Hon. H. S. Beland, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, made a brief explanation from the Board's point of view, and stated that a fair and complete investigation would be made.

In the interests of the many war casualties who, under present interpretions of the Pension Act, are deprived of the national assistance which is their just due, and in the interests of those already pensioned whose rights are imperilled, this investigation should be made forthwith, and before impartial adjudicators. An investigation under any other circumstances can only react against those who ordered it.—The Veteran.

RECORD IN FO') OUTPUT.

Factory Produced 144,469 Cars, Trucks and Tractors in May.

DETROIT, Mich., June 27. — The Ford Motor Co., established a new monthly record in May with the production of 144,469 cars, trucks and tractors in all the plants, domestic and foreign. Production was divided as follows:

Ford cars, American, 121,073; foreign, 7,170; Ford of Canada, 6,579; total, 134,762.

Lincoln cars, 602.

Grand total, 144,469.

Ford company officials said that while they have no means of computing exactly what the June production will be they are confident it will be far in excess of the May output.

THE DAY'S DOINSG AS RECORDED BY THE EXAMINER'S STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS

AMBULANCE BOYS APSLEY VILLAGE BANQUET A.Y.P.A.

Pleasantest Evening of Season Results. Preparing For Lawn Tennis Tourney. Apsley News Nuggets.

APSLEY, June 27.—A very pleasant and enjoyable function was held in the Parish room on Friday evening when the Ambulance class were guests of the A.Y.P.A. to a banquet.

After the lecture given by Rev. C. Spence in the absence of the regular lecturer, Rev. W. Hall, the guests to the number of thirty-five sat down to a cold but tasty collation, to which full justice was done. This was followed by a dance, the music being provided by Mr. Will Staples. The party broke up at 12.30 all voting it the most pleasant evening of the season.

Lawn Tennis Tourney

Lawn Tennis is proving a very popular pastime with members of the A.Y.P.A. some of them getting quite adept at the game. A tournament will shortly be played, and is being looked forward to with great interest.

A Hot Day.

Saturday was the hottest day of the year the thermometer registering 92 in the shade. The next day the highest point reached was 63, falling during Sunday night to the low mark of 32, a range of 60 degrees in 36 hours.

Loss to Community.

The shutting down of the cheese factory is proving, as anticipated early in the spring, a distinct loss to the community. Butter has dropped to the low mark of twenty cents and will probably go lower. A good many farmers are shipping their cream, but this entails a great loss of time, some of them having to travel fifteen miles to the nearest shipping point. This means nearly a day lost, and in the busy season when time is precious. The profit is small when one takes into consideration the labour, time and wear and tear of conveyance, etc. One farmer, who is milking fourteen cows, declares it is more profitable to feed calves, and is doing so in preference to shipping his cream.

News Paragraphs.

Fishing so far is disappointing, no catches of any size being reported at the usual prolific fishing grounds.

Reeves Brown and Scott returned home on Saturday, after attending the County Council session in Peterboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bullied's tenth son was born to them on Friday last.

ANNUAL PICNIC MAY SCHOOL WAS BEST YET

Sports Events Keenly Contested — A Merry Afternoon Which Left No Room For Dull Moments.

THE PRIZE-WINNERS.

BROWNTOWN, June 27.—The annual picnic for the pupils of May School and their parents, was held on the school grounds, on Saturday afternoon. Quite a number attended and there was not a dull moment from the time of the first arrival till the last straggler left the grounds at about 7 p.m.

The ice-cream tent under the able management of Misses Knox, Gardiner and Mrs. Stillson, did a brisk business, while at a nearby table the Misses Adamson, Majorie Jackson and Dorothy Hopkins dispensed lemonade and tempting looking sundaes.

Mr. Whitehouse failed to appear to supervise the races, so in his absence the teachers directed them and in such a capable manner as to prove that ladies can engage in such work as well as the men, possibly better. Miss Knox officiated as starter, while Miss Garbutt and Mrs. Jackson watched the proceeding at the other end of the race track.

Race and Winners.

Boys—(six years and under)—Harold Lesurf, Alan Barnes.

Girls—(six years and under)—Hilda Curtis, Edna Millard.

Boys—(seven and eight years)—Roy Thompson, Albert Evans.

Girls—(seven and eight years)—Florence Faers, Elsie James.

Boys—(nine and ten years)—Eric McKinstry, Roland Hunter.

Girls—(nine and ten years)—Katherine James, Wilma Johnston.

Boys—(Eleven twelve and thirteen)—Raymond Kitchen, Harold Porter.

Girls—(Eleven, twelve and thirteen Hilda Evans, Katie Kitchen.

Sack race (first event)—Clarence Bowers, Richard. (Second event)—Gordon Panter, Leslie Church.

Ball Games.

After the races the older boys played baseball and football, and the younger children enjoyed the swings.

Tea was enjoyed picnic fashion, hot water being provided at the school.

Before leaving for home, the successful runners were awarded their prizes by the principal, Mrs. Jackson.

All voted this one of the best picnics held at May School, and many of the mothers expressed much satisfaction at the interest the teachers take in their children.

STRIKE IN VIENNA

PARIS, June 27. — (Canadian Press.)—A Havas despatch from Prague, Czecho-Slovakia, says a general strike of the workers on the railroads and the telegraph and telephone lines began in Vienna yesterday morning.

Change your diet today!
make it Kellogg's WAXTITE CORN FLAKES instead of heavy foods!

Every day this summer more men, women and children are cutting down on the heavy, greasy foods and turning to a lighter diet for health's sake. They can think and work and play better and get more enjoyment out of the hot days.

Kellogg's "WAXTITE" Corn Flakes are ideal for a light diet for breakfast, for lunch, for any meal or between-times nibbles because they not only nourish, but are easy to digest! With cold milk, Kellogg's "WAXTITE" are wonderfully delicious—but for a taste-delight, eat Kellogg's "WAXTITE" with the luscious fresh fruit now in season!

THESE BABIES ARE WELL NOW

Remarkable effect of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin on constipated babies.

The experienced mother quickly associates the baby's crying with constipation, biliousness, feverishness or sour stomach, and knows that a mild laxative will soon relieve the trouble.

Half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin will work wonders with a crying, peevish baby. It is just a vegetable compound of Egyptian Senna and simple laxative herbs with pepsin that all druggists sell under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. It has the largest sale in the world, and a dose costs less than a cent!

Mrs. E. Smith, 9 Harris St., Guelph, Ont., says Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is just the remedy her little girl needs and she will never be without it. Mrs. A. F. Lithgow, 389 Northcliffe Av., Montreal, and Mrs. E. Whalley, 966 Alexander Av., Winnipeg, both use Syrup Pepsin for their babies and recommend it to all mothers. Mrs. Whalley writes her baby was

LAKEFIELD MASONS ATTENDED DIVINE SERVICE IN BODY

Impressive Service at the Presbyterian Church. Big Log Drive on Way to Peterboro—Social News.

LAKEFIELD, June 27.—On Sunday evening the members of Clementi Lodge, No. 313, A.F. & A.M. attended the Presbyterian church for their annual church parade. Rev. P. L. Jull preached a suitable sermon, and the choir furnished appropriate music. There was a good attendance of the Brethren and others.

Union Services.

The Union Services of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches begin on Sunday next July 2nd. The morning services will be held in the Methodist church and the evening services in the Presbyterian church for the month of July.

Loses Popular Pitcher.

Messrs. Peck and Doughty closed their meat market on Friday and expect to reside in Peterboro in future. Mr. Doughty, who was the popular pitcher of the local baseball team, wil be a great loss to the sporting set. Both young men had made many friends who regret their departure and wish them success in the future.

Hottest Day of Year.

Saturday was the hottest day of the summer, but in this town, the dwelling place of true sports, one prominent citizen was seen running down Queen street in the heat of the day at a pace that led his friends to the conclusion that he was training for a race with Albert Smoke.

Big Log Drive.

A large drive of logs belonging to the MacDonald Lumber Co. of Peterboro passed through the village last week. It seemed like a revival of old days to see the logs going down. Years ago Lakefield was a lumbering centre, in fact its very existence was dependent on that great industry, for the first twenty five years of its history.

Personal Mention.

Cadet Jack Langley of R.M.C. Kingston, who has successfully passed his first year examinations, is spending the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Langley.

Miss Rannie and Miss Ross of Peterboro Normal school staff were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Burgess on Thursday last.

Cadet C. V. Hamilton of R.M.C. Kingston is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Mackenzie at "The Glen."

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cotton and Mr. and Mrs. R Harding of Peterboro were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Burgess last week.

Mr. W. C. Dunford of Toronto is visiting Mrs. Isaac Watson.

Mr. W Sherin is in the village from Stoney Lake for a few days. Mr. Sherin is much improved in health.

Mrs. Joseph Paul is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G Hendren and family spent a few days at the lakes last week.

Mr. T. A. Simpson of Selwyn was renewing acquaintances in the village on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Webb is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Duval at Youngs Point.

Mrs F. Clark and Mr. Fred Clark of Montreal are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jackson.

Mrs. Fawcett was in Toronto this week for a few days.

Mr C. Young of Peterboro was a week-end visitor in the village.

Mrs. S. Ridpath and Miss F. Ray were guests on Sunday for annual a few days last week.

A number of citizens motored to Peterboro on Sunday for the annual Decoration Day of the Peterboro branch of the IO.O.F.

PRESENTATION TO SUPERINTENDENTS HOUSE OF REFUGE

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell Honored on Resigning Positions in County Institution.

LAKEFIELD, June 27. — The members of the Session and Board of Management of the Presbyterian Church and their wives gathered at the House of Refuge on Tuesday evening last to pay tribute to Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell and family who for the past five years acted as superintendents of the institution. Owing to ill health of Mrs. Campbell they have resigned, and are leaving for their former home in Clysdale. During their residence here they have made many friends, and have also been active workers in the Presbyterian Church. They were presented with a Book of Praise and an address read by P. L. Jull, and signed by P.L. Jull, Moderator of Session. A. Fairbairn Session Clerk, A. E. Kennedy, Chairman of the Board of Management and F. J. Burgess, Recording Secretary of the Board of Management.

NORTH MONAGHAN NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

BROWNTOWN, June 27.—A "bee" was held at the home of Mr. Rutherford, Monaghan Road, on Saturday afternoon, when several of his neighbors gathered together to help him remove the roof from his barn.

Quite a number of the residents of this district drove in to Peterboro on Sunday afternoon Decoration Day, to visit the cemetery.

At the evening service, on Decoration Sunday, Rev. W. R. Courage preached a sympathetic sermon, appropriate for the occasion. Miss M. Fraser, presided at the organ.

With Fife and Drum.

The Orangemen, are once again practicing their standard tune at the Orange hall, North Monaghan, on the fife and drum, ready for their 12th of July parade.

Wild Berries Abundant

The wild strawberries in this district, especially along the G.T.R. track to Port Hope, are abundant.

The wild raspberry crop does not look as promising.

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

BERRY SUPPLY UNDER DEMAND

No Possibility of Cheap Strawberries Here Until Production Increases.

"The public can't expect cheap home-grown strawberries while the production around Peterboro remains far below the possible consumption", said Mr. W. J. Oke, discussing the first berry prices of the season. According to a rough estimate he made, it would require 50 acres of strawberries to supply the local demands at a price which would be called cheap. At present however it, is doubtful whether there are twenty acres of strawberries in the district. Hence an account of this gap between production and demand the market's movements have certain limits which seem to apply automatically.

For example when the price slumped rapidly last week and appeared after passing the 15 cent mark that it would continue down to 10c, this downward movement was caused by the abundance of supplies. The berries ripened quickly and the market was glutted early in the week. At the fifteen cent figure buying became freer, although many people still held out for a lower figure, but with the brisker buying the bulk of supplies moved out at from 13 to 15 cents a box, and the public then realized that the speak of this season's production was passed. This descent and recovery occurs nearly every year, and it is a wise consumer who realizes lowest quotation.

"Now they'll wait for cherries to get cheap and the first thing they know the best prices have passed and they will have to buy, if they want any, on the tail end ascending prices.

Strawberries this morning were quoted in the stores at from 20 to 23 cents. They opened at the higher price, but dropped about noon to around 20 cents, although most of the sales were at 22 cents.

PREMIER SEES

check by another party in opposition. The council succeeds because it is so close to the electors that they themselves are the opposition. But in Provincial, and Federal government the people are too far removed and organized party opposition is essential. Group government is not permanent. The political history of all countries shows the birth of new parties and their replacement of the old, as the old party loses its freshness and strength. New needs arise and the conditions which inspired the principles of a party cease to exist. When that happens, such principles mean nothing. The party becomes sluggish and lethargic; in time it too ceases to exist."

Group Government.

"Then group government is a transition stage in political history?" asked the reporter.

"Yes," said Mr. Drury.

"And Canadian politics at present are in the transition stage?"

The Premier smiled thoughtfully.

"General" election prospects in Ontario—" began the reporter.

"These strawberries do seem to need a lot of water," observed Mr. Drury. "A splendid crop this year, however."

The reporter was uncertain as to whether to interpret hidden meanings in the "splendid crop" but decided against.

Dusk fell and Mr. Drury led the way to the house and donned a coat.

The Premier expressed great satisfaction on being told that the Ridde-Lachford timber report had been released.

"You may say," he said, "that there will be extensive and thorough re-organization of the Forestry Department now that the report is out. I cannot say, of course, how closely the Commission's findings will be followed, but some important changes may be expected."

"I want to take things as easily as I can during the summer," remarked Mr. Drury.

Mrs. Drury overheard this virtuous sentiment. "Yes," she said, in the voice of disillusionment, "you want to now, but you won't, and you'll be here about one day a week."

Which shows that husbands are pretty much the same whether they are busy running a factory or a Government."

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL.

The members of the C.G.I.T. of Mark Street Church held a very successful social on the church lawn last evening.

Great credit is due to the Melody Concert Band, who furnished the music, and while the band was not in full strength, numbering twelve in attendance," their music was of a high order and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. R. J. Weir, leader of the C.G.I.T., moved a vote of thanks to the band, which was seconded by the President, Miss Kathleen Halladay, and carried.

The members wish also to thank all who in any way helped to make the evening so marked a success.

CONTROLLED BY MENTALITY OF BOY OF TWELVE

Such is Evidence Submitted in Defence of Delorme by Well-Known Alienist.

INFERIOR PUPIL

MONTREAL, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—That Adelard Delorme was governed with the mental development of a child of twelve, and that his state of mind was no farther advanced than a lad ot this age, was the outstanding testimony offered to the court this morning by Dr. Leason De Bellefeuille, defence alienist, at the resumption of the hearing to establish prisoner's mental fitness to stand trial on the charge of murdering his half brother.

Sisters Absent.

MONTREAL, June 27.—(Special to Examiner.)— This was the first morning that the sisters of of Adelard Delorme and his aunt did not make their appearance at his trial. They have been excluded from the court by order of the judge, it is reported, as he has extended to them the ban on women he pronounced last week. Yesterday afternoon the sisters were at the court house, but they were not sitting in their accustomed seats. The comparatively small attendance in court was notable through the presence of a large proportion of doctors and medical students who are beginning to flock to the trial now that the evidence of experts is being offered.

Dr. De Bellefeuille, assistant medical officer of the Hospital of St. Jean De Dieu, was recalled to the stand for a continuation of cross examiation by J. C. Walsh, K.C., M. P., Crown prosecutor, and questions on the paternal line of the prisoner were again to the fore. Mr. Walsh then proceeded with cross examination on the status of Delorme as a college pupil.

Mr. Walsh: "You have found that he was an inferior pupil?"

"Yes."

"There must always be an inferior pupil, or let us say, a last?"

"Necessarily.'

"Does that mean that the last is always inferior?"

"Not necessarily, but in the case of this last pupil, proof has been offered before the court which reveals in my eyes a fact of the greatest importance. He was last, not because he was lazy. He was a worker, but his work did not bring him success. It was not insufficiency of study, then it must have been something else which must explain the mediocre results he obtained."

FORM NEW CHURCH BODY

Baptist Fundamentalists Hope to Win Other Conservatives

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 27.—Just before leaving this city the Fundamentalist delegates to the Northern Baptist Convention, organized themselves into a permanent body with the Rev. Dr. J. C. Massee, pastor of Tremont Temple Boston as chairman. They voted to have a "steering committee" of 150 members with offices in Boston, New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles.

The Fundamentalists voted not only to line up as many Baptists as possible on their side, but to try to win to their support the conservatives in theology of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, Congregationalist and other denominations. They claim they are fighting a battle which is going on in a quieter way in every communion.

"Cumfy-Cut" and "Harvey-Knit" Undervests

If your stock of undervests needs to be replenished, we suggest that you take advantage of and benefit by this low price. If you want garments that come up to a 50c standard or thereabouts, then you will find them in this assortment even though the price is only 29c.

Choice of sleeveless and opera top styles and sizes 36 and 40.

29c EACH 3 for 85c

The Dominion Day Bargain Annex Event Comes Just Once a Year

Every year on the Wednesday preceding Dominion Day, we stage this sale. A particularly attractive array of merchandise is assembled and marked at prices that compel your interest if you require such goods. This Wednesday's list is a particularly good one.

Dominion Day

25c Curtain Scrims, 17c Yard

An inexpensive curtaining with a more expensive appearance, and, of course, they are, for 17c does not represent their true value. They are 36 inches wide and have open-worked edges. Choice of white, cream or ecru.

30c Cambric Cotton at 23c Yard

About 500 yards of fine Cotton with a chamois finish and as white as a snow-fall in January. It was purchased some time ago on a low market, and if purchased today would have to sell at 30c yard. The width is 35 inches.

Boys' Zimmer-Knit" Summer Jerseys 44c

Boys' Jerseys for the care-free days of summer when the sun is sweltering hot and boys hike for the old swimming hole and make a race of it for "first in." The winner is usually the cool little chap with a Jersey that comes off with a single pull.

That one quick pull is mighty hard on the Jersey, but these "Zimmerknit" ones will stand it. They're well made of a strong cotton yarn. You can have long or short sleeves in plain brown, plain white, or navy with red, white with blue and brown with gold. Complete range of sizes in the lot.

Time-Limit Sales

9 A.M. TO 10 A.M.

Women's Seamless Black Cotton Hose 4 Pairs 50c

We couldn't make the price much less, could we? Yet in spite of the slim price, which is only 12½c a pair, you'll be surprised at the quality. True black in color and good fitting.

11.30 A.M. TO 1.30 P.M.

Fifty Cases "Special" Toilet Paper

THE LOWEST PRICE WE CAN RECALL

10 Rolls 35c

Not more than twenty rolls to one buyer and no 'phone orders, please.

4.30 P.M. TO 5.30 P.M.

39c Pongee Percales, 15c Yard

MUCH LESS THAN HALF-PRICE

We do not have to be told that this is a useful summer fabric. The hundreds and hundreds of yards that have been sold prove it. This time the price is lower than ever before. The width is from 34 to 36 inches, mostly stripe designs, a silver-tone finish and choice of blues, greys, pinks, greens, helios and tans.

Wednesday's Mid-Day Lunch, 50c

Served in Our Tea Room, 11.30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

SOUPS

Fifty Only, Former $4.50 and $5.50 Values

Women's Gingham and Chambray Dresses $2.95

There are bargains that appeal by price alone and there are bargains that cause you to become enthusiastic about, both their price and quality. These dresses belong to the latter class.

Made of fine gingham and chambray fabrics and obtainable in many handsome patterns and colorings. Cut on straight-line, waist-line and regulation styles. You'll get a pleasant surprise when you see them.

Women's $2.50 Middies and Norfolks - - - - $1.38

When you think of summer garments you instantly think of Middies, but seldom do you think of securing them for such a low price. Wednesday's price represents quite a saving.

The Norfolk style has a belt and the others are regulation middy pattern. Choice of all-white and white with blue trimming. Every size up to 42, but only a few of some sizes.

Dominion Day Annex Values

$2.25 Black Pailette Dress Silk, $1.68

A black silk dress is always in good taste—winter or summer—there is always an occasion when it can be worn. The Silk we offer is a real good quality, and we guarantee it to give satisfaction. A true black, fast in color and 36 inches wide.

75c Habutai Wash Silks, 59c Yard

A Washable Silk true to its name. An opportune time to present it, for it is useful for numerous summer garments—women's and children's dresses, etc. Choice of fifteen colors, including black and white. The width is 27 inches. Thoroughly reliable in every particular.

Dominion Day

HUNDREDS AND HUNDREDS OF YARDS OF Dress Voiles, 38 to 40 In. Wide, Yard 23c

Last Saturday's Sale of these Voiles was an immense success. For Wednesday we have gathered together another assortment of the same qualities in attractive floral and figured patterns. The widths are from 36 to 38 inches and the price is the lowest in years.

Dark Colored Dress Voiles, 38 to 40 Inches Wide, 25c Yard

These Voiles have passed the experimental stage. They have proven their worth to many and hundreds of women are convinced that no better value is procurable. They're right, for there isn't. You can have navy, Royal or Copenhagen blues, or greens or black in pretty Persian or floral patterns.

ENGLISH BLUE BIRD CREPES, 33c YARD

A lovely undergarment fabric, and useful for outer garments, too. Picturesque blue birds are shown, in restful postures or on-the-wing, against backgrounds of mauve, or pink. The width is between 30 and 31 inches.

32-In. Scotch Ginghams and Chambrays, 29c

Women who are constantly in search of good values will be on hand bright and early Wednesday morning to participate in this value-giving of Ginghams and Chambrays.

Firm reliable textures in plain colors and neat stripe and plaid patterns in shades of pink, blue, brown, mauve, green, black and white. About nine hundred yards.

Women's Fine Quality Night Gowns 99c

It has been interesting to listen to the comments of customers when they inspected these Gowns. Some said, "Surely that is the wrong ticket on them," others, "My what lovely gowns," and when they noticed the price, "And only 99c." We would like to hear your comment on Wednesday. We are sure it will be favorable.

Made of a very fine white cotton and charmingly trimmed with lace or embroidery.

Special 39c, Five-Inch Silk Ribbons at 27c Yard

A lovely Taffeta Silk Ribbon in the popular five-inch width. Suitable for dress sashes and hair bows. First buyers will have choice of white, black, navy, red and pale blue. Our lowest price of the year.

CASH GRAIN.

MONTREAL, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Trade in cash grain was weaker locally yesterday and price declines were recorded. The undertone was easy in the flour market. The demand for millfeed showed to have acted outside of the regu- was quiet. Trade in rolled oats was slow. Feeling was steady and prices unchanged in baled hay. The tone of the market for eggs was steady. Butter prices had a further advance of a cent a pound. The condition of the cheese market continues strong.

WINNIPEG WHEAT.

WINNIPEG, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Cash prices: Wheat—No. 1 hard 1.33 1-4; No. 1 northern $1.33; No. 2, $1.29 1-4; No. 3, $1.17 3-8; No. 4, $1.04 3-4; feed 77 3-4c.; track $1.32.

WINNIPEG CATTLE.

WINNIPEG, June 27.—(Canadian Press.) — Receipts 969 cattle and calves, 1,025 hogs and 40 sheep and lambs.

The cattle market opened yesterday morning with a very poor class of offerings and early trading was generally slow and inactive. Best butcher cows from $4.25 to $5; fair to good $3.84; good killing steers, $2.75; feeder steers, choice, $4.00 to $4.50.

Mutton sheep were priced at $6 and lambs from $12 to $14.

The hog market was unchanged at $12.50 for selects.

EGG MARKETS.

OTTAWA, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—The most interesting feature in the market situation is the advance in the British market. On the London market English eggs in the last week have advanced 2 1-2 to 3 shillings per long hundred, Irish 2 1-2 to 3 and Danish 3 to 5 shillings. Other continental eggs do not show much change. It is with the Danish, Irish and English that Canadian eggs come in competition and with the British market at its present level there is every possibility of export from this country. Some dealers have already cable enquiries, but as yet have received no replies.

Toronto firm and unchanged. Specials 37, extras 36, firsts 32 to 33, seconds 28. Ontario country shippers paying 24 to 25 and making sales straight gathered 26 to 27 f.o.b. graded firsts 31 f.o.b.

Montreal steady, specials 35 to 36, extras 33 to 34, firsts 30, seconds 27 to 28c.

STERLING RATES.

MONTREAL, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Sterling exchange was quoted here yesterday: Sterling demand 4.4738; sterling cables 4.4763.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

CHICAGO, June 27.— (Canadian Press.)—Rains and cooler weather preventing crop damage had a bearish effect yesterday on the wheat market and so, too, did misgivings in regard to the German political crisis. Wheat closed heavy, 1 5-8 to 2 1-4c. net lower, with July $1.11 1-8 to $1.11 1-4 and September $1.12 7-8 to $1.13. Corn finished 1 3-8c, to 1 1-2c. down, oats off 1-8c. to 1 1-4c., and provisions at an unchanged figure to 17c. decline.

CHICAGO CATTLE.

CHICAGO, June 27.—(Canadian Press.)—Cattle, receipts 22,000; beef steers steady to strong; spots higher; top 10.00; bulk 8.25 and 9.50; she stock, bulls and stockers steady to strong; canners and cutters and veal calves steady; bulk beef cows and heifers, 4.75 and 7.25; canners and cutters largely 3.00 and 3.75; bulk bologna bulls 4.25; veal calves to packers largely 7.50 and 8.00; to outsiders 8.50 and 9.25.

Hogs, receipts 60,000; opened 10 to 15c. lower; later steady to 15c. lower on lights and good butchers; mixed and packing grades 15 to 25c. lower; top 10.75; bulk good butchers 10.25 and 10.70; packing sows mostly 9.00 and 9.25; shippers took about 14,000; holdover liberal; pigs steady; mostly 9.50 and 10.50.

Sheep, receipts 13,000; mostly 25c. higher; top native lambs 1300; bulk 12.75; culls 7.00 and 7.50; best fat light ewes 6.75; extremely heavy 3.25; fed western yearling breeding ewes 10.75; sort off to killers 11.00; native breeding ewes mostly 6.50 and 8.00; yearlings up to 9.25; good feeder yearlings 8.50.

RADIO RECEPTION SHORT

BY PAUL F. GODLEY.

America's Foremost Radio Authority

A thing which puzzles most radio afns is their ability to receive concert programs from broadcasting station one night and their inability to get anything fro the same station the following night.

In some cases the credit for the reeeption is given to the receiving equipment, while in other the novice assumes that the success is the result of his own skill.

Many receivers have been discarded for not beter types of a particular set to get these nightly concerts regularly.

As anyone may learn by a little experience in the reception of radio messages (particularly on the shorter wave lengths allotted to amateur broadcasting stations) that signal strengths vary from night to night, hour to hour and even minute to minute.

Signal Variation.

There are times during the colder winter months when signals, quite steady and dependable, are heard from stations at extreme listances. On the other hand, there are periods during the summer monhts when stations close at hand cannot be heard at all.

It should be expected then that during the change fro one extreme of season to another, such as in the spring and fall, reception varies a great deal.

As radio broadcasting develops, every possible step will be taken by those interested in its development to offset the disadvantages of this great variation in signal.

Either stations will be made more powerful or they will become sufficiently numerous to take care of all sections of the country.

Neverthless there will always be many amateurs would prefer to hear a few discordant notes from a station 1000 miles away than to hear a most wonderfully executed program from a station in their own home town.

Results Differ.

Do not judge the merits of a radio reeciving set upon the results which you may get from night to night or even from hour to hour. To make a fair comparison of radio equipment of any sort, it must be installed and operated under exactly the same conditions and the notes of operation made in exactly the same instant.

In making comparisons in the labatories, engineers produce an artificial set of conditions over which they have complete control, in order that all their measurements may be made with accuracy.

The amateur may be misled very easily if he places too great dependence on appearance. I am encountering daily enthusiasts who have discovered unheard of things. Ae a rule they return later to confess that there must have been some mistake.

ANSWER THIS PUZZLE WIN $1000.00 OR OVERLAND

The operator of the movie machine in this theater decided to play a joke on his audience, so he threw these re-arranged "Movie" players' names on the screen.

To solve the Movie Puzzle, all you are required to do is to re-arrange the letters, so that they will spell the correct actor's or actress' name. No. 10 is Charlie Chaplin. If you can guess all ten you can win OVERLAND Automobile or $1,000.

WHO ARE THEY?

1 WAR IS NO SLOGAN 6 BALD MAN OR MEN
2 A BAD HEART 7 MIGHTA HANSOME
3 SALA CHERRY 8 IDLE BAY CAR
4 FIND PURE RICE JAKE 9 DRY HOG IS HOT
5 I PARCK MY FORD 10 I PREACH ALL CHIN

Can You Answer This Puzzle? 25 Prizes Given

Probably you know the names of most of the famous "stars," but just to refresh your memory, we mention below the names of a few of the most popular "movie" players.

ONLY 185 "POINTS" WINS AUTO

For each name that you arrange correctly, you will receive 10 "Points" toward the OVERLAND Automobile, or 100 "Points" in all, if you arrange all names correctly. You can gain 60 more "Points" by "Qualifying" your answer. That is, by proving that you have explained the ten Superior Features of the VELVIPOINT Fountain Pen to five people during this Big Booster and Advertising Campaign. The final 25 "Points" will be awarded by three independent judges on the neatness, style, handwriting and spelling of your answer.

The answer gaining 185 "Points" (which is the maximum) will win the OVERLAND Automobile, or $1,000 in cash. Second highest will win $500; third prize, $350, and so on down the list of 25 big prizes. In case of a tie, both winners will receive same prize. Send in your answer TODAY. As soon as it is received, we will send you a circular telling about the 10 "Superior Features" of the VELVIPOINT Fountain Pen.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY—YOU CAN WIN

You will not be asked to buy a Velvipoint Fountain Pen, nor spend one penny in order to win. Just write your answer to the Puzzle on one side of the paper, name and address in upper right hand corner. You can win—Don't delay—Answer the Puzzle NOW and send your solution to CHICAGO, June 27.—(Canadian Press). — Opening of the wheat market which ranged from 3-4c decline to 1-4 cents advance with July 111 to 111 1-2 and Sept 1.12 1-2 to 1.12 3-4 was followed by an upturn all round to well above yesterday's finish. After opening 1-8c off to 3-4c up July 61 5-8 to 62; corn market made slight general advance Oats started 1-4c decline to 1-8c advance and after a slight sag ascended with other grain.

Higher quotations on hogs gave a lift to provisions.

MONTREAL STOCKS

MONTREAL, June 27.—(Canadian Press).—Brazilian traction and Brompton Pulp and Paper featured forenoon session of local market.

Brazilian made a low of 45 3-4 from an opening of 46 1-2 and a high point yesterday of 47 1-4 Brompton which was almost entirely absent from list yesterday opened steady at 31 with only 50 shares changing hands in first hour.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET

TORONTO, June 27.— (Canadian Press).—With slightly increased volume of business shown by Brazilian on local stock exchange this morning there was a scaling down in prices with close a 45 3-4 showing a net loss of 1 1-4 from yesterday. British Empire steel 2nd preferred developed early strength selling up to 32 but reactions later brought close down to 30 1-2 a net loss of half a point over last night. Toronto rails lost 1-4 at 72 and Canadian Bread lost 1-8 at 32 1-2. These were only issues in which transactions exceeded 100 shares.

BARRELS FOR STREET WEAR.

Bathers Take Extreme Precautions Against Shocking Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., June 26. —As a protest against the order of the city authorities that mackintoshes must be worn over bathing suits worn in the streets the guests of a hotel here will parade to the beach clad in barrels.

'If bathing suits are unfit for the streets," declared one guest, "they are unfit for the beach."

After the indignation meeting, a committee went out and bought the barrels. Men and women will parade to the beach in the afternoon, park their barrels, and take to the surf in their regulation bathing suits.

CAN OBTAIN TREATMENT AT HOME

It is not generally known that ladies who are unable to visit Beauty Specialists can obtain treatment in their own homes for positively no expense. Dr. Northey Du Maurier, D.D., M.E., H.A., the eminent French Skin and Beauty Specialist and founder of the famous Beauty Clinics throughout the world, has been persuaded to meet the demands of the general public by putting on sale at all drug and departmental stores the preparations prepared from his French Formulae that have been closely guarded and have made his name famous for 20 years.

The preparations in question consist of Hair Tonic, Face Astringent, Face Powder, Skin Food, Vanishing Cream, Cold Cream, Massage Cream, Tooth Paste.

One of the only simple, effective and rapid cures of pimples, liver spots and freckles is Dr. Du Maurier's Astringent Lotion.

MARK STREET CHURCH HELD A LAWN SOCIAL.

The lawn social held on Mark Street Church lawn last evening — under the auspices of the C.G.I.T. group — was well attended and was quite successful in every way. Crowds of people assembled during the evening on the pleasant grounds, where the vendors of ice-cream and candy did a rushing business, with the Melodie Concert Band supplying music. Readings were given by Miss Reynolds and Jean Hurl. Arrangements were in charge of members of the C.G.I.T. group, of which Miss Kathleen Halliday is president, and Mrs. John Weir the leader.

"Just wher you stand in the conflict,
There is your place!
Just where you think you are usless
Hide not you face!
God placed you there for a purpose
Whate'er it be;
Think He has chosen you for it;
Work loyally.

Our First Year

SUGGESTS A SOLUTION

CHAPTER LXXV

'Peggy! You don't want to earn your living on the stage. Nor anywhere else," said Mrs. Herrod. "Dear! In your secret heart you want to let Jack have his way."

"I admit I do!" My tears washed the powder from my nose.

"Then admit it to Jack, not to me."

"I won't!" I replied. "I want to—but I won't! That's how the modern girl feels about lots of her emotions, Mrs. Herrod.

'In marriage she wishes to be free only as a man is free. I don't mean that she wants freedom for the sake of liberty and license.

"She reasons this way: When you depend upon anyone, when a girl depends entirely upon a man for bread as well as love, she is not free.

"As long as a girl is ruled by love she is not free. She's a slave 'to somebody, married or single.

"To stand up, shoulder to shoulder, to give and take equally, to swap fair in love, honor for honor, truth for truth—that is what the modern girl demands.

"That is what Jack and I have been striving for and I thought we were working successfully. Up to yesterday, no matter what the strain, I have stuck to my principles, had expected I could be married and independent."

"But marriage has worked some charm, a mysterious change? You wish to obey your man, in the ancient way?"

"Honestly, I don't know about that. But I am convinced Jack likes me best when I'm helpless. Boys and girls today chatter a good deal of nonsense about being pals and chum before they marry.

"But I guess there's something in nature stronger than civilization To-day I want Jack to love me. I want to be with him even at the price of all my fine theories. But I'm so terribly proud".

Mrs. Herrod pretended not to see that I was crying.

"Dear Mrs. Herrod. It's easy to tell you all this. But impossible to say so to Jack. That would be like doing all the compromising myself."

"There ought to be three votes in your family," said Mrs. Herrod. "Then there would be majority rule. As long as a family consists of two then one of the partners must be senior and the other junior —they must agree which shall possess the deciding vote or there is no real peace."

Just then Jack's cap appeared over the top of a distant bunker.

"The poor boy hasn't had much peace the last year," said I to Me. "He has had happiness and excitement. And whenever he's been worried his wife has tried to substitute more happinees and more excitement for the peace he needed. And where has our married life come out?"

"I answered my own question in a single word:

"Stale-mate!"

Rinso

For easy washing in the holidays

THERE are some things you must wash, even during vacation, but you need not waste the sunny hours over the wash tub. RINSO the new, wonderful scientifiic cleanser will wash the sheets and towels, the children's play-clothes and your own holiday things spotlessly clean by soaking and rinsing alone.

This is the way to use Rinso

Dissolve half a package of Rinso in enough cool water to make a thick cream. Then stir in two quarts of boiling water. When the bubbles disappear you will have a clear amber-coloured liquid which is the magical Rinso washing solution. Pour this into your tub of cool water and put in the clothes to soak.

In the morning rinse thoroughly and hang out to dry. Just a few minutes at night and a few minutes in the morning and the holiday wash is done. Thanks to Rinso.

KIWANIANS HEAR ADDRESS TO-DAY ON INSURANCE

David H. Moore Holds the Interest of Luncheon Party at the Empress Hotel.

A NEW MEMBER

General disappointment was felt by the members at the inability of Dr. E. S. Best to attend the Kiwanis luncheon to-day, but Dr. J. E. Middleton, who presided, assured the club that although Dr. Best had been unable to get back from Kingston to-day, he would be with them next week.

An interesting talk on insurance was given by David H. Moore, in which the loss through premature death was emphasized. Insurance he characterized as the only antidote for premature death. American companies paid out in death claims alone last year $400,000,000, he said.

The Kiwanis Spirit.

Mr. Moore was pleased with the spirit of Kimanis. "An institution of such an international character, as shown by your recent convention, with aims and objects of such a commendable nature, is worthy of the esteem, admiration and respect of the community," he said. He enjoyed the songs and joviality, and, he declared, "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men."

Report on Convention.

Secretary George Henderson reported on the international convention, the delegates to which he described as the "cleanest cut bunch of men he had ever seen." From an outline of the work accomplished, he pointed out that Canada was holding her own in the organization. A new member, in the person of C. D. Cook, was given a warm welcome into the club. Rev. James Rollins charged the latest Kiwanian with his duties and responsibilities, and in an eloquent manner emphasized the motto of service and square dealing.

Widdifield the Booster.

The booster to-day was Russell Widdifield, who was described by Lloyd Hamilton as an energetic lawyer and baseball player. Dr. H. M. Yelland, Leslie Unitt and Alec Dick were fortunate in winning prizes. Lloyd Hamilton took upon himself, as representing one table at dinner, to challenge the rest of the club to a ball game. In spite of the apparent strength at the table mentioned, Alec Dick, for the outsiders, took up the challenge, and the date was fixed for to-morrow evening at 6.30 at the Nicholls Oval. Following the luncheon considerable lobbying for players was noticed. The following were guests to-day: Kiwanian William O'Brien, Kingston; T. Barrie, D. H. Moore.

FARM SETTLERS ARRIVE FOR ONTARIO PROVINCE

Steamer Metagama Brings Good Type of Immigrants.

QUEBEC, Que., June 27. — The Canadian Pacific steamer Metagama, from Glasgow and Liverpool, in command of Captain G. C. Evans, has arrived at Quebec with nine hundred and ten passengers, all British, and a very superior class from Scotland and England, with a few from Ireland. Out of the total number there were two hundred and eight Canadians, one hundred and thirty in cabin and one hundred and fifty in third-class accommodation. The new arrivals are destined for Ontario and the Prairie Provinces.

Many of these are going to farm. The Salvation Army brought out a party of 130, including a number booked for Toronto and fifteen for Winnipeg, who were conducted across by Colonel Taylor. Among the returned Canadians in the cabins and residents of Toronto were: Miss Vic. Burke, Mr. A. Davis, Miss M. Dawson, Mrs. Findlay, Master M. Findlay and Mr. A. Findlay, Mr. Stolines and Miss Lines. There were also Miss J. M. Aird, Winnipeg; Mr. C. J. and Mrs. and Miss Worth, Winnipeg; Mrs. A. Henderson and the Misses Henderson, Winnipeg; Mrs. Baines and Miss S. A. Baines, Edmonton, Alta.; Mr. B. Laing, Halifax, N.S.; Mr. F. Lamptough and Mr. Lamptough, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. McKiver, Ottawa; Mr. J. Martin, Vancouver, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. P. Mooney and family, Hamilton, Ont.; Mr. G. W. Parker, St. John, N.B.; Mrs. Plambton and Masters, Transcona, Alta.; Mrs. White and Miss White, Victoria, B.C.; Major G. R. Turner, R.C.E., St. John, N.B., and others.

The cabin passengers conversed with on conditions in the United Kingdom state that a better feeling of optimism prevails amongst the people, and trade is surely, though slowly, recovering its equilibrium so far as they could judge.

Pray for Arizona

Robert McMurdo, Goodyear, Arizona, wants the names and addresses of Christian people who will promise to pray for a revival to sweep over Arizona.

In connection with the foregoing, Mr. Murdo writes as follows:

"Goodyear, Arizona, June 21, 1922.

"Editor Peterboro Examiner:

"Would you kindly insert the above request in your paper. I am just a plain gospel preacher but I feel the need of a spiritual awakening. Yours very truly,

CONFERENCE HAS ACCEPTED FINAL STATIONS' DRAFT

Changes in Methodist Ministry Endorsed by Bay of Quinte Conference Monday Night.

WHITBY, June 27.—After an extended meeting of the Stationing Committee, the Bay of Quinte Conference accepted the final draft of stations before adjournment at a late hour last night. During the day the conference approved a lengthy report from the Social Service Committee, which severely rapped race track gambling and cigarette smoking, warned against a tendency towards moral laxity and recommended local censorship by the churches of all moving pictures that were shown within a municipality.

Hon. W. E. Raney was commended for his support and enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act.

In an inspirational address, Rev. C. T. Scott of Toronto, vigorously assailed the doctrines of Marxian Socialism and stated that only through a realization of the fact that spiritual values were supreme could the world hope to cope wtih its present troubles. What was needed, he said, was such a revival as John Wesley had led.

26 Killed in a Railway Wreck Outside Berlin

BERLIN, June 27.—(Canadian Press). — Twenty-six persons were killed and a number of others injured, thirty seriously, in a railway accident just outside of Berlin to-day.

A RECEPTION FOR MISS SUSIE WELSH.

Vice-President A.Y.P.A., Who Leaves For England Thursday.

About thirty-five members of All Saints' branch of the A.Y.P.A. met at the home of Mrs. P. D. Fitzgerald last evening, and tendered an informal reception to Miss Susie Welsh, vice-president of the branch, who will leave for a summer visit to England on Thursday.

During the course of the evening, Miss Welsh was presented with a leather hand bag by Ralph Turner, president of the branch, on behalf of the members. In making the presentation, Mr. Turner spoke of the work done by Miss Welsh for the organisation, of the capable manner in which she had fulfilled the various offices entrusted to her, and of the whole-hearted support which she had given to the entertainments and the other enterprises undertaken by the branch. He expressed the feeling of the whole organisation in wishing her a very successful and pleasant trip.

Miss Welsh replied with a few fitting and well chosen words, thanking the members for their kindness.

Dancing, cards, singing, games, and other entertainment were enjoyed during the evening, and at the close refreshments were served.

A NEW PLAN TO REDUCE FIRE LOSS.

Recently Instituted By Fire Chief Gimblett.

A new system of inspection of premises to keep down the fire loss has been instituted by Chief George Gimblett, and in its first week justified its existence.

Previously the city had been divided into the business section and the factory section, but there are now five sections.

The change has been made to familiarise all the firemen with inspection work, and not have the Chief the only officer with experience in these important inspections as heretofore.

The Chief has divided the city into five sections as follows:

No. 1—East of the river.

No. 2—South of Sherbrooke Street.

No. 3—North of Sherbrooke Street and west of Stewart Street to the

No. 4—Business section, north of city limits.
Sherbrooke Street, east of Stewart Street, south of McDonnel Street, and west of the river.

No. 5—North of McDonnel and east of Stewart Streets.

Inspection will be carried on by five men of the platoon on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, one squad working on Monday and Thursday and another on Tuesday and Friday.

There will be no warning of a visit of the inspectors, although one section will be covered at a time. Reports are required by the Chief on each inspection.

It is believed that by this system all buildings in the city of any importance will be visited twice a year.

During their first week, the firemen were well received wherever they visited, except in one case yesterday, where the Chief exercised his authority to look over the premises, despite the protests of the owner, and ended up by giving him 24 hours to clean the place up.

Chief Gimblett has personally inspected a number of buildings in the downtown section, and so far has found little to complain of.

The wood which is used for airplanes is usually seasoned for 40 years before it is considered sufficiently in condition to be used.

HEAVY HITTING WINS GAME FOR TORONTO

Babe Ruth Knocks the Ball Into Right Field Bleachers For His Eighth Homer.

INTERNATIONAL.

Toronto 5, Syracuse 1.

SYRACUSE, June 27. (Canadian Press.) — Taylor held Syracuse to 6 scattered hits yesterday and Toronto took the first game of the series, 5 to 1, by superior work at the bat and in the field. No game will be played to-day on account of the funeral of James McCaffery, late president of the Leafs, and Thursday, an open date will be utilized to work off the postponement. Score:

Toronto	30[illegible]—5	11	1
Syracuse	..010000000—1	6	4

Taylor and Devine; Sell and Niebergall.

Buffalo 5, Rochester 2.

BUFFALO, June 27. (Canadian Press.) — Mohart kept Rochester's hits well scattered, the 2 runs scored by the tribe resulting from Rafferty's muff of a fly ball followed by a boot. Buffalo found Red Cox frequently. Rafferty made up for his miscue with a great catch in deep centre with three men on bases. Sheehan's fielding was spectacular. Score:

Rochester ....000002000—2	7	2
Buffolo .. ..20010200x—5	11	2

Cox and Lake; Mohart and Bengough.

Jersey City 5; Reading 0.

JERSEY CITY, June 27. (Canadian Press.) — The Jersey Skeeters chalked up an easy victory in their opening game here yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 0. Ed. Wurm twirled in top form and held Bender's athletes to only three hits, while the locals registered seven against Gordonir and Karpp, who divided the pitching for Reading. Score:

AMERICAN.

New York 6; Boston 4.

BOSTON, June 27. (Canadian Press.) — Home runs by Ruth and Shawkey were big factors in New York's 6 to 4 victory over Boston yesterday in the last game of a series in which Boston had won four straight. Ruth hit into the right field bleachers off Quinn in the fifth for his eighth homer of the year, with two men on and two out. Shawkey knocked the ball over the left field fence in the ninth with the bases empty.

Winchendon fans gave Witt a purse of $50 in gold. The score:

New York .. ..00004000 2—6	11	2
Boston ....201001000—4	10	2

Shawkey and Hofman; Quinn and Ruel.

Cleveland 6; St. Louis 0.

CLEVELAND, O., June 27. (Canadian Prss.) — St. Louis was unable to hit Coveleskie effectively, and Cleveland won the first game of the series 6 to 0. The Indians waited Pruett out and when he put the ball over bunched their hits. Elerbe's sensational fielding held down the Indians' score. Score:

St. Louis ....000000000—0	6	2

BECKETT-CARPENTIER BOUT FOR OCTOBER 2.

LONDON, June 27.—(Canadian Press)—The Paris sporting newspaper Auto say the arrangements for the Beckett-Carpentier fight which has been fixed for the first Monday in October in London, are conditional upon Beckett defeating the winner of the Cook-Jones contest on July 16 in London, the object being to prove that Carpentier is still the best man to meet Dempsey.

There is therefore a possibility of Jones upsetting these arrangements by defeating Beckett. Jones would in that event be entitled to ask for a match with Carpentier.

NAVY CREW WINS ANNUAL BOAT RACE.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.R., June 27 (Canadian Press). — The Naval Academy crew repeated its triumph of 1921 at the annual intercollegiate regatta yesterday, capturing the 'Varsity three-mile race by a margin of over a length from Washington, which was second.

Syracuse was third, defeating Cornell by one foot. The Navy established a new record for the course, its time being 13 minutes 33 3-5 seconds.

At the finish the Navy had a length's lead over Washington which, in turn, was three-quarters of a length ahead of Syracuse and Cornell.

Pennsylvania and Columbia were virtually out of it by the time the bridge was reached, and did not figure in the contest during the last mile.

JOIE LEONARD WINS HIS FIRST BATTLE.

NEW YORK, June 27 (Canadian Press). — Joie Leonard, younger brother of the lightweight champion, in his first appearance as a professional pugilist last night, won a judges' decision in four rounds from Sammy Marco. COLONIAL WEAVERS WIN THREE GAMES

Defeat Y Tigers and the C.G.E. Saturday and Y Tigers Again Last Evening.

The Colonial Weavers defeated the Y. Tigers in a fast game in the Girls Playground Ball League 27 to 24, Saturday afternoon and turned the trick again last evening when the Y. Tigers again went down to defeat with a score of 27 to 8. This made three straight victories for the Colonials for they also defeated the C.G.E. girls on Saturlay afternoon by a score of 51 to 24.

Remarkable pitching by Miss Clara Robinson and splendid support from her team mates made the three victories posible.

The Colonial Girls now claim the senior championship by virtue of the decisive victories of these three games.

The players in yesterday's games were:

Colonial Weavers — Miss L. Wade, Miss Thomas, Miss J. Wade, Miss Robinson, Miss Eggleson, Miss Legon, Miss Goodwin, Miss V. Wade, Miss Burns and Miss Bradshaw.

Y Tigers—Miss M. D. Sisson, Miss Alice Ebbs, Miss Marguerite Holmes Miss Pammett, Miss Mira Baird, Miss Eva Outram, Miss Carrie Crookshanks, Miss Drury, Miss Frances and Miss K. Holmes.

An exceptionally large crowd was on hand to watch the game and rooters were much in evidence.

The Colonials are scheduled to play the winners of the King George-King Edward game which will be played at Central Park tomorrow afternoon at 4.30 o'clock. The game between the Colonial Weavers and the winners of the above game will be played at 6.30 Wdnesday evening.

SPORT AT REUNION.

The two old rivals, Campbellford and Hastings lacrosse teams will cross sticks at Norwood Reunion on Monday afternoon July 3rd. It is rumoured that some surprises will be sprung.

The Havelock and Kene baseball teams will play at Norwood on Saturday, July 1st, the first day of Norwood Reunion.

Warkworth Baseball team plays a league game with Norwood at the Old Boy's Reunion, at Norwood on Monday Morning, July3rd.

FALCONS TAKE THE BEAVERS TO CAMP

Beavers Showed a Fatal Weakness in the Fifth Frame and Falcons Get Six Runs.

The Fire Hall Falcons have a strangle hold on Jerry Coughlin's Cup, as a result of their 11 to 3 victory over the Beavers

Both teams started well, each getting one in the first. Walsh pitching for the Beavers struck out three men in the first innings.

The game was tight until the fifth innings with lot of classy ball. In the fifth the Beavers went to pieces and the Falcons scored six runs. Griffin circled the base on an infield hit which was lost in the long grass just back of short.

Cheu twirling for the winners pitched sterling ball, allowing on a couple of hits and issuing but one pass. He worked a good fast ball and a sharp-breaking curve to advantage. Walsh who twirled for the losers pitched great ball, but was awarded poor support. He fanned eight of the Falcon batters.

Griffin supplied the batting cature when he poled out a long homer which hit the school.

The players were:

Falcons—Cheu p, J. Lebarr c, Johnson 1b, F. Wollf 2b, McNeely 3b, Lewis ss, Lucas rf, Griffin lf, Feeley cf, Cohen and Lundy subs.

Beavers—Walsh p, Leahy c, Kennealey 1b, Corkery 2b, Guerin 3b, Perdue ss, Ritchie rf Masterson lf, Finney cf.

Score by innings:

Falcons	101261 —11
Beavers	110100 — 3

TALES OF A WAYSIDE TEE

By GRANTLAND RICE

By Grantland Rice

Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune Inc.

If there is one club in golf which deserves more kind words than any other, we should say that it was the spoon.

And strangely enough, it is no uncommon thing to find any number of golfers, from the duffer to the first-class player, who either have no such weapon in the bag or else rarely use it.

Yet the spoon is frequently a life-saver for both, and this goes especially for the average golfer who is frequently inclined to have distinct differences with his other clubs.

Spoon Uses

In the first place, the spoon is one of the most versatile implements of the entire lot.

It is frequently a great club to use from the rough or from a cuppy lie, where it is important to get range.

It is a great club for the long second shot to the green, as it is easier to play than a driving iron or a cleek.

It is one of the handiest of all clubs when a bunker or trap must be cleared and the ball held on the green.

And when the brassie isn't working well it is an excellent substitute, as it gets almost as far.

If the golfer finds he isn't picking the ball up well with his brassie, he should at least give the spoon a trial, until he can work his way again to the longer wood.

And if he finds his long irons are not behaving as properly trained irons should out with the spoon again for varied distances.

Where it Helps

Suppose we take the case of a full midiron shot to the green. Say the distance is from 165 to 175 yards.

For many golfers this is one of the hardest strokes in golf. Now, if the player takes the spoon at the end of the grip and lets a full wallop fly, he will of course go too far.

But there is another way, so effectively shown by H. H. Hilton. This is to grip the leather nearer the bottom, somewhat below half way down (the leather, not the shaft), and then use a firm, natural stroke.

This doesn't mean to ease up or to hold back. That is why the grip is shortened, so that one can still strike firmly and not get too far. You can get the same distance with a spoon shot of this type with less effort than an iron requires, and therefore with better control.

It is an ideal club on short holes ranging from 165 to 185 yards. Here, with the ball teed up, is one of the easiest strokes in the game, and as the shot is generally high, there is very little run at the finish. This is especially true if one uses an open stance, with the right foot advanced, and also uses a fairly upright swing that should bring about a slight slice.

This is a much safer method for most golfers than slashing away with an iron.

The idea is neither to kill the ball nor to hold back, but merely to use a natural, comfortable swing that is firmly struck.

Great Spoon Players

We have seen him grip near the bottom of the leather and use it where other golfers were using mashies or jiggers from hardly 160 yards away. He also frequently uses it into a wind, keeping the ball low off his right foot, without the same swing one would use for a mashie.

The eighth hole at Inverness, Toledo, is about 190 yards. Vardon used a midiron here and got four 4's during the championship. Ray used his spoon and had four 3's, playing the simpler, easier shot in each case. And Ray then only beat Vardon by one stroke. His four spoon shots at this hole netted him a four-stroke lead.

George Duncan is another master spoon player, and so is Bobby Jones, who now prefers the spoon to the long iron. Hagen and Barnes prefer the driving iron to the spoon, as they have played the former effectively for many years, but Hutchison is a fine spoon player, one of the best.

During the amateur championship held at the Engineers we followed the Fownes-Gardner battle, which Fownes won. On three occasions we saw Fownes use his spoon from heavy lies in the rough and reach the green, nearly 200 yards away. Later at a crucial point of the match, coming to the sixteenth hole, he played a spoon shot from a fairly shallow bunker to the left, got the ball up over a row of maples and dropped it within eight feet of the cup, over 200 yards away. No other club in the bag would have accomplished any such miracle.

QUICK SERVICE ON CUSTOM-MADE SUITS

The four-day delivery of a custom-made suit at the Semi-ready shops in Montreal offers a prompt service. The schedule has been rigidly adhered to. When an order on the photo-type form is received at the Semi-ready offices not a moment is lost, not a motion is duplicated, and on the evening of the fourth day the suit appears at the shipping room for delivery by mail, messenger or express.

"Six day and the suit is here ready to try on and be found right". —Stock's store, 337 George street.

An approaching hurricane may affect the atmosphere and the rays of light passing through it for more than 1000 miles.

Little Lessons For the Golfer

In making the golf swing the head must not be moved and the body must not be permitted to sway. The instant either of these faults is committed the necessary accuracy is destroyed and the projected stroke will be a failure. The right leg should be stiffened during the upstroke with the club, with practically all the weight of the body transferred to the right leg. As the down stroke progresses the weight is transferred to the left leg, and, in turn, the left leg stiffens as the club goes through the ball. The player must remember that as he lifts the ball and his clubhead goes through the ball his head and shoulders must still be kept free from swaying. The head should still be on a line with the spot where the ball was teed after the stroke has been made and the ball is in flight.

Here is the finish of the swing which Ted Ray started Saturday. In this you will see how his left leg has stiffened, and how his head, at the finish of his swing, still is on a line with the spot where the ball was teed. The ball is now some 300 yards down the fairgreen.

Football

The return game of the C.P.C. and Comrade juniors will be played at the King Edward Park to-morrow night (Wednesday), June 28th. The C.P.C. team will be selected from the following: J. Edwards, H. Ranger, H. Bradley, F. Ball, F. Storey (capt.), E. Ore, T. Ball, M. Shadgett, J. Lynch, W. Chambers, A. Anderson, C. McDonad, J. Gilders, W. Davidson, J. Downer and H. Wilgar.

Kick off at 6.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. A. McKinley.

REPLAY GAME LEAGUE ORDER

Otonabee Must Meet Lakefield and Not Use Sheehan.

The Executive of the East Peterboro Baseball League considered the Sheehan case at a meeting held last night, and when it was found that the player had participated in the Lakefield-Otonabee game at Riverside Park, without having first secured his release from the Y.M.C.A. team of the local Intermediate series with which team he had also played. It was ordered that the Lakefield-Otonabee game be replayed at Riverside Park on Thursday July 6. Sheehan will not be permitted to play in this game It was further decided that Sheehan be not permitted to play with Otonabee at Keene this evening, unless his release is secured from the Y.M.C.A. team.

The executive were led to take a lenient view of the matter, and all three clubs expressed satisfaction with the verdict. The penalty provided for a case of this kind is suspension of the player.

PETES IN FORT HOPE TOMORROW

The Petes will play a Central Ontario's League game in Port Hope to-morrow, the cars leaving the Water street bowling alleys at 1.30 o'clock sharp. The players are asked to note the time.

HELD A PICNIC AT NICHOLLS OVAL

A large number of the scholars, with their parents and friends, gathered at Nicholls' Oval on Saturday afternoon last, on the occasion of the annual Sunday school picnic of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. The weather was ideal and a most enjoyable outing was provided, with a sit-down picnic supper at a long table, served by the teachers in the Sunday school, assisted by members of the Ladies' Aid Society. A programme of sports was run off, under the capable leadership of Messrs. Walter Smaill, G. H. Roper and H. B. Cowan.

At the ROYAL—To-night and To-morrow.

At The Theatres

CAPITOL — Gloria Swanson and Rudolph Valentino in "Beyond the Rocks". Something worth while presented by Elinor Glynn.
ROYAL — High Class National feature drama "Devotion" with Hazel Dawn and an all-star cast. Also Vitagraph feature "Princess Jones" and Mack Sennett Comedy
REGENT—Mary Miles Minter in "Eyes of the Heart' and balance special picture programme.

AT THE ROYAL.

PRINCE OF WALES SEEN IN DRAMATIC PHOTOPLAY

"Devotion" Shows Prince and Other Society People Attending Horse Show in New York.

Motion picture enthusiasts who admired the Prince of Wales during his stay in this country will be afforded an opportunity to witness His Highness charming personality in the Associated Producers' production, "Devotion," starring Hazel Dawn now shown at the Royal theatre.

Lionized by society's four hundred and feted and dined until the very last moment of his departure, the Prince is seen surrounded by a group of notable American captains of industry witnessing the Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, New York City. This scene, which was filmed exclusively at great expense, is part and parcel of the photo-drama telling the story of the ardent love of a young woman for her husband.

Other features of the pictureplay are a number of picturesque scenes showing for the first time in motion pictures the wonderful swimming pool of the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York City, where for two days the prominent members of the cast enjoyed its privileges while filming scenes for "Devotion." Another magnificent set reveals a society function in which over 2,300 people were used as "extras."

Prominent members of the cast supporting Miss Dawn include E. K. Lincoln, the well known character actor, Violet Palmer, Renita Randolph, Bradley Barker, Henry G. Sell and Wedgewood Nowell. The story was written and produced under the direct supervision of A. J. Bimberg.

YOUNG SCREEN STAR RIDES, SWIMS, COOKS; DESIGNS OWN GOWNS

Alice Calhoun, Vitagraph's newest star, was first seen in a film drama scarcely more than a year ago. She gained popularity rapidly, and her promotion is largely the result of pleas in letters from motion picture patrons to Vitagraph.

Alice Calhoun appears in the stellar role of "Princess Jones," a stirring romantic comedy drama by Joseph Franklin Poland, visualized as a Vitagraph production, which is now at the Royal theatre.

Alice Calhoun is eighteen years old. She is a descendant of John C. Calhoun, Oliver Cromwell and Victor Hugo, but by her own statement she depends upon her own energy and determination, rather than her ancestry, to carry her through.

Miss Calhoun's tastes and pleasures cover a wide range. She loves music, drama and the arts. She devotes much time to reading and names Longfellow, Riley, Poe and Serviss as her favorite poets and Dickens, Hugo and George Elliott as her favorite authors. She rides, swims, plays tennis, golf; she dances, drives her own car and her own motor boat. Also she cooks, designs and makes some of her own dresses and is adept in other domestic arts.

Capitol Entertainment

The much-heralded picture, "Beyond the Rocks," was the attraction at the Capitol Theatre last evening. With a combination that embraces Elinor Glyn, the authoress of "Three Weeks"; Rodolph Valentino, "the screen's greatest lover"; and Gloria Swanson, whose eyes and her general make-up suggest posibilities of dramatic expression, probably the large audience that packed the Capitol last evening expected a little more "punch." However, Miss Glyn has confined her talents to a prettily staged but absolutely harmless presentation of the love of a young, handsome and unattached English earl for the young and beautiful wife of an elderly rich man. Valentino's love-making, after watching his whirlwind methods in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," is rather tame, and he limits his efforts to win the lady to going off with her in a stage-coach for a few miles up the road, following a pageant scene.

As Theodora Fitzgerald, later Mrs. Josiah Brown, the heroine of the tale, Gloria Swanson, does some splendid acting, and wears some wonderful gowns. She remains faithful to her ailing old husband, whom she has married to redeem the family fortunes, but a jealous woman intercepts two letters, and sends them to the wrong addresses. Consequently, the elderly husband discovers that, although his wife has resolved to see no more of her admirer, that she loves the young man devotedly, nevertheless, and with true modern feeling, instead of flying into a passion in the good old way, he goes off to the Sahara Desert on an adventure-seeking expedition. The young wife, accompanied by her lover and her father, go right after him, another modern touch that gives an unexpected twist to the story. The virtuous element is conspicuous throughout the entire picture; all the characters doing the noble thing at the right moment, which praiseworthy procedure finally works out most satisfactorily for the two most concerned, with the elderly husband falling a victim to the stray bullet of a marauding Arabian tribe.

There is plenty of colour and light in the picture, which has effective backgrounds of beautiful scenery from English cliffs, Parisian gardens and desert perspectives. As a moral lesson on the ultimate triumph of virtue, it has a very plain message. Evidently the much-talked-about authoress is a much-maligned woman, or else she is trying to erase the memory of earlier transgressions by a heavily virtuous attitude in her "movie" romances.

A thrilling episode in the "White Eagle" serial, a comedy entitled "High Tide," and the usual interesting short reels complete the programme at the Capitol for the first three days of this week.

NEW SUMMER RESORT

Another public resort has been opened up along the lovely shores of Trent River. Trent River Lodge situated near the mouth of the river about four miles from Hastings, under the management of Mrs. B Lukes.

Already quite a number of American tourists have arrived and are enjoying the lovely scenery, excellent fishing also the good accommodations Mrs. Lukes can give.

Guides are also on hand and in fact every thing the sporting public desires for a good time is provided.

CLOSING MEETING.

The final monthly meeting for this season of the Ashburnham Patriotic Society was held last evening at the home of Mrs. R. H. Parsons, when a short business session was followed by a social hour, with the service of dainty refreshments. The ladies decided to hold a picnic on the 13th of July to Gore's Landing, per the steamer "Stoney Lake." The next regular business session will be held in September.

THE PEACE RIVER DISTRICT

The views of this interesting, far away, part of Canada that will be shown at Murray street Baptist Church on Wednesday night are of very high quality. The lecture is by Reverend Horace Wright who some years ago was secretary of the local Y.M.C.A. Mr. Wright has visited the country of which he speaks and has a story to tell that will be of interest to everybody. The hour is eight o'clock. Vocal and instrumental music.

MINISTER WILL INSPECT CANAL

Piers at Burleigh Falls to be Repaired This Summer.

OTTAWA, June 27. — Supplementary estimates contained $1500.00 for repairs to the Burleigh Falls piers, which Mr. Gordon, member for West Peterborough, succeeded in having placed in the estimates of the Department of Railways and Canals.

The piers at Burleigh Falls have been in need of repair sometime.

Mr. Gordon told your correspondent that the Minister of Railways and Canals has promised to go over the whole Trent Canal System this summer with him, and the West Peterborough member said he was satisfied that when the Hon. Mr. Kennedy saw the importance of the Trent Canal much more extensive expenditures would be made to hasten its completion.

WEDDING BELLS

DEAN—DIXON.

The wedding took place in Toronto on Tuesday, June 20th, of Mr. Norman R. Dean, of the Birmingham Motors staff of this city, to Miss Dorothy A. Dixon, of Moncton, N. B. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dean took a trip to Jamestown, and were also entertained at the summer home of Mr. George B. Mechem at Lake Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean will reside in Peterborough.

SIMLER—PHELAN.

A pretty wedding took place at 7 o'clock this morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, when Mary Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phelan, 290 Smith street, was united in marriage to Peter Simler, of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Simler. Rev. Father Costello performed the ceremony. The wedding march was played by Mr. John Ball, who also gave a vocal solo during the Mass.

The bride was charmingly attired in white gorgettte, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried ophelia roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Loretta Phelan, wore orchid organdie, with hat to match, and corsage bouquet of columbia roses. Mr. James McCliggot supported the bridegroom.

After the ceremony, dinner was served at the bome of the bride's parents, to a number of relatives and friends, the table daintly decorated with smilax and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Simler will leave on Thursday of this week for Detroit, where they will reside, the bride travelling in blue canton crepe, with wrap to match, and black maline hat.

DECHANTIGNY—DURANCEAU

A very pretty wedding took place at 8 o'clock this morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, when Hermance, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. J. Duranceau, 280 Simcoe street, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Sylvio Dechantigny, son of Mrs. and the late Alphonse Dechantigny, of Westmount, Montreal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Cantillon, who read the marriage service in French.

The dainty bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was gowned in an exquisite costume of white canton crepe, the corsage and skirt panels trimmed with crystal beads and hand-made roses, and wore a long tulle veil, wreath of orange blosoms, and white kid slippers. Her bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and white roses. The bride's attendant was her cousin, Miss Jeanne Girard, who was attired in pale pink taffeta, with legrorn hat and silver slippers, carrying pink roses. Mr. Auguste Duranceau acted as groomsman, and Mr. Sylvio Mathieu of Montreal, the bridegroom's godfather, acted as his sponsor, according to the French custom. The wedding march was played by Mr. John Ball, who also rendered a vocal solo during the Nuptial Mass. Ushers were Messrs. Leo Pope and Hugh Thompson.

Following the ceremony, a dainty wedding breakfast, catered for by Messrs. T. Hooper and Sons, was served to a number of relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents, where orange blossoms and quantities of field daisies made charming floral decorations.

This afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dechantigny, who will reside in Haileybury, left by motor for Toronto, en route for a motor trip to New York and Washington, returning by way of Montreal. The bride's travelling costume was a frock of French blue taffeta, with corsage ornament of small [illegible]. Her hat was a stunning small shape of heavy black net, trimmed with blue and silver ribbon, and large glazed poppies of variegated shades. The wrap was of French blue velours, inset and heavily stitched in sand color.

The bride was the recipient of numerous beautiful gifts, including several substantial cheques.

PARLIAMENT WILL MEET NEXT YEAR

OTTAWA, June 27 (Canadian Press). — The Prime Minister announced in the House this afternoon that Parliament will meet again in January, and that a Redistribution Bill will be brought down early next session.

There will be no general election in the interval, he declared.

YOUNGSTERS AT SUMMER CAMP

Owing to the schools still being open, the attendance at the opening of the summer camp for children at Jackson Park was comparatively small yesterday, eleven children being the total, with eighteen on hand to-day. The children, especially those who had been at the camp in previous years, were eager to attend, and the house of Mrs. Millet, the camp housekeeper, was besieged with children at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, enquiring about the prospects for attendance at the camp. One little chap walked out yesterday to discover how things were getting along.

The dining hall was in commission for the first time yesterday. The rest room is expected to be completed about the end of the week. The ladies in charge report two splendid assistants in Messrs. Walter Stocker and Leslie Unitt, who are every-day attendants, and render invaluable assistance in the way of putting up shelves and tables, and fixing screens, etc. The boys who are working on the rest-room report the loss of a large paint brush, some night visitor doubtless having made off with same.

VOL. L., No. 150 PETERBOROUGH, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1922 PRICE THREE CENTS

COLLINS IS WELL EQUIPPED WITH MACHINE GUNS

Arms Were Supplied by the British in Accordance With the Anglo-Irish Treaty.

LATE IRISH NEWS

LONDON, June 28.—It is believed here that the Irish regular forces under Michael Collins are sufficiently strong and well equipped to deal with the situation which has arisen in Dublin. The majorify of their arms, including machine guns and military, have been supplied by the British Government under the terms of the Anglo-Irish Treaty. They are manning their own artillery.

There are several thousand British troops still in Dublin, and it is intimated that, should Collins request aid from this source, the troops would be put at his disposal exactly as was done when the Ulster Government desired military assistance in putting down the rebellion in the north.

Rumor that Roy O'Connor, Republican insurgent commandant, had been wounded during the fighting was unconfirmed this afternoon. No confirmation was available.

War broke out in Goaler Hall, under attack by regular Free State troops, shortly after noon.

At that hour it appeared that the irregulars holding Four Courts had taken refuge in a cellar in the rear of the structure.

FIRE SLACKENS

The rebel fire from the four courts slackened this afternoon leading to the hope that they might be prepared to evacuate.

British troops, quartered in Dublin took no part in the fighting, but were held in readiness to assist the free state troops if Collins should call for them.

A British light cruiser and several destroyers cruised about off Dublin and Cork ready if needed.

Several civilians were killed and a number wounded by rifle fire.

Late this afternoon, the Free State artillery opened fire on the four courts with field guns.

A huge quantity of golignite was known to be stored in the rebel stronghold, and a disastrous explosion was feared.

STORMED THE REBELS

DUBLIN, June 28. — (United Press).—Irish Republican insurgents were driven from parts of the four courts this afternoon by Free State troops who stormed the rebel stronghold under cover of heavy artillery fire

The insurgents under Rory O'Connor were reported clinging desperately to positions in the rear of the Law Courts buildings. High explosive shells from free state artillery sent walls and roofs of the massive building crumbling about the heads of the defenders The gates of the four courts were blown off Huge sections of the structures crashed beneath shocks of heavy shell fire. The copper dome fell in.

Late this afternoon two 18 pounders were battering away at the rebel defenses in the great Court buildings, firing at almost point blank range.

The insurgents defense was stubborn.

Great gaps began to appear in walls and roofs of the four courts buildings under a constant hail of shell fire. Insurgents were driven from several blocks in Dublin which they had seized in an attempt to divert attention from the attack on the four courts.

The death list at 4.30 p.m. was estimated at 15.

Fashion Arbiters Make Persistent Effort to Introduce Long Skirts

Longer Clothes Will Stimulate Business for the Textile and Allied Trades and Will Also Mean the Exit of the Flapper

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Fifth Avenue woman's tailor, the head of the department store section devoted to gowns and the buyer for the so-called exclusive shops agree that the days of the Flapper are numbered. The longer skirt, fashion's decree for the up-to-date styles, has sounded her doom, they say. With her back against the just-below-the-knee skirt, they will tell you, she is waging gamely and stubbornly a losing battle against the effacement of her jaunty recklessness, the loss of her piquant, convention-defying, self-sufficient personality. All the signs and portents are that the longer skirt will be the victor. Her manners, prophesy the modistes, will change with her Fall gowns.

One salesman, after a Flapper had vainly asked the other day for a gown shorter than any of those shown to her, and had departed with her purchase in a mood which indicated that she thought the whole world was in conspiracy against her, remarked:

"She will shorten that gown herself or have it shortened, but a month from now she will regret it. She has got to come to the longer skirt. Fashion will not be denied.

"A few months hense," he continued, "and the Flapper, at least as a style type, will join in the attic trunks and chests of discarded fashions the Pantalette Girl who minced her steps in Miss Minchin's school; the Hoop Skirt Girl who blocked the sidewalks of the lower Broadway promenade in the '30's; the Bustle Girl of the '80's with her ostrich like contours, front and rear; the Gibson Girl of the '90's with her full blown shirtwaist, forward thrust torso and receding hips; the Tailor Made Girl of the same period with her sharp, riding habit angles; the Debutante Slouch Girl with her slumping, bag-tied-in-the-middle droop and the Vamp Girl, immediate predecessor of the Flapper, with her kalsomined face, livid blue nose and mouth, low dressed hair and slinky walk.

MUST FIREMEN OBEY TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

William Noftall's Suit Against City for Damages Will Be a Test Case—Collided With Chief's Car.

EX-CHIEF A WITNESS

Do traffic regulations apply to a fire truck in full flight?

Under the urgent necessity of getting to a fire as quickly as possible, are the firemen to observe rigidly the regulations to which the general public must conform, or are they permitted within reasonable limits to consider the traffic law as temporarily suspended, in other words, that they have a prior right-of-way over all other traffic?

These are questions involved in the suit of Wm. Noftall against the city for damages to his automobile in a collision with the runabout while driver by former Chief Grange. City Solicitor Widdifield informed the Legal Committee last night that this case would be tried by Judge Huycke in Division Court on July 7. He had been unable up to the present to find any previous decision or precedent directly affecting this question. Chief Grange had acceded to Mr. Widdifield's request for particulars, and had provided him with a complete statement of the accident. It is also understood that the ex-Chief will be called as a witness for the city.

Mr. Widdifield said the Council was entirely justified in contesting this suit which, it was believed, had some of the elements of a test case.

Will Write Hydro.

A notice from the Hydro-Electric Commission in regard to compensation for alleged depreciation of their property on Hunter Street as a result of the building of the Hunter Street Bridge called up recollections of promises from the Commission's chief engineer, Mr. L. J. Ireland, that no claim would be made against the city for damages arising out of the grade of the approach on the west side.

Ald. Stocker said that the Commission would not recognize any verbal expressions, and their new demand was regarded as proof that the Commission felt there had been no understanding.

Ald. Phelan and Stocker moved that Mr. Ireland be requested to discuss this matter on his next visit to Peterborough.

CONFLICT WITH HORSE TRADERS

Inspector Stapleton Enforces Humane Laws in Two Local Cases.

In carrying out his duties as Humane Society Inspector, C. S. Stapleton had a conflict with horse traders yesterday afternoon in which he enforced his demands, although the odds were three to one, and only the poor old horse which the trouble was over, sided with the Inspector.

John McDonald, a horse dealer, one of a party who have been camped east of the Life-Locks for some days, was pulled up at the post office yesterday afternoon with a pony between the shafts that had seen better days. According to Mr. Stapleton there were three sores on the mare's back that had a high visibility. Unfortunately for McDonald, the Inspector was passing. He told the horse trader who he was. "Can't you see that that mare isn't fit to drive?" said the inspector. He ordered him to unhitch it right then and there.

"I'll call the Chief of Police," said the trader with sundry expletives attached.

"Go ahead and call him," said Mr. Stapleton.

"Do you think he'd help me?"

"Sure he would. He'd help you all right."

After humming and hawing, the dealer drove over to the Munro Hotel as ordered and there the horse was released from the torturing harness. The buggy was left in the yard and just as McDonald and another of his party who had put in an appearance were starting out to lead the horse home, J. Anderson, a local horse trader went past. The horse men called him in for support and he volunteered to drive the visiting dealers home and lead the mare. The party started off in state and the last the inspector heard were remarks in regard to the humane society that were not complimentary. Later he saw Anderson and learned that he had the horse as a result of a deal with his own brethren. "You can have the mare, but youre not to drive it till it gets better. You'll have to put it out on pasture for a while. Mind you, if I see you with it there will be trouble," was the inspector's warning to the new owner.

Another Case.

Yesterday noon Mr. Stapleton forced a driver for an East City baker to unhitch a horse with a raw sore on its back from a bread wagon at the corner of St. Joseph street and Charlotte street and bring another horse from the livery stable to continue the bread delivery. The horse had a raw spot on its back as large as a man's hand caused by the saddle pad rubbing, Mr. Stapleton said. Two old stockings were wound around the pad so the sores were covered up. "We must stop this cruelty to horses," the inspector said to-day. "There are a lot of horses being driven that are in no condition for use and for my part I intend to make it hot for the owners."

SIX ALIENISTS SWEAR DELORME UNFIT FOR TRIAL

All in Accord That Alleged Slayer of Half-Brother is Mentally Unbalanced.

VERDICT TONIGHT

MONTREAL, June 28. (Special to the Examiner.) — The six alienists commissioned by the Crown to examine Adelarde Delorme. are all in accord that he is mentally unbalanced and so unfit to stand trial.

So it was testified by Dr. F. E. Devlin, superintendent of the St. Jean de Deu Hospital, at this morning's session of the trial.

Dr. Devlin had given hi testimony regarding the mental condition of the accused and then stated that his five colleagues were in agreement with him. It is accordingly expected that the rest of the testimony will be considerably shortened, so there is a possibility of a verdict being rendered to-night or to-morrow at the latest.

LACKS JUDGMENT.

MONTREAL, June 28. (Canadian Press.) — Dr. Francis Eugene Devlin, medical superintendent of the St Jean De Dieu Hospital, and expert alienist for the prisons of the province of Quebec, was called by the defence to give evidence in the Delorme case to-day. He stated that he had examined Delorme several times and had takn a sample of his spinal fluid and blood. As a result of examinations witness had ascertained that there exists in the prisoner defect in mind, primal defect, and absence of judgment with regard to his acts.

CHAUTAUQUA HAS WORLD INFLUENCE

Its Origination and Growth Makes Interesting History.

The history of the rise and growth of Chautauqua is a most interesting story of sticking-at-it in the face of many difficulties and set-backs. In spite of indifference, and because of its genuine merit, it is now a world-wide influence and factor. Last year in Canada alone there were 1,045 Chautauquas, and this year, Ontario's share will be 105. To cover this large number of stands there are two separate and distinct circuits, working entirely independent of each other. The stands are 4 or 6 day stops, according to size of the place, and the fact that almost two million people attended the Chautauqua series last year, attests the growing popularity of the course. Chautauqua is not a money making proposition. It has many objects, largely ideal in their way, and the men behind the movement, could, with the same investment, and organization in other fields, acquire wealth very rapidly. Instead they adhere to their hobby and belief, and find that taking the ups and downs as they come, the downs often outway the advances. Canada is an instance of this phase of the work. Chautauqua has now been five years operating in Canada, and so far the deficit over receipts amounts to $27,000. This would have to be made clear of expenses in this or succeeding years before the management would even clear themselves, much less show a profit.

Circuits which are now touring America will in September be transferred to Australia and New Zealand, many of the more prominent artists accompanying the organization, as they are now definitely identified with the movement. The Peterboorugh series comes for July 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 10, and the entertainers are of a very high standard. A meeting of the committee was held last night and final arrangements made for the sale of course tickets. Of these there are 500, which the committee are responsible for the sale of, before any part of the proceeds comes to the fund for the aid of crippled children. Tickets for the full course are $2.75 for adults and $1.35 for children. They must be purchased before the course opens, as none but single admissions are sold after that time, and course tickets are much less than the cost of all entertainment if purchased separately. On sale at all drug stores and Examiner Office.

MACAROW'S TRIAL TUESDAY, JULY 18

MONTREAL, June 28. (Canadian Press.) — The trial of D. C. Macarow, former general manager of the Merchants Bank, charged with wilfully signing a false banking return for the month of October, 1921, to the Federal government, will, it was declared this morning, take place on Tuesday, July 18th, and continue until it is concluded, without further postponement.

More Speeders For Constable Stratton

"I'm not worrying about what they say for its not true," declared Constable T. Y. Stratton to-day regarding statements made by farmers that he egged speeders to break the law. "I've never egged anyone on," he said. "There is enough speeding going on without having to break the law to catch them."

This morning he brought before His Worship three pleas of guilty on informations against Clarence House, William Henderson and Arthur Thornahlan, who drove the Leaside baseball team to Peterborough a week ago tonight. He claimed two cars were going 45 and one 40 miles an hour. He chased one for five miles before he caught it. Magistrate O. A. Langley set the fine at $10 and added costs of $3.75.

STRAWBERRY CROP ENDS THIS WEEK

Prospects Are That Raspberries Will Be Plentiful

"People should get their strawberries this week if they want to make sure of them," is the warning issued by Fred Stenson, well-known North Monaghan berryman. 'There will be berries next week, but they will not be plentiful, and will not likely be of the same quality as now. The crop this year has been very good, and there have been a lot of berries sold. I don't see how they can be any cheaper. The market seems to be always good in Peterborough. One man passed here every day with a truck load from Garden Hill, and he always sold them. One day he disposed of 1,089 boxes."

"Does that interfere with the local growers' sales?" The Examiner asked.

"No. There is always a demand in this city. We sold a lot of berries, but I couldn't say exactly how many. The crop was good, but we are picking the last off it now."

Good Raspberry Crop.

Mr. Stenson looks for a good raspberry crop. "The rains seemed to have helped them along wonderfully, and they should be plentiful," he said. He believed they would be in in two weeks, and he predicted Montmorency cherries offered for sale in ten days.

Prospects are bright for the same generous crop of cherries as other fruits, and, like growers generally, Mr. Stenson is pleased with the outlook.

Vegetables Plentiful.

"We have just one more picking of strawberries, and after that there will be just a few boxes," The Examiner was told at C. Kitney's market garden. "The berry crop was very good, but is practically over now, and people should see about getting them," it was stated.

Kitney's stated that their raspberries suffered with the winter kill, and they did not look for a good crop themselves. "Everything in the garden is looking nicely, and prospects for fruit and vegetable crops are splendid."

ARGUMENT IN THE GADD CASE TODAY

An appeal to the Division Court Judge against a judgment of Magistrate O. A. Langley, in which Frederick Gadd, an American summer visitor, was fined $40 for reckless driving on the Lakefield Road several weeks ago, was heard by Judge E. C. S. Huycke in Lakefield Town Hall yesterday afternoon. R. R. Hall appeared for Mr. Gadd, and the Crown was represented by G. W. Hatton, K.C. Ten witnesses in all were called, five for the Crown and five for the defence, and the hearing of the case occupied so much time that argument had to be postponed until to-day. The evidence was a repetition of what was heard in Police Court here. Gadd, supported by the adults who were with him in the roadster the night of the collision with F. H. Sanderson's automobile, which resulted in the charge of reckless driving, gave evidence that the Detroiter was only going in second gear when the Crown claims he was travellinig at a high rate, as supported by two farmers' evidence who saw the car from the side of the road.

281 STUDENTS AT ENTRANCE EXAMS.

An effect of the Adolescent Act was seen in the exceptionally large number of candidates who enrolled this morning at the Collegiate Institute for the entrance examinations. The total number from all the schools of the city was 281. Mr. H.R.H. Kenner is in charge of the examinations which continue until Friday afteroon, and he has five assistants.

HAD WHISKEY ON PREMISES IS FINED $200

Gallon of "Moonshine" is Found Buried Under Ground in a Garden in East City.

STOLE AUTO TIRE

The last or apparently the last of a series of cases that have been interrelated was seen in Police Court today when Edward Woodcock was fined $200 each for a breach of the O.T.A. and the Inland Revenue Act in connection with the illicit distilling of liquor near Mather's Corners, and Joseph D. Woods, Roy Sedgwick and Harold Brooks were relieved on charges of the theft of an auto tire. The various charges under the O.T.A. and Inland Revenue Act that have developed have or will net $1,400 in fines when they are paid, and the revelation of a bootlegging agency and liquor manufactory in Otonabee Township came about over the rather drab arrest of two youths who were on what Crown Attorney G. W. Hatton, K.C., called "a boyish escapade" last Thursday night.

Gallon of Moonshine.

The finding of a gallon jar of moonshine whisky that tested 35 under proof buried under ground in a garden in East City by Detective William Meagher and P. C. Carey on Monday afternoon resulted in the arrest of Edward Woodcock at his home at 1 a.m. the following morning. This midnight sally was made to prevent Woodcock destroying evidence of illicit distilling in Otonabee. Yesterday afternoon Inspector W. H. Buller, of the Inland Revenue Department, Detective Meagher and P. C. Carey, following up information evidently divulged by the participants, found a barrel of mash in a wood near where the still was found in Otonabee. The mash, according to the operators of the still, was made last week. All their available supply of material went into it, and this week it was boned to make a gallon of liquor. The gallon found in the East City yard was brought in Saturday night and buried in the garden at midnight.

Pleaded Guilty.

This morning Edward Woodcock pleaded guilty to a breach of the O.T.A. and the Inland Revenue Act, and fines in both cases were $200. Murney Martin, the other participant, was previously fined a total of $500, so the moonshine business ended in rather a forlorn manner. It was explained to-day that the still in Otonabee was built when the two men were employed at a lumbering camp in the vicinity during the season. When work ceased they gave their entire attention to the rectifying apparatus.

Suspended Sentence.

The Crown asked for leniency in the cases against the young men aged 17, 19 and 22 to-day charged with the theft of an auto tire, rim and tube from Joseph Slattery. The evidence indicated that in the state of intoxication, the rash act of removing a spare tire from the car standing in Riverside Park was performed. J. F. Strickland, who appeared for two of the lads, said it was a senseless thing to do, and Magistrate Langley was inclined to the same view. The evidence did not smack strongly of any criminal intention, and in two cases the boys were allowed to go on suspended sentence, and in the other the charge was withdrawn.

All Young Men.

"They are all young men. I do not think it would do any good to send them to jail, and might do them a lot of harm. The theft in itself was a trivial matter. No damage was incurred, and the plaintiff desires and requests the charges be withdrawn if possible. I wouldn't care to have the responsibility of sending these boys to jail," said the Crown Attorney in urging clemency.

NORMAN PAMMETT FELL OFF A ROOF

Norman Pammett employed by Alex. McLeod as a roofer received serious injuries yesterday at 11 a.m. when he fell a distance of 22 feet from a barn in Douro township which was being reshingled His left arm was broken and the flesh torn from the right arm and he received other lesser injuries. His father James Pammett, employed by R. Hicks and Company stated to-day that his son fell off a scaffold but he had no other particulars of the accident. Just at noon Mr. Pammett noticed a car going west on Charlotte street and hanging over the side he saw a mangled arm. "There's some poor man's son going to the clinic', he remarked to Mr Hicks and he did not learn until going home at noon that it was his own son, who was first rushed to clinic and later removed to Nicholls Hospital. Dr. G. S. Cameron is attending him. Mr. Pammett was until recently a fireman.

MRS. SUN YAT SEN DESCRIBES FLIGHT IN FACE SLAUGHTER

First Detailed Story of Storming of President's Palace in Canton, China—Flung Herself on Pile of Corpses to Avoid Discovery.

A THRILLING FLIGHT

The first detailed eye-witness story of the storming of the President's Palace in Canton, the flight of Sun Yat Sen, and the terrible slaughter that followed, has been written by Mrs. Sun Yat Sen, wife of the President of the South China Republic.

Mrs. Sun Yat Sen fled from the Presidential Palace, was shot by insurgents, captured, faced death by torture, escaped in disguise, flung herself on a pile of corpses to avoid discovery, and finally reached safety.

SHANGHAI, June 28 (by Mrs. Sun Yat Sen—Special to the United Press Copyright). — My husband, Sun Yat Sen, awakened me at two o'clock in the morning of 16th June, and told me that soldiers of Cheng Chung Ming were in the outskirts of Canton, and were coming to assassinate him. He said he would have to flee, and urged me to get ready and go with him. I refused, fearing I would hamper him in his flight.

After an argument, Sun Yat Sen departed, leaving me his entire bodyguard of fifty loyal soldiers. He escaped from the palace, hoping to gain a point of safety on a warship whose crew was still loyal to the Republic.

Shortly after my husband had left, the rebels commenced a terrific bombardment of the palace. For thirty minutes shells shrieked towards us, bursting with thunder claps all about the building. Many took effect. One shell passed through my bathroom, and wrecked part of the palace.

The enemy positions were on a hillside overlooking the house, and also commanding the bridge connecting the house with Sun Yat Sen's offices. Thir bridge, a third of a mile long, was constantly under fire.

My bodyguard, was bravery itself. Because of the darkness they withheld their fire, and sought to beat off attackers who came to grips with them.

My house boy fearlessly took an exposed position and killed man after man of the rebels.

At 8 o'clock in the morning, after we had returned the insurgent fire for several hours following the dawn, our ammunition ran out. Our only hope of escape was to cross the exposed bridge.

It was decided that Sun Yat Sen's aide-de-camp, Col. Gerge Bow, and two guards should accompany men across this narrow path to possible safety, and that the rest should remain to face certain death, and worse, if captured, to enable us to escape.

All of the noble guard that stayed behind died facing the enemy.

We started on our journey across the bridge. Bullets zipped past us, while shells exploded nearby.

Col. Bow was shot through both legs. A bullet grazed my scalp.

Party Was Captured.

I ordered the guards, despite Col. Bow's protests that it imperilled the entire party, to carry the gallant officer the rest of the journey across

LEGAL ACTION AGAINST CITY

Mr. B. Revoy Threatens "Other Proceedings" When Committee Turns Down His Claim of Damages.

"I'll try some other proceedings," was the parting shot of Mr. B. Revoy, Woodbine Avenue, when the Legal Committee last night again rejected his claim for $209.00 damages for injuries he suffered in an accident near his home on 22nd March last.

"I've lived over there a good many years," he replied to a remark that the Council had to investigate closely such demands. "I'm no fraud, and I don't think you're using me right."

Mr. Revoy was driving a load of wood out of a lane and over the mound of a newly built sewer. The front wheels of the waggon dropped suddenly, throwing Mr. Revoy from his seat, and the waggon pasesd over his legs. He admitted that "No Thoroughfare" signs had been placed on the streets at both ends of the section that had been excavated and where Mr. Revoy's mishap occurred.

City Solicitor Widdifield advised that he didn't consider the city liable for damages in this case.

Mr. Revoy said he was laid up eight weeks, and accordingly was charging the city at the rate of $25.00 a week for the time he lost. A bill for $9.00, covering medical attendance by Dr. Amys, was presented with Mr. Revoy's claim.

"This report should have gone through the last meeting of the Council instead of being sent back," said Ald. McIntyre, who also remarked that Ald. Holloway, who seconded Ald.Gainey's motion in Council, was a member of the committee, and should have been present when Mr. Revoy's claim was being reconsidered.

Claims Numerous.

Mr. Widdifield remarked that there seemed to have been more demands for damages during the last six months than in the preceding three years. No action was taken on the appeal from Joseph Roncco for assistance in connection with the injury to his daughter Josephine in a fall last winter, and also in the case of James Montgomery, of Belleville, who threatened suit for alleged false arrest by the local police on 18th April. A detailed statement from Chief Newhall related that Montgomery was seen at an early hour near the corner of Charlotte and Rubidge Streets, acting in a manner that aroused the suspicions of Detective Cookman. He walked further down Rubidge Street and halted in the shadows, and when hailed by the Detective, began to walk quickly away. At the Police Station, Chief Newhall wrote, Montgomery refused to give satisfactory information about himself, and was accordingly held in custody for two days until his relatives were communicated with.

Ald. Turner presided last night—with Aldermen Phelan, Stocker, and McIntyre and Mayor Taylor present.

RADIO IN THE SUMMER CAMP

BY PAUL F. GODLEY

America's Foremost Radio Authority

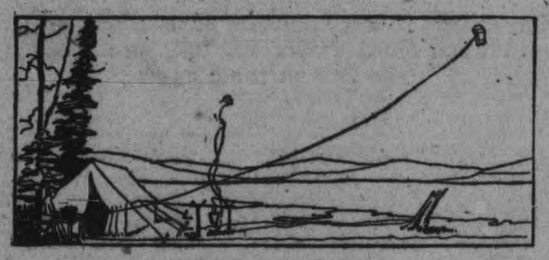
Many campers this summer will take radio outfits as part of their camp equipment. They will be wise in so doing for I can imagine no place where a radio will be more desired, particularly during the occasional inclement weather which is bound to come during a vacation period.

During these spells, nature's electrica interference may sometimes prevent the satisfactory reception of signals. But the interference will only be temporary. During the rest of the time the camper will be able to get weather forecasts, time signals, baseball scores and other broad casted material.

Due to the nature of the terrain the erection of the antenna frequently offers serious difficulties, particularly if it is necessary to receive the radio reports from a great distance

Kite Aerial.

If trees of fair height are available, they may serve as antenna supports. But if they are not, kites may be used for holding the antenna wire aloft



RADIO OUTFIT IN CAMP.

At the seashore on the lakes or in the mountains, there is seldom a time when a breeze of some kind is not blowing, and there is a kite for ever breeze. I have known many amateurs who have found no end of pleasure in selecting two or three kites each of different size. These are of the "tailless" variety, sometimes known as "eddy" kites. I have purchased them in any number of toy shops or stationery stores at prices ranging from five to a quarter each.

A light breeze calls for a kite "string" consisting of No. 28 bare copper wire, while th heaviest wind may call for something considerably stronger, for example, No. 18 bare copper wire. A little experiment with the breeze, the kite (or kites, for these may be flown very handily in tandem) and the wire, will soon enable one to run up an antenna with a surprising minimum of delay.

Antennae such as these have been kept aloft for periods of several days, although the best practice is to reel in the 200 or more feet of wire as soon as it has served its purpose.

Good Reception.

Antennae supported by kites have been very successfully for the reception of signals from European high-power and semi-high power stations. Under these circumstances as much as 1000 or more feet of wire may be fed up into the sky. With an antenna of such excellent characteristics as to height, surprisingly trong signals may be reecived with even the simpler types of vacuum tube receivers.

Ground connection may be made by stretching a wire 300 feet long over the surface of the earth in a direction away from the station which it is desired to receive.

FRINGE.

The use of fringe grows with the summer. Many frocks have side panels composed entirely of heavy strands of silk. Fringed parasols and fringed gloves are also smart.

ARTILLERY ROARS

While this attack was in progress starting with the thunder of cannon ading at dawn insurgent bands seized hotels, clubs and houses in Rutland Square and the civil war spread to this and other centres. Soon all Dublin was involved in the battle.

Dublin awoke to the roar of artillery fire, after expiraton of an ultim atum from Michael Collins to the rebels calling upon them to evacuate in compliance with British demands A free state attack was the launched against the four courts.

The rebels tore up paving blacks and built barricades behind which they repulsed wave after wave of attacked by Free State troops.

An unconfirmed report spread that the insurgent Commander O'Conner had been wounded. Casualties at this point were said to be heavy on both sides. Fourteen Free Staters were taken to the hospitals where two died of wounds. The rebel casualties could not be estimated. Inhabitants of the four Courts quarter of Dublin fled from the district and were given aid in other parts of Irish Capital.

Free state troops pushed their attack against the rebel stronghold with machine guns 18 pounders, bombs and hand grenades, snipers from roofs of the four Courts replied to this fire.

Free state reinforcements, 800 strong, were rushed in commandeered motor cars from Mullingar.

FOWLER HALL ON FIRE

DUBLIN, June 28. — (United Press).—Fire broke out in Fowler Hall this afternoon. Despite the fire the rebels continued a fierce defense of the building against Free State troops assaults.

CAN. SENATE IS ROUNDLY SCORED IN THE COMMONS

Accused of Holding Up Legislation and Delaying Ending of Session For Seven Hours.

FIRST SESSION 14TH PARLIAMENT ENDS.

OTTAWA, June 28.— (Canadian Press.)—At 1.15 o'clock this morning the first session of Canada's fourteenth Parliament came to an end, with the reading of an address from the throne by Sir Louis Davies, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada and Deputy Governor-General, to the members of the House of Commons and of the Senate, assembled in the latter chamber. Prorogation did not come before the Senate was roundly scored in the House of Commons for its action in holding up the latter's legislation and incidentallly causing a delay of seven hours in terminating the session. Denunciation came from Lucien Cannon (Liberal), Dorchester, in counection with the discussion of two measures on which conferences were held last night between represenatives of the two chambers. He declared it was outrageous that an appointative party should hold up an active body in Canada's Parliament, and added that the spectacle of the last two or three days provided additional and forcible argument in favor of immediate and drastic reform of the Upper House.

Progressives Influential.

OTTAWA, June 28.— (Canadian Press.) — The first session of the fourteenth Parliament of Canada, which closed early this morning, was marked by the appearance of Progressives as an influential party and the emergency of a fourth or labor group. The Progressives exercised a controlling influence in many situations during the session, while two Labor members were active in setting forth their point of view on most of the issues that arose. Faith that the Progressives are predominantly western in membership, coupled with other circumstances in the national situation, combined to give western questions unusual prominence. The demand for a Wheat Board was the first big western issue to make itself felt, and while western members did not get all they asked for, they did get a chance to try out their remedy within the limits of the constitution. The railway rate question, wrapped up as it was with the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, gave the session a critical wind-up and on this issue there was a compromise which gave the west lower rates on its basic industry while referring other rate reductions to the Railway Commission.

Only on one day of the year are women permitted to enter the Chapel of St. John the Baptist, which is the glory of the Cathedral of San Lorenza in Genoa.

Developments Are Looked For In Nation-wide Coal Strike

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 28.— (Canadian Press.)—Upon receipt of a telegram from John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers, who conferred with President Harding at Washington yesterday, the general scale committee of the anthracite workers abandoned all plans for immediately calling an absolute strike and the contemplated withdrawal of the pumpmen from the mines.

The committee adjourned indefinitely, leaving the anthracite situation as it was before it convened Monday morning, when it received the practically unanimous permission by referendum vote of the 150,000 idle miners to make the prevailing suspension an absolute strike. Labor officials and members of the committee expresed great elation on the tone of Mr. Lewis' message, although they declined to make it public.

"It appears that immediate developments in both the bituminous and anthracite industries may be looked for immediately as a result of the conference with the President and Government officials," said Thomas Kennedy, President of the General Scale Committee and of District No. 7 at Hazelton.

The miners' contemplated drive for funds will go on as planned Monday, Mr. Kennedy said. As proof that the union is not abandoning steps for preparedness in the event of an ultimate strike, he announced a meeting to be held at Hazelton Thursday, when committees and campaigners will invade a dozen of the larger cities of the East with an appeal for public financial subscription to the "war chest" of the United Mine Workers of America.

CROP CONDITIONS GOOD IN ALBERTA

Proper Methods Have Been Taken to Combat the Grasshoppers and Cut Worms.

CALGARY, Junee 28.—(Canadian Press).— After covering six hundred miles in the southern portion of Alberta, J. M. Cameron, general superintendent of the Alberta division of the Canadian Pacific railway declares that crop conditions there, generally speaking are very satisfactory.

Mr. Cameron stated that farmers had been taught an object lesson by grasshoppers. Where these insects had been active had been on stubble in crops. From the amount of summer following that was now going on farmers had realized that stubbling in was a poor gamble and left a breeding place for the hoppers. The hoppers, he said, were now practically under control in the south. Cut worms had done little or no damage on account of the frequent showers.

"I have been much pleased with my visit", said Mr. Cameron. "There is now quite an optimistic feeling among farmers and business men in the south country.

LINDSAY MAN THREATENED WIFE.

Remanded For a Week to Secure Witnesses From Peterborough.

LINDSAY, June 28.—After a week's remand the man who is alleged to have threatened his wife's life has been again remanded by Magistrate Bradford here for another week.

The case will be resumed on Tuesday July 4th. Accused's Counsel Mr. Weldon was of the opinion that the charge was an indictable one and had planned to face the judge but Crown Attorney Anderson pointed out that it was one for summary trial. Thereupon Mr. Weldon applied for and secured a week's remand in order to secure witnesses from Peterboro and other points.

OFFERS SERVICES AS A STRIKE MEDIATOR.

PITTSBUGH, Pa., June 28. (Canadian Press.) — Dr. Clifford B. Connelly, Commissioner of Labor and Industry, yesterday sent a letter to the leaders of Distri Numbers Two and Five, United Mine Owners, and to the heads of all bituminous coal operators' associations, offering the services of the Division of Mediation to settle the bituminous coal strike and calling a meeting of union leaders and operators for Pittsburg. July 6th.

ALIENIST ASSERTS THAT EX-PRIEST IS DEGENERATE MAN

Auditors Also Make Report and Find Over $9,000 of Half-Brother's Money is Missing.

POOR RECORDS.

MONTREAL, June 28—(Canadian Press)—"I arrived at the conclusion that we had to deal with a degenerate, a debilitous degenerate, characterized by a lack of judgment and a diminution of the moral sense."

The above was the summing up yesterday afternoon of the conclusions of Dr. A. Tetrault, alienist, who acted in collaboration with Dr. G. De Bellefuille in examination of Rev. Father Adelard Delorme whose case is being heard in the Court of King's Bench here as to his mental ability to stand trial on charge of having murdered his half brother, Raoul Delorme.

The evidence of Dr. Tetrault was completed in record time before the court and amounted to a categoric corroboration of Dr. De Belle feuiles 'arguments, observations and conclusions on the case.

Willie Marion, one of the Government auditors who probed the books of the Delorme estate, gave evidence that there were no books to examine and the audit was completed from Adelard Delorme's note books, check stubs and receipts the record being very badly kept. There was a credit balance in Raol's favor of $9,577.20, but this amount the auditors had not been able to trace anywhere. The work of auditing was started on January 31, and was not completed until June 15.

Total expenditures during five and a half years by the accused were $56,387.47, while receipts were only $43,474.47, which made them $12,913.07 in excess of his income. The auditors explained this difference by the supposition that Delorme had spent the $9,577 reserve belonging to Raoul.

Under cross-examination by counsel for the defense the witness admitted that receipts might have be mislaid during the five and a half year period covered, and he further stated that it was not certain that Adelard Delorme had taken some $9,000 from his brother's reserve.

Asked how he would qualify the manner in which the estate had been administered and whether he would agree with what the prisoner had said, that he was needed at home to administer the estate because of his superior education and his ability to handle business affairs witness replied:

"It wouldn't be the truth."

The auditor's report was not entered as an exhibit and the court adjourned until 10.30 o'clock this morning.

Fierce Battle Raging in Dublin May Mark Outbreak of Civil War

British Troops in Dublin Will Aid Collins in His Work If Needed — Confusion Reigns in London.

A RAIN OF STEEL.

(United Press.)

LONDON, June 28.—The greatest confusion reigned in London to-day over the civil war in Ireland.

All telephone and telegraph wires were down between Dublin and London.

This gave rise to wild rumours as to the extent of the fighting. One report said that the wires were disconnected following the setting up of a rigid censorship.

According to word received by The Evening Standard from Dublin, troops of the Free State have captured Fowler Hall, one of the strongholds of the insurgents.

The British Government is elated over the stand taken by Michael Collins against the insurgents in Dublin, it was authoritatively stated.

The several thousand British troops still in Dublin will aid Collins in his war on the rebels if they are needed.

It is believed, however, that Collins will be able to handle the situation without assistance.

Digging Trenches.

(By George Macdonald)

DUBLIN, June 28.—A fierce battle started at dawn when the Free State troops, on orders from Mich. Collins, stormed the four courts, the stronghold of the insurgents.

Many casualties were reported. ....

Free State troops brought trench mortars and machine guns into play against the insurgents, hurling a rain of steel upon them.

The insurgents spent most of the night frantically digging trenches around the four courts.

It was believed Collins issued an ultimatum to the insurgents that they would be rushed by his troops if they did not evacuate.

As the insurgents were entrenching themselves near the roadways, the Free State forces mounted their guns in the nearby buildings.

The number of troops attacking the four courts is variously estimated —some reports placing it as low as five hundred.

Trench mortars of the Free State troops completely demolished the copper dome of Four Courts, the palatial structure chosen by the insurgents as their headquarters.

Attacked Insurgents.

Free State troops also assaulted the insurgents who were garrisoned in Fowler Memorial Hall. The machine guns were turned on the hall, and the insurgents returned the fire.

All the ambulances in Dublin rushed to and from Four Courts and Fowler Hall.

A corps of police surrounded both buildings during the attacks to keep back the huge crowds of civilians who emptied their homes to view the battle.

The insurgents were still in possession of Four Courts at 1 p.m.

There were few casualties officially reported.

The action of Collins in cleaning up Dublin came following the notice served on the head of the Provisional Irish Government by Premier Lloyd-George that British troops troops would occupy Ireland if the insurgents were not curbed.

Collins Calls Meeting.

Collins immediately called a meeting of his Cabinet, and issued an ultimatum that lawlessness in Ireland must cease.

His first step was to arrest Commandant Henderson, who was garrisoned in Four Courts. Henderson was taken without resistance yesterday.

The insurgents then captured Lt.-General O'Connell, Assistant Chief of Staff of the Free State Army, and are now holding him as hostage.

The Provisional Government established a temporary censorship soon after the battle with the insurgents started.

It was reported that many insurgents wer fleeing.

The first known casualty was the death of a woman in a hospital. She died of shock of gunfire.

The Phantom Rebel.

LONDON, June 28. — Michael (Micky) Collins was known as "The Phantom Rebel," and feared and hailed throughout the British Empire up until the time Great Britain created the Irish Free State.

To-day, on instructions of the Government in London, Collins mobilised his troops, and waged battle on the insurgents who refused to accept the Free State as the Government of Ireland.

The "Phantom Rebel" now has the admiration of the entire Empire—and the hatred of some of the men with whom he formerly fought side by side against the British.

IGNORE DEMAND FOR SURRENDER

Official Government Troops Command Four Courts Building on Four Sides.

DUBLIN, June 28.—(Canadian Press.) — The Irish Provisional Government took forceful action to-day against the insurgents of the Irish Republican army, investing Four Courts Building, where the insurgents were entrenched and opening a hot attack when the demand for surrender was ignored. The fighting, which opened shortly after 4 a.m., was still in progress late this forenoon. The crack of rifle fire and rattle of machine guns resounding over Dublin above the noise of the cit's traffic which was being carried on as usual.

Fowler Hall, on Parnelll Square, occupied by the irregulars, also was attacked by the Irish Government troops. Official troops command FoFur Cuorts Building from all sides, but the nature of the structure made the assault difficult, and as the buildings contain irrepdacable legal documents, there was no dispcsition to fire the structure as a means of outsting the insurgents.

The number of casualties on either side was not known definitely, but fourteen had been reported up to mid-forenoon. Three irregulars were carried out of Four Courts Building. They were believed to be badly wounded, and it was rumoured that two others of the irregulars had been killed.

PREMIER RECEIVED SILVER GIFT FROM LIBERAL MEMBERS

Clock and Inscribed Vase Are Presented "To Our Chief" By Supporters.

BY W. S. FIELDING.

OTTAWA, June 28.— (Canadian Press.) — Liberal members of the House last night had a pleasant surprise for the Prime Minister. Gathering shortly before the house opened for its final sitting of the session, they presented the Prime Minister with a clock and silver vase, the latter filled with roses, in recognition of his leadership of the party. The vase is inscribed "To Our Chief—From Liberal Members of the House of Commons, June 27, 1922." Hon. W. S. Fielding made the presentation in the name of his fellow-Liberals. It was, Mr. Fielding observed, a great thing to be able to lead a party with a strong majority. But it was a much more difficult thing to do, as Mr. King had done, lead a party successfully which did not have an actual majority in the House.

The prime minister, evidently much surprised at the presentation, warmly thanked his followers for their kindness and appreciation.

WOMAN USED CHILD TO HIDE A REVOLVER.

BELFAST, June 28.—(Canadian Press.)—When the police unexpectedly entered the home of Mary Brennan in the Carrick Hill district of Belfast yesterday, she snatched up her baby and began fondling. Upon shifting the child to her other arm the police saw that the woman was wearing a holster containing a revolver.

Seeing that the pistol had been discovered, Mrs. Brennan attempted to escape but was caught.

These statements were given in the testimony by the constable at her trial. She was remanded. She stated that her husband was in the United States.

BROKERAGE HOUSE FAILS IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 28.—(Canadian Press.)—E. M. Fuller, one of the largest brokerage houses on the New York Consolidated Stock Exchange, failed yesterday. Counsel for the company, which vacated its Broad street offices over night and placed all its books with a receiver, said the suspension was "due to the tremendous run on Consolidated Exchange houses since the first of the year."

The three petitioning creditors in the bankruptcy action estimated liabilities at $500,000 against assets of $250,000.

Battle Opened at Dawn This Morning—Casualties Will Be Heavy—Armored Cars, Trench Mortars and Machine Guns Used.

DUBLIN IS ISOLATED.

DUBLIN, June 28 (Canadian Press). — A fierce battle has been raging since dawn between the Reguiar Irish Republican Army troops and Irregulars under Rory O'Connor for the possession of Four Courts, recently seized by the latter.

It is believed the casualties will be large.

Armoured cars, trench mortars and machine guns are being used.

At 8.30 o'cloc kthe battle was still continuing.

A copper dome on the Four Courts had been blown in.

Ambulances wer dashing about in all directions, and the scene was one of indescribable confusion.

The garrisons of Four Courts and former Fowler Memorial Hall were replying vigorously to the attackers' fire and refusing all demands to surrender.

A Dublin despatch says that after some hours of fighting, many of the insurgent Irish troops under Rory O'Connor are retreating.

The correspondent, in a later despatch say he understands the insurgent garrison in Fowler Memorial Hall has capitulated to the Provisional Government forces.

Dublin this morning was isolated from Belfast, so far as telephone communicetion was concerned, Dundalk being the nearest place possible to reach by telephone.

It is understood that the Provisional Government in Dublin has occupied the telephone exchange, replacing the girl operators with men.

Telegraphic communication with the southern capital, however, is proceeding as usual.

The premises in North Great George Street, occupied by the Communist Party, and used as headquarters, was fortified after the Government attack on Four Courts began, and the Government troops were fired upon from the newly fortified buildings.

LORD BYNG GUEST OF MOOSE JAW CITIZENS.

MOOSEJAW, Sask., June 28.— (Canadian Press)—Lord Byng of Vimy and Lady Byng and suite were guests yesterday of the citizens of Moosejaw at an informal reception after which their excellencies viewed a number of school children. At noon Lady Byng attended a luncheon given in her honor by the local council of women, while the goveror general was the guest and speaker at the Canadian Club luncheon.

In the afternoon the visitors inspected the local flour mills and a drive through the district completed their visit here. To-day the vice regal party will visit Swift Current and Maple Creek.

RAILWAY STRIKE MAY BE CALLED

Will Go Into Effect July 1 Unless Railroads Stay Proposed Wage Cut.

CHICAGO, June 28.—(Canadian Press.)—A strike of the 400,000 railway shopmen of the country will be called for July 1, unless the railroads agree to stay the $60,000,000 wage cut due the shop workers on that date and to restore certain working conditions formerly in effect, it was made known last night through a telegram from B. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts, to the Association of Railway Executives.

Decision to call a strike came late yesterday after a lengthy discussion by the executive committee of the six shop crafts unions, based on the strike vote of the men thus far tabulated.

Should the rail heads arrange for an immediate conference, agreeing meanwhile to continue present wages, restore working rules modified by the Railroad Labor Board and discontinue farming out railroad work, however, a walkout can be halted, the telegram said. Otherwise "a sanction of withdrawal from employment on July 1, 1922, as voted by the employes, will be unavoidable."

Provisional Irish Government Issues Statement Condemning the Recent Outrages.

THE BOYCOT..

DUBLIN, June 28. (Canadian Press.) — The Publicity Department of the Provisional Government last night issued the following statement:

"Since the close of the general elections, at which the will of the people of Ireland was ascertained, further grave ac against the security, peace and property have been committed in Dublin and elsewhere in Ireland by persons pretending to act with authority.

It is the duty of the Government to which the people have entrusted their defence and the conduct of their affairs to protect and secure all law-respecting citizens without distinction, and that duty the government will resolutely perform.

"Yesterday one of the principal garages in the metropolis was raided and plundered under the pretext of a Belfast boycott. No such boycott has any legal existence, and if it had it could not authorize or condone the action of irresponsible persons seizing private property. Later in the evening Leut.-General O'Connor, Assistant Chief of Staff, was seized by some persons responsible for plundering the garage and still is in their hands. Outrages such as these against the nation, and the government must cease immediately and forever.

"For some months past all classof business in Ireland have suffered severely through a feeling of insecurity engendered by reckless and wicked acts which have tarnished Ireland's reputation abroad. As one disastrous consequence unemployment and distress are prevalent in the country at a time when but for such acts Ireland would have prosperity. The government is determined that the country shall no longer be held up from the pursuit of its normal life and the reestablishment of its free national institutions.

"I call therefore upon the citizens to cooperate actively with it in the measures it is taking to ensure public safety and to secure Ireland for the Irish people."

PETERBOROUGH'S LOSS.

Peterborough loses a good citizen, Trinity Church a beloved pastor, and many people of this city a warm friend, in the departure of Rev. F. E. Malott, who leaves this week for Belleville to commence his duties as pastor of the Bridge Street Methodist Church. Of his work in his own church it is not necessary to speak in these columns, but of his services to the citizens of Peterborough generally, it is but doing simple justice to say that Rev. Mr. Malott has done much to make the city of which he has been a resident for some years a better place in which to live. In his capacity as the president of the Children's Aid Society he has not only shown a warm-hearted interest in the unfortunate little folks taken under the wing of the Society, but he has also revealed business ability and energy in acting as the executive head of the organisation. He has keenly interested himself in social service work, and has frequently urged the necessity of Peterborough having a trained social service worker steadily employed in this splendid work. A juvenile Police Court is another suggestion that Mr. Malott has brought forward during his residence here, and he has been a friend of every movement that has as its aim the betterment of the community. It is unfortunate that the regulations of his Church make it necessary for Mr. Malott to leave Peterborough. Men of his type are an asset to any city, and those who have known Mr. Malott and have realised the value of his services are inclined to envy Belleville at having been fortunate enough to secure him as a citizen.

CATCHING "SPEEDERS."

Complaints as to motorists being driven to break the speed limit by officers who annoy them into fast driving should be investigated. There is plenty of speeding without such methods, and it should be easy to secure convictions in the case of real offenders against the regulations without attempting to lure drivers into exceeding the limit. The charge as made by North Monaghan and Smith farmers that the constables have been adopting the system of following a car in a machine of their own, running up along side and then falling back, meanwhile sounding their klaxon until the driver of the other car puts on speed to get rid of the nuisance, whereupon he finds that he has been goaded into breaking the law and a fine follows. Similar complaints have been made by visiting motorists who have been caught, and it is to be hoped that if there is any truth in these allegations that the attention of the proper authorities will be called to the matter. The Examiner is thoroughly in sympathy with an honest effort to eliminate the reckless speeders who make the traffic conditions a menace to everybody on the highways, but cannot countenance the use of the methods complained of. The average driver, no matter how anxious he is to observe the law, would put on speed under similar conditions, and it is poor business on the part of officials entrusted with the administration of the law to deliberately set out to goad somebody into violating the regulations. The reckless drivers are plentiful enough to keep the authorities busy; their attention should be, if it has not been, confined to them.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

In the House of Commons the other day, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen inquired as to what plans had been made by the Government to deal with the unemployment situation next winter, and was informed by the Minister of Labour that the Government intended to take the matter under serious consideration immediately. A similar inquiry might be directed to the local City Council, and their answer should be, if they realise their responsibility practically the same as that given by the Hon. Mr. Murdock. No one wants to borrow trouble, but it is fairly evident that next winter will find a considerable amount of unemployment. What does the Council propose to do about it? That is a fair question. It has been understood that the doles system has been abandoned, and the Council deserves credit for coming to that decision. But what plan will take its place? To wait until the situation is at its worst before attempting to solve the problem would be to aggravate the seriousness of the conditions, and it would seem the height of wisdom for the city fathers to almost at once set themselves the task of endeavouring to find a way out of a situation that is bound to be perplexing and difficult. There is much more chance of success if the issue is faced squarely now than there would be to wait until cold weather is upon us, outdoor work at a standstill, and a large number of the city's breadwinners without funds and without employment. The best plan is, of course, to provide work. How that can be most economically and effectively done is a question with which the aldermen should lose no time in attempting to answer. Now is the time for action—not next winter, when an emergency plan might have to be adopted that would not prove satisfactory to anybody.

A SCRAP OF PAPER.

A scrap of paper that at a single instant showed the unbridgeable distance between the British and the German code of ethics in 1914 and made the clash of arms inevitable. It was a scrap of paper that was the prelude of the poison gas, the Lusitania, and the Prussian infamies by land and sea. For a scrap of paper men went forth in battalions to fight; for a scrap of paper they died, says The Montreal Star.

During the war the scrap of paper grew to be analogous with everything that was unsportsmanlike. To treat a solemn pledge as a scrap of paper was not "playing the game," and who can measure the power of that phrase "playing the game" in the morale of the Allied armies?

Once again a scrap of paper has bobbed up, and if the analogy between the Great War and the Canadian golf championship seems strained it may be excused, because both scraps of paper brought out the highest qualities of sportsmanship, both teach the same lesson.

At Hamilton last Saturday at a most critical period of the contest to decide who should be the Canadian amateur golf champion for the next twelve months a scrap of paper, the sport of a freshening breeze, blew into a bunker and into fame. The champion, Mr. Fraser, who has known the rules of golf from his cradle days, made a technical error in dealing with this "scrap of paper" and paid the penalty which the rigor of the game demands. Games, like war, do not allow their followers to forget or to neglect. It was then that Mr. Scott, the champion's doughty antagonist, showed what true sportmanship is. He made no appeal for the penalty and endeavored, as far as the rules allowed him, to abrogate the penal clause. "Let us play it out," he said and spoke worthily as a good sportsman and a fair fighter will speak in golf or war. There were observant spectators with a sound knowledge of the game who will go still further and declare that he deliberately counteracted the advantage which a technicality had given him by playing the next critical shot with a studied indifference which cost him the victory.

That lesson was not taught in the textbooks of German kultur. It was the product of a million little acts of sacrifice on a million different playing fields within the Empire. It was carrying on the tradition of "playing the game," which is the proud boast of British sportsmen. It was the antithesis of the German "scrap of paper."

ARE RETAILERS TOO NUMEROUS?

William G. Shepherd raises the question in Collier's as to whether or not there are too many retailers for the volume of available business. If there are, it is obvious that living costs are affected by such a situation. Mr. Shepherd makes out at least a prima facie case. He shows that in the United States there are 1,088,402 retail stores, with more than 3,000,000 men and women behind the counters. This would mean one store for every 106 of the total population. Just what may be the corresponding facts for Canada cannot be ascertained until the census figures for 1921 are made up; but it is probable a pretty close parallel exists.

The retail stores across the line are distributed among the following classes:—Automobile supplies, 46,583; garages, 36,948; shoes, 141,867; tobacco, 38,081; candy, 55,633; department stores, 2,134; drugs, 48,920; dry goods, 35,207; electrical, 16,703; furniture, 42,082; general, 148,885; groceries and delicatessen, 335,212; hardware, 37,032; jewelry, 25,961; men's furnishings, 40,399; sporting goods, 36,755. The first thing to strike the eye in such a list is the number of stores that deal wholly in commodities which might be classified as luxuries. They make up a total of 239,961 on the superficial figures, while probably a strict interpretation of "necessaries" would double that figure.

In the face of data of this nature, it is quite easy to understand Mr. Shepherd's deductions. Retailers, he argues, are not making money, for the sufficient reason that there are too many of them and the cost of doing business is too high. Rent and maintenance consume a very considerable percentage of sales, and the final margin of profit is inadequate. With competition so keen, and the struggle for trade so acute, it should not be surprising that failures are numerous and successes few in number. The obvious remedy would be to reduce the number of competitors; but that is impracticable as a matter of agreement. Numbers can only be cut by the stern pressure of economic laws.

In this development of retail business we see the tendency to elaborate the circumstances of life. We are neither a calculating nor a philosophical people; for it cannot be doubted that as we multiply conveniences, and smother the disposition to sacrifice, we add to the cost of living. One of the most pressing problems of our time is the proportion of all prices which consumers pay for distribution, and it will not be solved until some form of organization and co-operation is set up among the sufferers. While we insist on having everything delivered at our door we are widening the separation between producer and consumer, with the inevitable result that at both ends of the chain of distribution there is dissatisfaction. This will probably continue until a revolution in methods of business takes places.

If there are too many people bidding for our daily orders—and the Federal Trade Commission says there are—each with heavy and unavoidable charges attaching to his business, we must be prepared to pay for such a wasteful system. It was assumed that after the war reforms would be general and radical; but we have fallen back into the old ways simply because it involved effort and some inconvenience to get into new ways. We know that the old ways are costly, and indefensible as well; but we apparently lack the courage and resourcefulness to help ourselves. We prefer to go on paying the bills.—Ottawa Journal.

RAIL MANAGERS IGNORE THREAT

CHICAGO, June 28.— (Canadian Press.)—Ultimatum by B. M. Jewell, head of the Railway Employes' Department of the American Federation of Labor, to T. Dewett Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, that forty-four thousand shop men of the nation's railroad would go on strike unless decisions of Railroad Labor Board were ignored and present wages maintained to-day was met with silence by railroad managers. There was little indication that the railroads would seriously consider Jewell's demands to hold back a sixty million dollar wage cut and restore abolished rules governing working conditions in shops. Rail union officials continued thier conference today on plan of threatened walk out next month as they hastened towards a completion of canvass of the strike vote which is said to have been overwhelmingly in favor of suspension in protest against wage cuts rules laid down under edicts from the Labor Board.

DUFFUS SALES BREAK RECORD

Duffus Motor Sales break all records in Ford car sales, and attribute it largely to judicious advertising.

The above is the statement made to-day to The Examiner man by Mr. M. J. Duffus, sales manager for Duffus Motor Sales.

We have sold 207 new Ford machines since January 1st this year, in other words over 67 per cent. of our contract with the Ford Motor Co., which is 300 cars annually. You see we have less than 100 cars to sell in the next six months to come.

Why do you mention advertising and why the term judicious advertising? Because we feel confident that our advertising has brought good results, and by judicious we mean the right kind and the right amount at the right time or season of the year, having regard to the kind of goods, the demand for same and the possibilities of our arguments and statements being recognized and results thereby attained.

Your Mr. Menzies has a real first-hand knowledge of the term judicious in advertising matters, and he is a mighty good barometer in this regard.

Has all your departments been attaining as satisfactory results as your sales?—Yes, we have been hitting on all "eight," was the emphatic reply.

Paint Shop.

When we opened it up two years ago we did some advertising and it has been going every day since; in fact the truth is, we have turned away more work than we have done. Of course, our shop is thoroughly fire-proof, dust proof and very easily heated to summer heat during the winter months.

Repair Shop.

And your repair shop?—Yes, it too has never lost an hour. We now have all the latest repair stands and machines for turning Ford repair jobs out in the quickest and most economical and satisfactory manner and guarantee all our work. No more towing cars around the streets to get the motor started and run in after being newly overhauled. That kind of thing is mighty hard on a customer's tires and every other part of his machine.

We are now installing a new machine with a 15 H.P. motor; and all newly overhauled motors will be run in, first with this big motor and then by their own power, and every customer's motor will be thoroughly run in and tested before being replaced in the chassis. If any looseness or slight knock is percentible it can be taken care of before being put back in the chassis, thus eliminating the expense of putting the motor in and out twice. The truth is, we now have all the necessary tools and equipment for quick and satisfactory work.

Do you handle and overhaul and look after batteries?—Yes, we have the "Exide" battery; incidentally, these are made by the largest manufacturers of batteries in the world. We have the "Exide" service station and we store, re-charge, re-build and overhaul batteries of every make. We also overhaul generators, and only employ expert mechanics and guarantee all jobs turned out.

Car Storage.

Do you store and wash cars?—Why, yes, we have 25,000 sq. ft. of fire-proof floor space and a real first-class washing station. We use warm water and linseed oil soap, and we are kept busy all the time.

You handle more than one kind of gas, don't you?—Yes, we handle Premier and White Rose in two separate 5-gallon street pumpers, each with 1,000 gallons storage capacity. We also sell all kinds of oil. Our oil and gas is a separate department of our business, with special men in charge, and our facilities afford the best of service and no waiting.

In addition we have a most wonderful free air service for "everybody." We have a big compressor operated by a separate motor. We have three air lines and always lots of air.

How about your accessories, tires, etc.?—We have all these too under a separate department. We handle all kinds and sizes of "first-class tires." Incidentally we are selling tires at much reduced prices now. We always recommend our customers buying only the very best tires and tubes. However, we always carry some of the others in stock for those who want them. For instance, we have 30 x 3½ tires at $9.75 and tubes at $1.65.

Heavy Stock of Parts.

As for accessories, we always carry a very heavy stock and buy them right, so as to sell them cheap, both wholesale and retail.

Yes, and by the way, we sell "Genuine Ford Parts" and "Genuine" only, because by using Genuine Ford Parts, made by the Ford Motor Co., Ford car owners are sure to get the best of service and the maximum of safety and economy, and we carry at all times a large stock of all parts sufficient so that we are never out of any parts, and therefore there is no waiting or disappointments.

Do you handle any other make of cars?—No, we handle the Ford car exclusively, except in used cars, of which we handle all makes, and, talking about advertising—say, our Used Car Exchange and Sales went beyond our expectations. We sold 108 used cars since January 1st this year.

Of course, we guarantee all our used cars as advertised. Moreover, they are all "stock" numbered in plain figures and the price always appears in the paper and a prospective buyer knows just what will suit him and the price before he comes in. There can be no boosting of prices, and a fifteen-year-old boy can buy just as cheap from us as the most expert buyer. All he needs to do is bring the list from your newspaper, which always contains the stock number and price. "Well, it's no wonder your used car department is so successful," the Examiner man replied.

But how about the Tractor business? Beyond our expectations, was the reply. We have sold a lot of Fordsons and the power farming machines which go with them. Like the Ford car, sir, the Fordson tractor is the easiest to buy, by far the most economical to operate, the simplest and the most satisfactory. We expect to sell a bunch of them from now on. They will rid this country of weeds and quack grass and will transform farming.

Be Sure You Put Them Out

CARELESSNESS with matches, cigarette butts, cigar ends, pipe ashes, camp fires, fly smudges, railway locomotives, slash-burning operations—human carelessness of some kind accounts for 97% of the forest fires which every year add further devastation to the northern areas of this province.

DON'T

DON'T take any chances with fire in Ontario's forests.
DON'T throw away cigarette or cigar butts, pipe "heels" or burnt matches until you are dead sure they are out.
DON'T neglect to drown out your fire with lots of water.
DON'T build your camp fire against a rotten log or stump; nor on windy points; nor near moss patches; nor at the base of a tree.
Build it in a former fire place, or on a flat rock, or on a spot cleared down to the true soil below, or by the edge of the water.
DON'T forget that the upper layer of ground in the forest consists of partially rotted wood which will burn.

The rangers on the Ombabika to Fort Hope canoe route in the far north on July 4th found an area 10 miles long by 4 miles wide which had been swept by fire since their previous trip. A camp fire left on a portage was the cause.

A prospector on the Montreal River started a fire on July 7th which burned over 4,800 acres in Baden Township, destroying 1,000,000 feet of pine and 9,000 cords of pulpwood, and which required attention for a month.

A party of fishermen camped on Porcupine Lake, Burton Township, Parry Sound, were responsible for a fire on July 10th, which burned over 25,000 acres and 2,000,000 feet of timber.

Indians smoking moose meat started a fire on June 26th, which ran through 1,700 acres of young jack pine trees.

Careless trappers on May 7th caused a fire in Head Township, which burned over 2,280 acres, half of it young white pine.

The best way to fight forest fires is to prevent them.

THE DAY'S DOINSG AS RECORDED BY THE EXAMINER'S STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS

U. F. O. CLUBS OF OMEMEE AND DISTRICT HAD PICNIC

Radials and Provincial Highways Among the Subjects Discussed — A Good Programme.

OMEMEE, June 28.—The annual picnic under the auspices of the U. F.O. Club of this district was held in Magee's grove on Friday afternoon. The day was a pleasant one for the occasion, but the crowd was much smaller in the afternoon than in previous year owing to the farmers being so busy at this season. Early in the evening carloads of people from all directions began coming for the evening's programme.

Mr. L. Moncrief, President of the Association, acted as chairman and to open the programme for the afternoon introduced Mr. Gainsby of Orono, who delighted the gathering with a solo, entitled, "Only a Laboring Man," followed by an encore, "I've Got a Sweet Tooth Bothering Me." The chairman's address was very brief and then the first speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Bruce McNevin, of Reaboro, was called upon and gave a brief addhess. Mr. Gainsby sang another solo, "Mother of Pearls.'

Mr. Denyes, M.L.A., of Hastings, was the next speaker. He commended the Farmers' government, for though they had passed through an unusually trying time, yet they had a good record for they had came in power when everything was at a peak. He referred to the radial railways and the good roads system, which has already covered 1,800 miles in rural Ontario. Continuing he spoke of the new deaf and dumb institute at Belleville, which had been built and which had caused many complaints on account of the raise in salaries and other advance in prices. As the hour was well advanced before the programme commenced, Mr. Denyes cut his remarks short in order that the other speakers might say something.

Mr. Gainsby then sang another solo entitled, "We all grow old in time," which was heartily encored and responded to.

Provincial Highways.

Mr. Chapman of Oshawa, followed with a very short address. He also spoke of the Provincial highway system, he being in symapthy with the good roads movement, and having motored from Toronto was well pleased with them. In conclusion, Mr. Chapman hoped that the Omemee club would continue to stay together and hold up the banner of good clean government.

Mr. Gainbsy then favored those present with a U.F.O. song which was much appreciated.

Mr. Thurston, of Toronto, was then called upon by the chairman, and spoke in highest terms of the present Farmers' government, and thought it has justified its existence. He briefly spoke of the co-operative movement which is bound to exist. In conclusion he directed his thoughts toward leadership.

Mr. F. G. Sandy, M.P.P. for South Victoria, followed with a few words of thanks to the speakers and appreciation to the large? representation from town who helped make the annual picnic a success.

The programme closed with the National Anthem.

Supper was served by the U.F.W.O in the booth to those not bringing baskets, after which races and other sports were run off.

A platform had been previously arranged for dancing, and needless to ray later in the evening was filled to capacity with lovers of this enjoyment, which proved a very pleasant ending to the day's outing.

GUESTS REGISTERED AT BURLEIGH FALLS.

The guests now registered at the Park Hotel, Burleigh Falls, are:

SAY SCHOOL BOARD OF BRANDON IS AUTOCRATIC.

Unfair in Ignoring Findings of Arbitration Board.

Teachers in the public schools of Toronto are being circularized from the head office of the Canadian Teacher's, Federation in Victoria, B.C., on the "Brandon situation". The Federation endorses the stand of the Brandon teachers, and the circular claims that the Brandon Board acted autocratically and unfairly and ignored the findings of a former board of arbitration. It also deals with the situation generally as relating to teachers, civic bodies and ratepayers.

Miss Jennie Stead, travelling organizer of the Ontario Teachers' Federation on a recent visit to Peterboro. explained the situation at Brandon. The teachers there objected to a cut in their salaries, which automatically displaced them from their positions. Notices were placed in the press by the Teachers' Federation warning teachers seeking positions to steer clear of Brandon, which ultimately resulted in the schools there being left without qualified teachers. Trustees tried to fill in; they were enabled to get inadequate number of former teachers to fill in some of the gaps, and some of the older scholars even assumed responsibility for different classes.

A sympathetic strike among the children was carried on for a certain time, backing up the teachers' demands. The general effect of the whole affair has been a considrable lowering of tone in the Brandon schools. Discipline has suffered to a great extent, and the scholars have lost valuale work in the progress of their education, which it will probably take more than double the length of time to recover from.

Peterboro teachers, although acquainted with the Brandon troubles, have not been circularized recently.

Pearly teeth—combat the film tonight

There is a way to prettier teeth, and millions of people have found it.

It consists in removing the dingy film. You see the results everywhere—on teeth you envy, maybe. And those glistening teeth are often one's premier attraction.

This offers you a ten-day test, to show how whiter, cleaner, safer teeth may also come to you and yours.

Film clouds the teeth

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. It forms the basis of dingy coats.

The tooth brush used in old ways does not end it, so nearly everyone has suffered from that film.

It is the film-coats that discolor, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film.

Now you may combat it

Dental science has long been seeking a daily film combatant. Now two effective methods have been found. Able authorities have proved them by many careful tests. Leading dentists, nearly all the world over, now advise their daily use.

A new-day tooth paste has been perfected, to comply with five modern requirements. These two film-combating methods are embodied in it. This is the dentifrice called Pepsodent which you are urged to test.

Multiplies two forces

Pepsodent brings two other effects which authorities now desire.

The saliva contains two great tooth-protecting forces. One is a starch digestant, to digest starch deposits on teeth. The other is alkali, to neutralize mouth acids, which attack the teeth.

These forces usually need frequent stimulation. Certain foods will stimulate them, but most people fail to eat these regularly.

Pepsodent, with every use, multiplies those tooth-protecting forces in the mouth. It largely increases the starch digestant and the alkalis. Thus night and morning it gives these natural forces a multiplied effect.

That alone marks tremendous progress toward better tooth protection.

Watch the changes

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube, then watch the delightful results. You will see at once that Pepsodent does what has not before been done.

Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. The mouth, left in alkaline condition, also feels refreshing.

You will want these effects continued when you know how much they mean. Go get the free tube and see. Cut out the coupon now.

THE DRAGOONS WERE INSPECTED

The officers of the Prince of Wales' Dragoons were praised yesterday by Brigadier-General Elmsley, C. O. C. M.D. No. 3, at the inspection of the Exhibition Camp.

The efforts of Col. T. J. Johnston, Officer Commanding, were complimented, and the inspecting officer was of the opinion that the camp had been a success in every way.

Accompanied by Col. Hodgens, D.S.O., Brigadier-General Elmsley spent yesterday morning at the camp.

Manoeuvres were held, and the cavalry in their regimental and their squadron drill showed particular smartness. The officers handled the squadrons in a manner that showed overseas experience.

The lines were afterwards inspected, and the horses and saddlery.

The inspection was not completed until noon, and it was evident that the drill had been intensive. The men with the showing made at the Peterborough Camp.

The camp breaks up to-day, and the good fellowship that has prevailed among all ranks will be but a memory.

Throughout, the camp has been orderly, and the discipline has been unsurpassed. Not a man has been up for orders. The conduct of the men has been beyond reproach, and Col. Johnston regards this clean record as an indication of the high standard of the men in the Dragoons.

Contrary to what many people seem to think, Col. Johnston said the Brigadier-General was pleased after nine days under canvas, have accustomed themselves to the work and if only a few days more were allowed, splendid results would be secured. In the short time, however, the drills had been carried out consistently and well, and the enthusiasm of the officers and the men in the ranks was highly gratifying.

CLOSING MEETING EPWORTH LEAGUE AT MILLBROOK.

Will Not Meet Again Until September—Interesting Methodist Missionary Review Service.

MILLBROOK, June 28. — The closing meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist church was held on Monday evening, under the auspices of the Missionary Department, the second vice-president, Mrs. Sayles being in charge.

After the usual opening devotional period, an interesting letter from Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, of Yuin-Shan, China, was read by Mrs Stella Pethick, and a review of the work of the Forward Movement, from the time of its inception, twenty-seven years ago, was given in four sections with suitable music between, by Misses Jean Burnham, Marjorie Sayles, Gladys Tucker, and Kathleen Freelove. During the evening Mrs. Sayles and Miss A. Stewart sang a duet which was much enjoyed.

The League will not meet again until September.

Missionary Review

The missionary review service held at the Methodist Sunday School on Sunday afternoon was well attended and very interesting. For the past year the School has followed the plan of making each organized Bible class, in turn, responsible for a missionary program on review Sunday, the idea being to increase interest and education along this line amongst the scholars; a special offering has also been taken up, and the amount thus raised has been in advance of the sum previously voted out of the treasury annually, for missions.

The "Mizpeh" class, (Mrs. P. Stinson teacher), was in charge last Sunday and Mrs. Stinson gave a very helpful reading carrying out the thought of personal work for missions, at home, after which slides illustrating the life of Alexander Mackay, of Unganda, we : shown Mr. Frank Alcorn giving the sketch explainig the pictures as they were thrown on the screen.

The School was unable to procure the special slides taken by Rev. F. C. Stephenson during his trip to the Orient, as they were in use elsewhere but hopes to secure them for some future date. The quarterly reports proved both interesting and encouraging, showing that the attendance, memorizing of verses, etc., are keeping up well considering the fact that the holiday season has now begun.

Visited Peterboro

Amongst those from Millbrook and vicinity who motored to Peterboro on Sunday to attend the I.O. O.F., Decoration Day Service were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hendeson, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fallis, Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Bentley, Mr and Mrs. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Armstrong, and Mr. and Mrs William McKnight.

Rev Wilks in Charge

Rev. Joseph Wilks had charge of the work on the Millbrook circuit during the absence of Rev. Mr. Tucker at Conference, preaching three excellent sermons on Sunday, June 25th and otherwise fulfilling the necessary duties of the charge in his usual capable and efficient manner. Mr. Wilks celebrated his 76th birthday on Wednesday, June 14th and his numerous friend will unite in wishing him may more years of unimpaired ability to carry on in the work of the ministry which is his greatest pleasure

CHARGES AGAINST SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Teachers Acted Within Their Rights When They Punished Pupils.

WINDSOR, June 28. — (Canadian Press). — Charges laid by Robert McArthur, of Sandwich, on Monday, accusing Miss C. E. Forester, Principal, and Miss Elsie McClellan and Miss J. Hall, teachers, in Prince Edward Public School, with assaulting his 12-year-old daughter, Alice, were dismissed yesterday afternoon by Magistrate Gundy. The court held that the McArthur girl, by refusing to obey the orders of the school principal to remain in after class had been dismissed, had laid herself open to punishment. This was administered by Miss Forester, who called two other teachers to assist when the recalcitrant pupil became too unruly to be handled singly. The Sandwich School Board, which heard the case also, decided that the teachers had acted within their rights.

Special Prices Prevail on Hand Bags and Purses for Two Days
Thursday and Friday

BAGS and Purses in novel shapes of pretty leathers, and most important of all, with changeproof frames that will keep your money securely, and your railroad ticket, too, if you are on a journey. Speaking of journeys, that reminds us of vacation time. Ten chances to one you'll require a new Bag or Purse for the holiday trip, and if you do, be sure and take advantage of these prices.

Charming Hand Bag Numbers at $4.59

We might describe this line as "the plum of the Sale." The value is certainly quite apparent. There is a variety of shapes.

One, for instance, is of brown cobra grained leather and top strap style. The top portion is lined with leather and the lower is tan moire silk. Equipped with a change purse and mirror; roomy pockets and ticket spaces. Choice of grey or tan.

The "Swagger Bag" is also in the assortment. It is of spider-web lamb and has a large flap that fastens over the top. It is very roomy and certainly lives up to its name.

A third number features an outside mirror covered with a flap. The numerous compartments are large enough to be useful. Choice of grey or brown; medium size.

Small "Swagger Bags" $2.59

A miniature of the larger Swagger Bags and, of course, the price is proportionately lower. The leather is spider-web lamb on a nickel changeproof frame. Has double strap handles to carry it by.

Attractive Shapes in Attractive Leather, $3.49

Envelope and box shapes in grey or brown cobra grain, and also Mars black. These are distinguished from lower priced numbers by the silk moire and poplin linings, and also the gusset sides, which are of leather—not a cheap fabric. Very excellent value at the above price.

Back Strap Purses, $1.79

Practical Purses, these, made with a strap across the back and manufactured of a serviceable cobra grain or lambskin in brown or grey. They have changeproof frames, one large pocket and outside spaces for tickets.

Novelty Leather Hand Bags, $2.98

It's an old story how we secure these excellent Purses to sell for so little. It's worth repeating, though: "We know a maker who tans his own leathers, and this means a considerable reduction in the cost all around."

In leathers you have choice of spider-web, cobra grain, pin seal grain and Mars black. Novel shapes, such as kodak, envelope and Pilgrim. All have changeproof frames and are well lined.

Grain, Cattle & Produce Markets

The price of strawberries is still rising in the local stores, with evidences of a shortage in the quanity for enquiring housewives. Indifferent boxes may be purchased today for 18 cents, but the market price for the good quality is 22 cents. A fresh shipment of pineapples is in, at 30 cents apiece, and there are golden apricots and small green apples in the fruit stores. Butter is up from last week's quotations; 2 cents on the pound for the creamery, with dairy scarce, and lard and eggs have also advanced by a cent. Live hogs are dearer by fifty cents on the hundred than this time last week.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

CHICAGO, June 28.—(Canadian Press.) — Disappointing threshing returns together with enlarged export and milling demand had a decided bullish effect yesterday on the wheat market. Prices closed strong, 2 1-4 to 3 1-8c. net higher; July $1.14 1-8 to $1.14 1-4 and September $1.15 1-2. Corn gained 3-4 to 7-8c., oats 5-8 to 7-8c. and provisions 5 to 7 1-2c.

CASH GRAIN.

MONTREAL, June 28.— (Canadian Press.)—There was no marked improvement in the demand for cash grain here yesterday. The flour market was without development. There is no change in millfeed and a steady feeling prevails in the rolled oats market. Domestic demand for baled hay was fair. There was no change in the egg situation and the potato market continues quiet. Business in butter was dull. The tone of the cheese market is firm.

STERLING RATES.

MONTREAL, June 28.— (Canadian Press.) — Sterling exchange rates were quoted here yesterday. Sterling demand 4.4909; sterling cables 4.4935.

Sheep, 5,000; fully 25c. higher; top native lambs 13.50 to city butchers; 13.25 to packers; culls 7.00 and 8.00; best fat light native ewes 7.00; heavy 3.25 and 5.00; medium dry fed western yearlings 10.50; native breeding ewes mostly 6.50 and 7.50; few yearlings up to 9.50.

WINNIPEG CATTLE.

WINNIPEG, June 28.—(Canadian Press.) — Receipts 150 cattle and calves and 370 hogs. The few killing cattle on offer yesterday morning sold generally steady to strong. Stockers and feeders formed the bulk of offerings and were moved under liberal enquiry at steady prices.

The hog market was unchanged. Packers were bidding 12.50 for selects.

There was no trading on the sheep and lamb market due to lack of receipts.

WHAT CAUSES HEADACHES?

"Fruit-a-tives" Prevents Auto-Intoxication

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning. Many people suffer from partial Constipation or insufficient action of the bowels. Waste matter which should pass out of the body every day, remains and poisons the blood.

As a result, there is Headaches, Indigestion, disturbed Stomach, Pain in the Back, Rheumatism and Eczema and other skin diseases.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always relieve Auto-intoxication as these tablets, made from fruit juices, act gently on the bowels, kidneys and skin and keep the blood pure and rich.

from either the south or the north, obstructions prevent a view of the western tracks, and the view eastward is far from satisfactory. The Provincial Highway at this point is one of the most frequented railway crossings in this part of the Province and owing to the prominence of the C.P.R. subway at this point we consider this the most dangerous crossing in Ontario. Your petitioners believe that the public interests will only be served by either an overhead or subway crossing being immediately constructed at this point, and we therefore pray that your Board will cause an immediate official investigation of the matter contained herein to be made by the Engineers of your Department.

CROP REPORTS

Following is a summary of reports made by the Agricultural Representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture:—

The cutting of alfalfa and sweet clover has been the feature of the week in field work. Yields of both crops have been good. Some of the sweet clover has been put in the silo, but a number of farmers are curing it for hay. Several farmers in Waterloo are cutting the crop with the binder and then curing it by shocking.

Red clover is looking much better than was expected in the spring, and an average yield is now looked for. Cutting will soon start.

All the grains are more or less promising. Fall wheat has headed out well, and a good general crop is looked for. The same may be said of winter rye. Barley is starting to head, and gives promise of a good yield. Oats are also vigorous looking. All the grains, however, are hardly as long in straw as in some years.

There is a good outlook also for for nearly all varieties of orchard fruits, taking the Province over. The ravages of the canker worm in some districts, however, have been discouraging.

Strawberries have been yielding well this season. During the last week prices were running at about 10 to 12 cents a box to growers, with higher prices for fancy picked. Raspberries are not doing so well, owing to winter injury.

Early sown corn is looking fine, but that put in late is not promising very well. South Simcoe reports a poor germination of seed corn generally.

Elgin says that beans have a larger acreage than last year and are coming up well.

Considerable millet and buckwheat has been sown by farmers in Lennox and Addington.

Price Edward reports that tomatoes are somewhat backward in growth on account of cold and wet weather, but that the stand is good. There is an increased acreage of seed peas in the country, but about ten per cent of it has been attacked by blight.

In the Kenora district a few bales of last year's hay was selling to teamsters at $20 a ton.

Several representatives speak of the fine appearance of cattle on grass, as copious showers during the last three weeks have afforded excellent pasturage.

Oxford holds that men who are selling cream and feeding hogs are making out better than the cheese factory patrons this year.

Some cheese factories in Middlesex are paying as low as 85c. a cwt. for milk. The price in some factories in Lennox and Addington has sunk to 75c a cwt.

Lennox and Addington says: "Cheese factory owners are all testing milk in accordance with the rules of the Dairy Standard Act and are finding the work much easier and simpler than they at first anticipated.'

Grey observes that many young sows are to be seen around the farms and also "quite a number of colts.'

Haldimand reports a shortage of hogs, with a strong demand for young pigs, which are selling at from $8 to $10 each when six weeks old. In Middlesex prices are quoted at from $6 to $8.

Kenora reports that there is every indication of a heavy honey crop in that district. The bees that were brought from Texas this spring have done well, and have already had from two to four supers.

COAL OPERATORS ACCEPT MINORITY WAGE PROPOSALS

Operators' Association Makes Temporary Offer to Open Mines—Definite Settlement Later.

AN INCREASE.

CALGARY, June 28. (Canadian Press.) — The Western Canada Coal Operators' Association have now advised the Department of Labor at Ottawa. that as a guarantee of its readiness to re-open its mines, it is willing to accept the basis of wages proposed in the minority report of R. G. Drinnan, who was one of the members of the Knowles Conciliation Board. Mr. Drinnan's proposal suggested an increase on day wages of approximately ten per cent. over that proposed on contract rates.

The association offers to accept this as a temporary means of reopening the mines, an agreement to be on that basis, with a provision that as soon as a settlement is made in the western Pennsylvania and Ohio fields the rates in district eighteen shall be amended therewith.

FORMER OTTAWA MAN IS HONORED

George H. Ross, International President of the Kiwanis Club, Former Citizen.

OTTAWA, June 28.—(Canadian Press.)—Cheers and applause greeted the reference to the election of Mr. George H. Ross, formerly of Ottawa, to the international presidency of Kiwanis Club which was made by Kiwanian Rodolphe Gratton at the weekly luncheon at the Hill Kiwanis Club at the Windsor Hotel Hull, yesterday. Kiwanian Gratton who attended the international convention at Toronto, spoke on some of the features of the convention. He told of the enthusiastic reception accorded visiting delegates and said that the selection of Mr. Ross as international president was not only a tribute to the Kiwanian leader, but a recognition on the part of American Kiwanians that the members of Kiwanis clubs in Canada knew how to do things.

SEEKS PROTECTION AT RY. CROSSING COBOURG DISTRICT

Port Hope Board of Trade Appeals to Board of Railway Commissioners For Action.

PORT HOPE, June 28. — The Board of Trade here has taken active steps to secure if possible adequate protection of the public at a very dangerous Grand Trunk level crossing in Cobourg district. At a special meeting of the Board's executive the following resolution in the foregoing connection was carried unanimously:

Moved by Mr. E. Brown, seconded by Mr. Geo. Garnett, that the Board of Trade of this town beg to respectfully direct the attention of the Board of Railway Commissioners to the exceedingly dangerous conditions under which the Grand Trunk level crossing exists upon the main route of the Provincial Highway in the western district of Cobourg. There have been four fatalities at this crossing within a very recent period; two of these, Robert Sculthorp and William Dawson occurred on the night of the 16th inst., and another one of the party in now in the Cobourg Hospital where life hangs upon a thread from injuries received on the above mentioned date.

In approaching the level crossing

Corns?

—just say Blue-jay to your druggist

Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists.

Law Students

ROSIE REEVE.

By MARIAN HALE.

In a middy blouse, knee-length skirt, sandals and half hose, Rosie Reeve told me of her ambition to become a lawyer.

Although she was wearing the flapper uniform, she is no flapper. She isn't old enough. She is only 10—small for that—and very child-like in appearance.

Yet she has just completed a year of study at Western University, London, Ont., and has come to New York to enter the law course at Columbia University.

Which leads you, correctly, to deduce that Rosie is a prodigy.

* * *

Two years ago Rosie was in public school, just like your child, making the acquaintance of spelling and arithmetic.

When she finished the fourth grade her father decided to take her out of school. He is an inventor and had invented a new system of education. He didn't believe much in schools and Rosie wasn't very well.

For two months Rosie frequented her father's school—he was teaching his new system of typewriting and stenography. In that length of time she had picked up enough to enable her to hold a job.

Then for two months, at the age of eight, she held a regular stenographer's job and made good!

Then in two years she bridged what takes the average child at least eight years.

"We simply make a game of study—my father and I," Rosie explains.

* * *

Her education has been founded on a study of the dictionary which her father has rearranged for the use of his pupils, according to family word groups instead of alphabetically. From that foundation she has built all her learning.

In college last year she studied English literature, Spanish, French and chemistry.

She has read widely and leans toward the realistic schools, both in art and literature. Her favorite author is Dickens. She loves all sports, particularly horseback riding and swimming. She is very fond of music and hopes to cultivate her voice.

"But I have chosen law as my profession because I believe it will enable me to do the biggest service—and I believe it takes more brains than any other profession," she says.

"And I intend to marry, for I don't care to be an old maid."

Rosie has two sisters, both older than she, and both unusually developed mentally. One of them is being groomed for the champion speed typist of the world.

STREAMERS.

Midsummer hats have a fondness for streamers and veils that hang far below the waist. Often the scarves are of lace or chiffon and are wound about the neck a time or so.

Ten Days' Grace From Fire and Sword Asked For Unhappy Ireland.

BELFAST, June 28. — (Canadian Press.) — Lord Mayor Coates told the Belfast Corporation to-day that when he visited the home of the late Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson on the day of his assassination, Lady Wilson said to him:

"I trust his death will be a benefit to the future of Ireland."

"From that moment," the Lord Mayor said, "I resolved to make one more appeal to the inhabitants of Belfast. It is first to ask those who are Protestants, Unionists or Loyalists, out of respect to the memory of the late Sir Henry,, and, second, all Roman Catholics, who very often complain in that those of their religion are objects of attack—to ask everyone, in fact, to refrain for the next ten days from all acts of violence and disorder, and from all burning and looting. It is a bold request to make. God grant that it may be received in the spirit in which it is made."

SUCH PAINS AS THIS WOMAN HAD

Two Months could not turn in Bed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Finally Restored Health

Seattle, Washington.—"I had dragging pains first and could not stand on my feet, then I had chills and fever and such pains in my right side and a hard lump there. I could not turn myself in bed and could not sleep. I was this way for over two months, trying everything any one told me, until my sister brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until all the hard pains had left me and I was able to be up and to do my work again. The hard lump left my side and I feel splendid in all ways. I know of many women it has helped."—Mrs. G. RICHARDSON, 4640 Orcas St., Seattle, Wash.

This is another case where Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought results after "trying everything any one told me" had failed.

If you are suffering from pain, nervousness and are always tired; if you are low spirited and good for nothing, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

YOU CAN PICK PARASOLS FROM WIDE RANGE OF MODELS THIS YEAR

SOME OF THE SMARTEST PARASOL MODELS BEING SHOWN THIS YEAR. NOTE VARIETY OF DESIGN. WHICH IS YOUR FAVORITE?

BY MARIAN HALE.

Parasols are right now in the height of their season and are blooming more riotously and abundantly than ever before.

Something entirely new is the sports parasol, of a very good grade of cretonne, stretched over the parasol without a seam and bound on the edge with ribbon.

These have a natural affinity for the white skirt and colored sweater costume, beloved by the athletic girl.

Another sports model is called "Tubby." It is very deep and round, and its ribs are covered with silk. The handle and top, carved like a tulip, are of white baklite, which looks like ivory, but is not.

These models come in navy blue, purple and the more serviceable shades and represent the season's effort at being practical.

* * *

Those who designed this season's parasols did not make serviceability or practicability their aim. They achieved the decorative effects formerly associated with the stage.

The rosebud special parasol comes in delicate toned taffetas with rows of roses about the outer edge and a canopy top.

The mushroom shape is just what it sounds like, and is best developed in shirred crepe de chines or taffetas in pastel shades.

Scallops are a popular method of trimming the taffeta parasol, the scallops being edged with colored silk of another shade.

A parasol of Nile green accordion plaited georgette crepe looks perishable indeed, but it has a firm foundation of green crepe de chine.

Fringed parasols are novel—sometimes the fringe is a foot or more in width.

* * *

The new handles are equipped with ribbon bracelets, so that the parasol may be carried like a handbag. You no longer drag it along the sidewalk.

You need not have a parasol for each gown, or even vearn for one. It is quite the thing to carry a blue parasol with a pink frock or a green one with a pink gown. Harmony and beauty is the only effect you need strive for.

I am informed one should study the holding of the parasol. If you hold it directly above your head you will doubtless keep off the sun, but you may keep off suitors as well, for you have not achieved the picturesque.

One is much more alluring if one holds the parasol at a coquettish angle and uses it as a colorful merely as a shield from the sun.

ENGAGEMENT RINGS.

The sale of diamonds this month is reported to be very heavy. The most popular ring at present is the diamond solitaire, cut in a square or diamond shape and mounted in platinum.

WHITE TURBAN.

The white satin turban is now just about as popular as the black one was a few months ago. It is draped in much the same manner and is very close fitting.

Chapter LXXVI.

BONNY AND BART WED! BUT I CAN'T TAKE MY REWARD.

A wire from Bart and Bonny awaited us at home. They had eloped and were married.

I thought my husband looked at me curiously Did he fancy Bart had married Bonny because he couldn't have an old sweetheart?

Following a tremendous ringing of the door bell came Mr. Tearle with a yellow telegram in his hand

"Peggins! You've won! What are you going to charge me?"

I shook my head, smiled at Jack, murmured "Nothing!"

"Nothing? Bunk! See here, Jack! Your little wife has done me the biggest kind of a favor. She's married off my flapper daughter to the very man I had picked out for her. "Now, Jack see here I want to give Peg a little present—no equivalent—for value received—something for her to remember the event by. What about the new 'Tyrone' Peg's crazy about?"

"Nothing doing, Mr Tearle. Belive me we appreciate your kindness But Mr Tearle, Peg and I couldn't buy the gas for the 'Tyrone' —not now."

I had known Mr Tearle from baby hood, so I stated quite frankly that if Jack would let me have the car we wouldn't have anything for its upkeep until Jack found a new job

My subconcious mind told me, as I talked about the upkeep, that I hadn't been given a chance to make my own decision about accepting the car. My husband had decided for me in the good old way! And I had not demurred!

Mr Tearle was not sympathetic because Jack had been "fired." He took it as a matter of course, an incident of business life His attitude seemed to comfort Jack more than anything I ever had said! I turned the conversation to Bonny.

"Bonny thinks she eloped" her father chuckled. 'The girl had been wearing her heart out, moping, ever since your trip. Could a loving father stand that?

"I sent for her young man. Asked him why he didn't marry her like a man? He swore he couldn't buy her shoes—literally he couldn't pay her shoe bill for a year!

"Anyway, I thought she'd be willing to go barefoot with him. play the beggar maid to his King Cophetua —so why didn't they marry?

"He's a good sport that boy. Said he couldn't buy flowers for the bridesmaids or buttons for the ushers."

"Elope then! I said. "Run away!" So we fixed it. I wanted to try out my girl, find if there's good stuff in her. "Run away with her, make her live on a second-rate actor's salary six months. Then come home to father!"

GAINS 15 POUNDS AND FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

Quebec Resident Says She Can Now Eat Anything and Is Stronger Than in Years Since Tanlac Fully Restored Her Health.

"Tanlac has built me up fifteen pounds and made me so well and happy that I just can't help praising it," said Mrs. Henri Roberts, 48 Charlevoix Street, Quebec.

"For two years I suffered constantly from indigestion, and had such a poor appetite I could eat but very little of anything. My stomach gave me no end of trouble, and at times hurt so bad I could hardly stand it. I became so weak and run down I almost lost heart. My liver was disordered, and I had awful keen pains across the small of my back.

"I began improving as soon as I started taking Tanlac, and now I feel better than I have in years. The indigestion has entirely gone, and I never have an ache or a pain. I feel like I would be shirking my duty not to tell others about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

COLORED CHINA.

Tea sets of brilliant orange-colored china are very popular for use in country homes and on summer porches. Plain colored china, particularly in gaudy colors, is very much liked.

GIRLS! LEMONS WHITEN SKIN AND BLEACH FRECKLES

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whitness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate

A Good-bye and God-Speed To The Rev. R. B. Grobb

A Bright Gathering to Say Fare-ye-well to the Rector of All Saints' Church

Last evening a large and representative gathering congregated in All Saints' parish Hall to say farewell and God-speed to the Rector, the Rev. R. B. Grobb, who leaves in a few days to visit England, Scotland, France, Germany, Austria, Italy and the Holy Land. Mr. Grobb, who has been busy working amongst his congregation for the past ten years, is about to take an extended holiday of three or four months. He purposes travelling in many countries where Christianity was first introduced, finishing up the outward tour in the Holy City of Jerusalem.

Greatly Beloved.

The meeting was called to order at about 8.15 p.m. by Mr. W. H. Barry, the people's warden, who in a few trite remarks explained the raison d'etre of the assembly, and went on to say that Mr. Grobb was greatly beloved by his congregation, that he required, after so many years of strenuous work a real change. But inasmuch as the Rector could not call on all to bid them personally a temporary farewell, this meeting had been organized to wish him God-speed, a pleasant journey, and to express the hope that he would return to them in the best of health.

Mr. Herbert Rush here followed with a song, "You Get There in the Morning."

All Will Assist.

Mr. Walter Worth (the Rector's Warden) said that he with others was glad that their Rector was going to take this trip, which should be very beneficial to him. He hoped that all would assist by making things run smoothly during the Rector's absence. We shall all profit by his talks of what he has seen, on his return, and by the pictures he will take on his trip, which will, as lantern slides, prove beautiful mementoes.

Gets Presentation.

After well-rendered recitations by Mrs. Connolly, the Rev. Mr. Grobb was then presented by Mr. Edgar Worth, on behalf of the congregation, with a beautiful and serviceable photographic camera.

The reverend gentleman, in acknowledging the gift, reminded the gathering that he was naturally of a shy disposition, and consequently could not find adequate words to express his thanks and feelings. "Can't you sing them then," shouted out some member of the audience. This joke was in reference to Mrs. Connelly's recitation, "The Anglicans," in which was depicted a parson of splendid type who could sing divinely, but who had not a good preaching voice; so much so that his congregation used to say, "Ah; if he would only sing his sermons."

Mr. Grobb, in reply said if he sang his thanks it might even be worse, for this useful and handsome present, and this reception had touched his heart. He thanked those present for coming and demonstrating their affection for him. He then outlined his itinerary in a humorous way. It was understood that the reverend gentleman will leave this city to-day and will proceed to Hamilton to pick up his "compagnon de voyage" and then home to St Catharines for a brief moment, thence to Montreal to sail on Saturday's ship.

Ex-Mayor Euller, also ex-Warden of the church, held the interest of rector and congregation during a good-bye address, both stirring in sentiment and replete with good-natured "chaff."

Vocal solos were also appreciatively contributed by Mrs. Trotter, Miss Borbridge and choir master George Chandler.

Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies, and the departing guest carried away with him a veritable host of good wishes and God-speeds.

Harvey-Carruthers Nuptials

George Street Methodist church was the scene to-day of one of the loveliest weddings of the season, when, at 1.30, Muriel Erla, younger daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Erle Harvey, 212 Brock street, became the bride of George Clifton Carruthers, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Carruthers 201 Brock street. Rev. Harold W. Young, performed the ceremony, with Rev. W. H. Harvey of Waterloo, the bride's uncle, and Rev. A. J. Thomas of Windsor, former pastor of George street church.

The entire organ-loft and pulpit stand was transformed for the occasion into a bower of loveliness. Tall palms, dozens of large ferns and masses of rose peonies formed a background for the triple floral arch erected in the space beneath, the standards and tops completely covered with white peonies daisies, smoke wreath and quantities of Ophelia roses, tall baskets of the pink roses surmounting the whole The central rounded arch held two large white bells, placed directly above a white satin prie-dieu.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her away, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mr. John H. Renwick. She wore an exquisite gown of ivory moonglow satin crepe, inset of ivory moonglow, satin crepe, inset with Duchesse and rose point lace, the skirt draperies caught by a pearl ornament with pendant strings of pearls. Her long court train was lined with orchid, and her tulle veil was held in place by a cornet of pearls, while a fan-shaped chou of Carrickmacross lace at the left side was caught by a pearl pin worn by Mrs. Harvey at her wedding. The bride's bouquet was a shower of sweetheart roses, lilies of the valley and white heather, centred by mauve orchids. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Miss Marion Harvey, was gowned in champagne colored georgette, worn over a slip of chiffon velvet of the same shade, with side draperies of georgette in mauve, pink, blue and green. With this was worn a hat of champagne velvet and georgette with long scarf and gold shoes and stockings. Miss Harvey carried a gold-colored shepherdess' crook, and a flat, old-fashioned nosegay of sweet peas, yellow and pink roses and forget-me-nots.

The four bridesmaids wore dresses of shot taffeta in rainbow hues, made in bouffant style, with wired skirts and large rolling collars. Miss Ruth Clemens of Waterloo, wore green; Miss Helenene Allworth of Montreal, was in orchid; Miss Marjorie Ingall in blue, and Miss May Reid in yellow. Leghorn hats with flower medallions and streamers of black velvet; silver shoes and silver shepherdess' crooks completed their costumes their crooks and shower bouquets of roses, orchid lily of the valley and Scotch heather tied with large bows of tulle to match their gown, the whole colorful quintette forming a Watteau-like background for the Dresden-china daintiness of the shimmering, satin-clad bride.

Jean Howson, the charming little flower-girl, had a pink organdie frilled frock and hat to match, and carried a white basket of pink roses heather and valley lilies.

Miss Elva McIntyre, who sang 'Until' during the signing of the register, was gowned in taffeta of shot green and gold trimmed with French roses, with leghorn hat and old-fashioned nosegay

The groomsman was Mr. Kenneth Anderson of Peterboro, and Messrs. Max Graham and Wesley Mason of Toronto, Roy Penfound of Lindsay and John Renwick of Peterboro acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception to nearly 175 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, where roses and ferns formed the floral decoration In an alcove banked with roses, the arch above, centred by a large white floral bell, the guests were received by the bride, Mrs. E. E. Harvey and Mrs. G. C. Carruthers; Mrs. Harvey wearing pearl grey crepe meteor, with lace hat and corsage bouquet of mauve and coral sweet peas, and Mrs. Carruthers in black lace, with large black hat and pink roses, received at the door. Luncheon, catered for by Messrs. T. Hooper and Sons, was served in a large marquee on the lawn.

Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers left for a motor trip through the Eastern States and New York, the bride travelling in a cape suit of Princess Mary blue homespun, with ivory crepe blouse and beige shoes. A scarf of lark-colored silk and felt hat of the same shade, with cut medallions of contrasting shade, completed a striking costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers who will reside on their return at 205 Brock street, were the recipients of numerous beautiful and costly gifts. The souvenirs of the bridegroom to the maid of honor, the bridemaids and the soloist were Princess Mary emerald rings; to the flower girl, a triple pearl ring, and to the ushers, pearl and diamond pins.

The invited out-of-town guests were: Rev. W. H. Harvey and Mrs. Harvey, of Waterloo; Rev. A. J. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas, of Windsor; Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Corliss, of Coniston; Miss Smith, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Whatley and Miss Whatley, Dr. and Mrs. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. Maxwell Graham, Rev. and Mrs. Follett and Miss Follett, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Knox, Miss Pauline Bowden, the Misses Evelyn and Muriel Wilson, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Currie, of Glencoe; Dr. and Mrs. Peever, Hamilton; Mr. and the Misses Harvey, Atwood; Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Detroit; Dr. and Mrs. Pullyblank, Camrose; Mr. and Mrs. Penfound, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. McKay, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. McMurtry and Miss McMurtry, of Midland.

SULPHUR CLEARS UP ROUGH OR RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur, preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

The belief that a madstone cures hydophobia is an old tradition with no foundation.

JASPER PARK LODGE

An Ideal Stop-Off Point.

With the advent of reduced fares to Alberta and British Columbia points, many who have long anticipated seeing the Canadian Rockies and Pacific Coast will make the journey this year. To them, and to the individual travelling "Across Canada" for purely business reasons, the "National Way" and the Canadian National Railways' premier trains, the "Continental Limited" and the "National" appeal most strongly, the route connecting as it does the great urban centres of Canada, and traversing regions of outstanding interest. The various Canadian National hostelries en route suggest excellent stop-off points and are noted for the excellence of their service. To their number is added this year Jasper Park Lodge on Lac Beauvert.

Jasper Park, Alberta, in the Canadian Rockies, is the largest of Canada's National Parks, its area of 4,400 square miles offering unlimited holiday possibilities to the Tourist and Sportsman. Dolley Varden trout lurk in the clear mountain streams. Beautiful transparent lakes mirror the encircling mountains, and a new unspoiled Alpine wonderland of snow-covered peaks and verdant valleys gladdens the eye. In this delightful setting on Lac Beauvert three miles from Jasper Station (with which it is connected by motor car service), is Jasper Park Lodge, operated by the Canadian National Railways' Hotels Department, and now open for the reception of guests.

Of artistic log construction, the Lodge comprises a large, comfortable Lounge building, surrounded by Dining Hall and separate Sleeping buildings, each containing sitting-room and four bed-rooms, electric lighted, with all modern conveniences, running water in each room, baths, etc. In conjunction with the Lodge is a Dancing Pavilion where good music assures to the guests delightful evening diversion.

From the Lodge a magnificent panorama greets the eye. Mount Edith Cavell, so-called in memory of the martyred British Red Cross nurse, stands out in bold relief, its glinting slopes making it to appear as "a sheet suspended from the heavens." The picturesque valley of the Athabaska is flanked by Pyramid Mountain, the richness of its varied color effects presenting a very striking contrast. Whistlers Mountain, Colon Range, Roche Bonhomme, are but a few of the mighty peaks that meet the gaze. Riding is, of course, the popular pastime and ponies are available for this exhilarating sport. Within easy reach of the Lodge, afoot or by motor car, are numerous points of interest. Maligne Canon and Gorge, one of the most interesting attractions in the Park, is but six miles distant. Easily accessible streams will tempt the fiesherman. The amateur photographer will revel in Nature's bounteousness. Animal, bird and plant life is found in wonderful variety. Seventy different species of birds, seven hundred different species of plants and flowers have been accounted for, and within the confines of the Park, which is a bird and game preserve, are big horn mountain sheep and goat, bear—cinnamon, brown and black; caribou and moose, elk, beaver, otter, marten and deer.

For those more venturesome, who would explore the more difficult and extended trails, guides, ponies, packhorses and complete outfits can be obtained at the Lodge, from which point also parties set out on hunting expeditions beyond the confines of the Park.

This delightful regions is fully described in a new booklet entitled "Jasper Park Lodge," copies of which may be obtained from the nearest Canadian National or Grand Trunk Agent.

A LARGE 'LUNGE.

One of the largest 'lunge hooked in the Otonabee River this year was proudly borne into town by Alec King, 348 Charlotte Street, last night. The big fish, which weighed 20 pounds, was caught about three miles down the river. It was Mr. King's second strike this year.

SURGEON CAN CHANGE YOUR FACE FROM SIXTY TO SIXTEEN YEARS

FACE LIFTING NOW COMES A S REGULARLY AS CHRISTMAS.

By MARIAN HALE.

Face lifting now is a ceremony that comes as regularly as Christmas with some women.

The surgeon's scalpel has become almost as common as an aid to beauty as the lipstick.

And now comes the medical fraternity with endorsement of beauty surgery!

Surgeons at the American Medical Association conclave in St. Louis, gave serious consideration to facial surgery and approved many recent operations aimed to make 16 of 60.

If the general cosmography of a woman's face does not please her, she need not suffer in silence. She goes to a face surgeon and is remade.

It is no longer necessary to have three chins, disappearing eyes and a pattern of checks or plaids etched on your epidermis—that is, if you have the price of a "lift."

You give your sagging face over to a face surgeon and he takes tucks and plaits where it seems advisable, gives it a thorough pressing and reblocking, and returns it to you as smooth as it was in your infancy.

It is admitted by those who practice this form of reconstruction that you don't feel much like living for a few days after for fear the stitches may give, but on the whole, the process is fairly painless.

* * *

The shape of the nose was once as unassailable as the leopard's spots. Now Greek noses have their price, and humps come to terms under the surgeon's knife.

Several actresses have had their noses sliced and pared down that a "movie profile might result.

It is possible by the tieing and untieing and instituting a general revolution of the muscles to change almost any face. You sort of shuffle up all the features and call for a new deal.

This is a delicate operation and one may never be quite sure what the second hand will bring, but playing with beauty is no game for a quitter.

It is said some doctors are not averse to changing a D-last foot to a triple A by the amputation of a toe or so.

Nature may be wonderful, but what about science?

WALKERS' THIRTEENTH HELPS WIN THE GAME

Cleveland Rallies in the Eighth For Six Funs. Daubert Gets a Home Run.

AMERICAN.

Philadelphia 4—Boston 2.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28 (Canadian Press). — Eddie Rommel twirled Philadelphia to a double victory over Boston yesterday, and enabled the Athletics to get out of last place. He pitched a full game in the opening contest and won, 4 to 2. In the second game Rommel relieved Naylor in the seventh inning, with the score tied, and triumphed, 6 to 2. Tillie Walker got his thirteenth home run in the seventh inning of the second game. Scores:

Boston	010000001	2	6 3
Philadelphia	00020101x	4	8 2

Pennock, Fullerton and Ruel; Rommel and Perkins.

Ferguson and Ruel; Heimach, Naylor, Rommel and Perkins.

Chicago 9—Detroit 5.

DETROIT, June 28 (Canadian Press). — The Chicago Americans went into a tie for third place by defeating Detroit, 9 to 5. The Tigers got away to a four-run lead in the first frame, but the Sox hit Ehmke and Cole hard in later innings. Flagstead, Mostil, and Schalk hit home runs. Score:

Chicago	011300013	9	12 0
Detroit	401000000	5	9 0

Schupp, Hodge and Schalk; Ehmke, Cole and Bassler.

Cleveland 9—St. Louis 7.

CLEVELAND, June 28 (Canadian Press). — A six-run rally in the eighth inning here yesterday, in which the Indians drove both Wright and Vangilder from the mound, enabled Cleveland to defeat St. Louis 9 to 7. Score:

St. Louis	004021000	7	8 1
Cleveland	01020006x	9	12 4

Wright, Vangilder, Danforth and Severeid; Mails, Keefe, Lindsey, Uhle and O'Neill, Shinault.

NATIONAL.

St. Louis 9—Cincinnati 8.

ST. LOUIS, June 28 (Canadian Press). — Tieing the score in the ninth after Hargrave's home run had put the Reds one run ahead, the Cardinals yesterday defeated Cincinnati in 12 innings, 9 to 8. Gainor's double and Schultz's sacrifice accounted for the winning run. Daubert also hit a home run in the first inning. Score:

Cincinnati	102112001000	8	15 0
St. Louis	400000301001	9	15 1

Gillespie, Markle and Hargrave; Doak, Barfoot, Pfeffer and Ainsmith, Clemons.

Pitsburgh 6—Chicago 1.

CHICAGO, June 23 (Canadian Press). — The Pittsburgh Pirates took both games of a double-header here yesterday, defeating the Cubs by scores of 6 to 1 and 7 to 6. The scores:

Pittsburgh	100020300	6	9 0
Chicago	010000000	1	12 2

Brooklyn 7—Boston 3.

BOSTON, June 28 Canadian Press). — Brooklyn defeated Boston 7 to 3 yesterday, the latter's ninth straight defeat. Ruether's pitching and Brooklyn's heavy hitting against Oeschger and Fillingim were features. McNamara, recently with Fordham University, pitched effectively for Boston in the last two innings. Score:

Brooklyn	020011300	7	13 1
Boston	100001001	3	7 2

Ruether and Deberry; Oeschger, Fillingim, McNamara and Gowdy.

New York 7—Philadelphia 1.

NEW YORK, June 28 (Canadian Press. — The New York Nationals defeated Philadelphia 7 to 1 yesterday in the first game of what was scheduled to be a double-header. The game was stopped by rain at the end of the sixth inning. New York hit Hubbell freely, and the Giants took a commanding lead in the third inning, when Young hit a home run with Rawlings on base. Captain Fletcher was ordered off the field in the fourth inning for using dilatory tactics. Score:

Philadelphia	001000	1	5 2
New York	013201	7	10 0

Hubbell and Henline; Douglas and Snyder.

HIGH COST OF GOLF IS ON THE DECLINE.

Golf has reached its greatest height as far as the cost of the game is concerned. No longer will we hear the familiar expression around the club, "How much more are they going to stick us for playing this game?"

Balls are cheaper and will continue to come down according to the best of advice obtainable from the experts. The golf clubs are not going to ruin ones pocket book anymore and dues to clubs are on the downward grade. This is all good news for the good player and the duffer who suffer alike when it comes to paying the cost of their pleasure on the links.

One of the most economical moves in golf equipment is the steel shaft. This club purchased stands for years with only very slight repairs. This a saving that must be considered and it is also a great help to the player. Once he obtains the perfect club as every golfer does at lease once in a lifetime there is no danger of losing it from breakage.

It is annoying in the middle of a round to find ones pet driver or brassie out of commission due to a split shaft, or to find at the begining of the season that his pet driver has been ruined by steam heat during the winter. A steel shafted club will stand for many seasons indoors and out.

KING EDWARD GIRLS ARE THE WINNERS

Win Championship of the Second Junior Series By Defeating Girls of King George School.

The girls of King Edward School were the victors yesterday afternoon 29 to 22 over King George for the championship of the second series in the Girls Playground Ball League

The game yesterday was one of the best seen this year with the score almost even until the seventh inning when the victors came through with a great batting streak and piled up a lead of thirteen runs. In the last half of the ninth inning the King George Girls made a desperate effort to overcome this handicap and succeeded in bringing five runs before King Edwards tightened up and retired the side.

The players were:—

King Edward—Mabel MacLaren p, Kathleen Taylor c, Mabel Miller 1b, Hilda Evans 2b, Marion Gross 3b, Alma Hill ss, Ethel White rf, Ethel Robertson cf and Violet Young lf.

King George—Mary Staples p, ss, Isabel Cooper c, Dorothy Cooper 1b, Genevive Foster 2b, Doris Hawkes 3b, Alice Wcese ss, p, Jean Wheeler rf, Hazel Hunter lf, Vera Moffatt cf.

IF THIS PLAY COMES UP

When a coacher at third base touches or holds a runner rounding that base, and there by physically assists the runner in returning to third or results in his continuing on to the plate, the umpire shall declare the runner out, if the action of the coacher has a bearing on the play. If a coacher so acts and there is no play at the base, the umpire shall not call the runner out because of such action on the part of the coacher. For instance, if the batsman hits a fair ball over the fence, and the coacher at third should grab the runner or slap him on the back, the umpire should pay no attention to whatever the coacher does. There is no chance for a play when a fair ball is batted over a fence or into a stand, and the umpire should ignore any act of the coacher under such circumstances.

LOCK WORKS GET THEIR FIRST WIN

First - Class Pitching By George Sturgeon Gives Them a Victory Over H. N. S.

Good twirling by George Sturgeon against Holy Name Society at Riverside Park last evening gave the Lock Works their first win in the Junior series The score was 10 to 7. Both teams got away well, and were headed in the direction of a big scoring bee. It was the lock makers, however, who drew away, finishing the fifth with a lead of five runs. H.N.S. came strong in the sixth, Miller driving in a pair of runs

"Scotty" McPherson replaced Sheehy on the mound in the seventh, and held Lock Works Sturgeon turned in a strong finish against the opposition. Two batters fanned and the third batsman was p sed. Then Fitzgerald came through with a nice catch on a high fly back of his station, for the third out.

WHERE HAVE THE SOUTHPAWS GONE?

Bill Baily the Only Good One to Break Into the Majors in Two Years.

BY BILLY EVANS.

What s becoming of the southpaw pitchers?

The other day, while discussing pitching in the majo. with a couple of the National League umpires, I remarked:

"What good loooking left-handed pitchers broke into your league this year?"

"None," replied one of the arbitrators.

"Bill Bailey is the best looking left-hander that has broken into the league in a couple of years" replied the other.

That struck me as rather interesting since Billy Bailey has his chance in the American League for three or four seasons, then dropped back into the minors.

For about ten years he was shunted around in the bushes, only to come back last season with the St. Louis Cardinals for his second big chance in the majors.

Second Comeback.

Here was a fellow who had been pitching for 15 years, coming back for his second chance, and being classed as about the best looking southpaw that has beduted in the National League for a couple of years

Conditions in the American League have been very much similar although perhaps not quite as bad as expressed by my brother umpires of the National.

Southpaws of the Nehf-Cooper style or the Waddell-Plank standard are certainly few and far between. All of which brings us back again to the remark:

Only Two Southpaws.

'What about the southpaws? Are they becoming extinct?"

Last fall the St. Louis Browns of the American League gave 11 players for Dave Danforth. This further tends to show the scarcity of southpaws, because Danforth previously had two trials in the American League.

Of all the southpaw recruits tried out in the spring by the eight American League clubs, only two have shown up to advantage. I have reference to Fred Heimach of the Athletics and Herb. Pruett of the St. Louis Browns

Heimach has turned in several mighty god games for the Athletics He has a 13-inning victory to his credit over "Red" Faber and a 4 to 3 win over the veteran Bob Shawkey. He has promise.

This fellow Pruett of the Browns threaten to be a much talked about young man before the season is over. Possibly the chances of the Browns to win the American League pennant may to a certain extent depend of this college southpaw.

MENTORS' CLUB TO HAVE BOYS' CAMP

Will Take Youngsters From the City to Camp Rotary For Twelve Days

The Mentors' Club will have the use of Camp Rotary at Clear Lake from July 12 to 24 and a large number of the boys of the city will enjoy the benefit of the camp under their auspices.

The site of the camp is an ideal one, with lots of opportunity provided for boating, fishing, swimming, hikes, games. As Clear Lake itself is widely known as one of the beauty spots of this section, a finer spot could not be found.

An excellent programme has been arranged. The mornings will be set aside training in C.S.E.T. work and the campers will be organized into C.S.E.T. squares under the leadership of an experienced mentor.

Specialists in boys work will give short and interesting addresses and instruction will be given in camping, woodcraft, swimming, lifesaving, bird life, athletics and group games.

Each boy should take with him one blanket, towels, knife, fork, spoon, camping clothes, swimming suti, bible, musical instruments, camera and his best smile.

YANKS WILL HAVE A NEW BALL PARK

New Stadium Will Cost $3,000,000 and Will Seat Over 70,000 Persons.

(By Bob Dorman)

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 28.—It's a far cry from the Union grounds, Brooklyn, the first baseball enclosure, to the Yankees' new baseball park, work on which has just been started

The Union grounds were opened in 1862 at a cost of $50 and had a seating capacity of a few hundred.

The Yankee's new stadium will cost approximately $3,000,000, and which will seat 37,000 persons and there will be other seating space to accommodate a crowd of 70,000.

The new park will be the biggest baseball plant in the world, as well as a testimonial to the appeal of the great American game.

In its undertaking the two colonels, Jacob Rupert and T. L. Huston, both shrewd business men, have shown their faith in the future of baseball

Colonel Ruppert is exceptionally enthusiastic about it.

He says: "When Colonel Huston and myself bought the Yankees, a crowd of 15,000 was something to brag about, but as time has passed, baseball has taken more and more of a hold on the people, and sometimes we have been compelled to turn away people from the Polo grounds, though it holds over 37,000.

"The past two seasons have broken all attendance records for us, and we fully expect we will be able to fill the new park many times in 1923."

Undoubtedly it has been the glamour of the exploits of Babe Ruth that has caused the unprecedented attendance at the big league ball parks the past two seasons.

But many of the thousands who have been drawn to the parks to see the famed slugger have learned to know the game and have become rabid fans.

So it would seem as if the two colonels have not been overconfident in their work of undertaking the erection of the world's largest ball park.

BASEBALL NEWS.

Last night at the Oval the Wharp room Slipknots handed a bad beating to the weave room Mispicks of the Auburn Mills, the game ending with the score 13-1. The Slipknots played snappy ball and with the superb twirling of Bob Kendry and Cigarette Connors' brilliant work behind the bat showed their superiority over their old rivals. The lineup:

Slip-Knots — Connors and Kendry, battery; Dundas, Weatherstone, M. O'Brien, E. Vinette, Smith, Anderson and H. Vinette.

Mis-Picks — Hynes, O'Brien and Allison, Gould, Gallagher, Beamish, Borden, Laws and Hardacre.

Important Lacrosse Match At Riverside, Starting at 6 O'clock.

Peterboro men who are interested in vigorous Canadian games and especially in the way local boys play them should turn out for the junior lacrosse game with Havelock at Riverside Park this evening at 6 o'clock. They will encourage the game and the team and also its promoters headed by Dr. N. H. Sutton The restoration of lacrosse in Ontario is now assured and is almost an accomplished fact. In this city attention has so far been concentrated upon teaching the rudiments of the game such as stick-handling, and most of the players are just about as good as any this district produces. The team lacks experience in concerted play especially on attack, but this is a feature which will be gradually developed.

Peterboro will do its best to turn the tables on the Percy Lancaster's stars and a good game is promised. admission is twenty-five cents. If you can't be on hand at six o'clock come along later.

Our ball team is now out of its trance and they are playing ball as it should be played. In the first half of last year's schedule every team in the league beat Port Hope, while in the second round Port Hope defeated every other team. And it is going to be a case of history repeating itself. We gave Cobourg the biggest scare of the season right on their own grounds on Saturday and it was only by the hardest kind of luck that Port Hope lost out by a score of 4 to 3. But the boys have struck their gait and things will be interesting for the rest of the season to be a case of history repeating in Jake Solomón's outfit next Wednesday but the big event will son. They have decided to put a great and only Gallagher of Oshawa. We must beat Oshawa, and Bill Dear says he can do it. It is reported that the town of Oshawa will move down in a body to Port Hope on that date.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED

SIMCOE, Ont. June 28.—At 5 oclock last evening when Vivian Chandler, 170 Maple street aged 2 1-2 ran into the road to grab peas from the wagon of C. Culver, farmer, she fell under both wheels. The ligaments of her left leg torn and her left ankle was broken. The right leg was broken between the knee and hip. Drs. McGilvray and Boyd attended. She will recover though hospital facilities are lacking.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR GIRLS' BALL LEAGUE

Programme Will Be Drawn Up For Both Volley Ball and Baseball League.

The tripple victory of the Colonial Weaving girls Saturday and Monday gave them the senior championship for the first half of the schedule. Since many of the teams are disbanding it has been decided to have an entire reorganization of the summer sports for the remainder of the summer. Playground Ball and Volley Ball legaues will be organized among the girls and a full schedule will be drawn up.

George H. Roper, has furnished two nets for the Volley Ball league and moneys collected at the ball games will be used purchase the balls for both baseball and volley ball.

Any girls team or organization who would like to compete in either of the leagues can be entered by forwarding the names of their players, manager and captain to Walter Smaill at the Y.M.C.A.

As soon as possible a get-together meeting of the managers and captains will be held to form an executive to control the league.

The following rules will govern the games:

Volley Ball.

The regular official rules will be followed.

The size of the court will be 30 feet by 60.

Each team wil consist of eight players.

There will be two umpires for each game, one to be furnished by each team.

A team not at the court on time will be penalized on a system of points as in the baseball ruling.

No. 4 or 3 boys' soccer ball will be used.

Playground Ball.

The official baseball rules will be followed except as regarding the manner of pitching, the ball and bat.

All teams to be registered on the certificates at the Y.M.C.A. with Walter Smaill.

A team five minutes late loses a run to the opponents until fifteen minutes late when the game will be decliared forfeit.

A registration fee of ten cents per player will be charged.

A ball hitting trees, posts, wires, or spectators will be called a dead ball.

Only one base will be alowed for an overthrow or first or third base or the home plate.

Pitcher to have one foot in the box while pitching underhand.

The Official ball will be the No. 12 Playground ball.

The League will furnish the umpires.

Bases will be 50 feet apart and the pitchers box 30 feet from the home plate.

No spectators will be allowed within 20 feet of the base line.

Coaching rules will apply as in baseball.

CAUGHT A 30-LB. 'LUNGE AT BURLEIGH.

Measured 48 Inches With a Girth of 23¾ Inches.

BURLEIGH FALLS, June 28.—Mr. J. M. Weil of Toledo, Ohio, one of the registerd guests of the Park Hotel, Burleigh Falls, caught the largest maskinonge so far this season. This monster fish, weighing thirty pounds was captured by him after a struggle lasting forty minutes. It measured 48 inches long, and with a girth measurement of 28 3-4 inches. This fine specimen is now in the hands of E. Elcome, Peterborough, for mounting. The singular part of the landing of this fish was that the line used, with a steel polen and reel, was a light one with a guarantee only eighteen pounds strength. Those familiar with catching large fish will realize how careful one must be in making a successful landing of such a large fish with a light line.

HOW ADDED TUNING HELPS

BY PAUL F. GODLEY.
America's Foremost Radio Authority

Radio fans have been puzzled during the past few weeks by noises in their receivers which they have variously described as "scraping", "scratching" and "clicking."

Many of them have jumped to the conclusion that something has gone wrong with their receivers. But the sets aren't to blame at all. The fault is entirely nature's brand of radio—static.

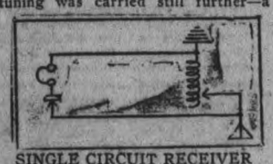
This is the main source of disturbance in wireless communication. Engineers for many years have diligently applied themselves in an effort to discover some way of eliminating the effects of static.

No method has yet been discovered which will entirely eliminate static, although many methods have been put forth for minimizing its effects. When several of the best devices are used simultaneously in connection with any one receiver, it is possible to get as high as 90 per cent improvement in that set.

The measures necessary to secure this improvement, however, are of a nature entirely unsuited to application on the home radiophone set because they are bulky and expensive.

Single Circuit Set.

The first means discovered for the reduction of static interference was the "tuning" of the receiver circuits. The next step was one where this tuning was carried still further—a second tuning circuit was added to the received and 'coupled' weakly to the tuned antenna circuit.

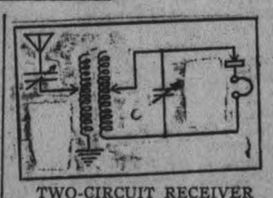


SINGLE CIRCUIT RECEIVER

A great many radio receivers in use today are of the "single circuit" type. But considerably greater freedom from static disturbances is to be had by use of a "two-circuit" receiver.

Two-Circuit Set.

The two-circuit receivers of the crystal type are usually composed of an "inductive coupler" (loose couple) together with variable tuning condensers used in both antenna and the second circuit (closed circuit.)

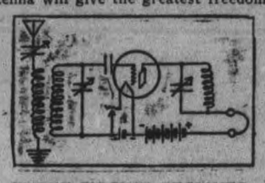


TWO-CIRCUIT RECEIVER

Unfortunately, the receivers which have been exploited most during the last few months have been single-circuit receivers. As the radio public becomes educated, it will demand receivers of the shigher grade. They do not cost a great deal more.

Three-Circuit Set

The use of "regeneration" in the circuits of a vacuum tube receiver ("regenerative receiver"), where the receiver is built around the coupled circuits with an outdoor antenna will give the greatest freedom from interference now possible for the radio fan. Such sets are known as "three-circuit receivers."



THREE-CIRCUIT RECEIVER

To go beyond this necessitates the use of a receiver in connection with a "loop" or "coil" antenna.

The coil antenna consists of a few turns of wire on a frame three or four feet square, the potentials dedeveloped in the outdoor antenna. waves are, of course, very much smaller (about 1-200 part) of those deevloped in the outdoor antenna. Greater amplification—more vacuum tubes, batteries, etc.—are necesary where such an antenna is used, and this means more expense.

TWO BIG GAMES ON THE HOLIDAY

Cobourg and St. Andrew's Team Will Visit Peterborough.

There will be a big programme of baseball for Peterborough fans on Saturday, with an opportunity being given to see the Petes in action against two fast teams.

In the morning one of the crucial games in the Central League series will be played, when Cobourg, the League leaders, will be here. Derry, Cobourg's crack right-hander, is being saved for this game, and the battle promises to be a pitching duel between Derry and Heckman, who will do the gunning for the Petes. Cobourg just nosed the Petes out on the 24th of May, winning 3 to 2 in Cobourg, but the Solomon gang hope to reverse the verdict on the holiday morning. A record crowd may be expected, for not only will the Peterborough fans be out in droves, but there will be a flock of Cobourg rooters, the Lakeshore town being wild with excitement over the form shown by their team this year. The game is called for 10.15 sharp, and Messrs. Rosevear and Butler are billed to officiate.

For the afternoon the Petes have been fortunate enough to secure the fast St. Andrew's team of Toronto as the attraction. The Saints are leading the Toronto Senior League, and they have a real ball club, who will be worthy exponents of senior baseball as it is played in the Queen City. The game should be a worthwhile struggle, and will provide the fans with an afternoon's recreation. The game is called for 3.15 o'clock.

Football

The following Quaker players have been selected for the Charity Cup Semi-Final with the Canadian Woollens tomorrow evening:—

Goal, Griffin; Backs, G. Young, R. Willshaw; Halves, Hepburn, Clarke, G. Logan; Forwards, Russell, Croft, J. Willshaw W. Logan, Foster. Reserves, F. Gandy Meyette.

The game is to be played at King Edward Park Kick off 6.30 p.m. The Quakers are requested to be at the grounds at 6.15 o'clock.

LACROSSE NOTES.

The Midget Lacrosse League will hold a meeting at the Y.M.C.A. on Friday of this week, June 30th, at 6 o'clock. All boys who were under 16 years of age on May 1, 1922, are eligible to play in this league. Fifteen players are allowed to a team, each team to have a field captain. Some sticks will be furnished by the Peterborough Lacrosse League for games only. Be on hand and have your names and captains ready.

JUVENILES ASK DATES AT PARK

For the second time within a month, the managers of the teams in the juvenile series have called off League games scheduled to be played at Riverside Park. The juveniles gave up their first date to permit a football game being played at the ball lot, and are giving away another date to-day to meet the convenience of the lacrosse club. No fault is found with the Park Committee, who have a big problem on their hands, and are doing good work. The point is made, however, by the juvenile section that it is now up to other clubs to lend a hand, and give such assistance to the Park Committee as will permit them to give the juveniles a number of playing dates at the park. Those interested in the juveniles are holding a meeting on Thursday evening to draft a new schedule of games and to arrange for the contests being played at Riverside Park.

CANADIAN WOOLLENS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

General meeting

A general meeting of the Canadian Woollens' Athletic Association will be held at 8 o'clock to-night in the Chamber of Commerce. All members are requested to be present.

The following lacrosse team has been selected to play against the Quaker Oats to-morrow night in the King Edward Park in the semi-final game for the Charity Cup: Williams, Reid, Quinlan, Monkman, Hillman, Rappe, Shuttle, Gaskell, Chambers, Roberts and Downs. Reserve, Kippax and Griffin. Kick-off at 6.30 p.m.

Little Lessons For the Golfer

Start the club back on its swing with the left wrist. Let it go back on a straight line for a few inches. Then it starts up. When it has reached the top of the stroke both wrists wil be directly under the club shaft with the club gripped in the fingers only—not in the palms. When the club has ben taken up in the proper way the toe of the club, at the top of the stroke, will point directly to the ground. Do not allow it to dip too much, as doing so indicates you have lost control of the club at the top of the stroke. The club must be so gripped that you feel a sense of mastery over it, and particularly should this be felt at the top of the stroke.

One of the common faults of the swing is the recoil. This player has failed to pivot and follow through; his weight is still on his right leg; it should be on the left—poor timing; no dstance obtaned.

The big game tonight at Central Park is between the King George School team and the Colonial Weaving, at 6.30. Both teams are playing good ball and a fast game is expected.

SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT

Indians at Capitol Interest in Dances.

For the last half of this week the Capitol offers an act that is outside the usual beaten path of Vaudeville entertainment in the Three Yaquis. These direct decendants of the original Indians who inhabitated North America long before the white men discovered it, offer a sketch entitled "On the Reservation."

During the action of the sketch a novel number is put on by Princess Fawn Eyes. It is called the Yaqui Dance and its different movements are taken from the ancient ceremony of the earliest inhabitants of this continent of which there is any record. With the act is Augila Blanco (white Eagle), the only prince of the Yaquis on the American stage today. He is the pioneer singing Indian before the footlights and contributes no small part to the comedy, music and dancing which is interwoven through the unusual performance.

FISH DESTROYED IN POWER PLANT

Cut to Pieces by Wheels They Menace Health

An unusually large number of fish have been cut to pieces in the power plant above the city this year, according to Sanitary Inspector C. S. Stapleton. The dead fish became such a menace to public health, in his opinion, that a man was employed for four days picking up from a boat the remains, and the net result was over 1,000 pounds of dead eel, bass and lunge. Two years ago a large number of dead fish were noticed, but there have been more this year than at any time since he has been in office. The massacre is still going on, according to Mr. Stapleton. Most of the decaying remains found in the water are those of eels and have the appearance of having been put through a meat chopper.

R. L. Dobbin, waterworks superintendent, says that the fish might have been dead before they were cut to pieces in the wheels. The fact that most of the water was being converted into power would account for more fish being killed than usual. Mr. Dobbin could not suggest any way in which the fish had been killed outside of the water wheels unless they were jammed in the drive of logs now coming down. "There seems to be more fish this year," he said. "We notice a lot of dead ones coming down the river from above, so I guess the waterworks is not entirely responsible."

MRS. SUN YAT SEN

the bridge. It was only a third of a mile, but it seemed endless. Col. Bow repeatedly asked to be left to die in order that I might make better time.

As we reached the offices at last, a shell struck the bridge fair and square, destroying it with a terrible detonation.

Rebels laid seige to the offices where we took refuge. Some loyal troops nearby aided our defence, and my guards did wonders, while Col. Bow, terribly wounded, took part bravely.

At four o'clock in the afternoon, after a day of horrors indescribable, the rebels captured us. They stormed the offices and burst in the doors.

I pulled on my husband's raincoat, and Col. Bow's hat, and was not instantly recognised by the rough rebel troops who surrounded me.

So avaricious were the rebels in their search for loot that they tore from our hands the packages we were carrying, and in the resulting scramble amongst themselves, permitted us to escape.

I fled down a dark alley. Dead lay everywhere. I stumbled over the corpses of people horribly killed by shell fires. I slipped in pools of blood. Finally, I reached the countryside, my guards still beside me.

Just as we thought we were safe, an enemy patrol approached. A heap of dead bodies lay near. My guards ordered me to lie down and feign death. I threw myself on to the pile of dead and lay there.

The patrol passed without looking.

Hours later I reached a farmhouse, where I obtained a coolie woman's dress and escaped to the Christian College outside Canton.

There I met the brave Wu Ting Fang, himself near death at that time, who sought to cheer me up. He said my husband had reached a point of safety, but I was certain he had perished in those awful shambles in Canton City.

Later, hearing the booming of the guns of loyal warships, I knew he was safe, and made by way to his side.

Through all the terrible experiences, I suffered only a slight scalp wound, but there were times when I begged my guards to shoot me to save me from torture at the hands of the rebels.

IF YOU ARE BRED

You make introductions properly When introducting a man to a woman the woman's name is always spoken first. The man is presented to the woman the younger woman to the older one.

"Miss Smith, let me present Mr. Brown", is the simplest form of introduction. The woman acknowledges the introduction with a bow and repeats the name of the person presented.

SOCIETY DRAMA AT CAPITOL LAST TIME TODAY

Either you like society dramas or you don't you either want the red-blooded story of the great out-of-doors, with its thrills and furious excitement or you only want to see a roaring farce—but nobody can resist a good love story and, there has never been a more wonderful romance than the Elinor Glyn story "Beyond the Rocks" featuring Rudolphe Valentino and Gloria Swanson. It is a tale of a rarely beautiful girl who has been raised in a convent and makes her debut into society only to realize that the family fortunes are at their lowest ebb, and that an advantageous marriage is the only means of "carrying on"; she might not succumb so readily to the dure of wealth were it not for her dear, extravagant, useless father, who, generous Irish man that he is could never understand that money needed cultivation or it vanishes. Love is no respecter of persons however, and after Theodora, played by the beautiful Gloria Swanson marries the rich, middle aged colonial, she finds life strangely different from the old care-free days at home or in the convent. It is a brilliant life, taking her into exclusive London drawing rooms, and charming country houses— the elite of society is at her feet, and she is envied and admired of all her associates. A chance meeting occurs between Lord Bracondale one of the most eligible men in British society; the end is inevitable —just as a magnet, attracts steel, so do these two ardent vivid natures draw each other—their meetings are no longer chance on the part of Lord Hector, and Theodore Brown becomes the alpha and omega of his existence. The development of the plot is fascinating—intrigues are the order of the day—but the silent, devotion of Valentino's love making reminds one of the never-th-be forgotten affair, between Julio and Marguerite Laurier. But it is a play which will please people because there is nothing but fascinating wonderfully beautiful presentations of life at his best—of scenes in which youth and beauty allied to wealth rule supreme.

The feature picture presentation for the last half is Enid Bennett in 'Keeping up With Lizzie". Miss Bennett for the past three years been under direction of her husband Fred Niblo, the combination being successful in every way, and it is rumored that an Australian company, proud of the little Anzac gentlewoman, has made a tempting offer to Mr. and Mrs. Niblo to produce nictures featuring the latter in the old home.

Leo White in reply to the question: "What was your first screen play and what did you do the first day before the camera" told this interesting story: "I was first cast in a picture entitled 'In the Turkish Garden' and with me were Mary Pickford, Ethel Grandin, George Loane Tucker, King Baggott, Owen Moore Ed. Le Saint was assistant director. I couldn't help answering the director when he spoke to me and ruined a lot of film in consequence. Also I found the narrow bounds of the set very annoying."

Mr. White is an Englishman and oe of the most accomplished dancers that ever came over from the tight little isle. He is best remembered as leading man with Fritzi Scheff in "Mlle. Modiste."

AT THE ROYAL.

FILM DIRECTOR TAKES DANCE HALL SCENES WITHOUT EXPENSE.

Annual Ball of Gas House Gang is Filmed Unknown to Entertainment Promoters.

What is considered an achievement in the annals of motion picture production was brought to pass during the filming of the Associated Producers' production, "Devotion," starring Hazel Dawn, at the Amsterdam Studios, New York City.

A number of scenes in the scenario, or continuity, demanded a big mob of gangsters to attend an annual ball. The expense attached in hiring over 2,500 actors and actresses to play the parts as "extras" was staggering. Just about this time the director was informed that the Gas House gangsters were about to give their annual ball at one of the lower East Side dance halls. The director thereupon hit upon an idea.

Negotiations were made with the sponsors of the dance to have the gala affair take place free of charge on the spacious studio floor of the Amsterdam Theatre. In the meantime the director cleverly concealed a squad of camera-men at vantage points all about the studio. When the evening for the dance arrived a tremendous crowd of gangsters with their sweethearts and wives soon crowded the studio dance floor to capacity. And as they "shimmied," "Chicagoed" and swirled madly around the floor to the contagion of a jazz band, the cameras clicked thousands of feet of film. "Devotion" will be shown at the Royal Theatre last time to-night.

ALUMINUM HATS.

Aluminum cloth is a new fabric for hats. It is very soft and thin and lends itself admirably to draping. It is just another evidence of the popularity of all metal fabrics.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 28.— (Canadian Press.)—Railroad shares were under moderate selling pressure at opening of to-day's stock market, as a result of the ultimatum issued by railroad union leaders and the general list was irregularly lower. For the first time in almost two weeks, Mexican Petroleum was comparatively neglected, the opening quotation of 180 showing no change from yesterday's final price. Pan American Petroleum "A" rose one point while B shares lost that much. Union Pacific, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, General Asphalt, Iron Products, Replogle Steel and Sears Roebuck eased large fraction to one point.

Market strengthened during the first hour on renewed buying of Oils. Mexican Petroleum rose 4 points, Pan American issues became firmer and gains of one to almost 2 points were made by General Asphalt, Standard Oil of California, Cosden and several other domestic Oils. On posting of an opening rate of five per cent. for call money the list again became irregular.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, June 28.— (Canadian Press.) — Sterling exchange heavy. Demand rates Great Britain 4.39 7-8. Canadian Dollar 1 7-8 per cent. discount.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 28.—(Canadian Press.)—Initial wheat prices which varied from unchanged figures to 5-8 lower, with July 114 to 114 1-4 and September 115 1-8 to 115 1-2, were followed by a slight rally and then by material down turns all around.

After opening 1-8c. lower to 1-8 to 1-4c. up, July 62 1-2, the Corn market underwent a decided general sag. Oats started unchanged to 1-2c. higher, July 37 1-4 to 37 3-8, and later declined for all deliveries. Lower quotations on hogs weakened the provision market.

MONTREAL MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 28. —(Canadian Press.)—Brazilian again assumed leadership of local stock market this morning, being the most active stock on the list as well as one of the strongest. During late trading yesterday this issue was heavily sold and this pressure carried the price down to 44 5-8.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

TORONTO, June 28.—(Canadian Press.) — Trading on the Toronto stock exchange during this morning's session was light, with prices for the most part holding steady. Some improvement was shown in B. C. Steel 2nd pfd. and Brazilian, the former making a net gain of 1 1-4 at 31 1-4 and the latter selling 1-4 higher at 46. One lot of C.P.R. went through at 139 3-4, off 1-4 from last night. Steel of Canada was off 1-4 at 73. Toronto Rails was unchanged at 72 1-4. General Electric on odd lot sales advanced to 80 as compared with 79 1-2 last night.

TORONTO CATTLE MARKET.

TORONTO, June 28.—(Canadian Press.)—Cattle market receipts 829. Trade light. Quotations: Heavy beef steers, $8.50 to $9. Butchers' steers, choice, -8 to -8.75. Butchers' cows, medium, $3.50 to $5. Calves, $8.50 to $10 Lambs, $1450 to $1500. Hogs, selects, $14.50.

Explains Purposes of Athletic Tag Day on Saturday, July 8th.

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Sir,—May I through your columns draw the attention of the people of Peterboro to the Tag Day which the P.A.A.A. are planning for July the 8th and offer a few words of explanation.

The purpose of the Tag Day is to raise funds to assist in carrying on the activities during the summer months and to try and close over year, which is Sept. 30 with a clean sheet.

The funds of the associations are being used for community service for the better development of the boys and girls whether they are in school or at work and or the encouragement, development and supervision of every line of sport that should be organized in our city.

A great deal of progress has already been made by the association in the various lines of sport, in Rugby, Hockey, Boxing, Indoor Baseball, Outdoor Baseball, Lacrosse, field and track events and aquatics.

The full time services of our director, Mr. Walter Smail, are being given to this work and I might add that his advice and services are available without charge to any organization in the city for the purpose of assisting in their sport or recreation whether the organization be business, religious, educatonal fraternal, sporting or otherwise.

In conclusion I would like to state the reasons that appealed to the directors in determining that a tag day for association would be appropriate.

1.—Our association is a city organization with our working motto—"Service for the boys and girls of the city".

2.—The people appreciate our work and want it continued.

3.—The services of our Director of athletics are confined almost entirely to work from which there is no revenue.

4.—We are in need of funds.

5.—We do not want to put on a membership campaign until September.

For these reasons may we hope that the public will favor the directors with a vote of confidence by everybody's helping with a small contribution.

A. W. McPHERSON,
President P.A.A.A.

WEDDING BELLS

MACKAY—VEENMAN.

A quiet wedding took place at 7 o'clock this morning at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Manse, when the Rev. Robt. Pogue united in the holy bonds of wedlock John D. Mackay and Lucy Veenman, of this city. Attendants were Mr. F. Helson and Miss Violet Veenman. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay will reside in Peterborough.

Social Calendar

Mr. Stan O'Shea, of New York City, is home, and will spend four or five weeks with his mother, Mrs. James O'Shea.

Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Corliss, of Coniston, are in the city for the Carruthers-Harvey wedding to-day.

Mrs. C. Perry, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. Perry, Jr., and Miss May Perry left to-day by motor for New York, where Mis Perry will take a post-graduate course in elocution and dancing, to supplement the course recently completed by her at the Margaret Eaton School of Expression and Literature in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Currie, of Glencoe, Dr. and Mrs. Peever, of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. McMurtry and Miss McMurtry, of Midland, are guests at the Carruthers-Harvey wedding to-day.

The friends of little Anna Lynch, of Otonabee, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and the Misses Harvey, of Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, of Detroit, Dr. and Mrs. Pullyblank, of Camrose, and Mr. and Mrs. Mackay, of Edmonton, are among the guests from out of town attending the Carruthers-Harvey wedding to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Penfound, and Mr. Roy Penfound, of Lindsay, are in town for the wedding of Miss Muriel Harvey to Mr. G. C. Carruthers to-day.

Mrs. J. J. Lynch, Park Street, has returned from Buffalo, where she attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Edward O'Hara, which took place from the home of Mrs. O'Hara's daughter, Mrs. Wm. Bliven, to Rochester for interment.

Mrs. Alex. Henthorne, of Buffalo, N.Y., is visiting friends in the city.

A very successful and well-attended garden party was held last evening at the home of Mr. Alex. Fitzgerald, Hunter street east under the auspices of the Women's Guild of St. Luke's church, with the president, Mrs. George Curtis, acting as general convenor. Sales of home made cooking and candy, of ice-cream and flowers and a gypsy booth were superintended by different member of the church; the young ladies of the A.Y.P.A. having the flowers and candy, the young men of the same society, in charge of the ice-cream. An orchestra provided by Mr. Thompson, the church organist, rendered enjoyable music throughout the evening.

The art rooms at the Conservatory of Music were filled last evening for the pleasing piano and vocal recital given by the pupils of Miss Florence Scott. The pupils acquitted themselves admirably, in a manner that reflected great credit on the careful tuition of their teacher. The programme was as follows: Piano solo (a) Little Prince—Krogman. (b). Vesper Bells—Krogman, Jack Comstock. Piano solo, (a) In the Garden—Gurlitt. (b) Easy Melodious Study—Zilcher, Ruth Sutton. Vocal solo (a) When I Come Home—Squire, (b) White Rose — Noel, Miss Helena Heffernan. Piano solo—Mendelssohn's "Consolation." Harry Westbrook. Piano solo, Gurlitt's Waltz in C—Jean McKone. Vocal, (a) Friend o' Mine—Sanderson, (b), Forever with the Lord — Gounod, Mr. Wilbur Clemett. Piano solo—La Jeunesse, Arthur Westbrook. Piano solo, Bachman's "La Cigale,"—Harry Westbrook. Vocal solo, (a) Dorel's "Calling Me Home to You," (b) Noel's "Where Dream-Flowers Grow"—Miss Helena Heffernan. Piano solo, (a) Harvest Home. (b) First (Allegro) Movement, Sonatina in C—Kuhlau, Evelyn Armstrong. Miss Florence Scott played all the accompaniments.

A pleasing feature of the program was the presentation by Miss Scott to Arthur Westbrook of the Conservatory Class pin, won by him for selling the largest number of tickets for Conservatory Closing Exercises. The recital closed with the National Anthem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGregor and daughter, Lillian, with Mrs. A. E. Hammond and daughter, arrived home on Monday afternoon after a seventeen days' motor trip through Western Ontario.

The many friends of Mr. R. K. Corneil, first baseman of the G.T.R. baseball team, will be sorry to learn that he sustained a fractured ankle in Monday night's practice.

Mademoiselle Mathilde Masson is visiting her mother, Madame Masson, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. LaPlante, Lock Street. Mdlle. Masson, who has been attending the Convent at Sillery, Quebec, for some years, has just graduated with "grande distinction" at examinations in vocal music held by the Laval University, which is affiliated with the Convent at Sillery.

Dr. and Mrs. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Graham and Mr. Maxwell Graham, Rev. and Mrs. Follett and Miss Follett, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Knox are among the Toronto guests at the Carruthers-Harvey wedding to-day.

An enjoyable recital of the piano pupils of Miss Norma Moore, A.C.A.M., was held in the Sunday School-room of Park Street Baptist Church last evening. There was a large and appreciative audience, and the performance of the tiny boys and girls proved very interesting in their accurate and well-balanced numbers. Those taking part were: Fern Rahmel, Eleanor Gibson, Irene Staziker, Chrissie Milby, Geraldine Campbell, Muriel Thomas, Lillian Staziker, Dorothy Goheen, Marion Armstrong, Eileen Rose, Isabel Archibald, Ethel Allen, Ena Batley, May Wilson, Nellie Austin, Ansell Taylor, Rayborn Cook, Lionel Doughty, Winston Holder, Clifford Pearcy, Willie Austin, Reginald Howden, Charles Allen, Willie Warren, Jack Watson, Geoffrey Steele, George Tranter. Miss M. Wright contributed several pleasing vocal solos.

A party of lady golfers motored to Lindsay yesterday for a competition with Lindsay ladies, which was followed by tea on the Club house verandah. Mesdames J. A. Aylmer, W. H. Hill, C. R. Widdifield, R. Grant, R C. Grandy, G. R. Langley, C G. Graham, the Misses Nora Hatton, Dorothy Hill, M. Rush, Seabourne Hamilton, and Rosamond Huycke comprised the party.

Captain Cecil W. Armstrong has left Peterborough for his home in Saskatoon. While here he visited Lindsay, and was presented with the sword of the late General Sir Sam Hughes, K.C.B., by Lady Hughes. Capt. Armstrong is an old Peterborough boy.

Rev. Robt. Pogue, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, attended the Presbytery meeting held in Cobourg yesterday, and was one of the four ministerial commissioners presenting reports of the recent General Assembly held in Winnipeg. Mr. Robt. Harrison of this city, also attended the meeting.

The many friends of Mrs. S. Thomas, 519 Chamberlen street, will be pleased to learn that she has successfully undergone an operation in Nicholls Hospital for appendicitis.

A party consisting of Misses Mary Lonergan, Annie Simons, Anna Gallegher, Florence, Loretto and Frances Murray, Mesrs. E. Picard, J. Fitzgerald, C. Legendre, Robert and Dan Leonard went to Lakefield on Sunday, and made a second trip last night, to augment the choir of Lakefield Church, on the occasion of the Forty Hours' Devotion, held there by Father Meagher.

A vocal recital by some of the pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Allan Park will be held this evening at the Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. John McPherson, Misses Hazel Huffman, Kathleen Benson, and Irene Chambers are atending the Missionary Summer School at Whitby, Ontario.

Mr. Leo W. Copp, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Copp, Antrim Street, who has severed his connection with Mary Street School in Oshawa, where he has been teaching the entrance class since last February, was presented by his class with an Ever-sharp pencil and an address, which eulogised in warm terms his qualities as a teacher and leader of sports.

ON THE RAPIDS OF ILL HEALTH and over the falls of disease and death many people drift, unconscious of the fact that CHIROPRACTIC, that marvelous new discovery of science, may prevent such a tragedy.

WONDERFUL BUT SIMPLE

The very simplicity of Chiropractic makes for accuracy. It is because Chiropractic is exact, specific and definite that Chiropractors achieve such a high percentage of results. By examining your spine the Chiropractor determines which vertebrae are out of alignment and causing an interruption in the flow of the nerve impulses from the brain to the tissues. He then adjusts these offending vertebrae back to normal position to allow NATURE to get her forces to every part of the body. When this is done health will be the result.

ELECTRIC MINE FOR AMBUSHING FREE STATERS

Laid in Centre of Dublin Roadway Outside of the Hotel Held by Rebel Forces.

LATE IRISH NEWS

LONDON, June 29. — (Canadian Press.)— A Central News despatch from Dublin to-day reported numbers of the rebels in possession of some buildings in that city, including Moran's Hotel. They are all armed with revolvers and rifles, the message declares, and have an electric mine laid in the centre of the roadway outside the hotel in Talbot street. The cable is visible from the mine into the hotel, the correspondent says, the intention evidently being to ambush any Free State forces that attempt to renew yesterday's attack.

Fighting Continues

LONDON, June 29.— (Canadian Press.)—Fighting in streets of Dublin is increasing in intensity, says a Central New despatch from the Irsh capital at this hour. Irregulars on the out skirts of the besieged Four Courts district are receiving reinforcements the message says. Three civilians were killed in todays fighting, bringing, the total number of dead to nineteen.

APPEAL FOR RALLY.

DUBLIN, June 29. — (Canadian Press).—An impassioned appeal for all citizens of the Irish Republic to rally to its support in this supreme test of the nation's destiny is contained in a proclamation issued shortly after midnight by the Irish Army Insurgents, who are holding Four Courts against the Free State forces.

A NATION-WIDE RAILWAY STRIKE IN U.S. ORDERED

Four Hundred Thousand Rail Men to Quit Work on Saturday Next, July 1.

A MOMENTOUS DAY

CHICAGO, June 29.— (Canadian Press)—Strike orders signed by six craft presidents of the railroad shopmen organization were sent out to-day to the general chairman representing 400,000 men authorizing a strike at 10 a.m. July 1st, on all railroads and Pullman shops in the United States.

First Actual Step

The first actual step toward a rail strike of railroad workers in protest against the decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board was taken last night, when J. W. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Dropforgers and Helpers, sent a telegram to members of his craft, numbered among shop workers, authorizing a cessation of work at 10 a.m. Saturday, July 1st, according to news stories published here to-day. Workers in Pullman shops were included in the orders.

The impending walkout makes Saturday a momentous day in the railroad world. On that date a $400,000,000 cut in freight rates ordered by that Inter-State Commerce Commission becomes effective simultaneously with a slash of $135,000,000 from the wage of Railway Workers ordered by the United States Railroad Labor Board.

The pay of shopmen was cut $60,000,000.

ENQUIRY BY BOARD.

CHICAGO, June 29.—(Canadian Press).—The United States Railway Labor Board to-day cited the national officers of six shop craft unions, railway executives now meeting here, and officers of four other railroad unions, to appear before the board to-morrow afternoon in an enquiry into the "threatened interruption of traffic."

Say Decision To-Day

DETROIT, June 29.—(Canadian Press).—Decision whether to call a strike of approximately four hundred thousand railroad maintainence of waymen in the United States probably will be made late today, E. F. Grable, International President of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, announced.

MUST RUN A DUST BARRAGE ON PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY

Residents of Bailieboro and Centreville Complain That Contractors Have Not Oiled Road Through Their Villages—An Intolerable Nuisance

Residents of Bailieboro and Centreville are disappointed at the contractors of the Provincial Highway not having proceeded with the oiling of the road through the villages, where the dust nuisance is greatest. According to one story the oil was brought on the scene and taken away again for no apparent reason.

The villagers complain that the dust is of such a penetrating nature and shows such a reluctance to return to its natural abiding place that it is impossible for them to sit on the front verandah, and even a journey to the post office means that they must run a barrage of impenetrable dust with disastrous effects upon summer clothing. In the opinion of the villagers the sections of the highway through these places should first have been oiled. The oiled part etxends now five miles out frem the city, and the villages farther south are anxiously watching the progress of the apparatus that will relieve them a nuisance put up with since the advent of the horseless cart.

POLICE OFFICER BADLY MAULED

Schwerdt Family Alleged to Have Waged Battle With Constable Bromley

In executing his duties last evening Graham Bromley, the police constable who handles the motor cycle, was rather badly mauled in a brawl with the Schwerdt family at the corner of Reid and Smith streets.

The police officer at 8 p.m., acting on complaints, of which the last was received yesterday, warned some ten youngsters who were on the street that they must cease playing base ball on the road, as the practice, accompanied by broken window panes and tramped flower beds, was objectionable to some residents. Frank Schwerdt, according to the police, resented the interference of the mounted police in the sporting life of the district, and he called the constable names that are not in vogue in polite society and that will not be tolerated by the police. Bromley went to arrest Schwerdt, who became violent and called for help. The entire family flocked to his rescue, and the officer was soon hopelessly outnumbered. Details of the battle are lacking, but in some way Bromley reached a telephone and sent a distress signal to headquarters. A bevy of policemen were soon on the scene, and summons were made out against the family, while Frank, who the police say was the most violent and led the attack, was placed under arrest and detained during the night.

Faced Charges.

To-day in the police court he faced charges of disorderly conduct and obstructing P. C. Bromley in executing his arrest. J. O'Brien, the family's solicitor in the case, said he thought one charge would cover the affair, but the Magistrate stood by them as they were drawn up. Conrad Schwerdt, the father, who is stone deaf, had to lean far over the bench to hear the charge of disorderly conduct read out to him. Charles Schwerdt and Peter Schwerdt were charged with obstructing P. C. Bromley in executing the arrest. Pleas of not guilty were entered in all the cases, and trial was held over till Friday, July 7. Bail of $1,000 was put up in each case by the father, who Mr. O'Brien said had lived in the city many years.

Frank Schwerdt had his hand bandaged to-day, but he appeared to be the only casualty amongst the participants. Bromley was in court smiling broadly, and evidently bore no malice towards the family which it is alleged attacked him in such a grievous manner.

Detroit Hospital Suspends Nurses With Bobbed Hair

DETROIT, Mich., June 29.— (Canadian Press.)— Indefinitely suspended until their hair grows long again.

That is the punishment meted out to student nurses at Providence Hospital who had the temerity to bob their hair flapper fashion in direct violation of the rules of the hospital.

The young women are considering to-day their sentence, and endeavoring to figure out just how long it will take their hair to reach the "professional length and coiffure" demanded by the hospital authorities.

IRISH SITUATION WILL NOT ADJUST ITSELF FOR YEARS

Such is the Opinion of the Marquis of Northampton Before Leaving For England.

(Canadian Press.)

QUEBEC, June 29.— "The Irish situation will not right itself for many years, and the brutal assassination of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson has served to make the feeling more bitter," said the Marquis of Northampton in an interview before sailing for England on the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Scotland, in company with the Marchioness. "The majority of the Irish people desire to maintain connection with Great Britain," he added, "and the idea of a Republic was absolutely unreasonable."

The Marquis spent three days in Quebec to observe the points of interest, with the Marchioness, and said he was delighted with his trip across Canada from Vancouver to Quebec, by the Canadian Pacific Railway, and was vastly interested in agricultural methods throughout the western provinces. He cultivates from 4,000 to 5,000 acres of land himself, the remaining 12,000 acres of his Northamptonshire estate being let out.

"The extra ordinary rate of expansion throughout Canada is what impressed me the most," he stated. "Farming methods in the inexhaustible west are entirely different from those followed in England. Everything is done on such a huge scale."

He then pointed out that very intensive farming pursued in Great Britain during the war was not being kept up, and that districts then under cultivation had gone back. The government promised to subsidize wheat, but could not keep its word.

Touching on the political situation the Marquis said that Lloyd George was the world's greatest statesman.

A feature of the saloon passengers was the large number of prominent Americans from the principal cities of the U.S. who have chosen the St. Lawrence route for their trips to Europe on account of the sail down river and the scenic effects of its north and south shores and surrounding country, together with the short time by this route of only three days out of sight of land.

THREE INDIANS SENTENCED TO REFORMATORY

They Each Pleaded Guilty to Breaking Into Seven Premises up the Lakes.

PROTECT COTTAGERS

In the hope pricipally that it would emphasize the rights of cottage owners to the protection of the law and impress upon Indians and dwellers around the lakes the seriousness of the too-common offence of cottage breaking, Magistrate O. A. Langley sentenced the three Indians who admitted breaking into seven places at the lakes to the Ontario Reformatory yesterday afternoon. He considered what J. O'Brien stressed, that Stafford Jacobs of Curve Lake reserve who is only seventeen years of age, was only implicated in two of the robberies, and he gave him the shortest sentence of not less than six months or more than two years less a day. Russell Taylor and Norman Marsden of Scugog reserve were given sentences of not less than one year or more than two. On behalf of their solicitor I. F. Weldon of Lindsay, J. O'Brien represented the older pair.

Burglarized Cottage

Indicating the number involved in the robberies at the lakes a young man of seventeen from Havrey township, publication of whose name would prejudice their case, the Crown said, pleaded guilty in court this morning to entering the cottage of V. W. Lancaster at Pigeon Lake and was sentenced to a term of not less than six months or more than two years in the reformatory. The actual loss of goods the Crown Attorney said was more than the stated amount of $100, and very little was recovered outside of the typewriter, theft of which, J. O'Brien counsel for accused took to indicate "a literary taste". The Crown Attorney charged that the young man actually wrecked the home and took away everything he could. He was particularly lenient towards groceries, which on account of the place being a summer boarding place were stored away in abundance. The robberies took place in March and entrance was gained by smashing a window. The typewriter was sold to Eastwoods Hotel at Buckhorn, and the purchasers have had to give it up it was stated.

The young man had rather prepossessing looks and the magistrate referred to this fact, in addition to his extreme youth. The sentence imposed the Magistrate said gave him a chance by good behaviour at the Reformatory of release after six month's time.

TO LAY CORNER STONE NEW TEMPLE TONIGHT

Is Under Erection by Local S. A. Corps

This evening at seven o'clock, the corner stone of the new Young People's Temple, erected by the local branch of the Salvation Army, will be formally laid with appropriate ceremonial, by Colonel McMillan, of Toronto, chief secretary for the Army in Canada, with Mayor W. H. Taylor and other prominent citizens present. The Army Band and Songsters' Brigade will render special music for the occasion.

To help on with the good work of the completion of this building, which will act as a community centre in many ways, some thirteen thousand dollars is needed. Everyone can assist ,and all donations, from twenty-five cents up, are welcome. Any sum, no matter how small, may be accompanied by a brief message, which will be placed in the box beneath the corner stone, and sealed "forever and ever," to commemorate as long as the box and its contents may last, the good wishes of those who helped to erect the new building.

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE RED ARROW GIVE UP THE GHOST

Authorize an Assignment Under the Bankruptcy Act — Directors Lacked Quorum.

MET LAST NIGHT

At a meeting of shareholders of Red Arrow Tires, Limited, held in the Assembly Hall of the Public Library last evening, it was decided to make an assignment under the Bankruptcy Act. W. R. Morris was named as official assignee. J. J. Turner, president of the company, was in the chair and presented what information he had to the seventy-five shareholders presents. Mr. F. D. Kerr was present in an unofficial capacity, and his judgment and counsel was of material benefit to the meeting. In opening the meeting, Mr. Turner outlined the high spots in the company's meteoric career, and concluded with the intimation that if the company made an assignment in the regular way it would enable the shareholders to get some idea of the financial standing of the company. From all appearances it is hopelessly bankrupt. The board of directors has long ceased to function, due, it was claimed, to the refusal of Joseph Rath, of Buffalo, a director, to "sit in" on the Board and the resignation of others. This left the directors without a quorum, and in this way they lacked authority to transact business on behalf of the company. The Buffalo man gave as his reason for withdrawing his support from the company, that he objected to the attitude of certain Canadian financial papers and also found the citizens here unreceptive.

The financing of the company rested with the Peterborough Securities Company, which, so far as the directors were aware, consisted of John Stockdale. According to Mr. Turner, the directors were to receive so much money each month from the Securities Company in addition to weekly statements of the progress of events. Two statements were read to the meeting. These were received from the Peterborough Securities Company in January last. "We made repeated requests for additional statements but could not get them," said Mr. Turner.

The Sherbrooke Plant.

It was thought that the opening of the Sherbrooke plant would help the local situation and get the company into production. This plan did not materialize, and the Sherbrooke deal followed in the wake of the local situation. Mr. Turner said that Stockdale ceased selling stock for the Red Arrow Company after the Sherbrooke deal fell through. The president also related a conversation he had with Stockdale, in which the latter had intimated that certain Montreal interests were prepared to put up fifty thousand dollars to get the local plant going. This plan did not get beyond the conversation stage. When W. H. Bradburn voiced his objection to the method of financing employed by the company, Mr. Turner replied that the Peterborough Securities Company did not live up to their agreement. Efforts had been made to get John Stockdale and Charles H. Walters to come to Peterborough and discuss the situation with the directors but these had failed.

Safe in Montreal.

"Mr. Stockdale is safer in Montreal than he would be here," observed one shareholder.

It was pointed out that the only known assets of the company is the partly completed plant on George Street, some office fixtures and whatever money Stockdale might have belonging to the Red Arrow Company.

In reply to J. W. Worth, the president said the Red Arrow directors had a record of three hundred and nineteen shareholders who had received their certificates, but he did not know how many more subscribers to the stock there were who had not received their certificates.

Mr. Turner agreed with Mr. Worth that it was useless to expect Rath, Stockdale and Walters to come to Peterborough.

One shareholder said he would be satisfied to have as a souvenir the silver spade or one of the two tires that are on display in the front window of the Red Arrow Company.

The directors received from the Peterborough Securities Company less than thirty thousand dollars. Money raised locally was not used to finance the Sherbrooke plant.

On motion of J. T. Braund and R. Lees, the meeting carried, by a vote of 34 to 27, a resolution authorizing an assignment under the Bankruptcy Act.

METER ALL WATER USED IN FACTORY

System to Be Used in Westclox Building

Work on the new Western clock factory on Armour's Hill is progressing satisfactorily to the resident engineer, F. H. Leleu, and when the work on the boiler house is completed the contractors will concentrate on the main building. The walls of the boiler house are being poured, the coal bins have been finished, the framework around the column is under way and a large number of columns ready to be poured. Forty men were working yesterday.

The contractors have found difficulty in securing small-sized gravel. The product of the pit at Downer's Corners which they have been using is too large, according to Mr. Leleu, for the columns and finer work, and the contractors are in a debacle, for unless a small-sized gravel can be secured, it will be necessary to instal a crusher.

An agreement has been reached by the company, the underwriters and the Utilities Commission, whereby all the water used in the factory will be metered. When the utilities Commission first made this demand the fire underwriters protested on the ground that it would restrict the flow of water. The company raised some objection on account of the cost of installing a meter but the matter has been finally settled by the underwriters consenting to a form of meter that offers the least restriction and the company have agreed on the understanding that if they will build a pit for the meter at a cost estimated at $800 the Utilities Commission will rent them the meter at a nominal sum. The new factory will, as a result, be the first plant in the city to have every drop of water used measured and paid for accordingly; and to some extent, on whether their system works satisfactorily or not will depend the demands of the Commission upon the other manufacturers of this city.

Ontario Leading In Population Can. Provinces

OTTAWA, June 29.—(Canadian Press.—Canada's) total population up to June 1st was 8,788,483.

This is the final figure issued to-day of the sixth census recently taken.

Of the provinces Ontario leads the way with a population of 2,933,662.

HE DOUBTS DELORME IS MENTALLY INCOMPETENT

Evidence of Dr. D. D. McTaggart, Professor at Magill.

MONTREAL, June 29.—(Canadian Press).—The first suggestion of doubt that Adelard Delorme is a hopeless mental incompetent was made this morning by Dr. D. D. McTaggart, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence at McGill University, and joint autopsysic at the Montreal Coroner's court.

"While I am not alienist," declared Dr. McTaggart, in prefacing his opinion, "I have taken up mental diseases from the standpoint of an individual's criminal responsibility. All alienists are of the opinion that Delorme suffers from moral degeneracy. I believe that he has been affected by his maternal and paternal heredity. Alienists have decided him as a man in whom ego is very pronounced. Examination shows that his morality is of a type that is very frequently present in cases of hereditary insanity. The other point is that of his intelligence."

Mr. J. C. Walsh, K.C., M.P., Crown prosecutor, asked for Mr. McTaggart's opinion as to the state of Delorme's mind at the present time, to which the witness replied that it appeared to him that a man who had completed his classical and theological course could not be absolutely lacking in intelligence.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

If we followed the custom of the Laplanders, it is probable long engagements would become popular.

Whenever a suitor calls on his fiance he brings along a bottle of brandy for the girl's father.

And even there, where prohibition is unknown, the father sometimes purposely postpones the wedding a year or two.

EXTRADITION LAW FOR THE RICH MEN CHIEFS DECLARED

Parties Wronged Must Have Sufficient Wealth to Put Up a Bond.

IN CONVENTION.

VICTORIA, B.C., June 29 (Canadian Press). — The extradition treaty between the U. S. and Canada is more or less class legislation in that "if the parties who have been wronged have sufficient wealth to put up a bond, for the expense of the return of the fugitive from justice, the Attorney-General's Department will act upon an application for extradition," declared President Daniel Thompson, of Windsor, Ont., in his address at the opening of the eighteenth annual convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada here yesterday.

He also criticised the Ontario Parole Act, claiming that in certain cases prisoners of a rather desperate character had been released too soon, and without notification to the police chiefs.

Replying to an address of welcome, President Daniel Thompson said:

"We realise the difficulties we have to contend with, and we will have done our duty only when we have done our best."

GHOST ON STAGE.

Mysterious Mary Ellen Enters Stage Career to Make Money to Build New House.

PICTOU, N.S., June 29.—(Canadian Press.)—Mary Ellen MacDonald, Caledonia Mills, Antigonish county, mentioned in connection with a series of mysterious fires and events which last winter drove her and her parents from their home and brought about an investigation by Dr. Franklyn Pearce, New York, arrived here to-day to commence a proposed stage tour of Canada and the United States. Mary Ellen, when interviewed, said she wished to make enough money to build a new house. She did not want people to think she caused mysterious fires. "The fires were caused by the spirits of another world," the girl said. Mary Ellen who will be sixteen in August, stated that she wished enough education "to be able to read and write those things she can do just a little." Coming here from her home to-day she enjoyed her first automobile ride and for the first time saw trains, tram cars and steamships.

Forces of Rory O'Connor Bombarded All Day Long

Provisional Government Attacked Stronghold of Irregulars at 4 O'clock in the Morning.

BUSINESS AS USUAL.

DUBLIN, June 29 (Canadian Press). — The battle between the Republicans and the Provisional Free State forces continued all night, and firing was still proceeding vigorously at eight o'clock this morning.

The bombing of Four Courts continued at irregular intervals throughout the hours of darkness, and morning came with the besieged insurgents still in occupation.

The list of casualties is not yet available, but it is estimated that at least fifty have been killed or wounded.

STOP PASSENGER TRAINS.

DUBLIN, June 29 (Canadian Press).—The Provisional Free State Government has ordered that no passenger trains shall enter Dublin.

Freight traffic will be uninterrupted, and passengers may leave the city, but no influx from the country will be permitted.

This seems to point to an apprehension that Rory O'Connor's forces might be supplemented by the arrival of his followers from the provinces, in some parts of which the insurgents have strong support.

COUP BY FREE STATERS.

BELFAST, June 29 (Canadian Press). — The Free State troops yesterday caried out a coup on the main Dublin road beyond Drogheda, capturing three of the principal officers of the Dundalk Irregular troops, Commandants P. J. McKenna, Michael Donnelly, and John McCurl.

DUBLIN, June 29 — (Canadian Press). —The Provisional Governmen, once it decided to suppress the revolt of the irregulars, acted immediately and took efficiently all the usual war measures. It is handling the situation entirely alone with out any assistance from British troops, who are still in garrison in Dublin.

The Government is controlling the movements of the public firmly, but with a minimum of interference in the ordinary life of the city. Virtually the only inconveniences suffered up to the present are suspension of telephone services, restriction of train services and temporary interruption of the mails.

A feature of the operations yesterday was that even within a short distance of the scene of the fighting business proceded normally, and though in the afternoon there was some slackening of the traffic in the streets, a visitor might have not ed nothing unusual beyond the sound of artillery and the rattle of rifle fire at intervals, often in unexpected places.

Citizens lined the quays and bridg es to watch the battle, and a large holiday, boatload of excurionists from the Isle of Man watched the spectacle.

Military activitiy was apparent from midnight; from that time military movements were continuous. The Four Courts district was cordoned and the occupants were clear ed away from the houses facing the Courts on the opposite side of the river, to make way for regular Free State troops. At four o'clock in the morning when firing announe ed that Rory O'Connor, leader of the insurgents, had ignored the Government ultimatum, nobody in central Dublin could sleep. The noise of successive fusillades carried far in the calm night and all realized from the direction of the sound that the long-postponed attack on Four Courts had begun.

About eight o'clock in the morning, there was a long lull, and the hasty conclusion was that all was over. But by ten o'clock firing again became active. A breach was early made in the wall of the Courts but so far as the spectators were able to observe no very serious dam age was done, and the bombardment slackened again, to be resumed from time to time throughout the day.

Two 18-pounders were employed by the Free State regular troops with high explosives and delayed fuse, in order to minimize the risk of setting the building on fire with its valuable documents and historic archives of centuries.

By noon the irregulars had aban doned Orange Hall, which they seized in the morning. The hall was in flames, but the firemen had the blaze out in twenty minutes. Nobody saw the irregulars leave the hall, but their new quarters were speedily chosen; it was found that they had lodged themselves and were preparing for further defense in Moran's Hotel and other hotels adjoining, and the junction of Gardiner and Talbot Streets. Later they took over other hotels on the opposite side of the river.

Dublin Brigade

The rumor spread that they had called up the whole Dublin Brigade which a few months ago displayed itself in massed battalions to listen to address by General Rory O'Connor and General Liam Mellowe when they broke away from their comrades of the Beggar's Bush com mand. But if such order for mobilization was given, it would be virtually impossible, in the face of Government precautions to execute it. Official troops were found all over the city at strategic points and at most of the street corners. All were very civil and well-behaved and friendly with the public, but obviously on the lookout for suspected persons.

The temper of the irregulars was manifested twice during the day in attacks on official cars or lorries, one being fired on in Camden Street and another, containing officers, on the Leeson Street Bridge. Three of the officers in the latter car and two privates were wounded. One of these officers, named Mandeville, was wounded in the side and the leg. He is a civil engineer and holds an appointment in this capacity at Beggar's Bush, with rank of colonel commandant.

Rory O'Connor issued a manifesto, intended to recall memories of Easter Week, when Sinn Fein troops under command of Eamon J. Duggan, now Home Secretary, were bombarded in Four Courts by British troops. But the complete absence of British troops on this occasion, destroyed the parallel, and the belief is generally expressed that Rory O'Connor does not really intend to hold out for any great length of time. The determination of the Irish Government, backed by the electorate, to govern is more strongly expressed by the Free State officials than ever, and their appeals for public support have been cordially received.

SUGGESTIONS ARE RECEIVED TO HELP THE UNEMPLOYED

F. N. McCrea Says Healthy Men Should Not Be Out of Work in Canada.

OTHER VIEWS.

OTTAWA, June 29. (Canadian Press.) — While Parliament has prorogued without any legislative action being taken with respect to the unemployment problem, letters from Parliamentarians containing replies to the circular sent out jointly by Tom Moore, President of the Trades and Labour Congress of Canada, and C. G. MacNeil, chairman of the legislative committee of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, continue to pour in. The circular asked the members of parliament to express an opinion of what the government should do in regard to providing labour for the unemployed.

F. N. McCrea, Liberal member for Sherbrooke, in his reply holds that there is no need of unemployment in Canada by people who are strong and healthy and in possession of all their faculties but believes that the government should take care of the unemployed next winter and prevent them from starving or suffering from cold or hunger. Mr. McCrea believes however that the unemployed should take care of themselves, and should be given to distinctly understand that they must do so. "The sooner they realize that," Mr. McCrea stated, and "cease depending on the government when they are stranded the better it will be for themselves and the country as well."

E. J. Garland, Progressive member for Bow River, says he urged in the Commons that it was the duty of the government to make preparations to meet unemployment conditions next winter and suggested the holding of an industrial congress this summer.

W. G. McQuarrie, Conservative member for New Westminster, holds that the government is derelict in its duty, and that steps should be taken now to institute effective measures to meet the unemployment situation.

T. L. Church, Conservative member for North Toronto, says the Federal Government should take up the matter at once. He urges the carrying out of public works such as new post offices and custom houses, the continuation of the housing problem, limitation of immigration, the carrying out of a ship-building program on the great lakes and closer cooperation and coordination between the different governments. Mr. Church is in favor of the government continuing cash grants to municipalities next winter.

INJURED IN WRECK.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 28. (Canadian Press.) — Two persons may die and many are said to have been injured as the result of the wreck of the Chicago flyer, a Rock Island train running from Chicago, which ran into the ditch 15 miles east of here at Alvo. Engineer and fireman were probably fatally injured

WHAT TO SERVE

At the wedding breakfast, luncheon or dinner?

That's only one of the intricate problems that must be solved by the July bride or by those planning the details of her wedding.

And it's a question rarely solved correctly.

Only those with the most comprehensive knowledge both of the culinary art and of social usage can plan a nuptial feast that's appetizing and at the same time meets the demands of propriety.

You can be one of those favored few. For Sister Mary, whose famous recipes and cooking hints appear daily in the Examiner has written five articles on wedding menus—especialy for you!

Read her first article today. It's on another page of this issue.

FOREIGNER'S MONEY IN RUSSIA IS RESTRICTED

MOSCOW, June 29.—(Associated Press)—Foreigners and Russians entering Soviet Russia may bring with them foreign or gold money to the value of 250 rubles, but any surplus wil be changed by the customs officials at the frontier into Soviet paper money at the official rate, according to a new order of the commissarist of finance.

POLICE ROUND UP THE MURDERERS OF DR. RATHENAU

Men Are Said to Be Members of the Monarchist Organization.

SEVERAL ARRESTED.

BERLIN, June 29. —(Canadian Press.)— The police officially announce that the murderers of Dr. Walter Ratheneau, Foreign Minister, were Ernest Werner Techow, of Berlin; Fischer, alias Vogel, a Saxon, and Knauer, alias Koener or Kern, of Mecklenburg.

All the men are said to be members of the Monarchist organization, "Consul" and former members of the brigade of former president Erhardt ,who last year planned the overthrow of the Ebert Government, and whose name was mentioned in connection with the assasination of Mathias Erzberger.

The police also announce that several persons have been arrested charged with complicity in the assassination of Dr. Rathenau.

"JUSTLY FAMOUS."

NEW YORK, June 29 (Canadian Press). — The reason why the "justly famous home-made bread," served in Phillips' restaurant is so famous came out to-day.

Two detectives, after a wink which the proprietor assured them would cost $2.00, were served a golden loaf with a demountable end. In its snowy interior, they allege, nestled a half-pint bottle filled with liquor.

Phillips was held in $500.00 bail on a charge of violating the Prohibition Enforcement Law.

CANADIANS CHARGED WITH BEING NARROW.

WINNIPEG, June 29 (Canadian Press). — A charge of narrow-mindedness was levelled at Canadians generally, and at those of the Eastern Provinces particularly, by Sir William Scheooling, of London, England, in an address to the Rotary Club here to-day.

"One is struck with the limited outlook of the people of Quebec," Sir William declared, "when one lands in Canada. The outlook is not even provincial—it is parochial. As one comes West to Montreal, Toronto, and Ottawa, the point of view changes, but it always appears to be so limited."

IRISH GOVT. ACTING ON ITS OWN

Winston Churchill Says British House Is Not Responsible For Irish Bloodshed.

LONDON, June 29.—(Canadian Press.)— In the House of Commons yesterday, Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill refuted assertions made in the London papers that British pressure on the Provisional Government was responsible for the attacks on the insurgents in Dublin, Secretary Churchill declared the Provisional Government's decision "in no way arose out of the debate in this House. It arose as a result of the further aggressive and anarchic action by Rory O'Connor and the insurgents, culminating in the forcible seizure of one of the principal officers of the Irish Government.

BOTH SIDES AGREE THAT EX-PRIEST IS NOT FIT FOR TRIAL

Experts Agree That Rev. Adelard Delorme is Incurably Insane.

CASE PROGRESSING.

MONTREAL, June 29.—(Canadian Press).— Unanimity of Crown experts with the opinion of defence experts as to the mental state of Rev. Father Adelard Delorme, accused of the murder of his half-brothers Raoul Delorme, was the summing up of the evidence in the Court of King's Bench here yesterday.

Both sides gave it as their view that the accused was not in a fit mental state to stand trial. They further agreed that he is incurably insane. Evidence had not concluded when Crown Prosecutor Walsh was taken suddenly ill at 3.40 in the afternoon and the hearing was adjourned until this morning. It is expected proceedings will come to a conclusion to-day.

THE WEATHER

Another smart shower occurred early this (Thursday) morning, making the fifteenth one this month. June has a total so far of 3.29, and with the exception of one heavy rain the moisture has been very evenly distributed. This morning's fall was .22.—W. P.

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

The Examiner has considered it necessary to sound several warnings to canoeists on the Otonabee to follow safety first principles in the handling of their craft, but from complaints that have been received from steamboat men it is evident that the advice has been disregarded by many of those who frequent the river. A most dangerous practice has been followed by a number of paddlers of getting too close to the steamer during their "moonlight excursions" down the Otonabee, and on several occasions an accident has narrowly been averted as a result. The excursion boat, of course, runs at a very low rate of speed on these trips, and canoeists have been taking advantage of this to paddle close alongside, cut across the steamer's bows and take other dangerous chances that are flirting with death. Last night, had the captain of the Stoney Lake not been on the alert and quickly signalled for reversed engines, a canoe would have been crushed beneath the bows of the steamer and several lives might have been lost. A steam-boat, even while running slow, is not to be trifled with, and it is hoped that canoeists will realize the truth of that statement and not endeavor to test it out for themselves by a collision with the big craft. They should give the excursion steamers a wide berth on the Otonabee, otherwise there may some night be a tragedy to record. The regulation in regard to lights is being disregarded by canoeists; they should not at the same time disregard common-sense principles.

AN ATHLETIC TAG DAY.

The Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association is appealinlg for the support of the citizens of Peterborough through a medium that allows every one a chance to contribute, thus dividing the burden so that it does not fare heavily upon anybody's shoulders. The Association is holding a tag day on Saturday, July 8th, for the purpose of raising enough funds to carry on the work until the annual membership campaign is held next autumn, and the appeal should be answered in a generous manner, for the activities of the P.A.A.A. have resulted in recreation being provided for large numbers of our young people, to whom such privileges had up to the advent of the Association been denied. It is not necessary to enumerate all that has been accomplished by the organization—the work is known to the citizens, and The Examiner is sure that the people of Peterborough are anxious to have it continued. It should be understood, as the President, Dr. A. W. McPherson, pointed out in his letter yesterday, that most of the activities of the Association are along lines that are not productive of revenue. They are expensive necessities to the P.A.A.A., and at the same time they provided healthful exercise and amusement for hundreds of citizens. Such organizations as the Girls' Baseball League, the field days in the public schools and other athletic work that has been planned and carried out by the Director of Athletics have all been of much benefit to the younger generation, and The Examiner is confident that the citizens generally appreciate the aims and objects of the P.A.A.A. and are anxious to help in making the organization a complete success. A liberal response on Athletic Tag Day will be of invaluable assistance.

THE TIMBER REPORT.

The report of the Riddell-Latchford Timber Commission, which has at last been released, makes sorry reading for the people of Ontario, for it reveals a record of laxity and inefficiency on the part of the Crown administrators and of revenue lost to the Province by reason of irregularities on the part of the officials entrusted with the care of the people's business. The Commission have been deliberating for over two years on the matters brought before them, and their report is a startling indictment of the conditions that have existed in the Department—a complete reorganisation being urged as absolutely necessary. "The Province must realise," reads one section of the report, "that loose methods in respect of our timber resources should not be permitted to continue. The revenue to be derived from our forests must, under the present system, be expected to increase. Every practicable means should be adopted to make the revenue greater and more certain, unless thereby the expenditure be unduly increased." The Commission finds that in many cases there was no efficient check upon the work in the woods, that the verifications required by law were not made, that in some Crown timber offices little attention was made to the accuracy of the statutory returns, and that in the Department itself there was no proper examination and scrutiny of such returns. At the same time, the Commission stresses the advisability of conducting timber sales by public auction, and condemns the late Minister of Crown Lands for disregarding the regulations in this respect. The people of Ontario will expect the Provincial Government to implement the report by making it impossible for the conditions complained of to be repeated in this Province. The leaks must be stopped, the dishonest or inefficient officials discharged, and the whole situation cleared up as quickly as possible. The Province has lost enough from this source.

WHY NOT ILLINOIS?

Under the heading, "Why not protest to Illinois as well as to Mexico," the New York Sun indicts those responsible for the carrying out of the law for their indifference to the tragedy in the Illinois coal fields, to which The Examiner has referred several times in these columns. The Sun says:

The reader picks up his newspaper and sees that forty American citizens have been captured by bandits in Mexico and held for ransom. He is indignant at the outrage and amazed that the Mexicans should have dared to commit it.

But is the angry reader justified in wondering that American citizens should be subjected to such treatment in a foreign land?

A week ago, more than forty American citizens, who were engaged upon the peaceful business of earning a living, were captured, herded and bound together. Twenty of them at least were put to death ignominiously—shot, stabbed, hanged or drowned.

This happened in one of the greatest States of the Union.

These wholesale murders were committed in the open. Thousands of men, women and children either took part in or witnessed the massacre. It was a holiday of horror.

A week has passed and no arrest has been made. No indictment has been brought against the murderers, whose names must be known to thousands. No real step has been taken by county, State or nation to bring the guilty to justice.

If Americans are fit subjects for murder in the United States why should not the bandits of Mexico consider them fit subjects to seize and hold for ransom?

How can Americans expect to be respected outside their own country if they permit their self-respect to be dragged in the bloody mud of the Illinois coal field?

SHOULD BE CHANGED.

One of the most important changes made in the Income Tax Act during the session of Parliament which has just closed was the increased exemption allowed for dependent children under eighteen years. The Federal Govrnment has increased the amount to $300 per child instead of $200, as has been the case since 1919, and there are many people who believe that the Provincial Government has increased the amount to $300 per child similar concession. The extra exemption does not, of course, represent a large amount, $4.00 per child, but in the case of large families it will be very welcome, and the action of the Government in providing this relief for heads of families will be appreciated. At the same time there will be regret that the Government did not see fit to remedy a situation that has been pointed out more than once, the case of the man whose wife earns an income of her own. Both are exempt in such instances to the extent of $2,000, making a joint exemption of $4,000, while the man with a family whose wife has no opportunity of adding to the household income is taxed on everything over half that amount—with an exemption of course for children. There seems no reason why those who are in a position to pay such as a childless married couple, both of whom are earning an income, should be favored as against the married man with a family who has to carry the whole burden himself.

GOOD FOR THE U.S. LABOR CONVENTION.

Samuel Gompers has long been rightly known as the "Grand Old Man" of Labor.

Recently he was re-elected for the forty-first time as president of the American Federation of Labor and that tribute was rightly earned. not alone because of his many achievements on behalf of the workers, but also because he has usually given sane leadership. Fearless and outspoken with regard to what he considers the rights of the men he represents, he, nevertheless, is equally forceful in denouncing those of them who seek to betray Labor into the hands of the Reds. He once again demonstrated his foresight in this regard during the last day of the annual convention recently held in Cincinnati.

A fight was made, for the fourth time, to secure recognition of the Bolshevist autocracy in Russia, and there was a tumultuous session marked by much fiery oratory. Through it all the calm and logical mind of Bompers prevailed, and the Soviet supporters were utterly routed. In afterwards reviewing the work of the session, Mr. Gompers said in part:

"Of special significance was the action on the question of Russia. Our convention of the representatives of Labor rose to the full height of its dignity on that issue and took its stand for freedom.

"After years of propaganda, particularly intensified during the last year, the campaign for autocracy was crushed in defeat.

"Every possible effort has been made to win support for the Soviet autocracy. Not a single local union has been overlooked by the propagandists for Soviet brutality and autocracy. Bur our convention emerged from that cloud of deceitful propaganda and stood true to American principles, holding its head above the tide in proud championship of democracy.

"There has been seldom administered to any movement so decisive and crushing a defeat as that administered to the apologists and propagandists for Bolshevist autocracy by our convention.

"With their arguments literally torn to shreds and demolished, the supporters of the Soviet horror mustered at the end but a handful of votes. Sweeping defeat was the culmination of years of propaganda—propaganda of such mendacious and unscrupulous character that it is difficult to properly characterize it.

"In the face of these the trade union movement has again demonstrated its clear vision, its unflinching courage and its faithful devotion to American ideals and principles.

"The victory over the propaganda, which has had for its object nothing less than the destruction of the American labor movement as a condition precedent to the destruction of the free government of the American prople, is a victory of the most vital importance to the American people. One line was held strong and true, and we are proud of the service our movement has rendered."

And said service, it may be added, was not alone to the American people, but also the to world at large. With a tremendous foreign population the United States was regarded as exceptionally fit soil in which to sow the Soviet seed, and it is an undoubted and unchallenged fact that Lenine and his associates forwarded much money on behalf of spreading their tenets in the land of the free. The answer has been as crushing as it has been complete.

Men of sane mind, of all classes, realize that the Russian experiment has been a ghastly and sickening failure, with the establishment of the most bloodthirsty autocracy ever recorded in modern history and the common people the victims of enactment sand slavery beyond all later day parallel. There have been scores of witnesses—many of them went there to praise—with regard to the social and moral degradation and absolute famine conditions which everywhere abound, together with the wholesale infliction of capital punishment without trial and without cause.

Not alone Mr. Gompers, but also the members of the American Federation of Labor, deserve to be heartily congratulated upon the fact that recognition has again been refused to a bunch of revolutionaries.—Brandford Expositor.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The announcement of the railway strike is bad news for Canada.

Don't dispute the right-of-way with a steam-boat is sound advice for canoeists.

No wonder there have been high winds in Manitoba. Look at how many political candidates there are in the field.

The P.A.A.A. tag day should be well supported. The Association is doing splendid work in Peterborough and its activities should be encouraged.

UNUSUAL CASE IS SETTLED IN QUEBEC.

MONTREAL, June 28.—A case without precedent in the juris-prudence of the province of Quebec was decided by Judge Archibald, acting chief justice of the superior court here to-day. The case arose over the right of an illegitimate child who had established his paternity, to the use of his father's name. Acting Chief Justice Archibald decided that Quebec law on this subject is the same as the law of France under the Code Napoleon. He declared in favor of confirming upon the child the right to be bantized in the name of the father and thereafter to bear his name, and ordered that a declaration of record be entered in consequence.

ALLEGED CON. MAN HAS BEEN ARRESTED

Man Held By Montreal Police Said to Have Obtained $30,000,000 By False Methods.

MONTREAL, June 29.— (Canadian Press.)—John Cockburn, alias Thomas Edwards, alias Edward Parrott, was arrested here to-day charged with obtaining $10,000 by false pretences from A. W. Lohmann, of Wheatland, Iowa. A second charge of obtaining $50,000 from "persons unknown" in the State of Iowa, was also read.

The accused appeared before Judge Choquet, sitting as extradition commissioner, and according to the warrant, he had been arrested at Wheatland, Iowa, and held in $20,000 bail and had left the country. The charge further specified that the moneys obtained by the accused came from fake oil land deals and other real estate transactions, mostly in the State of Texas.

The case was put over until Friday afternoon.

LOCAL LACROSSE TEAM HELD HAVELOCK STARS TO 6-6 TIE

Defence in Fine Form.

Defeated in Havelock by the score of 10 to 1, Peterborough's junior lacrosse team proved their mettle by holding the fast C.P.R. team to a 6-6 tie at Riverside Park on Wednesday evening. They more than justified the hopes and confidence of their supporters, and although they are not up in first place in the League, they showed that they were just as good as the best, for Havelock is generally regarded as the favourites in this district of the Junior O.A.L.A. series.

The attendance last night was slightly larger than at any of the matches since lacrosse was rejuvenated last year, and when the men who like action begin to realise that Dr. Sutton's lads are rapidly developing into a team that brings back something of the old thrills of nearly a generation ago, there will be no necessity of urging or inviting the sports lovers to turn out.

Peterborough was leading at the first recess by 2-0, and, although Havelock came back with three in a row during the second, Peterborough made it a 3-3 tie at half-time, and were ahead 4-3 starting the last quarter. The last session was packed with doings.

Havelock started in to retrieve the game right there, but they found the local lads hanging on. The visitors worked it up to 6-5, with less than a minute to go, when Lou Lebarr, intercepting a pass around centre, tore through Havelock's outer defence and passed to Jack Killoran, who shot the ball home for the tieing goal.

The whistle blew thirty seconds later.

That spirit of hanging on was one of the most gratifying features of a game that was marked by hard checking and sharp, splendid passing. Sloppy handling of the ball and muffs were conspicuously absent. The game on the whole was clean. Some of the Peterborough team are carrying souvenirs of it, but no one was in any way seriously hurt.

The Line-up.

The line-up was as follows:

Havelock—Goal, Davidson; points, Jim Hooper and C. Brennan; defence ,McKenzie and Wood; centre, L. Plunkett; home, C. Plunkett and Buchanan; outside home, Brinkman; inside home, Doug Brennan.

Peterborough—Goal, Jack Lebarr; points, Lou Lebarr and Johnny Ward; defence, Hormel and Alf. Johnston; centre, Jack Porteous; home, J. O'Toole and Doug. Miller; outside home, Ranger; inside, Jack Killoran. Subs. — Wolff, Dundas, and Curtis.

Referee—W. A. Harcourt.

Havelock Team Fast.

Expectations were fulfilled in the strong game the visitors played consistently through all four quarters. They had a decided advantage in the presence of Brinkman, Hooper and the two Brennan boys, all of whom played in the Intermediate series with Campbellford last year.

The tactics of their home field were obviously better than Peterborough's, thanks to the greater experience they have had, and only the splendid defence game by the Lebarr brothers, Jack Ward and company kept the visitors generally at arm's length, especially when Peterborough's home was either tired or wobbly.

Brennan and Hooper.

Davidson in goal is only a youngster, but he made several fine saves. Jim Hooper, the heavyweight of their defence, played a cool, gentlemanly game. He used his weight effectively at times and others overlooked free-checking by smaller Peterborough players that was highly creditable.

In the last period he was sent up as the heavy artillery, and did a lot of damage. Doug Brennan turned in a great game; he took a lot of punishment, but it was largely his own fault. He preferred the dodging game instead of passing, and ran into a lot of bumps that he invited. In fact, Ranger was ruled off several times because of his strenuous checking of Brennan, who got several of his goals by the boring method.

In the old days he would have been cut into ribbons if he tried that stunt. His passing with Brinkman and the Plunkett boys was brilliant at times. Brinkman looked as good as last year, but the impression he made was marred by his slashing of Jack Lebarr over the arm inside the goal crease. He got ten minutes for that, and although he protested the decision along the sidelines, he knows his lacrosse better than to expect to get away with an offense of that kind.

Mr. Harcourt handled the game impartially, and let very little get past him.

Show Big Improvement.

The Peterborough team looked infinitely better than in their game here with Hastings. Jack Killoran at inside home made a big difference. He made up in shooting ability what his mates on the home lacked. Four of Peterborough's six goals were credited to him. Doug Miller got the other, and Alf. Johnston the sixth on a nifty shot from Miller.

Jack Lebarr in goal was largely the reason for the lead Peterborough got away with in the first period, and he made a whole row of saves throughout the game. In the last period Hooper drove a couple past him, but the Big Train had broken through the defence, and was on top of the goal. Lou Lebarr and Ward worked together even better than last year, and Hormel helped throw up a defence that rarely let the Havelock attacks filter through. Ward stopped one of Hooper's rushes by a low body check that sent the big Havelock man rolling over him. Jack Porteous at centre is one of the newcomers to lacrosse, and he played it like a veteran. This boy backs up from nobody, plays a nice, clean game, and altogether deserves a lot of credit on his showing.

The subs, Dundas, Curtis and Wolff, were surprisingly aggressive and effective. With Jack Lebarr and some of the other youngsters who haven't had a try-out yet in league company, there is a lot of good material being uncovered and developed.

The home field worked together well. Johnston, Miller, O'Toole, Ranger, and Killoran handled the ball snappily. Ranger's close checking was a feature, but this section of the team still lacks something in their method of attack. O'Toole had several shots from inside the defence, but Davidson robbed him of counters each time. Johnston checked back well, and was mighty useful in centre field, besides getting one of the prettiest goals of the game. Jack Killoran was nearly the whole works on the firing line, and some of his teammates seemed too anxious to feed him the ball instead of taking a shot themselves.

The goals were scored as follows:

First period—Killoran and Miller.

Second period — McKenzie, D. Brennan, Brinkman and Killoran.

Half-time—3-3.

Third period—Killoran.

Final — D. Brennan, Johnston, Hooper, Hooper and Killoran.

It was too dark for an extra period, and the game was called on account of darkness.

FOOT ALMOST SEVERED IN A GRASS MOWER.

Serious Accident to Port Hope Boy—Bone of Leg Cut to Ankle.

PORT HOPE, June 29.—Abraham Wall, a young son of Mr. Joseph Wall of the Ontario Bargain House, met with a terrible accident at the Town Park. The little boy was playing about the track, deeply interested in the mowing machine slashing down the grass. The knives of the machine extend out quite a distance from the driver and these were hidden in the long grass. To get a better view of the machine, young Walls jumped up from the track and slipped directly among the knives Before Mr. Lingard could stop the horses the little fellow's right foot just at the ankle was severely cut. The tendons to the toes were all severed and the bone of the leg cut through to the ankle joint. The little fellow was rushed to hospital The injury is very painful and serious, but the doctors expect to be able to save the foot.

PROMPT RELIEF

Make your poor tired feet happy to-night by rubbing on a little soothing, cooling Geero Wormwood Balm. It penetrates at once, and oh! how cool and fine your feet will feel. It takes all the soreness out of a stinging, burning corn or bunion at once, making walking a real joy. And it is so easy and pleasant to use. No painful cutting or burning of flesh, no fussing with bungling rags, acid liquids or sticky plasters. Just rub a little right in, and go to bed—and in the morning your feet will fit your shoes. At all druggists. Be sure and get Geero Wormwood Balm.

REORGANIZATION ASSURED.

Premier Drury Says Recommendation of Commission to be Carried Out.

TORONTO, June 29.—(Canadian Press.)—That there would be a reorganization of the Department of Lands and Forests as recommended by the Timber Inquiries Commission was the assurance given by Premier E. C. Drury on his return to the Parliament Buildings yesterday after a couple of weeks' absence in the west. He was not prepared to say as yet just what changes would be made, however, although some announcements are expected in the near future. The Premier plunged immediately into the customary rush of his office on his return and spent the afternoon in a meeting of the executive council and receiving a number of visitors.

Let Rinso do your holiday washing

RINSO is the very essence of soap in fine granules, a wonderful product, scientifically made to wash clothes by soaking alone. Sheets, holiday clothes, white things, coloured things, the children's play clothes, towels, in fact everything requiring washing during the holidays will be made beautifully sweet and clean in the easiest and quickest way with Rinso.

This is the Rinso Way

For each tub of clothes take half a package of Rinso, dissolve in just enough cool water to make it as thick as cream. Then stir in two quarts of boiling water, and stir well.

When the bubbles disappear, you will have a clear, amber-coloured liquid, that is the magical Rinso washing solution.

Pour it into your tub of cool or lukewarm water, and put in the clothes and soak.

For extra hard water or extra dirty clothes, add more Rinso solution.

In the morning rinse thoroughly and hang out to dry—the washing is done! That's why Rinso is different from all other Soaps and Washing Powders.

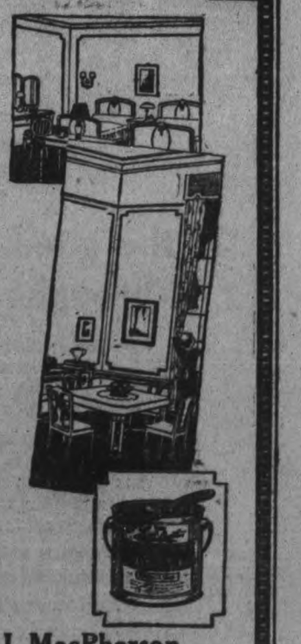
How to Have Beautiful Walls



THE most economical and satisfactory way is to paint them with Mellotone—a flat wall paint made by Lowe Brothers.

Mellotone is easily applied with a brush. Dries quickly with that soft, dull velvety finish that is so much desired.

Using it, you can have a different color scheme in every room, yet all will be in perfect harmony.

Mellotone colors are as soft as the tints of the rainbow.

Easily cleaned with soap and water.

Come in and see the sample panels and ask for literature.

Our First Year

Chapter LXXVII.

MRS. HERROD'S LETTERS—THE SECRET IS OUT.

(By a Bride)

So Bonny entered upon her first year as my own was completed. Bonny was going to find out at the start what poverty means. And Jack and I, who had more than ordinary advantages, owing to Jack's industry and thrift, had landed in bankruptcy.

Bonny was going to be happy ever afterward. But was I ever going to be happy again?

I would have starved for my husband or with him. And yet I had been unable to withstand the luxuries other girls had.

I hadn't been able to practice ordinary economies to help him.

In the short prosperity of our first year I had shown the wisdom of a baby.

Bankrupt and jobless, Jack had come to his senses and made me face a few hard facts and the hardest was this: No longer by a kiss and caress could I turn him from serious discussion of our welfare or persuade him to let me have my own way.

The shock of this discovery was a tonic. If Jack would no longer humor me as a child wife I would better behave like a woman.

"And instead of childishly wondering what is in Mrs. Herrod's letters," said I to Me, "why not ask Jack?"

And so I did, my tone a quiver with tears, with reproach:

"Here—see—I have a dozen of them—only a small part!"

"Why—Peggins! Why—you're not human—I mean not feminine! You mean to say you've kept 'em—and never read 'em?"

"Never! Of course not!"

Jack swept resistless arms about me and drew to a chair by the table.

"Open them! All of them! Read them!"

But read them I could not. They were nothing but chess problems!

"For my files". Jack explained with characteristic brevity. (I suppose I ought to add that my husband gave up playing chess with Mrs. Herrod. He did not. I wouldn't let him.)

I sat up suddenly.

"Jack! You remember that night in the pines When you saw my suit and new hat—"

Jack stood up quickly. I had awakened a memory which hurt him, hurt cruelly. But he was not going to let it ruin out lives. He was far more generous than I. I hastened to explan:

"The girl who wore my clothes was Bonny! But I wouldn't tell you. Not as long as I had Mrs. Herrod's letters on my mind. I was going to swap fair—"

Jack attempted to silence me with kisses, but his tenderness only made me sob the harder.

"I've been horrid, Jack. But I'm going to begin all over, Jack, with our second year.

"I've been a thriftless little wife. But I've learned. You'll see how I can save—when we get another job.

"Meantime, dearest, we'll manage to scrape along any old way. Because I have decided that I will not take Barnick's money!"

SEWER TO THE MOUNT LAID IN TWO WEEKS

The sewer connection to Mount Saint Joseph was completed at noon Tuesday This work has been carried on at the expense of the Sisterhood and the foremanship of Martin Neary and the supervision of City Engineer Parsons. A long stretch of it followed a course through a rock foundation in which considerable blasting had to be resorted to both on Monaghan road and in the Mount property. The contract was begun two weeks ago included the laying of 448 feet of nine inch tile and 280 feet of six inch tile.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doutbless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bsmuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia — not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia which you can obatin from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the bisurated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

The June bride in Thibet has no tedious period of shopping or social activity.

Her wedding ceremony is simple. The young man makes a proposition of marriage to her parents. If they approve, the whole family repairs to his home where his friends meet and they carouse for three days. This constitutes the wedding.

FLOOR PILLOW.

Very attractive floor pillows are being made from Turkish rugs in small sizes. The floor pillow has become very popular, and comes in practically every size. In a popular New York artist's studio they replace the conventional chair.

Formal Prenuptial Dinner For the Bridal Party

A formal dinner can be served as a prenuptial affair for the bridal party or, if the wedding is small enough for the guests to be seated at tables, formal dinner if often served in place of a buffet supper.

The host neevr carves for a formal dinner. All dishes are served by servants and are passed from the left. Bread is never served. The first course is often in place on service plates when the guests sit down to the table.

Here are recipes for a suggested menu to be served at a formal dinner:

Cavair Canapes.

Cut bread in slices one-fourth inch thick. Cut in rounds one and one-half inches in diameter. Dip in melted butter and brown quickly in hot oven. Allow one egg for two persons.

Hard boil eggs and cut in half, lengthwise. Fill white with cavier. Spread the croutes of bread with a minced mixture of celery, onion, sweet pepper and parsley moistened with oil and lemon juice and seasoned with a little salt and paprika.

Remember that caviar is salty when seasoning the mixture. Put an egg half on each piece of bread. Force the yolk through a ricer and sprinkle over each canape. Serve with a tiny radish on each plate.

Soft Shell Crabs

Allow one crab for each person. Pull back the skin and remove the "fingers." Replace the skin and dip the whole crab in sifted dried bread crumbs. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, dip in egg slightly beaten with cold water, roll again in bread crumbs and fry in deep hot fat.

When the skin is pulled back from the meat sprinkle lightly with lemon juice. The fat should be hot enough to brown a piece of bread in two minutes. Fry a delicate brown and drain on brown paper.

Fillets of Beef

Cut fillet of beef into slices two inches thick. Dip in melted butter and broil on one side, then on the other. Season with salt and pepper and arrange on a hot platter with fried bananas in the center.

Fried Bananas

Peel and cut bananas in quarters crosswise. Sprinkle lightly with lemon juice, salt and paprika. Dip in fine bread crumbs, dip in egg slightly beaten with a little cold water, roll again in crumbs and fry in deep hot fat. Drain on brown paper.

Buttered Asparagus.

Use just very tender tips of the asparagus. Cook in a little water and pour over melted butter to serve.

Carrots Caramelized With Cream

Six cups diced new carrots, 6 tablespoons butter, 12 lumps sugar, thick sweet cream to cover, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

The carrots should be cut in very small dice. Put in top of double boiled with butter, lemon juice and sugar and cook over hot water until the sugar is melted, and the whole is a caramelized mass.

Add the cream and let the mixture simmer until thick and a lovely pinky cream. Season with salt and paprika and let stand over hot water till needed. More butter and cream may be added at serving.

The romaine salad is served with French dressing. The leaves should be carefully chilled and crisped and the dressing added the last thing before serving.

Strawberry and Pineapple Ice

Wash and drain berries—one quart for 12 persons. Pare and shred one medium sized pineapple. Mix berries and pineapple and sprinkle with one cup sugar.

Let stand one hour. Make a sirup by boiling three cups water with one cup sugar five minutes. Pour over fruit and let stand till cool. Turn into mold and pack in ice and salt. Let stand five hours. Serve with a sprig of mint.

Voice of the People

THE CHURCH AND THE TIMES

The Editor of Examiner,—

Dear Sir,—If you can find space in your valuable paper for the following you will oblige the writer.

The time has come to say it with no apologies and with no uncertain sound, that if the church has nothing different than the world has to offer us it might as well go out of business, and we will do well to seek to ascertain if it has anything better to offer us.

Is it not a fact that many young people, aye, older ones, who partake regularly of the Lord's Supper are out at the dances and the late parties and many questionable things during the week, but let us not blame them so much as those who should be their leaders in higher pursuits and nobler pleasures, for many ministers are one with them seemingly in all these things.

Do our leaders in the church ever ponder those words of Christ, (Ye Must Be Born Again). We have unconverted people in the church by the score, or shall I say by hundred and there are all kinds of indulgences in the church for keeping their old nature alive. The church is the nursery for the stage, for gamblers, for vamps,and every conceivable wrong. When the Revelator St. John looked down in vision upon the church to-day What did he write! He called it, Mystery, Babylon the great, The Mother of Harlots and, Abominations of the earth. Do not wince ye professed leaders in Divine things you are weighed in the just balance of the Almighty and found wanting, and in your skirts are found the blood of poor battered souls who went on the rocks because your light had gone out.

Am I my brother's keeper! Yes, a thousands times yes, we are called to be lights in a dark world, to be the sale of the earth as a preserver of life; may our light then henceforth so shine before men that they will see our good works and give God the glory or praise.

I venture also to say that God cares not how many fine churches we have, nor how elegant our forms of worship, it is not the temple of bricks and mortar He is interested in but the Temple of flesh and blood where praise goes up from the inner shrine "the heart". The times call aloud for earnestness, for consecration to God and His cause and for hearts that look forward for heavenly reward to be given by God.

Thanking you dear Sir, in anticipation of your favour,
One who wishes to be,
"A MOTHER IN ISRAEL

RED ARROW COMPANY WINDS UP AFFAIRS

At a meeting of the shareholders in the Assembly Hall of the Public Library last evening, it was decided to make an assignment under the Bankruptcy Act. W. H. Morris was named as the official assignee.

"What I did to cure a cough which was Racking my system to pieces."

"One very hot evening last summer, while in the mountains, a cool breeze suddenly came up which left me thoroughly chilled. Next day I felt a slight cold in my head but thought nothing of it. The following day the cold had developed into a cough. This kept up for some weeks but instead of getting better the cough kept getting worse. A tickling sensation developed in my throat. I tried everything I could think of to get rid of it. It was worse when I went to bed. As soon as I laid down the tickling sensation started and the only relief I could get was to sit up in bed. Towards morning, I sometimes, from sheer exhaustion, managed to get a little sleep. During all this time my cough was getting worse. Sometimes in these severe fits of coughing spasms I was left weak and exhausted. Anything I tried only gave me temporary relief. I couldn't take anything but liquid foods. I couldn't sleep. I was losing weight every day. At times I suffered the most intense agony with headaches. A friend of mine told me about Carnol. After trying it for three weeks I noticed that my cough was beginning to soften, that my appetite was returning, that the headaches had left me, that I slept longer. After taking seven bottles of Carnol, I am perfectly well and enjoying better health than I have ever had before in my life."

Writes Mrs. J. of Montreal

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 10-122

If the good fairies brought you a breakfast

THEY couldn't bring it more quickly, and they couldn't bring anything more deliciously appetizing, than Post Toasties.

These crisp and flavory flakes of toasted corn are all ready to eat. Fill the bowl from the package, add cream or good milk—and the meal is ready!

Good for any hurry-up hunger call.

No work of preparation, no waste, many helpings from the package—a most economical and convenient food.

Other Corn Flakes may be offered you, but there's nothing else like the Post Toasties flavor and crispness. Post Toasties do not mush down after the cream or milk is added.

Always in good taste

When the Barefooted Dancing Girls Went to Church

While the Spotlight Played on Them Just as in the Theater They Trooped Out as the Pastor Preached and Did Their Dance Before the Sanctuary While the Congregation Gasped—Dance Was Born in 'Church,' Declared Rector

CERTAINLY there is no reason why a dancing girl should not go to church. It is advanced by persons, more or less of authority upon the matter, that churches perform a much needed function when they attract this particular class of patronage. But one of the most distinguished churches in New York recently has proposed the question as whether or not the dancing girl, persuaded to come to church, should be allowed to practice her profession at the altar steps as an enlivening intermission to the pastor's sermon.

A group of them, each one clad in loose, flowing draperies that suggested, even if they did not exactly copy, the rather filmy robes of the ancient Greek dancers, and each with prettily tinted toes peeping out from beneath the hem of these classical draperies, recently cavorted in front of the sanctuary of the famous and ancient St. Marks-in-the-Bouwerie—that still fashionable and exclusive church where many of the nation's foremost financiers learned their first Sunday school lessons and where many of the "elect of the Avenue" still go for their Sunday morning absolutions.

Many innovations have marked the progress of Sunday worship in the last few years, but usually anything of a startling nature originates in some one of the minor churches. The nation's most famous churches are inclined toward conservatism. It is not to such as St. Mark's that we look for the introduction of such ornamentation as the appearance of dancers, clad in loose, flowing white, during the progress of a Sunday evening sermon.

The pastor, the eminent Dr. William Norman Guthrie, declares that the time has come when dancing must be restored to its rightful status—when it should be looked upon as a part of religious worship as well as a part of social enjoyment. He says, in effect, "the banishment of the dance from the church has brought about its decadence. Yet there is nothing more beautiful, nothing that better expresses the calmness of religious contentment than the dance. The church is its rightful home."

The dancers were introduced at the evening sermon. Soon after the distinguished pastor began his sermon the congregation was aware that the church lights had slowly dimmed, and that the pungent fragrance of incense was being wafted from swinging censers. Dr. Guthrie spoke of the Annunciation—the beam of a spotlight pierced the dimness and embraced the sanctuary. While the members of the congregation, startled, leaned forward in their seats, their eyes fixed and gazing, the first of the dancing girls appeared—then another and another, until a bevy of them was disclosed.

Their feet were bare, their grace unhampered by clinging garments. With slow, graceful rhythm the girls moved forward, grouped themselves in a pleasing figure, and then swayed into their eurhythmic ritual.

The pastor had spoken of the Annunciation. They physically interpreted it. The spotlight followed the groupings. There were in the congregation some who were familiar with the technic of the theater stage. They afterwards declared that no stage manager could have staged a more effective "number," even though aided by all the mechanical skill of trained stage electricians and supported by his choice from the most experienced members of the choruses of a score of musical comedy shows.

With true dramatic instinct the young women punctuated the pastor's verbal climaxes. The congregation became, for the moment, an "audience" and saw before them, interpreted in terms of charming femininity, the fervent splendor of the Annunciation. The incense fumes seemed to spur their imaginations while lulling their souls to a strange peace.

Slowly, gracefully, and with perfect rhythm, the dancing girls swung themselves into their final figure—and disappeared behind the sanctuary. The beam of the spotlight swung across the altar to embrace the minister. The sermon was again taken up—its thread seemingly not broken even by the introduction of the dance, so perfectly was the appearance of the dancers timed to serve as an interpretation.

Of course, such an innovation was not allowed to pass unnoticed. Once before the pastor had introduced dancers to the altar, but not with so much of the effect of skilled stage management. This time he was surrounded by his flock at the close of the sermon, and comments, some complimentary, some discouraging, were hurled at him.

"The dancing girl is out of place in such a holy edifice as the church," some declared. "Dancing originally was a symbol of the church, and should be restored to its one time grace," said others. "A sermon should be a sermon, with the threat of brimstone ever to the front," some said to the minister. "You are to be congratulated for illustrating your sermons in such an effective, beautiful way," said others.

Dr. Guthrie declares that the church has the privilege of using any medium of emotional expression for the enrichment of its services and the punctuation of its teachings.

Because of the prominence of St. Mark's it is possible a great many other churches will follow its lead. The influence of Dr. Guthrie is powerful indeed. He presents in his argument for the introduction of the dancing girl as an accepted and regular feature of every sermon, an interesting reminder that even the most unbeautiful and censured dances which are part of the social custom of some classes to-day, owe their origin to the church, and that all dancing was born with the first human impulse toward the worship of some mysterious and unknown Power.

Above—Dr. William Guthrie, St. Marks-in-the-Bouwerie, who shocked his Sunday evening congregation by introducing dancing girls as a part of his sermon. Group of religious dancing girls.

There are few, indeed, who doubt that dancing was the first form of prayer—that when primitive man wished to pray he danced. He knew no other way to attract the attention of his deity.

Before the time of the sacred hymn or poem, when religion was more or less inarticulate, men expressed their sense of worship by gestures, and dancing is the measured gesture and rhythmical motion of all the limbs.

All primitive nations from the savages of the South Sea Islands to the American Indians had sacred dances, and we know from the monuments that among the Egyptians and Babylonians the sacred processions and dances in honor of the gods formed an important part of the ritual of worship.

The circling dance is astronomical in origin, being an attempt on the part of the worshipers to reproduce what seemed to them to be the motion of the sun and moon. The sun dances of the Indians have been described by many writers, and the ancient Greek dances to Apollo were directed by the same idea, for Apollo was the personification of the sun.

Miriam led the women of Israel in a sacred dance of victory on the occasion of the crossing of the Red Sea; the Israelites danced around the golden calf which Aaron made for them while Moses was on Mount Sinai; Jephthah's daughter went out to meet her father returning from his great victory leading the other maidens in the dance, all innocent of her impending sacrifice, in accordance with her father's vow. David danced vigorously before the Ark of God when he was bringing it back in triumph from the desecrating hands of the Philistines. Thus it is plain that men and women joined in the sacred dances among the Hebrews, and that it was not considered an undignified service to render to the cause of religion.

It was to be expected that the Greeks would develop this art to a high point of grace and beauty, as they did in their religious ceremonies, and all classic dancing to-day is a mere copying of the religious dances of the Greeks.

Wheeling in weird rotation the Selenii and satyr encircled the blazing altar on the plains of Greece as the cytharist struck the measures which the gestures of the chorus emphasized. Springtime, autumn or winter, these wild ceremonials were performed in praise of or appeal to the gods in the lands of the East and of the West. Holding forth innumerable arms of appeal, barbaric Indian and barbaric Greek called on the coming of the gods.

This really lies back of the lyric poetry for which Hellenic bards became famous; the limited phrase of the early songs accompanying the dance gaining in breadth with the growth of thought when the chorus became the stately chant of tragic woes.

The solemn circling dance about the archaic altar admitted of no irreverent hilarity. The movements of the sun and moon accompanied each by a retinue of lesser gods was represented; for to the solar god was ascribed the Selenii, deities of the woodlands; and to the moon goddess the Naiades of the flowing streams. With the many myths which the Greeks developed in which the powers of nature were so beautifully personified, much play was offered for the sacred dances, and they developed in beauty and complexity as the years passed.

Rome, taking over much of the mythology of Greece, took with it the mode of ceremonial worship in the dance, as mentioned by many of the Latin writers.

To what degree the sacred dance was taken up by the early Christians is by no means certain, but as by far the larger number of the converts from the time of Paul onward were from the Romans and Greeks, it was but natural that they transferred the sacred character of the dance to the new faith.

The Passion Plays of our time are lineal descendants of these earlier dramas and dances, so that this modern presentation of a sacred dance in this New York churchyard is a return to early methods, well known and accepted by the church.

The young women who illustrated Dr. Guthrie's sermon were not professional dancers. They were the gentle daughters of members of the congregation, and their sweet, innocent faces helped add to the solemnity of their symbolization. They practiced their dance under the supervision of Dr. Guthrie himself, and their participation was in the same spirit as that which actuates the personnel of the Passion Play.

Still, they were dancing girls—they were dancers. Their appearance raised a most interesting controversy, in which the majority of critics seem to oppose the eminent Dr. Guthrie, without, however, alienating from him an enthusiastic minority which declares that Dr. Guthrie is a pioneer whose footsteps soon will be followed by all the leading church dignitaries in the country.

Where Women Become Men whenever They Wish!

ALBANIA, the picturesque and not much known country in southeastern Europe, has many quaint and interesting customs peculiar to Albania itself. There is one in particular, that of the men-women, which in these advanced days is not to be paralleled, and shows the Albanians far ahead, in a way, of the rest of the world.

For centuries a girl or woman in Albania has been allowed to have the rights of a male, to wear male clothing and carry arms. Of these two last rights, however, they seldom make use, and it has been said that of the 600 or so men-women in Albania all but a score or so wear women's dress, and to distinguish themselves use only the white turban of their attire as tradition lays down. On taking up the rights of a male the girl or woman takes up the work of a man; she plows, harvests and even fights in the family feuds. Yet it is here the ancient custom does not square with itself and allows the difference in sex to come in.

One naturally thinks the man-woman who takes part in a family feud ought to be attacked by the other side as a man. She is not. For all her male dress, rights and name she remains a woman still. To kill or be killed by her is accounted the greatest dishonor. And to avenge the killing by a man-woman, the life of her father, brother or nearest male relation must be taken.

The Upper Albanian women can acquire this peculiar status, giving her the rights denied to others of her sex, only through a declaration made with her father's express consent and in the presence of the male kin of age that it is her intention to remain unmarried. Singularly enough this vow of spinsterhood to obtain the possession of male rights holds only as long as it pleases the woman and is merely a family affair. Yet if while a man-woman she has a child she and the infant's father are both killed by her family.

Perhaps one of the motives underlying the assumption by her of male rights is that no Albanian woman can inherit, except she is a man-woman. She cannot, however, dispose of the inheritance, but after the death of her father the property and income are hers for life, and if there are brothers they have to give up a part of the family income to their sister. One strong incentive arises out of the usual practice of parents to arrange marriages before the children come of age. To withdraw from such an engagement brings about a blood feud, which has sometimes lasted for five generations. The young man can only escape fulfilling the arrangement by fleeing the country and the girl by becoming a man-woman.

A more human reason is to be found in affection. Many a man-woman has taken this status in order to support her parents in their old age. If both die and she is of age she then becomes the head of the family, toils late and early, and is to the younger members of her family both father and mother.

It is rather noteworthy of the Upper Albanian woman that with the assumption of equality of sex she prefers the company of men and eschews that of women. Many of them go so far to add to their masculine appearance by cutting their hair short and even shaving the forehead.

How far back this strange custom dates of allowing Albanian women to share in the privileges and rights of their men folk, and yet withdraw if occasion arises, it is hard to say. The lack of authentic historical records makes it difficult to trace the origin of it. But it appears to have been in existence before the Turkish conquest in 1420, and Albanian tradition has it that it was introduced by the semi-mythical Pulati, who overran and held Albania in the dim past.

In this wild part of southeastern Europe, then, the claim for equality of sex has after a manner been recognized for many centuries.

A SPLENDID TIME AT STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.

Peterborough People Motored to Joshua Smithson's Otonabee.

On Wednesday evening a strawberry festival was held on the grounds of Mr. Joshua Smithson, 11th Line of Otonabee, under the auspices of St. Mark's Church, Zion. The night was ideal, and about 300 people were present, many of them motoring out from Peterborough.

The ladies provided an excellent supper, both in quality and abundance. Some of those who helped to make this part of the programme a success were Mesdames J. Dixon, J. Thorne, J. Collins, Wm. Pickel, R. Scollie, T. Graystock, J. Smithson, H. Smithson, Shannon, and the Misses Ethel and Mary Collins, Graystock, and Jennie Pickel, assisted by others. Miss Sadie Dixon and her assistants supervised the ice-cream booth, and with excellent results, the net receipts being about $15.00.

The beautiful grounds were softly illumined with gay Japanese lanterns, which lent an air of enchantment to the scene.

An excellent programme was provided, which contributed much to the success of the evening. This was given solely by Peterborough talent, with the exception of Mrs. Waterman, Bailieboro. Some of those taking part were: Male quartette, Messrs. Johnson, Eldred, Roberts, and Devey; songs were rendered by Mr. Harry Long, Mr. Morphet, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Roberts, Mrs. Devey, and Mrs. Waterman. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Devey won much applause for their humorous duet. A trio composed of three young men from St. John's choir extolled in fine style, "What an Englishman is Made Of."

Adresses were given by ex-Mayor William Buller, of Peterborough, and Mr. J. Smithson, both being well applauded.

In a few words, Rev. W. R. Courage, on behalf of St. Mark's Church, thanked all those who had contributed towards the success of the evening after which "God Save the King" brought the programme to a close.

The net gate receipts were $52.55, making the total receipts nearly $100.00.

Saturday's Business Will Be Conducted on Friday — Store Closed Saturday (Dominion Day)

Against a Background of Darkness the Firefly Is Plainly Perceptible

It flies fitfully, here and there, flashing its reddish glow like some wayward spark being wafted and fanned by a vagrant breeze.

But when darkness gives way to dawn, the sun's rays dim its light, and finally its flickerings cease, like a lamp burned low and its wick gone dry.

There is nothing in this store that will not glow radiantly when subjected to the searching rays of strong sunlight.

Time-Limit Sales

9 A.M. TO 12 A.M.

Men's Balbriggan Combination - - 98c

They are "seconds," but there is not a drop-stitch in any of them. Some careless person allowed them to become slightly stained with oil, and so they had to be graded as "seconds." Natural color balbriggan, short sleeves and ankle length. All sizes 36 to 44, inclusive.

Sold in the Men's Shop.

9 A.M. TO 11 A.M.

Large Bars Castile Soap, Bar - - - 16c

A large twelve-inch bar with only pure ingredients—no filling. The maker will not even allow tallow to be used to give the Soap a clear white color. It is known as Cressman's "Ideal" and is, indeed, ideal for every use.

Sold at Fifth Circle, Main Floor.

9 A.M. TO 11 A.M.

45-Inch White Swiss Organdy, Yard - - 67c

Genuine Swiss quality with a permanent finish. Remember, only Swiss Organdy retains its finish after washing repeatedly. Pure white, crisp and new. Bargain Annex.

STILL HOLDING ON

DUBLIN, June 29. — (Canadian Press.)—Insurgent Irish Republican Army men were still holding out in its Four Courts stronghold at noon to-day against continuing attempts of Free State troops to dislodge them.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 29.—(Canadian Press).—Oils were features of speculative interest, very mixed opening of to-day's Stock Market. Foreign group moved upward, while domestic issues, especially California division, showed distinct heaviness. Mexican Petroleum rose three points to 186 in the first few transactions, but profit-taking soon cancelled this gain.

Increased activity of the morning was entirely at the expense of the quoted values. Mexican Petroleum's extreme advance of four points was succeeded by a six-point re-action. High-grade Steels, Equipments and Motors were only moderately affected, but Food Specialties became heavy. Dealings in Rails were light at trifling changes. Call money opened at 4 3-4 per cent., but soon dropped to 4½ per cent.

The strength of Rails and heaviness of Oils were conflicting features of to-day's Stock Market. Other issues showed no different trend. Sales approximated 750,000 shares.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, June 29.—(Canadian Press)—Sterling exchange irregular. Demand rates, Great Britain 4.40¾; Canadian dollar, 2 1-16 per cent. discount.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 29. — (Canadian Press).—The wheat market, which varied from ½c decline to 3-8c gain, with July 113 3-4 to 114 and September 115 1-8 to 115¼, was followed by a moderate drop all around and then by a rise to well above yesterday's finish. After opening 1-8 off to 3-8 up, July 62¼ to 62½, the corn market sagged a little and then made a general upturn. Oats started a shade lower to a shade advance, July 36 1-8 to 36 3-4, and after a slight fall rallied. Higher quotations on hogs gave firmness to the provision market.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 29.—(Canadian Press).—The local Stock Market experienced this morning one of the dullest, probably the dullest, sessions of the year. The ticker was silent for long periods. Hardly a dozen and a half stocks were traded in, and the majority of them in broken lots. Very few issues had a total of a hundred shares or over throughout the session. Toronto Railway, with a turnover of less than 200 shares, was the most active stock and the strongest selling at 74, an advance of a point over yesterday's close.

TORONTO STOCK MARKET.

TORONTO, June 29.—Any activity that prevailed on the local Stock Exchange this morning centered in three stocks. Brazilian, Toronto Rails and General Electric. The first-named closed unchanged at 46¼; Toronto Rails advanced 3-4 to 74, and General Electric lost a like amount at 81. Trading elsewhere was of the odd lot variety. Bethlehem Steel 2nd Preferred lost ½ at 35 3-4.

THE CATTLE MARKET.

TORONTO, June 29.—(Canadian Press).—Receipts 144; trade light. Quotations: Heavy beef steers $8.50 to $9; butcher steers, choice, $8.25 to $8.90; butcher cows, medium, $4 to $5; calves $8.50 to $9.50; lambs $14.50 to $15.25; hogs, selects, $14.50.

Hogs, receipts 28,000; opened mostly 5 and 10c. lower; closing steady to 10c. lower; top 10.90; bulk good butchers 10.35 and 10.80; bulk packing sows 9.00 and 9.60; shippers took 6,000; holdover fairly liberal; pigs strong, mostly 10.00 to 10.50.

Sheep, receipts 12,000; lambs mostly steady; closing slow; top natives 13.50 to city butchers; 13.25 to packers; culls mostly 7.25 and 7.50; sheep strong; top fat native ewes 7.00; heavies 3.50 and 5.00; two doubles choice, 67 pound, dry fed yearling wethers 11.75.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

CHICAGO, June 29.—(Canadian Press.)—Wheat averaged lower yesterday, chiefly as a result of favorable weather conditions and because the Liverpool market showed but little response to Tuesday's advance here. The close was unsettled at 5-8c. net decline to 1-4c. gain, with July $1.13 3-4 to $1.13 7-8 and September $1.14 7-8 to $1.15. Corn lost 1-8 to 1-2 and 5-8c.; oats 12 to 3-4.

CASH GRAIN.

MONTREAL, June 29.— (Canadian Press.)—The domestic market for cash grain was without any new feature. Trade in flour showed no improvement. There is no change in prices of millfeed and demand for rolled oats was limited. There were no further developments in baled hay. A good trade continues in eggs. The market for potatoes was dull. An easier feeling developed in the butter market with prices down half a cent a pound. There was very little business in the cheese market.

CHEESE MARKET.

MONTREAL, June 29.— (Canadian Press.)—At the United Dairymen's Co-operative auction sale held here yesterday there were 3,025 boxes of Ontario cheese offered, of which 352 boxes of No. 1A white sold at 18 3-16c. per pound; 780 boxes No. 1A colored at 17 13-16 cents per pound; 581 boxes No. 1B colored at 17 13-16c. and 384 boxes No. 2 colored at 17 5-16c., while 18 1-8c. was bid for 78 boxes special white with 18 3-16 asked and the same price bid and asked for 468 boxes of No. 1B white, with 17 1-2c. bid and 17 5-8c. asked for 182 boxes No. 2 white.

STERLING RATES.

MONTREAL, June 29.— (Canadian Press.) — Sterling exchange rates were quoted here yesterday: Sterling demand 4.4776; sterling cables 4.480 1-7.

EGG MARKETS.

OTTAWA, June 29.— (Canadian Press.)—Ontario country markets reported firmer and some shipperes asking 28 f.o.b. for stranght gathered. On Montreal mercantile exchange, yesterday 100 cases western seconds offered for which 29c. was being asked, no sale made. It is rumored that a large block of American storage eggs for fall delivery are being sold to Great Britain, also some Canadians, but as yet there is no confirmation of these sales.

Toronto firm, unchanged.

Montreal firm, unchanged.

Winnipeg dealers quoting country shippers 19c. for straight receipts delivered. Straight candled jobbing 25c. firsts 28 1-2 and 29c., extras 34c., carton specials 36c.

WINNIPEG CATTLE.

WINNIPEG, June 29.—(Canadian Press.)—Receipts yesterday consisted of 770 cattle and calves; 920 hogs and 345 sheep and lambs.

A firm tone was in evidence at the opening of the cattle market with early trade active. Killing classes 25c. higher; stockers and feeders found a ready market with prices slightly stronger.

A good demand existed on the sheep and lamb market, bulk best sheep 14.00; mutton sheep 86 and 87.

The hog market was unsettled with no definite price fixed at noon. Packers were bidding $12.50 for selects with indications pointing higher.

Reader Takes Newer Form of Iron--Feels Years Younger

"Six weeks ago I saw a special offer in the paper telling how thousands of people grow old in looks and energy long before they are really old in years, because, as examinations by physicians have shown an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. I have been taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks: the results are simply astounding. The roses have come back in my lips and cheeks, and I can conscientiously say that I feel ten years younger."

The above is a typical hypothetical case showing the results that have been achieved by a great many people since we started this "satisfaction or money back" offer on Nuxated Iron. We will make you the same guarantee. If, after taking the two week's treatment of Nuxated Iron; you do not feel and look years younger, we will promptly refund your money."

Call at once for a bottle of Nuxated Iron at Warne Drug Co., Standard Drug Ltd., or any other good drug store.

PLEASANT QUARTERS FOR Y. W. C. A. SUMNER HOME

Camp This Year Will Surpass Anything Yet Offered in the Way of Real First Class Attractions.

The Y.W.C.A. Camp at Stoney Lake opens tomorrow. The 'Y' has always been fortunate in having pleasant quarters for their summer home, but, according to first-hand impressions of the camp this year, "Gladhalken," Mr. John Crane's former summer home at the Lakes, will surpass anything yet offered in the way of real, first-class attractions. Situated on a beautiful island near Kawartha Park, it is a large cottage, with verandah, fireplace, piano, gramophone, acetylene gas, boats, and separate sleeping-quarters.

With a programme ahead of boating, bathing, bonfires, fishing, hikes, stunts and parties, sing-songs and camp regatta, girls seeking a change from city shops or offices could hardly do better than patronize the 'Y' Camp this year. Miss Helen Carthy, B.A., of Toronto, who has had much experience in Y.W.C.A. work, will be in charge.

Points to be remembered in this connection are: Boat tickets should be obtained at the Y.W.C.A. Each camper is supposed to bring her own bedding and towels. Only the simplest clothes are necessary. Bloomers and a middy blouse make an ideal costume.

As some enterprising poetess attached to the local 'Y' has phrased it, in a ditty that is supposed to be sung to the tune of "Let the rest of the world go by" a most appropriate setting, by the way:

"If you folks only knew,
The things we used to do,
The hikes and parties gay up there,
On Stoney Lake,
You'd pack your trunk and leave to-day
It's the spot to spend your pay.
We fish and sleep and eat—
This life it can't be beat,
You others in the heat do roam;
We never want to go back home."

BRAN GEMS

People who like bran, or, whether they like it or not, have been persuaded that it is a healthful article of diet, as it undoubtedly is, will be interested in the following recipe for bran gems, contributed by Mrs. Jas. Skinner, of 263 Rubidge Street: 1¼ cups bran, ½ cup white flour, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup brown sugar, 1 level teaspoon soda, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 cup sour milk (large). Beat the butter, sugar and egg together; sift flour and soda together; mix dry ingredients together and add sour milk. Bake in gem pans in moderate oven.

Another recipe for gems is:—1 egg well beaten; pinch of salt; butter size o fwalnut, melted; one cupful each of sweet milk, wheat, flour and wheat bran; 1 teaspoonful of baking powder. Bake in gem tins.

Children's Camp

Ladies of the Peterboro Health Association who will have charge in turn of the Children's Camp at Jackson Park during the summer months are:—June 26 to July 8, Mrs. G. S. Cameron, convenor; July 10 to 15, Mrs. J. A. Aylmer; July 17 to 22, Mrs. Russell Wood; July 24 to 29, Mrs. B. Gardiner; July 31 to August 5, Mrs. R. R. Hall; August 7 to 12, Miss Archer; August 14 to 19, Mrs. A. E. Coulthard; August 21 to 26, Mrs. A. W. Turner; with some member of the Association filling in for the remaining four days that the Camp remains open in August.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED.

You do not feel called upon to tell people their outstanding faults just because they are obvious to you.

Instead, you try to find admirable traits and bring them out.

The woman who feels it her conscientous duty to criticize her friends is likely to wonder why someone else, who isn't nearly so clever, as she, is so much more popular.

HUMANE OFFICER HAS MANY CALLS.

The newly-appointed inspector of the Peterboro branch of the Humane Society has already had quite a number of calls in connection with his work. Nine or ten within a week seems to be about the average. Some of the complaints made result in wrong conditions being righted, others arise out of an ignorance of true facts, such as the complaint made of a certain man that he was ill-treating a horse in his possession. On a visit by the inspector, accompanied by a veterinary surgeon, it was discovered that the animal was very old, and had long grinders which made it hard for him to assimilate his food. He was looked after quite well by the owner and his wife.

One case noted was that of a delivery animal which suffered from galling harness sores. The owner's efforts to protect the bad spots by compresses of old rags only resulted in rubbing the tender surface into worse condition than before, and the animal was being worked while in extreme pain. Another case was that of cruel treatment by a youth on the Norwood road.

A difficulty that arises in many instances is the unwillingness of those laying complaints to give their names or real, specific information. Their charges are often of a very vague sort.

The system being followed out just at present is that of warning to those who violate the law in respect to animals. In many cases, it has been found that owners have not sufficient funds to pay fines, if brought into court, and remedy the conditions by proper veterinary treatment also, and it is considered better to apply what money they may possess to alleviating the animals' suffering, with prospects in the future of harsher means if warnings fail of their desired effect.

THE MILK DIET.

"No family of five should buy meat until they have bought at least three quarts of milk."—Dr. Graham Lusk.

"The well-known dietary rule of a quart of milk a day for every child, already amply justified by practical results, has received additional support from several angles through the recent advances in our knowledge of the chemistry of nutrition."—Prof. Sherman, Columbia University.

LAWN SOCIAL FOR A WORTHY CAUSE.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A. is holding a lawn social this afternoon and evening on the G.W.V.A. grounds on Murray street with the usual attractions in the shape of booths for the sale of candy and ice-cream; fish-pond for the juniors; fortune-tellers for the curiously inclined, dancing and band in attendance.

The Ladies' Auxiliary does a great deal of good work throughout the year, in the way of visiting the sick, sending flowers to invalids at home and in the hospitals, and carrying on relief work on a large scale during the winter months.

SOCIAL AND SPORTS FOR THE HOLIDAY.

Saturday of this week is the occasion of the annual social and field day of the Holy Name Society, at the Exhibition Grounds. Different ladies' societies of the Catholic churches are co-operating to make the event as succesful as it usually is. The Christian Mothers are serving a regular supper on the grounds; the Catholic Women's League and the Young Ladies' Sodality are supervising different booths and the sale of refreshments, and feminine helpers will be in charge of the fancy work section, ice-cream and candy, and the fish pond, which is always a centre of interest for the kiddies.

Sports in the afternoon, which will include baseball, football and lacrosse games, and the Peterboro Rangers' Band in attendance in the evening, with special attractions in Dany Simons and Frank Clarke, promise to make this year's day a very special event.

ST. VITUS DANCE

A Nervous Disease Due to An Impoverished Condition fo the Blood.

Is your child fidgety, restless or irritable? Are the hands shaky or the arms jerky? Does the face twitch? Do the legs tremble or drag? Those are signs of St. Vitus Dance, a nervous disease due to an impoverished condition of the blood. The trouble is confined chiefly to young children, but often affects highly-strung women and sometimes men. The only relief is to enrich the blood, thus enabling it to carry sufficient nourishment to the nerves. For this purpose the very best tonic known is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which promptly enrich the blood and give new strength and tone to the nerves. Mothers whose children are affected with this trouble will be interested in the statement of Mrs. Jacklin, of Chatham, Ont., who tells what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for her young daughter, afflicted with this trouble. Mrs. Jacklin says: "My daughter, Edna, 13 years old, had such a severe attack of St. Vitus dance that she could not feed or dress herself. We did everything for her, and on the doctor's advice took her from school and sent her to the country for three months, but without results. At this stage I read of a similar case in which beneficial results followed the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try this medicine. Very soon she seemed to benefit by this treatment and by the time she had taken eight boxes the trouble had entirely disappeared and she was as well and active as she had ever been. I can therefore strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of St. Vitus Dance."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RECIPES

WHILE iced tea is refreshing, combinations of fruit juices with iced tea are rather nicer as afternoon thirst quenchers. A cool drink, served with plain crisp cookies or tiny sandwiches, means little work to a housekeeper and has a telling psychological effect on her and her guest.

Some suggestions:

Tea Punch

One cup strong fresh tea, 3 lemons, 2 oranges, 1 cup fresh strawberry or raspberry juice, 2 cups sugar, 2 cups water, cracked ice.

Squeeze juice from lemons and strain. Cut oranges in slices. Boil sugar and water 10 minutes. Mix lemon, strawberry juice and tea while tea is hot. Add sirup and pour mixture over cracked ice. Add orange slices and serve.

Cherry Ade

Two cups cherry juice, 2 cups sugar sirup, 1 cup orange huice, cracked ice, 1 cup tea.

To make the sirup, boil one and one-half cups sugar with one-half cup water till sirup threads. Stone cherries and just heat to start the juice.

Press through a cheesecloth. Mix the sirup, orange and cherry juices and let stand on ice till thoroughly chilled.

Whale sharks, found in teh Indian and Pacific oceans, often attain a length of 60 feet, but are quite harmless.

Household Suggestions

FOR FALL.

Plain and brocaded velvets and tinsel cloths will be the leading fabrics for fall gowns. Beaded velvet will be used extensively.

TWO CLASSES.

Clothes, it appears, are about to divide themselves into two general classifications—the long, tight ones, and the wide, full ones, richly and colorfully embroidered.

LONGER SKIRTS.

Six or seven inches from the floor is the correct skirt length in Paris and American buyers predict that by fall that will be the standard here.

SERVICEABLE.

Much of the snappy new lingerie comes in pongee. Sometimes it is trimmed with colorful bands or with applications of floral designs, but more often it is trimmed only with hemstitching.

HAIR DRESSING.

Hair continues to be worn close to the head, but hairdressers are showing some interesting adaptions of the French twist, which allow greater individuality. Use of high combs and jeweled hairpins continues.

EMBROIDERY.

Dresses completely covered with embroidery are greatly sought after now. Embroidery is more expensive than beads but it takes less time for upkeep. Beaded frocks require attention after each wearing.

GIRDLES.

Girdles this season are most interesting. Some are scarcely an inch wide, and other develop until they become the most noticeable thing on the whole frock. The metal ribbons are much liked for this purpose.

FRIVOLOUS AFFAIR

An antique writing desk, rejuvenated for a modern miss, is a frivolous looking affair that shuts up like a box. It is so low that one sits before it on a cushion. Needless to say, this is not the desk for a busy woman.

WHITE FOX.

A number of white fox furs are making their appearance this season. They are usually worn with white or black. The girl who wears one should be sure of her complexion. Such a fur is very trying.

SUMMER WRAP.

One summer wrap gets its opalescent appearance from several thicknesses in different shades of chiffon, the material from which it is made. A collar of fluffy gray fox harmonizes charmingly with the many-toned effect.

FOR THE TODDLER

Overalls of colored sateen are very smart garments for the toddling child. Sometimes they have embroidered pockets and sometimes a little yarn or coarse thread is used to illustrate some Mother Goose tale on the front of the garment.

LINGERIE.

Lingerie was never more rainbow-hued than now. We have become accustomed to blues and pinks, but green, yellow, lavender and tan do seem a bit surprising until one becomes acustomed to them.

To increase and preserve thy beauty so that thou shalt be well favoured in the eyes of men, anoint thy face daily with

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural colour and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural colour and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Not Flattering To Elinor Glynn.

Whether Elinor Glyn would have been complimented or otherwise had she been present at a certain local theatre the other evening, is a matter of conjecture. The authoress of literature which has never, by general opinion, been considered exactly fit for immature consumption, has just recently broken into the "movies" as a composer of screen romances. The production of her initial attempt was filmed at this theatre, and a certain young man attached to the regiment now in camp, was present with several companions. Before a large and interested out-going audience from the upper balcony, he sat with bowed head, slumbering peacefully as the crowd filtered out. Finally, when his "companions had faded and gone' he still remained, like the 'last rose of summer" wrapped in blissful oblivion, deaf alike to retreating footsteps and to the giggles of delighted appreciation from the onlookers. It took three decisive shakes and a series of loud calls from a returning "buddy" to awaken this young man from his slumbers, and to a realization of the fact that the show was over, and the picture had reached the usual satisfactory finale.

Freckle-Face
Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.
Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

TEACHERS' GUILD ENDED SCHEDULE.

The Women Teachers' Guild of the city, which holds regular monthly meetings throughout the year, wound up its schedule for this season with a recent motor trip to Cobourg, where dinner was served at the hotel. The meetings will be resumed in the fall.

The Guild co-operate with the Home and School Associations of the city on the occasion of their annual picnics and exhibits of school work, when the teachers assist in every possible way.

MISS HAZEL HUNTINGTON, PRIMA DONNA SOPRANO.

Music lovers will be delighted when this New York Opera and Concert Star appears for a programme at Chautauqua this summer, supported by the London pianist, Mr. Herbert Macfarren, and his instrumental quartette of artists.

SECOND DAYS.

From Niagara Daily Review: — "This is truly the 'Music Lovers' Program.' For an hour and a half in the afternoon and a solid two hours in the evening, there was placed before the audienc in rapid succession the finest from the best of music.

"Herbert MacFarren is a splendid pianist and he is supported by a company of real musicians. The work of this group was received with splendid enthusiasm here, in spite of the fact that weather conditions and the noise of traffic made the situation far from ideal.

"Miss Hazel Huntington will long be remembered here. Without question she is the finest soloist who has yet appeared on the Chautauqua programmes in Ontario. Her programme presented a delightful variety of numbers. While her aria from La Traviata by Verdi was splendidly given and drew forth a great burst of applause, there were still many who were especially pleased with her simpler songs such as "By the Waters of Minnetonka," "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," "The Lass with a Delicate Air," "The Serenade," by Shubert, was an especially fine piece of work, and was greatly enjoyed apparently by every one."

Announcement is made that Mr. Hartwell De Mille of Toronto, has been appointed Superintendent of the Peterboro Chautauqua, with Miss Coburn, also of Toronto, as Junior Supervisor.

Mothers are advised to see that the children meet Miss Coburn at the park at the Free Junior Meeting on Monday afternoon.

GOOD SUMMER GARB FOR ACTIVE CHILDREN

Not a frill to be seen. Not an extra tuck, pleat or flounce. They are sternly utilitarian and their only concessions to gaiety are bits of smocking or yarn embroidery.

The aprons—of black satin or bright colored cretonnes—may be worn over a little dress, or, in hot weather, instead of one. They are recomended especially for making castles by the sea.

The bloomer dresses may be of colored chambray gingham, black satine or lighter materials—dimity, swiss organdie—and they are recomended especially for climbing apple trees.

Simple to make and to launder, these are "the fittest" survivors in the struggle that has eliminated the doll's dress type of clothing for all normal modern children.

PROHIBITION HAS REDUCED POVERTY.

Families in New York State Benefit By Law.

NEW YORK, June 29—(Associated Press).—Prohibiton has been a big actor in cutting down poverty in families accordng to statistics just issued by the American Association for Oranizing Family Social Work of New York and the Boston Family Welfare Society. In ten of the 17 cities listed, however, there were more families under care during the "dry year" than in the "wet" year.

Mrs. William T. Tilton, chairman of the Boston society, declares that figures in the survey which she conducted, prove that there has been a reduction of 85 per cent in cases here drink was a factor in the poverty of the families included.

"Such good results under partial enforcement", she continued "are significant of what we may expect when the dry law is properly enforced. They are not just statistics, but they represent human beings made happier by the absence of intoxicants from their lives".

New York City, according to the figures has shown a reduction of 64 per cent, the years used being 1917 and 1921. Rochester's reduction is 81 per cent. Newburgh's 99, St. Louis 94, Chicago 86, Boston 91, Pawtucket 100, Atlantic City 82, Newport R.I. 68, Portland, Me. 95 Cleveland 84, La Crosse, Wis., 91, Portland Ore. 40 per cent increase Hartford, Conn., 93, Washington, D. C., 75; and Providence, R.I., 95.

NEW COTTAGES AT STONEY LAKE

JUNIPER ISLAND, Stoney Lake, June 29. — Mr. Geo. Guillett, of Montreal, is building a new cottage west of Westaway, the headquarters of the Guillett family for many summers.

Mr. Clarke, of Peterborough, has a pretty cottage under construction west of Mr. H. F. Foote's cottage near Hurrican Point.

Mr. Fred Weir, of Peterborough, is building a very pretty cottage on Wrangel Island, near Boschink Narrows. Mr. and Mrs. Weir are up for a few days, and expect to move up for the summer on Monday.

Mr. Allan Hunter has built a dear little bungalow on Fish Island, near Mount Julian, and has improved the island very much. The cottage is low and very comfy, and will not be agected by high winds.

Mr. George McLeod, of Toronto, who purchased Minnewawa from Miss Traill two years ago, has replaced the old cottage, which was one of the landmarks of the lake, by a fine new bungalow built on the old site. Mr. McLeod, who arrived at the lake on Wednesday, saw his cottage for the first time when he arrived.

Summer Lounging Robes And Pajamas for men

Pajamas and lounging robes in all fabrics suitable to hot weather are being displayed in New York men's shops.

The house coats and lounging robes are substantial silks—foulard is most popular. It is a heavy-weight printed foulard and is shown in two-toned effects often with the cuffs and collar of the garment of another patterned material. Brocaded stuffs are also used a great deal.

Shantung is popular, too, for these robes and foulard collar and cuffs are used for contrast.

Pajamas are of all manner of lightweight cotton materials, as well as of radium, habutai and othe silks.

The pajamas, like the robes, are found in a great variety of colors—so that a man who hides his soul in a blue serge suit all day may blossom out in lavender pajamas and a sunset colored lounging robe in the evening.

GERMAN OPERA CO. TO TOUR CANADA

NEW YORK, June 29.— (Canadian Presi.)—Canadian citieo are to be included in a tour which a German opera company contemplates for next season, according to despatches from Berlin. The company is being specially organized for a season in the principal cities of the American continent by George Hartmann, director of the German Opera Opera House in Berlin. There will be 250 people, including principals, chorus, orchestra and stage hands. They will present a repertoire of Wagner.

STAGE IS SET FOR BOYS' CAMP STONEY LAKE

JUNIPER ISLAND, Stoney Lake, June 29.—The new camp for boys, which is the result of the efforts of the Rotary Club of Peterborough, is ready for business and should prove a boon to many little chaps during this season. It is situated on the east shore of Clear lake, and is well removed from other summer cottages.

The buildings are constructed for comfort and with a view to making the boys happy and comfortable. There is a main cottage with smaller huts built about it, the number of the latter can be easily increased if there is need of it.

Rumor says an excellent ball field is just above the camp and it will no doubt be in great demand. Judging by the gigantic wood pile on the shore there will be no scarcity of fuel for years to come. There is pressing need of a wharf and some bright person suggested that the work of building it would be splendid manual training for the boys, under a competent instructor. As the shore at this point is very sloping it is impossible for the steamer to make a landing. One feels that the kind thoughts which prompted this splendid work will extend further and provide a suitable wharf in the near future.

RATEPAYERS OF HASTINGS HEAR POWER REPORTS

HASTINGS, June 29.—A meeting of the ratepayers of the village was held in the Town Hall, but the number of citizens who turned out was very small.

Reeve Fowlds was the first speaker and pointed out the only four things to do in again considering aid for Fowlds Co., Ltd.: First, to put Fowlds by-law to the people a second time, which their solicitor in Peterborough advised them on Monday would be quite legal. Second, to try and induce Hydro to operate here. Third, public ownership. Fourth, to form a joint stock company.

The next speaker was the clerk of the town, Mr. Alex. Wilson, who thought it advisable to form a joint stock company and sell shares at $40 each.

Councillor Coughlan was the next speaker, and he explained what Mr. O'Brien, of Peterborough, told them Monday, and he thought it advisable to buy the street line from Fowlds Co., Ltd., and then buy the power from Fowlds.

Councillor Lynch informed the ratepayers that Mr. G. N. Gordon was away from home Monday, and that Mr. O'Brien did not know much about a deal like this, but thought the first thing to do was to put a second by-law to the people.

Councillor Plant said he was elected by the people of Hastings to look after their interests, and he was going to do so. He gave some figures of what the Hydro might cost, and he said it was told around town if the Hydro came it would cost a lot more money as every house would have to be re-wired, and he went on to say that if an inspector came to town to-morrow he could demand the people to have their houses wired whether under Hydro or Fowlds Co., Ltd.

Councillor Montgomery had nothing to say.

Mr. Fowlds, manager of Fowlds Co. electric light plant, in his speech, said it was hard to be beat by a two majority, and he was born here and always lived here. He could not see when he was down that the people wanted to put him down and out altogether.

Reeve Fowlds called for a show of hands if the people wanted the by-law sent to them the second time, and it was supported by 23 in favor of voting on loaning Fowlds Co., Ltd., $7,000.

Teach Co-Eds to be Better Wives

FLORENCE A. OTIS.

A young unmarried college girl soon will be showing the University of Cincinnati how to turn out—

Better wives!

The course will take five years—two of which will be purely academic. The rest will be professional. Students will be able to work at their calling while studying.

"Home making is the greatest profession of all" Miss Otis says. 'Yet we rarely think about it in that light. Why shouldn't we?

"This course will give grls especiall good preparation for going into the profession—either in an institution or at home—because it combines university training with actual experience in the work."

THE BIG GAME OF THE SEASON

Cobourg - Peterboro Clash on Saturday Morning Has the Whole Circuit Excited

DERRY VS. "HECK."

The eyes of the Central League fans will be turned on the Cobourg-Peterborough game at Riverside Park on Saturday morning for the outcome of this battle will have a very important effect upon the League standing. Both teams need the victory—Cobourg to stay out in the front, and the Petes to keep in the running.

Yesterday's win at Port Hope means that the Solomon crew are still very much in the race, and by disposing of Cobourg in the Dominion Day fixture the Petes will have their drive for first section honours well under way.

Saturday's game is the crucial one, and with so much at stake the struggle promises to be the most exciting of the season.

Heckman, who turned in a great game at Port Hope yesterday will do the heaving for the Petes, while Derry, Cobourg's first stringer pitcher, is expected to oppose the Petes' ace.

It is the first appearance of the Cobourg team in Peterborough this year. They have some new faces for the fans to look at, McCaffery, the first baseman, and Yackell, a new outfielder hailing from over the border, while Thompson, the shortstop, like Derry, migrated from Kingston. They have been getting good pitching from Derry, and have in addition been hitting in timely fashion and fielding cleverly.

The game is called for 10.15 o'clock, and looks like the big event of the year.

In the afternoon, the fast St. Andrew's team of Toronto will be the guests of the Petes. The afternoon game is billed for 3.15 o'clock.

On Wednesday next Belleville will be here for a Central League game.

Here is the

COBOURG WON FROM LEASIDE

Fast Double Play in Ninth Stopped Leaside Rally.

TORONTO, June 9—(Special.)—Cobourg defeated Leaside in the ninth inning after a very close and exciting game, by the score of 5-4.

McCaffery started for Cobourg, but was replaced by Derry in the third inning, after Leaside had scored three runs. Skitch, for Cobourg, led the batters with 2 two-base hits, while Turpin, Higginbottom, Jones and Dury collected two apiece. A fast double play in the ninth inning by Cobourg stopped a Leaside rally after Annon had hit safely with none out. Score by innings:

The players were: King George—Mary Lipsett, Isabell Cooper, Dorothy Cooper, Olive Howland, Doris Hawkes, Rose Walsh, Madge Hanna, Jean Wheeler, Florence Evans and Genevieve Foster.

Colonial Weavers—Lillian Wade, Clara Robinson, June Bradshaw, Frances Legon, Annie Burns, Doris Goodwin, Ida Eggleson, Nellie Thomas, Violet Wade and Trixie Wade.

LINDSAY WALLOPS BELLEVILLE TEAM

Snappy Fielding By the Birds Plays Big Part in Winning the Game.

BELLEVILLE, June 29.—(Special to the Examiner)—In one of the hardest fought games ever played here, the Greybirds defeated the Grand Trunks 8 to 4. Belleville used a new right hand twirler, Ray Mallen, up till the seventh inning, and Jack Williams then finished the game. Chuck Allen for the Greybirds was hammered out of the box in the third inning when Belleville got three hits and one run off him. He was then relieved by Oulette, who finished the game strong. Lindsay fielded like demons and hit safely, while Belleville was very weak with the willow and both pitchers were weak. The Trunks led up till the fifth when Oulette broke up the game with a two bagger, which scored two men.

Strike outs—by Mallen 9; by Williams 4; by Allen 1; by Oulette 5.

A great catch in center field robbed Soden of a hit that looked like a sure two bagger yesterday.

MANY STARS IN SAINTS' ROSTER

St. Andrew's Team of Toronto Will Meet Petes Here on Saturday.

LEAGUE LEADERS.

The St. Andrew's team of Toronto who will meet the Peterboro Central League team at Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon are the leaders of the Toronto Senior League and are challengers for the S.P.A. trophy now held by the Oslers. They will provide formidable opposition for the Petes and their visit on the holiday afternoon with Cobourg coming in the morning for a League game will give the fans two great exhibitions of baseball as a Dominion Day bill-of-fare. The calibre of the Saints is shown by the following dope on the men who will be seen in action on Saturday.

Half of the women enrolled at the University of Wisconsin are willing to marry a man on a salary of $2500 a year.

NEAT VICTORY FOR PETES AT PORT HOPE

Killing two jinxes through winning a game away from home and beating Port Hope on their own grounds, the Petes informed the Central League crews that they are still in the race, at Port Hope last night, by taking the Ontarios into into camp 5 runs to 3. It was the first road victory of the year for Manager Solomon's outfit and the first time since 1920 that they have been able to emerge victorious from a brush with the Chalk-Hills aggregation on their own lot, and naturally the whole gang from bat boy to manager are tickled to death.

To Al Heckman goes the lion's share of the honours. The Petes ace held the Port Hopers to five hits and one earned run, fanned thirteen of them and breezed along steadily and confidently like the fine pitcher he is. His support, although much steadier than it has been in other games away from home, wobbled at times, but Heckman's speed of arm and cunning rose triumphant over all difficulties and he wound up the battle in a blaze of glory by striking out the last three batters with a Port Hope runner left stranded on third. In addition to his super fine pitching "Heck" was also in the limelight by reason of a timely wallop for three bases that drove in a run and placed him in a position to score on an infield out.

Manager Solomon presented another shifted line-up, a shake-up having been inevitable after the Oshawa showing. Dugan was back at the initial sack, where he handled himself nicely, and Hunter, shortstop of last year's Cressman team, made his Central League debut at third base. Port Hope is a tough place in which to break into fast company, but the youngster gave a good account of himself with two nice hits and a sacrifice in four times up, and in spite of one fumble, looking good in the field.

The Petes got to Deer for eleven solid wallops, Swanston showing the way with three safe ones and Heckman, Hunter and Rutherford helping themselves to two each, but the little Port Hope right hander was good in the pinches.

The fielding features were contributed by Reg. Fair, the Port Hope centre fielder, who made a fine running catch of Soden's drive in the second, and Rutherford, the Petes' shortstop, who ran back into left and made a beautiful catch of Rowden's bid for a hit. Micks, Port Hope's second baseman, handled seven chances in faultless fashion.

How They Scored.

Neither team scored in the first. For the Petes, Rutherford fanned, Johnston flied to Fair and Swanston was thrown out by Deer.

For Port Hope, Rowden got a life when Johnston dropped his fly. Hills was out for bunting foul on the third strike, after which Rowden stole second. Teeple missed three and Rutherford tossed out Hall.

In the second, for the Petes, Heckman drew a pass, but Shaughnessy repeated Hills' feat of bunting foul on the third strike. Fair made a beautiful running catch of Soden's hard rap to right centre and Micks grabbed Collins' steaming roller and tossed out the batter.

Port Hope broke into the run column in their end of the same innings. After Chalk had fanned and Swanston had made a fine catch of McNeill's foul near the stand, Fair was safe on Johnston's fumble of his roller. Fair then stole second and third, getting the benefit of a bad decision at the difficult corner when he slid over the bag. Micks' single to centre sent the run in, but Deer missed three.

The Petes got that one back with interest in the third. Dugan started the fun by working Deer for a pass. Hunter laid down a bunt for a sacrifice, but Chalk heaved the ball into right field, Dugan going to third and Hunter to second. Rutherford's single to centre scored Dugan and sent Hunter to third, from which station he scored when Fair muffed Johnston's short fly back of second. Swanston bunted safely, filling the bases. Heckman's long foul fly to Hall enabled Rutherford to scamper across the platter, after which Shaughnessy struck out and Soden rolled to Micks.

Slow outfielding gave the Ontarios a counter in their half. After Rowden had whiffed, Hills singled to left, Shaughnessy making no attempt to get under the drive. Hills stole second. Teeple missed three, but Hall singled though short, and when Shaughnessy let the ball roll through, Hills scored and Hall reached second. Manager Solomon shook up his outfield at this stage, replacing Shaughnessy, who had a bad knee, with Kirn, the latter going to right field, while Soden moved up to left. Chalk fanned, the third strike-out of the innings for Heckman.

The Petes had an opening in the fourth, but failed to avail themselves of the chance. Collins, first up, was safe, when Teeple's throw pulled Hillls off the bag. He was forced at second on Dugan's bunt to Deer. Dugan then stole second. Hunter struck out, but Rutherford singled to short and stole second. Johnston rolled to Micks to wind up the innings.

Heckman's Wallop.

The Solomon crew earned two runs in the fifth Swanston opened with a clean single to centre, and then Heckman drove a beauty to right centre for three bases, sending his catcher in, while he rode home himself a moment later when Kirn grounded to Micks. Soden was safe on Teeple's fumble, but Collins popped to Micks and Soden was caught off first by Deer.

For Port Hope, Deer missed three, Rowden was given a base on a dead ball, but died stealing, and Hills struck out.

Dugan opened Peterborough's sixth with a tap to Teeple, who threw him out at first. Hunter singled on a line to left, but was forced at second on Rutherford's bunt to Rowden. Rutherford was thrown out in an attempt to steal second.

Port Hope did better in their half. Teeple drew a pass and stole second. Hall flied to Kirn in right and Chalk fanned, but McNeill's short single to right scored Teeple. Swanston threw McNeill out when he tried to steal.

The Petes wasted two hits in the seventh. Rowden tossed Johnston out to start with, but Swanston got his third hit in succession, a clean drive to centre. Heckman flied to McNeil. Kirn doubled to left, but Soden's best was a fly to Teeple.

In Port Hope's section of the inning, Fair was thrown out by Rutherford and Micks rolled to Johnston. Deer walked, but Rutherford made a pretty catch of Rowden's fly back of short. He collided with Soden on this play and was knocked out for a minute or two.

The eighth opened auspiciously for the Petes, when Collins singled past Micks, but he died stealing. Dugan fanned. Hunter singled, a line drive which Rowden deflected to Teeple. Hunter stole second. Rutherford struckout.

A couple of errors threatened trouble in Port Hope's half, but Heckman was master of the situation. Hunter tossed out Hills and Johnston handled Teeple's roller neatly. Hall hit to Rutherford, who fumbled, and the batter was safe. Hutchings, pinch-hitting for Bob Chalk, got a life on a similar play. Hunter missing his roller. McNeill's tap to Heckman retired the side.

In the ninth, Johnston fouled to Hall, who had replaced Chalk behind the bat, and Swanston was thrown out by Micks Heckman singled over second. Kirn flied to McNeill in right.

A Strong Finish

Fair opened Port Hope's last inning by singling sharply through short, after which he stole second and third, getting another lucky decision on the second theft He got nothing but exercise out of his baserunning, however, for Heckman did the hat trick by fanning Micks, O'Neill who batted for Deer, and Rowden, in a row, leaving Fair still perched on third. It was a great wind-up to a sterling exhibition of pitching. The box score:

MORE SMOKE LESS MONEY

Consumption of Tobacco Increases As Prices Go Down at L. Yeotes' Big Sale.

More smoke than noise followed Louis Yeote's big tobacco sale announcement. Smokers found they could save so much money at the sale prices, that they bought more and smoked more ,raising a bigger smoke than ever.

Yesterday's announcement sets closing of the sale for Saturday night and the advice to lay in a large supply of smokes for the holiday is a friendly one. Perhaps it would be as well to look ahead farther than just Dominion Day, as money saved these days counts.

CHARLIE LEONARD IS SUSPENDED FOR FOUL

NEW YORK, June 29.—(Canadian Press)—The New York State Boxing Commission at its weekly meeting, took no action as far as the principals were concerned in the regard to the sudden termination of the bout between Benny Leonard and Jack Britton Tuesday night, which was severely criticized by sporting writers.

The Commission, however, announced the suspension of Charley Leonard, brother of Benny, who acted as one of the lightweight's seconds, for jumping into the ring before the referee announced his decision.

This offence, it was pointed out, constituted a foul under the boxing rules and would have been sufficient to bring about the lightweight king's disqualification even if he had not struck Britton while the latter was on his knees.

A RADIO AMATEUR STRANDED IN HILLS USES A RADIO SET.

Puts 'Phone Set to Novel Use — A Way Out of a Difficulty.

By PAUL F. GODLEY,
America's Foremost Radio Authority.

Have you ever been stranded in a broken-down auto many miles from a house or telephone?

A radio amateur once found himself in this predicament—with a snapped rear axle in an Arizona desert some 40 miles from the nearest phone, with no possibilities of meeting any passersby for 16 hours!

There was nothing to eat and no water to drink. The sun had gone down; the coyotes were beginning to cry in the hills.

The only signs of civilization were a few telephone wires supported on steel poles, as they took a short cut over the hills and valleys, and a lonely tin shack left some years before by Government surveyors.

A Way Out.

The problem was how to so alter the circumstances with the resources available as to make it possible to get to a hotel where food, shelter and rest awaited. Thoughts of spending the night on the desert without nourishment and with no sleeping equipment were not lightly put aside. There was a baby in the party.

To this amateur, the telephone line suggested possibilities. It meant a telephone connection, providing the proper apparatus were available. The only other thing to be seen which was not scenery was the tin shack.

A mountainside was climbed, and the shack entered. Good fortune had left an antiquated type of telephone within the shack. Years of idleness had rotted the cords. The batteries were worthless. The ringing device would not operate.

But the magnetic telephone receiver was still intact and in good condition. It was taken out and examined, carried aloft on the telephone pole, and connected across a likely looking pair of wires.

A few seconds later a beautiful voice said, "Hello, Phoenix." No opportunity was given for further conversation here. This amateur immediately interrupted, explaining rapidly to the Phoenix operator who he was and the nature of his predicament.

Rescued.

She was interested and agreed to arrange to send garage men with spare parts and food, and she kept her promise. Three and a half hours later, these men put in their appearance, and by half past 2 in the morning, the 60 miles between the lonely desert location and Phoenix had been covered, and the entire party was deep in slumber.

The stage drivers between Globe and Phoenix today carry magnetic telephone receivers for just such emergencies. They got their idea from a radio amateur.

Many times circumstances will warrant the use of telephone lines in this way, and the radio magnetic telephone will turn the trick.

P. D. Powell, of the U. S. Bureau of Standards, has invented a vacuum tube radio receiving set without the batteries. Instead, the current usually obtained from the batteries, comes from an ordinary electric lamp socket.

ROYAL—For this week end the Royal features "The Ragged Heiress," the romance of a poor girl who was rich, but didn't know it. Also balance of a first class picture programme.

The Capitol offers an act that is outside the usual beaten path of Vaudeville in "The Three Yaquis". The feature picture presentation will be Enid Bennett in 'Keeping up With Lizzie" also a Christie Comedy entitled "Exit Quietly" featuring Bobby Vernon. Just the usual Capitol prices.

HERE'S A SILENT STAR.

Enid Bennett is the only star in captivity who absolutely refuses at all times to give interviews, tell stories, talk about herself or comment upon people and things for publication. She is at once the despair of press agents and the hope of future generations, for her example gives promise of a new school of film stars who shall be cospicious by their absence from the public prints, leaving it to the silent screen and to the blazing electric lights to spread their fame and glory

THE AUTHOR.

Irving Bacheller stands as the foremost and, incidentally, the most typically American writer in the field of literature. He is a man whose very book is a "best seller," simply because it is real and true and vital.

All of his books are extraordinary He has never written one that was unsuccessful. Beginning with "Eben Holden" his first literary triumph, the list reads as follows: "A Man for the Ages" "Keeping up With William," " The Light in the Clearing," "Silas Strong" "D'ri and I," "The Master," "Darrell of the Blessed Isles," "Charge It," "The Turning of Griggsby," "The Handmade Gentlemn" and "Eben Holden's Last Day a-Fishing".

In this splendid array there is no one book so individually popular as "Keeping Up With Lizzie" for it will find a response in every heart so typical is it of the life that daily we see about us. And patrons of the motion picture theatres owe a deep debt to Irving Bacheller for having made available for screen usage a story which is possessed of such splendid humor and true entertainment values.

BOWMANVILLE GOT WHITEWASH BRUSH

Poor Support for Stocking Makers Causes Disastrous Defeat.

BOWMANVILLE, June 29. — (Special to The Examiner.)—Oshawa administered a coat of whitewash to the local ball team yesterday afternoon to the tune of 8 to 0. Somerville, a High school lad, pitched the first six innings, when all the runs were scored, and kept the hits scattered with the exception of the fourth innings. Had he been given better support in the field the score would have been much closer, McMurty at short being benched after making three errors, each contributing a run for Oshawa. Patton pitched steady ball for the winners and had seven strike outs to his credit. Moise had a busy day at centre, accepting six chances perfectly. The line-up and score:

Bowmanville—Moise, c.f.; Starke, 3b.; Mingeaud, 2b.; Hicks, l.f.; Moore, r.f.; Corben, 1b.; McMurty and Blader, s.s.; A. Piper, c.; Somerville and Chambers, p.

MR. G. O. CAMERON BOOSTS PETERBORO

Says This City Right at Door of Garden of Eden

As a booster for his old town, even though he is far away from here at the present moment, Mr. G. O. Cameron, formerly manager of the local Bell telephone plant, and now editor of the company's official publication, the "Blue Bell," with headquarters in Montreal, cannot be surpassed. This is the way he introduces an article in the June number of the "Blue Bell," an article which is headed "Peterborough, the Industrial City," and decorated lavishly with cuts of the Lift Lock, the bridge, several factories of Peterborough, and scenes from "beauty spots" in our vicinity, not forgetting excellent inset photos of Mayor Taylor, City Clerk Armstrong, and two members of the local plant, Manager McHardy and Plant Chief A. A. Smith. (Does Mr. Cameron consider this quartette the nicest-looking or merely the most important four of the prominent citizens of Peterborough?):

"'Right at the door of the Garden of Eden.' This is the modest claim of life-long residents in describing the location of the city of Peterborough. And who can gainsay them?" So commences the lively article, which contains various complimentary references to our fair city, including a paragraph about fish and wild ducks, which says: "We'll be honest about it; they're the biggest, the sportiest, and there's more of 'em than can be found anywhere." There are numerous nice things said also about the various industrial establishments; "the historic Trent Valley Canal," the new bridge, public utilities, and civic improvements generally.
